These catalogs provide information regarding all of the undergraduate and graduate programs offered by Georgia State University during the 2017-2018 academic year. The statements made in this catalog are for informational purposes only and should not be construed as the basis of a contract between a student and this institution.

Although Georgia State University has made every reasonable effort to present the information contained in this catalog with factual accuracy, no responsibility is assumed by the university for editorial or clerical errors. At the time of production and posting to the website, the text of this catalog most accurately described the course offerings, programs, faculty listings, policies, procedures, regulations, and requirements of the university. While the provisions of this catalog will ordinarily be applied as stated, Georgia State University reserves the right to change any provision listed in this catalog, including but not limited to academic requirements for graduation, without actual notice to individual students. Every effort will be made to keep students advised of any such changes. Information on changes will be available online in Catalog Addendums. Changes by colleges are also available in the Office of the Dean. It is the student’s individual responsibility to be aware of current graduation requirements for his or her particular degree program.

Georgia State University is one of the nation’s largest universities, with more than 32,000 students on its Atlanta campus and another 21,000 on its five suburban campuses. An enterprising public research university, it is a national leader in graduating students from diverse backgrounds. Its Atlanta campus in the heart of the city provides its students and faculty with unsurpassed connections to the city’s business, government, nonprofit and cultural communities as well as opportunities in an environment of varied ideas, cultures, ages, lifestyles and experiences. Atlanta, home to more than a dozen headquarters of Fortune 500 companies, provides Georgia State’s faculty and students with an urban laboratory, enabling them to draw creative inspiration and address critical societal issues locally and in cities around the world.

Through its consolidation with Georgia Perimeter College in early 2016 Georgia State offers at its Perimeter College campuses two-year and online programs that provide access to higher education for students from all walks of life and streamlines their pursuit of a four-year degree at Georgia State.

Georgia State has a university-wide commitment to student advising and attention to student progress to graduation. The university is nationally recognized as a leader in creating innovative approaches that foster the success of students from all academic, socio-economic, racial and ethnic backgrounds. Georgia State is one of a handful of large institutions nationwide using technology to track students from the moment they arrive on campus until they graduate to ensure progress. With the university’s early warning tracking system, struggling students get the intervention they need to get back on track, improve or change their academic path. Georgia State is among the most diverse universities in the nation.

The university’s 10-year strategic plan, introduced in 2011, aims to enhance research and discovery, in part by implementing a faculty hiring initiative to build scholarly strength around interdisciplinary research themes. It also focuses on efforts to make the university a leader in undergraduate student success and puts renewed emphasis on improving graduate education. The plan emphasizes the university’s commitment to addressing issues and problems confronting cities around the globe and establishes as a priority the institution’s initiatives to extend its global involvement and influence.

Georgia State, founded in 1913, is central to the revitalization of downtown Atlanta, expanding its campus and building a more growing student residential community. More than 5,000 students now live in residence halls on a campus that once served commuting students exclusively. Its efforts to enhance student life and campus involvement included the introduction of a Division 1 football program in 2010 and membership in the Sun Belt athletic conference of the NCAA’s Football Bowl Subdivision in 2013.

On its Atlanta campus, the university offers 55 undergraduate and graduate degree programs in more than 250 fields of study in its ten academic colleges and schools, the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies, the Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions, the College of the Arts, the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Education and Human Development, the Institute for Biomedical Sciences, the College of Law and the J. Mack Robinson College of Business. Its Honors College attracts students with outstanding academic credentials. Perimeter College offers 33 associate degree programs at its campuses in Alpharetta, Clarkston, Decatur, Dunwoody and Newton, and it has a robust online academic program.
1010 Mission Statement

Georgia State University, an enterprising public research university, transforms the lives of students, advances the frontiers of knowledge and strengthens the workforce of the future. The university provides an outstanding education and exceptional support for students from all backgrounds. Georgia State readies students for professional pursuits, educates future leaders, and prepares citizens for lifelong learning. Enrolling one of the most diverse student bodies in the nation, the university provides educational opportunities for tens of thousands of students at the graduate, baccalaureate, associate, and certificate levels.

Georgia State’s scholarship and research focus on solving complex issues ranging from the most fundamental questions of the universe to the most challenging issues of our day. The scholarly work and artistic expression of the university’s faculty create new knowledge, extend the boundaries of imagination, and enhance student learning. The university’s presence in the Atlanta metropolitan area provides extraordinary experiential learning opportunities and supports the work of faculty tackling the challenges of an urbanizing nation and world.

1020 Accreditation

Georgia State University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools: Commission on Colleges (SACS-COC) to award associate’s, baccalaureate, masters, specialist and doctorate degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Georgia State University.

1040 Academic Resources

1040.10 Libraries

Georgia State University is served by two libraries on the Atlanta campus: the University Library and the College of Law Library, and library services at each of the Perimeter College campuses. The University Library occupies two buildings, North and South, bridged by a four-story glass link. The building includes 55 group study rooms, v-rooms equipped with 60 inch wall monitors and multimedia connection table boxes, a one-button studio to create high-quality and polished video projects using a flash drive and the push of a single button, quiet study on the 5th floor and a variety of other comfortable study spaces. Through the library website, students can access millions of resources instantly, including ebooks, databases, journals, and government documents. The library holds 1.5 million print volumes, and has borrowing agreements with libraries worldwide. Subject-specialist librarians consult with students and faculty, and assistance with basic research is available in person and online. A variety of technology services are provided and supported, including over 400 computers, plus wireless access. Laptops and tablets are among equipment available for checkout. The library’s Collaborative University Research and Visualization Environment (CURVE) provides access to high end computing resources, including a 24-foot-wide video wall designed for collaborative visual and data-rich research projects, seven additional collaborative workstations, some with 4K displays, and high-powered PCs and Mac Pros that allow users to work with and manipulate large images and datasets. Each workstation is equipped with a large display that can accommodate up to six people, allowing multiple groups to work together on a research problem. The University Library’s Special Collections and Archives preserve and digitize rare and historical materials. Library services at each of the five Perimeter College campuses provide collections, computer workstations, in-person assistance and online support for two-year degree and certificate programs in arts and humanities, science, business, health sciences, education and social science. For information about the University Library and its hours, visit library.gsu.edu or call 404-413-2820. For information about Perimeter College library services, visit library.gsu.edu/home/information-for-you/perimeter-college/

The College of Law Library provides faculty, students, and staff with the information resources and services that are necessary to support effective legal instruction and research. The Law Library is open 103 hours per week, seven days a week. Assistance is accessible remotely via e-mail and chat with librarians, and the library provides 24/7 access to online collections and resources. Primary service areas are circulation, reference, faculty research support, legal research instruction, interlibrary loan, and student law journal support. For information about the Law Library and its hours, visit lawlibrary.gsu.edu.

1040.20 Information Systems and Technology

Information Systems and Technology (IS&T) provides students with innovative technology services, learning tools and computing support. Services include access to campus wireless, email, online storage and file-sharing, and free software, such as Microsoft Office Suite and anti-virus. Open-access computer labs across campus offer printing stations, device charging stations, equipment checkout, and specialized academic software. Free on-demand technology training is available online from Lynda.com and Skillsoft, and students are invited to attend complimentary, in-person technology workshops.

For a complete list of available services and instructions for getting started with campus technology, visit: technology.gsu.edu. For technical support, contact the IS&T Help Center at help@gsu.edu, 404-413-HELP (4357), or visit the Walk-Up Help Desk on the concourse level of Aderhold Learning Center.

1040.30 Alpharetta Center

In addition to the downtown campus, Georgia State University provides instruction at the Alpharetta Center. At the Alpharetta Center, the university offers graduate business and education credit classes, as well as non-degree programs for those living or working in the northern metropolitan area. The Alpharetta Center is located at 3705 Brookside Parkway, Alpharetta, Georgia. For Alpharetta Center information, call 404-413-2200.

The Robinson College of Business also offers the Executive MBA program, Professional MBA, Executive Doctorate in Business, Global Partner's MBA, One Year Master of Science Programs as well as non-degree

1040.40 The Welcome Center

The Welcome Center provides an official reception area and introduction to Georgia State University. Prospective students, visitors, alumni, faculty and staff can stop by for information about the university, its programs and activities.

The Welcome Center offers daily visit opportunities Monday through Friday, with 30-minute information sessions at 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., and 90-minute campus Atlanta tours at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Both will help familiarize you with our campus and downtown Atlanta.

The bus and walking tour highlights the advantages and excitement of going to school in Downtown Atlanta. The walking tour includes the University Center, Library, Recreation Center and various administrative and academic buildings. Guests will then ride the Panther Express buses to the modern residential halls. Complimentary parking is provided to visitors who register in advance for any of these sessions. For more information or to schedule a tour, please visit the Welcome Center online at welcome.gsu.edu. To schedule a special group tour for 10 to 50 people, please register online at http://welcome.gsu.edu/campus-visits/group-tour-request-form/ or call the Welcome Center at 404-413-2063. It is recommended that large groups have one adult chaperone for every 20 students, and dates are requested at least two weeks in advance of the desired visit.

The Welcome Center is located on the ground floor of Centennial Hall at 100 Auburn Avenue (corner of Courtland Street and Auburn Avenue). You may contact the Welcome Center at 404-413-2063 or by email to tourguide@gsu.edu.

1040.50 Alumni Association

The Georgia State University Alumni Association provides a wide variety of programs and services to keep alumni and students in touch, informed, involved and invested in their Alma Mater. The Alumni Association provides networking opportunities through academic, professional, special interest and regional alumni groups; leadership and volunteer opportunities in student recruitment and community service; the Student Alumni Association, which is a program that links current students to alumni; and social activities for rekindling friendships and fostering new ones.

The Alumni Association invites graduates back to campus during the year for special celebrations and lifelong learning and keeps graduates connected to Georgia State and to each other through the Georgia State University magazine and an electronic newsletter, Panther News.

In addition, the Alumni Association adds to the vitality of the university by annually awarding 25 student scholarships and honoring outstanding alumni and faculty through the Distinguished Faculty Awards and Distinguished Alumni Awards.
The Alumni Association also sponsors several programs for current students including the “Lunch and Learn” series of educational programs and the “Graduating Senior” series of informational seminars.

Anyone who has attended Georgia State is considered an alumnus or alumna. The Alumni Association is governed by a volunteer board of directors, and specific programs are carried out with the assistance of alumni volunteers and the Alumni Association staff. For more information, please call 404-413-2190 or 1-800-GSU-ALUM or visit the website at www.pantheralumni.com. The offices of the Alumni Association are located at 60 Piedmont Avenue.

1040.60 Foundation

The Georgia State University Foundation is the primary destination for all gifts to the university. The foundation is an independent, nonprofit, tax-exempt organization incorporated under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The foundation is classified as a public charity and contributions to the foundation qualify as charitable donations. Management of the foundation is vested in a self-perpetuating Board of Trustees, and the foundation receives an annual independent audit. Through its board and committee structure, the foundation gives alumni and other volunteers personal opportunities to help Georgia State accomplish its mission and goals.

The mission of the foundation is to raise, receive, manage, and disburse private gift funds for the benefit of Georgia State University. The majority of private support for scholarships, academic disciplines, endowments and other programs from individuals and organizations is contributed through the foundation. Several facilities, including 25 Park Place, the University Commons, the Rialto Center for the Arts, the Alpharetta Center, the Lofts and the Student Recreation Center were acquired as a result of the efforts of the foundation.

1050 Policies and Disclosures

1050.10 Equal Opportunity Policy

Georgia State University is an equal opportunity educational institution. Faculty, staff and students are admitted, employed, and treated without regard to race, sex, color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, or disability. Georgia State University complies with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, Sections 503/504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act, as well as other applicable federal, state and local laws. In compliance with these laws and regulations, Georgia State University has established the following specific policies:

Civil Rights and Equal Employment Opportunities — Georgia State provides equal employment and educational opportunities for all individuals without regard to race, sex, age, religion, color, national origin, sexual orientation or disability. All Georgia State University educational and personnel actions will be governed by an affirmative action program developed in compliance with applicable federal and state law and regulations, and the policies of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia.
Discriminatory and Sexual Harassment — In an effort to foster a community in which there can be a free and open development and discussion of ideas, Georgia State University is committed to maintaining a working and learning environment free of discriminatory and sexual harassment. Georgia State University has adopted policies and procedures concerning such forms of harassment that may be obtained from the Office of Opportunity Development/Diversity Education Planning, the Ombudsperson, or Dean of Students. In addition to the procedures outlined in these policies and procedures, a person alleging an instance of discriminatory or sexual harassment may file a complaint with the Office of Opportunity Development/Diversity Education Planning, the Ombudsperson, the Dean of Students, the respective college administrative unit and the appropriate state or federal agencies. Students can file complaints of sex discrimination with the Title IX coordinator, Linda J. Nelson, Assistant Vice President for Opportunity Development/Diversity Education Planning, in person at 460 Ten Park Place, by email at afaljn@langate.gsu.edu, by telephone at 404-413-3300 or by fax at 404-413-2560.

Disabilities — Georgia State University provides program accessibility and reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities. Specifically, the university provides evaluation of individual needs, advisement, and appropriate support for academic programs for identified persons with disabilities. A student with a disability has the responsibility of contacting the Office of Disability Services for an intake interview to assess his or her needs prior to the first semester of enrollment at Georgia State University. Should any problems arise concerning his or her academic program, the student should contact the Office of Disability Services at 230 Student Center (404-413-1560) as soon as possible.

1050.20 Disability Complaint Policy

Disability Accommodation Complaints

Students who disagree with eligibility or accommodation decisions made by the Office of Disability Services (ODS) may appeal the decision. The appeal must be submitted to the Director of ODS in writing within twenty (20) business days of the date of the decision. Further appeals will proceed up the line of report in accordance with the University’s established practices. Employees who disagree with eligibility or accommodation decisions made by the Office of Disability Services (ODS) may appeal the decision to the Assistant Vice President for Opportunity Development/Diversity Education Planning in writing within twenty (20) working days of the date of the decision. A copy of the Employee ADA Accommodation Policy and Procedures is located at http://odaa.gsu.edu/policies-procedures/equal-opportunity/equal-opportunity- and-affirmative-action-policy/.

Disability Discrimination Complaints

Georgia State University adheres to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 that was enacted to protect individuals with disabilities against discrimination. A student or employee of the University who believes they have been discriminated against on the basis of their disability may file a complaint with the Office of Opportunity Development. Complaints must be in writing and a discrimination complaint form is located at https://gsu-gme-advocate.symplicity.com/public_report. For more information, contact the Office of Opportunity Development, P.O. Box 3983, Atlanta, GA 30302-3983. Phone: 404-413-2567 Fax: 404-413-3295
1050.30 Disruptive Behavior Policy

The University has a policy that addresses student behavior in the learning environment that disrupts the educational process. In accordance with this policy, the University seeks resolution of disruptive conduct informally when possible. However, student conduct that disrupts the learning environment may result in sanctions up to and including withdrawal of the student from class. Students withdrawn from a course for disruptive behavior receive a grade of “W” or “WF”. The full text of the Disruptive Student Conduct Policy is available in the Office of the Dean of Students and at http://codeofconduct.gsu.edu/.

1050.40 University Code of Conduct

The University has established the policies and procedures that comprise the Student Code of Conduct to both promote the university mission and protect the rights of students, faculty and staff. The official University rules and regulations are contained in the Georgia State University General Catalog and the student handbook, On Campus. The most current version of the Student Code of Conduct may be found online at http://codeofconduct.gsu.edu/ each semester. In the event of a conflict between the Student Code of Conduct and other University policies, the most current version of the Code governs.

1050.50 Federal and State Law Disclosure Requirements

Federal and state laws require all colleges and universities receiving federal funds to establish certain programs, policies and procedures and to distribute an annual report describing the information and providing statistics regarding: graduation rates; drug, alcohol and weapon violations; and certain crimes on campus, which include murder, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft and sex offenses. The Georgia State University annual report and information regarding these programs, policies, procedures and statistics are available upon a written request directed to the Georgia State University Office of Public Information, 530 One Park Place South, Atlanta, Georgia 30303.

1050.60 Integrity in Research, Scholarly and Creative Activities

Georgia State University maintains high ethical standards in research and requires all faculty, staff and students engaged in research to comply with those standards. Cases of misconduct in research present a serious threat to continued public confidence in the integrity of the research process and the stewardship of federal funds. Misconduct includes fabrication or falsification of data, research procedures, or data analysis; destruction of data for fraudulent purposes; plagiarism; abuse of confidentiality; omission in publication of conflicting or non-conforming observations; theft of research methods or data; false attribution of authorization or creation of the creative works of another; and other practices that seriously deviate from those that are commonly accepted within the scholarly community for proposing, conducting or reporting research or creative works. Georgia State University will pursue allegations of misconduct to timely resolve all instances of alleged or apparent misconduct. To obtain a copy of the Research and Scholarly Misconduct Policy, the General Principles for Scholarly Integrity, and the Responsible Conduct of Research at Georgia State University publication, contact University Research Services and Administration, 217 Dahlberg Hall, 404-413-3500.
1050.70 Intellectual Property

In complying with the policies of the Board of Regents, Georgia State University has adopted an Intellectual Property Policy concerning the ownership and subsequent rights to intellectual property created by faculty, staff, and students. The Intellectual Property Policy pertains to any patentable inventions, biological materials, copyrightable materials, software, and trade secrets regardless of whether formal protection is sought. It is the responsibility of individual creators to disclose intellectual property to the University in a timely manner in accordance with the policy. To obtain a copy of the Intellectual Property Policy, contact University Research Services and Administration, 217 Dahlberg Hall, 404-413-3500.

1050.80 Student Complaints, Petitions for Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals

I. PURPOSE AND APPLICABILITY

Georgia State University seeks to maintain the highest standards of integrity and fairness in its relationships with students. The Undergraduate Catalog and the Graduate Catalog (both found at enrollment.gsu.edu/catalogs), and the Student Code of Conduct set forth policies and requirements for Georgia State students. Students are expected to know and comply with these policies. Students may, however, seek relief or resolution when they believe that:

A. The application of these policies and procedures will create undue hardship for them or will not recognize their extraordinary or extenuating circumstances; or
B. Specific actions, practices, or decisions on academic or non-academic matters have been made or carried out in an arbitrary, discriminatory, or inequitable manner.

The procedures set forth below cover complaints, petitions, and appeals related to University-wide and college-based policies. Individual colleges or departments may have additional or more specific procedures that may also apply to complaints, petitions, and appeals. Students are referred to the office of the dean of the particular college for information about additional or more specific procedures that apply. In case of conflict among policies, this University policy takes precedence over College and Departmental policies.

The following policies include their own complaint, petition, and waiver procedures. This policy may not be used in lieu of these policies:

1. Any policy for anyone other than a student to make a complaint, file a grievance, or request a waiver, such as policies that govern faculty and staff.
2. All policies in the student code of conduct
3. Hardship withdrawal policy
4. Discriminatory and sexual harassment policies
5. Disability policies
6. College of Law Honor Code
7. Student parking policy

The procedures set forth below are applicable to undergraduate and graduate students of the University.
All appeals under these procedures will be made based only on the written record. A student’s appeal under these procedures will be granted only if the student can prove by preponderance of evidence that a decision was arbitrary, discriminatory, or inequitable.

II. STUDENT COMPLAINTS ON ACADEMIC MATTERS

A. College-Level Academic Complaints

1. Final Course Grade Appeals

   - Students are encouraged to discuss concerns and disputes over final course grades with the instructor prior to filing a formal grade appeal, in an effort to gain understanding about the basis of his/her grade. Instructors are encouraged to be available to students for such discussion regarding grades so that grade disputes, to the extent possible, are resolved informally. The Office of the Ombudsperson can provide assistance to students, instructors and administrators with resolving disputes informally through voluntary facilitated discussions, in an effort to bring resolution to the matter prior to the initiation of a formal complaint.

   - In situations where such informal resolution does not occur or is not successful, the student may appeal the final course grade to the Department Chair. The appeal must be in writing and describe the precise reason for the appeal. Any pertinent information must be submitted with the appeal in order to be considered in this or subsequent appeals. The appeal must be submitted within 10 business days of the beginning of the academic term (fall, spring, and summer) that follows the term in which the final grade was submitted by the instructor. For example, if a student took an incomplete in a fall term course and completed the course works in the following spring semester, then an appeal of that grade must be submitted within 10 business days of the beginning of the summer term. The Department Chair will provide a decision in writing to the student, normally within 10 business days of the receipt of the complaint in the Department.

   - The student may appeal the decision of the Department Chair, as described in section 2-c through 2-e below.

2. Other College-Level Academic Complaints

   - Judgments on the suitability of academic decisions made within a college are most appropriately made by individuals with expertise in the particular academic discipline involved. For this reason, resolution of student complaints about college level academic decisions, actions, or practices is the responsibility of the department and college involved. Normally, such complaints can be resolved quickly and informally through discussion with the faculty member directly involved. The Office of the Ombudsperson can provide assistance to students, instructors and administrators with resolving disputes informally through voluntary facilitated discussions, in an effort to bring resolution to the matter prior to the initiation of a formal complaint.

   - In situations where such informal resolution does not occur or is not successful, the student may submit a formal complaint to the Chair of the appropriate academic department. The student’s complaint must be submitted in writing and be accompanied by pertinent documentation describing (a) the specific action, practice, or decision that is problematic; (b) the impact of that decision; (c) what resolution is being sought; (d) and why it should be granted. To promote prompt resolution, complaints must include current contact information and be submitted at the earliest possible time. Consideration will not be given to any complaint submitted later than the end of the term immediately following the term in which the matter in question arose. The Department Chair will provide a decision in writing to the student, normally within 10 business days of the receipt of the complaint in the Department.

- The student may appeal the Department Chair’s decision within 10 business days of being notified of the Chair’s decision. Such appeal will be made, in writing, to the Dean of the College in which the Department is located. At the discretion of the Dean, an advisory panel may be appointed to review the written documentation and make a recommendation to the Dean. The Dean will issue a decision to the student in writing, normally within 10 business days of the receipt of the appeal.

- The student may appeal the Dean’s decision to the Provost, in writing, within 10 business days of being notified of the Dean’s decision. The Provost will issue a decision to the student, in writing within 20 business days of receiving the appeal.

- The student may appeal the Provost’s decision to the President, in writing, within 10 business days of being notified of the Provost’s decision. The President will issue a decision to the student in writing within 20 business days of receiving the appeal.

- The student may appeal the President’s decision to the Board of Regents, in writing, within 20 business days of being notified of the President’s decision. Decisions regarding grades may not be appealed to the Board of Regents (BOR Policy 407.01).

B. University-Level Academic Complaints

1. Judgments on the suitability of academic decisions made at the University level are most appropriately made by individuals with expertise in the particular area. Normally, such complaints can be resolved quickly through discussion with the Academic Administrator directly involved. (See the University Organizational Chart at http://www.gsu.edu/about/governance-and-strategy/administrative/. Students can contact the Office of the Ombudsperson for assistance in preparing for discussion with academic administrators. The Office of the Ombudsperson can also provide assistance to students and academic administrators with resolving disputes informally through voluntary, facilitated discussions, in an effort to bring resolution to the matter prior to the initiation of a formal complaint.

2. In situations where such informal resolution does not occur or is not successful, the student may submit a formal complaint to the Associate Provost for Academic Programs. The student’s complaint must be submitted in writing, and be accompanied by pertinent documentation describing (a) the specific action, practice, or decision that is problematic; (b) the impact of that decision; (c) what resolution is being sought; and (d) why it should be granted. To promote prompt resolution, complaints must include current contact information and be submitted as early as possible, but no later than the end of the term immediately following the term in which the matter arose. The Vice Provost for Academic Programs will normally issue a decision to the student in writing, within 10 business days of receiving the complaint.

3. The student may appeal the Vice Provost’s decision to the Provost within 10 business days of being notified of the decision. The Provost will respond in writing to the appeal within 20 business days of receiving the appeal.

4. The student may appeal the Provost’s decision to the President in writing within 10 business days of being notified of the Provost’s decision. The President will respond in writing to the appeal within 20 business days of receiving the appeal.

5. The student may appeal the President’s decision to the Board of Regents in writing within 20
III. NON-ACADEMIC COMPLAINTS

1. Judgments on the suitability of non-academic decisions are most appropriately made by individuals with expertise in the particular area. Normally, such complaints can be resolved quickly through discussion with the Administrator in charge of the department making the decision. (See the University Organizational Chart at http://www.gsu.edu/about/governance-and-strategy/administrative/.) Students can contact the Office of the Ombudsperson for assistance in preparing for discussion with non-academic administrators. The Office of the Ombudsperson can also provide assistance to students and non-academic administrators with resolving disputes informally through voluntary, facilitated discussions, in an effort to bring resolution to the matter prior to the initiation of a formal complaint.

2. In situations where such informal resolution does not occur or is not successful, the student may submit a formal complaint to the Vice President or Vice Provost who oversees the area. The student’s complaint must be submitted in writing, and be accompanied by pertinent documentation describing (a) the specific action, practice, or decision that is problematic; (b) the impact of that decision; (c) what resolution is being sought; and (d) why it should be granted. To promote prompt resolution, complaints must include current contact information and be submitted as early as possible, but no later than the end of the term immediately following the term in which the matter arose. The Vice President or Vice Provost will provide a decision to the student in writing, normally within 10 business days of the receipt of the complaint.

3. The student may appeal the Vice President’s or Vice Provost’s decision to the Provost in writing within 10 business days of being notified of the decision. The Provost will respond in writing to the appeal within 20 business days of receiving the appeal.

4. The student may appeal the Provost’s decision to the President in writing within 10 business days of being notified of the Provost’s decision. The President will respond in writing to the appeal within 20 business days of receiving the appeal.

5. The student may appeal the President’s decision to the Board of Regents in writing within 20 business days of being notified of the President’s decision. Decisions regarding traffic citations may not be appealed to the Board of Regents (BOR Policy 407.01).

IV. STUDENT PETITIONS FOR ACADEMIC POLICY WAIVER or VARIANCE

A. College-Level Policy Waiver or Variance Petitions

1. Students may petition for a waiver or variance of a department-level or college-level policy. The appropriate College Office of Academic Assistance can provide the student with college policies and petition procedures.

2. The student must submit a petition, in writing, to the Office of Academic Assistance of the College which has made the policy in question. The petition must include the following: (a) the policy from which the student is seeking a waiver or variance, (b) the deviation being sought; and (c) the reason(s) why the exception should be granted. The Office of Academic Assistance representative will determine whether the petition needs to be addressed at the departmental or college level, and will forward the petition to the appropriate administrator who will notify the student of his or her decision.
3. The student may appeal the decision, in writing, following the procedures stated in Section II.A.2.c through f above, the College-Level Academic Complaint Policy and Procedures. If the original decision was rendered by a Department Chair, the appeal should be initiated at the level of the Dean; if the original decision was rendered by the Dean (or his or her designate), the appeal should be initiated at the level of the Provost.

B. University-Level Policy Waiver or Variance Petitions

1. Students may request a waiver or variance of a policy established by the University or the Board of Regents (BOR).

2. All requests for waivers or variances from university and BOR level policies will be made based only on the written record.

3. All petitions must include the following:
   - The section number from the Catalog (or other official University document) of the policy or requirement from which the student is requesting a waiver
   - The deviation being sought;
   - The reason(s) why the exception should be granted
   - A current copy of the student’s academic evaluation record
   - A current copy of the student’s Georgia State University transcript (unless the petitioner is not yet a Georgia State student)
   - Transcripts from all other colleges the student has attended (if the petitioner has attended other colleges).

4. Financial Aid Appeals (Appeals of Rules Currently in Section 1200 of the Catalog)
   - Appeals of financial aid rules will be made in the first instance by the Director of Financial Aid.
   - If the petition is denied, the student may appeal to the Financial Aid Appeals Committee, a committee appointed by the Vice Provost for Academic Programs. The student must appeal in writing and within 10 business days of being notified of the decision of the Director of Financial Aid.

5. Add, Drop and Withdraw Appeals (Appeals of Rules Currently in Section 1332 of the Catalog)
   - Appeals of the add, drop and withdrawal rules will be made in the first instance by the University Registrar.
   - If the petition is denied, the student may appeal to the Registration Appeals Committee, a subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Admissions and Standards. The student must appeal in writing and within 10 business days of being notified of the decision of the University Registrar.
   - The Registrar will copy the Chair of the Registration Appeals Committee on all letters to students notifying them of results of their petitions. Every semester, the University Registrar will distribute to the Senate Committee on Admissions and Standards a report that indicates (at a minimum) the number of petitions filed, the number granted, and the number denied. Any member of Admissions and Standards may review the documents of any petition when there is a legitimate educational interest.
   - This motion policy does not change the Emergency Withdrawal policy.

6. Course Load, Scholastic Discipline, Course Substitution in the Core, and Regents Test Appeals (Appeals of Rules Currently in Sections 1330.30, 1360, 1410, and 1420 of the Catalog)
   - Appeals of rules regarding course load, scholastic discipline, course substitution in the core, and Regents Test will be made in the first instance by the Director of the University Advisement Center. However, appeals for waivers of Section 1330.30 (Course Load) will be considered by the student’s college if the student has declared a college and will follow the procedure outlined in Section IV.A above.

- If the petition is denied by the Director of the University Advisement Center, the student may appeal to the Academic Regulations Appeals Committee, a subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Admissions and Standards. The student must appeal in writing and within 10 business days of being notified of the decision of the Director of the University Advisement Center.

- The Director of the University Advisement Center will copy the Chair of the Academic Regulations Appeals Committee on all letters to students notifying them of results of their 2 petitions. Every semester, the Director of the University Advisement Center will distribute to the Senate Committee on Admissions and Standards a report that indicates (at a minimum) the number of petitions filed, the number granted, and the number denied. Any member of Admissions and Standards may review the documents of any petition when there is a legitimate educational interest.

7. Academic Regulation and Graduation Requirement Appeals (Appeals of Rules currently in other parts of Sections 1300 and 1400 of the Catalog)

- Appeals of other university-level academic rules and graduation requirements will be made in the first instance by the Assistant Vice President of Student Retention.

- If the petition is denied, the student may appeal to the Academic Regulations Appeals Committee, a subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Admissions and Standards. The student must appeal in writing and within 10 business days of being notified of the decision of the Assistant Vice President of Student Retention.

- The Assistant Vice President of Student Retention will copy the Chair of the Academic Regulations Appeals Committee on all letters to students notifying them of results of their petitions. Every semester, the Assistant Vice President of Student Retention will distribute to the Senate Committee on Admissions and Standards a report that indicates (at a minimum) the number of petitions filed, the number granted, and the number denied. Any member of Admissions and Standards may review the documents of any petition when there is a legitimate educational interest.

8. Subsequent Appeals

- The student may appeal the decisions of the Admissions Appeal Committee, Financial Aid Appeals Committee, the Registration Appeals Committee, and the Academic Regulations Appeals Committee to the Vice Provost for Academic Programs in writing within 10 business days of being notified of the decision. The Associate Provost will respond in writing to the appeal within 20 business days of receiving the appeal.

- The student may appeal the Vice Provost’s decision to the Provost in writing within 10 business days of being notified of the decision. The Provost will respond in writing to the appeal within 20 business days of receiving the appeal.

- The student may appeal the Provost’s decision to the President in writing within 10 business days of being notified of the Provost’s decision. The President will respond in writing to the appeal within 20 business days of receiving the appeal.

- The student may appeal the President’s decision to the Board of Regents in writing within 20 business days of being notified of the President’s decision.

V. DEADLINES
A. The University strives to resolve complaints and petitions by the deadlines established in this Policy. However, each situation is unique and may prevent the meeting of a deadline. Every effort will be made by the parties involved to minimize the delay and proceed through the processes outlined in this Procedure as close to the deadlines as possible.

B. All deadlines established in this Policy are stated in terms of business days. If a deadline falls on a weekend or scheduled holiday, the deadline will be the next scheduled workday of Georgia State University.

C. Students lose their right to continue to the next step of the procedures if they miss a stated or agreed-upon deadline.

VI. MEDIATION

Students who have filed formal complaints or petitions or those who have had formal complaints filed against them under Sections II A or B of this Policy (except for grade appeals) may request that the matter be submitted to mediation in an effort to achieve resolution. Mediation is a voluntary, confidential process whereby a neutral person facilitates discussion between the parties in a mutual attempt to reach resolution on the issues raised by the parties.

In the event mediation is agreed upon by both parties, the timelines under this policy shall be suspended until which time the mediation is completed. In the event that mediation results in agreement, the student’s complaint will be considered resolved. In the event that mediation does not result in resolution of the matter, the student may appeal to the next level of review under this policy.

Information derived from mediation discussion may not be used as the basis for higher levels of appeal, nor can the mediator be asked to provide information or make any decision at any level of the formal appeals process. Persons interested in mediation should contact the Office of the Ombudsperson.

GLOSSARY

POLICIES, PROCEDURES AND PRACTICES

Policy: A written statement (rule or principle) used to govern the actions of Georgia State University’s employees, faculty, students, visitors, and others who come in contact with Georgia State University. For the purposes of this document, academic policies are those pertaining to scholarly programs (e.g., program degree requirements), or the students’ progress through those programs (e.g., program prerequisites, financial aid, registration). Non-academic policies are those pertaining to functions that only indirectly support the students’ academic endeavors (such as housing, recreation, or parking).

University-Level Student Policies: Policies established under the authority of the university and applied to all students in all colleges. These policies are implemented and enforced by central academic or administrative offices (for example, the Registrar’s Office, the Student Financial Aid Office, or the University Library).

College-Level Student Policies: Policies established under the authority of a college and applied to all students enrolled in courses or programs offered by that college: Andrew Young School of Policy Studies; College of Arts and Sciences; College of Education; Lewis School of Nursing; School of Health Professions; School of Public Health; Robinson College of Business.
Procedure: A guideline that explains how policies are to be carried out or implemented; may or may not be in writing.

Practice: A commonly accepted way or pattern of doing things; typically not in writing.

ARBITRARY, DISCRIMINATORY, INEQUITABLE

Arbitrary: In an unreasonable or capricious manner, in disregard of facts, or without determining principle.

Discriminatory: In a manner that is unfair or denies privileges to persons because of their race, sex, color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, or disability.

Inequitable: In a manner that fails to treat similarly situated persons the same way.

COMPLAINTS, PETITIONS and APPEALS

Complaint: An objection to a decision, action or practice with a request that it be changed or reversed; a claim seeking remedy, relief, or resolution. Complaints may be against a decision or action that was based on either University-level or College-level policy.

Petition for Waiver or Variance: A request for a suspension (waiver) or modification (variance) of a particular policy which, if applied normally, would cause undue hardship for the individual.

Waiver: An agreement that suspends a particular policy for an individual in a specific situation due to the special circumstances of that individual. (When a waiver (or suspension) of a policy is granted, the individual does not have to comply with some or all of the particular requirements set within that policy).

Variance: An agreement that modifies a particular policy for an individual in a specific situation due to the special circumstances of that individual. (When a variance (modification) of a policy is granted, the individual must comply only with the modified requirements.)

Appeal: A request that a decision on a complaint or petition be reconsidered at a higher level in the University.

PEOPLE

Academic Administrator: The head of a centralized university office or department that has responsibility for academic-related student processes (such as the Registrar’s Office, the Office of Admissions, the Student Financial Aid Office, the Office of Student Accounts, the Student Advisement Center); typically reports through an Associate Provost.

Administrator in Charge: The head of a University office with responsibility for non-academic student processes (such as the Housing Office, the Office of Parking and Transportation, the Bookstore); typically reports through a Vice President.
1050.90 Criminal & Disciplinary History: Continuing Duty to Report

Disclosure of criminal/disciplinary history is required on the Georgia State University admission application. Georgia State students have a continuing duty to report criminal/disciplinary events that occur after submission of their admission application. The criminal/disciplinary events that must be reported under this continuing duty are described below and reports must be made to the Office of the Dean of Students within 72 hours of student’s notice of the event. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in sanctions up to and including immediate withdrawal from the University.

- Conviction of a crime other than a minor traffic violation
- Criminal charges filed against the student
- Entering a plea of guilty, a plea of no contest, a plea of nolo contendere, an Alford plea, or a plea under any first offender act in response to charges filed against the student
- Disciplinary or academic misconduct charges initiated or sanctions imposed against the student from a high school, trade school or other college or university.

1055 Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

I. Introduction

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA rights are provided only to University applicants upon actual acceptance to and subsequent enrollment for classes at the University. Under FERPA, students attending an institution of postsecondary education may:

A. Consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s education records, except to the extent that such disclosures are authorized without consent as more fully described below in Paragraph IX (A);
B. Choose to suppress (i.e., keep from being disclosed) their directory information per the process identified below in Paragraph IX (B);
C. Inspect and review their education records;
D. Seek amendment of those education records believed to be inaccurate, misleading or otherwise in violation of their privacy rights; and
E. File complaints with the Department of Education about alleged failures by the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

II. Definitions

A. Student: any person who attends or has attended the University. For purposes of FERPA, Georgia State University considers an admitted student to be “in attendance” upon enrollment/registration for classes. Note: The definition of “student” set forth above is only for use in connection with this guidance. For the official University definition of “student”, please refer to the Georgia State University Student Code of Conduct.
B. Education Records: any records (in handwriting, print, tapes, film, computer or other medium) maintained by the University or an agent of the University which are directly related to a student except:

1. A personal record kept by a faculty or staff member if it is kept in the sole possession of the maker of the record, is not accessible or revealed to any other person except a temporary substitute for the maker of the record and is not used for purposes other than a memory or reference tool.
2. Records created and maintained by the Georgia State University Police Department for law enforcement purposes.
3. An employment record of an individual whose employment is not contingent on the fact that he or she is a student.
4. Records made or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist or other recognized professional or paraprofessional if the records are used only for treatment of a student and made available only to those persons providing the treatment.
5. Alumni records which contain information about a student after he or she is no longer in attendance at the University and which do not relate to the person as a student.

C. Directory Information: information contained in an education record of a student that would not generally be considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if disclosed. Georgia State University has designated the following types of information to be directory information: student name, mailing addresses, telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, full or part-time status, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, degrees and awards applied for and/or received, dates of attendance, previous educational institutions attended by the student, photographs and other recorded images, and, with respect to members of athletic teams, height, weight, age, hometown, hobbies, and general items of interest.

III. Federal Student Records Law

Annually, Georgia State University informs students of the protections afforded by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974. (20 U.S.C. 1232g and 34 C.F.R., 99.1-99.67) This Act, with which the institution endeavors to fully comply, was designed to protect the privacy of educational records, and to establish the right of students to inspect and review their non-privileged educational records. The act also provides guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal and formal hearings. Students have the right to file complaints with the U.S. Department of Education Family Policy Compliance Office concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the Act. An informal complaint may be filed within the University by contacting the Registrar. This guidance explains in detail the procedures to be used by the University for compliance with the provisions of the Act. Questions concerning the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act may be referred to the Office of the Registrar or the Office of Legal Affairs.

IV. University-Maintained Student Records

The student records maintained by the University are classified as follows:

A. Official academic records are maintained in the Office of the Registrar. They include admission applications and associated documentation; the registration records for each semester in residence; the records of grades and credits received in courses at this University or accepted here from another institution; and other documents directly relating to academic progress and status. The dean of each college is the custodian of records for all college and departmental records regarding students not of the type maintained by the Registrar’s Office.
B. Disciplinary records are maintained by the Office of the Dean of Students. They include information about the investigation, adjudication and imposition of sanctions by the University against an individual student for breach of the University's Code of Conduct or other written policies.

C. Financial records: Fee payment records are maintained by the Office of Student Accounts. Financial aid application records, including tax forms, are maintained by the Financial Aid Office.

D. Employment records of students receiving financial aid consist of work-study authorizations and are maintained by the Financial Aid Office. Non-work study employment records of students are maintained by the Office of Human Resources. Graduate student teaching and research appointment records are maintained by the involved College or department. Some employment records of students with graduate teaching and research appointments may also be maintained by the Office of Human Resources.

E. Medical, psychological and counseling records are maintained by the University department providing the involved health care (i.e., Health Clinic, University Counseling & Testing Center). They include records of examinations and treatments.

F. Career and job search records are maintained by University Career Services.

G. Housing records are maintained by University Housing. They include housing applications/agreements and related information.

H. PantherCard and parking records are maintained by Auxiliary and Support Services.

Student educational records maintained on Banner are covered by this guidance and should only be accessed by University employees with a legitimate educational interest or whose access is otherwise undertaken to comply with FERPA. Unauthorized access is a violation of federal law and University policy.

No record shall be kept of the political views of students or of student membership in any organization except for academic, honorary, professional and social organizations directly related to University life. Records maintained by student organizations are not considered University records. Student organizations are, however, expected to take reasonable steps to protect student information they maintain from unwarranted invasions of privacy and to permit students to access their records.

V. Student Access to Records

Access to a student's official academic record, disciplinary record and financial aid record is guaranteed to him or her subject only to reasonable regulation as to time, place and supervision with the exceptions of those types of documents identified below:

- Any and all documents written or solicited prior to Jan. 1, 1975, on the presumption that they were intended to remain confidential and privileged.
- Any and all documents to which access has been waived by the student.
- Any and all records which are excluded from the FERPA definition of educational records.
- Any and all financial data and income tax forms submitted in confidence by a student’s parent(s) in connection with an application for or receipt of financial aid.
- Any and all records connected with an application to attend Georgia State University or a component unit of Georgia State University if that application was denied or, in the alternative, if the application was accepted but the applicant never enrolled (FERPA rights extend only to applicants upon actual acceptance and subsequent enrollment).
- Those records which contain information on more than one student to the extent that a requesting student has the right to view only those portions of the record which pertain to his or her own educational records.

- Confidential recommendations and evaluations (Placement records maintained by the University Career Services may be inspected by the subject of the file with the exception of recommendations or evaluations to which the student has waived his or her access. Confidential recommendations and evaluations are only included in a student’s placement file if the student has voluntarily submitted a written waiver of access to the recommendations and evaluations. If a student has not waived access, then recommendations and evaluations submitted on condition of confidentiality are returned to the sender).

A. Inspection of records is granted only upon written request, presented in person with appropriate identification, and must be made in the presence of designated personnel of the office maintaining the records. All requests shall be granted as soon as practicable, but in no event later than 45 days after the date of request. No documents or files may be altered or removed once a request has been filed. When an original record is shown to the student, examination will be permitted only in the presence of a University employee and any other conditions deemed necessary to prevent the alteration, mutilation, or loss of such original records. Upon reasonable request by the student, verbal explanations and interpretations of education records will be promptly provided except where a verbal response is not practical or appropriate. Requests for written explanations/interpretations of education records must be made in writing. If an education record is not in a form readily reviewable by the student (e.g., records stored in microfilm or electronically), a true and correct copy of the record will be provided for the student’s inspection.

B. Copies of Records

1. Copies to students will be provided to students in good standing upon written request and payment of fees for copies (see the Request for Access to Student Record Form in the Academic Records area of the Registrar’s site), with the exception of transcripts received from other educational institutions and any documents the student has waived his or her right to see. Copies of education records may be withheld by the University when the student is not in good standing as a result of such conditions as unmet financial obligations and violations of institutional regulations. Such records to be withheld may include, but are not limited to, grade reports, transcripts, and certifications of student achievement and performance. A transcript of a student’s official academic record contains information about his or her academic attainment and status exclusively. Only the Registrar is authorized to issue transcripts or to certify in any way the official academic record of a student. An official transcript is issued only when requested by the student in writing.

2. Copies to third parties will be provided upon receipt of the student’s written and signed consent for disclosure of the records. Such a written consent must:
   1. identify the records to be disclosed,
   2. identify the person or class of persons to whom the disclosure may be made,
   3. specify the time period during which consent is applicable, and*
   4. be signed and dated.

* A Consent to Release Information to Third Parties form is available online in the Academic Records area of the Registrar’s website.

VI. Requests for Amendment and Challenge Hearings
If, upon inspection and review of his or her record, a student believes that the record is inaccurate, misleading or otherwise in violation of his or her privacy rights, he or she may request that the record be corrected. A request for correction must be submitted in writing and must specify the information being questioned, the revision requested, and the reasons the student has for disagreeing with the entry in question. Any supporting documentation should be attached to the request. Where possible, disagreements should be resolved informally. This provision does not apply to grade appeals, and students wishing to appeal the assignment of a grade should refer to the Policy and Procedures for Student Complaints, Petitions for Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals.

Only the Registrar, upon consultation with the respective dean, may authorize a correction in a record within the academic file of a student. Similar authority is held by the Vice President for Student Affairs, the Director of Admissions, the Director of Financial Aid, the respective College Dean and the Director of Personnel for the records which are maintained under the authority of these various University officials.

The University representative to whom a request for correction of a non-academic file is properly addressed will notify the student of his or her decision within 21 days after receipt of the written request. If the University decides that the information in a student’s education record is inaccurate, misleading or in violation of the student’s right of privacy, it will amend the record and notify the student, in writing, that the record has been amended. If the University decides that the challenged information is not inaccurate, misleading or in violation of the student’s right of privacy, it will notify the student of the right to place in the record a statement commenting on the challenged information and a statement setting forth reasons for disagreeing with the decision. Such a statement shall become a part of the information contained in the education record and will be disclosed with it.

Should the University decide the challenged information is not inaccurate, misleading or in violation of the student’s right of privacy, then the student will also be advised of the right to appeal the University’s decision and challenge the information believed to be inaccurate, misleading or in violation of the student’s privacy rights. The appeal may extend only to the material in the respective University file. While it may extend to the correct recording of a grade, it may not include a challenge to the assignment by the instructor of the grade. The student has 20 days to appeal the decision in writing to the Provost and ask for a hearing. On behalf of the President of the University, the Provost shall refer the appeal to an existing committee or designate a hearing committee comprised of University officials who do not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing. Georgia State University will notify the student, reasonably in advance, of the date, place and time of the hearing. The student shall be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the issues raised in the original request to amend the student’s education records. The student may bring one individual to act as an advisor but the individual may not address the committee. The committee will prepare a written recommendation based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing and submit it to the Provost who will make a determination on the matter. The recommendation will include a brief summary of the evidence presented and the reasons for the decision. The decision of the Provost may be appealed in writing to the President within 20 days of the date of the decision. The appeal to the President shall be made on the record.

VII. University Career Services

The file of a student maintained in the University Career Services is assembled at the initiative of the student. The extent of disclosure to prospective employers, graduate schools, organizations awarding fellowships and the like shall be made clear to the student when he or she requests that the file be assembled and shall be agreed to by him or her on a form specifically provided for that purpose.

The student may make a specific waiver of access to evaluations solicited and/or received under condition of confidentiality, but the waiver must be made by the student without pressure or coercion. Any evaluation received under such condition of confidentiality without the student’s waiver of access or without the student’s knowledge shall not be incorporated in the file but shall be returned to the sender.

VIII. Addition to Records

No entry may be made on a student’s official records and no document or entry may be placed in such records without written notice to the student by the administrative officials responsible for the specific category of information, as identified in Paragraph IV. For purposes of this guidance, notification of grades, written communication to a student of school or departmental evaluation and announcement of honors shall constitute adequate notice. A document or entry supplied by or at the request of the student may be placed in the student’s record without additional notice to him or her. In the case of student records maintained in deans’ offices and departmental offices, additions other than those mentioned in the preceding paragraph require the permission of the Registrar, who in turn is responsible for notification of the student.

IX. Release of Student Information

A. Georgia State University will disclose information from a student’s education records only with the written consent of the student, except that the records may be disclosed without consent when the disclosure is:
   1. To school officials who have a legitimate educational interest in the records.
      - A school official is:
      - A person employed by the University (which, for purposes of this guidance includes persons employed by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia) in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position, including health or medical staff.
      - A person or entity employed by or under contract to the University to perform a special task, such as a University affiliated organization, attorney, auditor, or outside vendor.
      - A person who is employed by the Georgia State University law enforcement unit.
      - A student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or who is assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.
      - A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official is:
        - Performing a task that is specified in his or her position description or contract agreement.
        - Performing a task on behalf of the University/Board of Regents in connection with his or her job responsibilities.
        - Performing a task related to a student’s education.
        - Performing a task related to the discipline of a student.
        - Providing a service or benefit relating to the student or student’s family, such as health care, counseling, job placement or financial aid.
        - Maintaining the safety and security of the campus.
      The determination as to whether or not a legitimate educational interest exists will be made by the custodian of the records on a case-by-case basis. When the custodian has any question regarding the request, the custodian should withhold disclosure unless the custodian obtains consent from the student, or the concurrence of a supervisor or other appropriate official that the record may be released.

2. Upon request of officials of another school at which a student seeks or intends to enroll, the University will attempt to notify the student of the disclosure unless the student initiated the disclosure.

3. Information the University has designated as “directory information,” unless the student has made a written request to suppress (i.e., to refuse to allow disclosure of) their directory information as more fully described below in Paragraph IX (B).

4. To school officials or lending institutions, in connection with financial aid for which the student has applied or which the student has received, if the information is necessary for such purposes as to:
   - Determine eligibility for the aid;
   - Determine the amount of the aid;
   - Determine the conditions for the aid; or
   - Enforce the terms and conditions of the aid.

5. To parents of a dependent student, as defined in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The parents must provide a copy of their most recent federal income tax return establishing the student’s dependency. Full rights under the act shall be given to either parent, unless the institution has been provided with evidence that there is a court order, state statute or legally binding document relating to such matters as divorce, separation or custody that specifically revokes those rights. Georgia State University does not have an obligation to disclose any financial information about one parent to another. If a parent claims a student as a dependent and does not want his or her financial information disclosed to his or her spouse or former spouse, the parent may make that request to the institution.

6. In connection with an emergency, to appropriate persons if the knowledge of such information is believed necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or others.

7. To comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena, provided the University makes a reasonable effort to notify the student of the order or subpoena in advance of compliance. Notification may be prohibited if the University receives a federal grand jury subpoena or any other subpoena which states that the student should not be notified. The University will comply with such process only upon the advice of counsel. All subpoenas received by the University should be immediately forwarded in person or by facsimile (404-413-0518) to the Office of Legal Affairs to evaluate the validity of the subpoena. In the case of a subpoena which can be disclosed to a student, the Office of Legal Affairs will inform the student of the subpoena and give the student an opportunity to file an objection to the subpoena before responding on behalf of the University.

8. To an alleged victim of any crime of violence, as that term is defined in Section 16 of Title 18, United States Code, or a non-forcible sex offense, the final results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the University against the alleged perpetrator of that crime or offense with respect to that crime or offense. For the purpose of disclosure under this paragraph, the final results of any disciplinary proceeding shall include only the name of the student, the violation committed and any sanction imposed by the institution on that student and may include the name of any other student, such as a victim or witness, only with the written consent of that other student. The Office of Legal Affairs shall be consulted prior to release of the record.
9. Subject to the conditions set forth in 34 CFR 99.35 authorized representatives of the Comptroller General of the United States, the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Education, authorized representatives of the Attorney General for law enforcement purposes (investigation or enforcement of federal legal requirements of federally supported education programs), or state and local educational authorities.

10. To state and local officials or authorities to which such information is specifically required to be reported or disclosed pursuant to the state statute adopted prior to Nov. 19, 1974, if the allowed reporting or disclosure concerns the juvenile justice system and the system’s ability to effectively serve the student whose records are released; or information that is allowed to be reported pursuant to a state statute adopted after 1974, which concerns the juvenile justice system and the system’s ability to effectively serve, prior to adjudication, the student whose records are released. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the state from further limiting the number or type of state or local officials who will continue to have access thereunder.

11. To organizations conducting studies for, or on behalf of, educational agencies or institutions for the purpose of developing, validating or administering predictive tests, administering student aid programs and improving instruction, if such studies are conducted in such a manner as will not permit the personal identification of students and their parents by persons other than representatives of such organizations and such information will be destroyed when no longer needed for the purpose for which it is conducted.

12. To accrediting organizations in order to carry out their accrediting functions.

13. To Department of Veterans Affairs Officials pursuant to 38 USC 3690©.

14. To the court those records that are necessary to defend the institution when a student initiates legal action against the institution.

B. Choosing to Suppress Directory Information – Directory Information is treated as public information. Students may choose to keep their directory information from being disclosed (“suppressed”) by submitting a written request to the University’s Registrar at any time. However, to keep the directory information from being included in various printed University publications, such requests should be made before the end of the drop/add period for Fall Semester. Information cannot be deleted after printed publications have gone to press and information previously-released in printed publications cannot be recalled. Information contained in electronic publications may generally be changed upon 48 hours notice. Students having opted to suppress their directory information may change their position at a later date by notifying the Office of the Registrar in writing. Please note: refusing to permit the release of directory information means that a student’s history at Georgia State will be suppressed in full, preventing the verification by future employers and others of degrees earned and dates of enrollment. Exception to Directory Suppression: Due to system constraints, final graduation lists and official programs will include all students who are graduating, regardless of Directory Suppression, unless otherwise stated on the Graduation Application.

C. Records of Deceased Students will be made available to the parents of the deceased student and other authorized parties upon written request. The request must include the need for the records and must identify the requestor’s relationship to the deceased student. An official copy of the death certificate must accompany the request, if the University does not have prior notice of the student’s death.

D. The University has the discretion to disclose to any parent or legal guardian of a student under the age of 21 information about a violation of any federal, state or local law, or any rule or policy of the institution governing the use or possession of alcohol or a controlled substance if the institution determines that the student has committed a disciplinary violation with respect to such use or X. Recordkeeping Requirements

Georgia State University will maintain a record of requests for and/or disclosures of information from a student’s education records which record may be reviewed by the student. The record will indicate the name of the party making the request and what records, if any, were received, as well as the interest in the records. Such recordkeeping is not required if the request was from, or the disclosure was to:

1. The student;
2. A school official determined to have a legitimate educational interest;
3. A party with written consent from the student;
4. A party seeking directory information; or
5. A federal grand jury or law enforcement agency pursuant to a subpoena that by its terms requires nondisclosure.

Recognition is given to The Catholic University of America upon whose FERPA Policy Georgia State University’s FERPA Policy was modeled.

This FERPA policy was approved by the Administrative Council on March 5, 2008.

1060 Access to Student Records

To file a request for suppression of directory information, a student should fill out a Suppress Directory Information Form, available on the Academic Records webpage at http://registrar.gsu.edu/files/2013/02/Request_for_Student_Information_Suppression_Form.pdf, and turn it in to the Enrollment Services Center, 227 Sparks Hall.

Inquiries about students or former students should be directed to the Office of the Registrar. Georgia State’s written policy on “Access to Student Records” complies with the provisions of the Act. Students also have the right to file complaints with the Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education, 600 Independence Avenue, Washington, D.C. 20202-4605, regarding alleged violations of the Act.
1100 Undergraduate Admissions

This chapter contains all information related to admission to an undergraduate program at Georgia State University. See subsections within this chapter for specific admission policies and procedures.

1115 General Admission Policy

Georgia State University welcomes applications from all qualified individuals regardless of race, color, sex, religion, creed, age, sexual orientation, gender, disability, national origin or immigration status. Admission is based on a number of factors, depending upon level of entry and previous educational experience. Admission and placement decisions are made by the Office of Undergraduate Admissions using criteria approved by the University Senate and developed in accordance with policies of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. Admission decisions are based on factors such as, but not limited to, an applicant’s academic record, test scores, optional essay and letter of recommendation, circumstances, good conduct and character. Georgia State guarantees admission to all qualified applicants by Board of Regents standards.

Applications received after the deadline for the term of application or received without a designated term will be processed for the next available term. The application fee is non-refundable. Completed applications submitted to the university are valid for 3 terms (the next available term plus the 2 consecutive terms that follow). To be considered during the second or third consecutive term after submitting an application, applicants need only submit a reactivation form, together with any required credentials, by the application deadline date for that particular term. An offer of admission by the university is valid only for the term specified by the university at the time of acceptance and does not constitute approval for any term not so specified.

Applicants with a criminal and/or disciplinary history who are determined to be otherwise admissible for a respective term based on their academic record and other credentials are required to complete a disciplinary/criminal review process before an admission decision is made by the university.* Instructions for completing that review process are communicated to the applicant after the university has determined that the applicant is otherwise admissible for that term.

Absent extenuating circumstances, good disciplinary standing at previously attended high schools, colleges and universities is a condition of admission for all applicants. For purposes of admission, good disciplinary standing means that the applicant has no pending disciplinary charges, outstanding disciplinary sanctions or disciplinary issues that would prevent the applicant from re-enrolling at the previously attended institution.
Omissions or misrepresentations on an application for admission are grounds for automatically invalidating consideration by, acceptance to and continuation at Georgia State. Applicants have a duty to update their application with Georgia State when information changes after application submission.

All materials submitted as part of an application for admission become and remain the property of the university and will not be returned to the applicant, duplicated, or transferred to another institution.

*Applicants are required to answer the following background questions on the Georgia State University admissions application:

1. Are you ineligible to enroll at any previously attended institution?
2. Are you currently on or have you even been placed on academic probation, suspension, exclusion or any other type of academic warning at any previously attended institution?
3. Are you currently charged with, or have been found guilty of, any violation of academic honesty, honor code, or conduct regulations of a previously attended institution?
4. Have you left a previous institution while there were pending charges of any violation of academic honest, honor code, or conduct regulation?
5. Have you been found guilty of any violation of a federal, state, or municipal law, regulation or ordinance (other than for minor traffic violations, or convictions subsequently discharged, expunged, or otherwise ordered by the court to be removed from the applicant’s criminal record, including offenses for which any type of first offender status was offered but subsequently revoked for failure to successfully complete program requirements)?
6. Have you ever entered a plea of guilty, no contest, nolo contendere, an Alford plea, or otherwise accepted responsibility for the commission of a crime?
7. Have you received any type of discharge from military service other than an honorable discharge?

Any changes in a student’s record prior to enrollment will necessitate a new review of the application. Any omissions or misrepresentations on a student’s application for admission will automatically invalidate consideration by, acceptance to and continuation at Georgia State.

All credentials submitted with the application for admission become and remain the property of the university and will not be returned to the student, duplicated, or transferred to another institution.

Admission to Georgia State University or re-entry approval does not imply admission to a specific major or professional program.

- Students who wish to take 3000 or 4000 level teacher education courses (designated by a “TE” in the course description) or who wish to enter one of the teacher education programs must be approved by the College of Education or the College of Arts and Sciences, depending on the student’s teaching field major (see Section 1605).
- Prospective applicants who are interested in the Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions and have completed preparation to enter the professional or clinical program of their major should contact that school for information on additional departmental application procedures, requirements, and deadlines.
- Students who wish to apply for admission to the School of Music should contact the School of Music office to request separate application materials and to make an appointment for an audition.
- Students who declare a major or pre-major, but fail to meet program requirements of the major (including GPA, minimum course grades or admittance through an application process) and who have no opportunity to progress in that academic program, will have their major administratively changed to exploratory. Students must declare another major after one semester in an exploratory major.

1115.05 Lawful Presence for In-State Tuition

Georgia State University admits all academically qualified undergraduate students, regardless of immigration status.

The Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia requires all students applying to Georgia State University to provide verification of their lawful presence in the United States to be classified as in-state for tuition purposes.

This requirement is detailed in the following Board of Regents policies:

- Policy 4.3.4 Verification of Lawful Presence

1. Verification through the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
   If you are either a U.S. Citizen, Permanent Resident or eligible non-citizen (does not apply to international students on a visa) that has completed and submitted a FAFSA, the U.S. Department of Education will verify your lawful presence. If you are not able to be confirmed as lawfully present the Office of Financial Aid will follow-up with you for additional documentation.

2. Submission of one of the following documents:
   - Current Georgia Driver’s License issued by the State of Georgia after January 1, 2008*
   - Current Georgia ID Card issued by the State of Georgia after January 1, 2008*
   - Current U.S. Passport *
   - Certified U.S. Birth certificate (must be submitted in person)
   - Permanent Resident Card (front and back copy)*
   - U.S. Certificate of Naturalization *
   - U.S. Certificate of Citizenship *
   - U.S. Certificate of Birth Abroad*
   - Military ID (must be verified in person)
   *Copies of these documents are acceptable.
   Submit documents directly to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions in person or to lawfulpresenceua@gsu.edu.

3. Verification through SEVIS (Student and Exchange Information System)
   If you have or are applying for an F, or J visa we will verify your lawful presence through SEVIS. As this is already part of the immigration process there are no additional steps required to have your Citizenship Verification Hold removed. Simply comply with the requirements outlined by our Office of International Student and Scholar Services as you prepare to arrive at Georgia State University.

4. Verification through SAVE (Systematic Alien verification for Entitlements)
   All nonresident alien students on some sort of visa will need to submit immigration documents verifying their lawful status to the office of International Student & Scholar Services (ISSS). Such documents may include an I-94 card, U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services (USCIS) approval notice or receipt notice, or other documentation that the student is in lawful visa status.

This includes students who have been previously enrolled at Georgia State but are either returning (re-entry) to a degree program or applying for a new degree program. Transient students must also be verified.

1115.10 Special Talent Admission Policy

Students with special talents who do not meet the university admission standards are considered through a special admissions review process. Applications for students in this category are reviewed by a subcommittee of the University Senate on Admissions and Standards which makes a recommendation to the Provost. In their determinations, the committee will review grade point average, test scores, grades and other relevant factors.

The committee members will recommend to the Provost those students whom they determine have a reasonable chance of academic success at Georgia State University. Recommendations include the committee’s rationale for each student.

Special Talent Admission Appeals

Decisions to deny admission to special talent applicants by the Office of Admissions may be appealed by the chair of an academic department or the Athletic Director to the Provost for Academic Affairs.

1120 Freshman Applicants

Definition

Those applicants who have never enrolled in a regionally-accredited college or university (unless jointly enrolled while completing high school) are freshman applicants.

Freshman Deadlines

An application for admission and the nonrefundable application fee must be submitted or postmarked by the established deadlines. Applicants are encouraged to apply online at http://admissions.gsu.edu/how-do-i-apply/. Complete credentials must be received before a decision can be made. All required credentials should be submitted to the Office of Admissions no later than fifteen business days following the submission date of the application for admission.

Fall Semester Applicants Only

The Office of Undergraduate Admissions offers three deadlines for Fall application to the University: Early Action, Scholarship Consideration and Regular Decision. Application submission deadlines are as follows:

| Early Action Deadline | November 15 |
First-time freshmen applying for fall semester entry will be considered for admission beginning in November and decisions will continue to be made throughout the academic year until enrollment goals have been met. It is recommended that applicants apply as early as possible to be considered for admission, university housing, scholarship funding and need-based financial aid.

Early Action Deadline

Qualified freshmen applicants for whom Georgia State University is a top choice are encouraged to apply for admission on or before November 15 of their senior year to receive an admission decision no later than January 31. Only those applicants with completed admission files, including test scores, essay, letter of recommendation, high school transcript(s), fee, and any requested additional documentation will be notified by this date. All others will be deferred to the Regular Decision process. Primary consideration under the Early Action plan will be focused on demonstrated academic achievement, including the Required High School Curriculum grades through the junior year, rigor of curriculum, and performance on the SAT and/or ACT with writing assessment. The Early Action plan is non-binding and provides applicants an early decision with no obligation to enroll; this option is only open to freshmen who apply for the summer or fall entry term to Georgia State. An Early Action applicant must submit the required application, fee and transcripts along with official SAT/ACT scores sent online from the appropriate testing agency no later than December 1. Early Action applicants will receive notification of their admission decision in January, and may be offered admission, deferred to the Regular Decision process for further consideration, or denied admission to Georgia State University. Applicants who are offered admission under Georgia State’s Early Action plan are not bound to accept the offer of admission and are given until May 1 to submit their confirmation intent to enroll and attend Georgia State. If an applicant wishes for November or December test scores or mid-year senior grades to be considered in the admissions decision, he or she would be better advised to apply under the Regular Decision plan and deadline.

Early Action applicants deferred to the Regular Decision plan will be strongly encouraged to submit mid-year senior grades and improved SAT and/or ACT scores that show improvement. All deferred Early Action candidates with complete applications will be notified of a final admission decision no later than May 1.

Scholarship Consideration Deadline

If you wish to be considered for a Georgia State University scholarship based on competitive test scores and academic achievement, be sure to submit your completed application and required admission documents no later than January 3. Only applicants with completed admission files, including submission of all required admission documents and fee will be considered for possible scholarships. If you are considered for specific scholarships, you may be contacted by the Honors College for additional information.

Regular Decision Deadline

Freshmen applicants choosing this plan must submit their application no later than March 1 of their senior year. Those applicants with completed admission files, including test scores, essay, letter of recommendation, transcript(s), fee, and any requested additional documentation will be notified no later than April 1. Primary consideration under the Regular Decision plan will also be focused on demonstrated academic achievement (grades in Required High School Curriculum courses, rigor of curriculum, and performance on the SAT or ACT with writing assessment), with secondary consideration given to a combination of the following factors: intellectual pursuits, creative endeavors, and intercultural experiences; public service, co-curricular activities, community involvement, leadership, and family commitments; and integrity and personal maturity. Both Regular Decision and Deferred Early Action candidates will be notified of acceptance, waitlisted or denied admission to Georgia State University no later than May 1.

Spring and Summer Deadlines

An application for admission and the nonrefundable application fee must be submitted or postmarked by the established deadlines. Complete credentials must be received before a decision can be made. All required credentials should be submitted to the Office of Admissions no later than fifteen business days following the submission date of the application for admission. Applications are processed in the order in which they are complete and ready for a decision.

Minimum Freshman Admission Requirements

Admission to Georgia State University is a selective process and meeting minimum admission requirements does not guarantee acceptance. All of the following minimum requirements must be met in order for an applicant to receive consideration as a freshman:

- Be a graduate of and have completed the Required High School Curriculum requirements for the University System of Georgia from a high school accredited by a regional accrediting association (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), a high school accredited by the Georgia Accrediting Commission, or a public high school regulated by a school system and state Department of Education. A Certificate of Attendance does not qualify an applicant for admission consideration.
- Have completed the University System of Georgia Board of Regents’ Required High School Curriculum. Seventeen curriculum course units required as follows:
  1. English (4 units): emphasis in grammar and usage; literature (American, English, and World); and advanced composition skills.
  2. Mathematics (4 units): algebra I, algebra II, geometry, and one additional mathematics course with these units as prerequisites.
  3. Science (4 units): at least one laboratory course from the life sciences and one laboratory course from the physical sciences. (Applicants graduating in 2012 or later must have 4 units.)
  4. Social Science (3 units): at least one course focusing on United States studies and one course focusing on world studies.
  5. Foreign language (2 units in the same language): emphasis in speaking, listening, reading, and writing.
- Have a minimum 2.80 high school grade point average calculated on the 17 courses listed above.
- Submit electronic SAT scores (including the writing section) with a minimum combined score of 900 (verbal/critical reading + mathematics) with at least 430 verbal/critical reading and 400 mathematics or electronic ACT scores (including the Writing Test) with a minimum composite score of 19 with at least 17 English and 17 mathematics.
- Permanent residents, educated in the United States, whose native language is not English are encouraged to take the TOEFL. If the TOEFL is not taken, applicants from local areas will be required to take the Georgia State Test of English Proficiency (GSTEP) to determine appropriate admission.
- Have a freshman index (FI) of 2500 or higher. The FI is based on a combination of SAT/ACT scores and high school grade point average (HSGPA) in college preparatory courses only. The FI formula using SAT scores is: SAT FI = (500 x HSGPA) + SAT V + SAT M. The FI formula using ACT scores is: ACT FI = (500 x HSGPA) + (ACT composite x 42) + 88. In calculating the HSGPA for FI purposes, the applicant’s transcript is calculated upon only 17 of the required high school curriculum taken such as English, mathematics, science, social studies, and foreign language.

High-Ability RHSC-Deficient Freshman

Certain high-ability applicants are eligible for admission to Georgia State even if they have not fully completed the Required High School Curriculum (RHSC). Applicants who have graduated from high school and have:

- completed the RHSC English requirement
- completed the RHSC Math requirement
- three units of Science
- two units of Social Science

Applicants admitted with RHSC deficiencies must complete the RHSC requirements by taking the Georgia State courses in the sciences, social sciences or foreign languages (depending on the area of their RHSC deficiencies). These courses will be selected by the University Advisement Center. Credits earned in courses taken to meet RHSC deficiencies do count towards graduation requirements. Students must earn a grade of C or better in those courses they take to meet RHSC deficiencies. Students must complete all RHSC-required courses either prior to enrollment or before they earn 30 hours at the University. Otherwise, they may not register for any courses except RHSC courses until all RHSC requirements are complete.

Home-Schooled Students

Applicants for freshman admission who have been home-schooled or graduated from non-accredited high schools may be considered for admission by meeting one of the following two criteria:

Option One: Portfolio Admission

Applicants who wish to apply for admission under the portfolio review option must:

1. Demonstrate a combined SAT test score (or an ACT equivalent) that is at or exceeds the average
SAT for those enrolled as first time freshmen for the previous fall term. The current score is 1090 (SAT) or 24 (ACT).

2. Submit electronic SAT scores (including the writing section) of at least 430 verbal/critical reading and 400 mathematics or electronic ACT scores (including the Writing Test) of at least 17 English and 17 mathematics.

3. Submit a portfolio that demonstrates satisfactory completion of the 16 Required High School Curriculum (RHSC) required for admission to a University System of Georgia research institution. This portfolio must include information about the course of study leading to satisfactory completion of each RHSC unit, including a list of all educational resources (books and other materials), course outline and appropriate outcomes assessment. Georgia State University reserves the right to request any further information that it feels necessary to evaluate the completion of the RHSC requirements.

Option Two: SAT Subject Test Admission

Applicants who wish to apply for admission under the SAT Subject Test option must:

1. Submit electronic SAT scores (including the writing section) with a minimum combined score of 900 with at least 430 verbal/critical reading and 400 mathematics or electronic ACT scores (including the Writing Test) with a minimum composite score of 19 with at least 17 English and 17 mathematics.

2. Submit acceptable scores on six SAT Subject Tests and demonstrate proficiency in a foreign language at the level of two years of high school study. Minimum acceptable scores on the prescribed SAT Subject Tests are:
   - 520 on the English Writing test (now a required part of the SAT or ACT)
   - 530 on the Literature test
   - 500 on the Mathematics Level 1 test or a score of 570 on the Mathematics Level 2 test
   - 520 on the Biology test
   - 540 on the Chemistry test or 590 on the Physics test
   - 560 on the U.S. History test, and
   - 540 on the World History test

The appropriate level of competency in a foreign language will be evaluated by the Georgia State University Department of World Languages and Cultures, using methods including both oral and written components.

1125 Transfer Applicants

Definition

Those applicants who have previously attended a regionally-accredited college or university (except for students jointly enrolled while completing high school) are transfer applicants.

Transfer Deadlines

An application for admission and the nonrefundable application fee must be submitted or postmarked by the established deadlines. Applicants are encouraged to apply online at http://admissions.gsu.edu/how-do-i-apply/transfer-students/. Complete credentials must be received before a decision can be made. All required credentials should be submitted to the Office of Admissions no later than fifteen business days following the submission date of the application for admission. Applications are processed in the order in which they are complete and ready for a decision. Students wishing to be considered for a subsequent term must submit a reactivation form at the following website (http://admissions.gsu.edu/how-do-i-apply/other-enrollment-types/reactivation/), and any additional credentials that may be necessary by the appropriate deadline. Applicants interested in early registration dates and orientation, university housing, and/or financial aid are urged to apply and complete their applications by the Deadline Dates listed below.

Note: All deadlines are subject to change.

For international student application deadline dates, please see Section 1165.

The professional and clinical programs in the Byrdine F Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions may have earlier deadlines. Please contact the Office of Academic Assistance, Byrdine F Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions, 404-413-1000, for information on procedures and deadline dates.

Admission Requirements

All of the following minimum requirements must be met in order for an applicant to receive consideration as a transfer, but meeting them does not guarantee admission. An applicant must:

- have a minimum cumulative 2.5 grade point average in college-level courses (excluding developmental/remedial courses) from all accredited institutions attended.
- be eligible to re-enroll at the last institution attended.
- have completed all college preparatory curriculum and learning support coursework required by any unit of the University System of Georgia (USG).
- in addition, those students who have completed fewer than 30 semester hours or 45 quarter hours of college-level academic coursework attempted at one or more regionally accredited institutions must meet all freshman admission requirements (see Section 1120).
- arrange for all transcripts to be received directly by the Office of Undergraduate Admissions or provide them in sealed envelopes directly from the institution. Student copies of transcripts, official transcripts opened by the student, and fax copies are not acceptable.
- must have satisfied Learning Support requirements at their previous institutions.
- must have satisfied Required High School Curriculum requirements

Transfer students should be aware of the Board of Regents’ requirements in reading, writing, history, and constitution (see sections 1420 and 1425).

Transfer Credit Policy
When an applicant is accepted for undergraduate transfer admission, courses that parallel the curriculum of Georgia State University will be accepted for transfer credit. Credit must have been earned at institutions of higher education with full accreditation by one of the following accreditors:

- Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools
- New England Association of Schools and Colleges
- North Central Association of Colleges and Schools
- Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges
- Southern Association of Colleges and Schools

Courses completed at a two-year college will be granted lower-division credit.

The total number of hours that may be earned toward a degree by extension or correspondence courses may not exceed 30 semester hours.

In general, transfer credit will not be awarded for a course that a student has previously attempted at Georgia State (including attempts which resulted in a withdrawal). However, individual departments may waive this rule for their courses.

Because the university has a minimum academic residence requirement, the amount of transfer credit applicable to a degree program may be limited (See Section 1440). In addition, Colleges and Departments have their own transfer credit policies and this may also limit the amount of transfer credit applicable to a degree program. All such policies are stated in this Catalog in the following sections:

- 2000 Andrew Young School of Policy Studies
- 3020 College of Arts and Sciences
- 4050 College of Education and Human Development
- 5020.10 Byrdine F Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions
- 7020.10 Robinson College of Business

Georgia State maintains a web site, http://advisement.gsu.edu/transfer-students/equivalency-charts/, which indicates courses at other institutions that will be accepted as transfer credit (subject to the restrictions noted in this section). If a course at other institution is not on this list, students should consult the University Advisement Center at http://advisement.gsu.edu.

Georgia State University will allow no more than 12 semester hours of D grades to apply toward degree requirements of a baccalaureate program of study. This 12 semester hours includes both credit completed at Georgia State (resident credit) and transfer credit. Certain degree programs may designate a lesser number of D grades as acceptable. Consult your college’s chapter of this catalog for stricter requirements.

A student who takes a course at another institution will not receive transfer credit for that course until the end of the semester following the semester in which the course was taken. Therefore, students may not take courses for degree credit at another institution during the semester they graduate from Georgia State.

Transfer Credit for Core Courses
1. Students will be granted credit for all of Areas A-E of the core if they hold one of the following:
   a. a baccalaureate degree from a U.S. institution of higher education accredited by one of the six accreditors listed above
   b. for those who have graduated from a non-U.S. institution, the equivalent of a baccalaureate degree from a U.S. institution of higher education accredited by one of the six accreditors listed above as certified by Georgia State or a Georgia State-approved agency.
   c. an associate’s degree designed to transfer to a baccalaureate program from a University System of Georgia (USG) institution

2. However, there are two exceptions to the policy stated in 1 above.
   a. Students seeking a baccalaureate degree in biology, chemistry, computer science, geology, mathematics, physics, science education, or math education who do not hold a baccalaureate degree in one of these fields will only be granted credit for all of Areas B, C, and E. They will be granted credit in Areas A and D on a course-by-course basis.
   b. Students seeking a baccalaureate degree in nursing, nutrition or respiratory therapy will only be granted credit for all of Areas A, B, C, and E. They will be granted credit in Area D on a course-by-course basis.

3. Students who hold any other associate’s degree, such as an associate’s degree from a non-USG institution or an associate’s degree not designed to transfer to a baccalaureate program, will be granted transfer credit for core courses on a course-by-course basis.

1127 Transition Students

A transition student is a student who wishes to move to the Atlanta campus for bachelor study after beginning on an associate’s degree track at one of our Perimeter College campuses.

Requirements

Students who transition from Georgia State’s Perimeter College to the Atlanta campus must achieve a minimum of 2.0 GPA in at least 30 credit hours of study. Proof of lawful presence must be provided to receive complete admission to the Atlanta campus. Students who have completed fewer than 30 credit hours of study must meet all freshmen admission requirements.

Students who wish to transition can fill out a transition form to have their records transferred from the associate degree to the bachelor degree track.

All learning support and required high school curriculum courses must be completed to matriculate at Georgia State University’s Atlanta Campus. Students should complete Area A of the Board of Regents’ core curriculum prior to transition.

1130 Postbaccalaureate Applicants

Definition

Those applicants who have received a bachelor’s degree and who wish to take undergraduate courses without being admitted to a second undergraduate degree program are postbaccalaureate applicants. An applicant wishing to seek a second baccalaureate degree should refer to Section 1125. Georgia State University graduates should refer to Section 1170.

Note: All deadlines are subject to change.

For international student application deadline dates, please see Section 1165.

After the Regular Deadline Dates, only postbaccalaureate applications that are complete at the time of submission (application, nonrefundable application fee, and all required documents) will be processed and only if space is available and time permits.

An applicant wishing to seek a second bachelor's degree in a professional or clinical program in the Byrdine F Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions should apply to the university as a transfer student. Once a student has been admitted to the university, there is a second application process for those interested in majors in the Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions. Please contact the Office of Academic Assistance, Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions, for information on procedures and deadline dates.

Admission Requirements

Postbaccalaureate applicants must hold a baccalaureate degree or the equivalent from an institution of postsecondary education with full accreditation by a regional association of colleges and schools and, where appropriate, the Commission on Colleges.

The postbaccalaureate status is not available for applicants seeking teacher certification in any area other than music education and art education (see Section 1605).

In order to be considered for admission as a postbaccalaureate student, an applicant must complete an application for undergraduate admission (including the nonrefundable fee) and submit an official transcript from the degree-granting institution by the appropriate deadline. If a student wishes to change to a degree-seeking status after enrolling at Georgia State University as a postbaccalaureate student, conditions for acceptance as a transfer student must be met. An application for admission, the nonrefundable application fee and required transcripts must be filed with the Office of Undergraduate Admissions located in 200 Sparks Hall by the established application deadline for the intended semester of entry.

All scholastic discipline policies and all course prerequisite policies are applicable to Postbaccalaureate students. Postbaccalaureates may not attend another institution as transient students from Georgia State. Transient status is only for degree-seeking students. Postbaccalaureate students wishing to attend another institution must apply directly to the other school.
1135 Transient Applicants

Definition

Students who are currently enrolled in a transferable degree program at another accredited college or university in the United States who wish to register at Georgia State University for the purpose of completing work to transfer back to the home institution are transient applicants. Transient students may attend for only one fall or one spring semester. However, attendance as a transient student in summer semesters is unlimited.

Note: All deadlines are subject to change.

For international student application deadline dates, please see Section 1165.

After the Regular Deadline Dates, only transient applications that are complete at the time of submission (application, nonrefundable application fee, and all required documents) will be processed and only if space is available and time permits.

Admission Requirements

In order to be eligible for admission as a transient, a student must submit an application for undergraduate admission (including the nonrefundable fee) and request an official statement granting permission to enroll as a transient student from the home institution. The appropriate academic official at the home institution must send this statement directly to Georgia State University. The application will be valid for 3 terms (the initial term plus 2 additional terms). Students who do not enroll the semester for which they were accepted and wish to register later must either reactivate their application or submit a new application by the application deadline and arrange for a current official statement updated for the new semester to be sent.

International students who are attending school on another institution’s immigration document (F-1/I-20, J-1/IAP-66) will not be issued any additional documents, but must also submit a statement of permission from the International/Foreign Student Advisor at the home institution.

The following regulations are applicable to transient students:

- They should seek academic advisement at their home institution to determine if courses taken at Georgia State are acceptable to their degree program.
- All scholastic discipline policies and all course prerequisite policies are applicable to transient students.
- Transcripts for courses completed at Georgia State as a visiting student must be requested from the Office of the Registrar at http://registrar.gsu.edu/academic-records/transcripts/ to be sent to the home institution.

- Transient students are admitted to and register through the college or school selected on their application. If the applicant does not indicate a college, and if a transient approval letter has been received, placement will be determined from the courses indicated in the letter.
- To continue for an additional summer semester as a transient, a student must file a re-entry application and arrange for all necessary supporting documentation to be received in the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by the established deadlines (see Section 1170). With the exception of summer semesters, registration as a transient student is limited to one semester. Students seeking exception to this policy must contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. If a student wishes to become a transfer student, the student must file a new application for undergraduate admission (including the nonrefundable application fee) and arrange for all transcripts to be received by the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by the appropriate deadline. Student copies of transcripts or official transcripts opened by the student are not acceptable (see Section 1125).

1145 Non-traditional Applicants

Definition

Non-traditional applicants are defined as individuals who meet all of the following criteria:

- Have been out of high school at least five years or whose high school class graduated at least five years ago.
- Hold a high school diploma from an accredited high school as specified under Section 1120 or have satisfactorily completed the GED.
- Have earned fewer than 30 transferable semester hours or 45 transferable quarter credit hours.

Deadlines

A non-traditional applicant must follow the freshman deadlines (see Section 1120) for submitting an application, nonrefundable application fee and transcripts. Applicants are encouraged to apply online at admissions.gsu.edu.

Admission Requirements

Applicants must take the COMPASS assessment to be admitted to the university. The Office of Undergraduate Admissions notifies applicants of test date, time, and location. Applicants must earn the following scores on the COMPASS to be eligible for admission: reading = 74, writing = 60, and mathematics (COMPASS algebra test) = 37. If the file is not completed in time for testing to be scheduled prior to registration, it may become necessary to update the application to a future semester. If an applicant does not earn a required score(s) on the first attempt, that part(s) of the COMPASS may be retaken but the second attempt must be at least ninety (90) days after the first attempt. Applicants who do not earn all three of the required scores after two attempts may not reapply to Georgia State as nontraditional applicants for five years.
At Georgia State, we have three programs that give academically outstanding high school students an opportunity to enroll in undergraduate courses. Students have a choice to enroll in Move On When Ready (MOWR) to earn both high school and college credits. We also offer Joint Enrollment, but in this program, students only earn college credit.

Move On When Ready

Definition

Move on When Ready (MOWR) is an opportunity for academically outstanding high school students to enroll as special non-degree seeking undergraduate students at Georgia State before graduation from high school. Students must be enrolled full-time (12-17 semester hours) and will earn both high school and college credits. Participation is only permitted during the normal fall and spring semesters of the high school and college year.

Student Eligibility

To be eligible for Move On When Ready, a student must:

- Be entering 11th or 12th grade and have spent the prior year in attendance at a public high school in Georgia
- Be on track to graduate
- Be a legal resident of Georgia for 12 consecutive months before the first day of classes and meet U.S. citizenship requirements
- Obtain approval of the high school guidance counselor and parent(s)/legal guardian(s)
- Achieve a grade of C- or higher in their Georgia State courses to remain eligible for the program

Admission Requirements

Because of the demanding nature of college-level course work at a research institution, MOWR students must demonstrate a high degree of academic potential and maturity. To be considered for admission, a student must meet all three requirements for admission:

1. GPA Requirement: Sophomores applying to be a MOWR student as a junior must have a GPA of 3.5 or higher; Juniors applying to be a MOWR student as a senior must have a GPA of 3.3 or higher. Both applicant types must have a minimum GPA of 3.3 in the Required High School Curriculum (RHSC) course units.
2. Test scores: Students may take either the ACT or SAT. The following minimum scores are required:
   - ACT Requirement: 23 English and 23 Math
   - SAT Requirement: 530 Verbal (Critical Reading) and 530 Math
3. Freshman Index (FI): 2700 or higher for seniors and 2800 for juniors.
   - The FI is based on a combination of SAT/ACT scores and high school grade point average (HSGPA) in college preparatory classes only.
   - The FI formula using SAT scores is $SAT\ FI = (500 \times HSGPA) + SAT\ Verbal + SAT\ Math$.

58
The FI formula using ACT scores is $ACT\ FI = (500 \times HSGPA) + (ACT\ composite \times 42) + 88$. In calculating HSGPA for FI purposes, the applicant’s transcript is calculated upon only the academic (college preparatory) courses taken – English, Math, Science, Social Science and Foreign Language.

Deadlines

Applicants must submit the application, nonrefundable application fee and required documents by the appropriate deadline.

Coursework

Talk to your high school guidance counselor about the classes you want to take. All schedules are subject to the approval of the appropriate high school official and Georgia State University. Students will take all coursework at Georgia State University’s main campus. Move on When Ready courses must be selected from the approved MOWR course list. Coursework taken through MOWR does not count against HOPE Scholarship or HOPE Grant hours.

Cost

The cost for full-time coursework up to 17 semester hours from the approved course listing will be funded by the high school Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) program. Eligible participating institutions will accept the determined Move On When Ready amount as full payment for the student’s tuition and mandatory fees. Other cost of attendance expenses including lab fees, books, meals, transportation and personal expenses are the responsibility of the parent/guardian. Any additional credit hours and/or courses not covered under the approved course list must be paid for out of pocket. Students must be aware that grades of C- or better apply to all classes, whether covered out of pocket or through FTE funding.

Policies & Regulations

MOWR students must follow the following academic regulations in addition to all the other academic regulations of Georgia State University.

- Georgia State University MOWR students are not permitted to live on campus in University Housing and must have a form of transportation to campus.
- Admission to Georgia State under MOWR does not imply admission to any other status. MOWR students who later wish to enroll at Georgia State outside the MOWR program must reapply.
- Students may not attend classes during the summer semester
- Students may attend for a maximum of two years (four semesters)
- Students must take courses that meet their high school graduation requirements.
- Students must pass any placement exams required for the courses they wish to take.
- Students may not take any courses at any high school or at any other institution of higher education while enrolled in the program.

- Students may participate in student clubs and other student life activities
- Students who earn a C- or lower in any class will not be allowed to continue in the MOWR program at Georgia State.
- College credits earned while in the MOWR program are transferable to other institutions based on post-secondary agreements between institutions. Students are advised to consider the post-secondary institutional agreements when planning MOWR coursework.
- Beginning fall 2015, the Georgia State University Bookstore will loan required textbooks to each student enrolled in the Move On When Ready program each semester, with the agreement that the textbooks will be returned to Georgia State University at the end of each semester.

MOWR students should be aware that they must meet all state high school graduation testing requirements, including End of Course Tests and the Georgia High School Graduation Tests. Georgia State courses are not designed to prepare students for these tests.

Joint Enrollment

Definition

High school students may supplement and enhance their high school curriculum by enrolling in college courses as a joint enrollment student. Courses taken through joint enrollment result in college credit, not high school credit, and students are responsible for their tuition and fees. Students wishing to attend as a joint enrollment student must meet the Accel Program admission requirements of Georgia State University.

Student Eligibility

To be eligible for Joint Enrollment, a student must:

- Be a high school student seeking a high school diploma from a public or private school, including home study, or home school programs
- Be on track to graduate
- Be a legal resident of Georgia and meet U.S. Citizenship Requirements
- Obtain approval of the high school guidance counselor and parent(s)/legal guardian(s)

Admission Requirements

Students must demonstrate a high degree of academic potential and maturity to be considered for Joint Enrollment (Program for Excellence/PFE). Joint enrollment is open to high school juniors and seniors meeting our application requirements. To be considered for admission, a student must meet all three requirements for admission:

1. GPA Requirement: 3.0 in the Required High School Curriculum (RHSC) course units
2. Test scores: Students may take either the ACT or SAT. The following minimum scores are required:
   - ACT Requirement: 23 English and 23 Math
   - SAT Requirement: 530 Verbal (Critical Reading) and 530 Math
3. Freshman Index (FI): 2600 or higher for seniors and 2700 or higher for juniors
   The FI is based on a combination of SAT/ACT scores and high school grade point average (HSGPA) in college preparatory classes only.
   The FI formula using SAT scores is \( SAT FI = (500 \times HSGPA) + SAT \text{ Verbal} + SAT \text{ Math} \).
   The FI formula using ACT scores is \( ACT FI = (500 \times HSGPA) + (ACT \text{ composite} \times 42) + 88 \).
   In calculating HSGPA for FI purposes, the applicant’s transcript is calculated upon only the academic (college preparatory) courses taken – English, Math, Science, Social Science and Foreign Language.

Coursework

Students will take all coursework at Georgia State University’s main campus

Cost

Participation in Joint Enrollment is funded entirely by the student. To view current tuition costs for Georgia State University, please visit Student Financial Services at http://sfs.gsu.edu.

Policies & Regulations

- Georgia State University Joint Enrollment students are not permitted to live on campus in University Housing and must have a form of transportation to campus.
- Students admitted to the program are subject to the same fees, rules, and regulations as other Georgia State University students.
- A student enrolled simultaneously at the university and the high school is also subject to any rules and regulations imposed by that high school.
- All students are required to earn a high school college preparatory diploma on or before their original graduation date using the college-level coursework, as appropriate.

1154 Early College

Definition

Early College is a program that allows students from selected high schools to enroll at Georgia State. Early College students enrolled in a participating high school may earn a high school diploma with the potential to earn an Associate’s degree or two years of college credit towards a Bachelor’s degree. Unlike Accel, Move on When Ready (MOWR) and Joint Enrollment (JE), Early College enrollment is open only to students enrolled at an Early College high school that has partnered with Georgia State University.

Deadlines

Applicants must submit the application and required documents by the appropriate deadline. Early College deadlines are set by joint agreement of the Georgia State University Office of Admissions and the Early College high school. Students should consult their Early College liaison for applicable deadlines. Early College students do not pay an application fee.

Admission Requirements

Because of the demanding nature of college-level course work at a research institution, Early College students must have a high degree of academic potential and maturity. To be considered for admission, a student must meet the following minimum requirements:

- Have spent the entire year prior to enrollment at an Early College high school in Georgia.
- Be currently enrolled at an Early College high school that has partnered with Georgia State University.
- Be high school sophomore (to apply to be an Early College student as a second semester sophomore or as a junior) or a high school junior (to apply to be an Early College student as a senior).
- Obtain the recommendation of the student’s high school guidance counselor.
- Obtain the approval of the student’s parents or legal guardians.
- Be on track to complete all Required High School Curriculum (RHSC) requirements.
- Achieve a minimum high school GPA of 2.75 in college prep (RHSC) courses.

In addition, the admission decision will also consider:

- A personal essay to be reviewed by the high school guidance counselor making the recommendation.
- A student’s attendance record in high school. Normally, a minimum attendance rate of 90% is required to be permitted to take classes at Georgia State.

Students must also provide a copy of their most recent high school transcript showing all grades completed to date.

Admission to Georgia State under Early College does not imply admission to any other status. Early College students who later wish to enroll at Georgia State outside the Early College program must reapply.

Academic Regulations

Early College students must follow the following academic regulations in addition to all the other academic regulations of Georgia State University.

- They may not attend classes during the summer semester except by special permission of the Georgia State University Advisement Center.
- They may attend for a maximum of five semesters. (However, students should be aware that the Accel program will only pay for four semesters.

- The courses in which they are enrolled must be part of Georgia State’s core curriculum and must count towards their high school graduation requirements.
- They must pass any placement exams required for the courses they wish to take.
- They may not take any courses at any other institution of higher education while enrolled in the program.
- They may not live on campus but may participate in some student clubs and other student life activities with the advance permission of the Office of the Dean of Education.
- Early College students may only enroll in Georgia State courses approved by their high school guidance counselor and Georgia State University Advisement Center.
- If they earn a Georgia State cumulative GPA below 2.0, in next semester students must either attend a USG 2-year institution (that is a Georgia State Early College partner) or attend only high school. They may return to Georgia State only after taking at least six hours at the 2-year institution and earning a GPA of 3.0 (or better) or earning a high school semester GPA of 3.25 (or better).
- Students must participate in the Early Alert program. Faculty who have Early College students in their courses must participate in the Early Alert program.
- College credits earned while in the Early College program are transferable to other USG institutions.

Early College students should be aware that they must meet all state high school graduation testing requirements, including End of Course Tests and the Georgia High School Graduation Tests. Georgia State courses are not designed to prepare students for these tests.

1155 GSU-62 Program

Definition

Applicants who meet the criteria listed below may apply for GSU-62 waivers of tuition and fees. The regulations listed also apply to the GSU-62 student who wishes to audit classes instead of taking courses for credit. Audit registration is completed by the Enrollment Services Center and requires permission from the instructor prior to registration.

Deadlines

Applicants must submit the application and required documents by the appropriate deadline.

Note: All deadlines are subject to change.

The following minimum requirements must be met in order for a student to receive a GSU-62 waiver.

- Must meet all applicable admission requirements for their program of study.
- Must be 62 years of age or older at the time of registration. (Submit a birth certificate or other comparable written documentation, such as a current U.S. passport, verifying proof of your age.)
- Must be classified as a Georgia resident in accordance with the Regents’ Requirements for Resident Status.
- Must not register before the first day of late registration.

GSU-62 students will register on a space available basis during late registration. No tuition and fees will be assessed except for certain classes which require supplies or laboratory fees. All usual student and institutional records will be maintained.

This status can include graduate studies with the exception of the College of Law. Contact the appropriate graduate office in the university for application information. GSU-62 students must be admitted to graduate study to be eligible to enroll for graduate courses (those numbered 5000 and higher). Although you will be applying to graduate school, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions as all waivers are entered through that office.

1165 International Students, Students with Non-U.S. Credentials, and Non-native Speakers of English

Applicants to Georgia State University are classified as international applicants if they meet any of the following criteria:

- Students who will require an F-1 visa to study in the United States
- Students who have been educated outside of the U.S.
- Students whose native language, as reported on the admission application, is a language other than English.

Admission Requirements

1. Georgia State Application for Admission accompanied by a $60 non-refundable fee
2. Minimum test scores on the ACT or SAT exam
   - Official scores should be submitted electronically to Georgia State University (ACT code 0826, SAT code 5251).
   - Georgia State offers a limited number of SAT/ACT waivers to F-1 visa international students who demonstrate exceptional academic credentials. Please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions for details.
3. Official high school transcript(s)
   - Students overseas should send an original transcript directly from their high school, if possible, or a copy that is certified by their high school, the local Education USA advising center, U.S. Consulate, or a credential evaluation service.
   - A certified original translation must accompany all documents not printed in English.
   - International applicants must demonstrate academic preparation equivalent to graduation with a U.S. secondary Required High School Curriculum (RHSC) and have a GPA of 3.0 based on only academic courses.
   - Please do not submit your only original copy – bring it to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions and we will make a copy from the original.

4. Official foreign transcript evaluation Georgia State University requires that all international academic documents (transcripts, mark sheets, certificates, leaving examination results, etc.) be formally evaluated by either an independent evaluation service or the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

5. Official transcript from each college, university or technical college attended (if appropriate)
   - Transfer applicants must be in good standing and be eligible to return to the institution they last attended.
   - Applicants with fewer than 30 hours of transferable college credit must meet freshman requirements.
   - Official transcripts from overseas colleges or universities require an external foreign credential evaluation (course-by-course).
   - A certified original translation must accompany all documents not printed in English.

6. Proof of English proficiency must be met by one of the following:
   - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) score of 550 (paper-based) or 79-80 (internet-based)
   - International Language Testing System (IELTS) score of 6.5
   - Pearson Test of English Academic (PTE) score of 58
   - For freshmen applicants: SAT Critical Reading score of 430 or ACT English score of 17
   - For transfer applicants: Completion of a college-level English composition course with a grade of “C-” or better at a regionally accredited U.S. college or university
   - Documentation that English was the official language of academic instruction in home country
   - Completion of a University System of Georgia approved ESL program

7. Verification of Lawful Presence in the United States.
   - Applicants must provide evidence of lawful presence in the United States to qualify for in-state tuition classification or out-of-state tuition waivers.
   - Students on any type of visa will be asked by International Student & Scholar Services (ISSS) to upload immigration information into iStart for this purpose AFTER admission and prior to enrollment.

Non-native speakers of English who meet all admission requirements except the English language proficiency requirement may be granted conditional admission. To be eligible for conditional admission, applicants must have a TOEFL score of 480 (paper test) or 54(internet-based test) or an IELTS score of 5.5. Students granted conditional admission will be required to take certain full-time courses in the Intensive English Program (IEP) before being fully admitted into Georgia State’s undergraduate study. A student may remain on conditional admission status for no more than three semesters. For more information about the IEP, see iep.gsu.edu/.

International Deadlines

Applications for admission, including the nonrefundable application fee and all required academic credentials and test scores, must be received by the established deadlines. Deadlines for international applicants are earlier than domestic applicants due to the extra credential evaluation, transfer credit, and possible visa application process required. Applications and reactivations received after the deadline dates may be processed for the following semester. Applicants are encouraged to apply online at admissions.gsu.edu/.

1170 Re-entry Applicants

Definition

An undergraduate re-entry applicant is a student who previously enrolled at Georgia State University and who wishes to re-enroll at Georgia State in one of the following ways:

- Previously enrolled as an undergraduate degree-seeking student wishing to return as an undergraduate degree-seeking student after an absence of three or more semesters.
- Previously enrolled as an undergraduate degree-seeking student wishing to return as an undergraduate postbaccalaureate student after an absence of three or more semesters.
- Previously enrolled as an undergraduate postbaccalaureate student wishing to return as an undergraduate postbaccalaureate student after an absence of three or more semesters.
- Previously enrolled as an undergraduate degree-seeking student wishing to return as an undergraduate transient student after an absence of three or more semesters.
- Previously enrolled as an undergraduate transient student wishing to return as an undergraduate transient student for any term. Note: Students are only permitted to attend one spring or one fall semester as an undergraduate transient student, but may apply for unlimited summer semesters. Students seeking exception to this policy must contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

The re-entry application cannot be used in the following situations:

- Transient and postbaccalaureate students cannot apply for re-entry to update to degree-seeking (transfer) status. Transients and postbaccalaureate students wishing to become transfer students should complete a new application for admission, submit the appropriate application fee and all transcripts to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Students should refer to Section 1125 for deadlines, admission requirements and other policies related to transfer admission.
- Students that have only attended Georgia State University at the graduate level cannot apply for re-entry to enroll at the undergraduate level. Graduate students wishing to enroll at the undergraduate level should complete a new application for undergraduate admission, submit the appropriate application fee and all transcripts to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Students should refer to the appropriate area of Section 1100 for deadlines, admission requirements and other policies related to transfer, transient, and postbaccalaureate admission.

- Students who have only attended Georgia State University as dual enrollment cannot apply for re-entry at the undergraduate level. Dual enrollment students wishing to enroll at the undergraduate level should complete a new application for undergraduate admission, submit the appropriate application fee and all transcripts to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

Deadlines

Applications for re-entry admission and the nonrefundable re-entry application fee must be submitted or postmarked by the established deadlines. Applicants are encouraged to apply online at http://admissions.gsu.edu/how-do-i-apply/other-enrollment-types/re-entry-students/. Complete credentials must be received before a decision can be made. All required credentials should be submitted to the Office of Admissions no later than fifteen business days following the submission date of the re-entry application. Re-entry applications are processed in the order that they are complete and ready for a decision. Students wishing to be considered for a subsequent term must submit a reactivation form at the following website (http://admissions.gsu.edu/how-do-i-apply/other-enrollment-types/reactivation/), and any additional credentials that may be necessary by the appropriate deadline. The re-entry application is valid for 3 terms (the initial term plus 2 additional terms).

Applicants interested in early registration dates, university housing and financial aid are urged to apply and complete their applications by the early deadline dates listed below. Any re-entry application received after the regular deadline for the term indicated on the re-entry application will be processed for the next available term and the application fee will not be refunded.

Note: All deadlines are subject to change.

Admission Requirements

Degree-seeking Re-entries. Applicants who previously attended Georgia State as degree-seeking and wish to return as degree-seeking must meet the following requirements:

- Students that have attended other institution(s) since their last enrollment at Georgia State University must submit official transcripts from the institution(s). Student copies of transcripts, official transcripts opened by the student, and fax copies are not acceptable. Re-entry applicants must be eligible to return to their last institution of attendance for the term of desired re-enrollment at Georgia State in order to be granted admission as a re-entry student.

- Students that last attended Georgia State University in the Learning Support Program (formerly the Department of Academic Foundations and Developmental Studies), have COMPASS scores below those currently required to exit LSP, and have not fulfilled their LSP requirements must either:

  1. Retake the appropriate COMPASS tests and earn the minimum reading score currently required to exit LSP (74), the minimum writing score currently required to exit LSP (60), and the minimum math score currently required to exit LSP (37) or
2. LSP courses may be taken at our Perimeter College campuses or at another USG institution.
   Learning Support students are encouraged to apply by the early deadline.
   - Undergraduate students re-entering on supervision or probation are required to participate in the Academic Improvement Program (see Section 1360.20).
   - Students that were placed on exclusion at the conclusion of their last term at Georgia State University must submit an application for academic renewal to the University Advisement Center.
     Approval for academic renewal must be granted before students previously excluded can be approved to reenter the University. Students should refer to section 1360.30 for policies and procedures related to academic renewal prior to submitting an application for re-entry.

Transient Re-entries. Students wishing to apply for re-entry as a transient student must submit an official transient letter from their home institution. Unofficial transient letters, transient letters opened by the student, and fax copies are not acceptable. The transient letter must indicate that the student has permission to attend Georgia State University for the desired term of enrollment. Transient students must be eligible to return to their home institution for the desired term of enrollment. A new re-entry application and a new transient letter are required for each subsequent term of enrollment at Georgia State. Note:
Students are only permitted to attend one spring or one fall semester as an undergraduate transient student, but unlimited summer semesters. Students seeking exception to this policy must contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

Degree-seeking to Postbaccalaureate Re-entries. Previous degree-seeking students wishing to re-enroll as a postbaccalaureate student must submit a transcript from the institution awarding the baccalaureate degree. Student copies of transcripts, official transcripts opened by the student, and fax copies are not acceptable. For those students that were previously awarded their undergraduate degree by Georgia State University, a Georgia State University transcript is not needed.

Postbaccalaureate to Postbaccalaureate Re-entries. Previous postbaccalaureate students wishing to return to Georgia State University as a postbaccalaureate are not required to submit any additional transcripts.

1175 Academic Regulations that Apply to Various Admission Categories

1175.10 Transient Students

Transient students may attend for only one fall or one spring semester. However, attendance as a transient student in summer semesters is unlimited. In order to continue for an additional summer semester(s) as a transient, a student must file a re-entry form and arrange for all necessary supporting documentation to be received in the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by the established deadlines. To continue attending, transient students must be in good academic standing at Georgia State University. Transient students who wish to become transfer students must apply to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions to be admitted as a transfer student. All scholastic discipline policies and all course prerequisites are applicable to a transient student. Transcripts for courses completed at Georgia State as a transient must be requested from the Office of the Registrar to be sent to the home institution. Transient students are admitted to and register through the college or school selected on their application. If the applicant does not indicate a college, and if a transient approval has been received, placement will be determined from the courses indicated in the letter. Transient students who seek re-entry must complete a new re-entry form for the semester that they wish to attend.

1175.20 Postbaccalaureate Students

The postbaccalaureate status is not available for students seeking teacher certification in any area other than music education and art education. Postbaccalaureates may not attend another institution as a transient student while the postbaccalaureate is a student at Georgia State University.

1175.30 International Students

International students with student visas are required to carry a full course load (12 semester hours).
International students with student visas who wish to re-enter must complete a new re-entry form for the semester that they wish to attend.

1180 Undergraduate Admissions Appeals

The Assistant Vice President for Undergraduate Admissions and the Vice President for Enrollment Management and Student Success and Vice Provost are the President’s designees for purposes of hearing
Undergraduate Admissions Appeals.

Applicants for undergraduate admission who are denied due to academic ineligibility may appeal the denial to the Assistant Vice President for Undergraduate Admissions within twenty (20) calendar days of the date of the denial letter. The decision of the Assistant Vice President for Undergraduate Admissions is final.

Applicants for undergraduate admission who are denied for reasons related to disciplinary/criminal history or falsification of application may appeal the denial to the Vice President for Enrollment Management and Student Success and Vice Provost within twenty (20) calendar days of the date of the denial letter. The decision of the Vice President for Enrollment Management and Student Success and Vice Provost is final.
1200 Financial Information

The offices of Student Accounts and Financial Aid provide services to students to help them meet their financial obligations to Georgia State University so that they can progress academically. Visit our website at sfs.gsu.edu for details about services provided. It is the responsibility of the student to be informed of, and to observe, all regulations and procedures regarding tuition, fees, payments, refunds and financial aid. In no case will a regulation be waived or an exception granted because a student pleads ignorance of the regulation or asserts that he or she was not informed of it by an advisor or other authority. Verbal misinformation is not grounds for a waiver of a regulation.

1210 Tuition and Fees

Tuition and fees charged by Georgia State University are set and approved by the Board of the Regents of the University System of Georgia. Tuition and fees are subject to change without notice. For information about resident status, see Section 1220. The Office of Student Accounts, 100 Sparks Hall, is responsible for assessing tuition and mandatory student fees. Current tuition and fee rates are available at sfs.gsu.edu/tuition-fees/. The specific amount of a student’s tuition and mandatory fees for a semester depends on a number of things, the most important of which are:

- The number of courses taken
- The nature of the courses
- The number of credit hours assigned to the course
- The residency status of the student

Actual tuition and mandatory fee charges are determined when a student registers for classes each semester and can be viewed online via PAWS at paws.gsu.edu. Registration is not complete until all tuition and fees have been paid in full.

1210.10 Waivers of Tuition and Fees

All requests for waivers of tuition and fees are due no later than two weeks before the end of regular registration. Requests made after that date will be considered for the subsequent semester.

Waivers of All Tuition

All tuition is waived for students who fall into one of the following categories:

- GSU-62 students who register during late registration. See section 1155.
- Employee tuition remission students who take no more than 8 hours and register during late registration.

Waivers of the Difference between Resident and Nonresident Tuition
The Board of Regents specifies that certain non-residents are granted waivers of the difference between resident and nonresident tuition. (See section 1220 for residency status rules.) These waivers are restricted to small classes of students. For more information, see www.usg.edu/regents/policymanual/700.phtml.

In addition to the Board of Regents authorized waivers, non-resident students who are enrolled only in courses which meet more than 50 miles from Georgia State and are part of an official Georgia State off-campus study program pay in-state tuition plus $250.

To apply for a waiver of the difference between resident and nonresident tuition, go to sfs.gsu.edu/tuition-fees/tuition-classification/.

Waivers of All Fees

All fees are waived for students who fall into one of the following categories:

- GSU-62 students (see section 1155)
- Employee tuition remission students who take no more than 8 hours and register during late registration
- Joint Enrolled/Early College/ACCEL students
- US Military Reserve and Georgia National Guard Combat Veterans
- Move On When Ready students

Waivers of All but Technology Fee

Enrollment fees are reduced to only the technology fee for students who fall into the categories below.

- Students enrolled only in courses offered under a tuition agreement between Georgia State University and a corporation, organization, educational institution or other legal entity if the tuition agreement specifies that fees will be waived.
- Students enrolled only in courses which meet more than 50 miles from Georgia State University if taking those courses at that location is required by their program of study. Such courses may include: practicum, student teaching, internship, directed reading, independent study, thesis research, or dissertation research. If the program of study allows (but does not require) that the courses be taken more than 50 miles from campus, then the students will not be granted a fee waiver.
- Students enrolled only in courses that meet more than 50 miles from Georgia State University if those courses are part of an official Georgia State University off-campus study program. Such programs may include field study programs and study abroad programs.
- Students enrolled in a faculty-led study abroad program will have all fees waived, except for the Board of Regents Institution Fee and Technology Fee. For more information see the Study Abroad website: http://mystudyabroad.gsu.edu/.

All mandatory fees except the technology fee and USG Institution fee may be waived in certain cases, based on Board of Regents policy. For more information on Tuition & Fee Waivers, visit http://sfs.gsu.edu/tuition-fees/tuition-fee-waivers/.

1210.20 Payment of Tuition and Fees
Georgia State University reserves the right at any time during the semester to drop or withdraw any student from classes for failure to pay tuition and fees. Students who cease to attend but do not formally drop their classes using PAWS at paws.gsu.edu will suffer financial and academic consequences. A student who attends a class without being formally registered or continues to attend a class after being dropped due to nonpayment will be held liable for the tuition and/or fees due plus any service fees assessed, applicable collection costs, court costs, and legal fees. A hold will be placed on the records of any student who has a financial obligation to the university. Until all financial obligations are met, a student is not permitted to register for further course work, receive grades for current course work, or access transcripts. If a student’s account is sent to a collection agency, the student is responsible for the amount owed to the university as well as any collection costs and legal fees.

Payment Deadline

All tuition and fees must be paid by the dates published each semester in the online Academic/Registration calendar at registrar.gsu.edu/registration/semester-calendars-exam-schedules/. Failure to meet payment deadlines will have financial and academic consequences.

Payment by Credit Card

Georgia State University accepts Visa, MasterCard, Discover and American Express for payment of tuition and fees. Students choosing this option may register and pay fees by going to the Georgia State University PAWS student registration website at paws.gsu.edu. A service fee of 2.75% (or $3 minimum) is assessed by the payment processor for each credit card transaction. Credit card payments must be made on PAWS and are not accepted via telephone or in person at the cashier windows.

Payment by Check

Georgia State University offers the option of paying online from a bank checking or savings account. Students choosing this option may register and pay fees by going to the Georgia State University PAWS student registration website at paws.gsu.edu. No service fee is assessed when paying online via check. Checks must be payable in United States currency and drawn on a financial institution located in the United States of America. The university reserves the right to determine the acceptability of all checks.

Checks are also accepted at the cashier windows located at the downtown and perimeter campuses. Directions and other information about in-person payments is available on the Student Account website at sfs.gsu.edu/tuition-fees/payments/. Students may also mail a check or money order to: Georgia State University, Cashier’s Office, P.O. Box 4029, Atlanta, GA 30302-4029. Checks must be made payable to Georgia State University and have an encoded checking account number on the face of the check. All checks not drawn in this manner will be returned. To ensure proper credit, the student’s Panther ID should be included on all checks. To avoid cancelation of classes, payment by check must be received, not post marked, by the fee payment deadline.

If a check given in payment of a student’s fees is not paid upon presentation to the banking institution, a hold is placed on the student’s records. All returned checks are assessed a returned check fee of $35.00. Georgia State University reserves the right to place a student on “cash only” status for issuing a check that is not honored upon presentation to the bank.
Payment in Cash

Cash payments may be made at the Cashier’s Office located at the downtown and perimeter campuses. Directions and other information about in-person payments is available on the Student Account website at sfs.gsu.edu/tuition-fees/payments/. It is unadvisable to send cash payments through the mail or to place them in the cashier’s drop box.

1210.30 Refund of Tuition and Fees

Students who formally withdraw or who are formally withdrawn from all classes (see Section 1332.10) will be subject to the refund policy for tuition and other fees. This policy decreases the amount of refund available at regular intervals during the term. Students must withdraw from all classes to be eligible for a refund. After a time during the term, no refund will be available. Complete information about the refund policy throughout the term is available in each term’s online Registration Guide at http://registrar.gsu.edu/registration/registration-guide/.

Placing a stop payment on a check with the banking institution from which the check is drawn does not constitute a formal withdrawal from courses. Students must withdraw using the procedures outlined in the Registration Guide.

A student is not entitled to any refund of tuition or fees paid if the student leaves the university when disciplinary action is pending, suspended for disciplinary reasons, or does not formally withdraw from the class or classes in which he or she is enrolled, or if other restrictions apply. See the online Registration Guide.

Student Account refunds are paid by electronic transfer to the student’s bank account via direct deposit, electronic transfer to the student’s Money Network enabled PantherCard, or by check mailed to the student using the mailing address on file with Georgia State. The refund for a student who received financial aid will be audited to determine the amounts to be returned to financial aid programs, and the student will receive any remaining balance. Students who sign up for direct deposit or the PantherCard refund program receive their refunds faster and in a more secure manner than students whose refunds are mailed. Mailing addresses must be kept current by going to the Georgia State University PAWS student website at paws.gsu.edu to ensure proper mailing of refund checks.

1210.40 Housing Fees

Housing fees for each semester are due when tuition and other fees are due. The housing fees include utilities, cable television service, internet connection, and laundry rooms. University Housing offers a variety of choices from which you may select. Please check the housing website at myhousing.gsu.edu for specific rates, room type, room descriptions, and how to apply for housing. Housing fees are subject to change. For more information, contact University Housing at 250 Student Center, 404-413-1800, housing@gsu.edu.

For information regarding Lofts Tenant parking, visit Campus Services at services.gsu.edu.
1220 Georgia Resident Status

Residents of Georgia pay lower tuition rates than those who are not residents of Georgia. Establishing residency for tuition purposes as defined by the Board of Regents is different than residency for purposes such as voting, obtaining a Georgia driver’s license/tag, etc., and requires more than establishing eligibility to vote, securing a driver’s license, and/or paying taxes. Georgia residency status is also distinct from the academic residency requirement for graduation. (See Section 1440.)

A person may be a Georgia resident for tuition purposes if, and only if, either one of the following two criteria are met.

Criterion 1

A person may be a Georgia resident for tuition purposes if that person, that person’s parents, or (if the person is a minor) that person’s court-appointed guardian meets all of the following conditions:

- The person has always resided in Georgia or can demonstrate that they currently reside in Georgia and residency in any other state or country has been abandoned. Maintenance of ties with another state or country will contribute to a non-resident decision including: financial support from a person who is a resident of another state or country, payment of income taxes to another state, and payment of property taxes. Registering a vehicle or securing a driver’s license in that state or country may be considered.
- The person has lived in Georgia for the 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the start date for the term and their 12-month durational requirement has not included time attending any educational institution in Georgia.
- The person can demonstrate that they moved to Georgia for purposes other than attending any educational institution in the State of Georgia.
- The person can demonstrate economic self-sufficiency and has contributed to the state by paying meaningful taxes.
- The person is a U.S. citizen, Resident Alien or is in a visa status permitting indefinite or permanent residence in the United States.

Criterion 2

A person may be a Georgia resident for tuition purposes if that person meets all of the following conditions:

- The person is a U.S. citizen, Resident Alien or is in a visa status permitting indefinite permanent residence in the United States and
- The person can demonstrate that she or he previously held residency status in Georgia but moved from the state and returned within the last 12 months.

If a parent or legal guardian of a student is a Georgia resident and then changes his or her legal residence to another state, the student may retain his or her classification as a resident student as long as he or she remains continuously enrolled at an institution in the University System of Georgia.
Please note that these regulations are subject to change by the Board of Regents. The most current regulations can be found on the Board of Regents’ website at www.usg.edu/regents/policymanual/400.phtml.

1220.10 Petitioning for Georgia Residency for Fee Payment Purposes

Prospective students and accepted applicants who have questions regarding their residence status should contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

Students classified as out-of-state shall retain that status until officially reclassified as in-state. A student classified as out-of-state who can subsequently provide clear and convincing evidence that he/she meets the requirements for in-state classification can be reclassified as in-state. The burden to support the contention that he/she qualifies for in-state tuition classification under University System of Georgia policy and applicable laws always rests with the student. The petition form for Georgia tuition classification is located at http://sfs.gsu.edu/tuition-fees/tuition-classification/petition-for-georgia-tuition-classification/.

Deadlines for Petitions

To ensure timely processing, petitions and all required documents must be submitted to the Registration and Compliance department within the Office of the Registrar, 225 Sparks Hall, no later than the deadlines listed below. Final determination of Georgia tuition classification prior to the deadline date for fee payment cannot be guaranteed for petitions received after the priority date. Petitions filed after the final deadline will be considered for the subsequent semester.

If a petition is approved, classification will not be retroactive to prior semesters. A student wishing to appeal the decision resulting from his or her Petition for Georgia Tuition Classification may request a review of that decision by the University Committee on Residency and must submit such request in writing to the Office of the Registrar within 5 days of the decision.

1230 Financial Aid

Financial aid is any scholarship, grant, loan, or part-time employment offered for the purpose of helping a student meet their educational expenses. Aid is usually provided by federal, state, institutional or private agencies. In order to apply, a student must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or the Renewal Application. Students are encouraged to apply online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Recipients are selected on the basis of demonstrated financial need and/or academic achievement. Information concerning application for financial assistance is available from the Office of Student Financial Aid. Application packets for the next school year are available after January 1. Students are urged to apply early for optimum financial aid benefits at www.fafsa.ed.gov. April 1 is the priority date for submission of completed financial aid applications to the Office of Student Financial Aid. The Office of Student Financial Aid cannot guarantee that applications made after April 1 will be processed before the beginning of the fall semester.

In order for a Georgia State University student to continue to receive financial aid from federal or state financial assistance programs, the student must exhibit satisfactory academic progress. Copies of Georgia State University’s policy for determining satisfactory academic progress are available in the Office of Student Financial Aid and also on the Financial Aid website at http://sfs.gsu.edu/the-financial-aid-process/policies/satisfactory-academic-progress-sap/.

Some programs offering financial assistance to students are administered by offices or organizations other than the Office of Student Financial Aid. Contact information concerning a particular program or group of programs appears with each listing.

Audited, orientation, and certificate courses are not covered by financial aid. Students are not eligible to receive financial aid for a course attempted more than three times.

For more information on financial aid see http://sfs.gsu.edu/the-financial-aid-process/.

1230.10 Scholarships

A scholarship is financial assistance which does not have to be repaid and is awarded to students based on academic excellence, civic achievements, course of study, or other specific criteria developed by the sponsor. For further details about scholarships available at Georgia State University, see the website for the student’s college. Additionally, students may check the reference section in the Georgia State University Library for more sources of private scholarships.

HOPE Scholarship/Zell Miller Scholarship

Students who are considered Georgia residents and are enrolled in an undergraduate degree program may be eligible for the HOPE /Zell Scholarship. The Hope award covers a percentage of tuition to be determined annually. The Zell Miller Scholarship covers 100% of tuition. There is a seven year limit from high school graduation. There is a maximum attempted hour limit of 127 total hours.

HOPE Scholarship recipients must have at least a cumulative 3.0 GPA at the end of each spring semester in order to continue their eligibility. In addition to these requirements traditional and nontraditional students must have at least a 3.0 cumulative HOPE GPA after the 30th, 60th, and 90th attempted hour. If the student does not meet the HOPE GPA requirements at 90 hours, he/she cannot regain his/her eligibility.

Zell Miller Scholarship

Students who graduated from an eligible high school in 2011 or beyond:

Must have at least a 3.7 High School GPA and a 1200 on the Math and Reading portions of the SAT or a 26 composite on the ACT OR graduate as the Valedictorian or the Salutatorian from an eligible high school.
OR graduate from an ineligible high school with a 1200 on the Math and Reading portions of the SAT or a 26 composite on the ACT AND achieve at least a 3.3 HOPE GPA at the 30 semester hour check-points in college. For more information on the HOPE/ZELL Scholarship, or to view the regulations, please contact the Georgia Student Finance Commission (GSFC): 770-294-9000 or 800-505-GSFC (4732) or www.gacollege411.org.

1230.15 Grants

Eligibility for federal student aid grants are based on high financial need. Award amounts for these grants vary but do not have to be repaid. All recipients must be in a degree-seeking program working toward a first baccalaureate degree; be a US citizen or an eligible non-citizen; be making satisfactory academic progress; cannot be in default or owe a repayment on a previous financial aid award; and must register with Selective Service if required to do so.

Pell Grant

Available almost exclusively to undergraduates; in some cases, however, you might receive a Pell Grant if you’re enrolled in a post baccalaureate teacher certificate program; all eligible students will receive the Federal Pell Grant amount they qualify for.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)

For undergraduates with exceptional financial need; priority is given to Federal Pell Grant recipients; funds depend on availability at school.

Teach Grant

The TEACH Grant Program provides grants to full-time students who plan to teach full-time in high-need subject areas at schools serving students from low income families. Students attending less than full-time will have the grant reduced.

For more on the Pell Grant, FSEOG and Teach Grant, visit http://sfs.gsu.edu/scholarships-grants/grants/.

1230.20 Student Loans

A loan is a form of financial assistance which must be repaid. While Georgia State University does not encourage borrowing, loans are frequently necessary to meet educational costs not covered by the student’s income, the family’s contribution, or grant and scholarship awards. When student loans are necessary, Georgia State University advises borrowing conservatively.

Undergraduate students with demonstrated financial need may borrow through the Federal Direct Subsidized Student Loan program. Independent undergraduate students may borrow additional funds through the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Student Loan program, and parents of dependent undergraduates may borrow through the Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students Loan program. The Office of Student Financial Aid will determine loan eligibility by year in school, prior indebtedness, and academic standing.

All recipients must be enrolled at least half-time in a degree seeking program, be a United States citizen or an eligible non-citizen; be making satisfactory academic progress; cannot be in default or owe a repayment on a previous financial aid award; and must register with the Selective Service if required to do so. Upon acceptance of a loan, a first-time borrower must complete entrance loan counseling at StudentLoans.gov. The student must also complete a Master Promissory Note (MPN) at StudentLoans.gov, the student is required to use the FSA ID to complete the MPN. If a student does not have an FSA ID, the FSA ID can be created at https://fsaid.ed.gov/npas/index.htm.

Federal Direct Loan borrowers who are leaving school, dropping below half-time enrollment, or graduating must complete exit counseling at StudentLoans.gov. Exit counseling provides you with information about repayment and your rights and responsibilities.

Perkins Loan

Federal funds are provided to the university for the purpose of making low interest, long-term loans available to students who have a need for assistance. As of September 30, 2015, the Perkins Loan program expired. Due to the expiration of the program, new rules have been established by the Department of Education regarding the future administration of the program. New borrowers that did not receive a Perkins Loan award by September 30, 2015 cannot be awarded the Perkins Loan for the remaining time they are in college. The grandfathering provision for the Perkins Loan will apply to a certain group of students who received loans for the award year that ended prior to October 1, 2015. The academic year 2014-2015 which ended June 30, 2015 is the award year that ended prior to October 1, 2015.

Private Loans

Private loans, also known as alternative or commercial loans, help bridge the gap between the actual cost of education and the limited amount the government allows a student to borrow from its programs. Private loans are offered by many lending institutions. Terms and conditions can vary significantly from one institution to another.

1230.30 Student Employment Programs

Working part time while attending school is another way students may help pay for college expenses such as tuition, books, transportation, and meals. It can also provide valuable experience for resumes.

Federal Work-Study and Panther Work Program

The purpose of the Federal Work-Study and the Panther Work Program is to provide jobs for students who need financial aid. Applicants must demonstrate need. Eligible students will be placed in offices on campus. Eligible students with complete applications for student financial aid will be considered.

Students may apply for part-time or full-time employment on campus while pursuing their academic programs. Temporary and regular classified staff positions are posted on the bulletin board in the Employment Office of Human Resources. A listing of employment opportunities is also available at jobs.gsu.edu. For further information, contact the Office Employment, 340 One Park Place, 404-413-3270 or jobs@gsu.edu. Students may also use Panther Career Net (career.gsu.edu) to search on-campus student employee positions.

Off-campus Employment

University Career Services offers career services to students from freshman year through one year after graduation. Students may also use Panther Career Net (career.gsu.edu) to search off-campus student employee positions. For additional information, see section 1536.

1230.40 Other Sources of Financial Assistance

Veterans Benefits

The Office of the Registrar offers services to certify and assist students who are eligible for veterans educational benefits. Any veteran who wishes to attend Georgia State University under any of the veterans educational benefit programs provided by public law must apply to the Georgia State University Office of Admissions in the normal manner. It is advisable for a veteran who has not previously used any educational benefits to apply to the Department of Veterans Affairs for those benefits. For a veteran who will be transferring to Georgia State University from another institution where educational benefits were received, a veteran must submit a Request for Change of Program or Place of Training form (VA Form 22-1995 for veterans and VA Form 22-5495 for family members) with the Department of Veterans Affairs concurrently with his or her application to Georgia State. As soon as the Georgia State University Office of Undergraduate Admissions notifies the applicant of his or her acceptance, the applicant should contact the Office of the Registrar at veterans.gsu.edu.

Continuing students who wish to receive benefits must complete the Online Veterans’ Enrollment Verification Form, located at veterans.gsu.edu, each academic term. Students are certified on a term-by-term basis. Students whose attendance was interrupted must renew their certifications at the beginning of the next academic term of attendance in which they wish to receive benefits. Those students who are certified on a term by term basis will routinely experience a break in benefit payments between academic terms and should contact the Veterans Administration Regional Office to determine the amount and schedule of their benefit payments at www.gibill.va.gov.

Yellow Ribbon Program

In support of our nation’s Veterans Georgia State University participates in the Yellow Ribbon Program, providing additional assistance to cover out-of-state tuition and mandatory fees that are currently not covered by the Post-911 GI Bill.

Program Details

- Georgia State University contributes 50 percent toward out-of-state tuition charges for those eligible and the Department of Veteran Affairs matches Georgia State’s scholarship contribution. The program funding is only applied toward tuition and mandatory fees. It does not cover books, housing, and other student expenditures.

- Scholarships are awarded to 30 students on a first come, first serve basis. This means that after the initial application is approved, as long as the student remains continuously enrolled in a program of study at Georgia State and the University remains a participating institution, the student will be guaranteed to receive this scholarship. If continuous enrollment is not maintained, the student is required to re-apply for the program. If all scholarships have been awarded, a waiting list will be maintained. As scholarships become available, students placed on a waiting list will be honored first.

Eligibility Requirements

Non-active Service Member receiving Post 9/11 Educational Benefits at the 100 percent eligibility rate.

-or-

A dependent eligible for Transfer of Entitlement under the Post 9/11 GI Bill based on a Non-active Service Member’s service under the eligibility criteria listed above.

How to Apply for the Yellow Ribbon Program:

1. Veterans and their dependents interested in applying for this program should initiate an application through the Military Outreach Center, Office of the Registrar, 234 Sparks Hall.
2. Students must complete a Georgia State University’s Yellow Ribbon Application.
3. A Certificate of Eligibility Letter from the Department of Veterans Affairs must be submitted with the Yellow Ribbon Application.

For more information regarding the Yellow Ribbon Program, contact the Military Outreach Center, Office of the Registrar, vetstudentservices@gsu.edu

Vocational Rehabilitation

Certain physically or mentally disabled individuals enrolled at Georgia State University may qualify to receive financial aid through the State Vocational Rehabilitation Program. Students who think they may qualify under this program should contact one of the area vocational rehabilitation centers.

1230.50 International Students, Students with Non-U.S. Academic Credentials, and Non-Native Speakers of English

International Students

Only United States citizens or eligible non-citizens may receive federal financial aid or State of Georgia financial aid. Permanent residents, asylees, and refugees are eligible non-citizens. Holders of A, B, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, L or M visas are not eligible non-citizens.

An individual who has applied for permanent resident status is not eligible until that status is approved. An individual may have resident status in the State of Georgia but not be considered a United States citizen or eligible non-citizen. An individual is not eligible on the basis of the status of family members, for example a parent or a spouse.

All students that are not confirmed as U.S. citizens or eligible non-citizens by United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) on their initial application for financial aid are required to submit appropriate documentation to the Office of Financial Aid. The Office of Financial Aid is required to submit this documentation to CIS for secondary confirmation. Until secondary confirmation is received, an individual cannot be approved to receive financial aid.

Students with Non-United States Academic Credentials

There are no special financial aid rules for students with non-United States academic credentials.

Non-Native Speakers of English

There are no special financial aid rules for students who are non-native speakers of English.

- Jean Childs Young Scholarship: This scholarship was established in 2005 by Charles Loudermilk Sr. to provide financial support for AYSPS graduate students in honor of Ambassador Young’s deceased wife, Jean Childs Young. The fellowship may be used for tuition, books, room, board and other associated expenses incurred by graduate students.

- James L Maddex, Jr. Scholarship: This scholarship was established in honor of Dr. James L. Maddex, Jr., Professor Emeritus of Criminal Justice, who retired in 2000. The merit-based scholarship is awarded to an undergraduate or graduate criminal justice student.

- Nance Lu Mescon Scholarship: This scholarship was established by Dr. Michael and Mrs. Enid Mescon to honor the memory of their beloved daughter, who passed away in 2011 after a long battle with anorexia. With this scholarship, the Mescon family seeks to raise awareness and stimulate scholarship around the issues relating to eating disorders. The scholarship provides financial support for undergraduate students, and preference will be given to qualified applicants currently enrolled at the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies.

Awards are contingent on final clearance by the Office of Student Financial Aid. Any student receiving aid under any federal financial aid program is limited by the student's “estimated cost of attendance” as to the total amount of aid that may be received. This applies to aid from all sources, public and private. You will find this information in your aid letter from the financial aid office or online in your financial aid record in PAWS.

Established in conjunction with the Atlanta Chapter of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences.

- Alfredo Barili Scholarship: Awarded to students majoring in music who demonstrate exceptional talent on a string instrument. This scholarship was established in 1996 by Dr. Cherry Emerson to honor Atlanta music pioneer Alfredo Barili.

- Haskell and Mabel Boyter Choral Scholarship: Awarded annually to an outstanding junior or senior who shows outstanding achievement and leadership in choral music.

- Thomas M. Brumby Scholarship: Given annually to an outstanding junior or senior student majoring in music with a concentration in piano or organ. This award was created to honor the memory of Thomas M. Brumby, the prime builder of the School of Music at Georgia State.

- John Demos Memorial Scholarship: Awarded to a music student enrolled as a junior or senior, or to an incoming transfer student at the sophomore level or higher, who shows exceptional talent on a woodwind instrument and serves the School of Music by performing in two or more instrumental ensembles. A 3.0 grade-point average is required.

- William G. Densmore Vocal Scholarship: Awarded annually to provide scholarships to operatic voice students enrolled in the School of Music who demonstrate exceptional vocal talent and a desire for an operatic career.

- Robert Farrington Clayton, Jr., Memorial Scholarship: This scholarship provides financial assistance to exceptional full-time music students who excel academically, exhibit financial need, and possess strong personal moral character. The scholarship was created to honor the memory of a former student, Robert Farrington Clayton, Jr.

- Bradford and Patricia Ferrer Scholarship in Music: Awarded to exceptional undergraduate students who are enrolled in the School of Music.

- Donald S. Gingrich Scholarship in Music Education: Awarded to a senior or graduate student majoring in Music Education who demonstrates high academic achievement with a grade point average of 3.0 or better and a commitment to music education. The award was established in 2006 by Donald S. Gingrich, a retired music education professor in the Georgia State University School of Music.

- Charles and Rosemary Hall Choral Music Scholarship: This scholarship provides support for meritorious choral students in the School of Music at the junior, senior, or graduate level. Students must be in good standing with a 3.0 or higher grade-point average and demonstrate exceptional vocal talent. Mr. and Mrs. Hall established the scholarship as an expression of the Hall family's dedication to choral music and in continued support of the School of Music.

- Peter Harrower Scholarship in Voice: Awarded annually to a student majoring in music who has demonstrated exceptional voice talent and outstanding academic achievement. This scholarship fund was established in 1988 through gifts from the Harrower family and friends.

- Haywood Family Scholarship: This scholarship provides support for undergraduates in the School of Music. Students considered for the award must be an undergraduate music major in good standing. Mr. Gene T. Haywood established this scholarship endowment as an expression of his passion for music and his desire to help others.

- Duane L. and Drada P. Hoover Endowed Choral Scholarship: A scholarship awarded to the School of Music's most talented and deserving choral students. This fund was created by Duane L. and Drada P. Hoover to support these outstanding students, as well as to support performances and touring activities for the chorus.

- Florence Kopleff Vocal Scholarship: Awarded to a student majoring in music who has demonstrated exceptional talent as a vocalist. This scholarship was established in 1998 by Miss Kopleff and friends.

- Bill Lowery Endowed Scholarship: This scholarship is awarded annually to an outstanding student in the music industry program of the School of Music. Among the criteria for selection are academic excellence and service to the recording industry. The fund for the scholarship was established by friends of Bill Lowery. Mr. Lowery is one of the music industry's most outstanding music publishers and a founder of Georgia State's commercial music program.

- Montgomery Music Scholarship: Provides scholarships for students of the School of Music. This fund was established in 1985 by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Montgomery.

- Gerschefski/Reader Violoncello Scholarship: Awarded annually to a student majoring in music who demonstrates exceptional talent on the cello. This scholarship was originally established in 1999 by Martha Gerschefski and friends, in honor of her parents, Ina and Edwin Gerschefski. The award was recently re-named to also honor the memory of a former student, David Reader, who had graduated with a Master of Music in cello performance.

- John Schneider Memorial Scholarship: Awarded annually to a student majoring in music who has demonstrated exceptional keyboard talent and outstanding academic achievement. This scholarship fund was established in 1988 through gifts from Georgia State music faculty and... friends.

- Helen Riley Smith Voice Scholarship: Awarded annually to a student majoring in music who has demonstrated exceptional vocal talent and outstanding academic achievement. The scholarship fund was established by the Smith family and friends.

- Aileen and Chris Valianos Music Scholarship Fund: This scholarship provides support to undergraduates enrolled in the School of Music. Students considered for the award must be in good standing, have a demonstrated commitment to excellence, and display potential to be a meritorious student or emerging school in their musical field of study.

- Sam Wallace Memorial Scholarship: Awarded annually to students in the music industry program of the School of Music. The criteria for selection are financial need and outstanding scholastic achievement. Music industry friends of the late Sam Wallace, an outstanding music industry executive and citizen of Atlanta, established this scholarship.

- Steve Winick Memorial Scholarship: Given to an outstanding junior or senior student who demonstrates exceptional talent on a brass instrument and performs in two or more instrumental ensembles within the School of Music.

- Charles T. Wurm Scholarship: A scholarship awarded to a student majoring in music who has outstanding musical ability and whose talents meet the current needs of the School of Music. Established in 1985, this scholarship is endowed by a gift to the Georgia State University Foundation from Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Cousins in memory of his grandfather, Charles Thomas Wurm, who was a conductor and music educator.
1300 University Academic Regulations

This chapter describes academic regulations that apply to students admitted to bachelor-level study. See subsections within this chapter for specific policies and procedures.

1302 General Information

1302.10 University Academic Policies

All students at Georgia State University are responsible for learning and observing all regulations and procedures required by the University and by the college and program or status in which they are enrolled. In no case will a regulation be waived or an exception granted because a student pleads ignorance of the regulation or asserts that he or she was not informed of a specific requirement by an advisor or other university authority. This chapter contains the academic regulations of the University. See the other parts of this catalog for information on the academic regulations of the various colleges and departments.

All students must become especially familiar with (1) this chapter, (2) the following chapter on university degree requirements and graduation, (3) their college’s chapter of this catalog, (4) the offerings and requirements of their major, and (5) the enrollment process found by accessing PAWS (Panther Access to Web Services) at paws.gsu.edu and found on the University’s web site www.gsu.edu, particularly under the Registrar and Student Financial Services pages, which contain more detailed information on the enrollment process.

While the provisions of this catalog will ordinarily be applied as stated, Georgia State reserves the right to change any provision listed in this catalog, including, but not limited to, academic requirements for graduation, without actual notice to individual students. The University will make every effort to keep students advised of any such changes. Students must note their responsibility to keep apprised of current graduation requirements for their particular degree programs.

1302.20 Student Computer Access Requirement

Each student enrolled at Georgia State University must have access to a computer, and any course offered at the University may require computer-based work. Further, the student’s computer must provide access to e-mail accounts, the World Wide Web using a current browser, and spreadsheet and word processing software. Departments and other units may establish minimum machine capability and software requirements, including the requirement that a student in a certain degree program must own a computer. It is the responsibility of each student to ensure his or her access to a computer. Computers are available in the open-access computer laboratories on campus that provide the basic level of computer capabilities, but these laboratories are heavily used and cannot guarantee a student access to a computer at a particular time.

1302.25 Georgia State University Email

Every student is assigned an official Georgia State University email address at the time of acceptance. It is essential that students regularly check this email account. Academic departments and student service units across campus use the University assigned email as a means of communicating with students about official university business, and students are held responsible for this information. Email from Georgia State will be sent to the student’s official Georgia State e-mail address. It will not be sent to any other address (such as a Gmail or Yahoo account). However, students may configure their Georgia State account to forward to another address.

1302.30 Academic Calendar

Georgia State University is on a semester system, and academic credit is awarded in semester hours. The fall and spring semesters are approximately 14 weeks each with final exams normally held during the 15th week. Summer semester is composed of three-week classes in May as well as six-week and seven-week classes beginning in June. Enrollment in the three-week classes, six-week classes, or seven-week classes counts as having been enrolled in summer semester.

1310 Academic Advisement and Development

Georgia State University is committed to providing individual advice and assistance to students at every step of their degree program. The University offers services and programs to support the academic development of every student by helping them transition to college, succeed while enrolled and graduate in a timely manner.

All new freshmen (by admission category) are required to come to campus and complete New Student Orientation. Freshmen who do not attend orientation must enroll in a GSU 1010 class during their first semester of attendance at Georgia State. Transfer students are encouraged to attend a transfer orientation program designed to address the questions and circumstances of students who are new to Georgia State University but have attended college elsewhere before. All students who attend an in-person orientation will receive academic advisement during the orientation. All transfer, transient, transition, and post-baccalaureate students are required to complete the appropriate online pre-orientation prior to registering for classes. Students who complete an online orientation program who have earned less than 90 credit hours should make an appointment with an advisor in the University Advisement Center to review their academic record. Postbaccalaureate students and those who have earned more than 90 credit hours should contact the Office of Academic Assistance in their college for advisement.

1310.10 New Student Orientation

New Student Orientation
Student Center East, Suite 304 orientation.gsu.edu

New Student Orientation is the official Georgia State University new undergraduate student orientation program. New Student Orientation is required for new freshman and strongly encouraged for new transfer students. Our programs are designed to introduce you to the unique world of Georgia State and prepare you to make the most of both your academic and co-curricular experiences.
Students will receive a tour of Georgia State’s unique urban campus in downtown Atlanta, learn about important campus resources such as campus safety, review financial aid, and more. Additional benefits of attending New Student Orientation are the connections made with fellow classmates as well as seasoned student leaders who will be assisting students throughout the orientation experience. At the end of the orientation day, students will receive academic advisement and register for classes.

We offer several New Student Orientation options which can meet your specific needs at a time that’s convenient to your schedule. We offer one-day and two-day orientation programs for new freshman students and one-day and half-day orientation programs for new transfer students. There is also a special parent and guest orientation program which runs concurrently with all student programs.

1310.20 Placement Testing

Math

A math placement test is recommended for all students who do not have credit for an Area A math course and is required for students who wish to take (or are required to take) Math 1111, College Algebra, or higher. Students may not register for a math course higher than that indicated by their placement test score. See Section 1410.15 for information about math course requirements for different majors.

Depending upon your status, new student, currently enrolled student, or returning student, see the following information that applies:

New Student (first semester at Georgia State)

All new students who wish to take (or are required to take) Math 1111 or higher should sign up for this exam on an available date and time as shown on their PAWS accounts. This is usually done prior to or in conjunction with Incept.

Current student (enrolled student that is presently taking classes at Georgia State)

Students who have enrolled at Georgia State during previous semesters will find test information at the Testing Center website (counselingcenter.gsu.edu/testing/) where testing is available for first-time as well as for re-test ($50 fee applies) purposes on a walk-in basis.

Returning student (returning to Georgia State after a semester or more absence)

Testing for returning students is conducted during scheduled times in the University’s Testing Center. See counselingcenter.gsu.edu/testing/ and click on Tests, then Math Placement for these dates and times.

Chemistry

A diagnostic chemistry test is required in order to register for Chemistry 1211, which is the prerequisite for BIOL 2107 and CHEM 1212. The test is administered by the Chemistry Department on campus at selected times through the University Testing Center. Students with AP Chemistry scores of 2 or better, SAT subject scores of 600 or better, or those who have completed college level chemistry courses may be exempt from taking the test. See chemistry.gsu.edu/chem-1211k-online-placement-exam/ for additional information.

Foreign Languages

Placement exams in French, German, and Spanish are available to help students determine the course most appropriate for their abilities in French, German, or Spanish. All students with any prior experience in these languages are strongly encouraged to take the placement exam before registering for any language classes. Prerequisites in these courses are enforced. (See Section 9000, Course Descriptions, for the prerequisites of French, German, and Spanish courses.) Students may satisfy a prerequisite either by taking the indicated prerequisite course or by taking the French, German or Spanish placement exam and earning a satisfactory score. Students may take the WebCAPE exam from any computer with internet access and a browser. (Go to wlc.gsu.edu/home/language-resources/placement-exams/webcape/ and click the link at the bottom for the WebCAPE placement exam. The user name is “gsu user” and the password is “panthers1”.) The WebCAPE takes approximately 20 minutes to complete, and students are given their score and class level at which they have been placed. As placement is strictly enforced, it is paramount that students take this test without any outside help or study aids. It is recommended that students print a copy of the email regarding their scores to keep for their records and academic advisement. Students who score between 200 and 399 points will be cleared automatically within 1 business day; email notifications will be sent to those with scores of 400 or higher. Only the first WebCAPE score within a 365-day period counts toward placement. Note: This exam is not part of New Student Orientation, so new students should take the exam prior to attending orientation or attempting to register for a French, German or Spanish course. Also, the WebCAPE exam does not grant credit and is for placement purposes only; if a student scores above 400 they may consider taking the CLEP Exam (see Section 1320.40) to obtain up to 6 credit hours for language classes at the 2001 and 2002 level. For placement in languages other than German, Spanish and French and for further information, students should contact the Department of World Languages and Cultures at wlc.gsu.edu or email at wlcinfo@gsu.edu. For assessment and/or placement in any other languages taught by the Department of World Languages and Cultures, students are asked to contact the department directly.

1310.30 University Advisement Center

Every student at Georgia State University is assigned to an advisor who will provide them with the information necessary to complete the requirement necessary to complete their degree. All Perimeter College students will receive advisement through the University Advisement Center located at each Perimeter College location. At the Atlanta campus, any student who has earned less than 90 hours and has freshmen, sophomore or junior status, will be advised by the University Advisement Center. Any student who has earned 90 hours or more should seek advisement through the Office of Academic Assistance in the college of their major.

Advisors in the Center can assist students in the following ways:

- Evaluate transfer work and apply it to Georgia State University degree programs
- Explain catalog regulations
- Provide academic counseling
- Utilize predictive analytics to help students understand their academic risk and remain on path to degree
- Explain academic standing policies
- Discuss goals
- Assist with degree and major choices for undecided students
- Help students who are experiencing academic difficulties
- Provide direction to campus resources for further assistance

Perimeter College students may schedule advisement appointments by calling one of the following:

- Clarkston Campus
  555 North Indian Creek Drive Clarkston, GA 30021-2361
  Phone: 678-891-3200

- Decatur Campus
  3251 Panthersville Road Decatur, GA 30034-3832

  Phone: 404-413-7115

- School of Public Health
  1 Park Place, Suite 640
  Phone: 404-413-1452
Walk-in advisement for 10 minute consultations and brief questions is also provided at each campus location daily.

1310.40 Office of Student Success

At Georgia State University, the institutional commitment is to be a “national model of undergraduate education demonstrating that students from all backgrounds can achieve academic and career success at high rates.” The Office of Student Success is comprised of the University Advisement Center and the Office of Undergraduate Studies. These offices exist to help students meet their academic goals and are focused on ways to increase the retention, progression and graduation of undergraduates at Georgia State University. Using data and analytics to better understand what puts students at academic risk, the Office of Student Success designs and administers programs that help students complete college in a timely manner. Their purpose is to lower barriers to educational opportunities, increase academic support and outreach, assist students in the transition from high school to college, and once students are in college, to help them successfully progress through their program of study.

The following are programs and services offered by the Office of Student Success:

Educational Opportunity Programs: the Scholarship Resource Center, Panther Retention Grant Program, Early College programs offered through Perimeter College, Move On When Ready and TRIO funded programs including Upward Bound, Veterans’ Upward Bound, Educational Talent Search, and the Educational Opportunity Center

Academic Support and Outreach Programs: the University Advisement Center, Supplemental Instruction, Early Alert, Learning and Tutoring Centers at Perimeter College, Keep Hope Alive, Student Success Workshops, Academic Coaching and TRIO funded Student Support Services and Student Support Services (STEM) Programs

Transition and Progression Programs: Freshmen Learning Communities, GSU 1010 Freshmen Orientation Course, GPCO 1020 Perimeter College Orientation course, GSU 1050 Survival Skills in College, Success Academy, the Panther Excellence Programs, Transition and Transfer Advisement, Latino Services and Outreach Office, Peer Mentors, 1st-year book program, Atlanta-Based Learning and other initiatives.

University level Perspectives courses are administered through the Office of Undergraduate Studies in the Office of Student Success. These courses include:

PERS 2001 – Perspectives on Comparative Culture (2)

This category is composed of a group of interdisciplinary courses that provide a better understanding of the contemporary world through the study of different cultures. Sections will feature comparative culture study across societies or multi-cultural study within societies. Although courses may take a historical perspective, the goal is to foster a fuller understanding of the contemporary world.

PERS 2002 – Scientific Perspectives on Global Problems (2)
This category is composed of a group of interdisciplinary courses that deal with scientific approaches to important issues on the environment, public health, or technology.

PERS 2003 – Perspectives on Human Expression (2)

This category is a group of interdisciplinary courses that focus on the human condition, how people have expressed themselves through the arts and humanities, and how such representations have had broad historical and/or contemporary impact.

1310.50 Learning Support Program

The Learning Support Program (LSP) is for undergraduate students admitted on an exceptions basis who need remedial assistance in the areas of math, reading, and/or writing in order to be ready to take courses in the Core Curriculum.

Entering LSP

Students are placed into the Learning Support Program (LSP) if they meet any of the following conditions:

- An SAT-Verbal score below 430 or an ACT-Verbal score below 17.
- An SAT-Mathematics below 400 or an ACT-Mathematics below 17.
- Below required scores on the ACCUPLACER placement tests if SAT or ACT scores are not provided.
- Failure to meet the College Preparatory Curriculum requirements in English or mathematics.
- The current minimum ACCUPLACER scores for direct placement into collegiate level courses are:
  - Reading 74
  - English 60
  - Math 37 (a score of 47 is required for the Math 1111 pathway)*

* Per Board of Regents recommendation

LSP placement and courses

It is required that LSP students meet each term with an academic advisor for advice regarding course selection. For this reason, an advisement hold is placed on each LSP student’s record each term. The hold is lifted after the student has seen an advisor and their schedule is approved. Here are the LSP foundation and co-requisite courses offered:

However, students who have exited an area of Learning Support at any institution in the University System of Georgia are not required to re-enter that area upon transfer to Georgia State.

- English – ENGL 0898 (Foundations for ENGL Composition)
- English – ENGL 0999 (Support for ENGL Composition) taken with ENGL 1101
- Non-STEM Majors- MATH 0987 (Foundations for Quantitative Reasoning)
- Non-STEM Majors – MATH 0997 (Support for Quantitative Reasoning) taken with Math 1001
- Non-STEM Majors- MATH 0998 (Support for Math Modeling) taken with MATH 1101
- STEM Majors- MATH 0989 (Foundations of College Algebra)
- STEM Majors – MATH 0999 (Support for College Algebra) taken with MATH 1111

LSP courses do not count towards degree requirements or a student’s GPA at Georgia State University. They are, however, used to calculate a GPA for HOPE, Pell and other financial aid awards, and the courses and grades earned appear on a university transcript. LSP courses are graded using the same system as other Georgia State courses.

Students taking Foundations level courses have two attempts to complete the Foundations level courses with a C or better. Students who do not complete Foundations level courses within two attempts will be placed on Learning Support suspension for one year.

Students who have accumulated 30 semester hours of college-level credit at Georgia State and have not successfully completed required Learning Support courses may enroll only in Learning Support courses and the corresponding collegiate courses until all LSP requirements are successfully completed.

Exiting LSP

There is no limit on attempts for co-requisite remediation.

Students exit an LSP area when they successfully complete the collegiate course in their area(s) of remediation regardless of their grades in the co-requisite course.

Students with LSP requirements who are enrolled in both LSP courses and other courses will be allowed to drop or withdraw only when they also drop or withdraw from all other courses. Any student experiencing difficulty and/or considering dropping or withdrawing from an LSP course must first meet with an advisor. The advisor will inform the student of the program’s drop and withdrawal policies, including the right to apply for an emergency withdrawal if an emergency situation exists.

Students who have not completed their LSP requirements in writing may not take courses in Area C1.

Students who have not completed their LSP requirements in mathematics may only take Astronomy, Biology, Geography, Geology, Computer Science and Psychology courses in area D.

Students who have not completed their LSP requirements in reading may not take courses in Area C1, and Area E. In Area D, students may only take Math and Computer Science courses.

Students must register for required LSP foundations and/or co-requisite courses before registering for other courses. Until LSP requirements have been satisfied, students may not take credit courses which require the content or the skills of the LSP courses.

Requests for waivers to any of the above regulations should be submitted to the Director of the University Advisement Center.

1310.55 Required High School Curriculum (RHSC)
The Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia requires all students to have completed sufficient English, math, science, social science and language courses in high school as preparation for college-level coursework. Students admitted to Georgia State with a deficiency in one or more of these areas must make up the deficiency by taking Georgia State core classes (science, social science, or language) or passing the ACCUPLACER proficiency test (English or math). The University Advisement Center will advise students about which courses they can choose from to complete a RHSC requirement. Credits earned in courses taken to meet RHSC requirements do count toward graduation requirements. A grade of C or higher is required, and grades earned in these courses are counted in the student’s GPA. Students must complete all RHSC-required courses before they earn 30 hours and in their first three semesters of enrollment. Otherwise they may not register for any courses except RHSC courses until all requirements are complete.

Some transfer students are admitted with RHSC requirements that were satisfied at a previous college or university. In this case, transfer courses used to satisfy RHSC requirements may not be used toward graduation requirements at Georgia State.

1310.70 University Career Services

The central office for University Career Services (UCS) houses the comprehensive career center for the campus with programs, services, information, and counseling to assist students with career decisions, as well as preparation for and implementation of successful job and graduate/professional school searches. The central UCS office works with undergraduate and graduate students from the first year on campus through the one year anniversary of their graduation. Alumni beyond a year of graduation may enroll in Alumni Career Services, a program also housed within the office (Note: an Alumni Career Services fee is associated with some services). Students from all majors and areas of study, from all class levels, and from all colleges, are served.

Career Development services are available by appointment. Individual and group sessions are offered, always with the goal of helping students and alumni connect their passion and purpose with career opportunities. The career counselors also provide career assessments, which aid students in exploring career possibilities based on values, interests, and personality.

Workshops, information and career counselors are available to help students and alumni with their career exploration and assess their individual talents, skills, and interests, and to set career goals. Programs and materials, employer panels, employer information sessions, and career fairs provide up-to-date information for use in exploring careers and researching employers.

Through the Employer Relations team, University Career Services has programs and services that connect students, alumni, and employers for internship and career opportunities, as well as employment to meet expenses while attending school. Regular workshops, employer events such as mock interviews and résumé critique days, and online information help students prepare résumés, and develop interviewing and other job search skills.

The Cooperative Education and Internships program helps students prepare for in-depth co-op and internship learning experiences, which build skills and strengthen students’ competitiveness for future opportunities. The program also works with colleges and employers in supporting their co-op and internship initiatives. The Co-op Program is the formal hub for the Georgia State University Cooperative Education initiative.

The Graduate and Professional School Planning program assists students exploring advanced degree opportunities, either here at Georgia State University or at another campus within the United States or abroad. This program has materials to assist students in researching programs as well as support in making application. This program also sponsors the fall Graduate and Professional School Fair, which brings graduate school recruiters from across the country to meet interested Georgia State students.

The Career Resource Center (CRC) is the central point of contact for students and contains workstations with access to online career guidance, job postings, graduate/professional school information, and employer research databases.

Résumania is a walk-in résumé and c.v. review service, available Tuesday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. No appointment is needed and students are seen on a first-come first-serve basis. During walk in hours, students may work on their resumes and cover letters, ask questions regarding major selection, job search and related career questions.

All Georgia State University students have an account on Panther Career Net (career.gsu.edu), a web-based career management system utilized by students, employers and the career services staff. Panther Career Net is free to all enrolled students. Activation of the account (completing a profile and uploading a résumé if seeking employment) provides 24/7 on and off-campus access to many of the Career Resource Center’s online resources, as well as easy application to jobs, and information about career events and employers. Activation requires use of one’s campus ID and password and can be done remotely.

For more information on career counseling, career assessment, career exploration, graduate and professional school planning, internship and career opportunities, and job search support, visit the central office of University Career Services in 270 Student Center West or call 404-413-1820 or visit the website at career.gsu.edu.

1310.80 International Student and Scholar Services

252 Sparks Hall
isss.gsu.edu

International Student & Scholar Services (ISSS) provides support for Georgia State University’s non-immigrant international student, faculty, and researcher population, their dependents, and any foreign-born citizens and permanent residents of the United States who may need services. Services include orientations, immigration advisement, international student and scholar insurance support, student advocacy, and other personal assistance in adjusting to and joining the university community. The office staff serves as a liaison with all academic departments, the diplomatic corps, and a variety of international agencies and publishes a newsletter focusing on issues of interest to international students. International Services also offers assistance to academic departments wishing to invite foreign scholars or hire foreign faculty. Information concerning programs and services is available in 252 Sparks Hall, by calling 404-413-2070 or online at isss.gsu.edu.
International Student Orientation – Prior to the beginning of each semester, an orientation program is offered to provide assistance to new students on non-immigrant visa status. Students receive information and advice concerning federal immigration, the academic system in the United States, academic advisement and registration, the Atlanta community, and the mandatory health and accident insurance.

International Student Associations – Georgia State University has approximately twenty international student organizations that focus on celebrating the many countries and cultures represented on campus. They provide assistance for new and continuing international students, present cultural activities and events, and seek ways to share their culture with the campus. Information about the various associations and their umbrella group, the International Student Association Council, is available in the ISSS office, and online at isss.gsu.edu.

International Student Health Insurance – Health insurance is mandatory for all international students and scholars in F and J status enrolled at Georgia State, and is optional for other non-immigrant students. A special international student health and accident insurance policy is made available each academic year, and payment of the insurance premiums is collected along with tuition during the process of registration. Individuals who may already be covered by a policy are required to request a waiver with the insurance company the semester before enrollment. More information is available online at www.studentcenter.uhcsr.com/gsu or through Student Accounts.

1316 Changes in Personal Data

As correct personal data is vital to the student’s record, students are urged to have their records updated when these changes occur. PAWS (Panther Access to Web Services) at paws.gsu.edu allows students to update some of their student records (address, phone number, etc.) using a terminal or personal computer. Students who wish to change their names, marital status or social security number and other changes not permitted online must complete forms and provide the legal documents in person at one of the Enrollment Services Centers. Locations for each campus center are listed on the registrar’s page at registrar.gsu.edu.

1320 Course Credit

This section describes the various ways students may earn credit for Georgia State University courses without actually taking those courses at Georgia State.

1320.10 Transfer Credit Policy

When an applicant is accepted for undergraduate transfer admission, courses that parallel the curriculum of Georgia State University will be accepted for transfer credit. Credit must have been earned at institutions of higher education with full accreditation by one of the following accreditors:

- Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools
- New England Association of Schools and Colleges
- North Central Association of Colleges and Schools
- Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities
Courses completed at a two-year college will be granted lower-division credit.

The total number of hours that may be earned toward a degree by extension or correspondence courses may not exceed 30 semester hours.

Joint Services Transcript (JST) credits earned while serving in the Armed Services may also be evaluated for transfer credit on a case by case basis by the student’s academic advisor in conjunction with the academic department offering the course.

In general, transfer credit will not be awarded for a course that a student has previously attempted at Georgia State (including attempts which resulted in a withdrawal). However, individual departments may waive this rule for their courses.

Because the university has a minimum academic residence requirement, the amount of transfer credit applicable to a degree program may be limited. (See Section 1440.) In addition, Colleges and Departments have their own transfer credit policies and this may also limit the amount of transfer credit applicable to a degree program. All such policies are stated in this Catalog in the following sections:

- 2000 Andrew Young School of Policy Studies
- 3020 College of Arts and Sciences
- 4050 College of Education
- 5020.10 Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions
- 7020.10 Robinson College of Business

Georgia State maintains a web site, http://advisement.gsu.edu/transfer-students/equivalency-charts/, which indicates courses at other institutions that will be accepted as transfer credit (subject to the restrictions noted in this section). If a course at another institution is not on this list, students should consult with the University Advisement Center.

The D Credit Grade Restriction applies to both resident and transfer credit. (See Section 1450.)

A student who takes a course at another institution will not receive transfer credit for that course until the end of the semester following the semester in which the course was taken. Therefore, students may not take courses for degree credit at another institution during the semester they plan to graduate from Georgia State.

Transfer Credit for Core Courses

1. Students will be granted credit for all of Areas A-E of the core if they hold one of the following:
   a. a baccalaureate degree from U.S. institution of higher education accredited by one of the six accreditors listed above
   b. for those who have graduated from a non-U.S. institution, the equivalent of a baccalaureate degree from a U.S. institution of higher education accredited by one of the six accreditors listed above as certified by Georgia State or a Georgia State-approved agency.
c. an associate’s degree designed to transfer to a baccalaureate program from a University System of Georgia (USG) institution

2. However, there are two exceptions to the policy stated in 1 above.
   a. Students seeking a baccalaureate degree in biology, chemistry, computer science, geology, mathematics, physics, science education, or math education who do not hold a baccalaureate degree in one of these fields will only be granted credit for all of Areas B, C, and E. They will be granted credit in Areas A and D on a course-by-course basis.
   b. Students seeking a baccalaureate degree in nursing, nutrition or respiratory therapy will only be granted credit for all of Areas A, B, C, and E. They will be granted credit in Area D on a course-by-course basis.

3. Students who hold any other associate’s degree, such as an associate’s degree from a non-USG institution or an associate’s degree not designed to transfer to a baccalaureate program, will be granted transfer credit for core courses on a course-by-course basis.

1320.20 Credit Transfer for Transient Students

Transient students are Georgia State University degree-seeking undergraduates who enroll temporarily at another institution with the intention of returning to Georgia State. Georgia State remains the student’s home institution. Terms other than transient (such as visiting student, unclassified student, or special student) may be used at other institutions.

These regulations do not apply to credit earned through cross registration, which is not considered resident credit.

It is vital that students considering transient status review the rules regarding transfer credit (Section 1320.10), the rules regarding academic residency (Section 1440), the rules regarding credit for grades of D (Section 1450), and individual college policies on the number of course attempts. The rules in these sections specify limits on the credits taken as a transient that will transfer to Georgia State as well as limits on the credits that will count towards the Georgia State degree requirements. Students are encouraged to check with their advisor and the transfer equivalency charts for more information about transfer credit prior to enrolling in the course. See http://advisement.gsu.edu/transfer-students/equivalency-charts/.

A degree-seeking undergraduate student who wishes to take academic courses elsewhere as a transient student and apply those credits toward the Georgia State degree is encouraged to certify the eligibility of the transient course for transfer credit with the University Advisement Center or the College Office of Academic Assistance. This should be done the semester before the student takes the transient class. Failure to certify that a transient course is eligible for transfer in a student’s degree program may result in a student taking a transient class that is not eligible for transfer credit or that does not count toward the fulfillment of degree requirements at Georgia State University.

It is the student’s responsibility to comply with application procedures and any other requirements that the other institution may have regarding establishing status as a transient student there.

After completing the course, it is the student’s responsibility to promptly request that an official transcript be sent from the other institution to: Georgia State University, Office of Undergraduate Admissions, P.O. Box 4009, Atlanta, GA 30302-4009. Once the official transcript is received, credit will be considered pending for the student’s degree program until finalized by an academic advisor. Questions about transfer credit for courses taken as a transient should be addressed to the student’s advisor in the University Advisement Center or the college Office of Academic Assistance.

1320.30 Credit for Correspondence or Extension Programs

Students may apply no more than 30 semester hours of work earned through correspondence or extension programs of other institutions toward the requirements for an undergraduate degree. Students are cautioned to consult with their academic advisor for additional college regulations on correspondence or extension work. Students must obtain the permission of the dean of their college, or the designated college representative, prior to taking correspondence courses to be applied toward the completion of the degree program.

1320.40 Credit by Examination

Georgia State University recognizes that learning can take place in various modes and places other than the traditional college classroom. Knowledge gained through experiential learning and other means is evaluated for possible college credit through examination. The Advanced Placement Program (AP), the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), and the International Baccalaureate Program (IB) are the most commonly used tests for this purpose. These are standardized examinations administered nationally each year. For information on CLEP, contact the University Testing Office, counselingcenter.gsu.edu/testing/. For information on AP and IB programs contact your high school guidance counselor.

Other standardized exams or special departmental examinations may be approved for credit. For further information, contact the appropriate college.

Georgia State University serves as a DANTES (DSST) test center; however Georgia State does not accept DSST credit.

For information on approved examinations, course equivalents, and credit award policies and requirements, please review the section below.

1320.50 College Board Advanced Placement (AP) Examination

Official test scores should be mailed directly from the College Board to the Georgia State University Office of Undergraduate Admissions for review. Questions regarding credit awards should be directed to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at admissions.gsu.edu. High school counselors can provide information concerning the time and place for testing. Credit will be awarded for approved AP examinations as follows:

Georgia State University awards credit for some College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) subject exams. Tests should not be scheduled during the last semester before graduation because the limited time remaining may not be sufficient to allow for course validation and the awarding of credit. For credit to be granted, the examination score must be at least 50 or higher regardless of the ACE recommendation. Credit will be as follows:

Exam = Georgia State Course Credit

- American Government = Pols 1101
- American Literature (w/essay) = Engl 2130
- Analyzing and Interpreting Literature (w/essay) = Engl 2140
- General Biology = Biol 1103K
- Calculus = Math 2211
- General Chemistry = Chem 1099 (elective credit only)
- College Algebra = Math 1111
- College Algebra with Trig = Math 1113

Additional CLEP Information:

- The essay portion of all English exams is required in addition to the objective. Essay exams are reviewed by three readers, and the student must receive a grade of “Pass” from at least two readers.
- Foreign language credit awards are as follows:
  1. Spanish scores of 50-53 earn 3 semester hours of credit for SPAN 2001; Spanish scores of 54 and higher earn a total of 6 semester hours of credit for SPAN 2001 and 2002.
  2. German scores of 50-62 earn 3 semester hours of credit for GRMN 2001; German scores of 63 and higher earn a total of 6 semester hours of credit for GRMN 2001 and 2002.
  3. French scores of 50-51 earn 3 semester hours of credit for FREN 2001; French scores of 52 and higher earn a total of 6 semester hours of credit for FREN 2001 and 2002.
• If a student scores 50 or higher for American History I AND American History II, three semester hours will be granted for HIST 2110.
• Exams may be scheduled by contacting Georgia State University’s Testing Center counselingcenter.gsu.edu/testing/.

1320.70 International Baccalaureate (IB) Examinations

The amount of credit that may be granted for IB courses is limited to 24. Credit for standard level exams will only be granted to students who hold the IB diploma. Students who have only IB certificates will not be granted credit for standard level exams. Within these limits, departments have the authority to determine how much course credit will be awarded for International Baccalaureate examinations.

The following is the list of credit for IB exams:

SL = Standard Level
HL = Higher Level

Anthropology:

- SL 5 = ANTH 1102
- SL 6-7 = ANTH 1102, 2020
- HL 4 = ANTH 1102
- HL 5 = ANTH 1102, 2020
- HL 6-7 = ANTH 1102, 2020, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Art:

- SL 5 = ART 1010
- SL 6-7 = ART 1010, 1020
- HL 4 = ART 1010
- HL 5 = ART 1010, 1020
- HL 6-7 = ART 1010, 1020, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Arabic:

- SL 5 = ARBC 2001
- SL 6-7 = ARBC 2001, 2002
- HL 4 = ARBC 2001
- HL 5 = ARBC 2001, 2002
- HL 6-7 = ARBC 2001, 2002, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Biology:

- SL 5 = BIOL 1103K
- SL 6-7 = BIOL 1103K, 1104K
- HL 4 = BIOL 1103K
- HL 5 = BIOL 1103K, 1104K
- HL 6-7 = BIOL 1103K, 1104K, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Chemistry:

- SL 5 = CHEM 1211K
- SL 6-7 = CHEM 1211K, 1212K
- HL 4 = CHEM 1211K
- HL 5 = CHEM 1211K, 1212K
- HL 6-7 = CHEM 1211K, 1212K, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Chinese:

- SL 5 = CHIN 2001
- SL 6-7 = CHIN 2001, 2002
- HL 4 = CHIN 2001
- HL 5 = CHIN 2001, CHIN 2002
- HL 6-7 = CHIN 2001, 2002, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Computer Science:

- SL 5 = CSC 2310
- SL 6-7 = CSC 2310, 2010
- HL 4 = CSC 2310
- HL 5 = CSC 2310, 2010
- HL 6-7 = CSC 2310, 2010, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Economics:

- SL 5 = ECON 2100
- SL 6-7 = ECON 2105, Econ 2106
- HL 4 = ECON 2100
- HL 5 = ECON 2105, 2106
- HL 6-7 = ECON 2105, 2106, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

English:

- SL 5 = ENGL1101
- SL 6-7 = ENGL 1101, 1102
- HL 4 = ENGL 1101
- HL 5 = ENGL 1101, 1102
- HL 6-7 = ENGL 1101, 1102, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

French:

- SL 5 = FREN 2001
- SL 6-7 = FREN 2001, 2002
- HL 4 = FREN2001
- HL 5 = FREN 2001, 2002
- HL 6-7 = FREN 2001, 2002, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Geography:

- SL 5 = GEOG 1101
- SL 6-7 = GEOG 1101, 1113
- HL 4 = GEOG 1101
- HL 5 = GEOG 1101, 1113
- HL 6-7 = GEOG 1101, 1113 and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

German:

- SL 5 = GRMN 2001
- SL 6-7 = GRMN 2001, 2002
- HL 4 = GRMN 2001
- HL 5 = GRMN 2001, GRMN 2002
- HL 6-7 = GRMN 2001, 2002, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

U.S. History:

- SL 5 = HIST 2110
- SL 6-7 = HIST 2110, 3200
- HL 4 = HIST 2110
- HL 5 = HIST 2110, 3200
- HL 6-7 = HIST 2110, 3200 and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

European History:

- SL 5 = HIST 1111
- SL 6-7 = HIST 1111, 1112
- HL 4 = HIST 1111
- HL 5 = HIST 1111, 1112
- HL 6-7 = HIST 1111, 1112, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Mathematics:

- SL 5 = MATH 1111
- SL 6-7 = MATH 1111, 1113
- HL 4 = MATH 1220
- HL 5 = MATH 1220, 2211
- HL 6-7 = MATH 1220, 2211, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Music:

- SL 5 = MUA 1500
• SL 6-7 = MUA 1500, 1900
• HL 4 = MUA 1500
• HL 5 = MUA 1500, 1900
• HL 6-7 = MUA 1500, 1900, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Philosophy:

• SL 5 = PHIL 2010
• SL 6-7 = PHIL 2010, 2050
• HL 4 = PHIL 2010
• HL 5 = PHIL 2010, 2050
• HL 6-7 = PHIL 2010, 2050, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Physics:

• SL 5 = PHYS 2211K
• SL 6-7 = PHYS 2211K, 2212K
• HL 4 = PHYS 2211K
• HL 5 = PHYS 2211K, 2212K
• HL 6-7 = PHYS 2211K, 2212K, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Psychology:

• SL 5 = PSYC 1101
• SL 6-7 = PSYC 1101, 2101
• HL 4 = PSYC 1101
• HL 5 = PSYC 1101, 2101
• HL 6-7 = PSYC 1100, 2101 and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Spanish:

• HL 6-7 = SPAN 2001, 2002, and a 3000-level course to be determined by the Department

Credit for other languages will be granted following the pattern set in the languages above.

1320.80 Credit for End of High School Examinations from Countries Other than the United States

Georgia State will consider awarding college credit for subject examinations taken at the end of the high school in countries other than the U.S. To be eligible for consideration, the examinations must be given nationally and must report scores by subject (not merely a total score). Students who wish for the University to consider awarding college for subject examinations taken at the end of the high school in countries should contact the Office of Admissions for more information.

1320.90 Credit for Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs)

At Georgia State University, the granting of credit for MOOCs taken at other institutions is governed by the rules for transfer credit and credit by examination. If a MOOC was taken and transcripted at an accredited institution of higher education, decisions about credit for the MOOC are made according to the rules for transfer credit. (See Section 1320.10.) In some cases, credit for MOOCs may be earned according to the rules for credit by examination. (See Section 1320.40.)

1322 Transcript Requests

A student who has no unmet financial obligations to Georgia State University is entitled to receive, upon request, a copy of his or her transcript. Official transcripts of academic work completed at Georgia State University may be ordered via PAWS at paws.gsu.edu. A student is entitled to five free lifetime official transcripts. Once a student has requested the five free, official transcripts, Georgia State will charge a $10.00 processing fee for each transcript processed thereafter. Students can print unofficial transcripts at no charge on PAWS. Processing an official transcript may take up to five to ten business days depending on when the request is made. Picture identification is required to pick up transcripts.

Transcript requests will not be processed until complete payment is received. Credit card payment is required for web requests.

Copies of official transcripts received from other institutions will not be made. Such requests must be directed to the institution holding the student’s original records.

Routine copies of other information in the student’s education records, with the exception of transcripts from other institutions and other items excluded from copying by practice or regulation will be provided upon written request. A fee may be charged to cover the cost of copying. Special certifications based on educational records will be provided upon written request when permissible.

Additional information on transcripts can be found on PAWS and on the University website at registrar.gsu.edu/academic-records/transcripts.

1324 Enrollment and Degree Information

Enrollment Verification

Enrollment verification is obtained via the web at no cost to students and takes approximately 7 business days to process. Official enrollment verifications can be requested after the second week of the term.

To obtain proof of enrollment, students should access PAWS at paws.gsu.edu. At this site, students can do the following:
- Print a Certificate of Enrollment that can be forwarded to a health insurer, housing provider, employer, credit issuer, or other student services provider;
- View the electronic notification and deferment forms that have been sent to a lender; and
- View a list of lenders and real-time student loan information detail, such as outstanding principal balance and next due date that some lenders provide.

Once a student drops a course, those hours cannot be used for verification of enrollment purposes. A student’s enrollment status may change if he/she drops or withdraws from a course or withdraws from the university. If a student is co-enrolled at another collegiate institution during the same semester he or she is enrolled at Georgia State University, only the enrolled hours at Georgia State can be used for enrollment verification purposes.

Degree Verification

To obtain proof that a degree has been awarded, students should go to registrar.gsu.edu/graduation/degree-conferral-and-diploma-information.

At this site students can provide proof of degree to such agencies as third-party verifiers, credit card companies, and credit approval agencies. This is a website of the National Student Clearinghouse. The Clearinghouse provides degree verification services to Georgia State students.

Additional information on enrollment and degree verification can be found on the Office of the Registrar website at registrar.gsu.edu.

1330.10 Registration Procedures

Students may not attend a course unless they have registered and paid for that course. Each semester students should go online for detailed information concerning the enrollment and registration process. Registration information can be found on registrar.gsu.edu and by accessing PAWS (Panther Access to Web Services) at paws.gsu.edu.

Students are urged to become knowledgeable about the entire enrollment process, which includes ensuring financial aid eligibility for the term and ensuring paying of tuition and fees by the payment deadline for that particular term. Information on payment deadlines can be found on the Student Financial Services website at sfs.gsu.edu.
Where Registration Takes Place

Registration for courses takes place through PAWS (Panther Access to Web Services) where a list of courses offered for the semester can be found, as well as time ticket information, the registration agreement, and student holds that need to be addressed to permit registration for the term.

Preparing and Registering for Classes – Enrollment Process

Registering students should prepare a registration worksheet and ensure they meet all course prerequisites. Unless approved by the department chair, a student may only register for one section of a given course in a given session/term. All transactions can be completed on PAWS.

Step 1: Run a Program Evaluation to Review Remaining Course Requirements and Schedule Advisor Appointments as Necessary

Step 2: Register for Classes

Step 3: Check Financial Aid Requirements for Eligibility and Accept Aid

Step 4: View and Pay Charges on Panther Pay

Step 5: Print your Course Schedule

Step 6: Print the Semester Academic Calendar on the Registrar’s page

Any deviation from the prescribed procedure may result in unnecessary delays in registration or errors in the resulting schedule. The Office of the Registrar cannot be held responsible for errors resulting from the student’s failure to follow the prescribed registration, schedule adjustment and payment procedures. Any problems experienced with registration should be reported an Enrollment Services Center in person within 24 hours of the occurrence.

1330.12 Registration Notifications When Returning to Georgia State

All students must notify the Office of Undergraduate Admissions prior to registering if the student has attended another school since last attending Georgia State. The student must have an official transcript of credits sent from the school he or she attended. The student must be eligible to reenroll at the last school attended before he or she returns to Georgia State. Failure to submit this transcript by the midpoint of the first term after returning to Georgia State could result in the placing of a registration hold on the student’s record.

1330.15 Registration Time-Ticket Assignments

Students who are eligible to register will be given a registration time-ticket assignment approximately two weeks before registration begins. Students can find their registration time-ticket assignments by accessing PAWS at paws.gsu.edu.
Students will also receive an email referring them to PAWS where they can view their registration time-ticket assignments.

A student’s time-ticket assignment is valid beginning at the student’s assigned time and continues through the last day of registration. Time-tickets are assigned with priority to students scheduled to graduate during the upcoming term, students in the Honors College, and approved student groups with documented limitations on their ability to register. Other continuing students are assigned tickets according to the total credit hours earned. Once a student is allowed access, the student can adjust his or her schedule on a first-come, first-served basis during the remaining registration period. Many classes fill up quickly. It is to the student’s advantage to attempt to register as soon as he or she is allowed access to the registration system.

1330.18 Late Registration

Registrations are considered late once the semester has begun. During late registration, access is on a first-come, first-served basis. It is important that students register prior to the semester beginning in order to have the best opportunity to enroll in courses needed for degree completion. If a student’s first attempt to register is during late registration, a $50 non-refundable late fee will be charged. This $50 fee will also be charged if a student is dropped for nonpayment of fees and attempts to re-register during late registration.

If a student appeal to add a class after late registration has ended, after the 1st Friday of the term, is approved, the student will be charged a $37.50 manual schedule adjustment fee. This fee is charged for each appeal approved. Appeals should be directed to the department that teaches the course the student wishes to add. If a student decides not to attend the course once the appeal has been approved and added to the student’s schedule, the student must officially withdraw from the course on PAWS, prior to the semester midpoint.

1330.20 Immunizations

Immunization Office
141 Piedmont Avenue, Suite D
health.gsu.edu

All new students attending regularly scheduled classes on campus or receiving resident credit are required to submit a certificate of immunization prior to registering for and attending such classes.

The immunizations required are Measles, Mumps & Rubella (MMR), Tetanus/Diphtheria/Pertussis (Tdap), Varicella (chicken pox), and Hepatitis B. In addition, the Meningitis Law requires students residing in university housing to have the Meningococcal vaccine. For more information, see the Georgia State Clinic website updates at health.gsu.edu.

Every student attending classes on campus must complete the immunization requirements of the University System of Georgia. The requirement varies according to the age of the student as follows:

- Students 18 years or younger at the beginning of the term must show proof of immunity to Hepatitis B, MMR, Tdap, and Varicella (chickenpox).
- Students 19 years and older at the beginning of the term are strongly recommended to be immunized for Hepatitis B, but they are not required to show proof of immunity to Hepatitis B. They are required to show proof of immunity to MMR, Tdap and Varicella.
- Students born outside the United States on or before 12/31/1956 must show proof of immunity to Tdap and Varicella only.
- Students born in the United States on or before 12/31/1956 are required to show proof of Tdap only.
- Students born in the United States on or before 12/31/1980 are exempt from showing proof of the Varicella vaccine. They are required to submit proof of immunity for MMR, Tdap.
- Students born 12/31/1980 or later must submit proof of MMR, Varicella and Tdap.
- Students born outside the United States 01/01/1957 or later must provide proof of MMR, Tdap, and Varicella.

The Immunization Office must receive these records two weeks before the last day of late registration. It will take two to three business days to enter the data into the system. Immunization holds will be placed on student accounts to prevent registration and drop/add until the requirement is satisfied.

Students seeking exemption for religious reasons must submit a completed Georgia State University Certificate of Immunization form to the Immunization Office indicating their religious exemption request. Students with medical reasons for exemption must submit a doctor’s letter indicating if this is a permanent or temporary exemption, and, if temporary, the date of expiration. When the temporary exemption expires, the student must complete all immunization requirements. In the event of an epidemic or a threatened epidemic of any disease preventable by immunization, and when an emergency has been declared by appropriate health authorities, additional steps will be undertaken to protect the health of the University community. In the event of a declared public health emergency, persons who do not have proof of immunization on file will not be allowed to participate in classes or other activities on campus.

Students seeking military exemptions must show their DD214 form or Military ID proving active within the last 2 years.

Additional information and copies of the immunization certification form may be obtained by contacting the Immunization Office located in 141 Piedmont Avenue, Ste. D, or by telephone at 404-413-1940, or online at health.gsu.edu.

Meningitis: Georgia law requires that students residing in campus housing be provided information on meningococcal disease and vaccination. After reviewing information about the risks for the disease and the benefits of prevention by the meningitis vaccine, students 18 years and older are required to sign a form kept on file in the Housing Office. Students less than 18 years of age must show their parent or guardian’s signature on the form. This “Meningococcal Disease Notification” form documents that the information was reviewed and the option of the vaccine was provided, and/or date the vaccination was elicited. Compliance with the state law is a requirement for residing in campus housing and is part of the housing contract. Forms and further information are available from the Housing Office at 404-413-1800 or by email at housing@gsu.edu.

1330.25 Audit Status
Enrolled students who wish to audit a course must get approval from the course instructor. Registration for an audit should be submitted to a campus Enrollment Services Center (locations can be found on the Office of the Registrar web site at registrar.gsu.edu). Students should not pre-register for courses they wish to audit. Any tuition and fees for auditing a class are assessed just as they are for courses taken for credit. Any requirements for prerequisites must be satisfied before registering to audit a course. No academic credit is earned in this status. Audit status is not covered by financial aid, and audit hours do not apply toward full-time enrollment. Students may not transfer from audit to credit status or vice-versa after the last day to register for courses.

1330.30 Course Load

Full-time Course Load: To be certified as full-time students, students must carry a minimum of 12 semester hours. However, a course load of 30 semester hours per year is required in order to complete an undergraduate degree program in four years.

A student who is enrolled in less than a full-time course of study at Georgia State may be in jeopardy of the following:

- Losing insurance coverage under his or her parent/guardian’s insurance policy;
- Being placed on a loan repayment schedule by a lender or guarantor if the student is the recipient of federal financial aid; and/or
- Losing a scholarship if the guidelines for receiving the scholarship require full-time enrollment.

Half-time Course Load: Half-time enrollment is 6 to 11 semester hours for students.

Increased Course Load: A student may schedule as many as 18 semester hours without special permission. Requests for exceptions to the maximum course load of 18 semester hours will be considered by the University Advisement Center or the Office of Academic Assistance of a student’s college if the student has completed a course load of 15 semester hours in some previous semester at Georgia State University with a grade point average of at least 3.00 for the semester and if either of the following conditions is met:

- The student attained the President’s List designation during his or her most recent enrollment at Georgia State and, if a reentering student, has achieved a grade of A for all credit hours earned elsewhere since the most recent enrollment at Georgia State; or
- The student has earned 60 semester hours of credit and has a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.00 for the preceding two semesters of residence.

International Students: International students in the student visa status of F and J are required to carry a full-time course load as defined by the Department of Homeland Security (currently 12 credit hours per semester for undergraduate students). An international student who is enrolled on a student visa may be in jeopardy of being out of compliance with the Department of Homeland Security if enrolled in less than a full-time course of study. Additionally, those F and J international students enrolling for the first time in summer school must carry six credit hours to be considered full-time for immigration purposes.
Registration Restrictions

Registration in some courses in some majors is restricted. Refer to the college sections of this catalog for more information.

Taking a Course More Than Once

Colleges may limit the number of times a student can take a course for a grade. Colleges may place this limit on some courses but not others, and different courses may have different limits. All limits are stated in the catalog. For purposes of this policy, a student takes a course for a grade when they receive a grade notation included in the grade point average calculation. For example, a student who earns an A or a WF has taken the course for a grade, but a student who earns an S or W has not. If a student takes a course multiple times at another institution or at Georgia State, the grade earned in the final attempt will determine the applicability of the course to the degree requirements. A student who wishes to take a course more times than authorized by the college must enroll as an auditor.

Cross-Level Registration Policy

Atlanta Campus to Perimeter

Atlanta Campus (baccalaureate degree-seeking) students must receive advance written authorization to be allowed to register for Perimeter College courses. Students may take up to four Perimeter College courses, during summer semester only, provided they:

- satisfy all prerequisites for the courses
- have completed 12 credit hours at the Atlanta Campus
- have a minimum institutional GPA of 2.0

Under extraordinary circumstances, students may seek advance written authorization to take Perimeter College courses during the fall or spring semesters. Any such approved courses will count towards the four-course limit.

Please check with the University Advisement Center or the Office of Academic Assistance in the college for additional details.

Perimeter to Atlanta Campus

Perimeter College (associate degree-seeking) students must receive advance written authorization to be allowed to register for Atlanta Campus courses. Students may take up to four Atlanta Campus courses, provided they:

- satisfy all prerequisites for the courses
- have completed 30 credit hours (12 of which must have been completed at Perimeter College)
- have a minimum institutional GPA of 2.5
Please check with the University Advisement Center for additional details.
1330.40 Cross Registration

Georgia State University students may enroll in courses offered by member institutions of the Atlanta Regional Consortium for Higher Education (ARCHE) under a cross registration agreement. Students who wish to cross register must meet all eligibility requirements under the ARCHE agreement and the University. Courses taken through cross registration are considered resident credit. Students may learn more about cross registration or obtain an ARCHE Cross Registration Application at registrar.gsu.edu/registration/cross-registration/.

Cross Registration Application Deadlines

- Fall Semester: July 26
- Spring Semester: December 1
- Summer Semester: May 1

Eligibility Criteria

- Students must be in good standing and have a minimum Georgia State University cumulative GPA of 2.0 and the required GPA to enroll in the Georgia State course which is most similar to the course the student wishes cross register
- Students must be concurrently enrolled in at least one Georgia State course.
- Students must meet prerequisites for requested course(s) as defined by Georgia State University and the host institution.
- Students must meet the host institution’s immunization and health requirements.
- First-semester freshmen may not cross register (unless cross registering in courses for purposes of ROTC training or marching band).

Course Restrictions

Students may not cross register for a course if

- The course is offered at Georgia State that semester.
- The course has been previously attempted at Georgia State (including attempts which resulted in a withdrawal or an unsatisfactory grade).
- The course or an appropriate substitute is routinely available at Georgia State (that is, offered each semester or on a specified regular basis, such as every fall). Determination of whether the course is routinely available is made by the advisement office in consultation with the chair or director of the academic unit that offers the course.
- The College and/or degree program has restrictions or departmental requirements for the specific course.
- The student expects to graduate from Georgia State during the semester the student wishes to cross register a course.

Students are limited to two cross-registered courses per semester, and the combined course load at Georgia State University and the host institution may not exceed 18 credit hours.
The student’s transfer credit, cross registration credit, and credit by examination applicable to their degree program may not exceed 75 percent of their degree requirements.

Procedures

Students who wish to cross register must complete and submit an ARCHE Cross Registration Application to the Office of the Registrar, room 225, Sparks Hall. Cross Registration Applications are available online: registrar.gsu.edu/registration/cross-registration/.

Students who wish to take academic courses at an ARCHE institution must obtain written approval in advance from the University Advisement Center or the Office of Academic Assistance in the student’s college. Course outlines (syllabi) and catalog information may be required so content can be evaluated before approval is granted by the Office of Academic Assistance.

Students are not allowed to pre-register in courses they wish to cross register. Once all approvals have been obtained, the host institution’s Cross Registration Coordinator will register students for the approved course(s) on a space-available basis after the host institution’s regularly enrolled or continuing students have had first priority for registration. The host institution’s Cross Registration Coordinator will inform the student of approval and registration status.

Georgia State University’s students will pay Georgia State University’s tuition and fee rates via PAWS. However, special fees (lab fees, parking and equipment lease) and security deposits must be paid to the host institution.

Students must abide by all host institutions’ policies and schedules regarding immunization requirements, grades, exam dates, absences, and add/drop/withdrawal deadlines. To withdraw from a course, both Georgia State University and the host institution’s withdrawal procedures must be followed. Changes in registration must be approved by Georgia State University and the host institution’s Cross Registration Coordinators.

Upon completion of the course, the host institution’s Cross Registration Coordinator will send a final transcript to Georgia State University. Students who receive a grade of Incomplete at a host institution should recognize that the time limit for removal of a grade of Incomplete must not exceed Georgia State University’s deadline for removal of a grade of incomplete (see section 1350.30 Changes in Grade). It is the student’s responsibility to request an official transcript from the host institution once the grade of Incomplete has been satisfied and a final grade has been assigned.

Students must complete a new ARCHE Cross Registration Application for any subsequent term.

Cross registration is available in the summer on a limited basis. Consult the Office of the Registrar for more information. The participating ARCHE member institutions are: Agnes Scott College, Atlanta College of Art, Brenau University, Clark Atlanta University, Clayton State University, Columbia Theological Seminary, Emory University, Georgia Gwinnett College, Georgia Institute of Technology, Interdenominational Theological Center, Kennesaw State University, Mercer University Atlanta Campus, Morehouse College, Morehouse School of Medicine, Oglethorpe University, Savannah College of Art and Design – Atlanta, Southern Polytechnic State University, Spelman College, State University of West Georgia, and University of Georgia.
Cross registration credits count as resident credit and all grade requirements apply. (See Sections 1440, 1450, 1460, and 1480.)

1330.55 Off-Campus Courses

Many courses are offered to Georgia State University students at non-campus locations. Students taking these courses must meet the same academic requirements and deadlines as students attending classes at the downtown campus. Each semester a list of courses offered at non-campus locations can be found by accessing the online registration system in PAWS at paws.gsu.edu.

1332 Revision of Class Schedules (Add/Drop/Withdraw)

Students who wish to revise their class schedules must follow the procedure appropriate for the period of time in the semester (see section 1332.10 below). During the published registration periods for each semester, students may revise their schedules by accessing PAWS. Schedule revisions are defined as any changes to a student’s schedule and include dropping and/or adding classes.

To remove a course from a class schedule during the published registration period is referred to by the University community as “dropping” a course. Dropped courses do not appear on the student’s official record and do not incur charges. After the last day to add/drop a course, students may “withdraw” from a course when they decide to stop attending. Withdrawn courses appear on the student’s official record and incur charges. Withdrawing from a course prior to the midpoint of the term makes the student eligible for a grade of W if the withdrawal limit has not been exceeded. This grade is reflected on the student’s official record. After midpoint, the student will receive the grade the instructor assigns.

All schedule adjustments must be completed by the official last day to register for courses as published in the online Semester Calendars at paws.gsu.edu. Printable calendars can also be found on registrar.gsu.edu under the Registrar’s page. If an institutional error has occurred, and a student wishes to be allowed to register for a course after the deadline, the student should contact the department offering the course.

1332.10 Dropping Classes and Voluntary Withdrawal (Student Initiated)

Students are responsible for formally dropping or withdrawing from courses using the online registration system, PAWS at paws.gsu.edu. Students should not simply stop attending. Students should be aware of the financial and academic consequences of dropping and withdrawing from courses by consulting with an academic advisor and referring to information concerning the tuition refund schedule found on the Student Financial Services’ webpage, sfs.gsu.edu.

Georgia State University reserves the right, at any time during the semester, to drop any student from classes for failure to pay tuition and fees. However, students should not assume that Georgia State will drop them from classes for failure to pay tuition and fees.

Adding and Dropping Courses
• Up through the first week of the semester.
• Dropped courses will not appear on the transcript and will not incur charges
  • (See academic calendar on paws.gsu.edu for specific dates and for other mini-mester courses.)

Withdrawning from Courses

• Up to the mid term.
• Will appear on the transcript and will incur charges

See below for specifics

A. Registration Time Periods

1. Adding/Dropping Time Period: When registration opens for the term up until 5 p.m. the first Friday of the term, students may:
   • Add courses on PAWS
   • Drop courses on PAWS to no longer appear on the student’s official transcript. Note: Students will no longer be charged tuition for courses that are dropped at this time unless an equal credit hour course is added as well. (Refer to the tuition refund schedule on the Student Account web page at gsu.edu. Note: dropping courses and lowering your credit hours for the term may have consequences academically and for financial aid eligibility)
   • After this time, students will not be able to add or drop courses on their own.

2. Schedule Adjustment – After the first week of classes up until the Midterm
   • Students may withdraw from a class or classes on PAWS.
   • Students will receive a grade of W or WF for any class withdrawn during this period depending on whether or not they have exceeded their limit of withdrawals with a grade of W.
   • Specifically, students will automatically be awarded a W if they have not exceeded their limit and a WF if they have. Grades of W and WF appear on the student’s transcript. (Note: A grade of WF is treated as an F for GPA calculation purposes.)
   • Note: The last day for a student to add a class in PAWS is the first Friday of the term at 5 p.m.
   • As of the second week of classes, faculty have the discretion to request to add or drop students from classes if an administrative academic error has occurred. Factors such as space availability and health and safety regulations may apply to such requests. During the second week of classes, faculty have until Friday at 5 p.m. to submit a request to add or drop students from classes.
   • Instructors are not responsible for dropping students.
   • Instructors are not responsible for withdrawing students (except in violation of class policy (see section 1332.30)

3. After the midpoint of the term: During this period, voluntary withdrawals are not allowed via PAWS.
   • Students can no longer initiate a withdrawal from classes
   • Grades will be posted based on those assigned by instructors.
   • Students are responsible for consulting the course syllabus for specific instructor policies regarding such matters as penalties for missing the first class, an exam, an
These may include, among the other things, being dropped or withdrawn from a course.

B. Limits on Withdrawals with a Grade of W

1. Students are allowed to withdraw with a grade of W a maximum of six times in their undergraduate bachelor level careers at Georgia State.

2. The limit on withdrawals does not apply if a student withdraws from all classes during a term before the midpoint. However, students are only allowed to withdraw from all classes prior to the midpoint twice without having their withdrawals count against the limit. Students who withdraw from all classes a third or subsequent time will automatically receive a grade of WF in their classes if they have reached their limit of Ws.

3. It is possible that a student will withdraw from more than one class in a particular semester and not have enough Ws left to use a W in all those classes. In that case, classes will be awarded a W based on the date and time the student initiated the withdrawal from that class. For example, if a student had taken five Ws in their career at Georgia State and then withdrew from three of the four classes in which the student is enrolled, the student’s sixth W allowed would be assigned to the class from which the student withdrew first. The student would receive a WF in the other two classes. In these cases, students may make an appeal to the University Advisement Center or the student’s Office of Academic Advisement to shift the W from one class to another. Such requests must be made no later than the end of the subsequent semester in which the student withdrew from the classes. (Whether a student is enrolled in the semester after the semester in which the student withdrew from the classes does not change this time limit.) Students may not shift Ws between semesters.

4. The following types of withdrawals do not count against the limit on withdrawals with a grade of W.
   - Emergency withdrawals (see Section 1332.40).
   - Grades of WF (withdrawal failing).
   - Grade of WM (withdrawal military).
   - Grade notation of – before the grade of W indicating non attendance documented by the professor.
   - Withdrawals for nonpayment.
   - Withdrawals from courses numbered below 1000.
   - Withdrawals taken in semesters before Fall Semester 2006.
   - Withdrawals taken at other institutions.
   - Withdrawals for nonpayment.
   - Withdrawals from courses numbered below 1000.

5. If a course has a separate co-requisite lab or support course with a different course number, withdrawing from both courses simultaneously shall count as a single W with respect to the limit on voluntary Ws. This provision only applies to course that must be taken concurrently.

6. This policy applies to all degree-seeking undergraduate bachelor level students. It does not apply to non-degree students (such as post baccalaureate and transient students).

Students formally withdrawing from all classes may be entitled to a partial refund of their fees (see Section 1240).

In an emergency situation that precludes personal action to withdraw from classes, a student may communicate with the Office of the Dean of Students, deanofstudents.gsu.edu.
1332.20 Withdrawals and Drops from Off-Campus Courses and Cancelled Courses

In general, if a student voluntarily withdraws from an non-campus based course, then the normal withdrawal policy applies (see section 1332.10). If the course’s schedule does not match a Georgia State University term, then the mid-point of the course will be the mid-point of the period from the first meeting of the course to the last meeting of the course.

If a course is cancelled by Georgia State after the first week of classes, then the student may choose between the following options:

- They may have the course dropped from their schedule (even if the course is cancelled after the end of Late Registration), or
- They may take a W in the course, or
- In coordination with the course instructor and the department chair, the student may develop an academically appropriate plan to complete the course. These plans must be approved by the instructor and the department chair.

1332.30 Involuntary Withdrawal (Faculty Initiated)

Students are expected to observe all policies governing the class. Faculty must clearly state these policies in the course syllabus. When a faculty member determines that a student is in violation of one of the class policies (for example, has missed a required assignment or has excessive absences), that faculty member may withdraw the student from the course. Students involuntarily withdrawn prior to the midpoint of the course will be assigned a grade of W unless they have exceeded their maximum number of withdrawals allowed (see Section 1332.10). Students involuntarily withdrawn after the midpoint of the course will be assigned a grade of WF. Note that a WF is treated as an F for GPA calculation purposes. Using the official Georgia State University email system, the instructor will notify a student who is involuntarily withdrawn, and within ten days of this notification, the student may petition to the department chair for reinstatement in the course.

Students involuntarily withdrawn from all classes may be entitled to a partial refund of their fees (see Section 1210).

1332.40 Emergency Withdrawal

Students may request an emergency withdrawal when a non-academic emergency situation occurs that prevents them from completing their course work (e.g., severe medical problems, traumatic events) and when the timing or nature of the emergency prevents them from voluntarily withdrawing from their classes. (See Section 1332.10.) Emergency withdrawals are subject to the following restrictions:

- Students must initiate an application for an emergency withdrawal no later than two academic years after the semester in which the courses were taken.
- Students may request emergency withdrawals in a maximum of two semesters of their enrollment at Emergency withdrawals normally apply to all the courses a student took in a semester. In exceptional cases, emergency withdrawals may be granted for some of a student’s courses. Students requesting an emergency withdrawal in some but not all of their courses must provide documentation to justify a partial withdrawal.

If a student is granted an emergency withdrawal, W grades will automatically be awarded. W grades awarded as a result of the emergency withdrawal process do not count against the student’s voluntary withdrawal limits. (See Section 1332.10.)

For further information on emergency withdrawals, contact the Office of the Dean of Students at deanofstudents.gsu.edu.

1332.45 Military Withdrawal

Withdrawal for Military Service: Refunds and Grades

Full refunds of tuition and mandatory fees and pro rata refunds of elective fees may be considered for students who are:

1. Military reservists (including members of the National Guard) who, after having enrolled in courses and paid tuition and fees, receive orders without prior notice to active duty, reassigned for temporary duty, or mandatory training and the orders prevent completion of the term;
2. Commissioned officers of the United States Public Health Service Commissioned Corps (PHSCC) who receive deployment orders in response to a public health crisis or national emergency after having enrolled in courses and paid tuition and fees and the orders prevent completion of the term;
3. Active duty military personnel who, after having enrolled in courses and paid tuition and fees, receive reassignment, a temporary duty assignment, or a training assignment without prior notice and the orders prevent completion of the term; or,
4. Otherwise unusually and detrimentally affected by the activation of members of the reserve components or the deployment of active duty personnel of the Armed Forces of the United States who demonstrate a need for exceptional equitable relief.

This policy does not apply to a student enlisting in the Armed Forces prior to or during a semester, unless the student presents documentation showing his/her date to report to initial training was changed without the student’s prior knowledge and the new reporting date prevents completion of the term.

Students must officially withdraw and submit official orders to the Office of the Registrar, Sparks Hall 224, prior to leaving for the assignment. The student is not eligible for a military withdrawal in any course in which the student has completed the course requirements (for example, taking the final exam or submitting the final paper) and/or a grade has been assigned. Elective fees are to be prorated according to the date on which the student officially withdraws. Students who withdraw and receive a full tuition refund will receive a grade of “WM” (military withdrawal) for all courses from which the student has withdrawn.

Appeals Committee
Per the BOR’s policy on Military Service Refunds, 7.3.5.3, requests for exceptional relief are made directly to the president of the institution and the president will make a determination on each request expeditiously.

Requests for course withdrawals due to military service will first be considered by the certifying officials in the Office of the Registrar. If a student’s request is denied and the student feels his/her case requires exceptional relief due to an unusual or detrimental activation, then the request will be considered by the Military Outreach Committee.

The Military Outreach Committee consists of academic advisors, VA benefit certifying officials, ROTC representatives, associate deans and university representatives from the Counseling Center and Affirmative Action. This committee will make recommendations to approve or deny students’ requests to the Vice President for Enrollment and Provost/VP for Academic Affairs.

Appeals of the decision of the Vice President for Enrollment and Provost/VP for Academic Affairs may be initiated by the student within 5 business days of notification of the Vice President for Enrollment’s decision and will be considered by the Provost.

Appeals of the decision of the Provost may be initiated by the student within 5 business days of notification of the Provost’s decision and will be considered by the President.

1332.50 Non-Academic Withdrawal

See the Student Code of Conduct:  http://codeofconduct.gsu.edu/

1334 Class Attendance

The resources of the University are provided for the intellectual growth and development of its students. The University expects each student to take full responsibility for his or her academic work and academic progress. Students are expected to attend classes in order to gain command of the concepts and materials of their courses of study. As such, the University does not mandate the number or percentage of absences that are acceptable but suggests a guideline of 15 percent for determining an excessive level of absence. The specific class attendance policies for each class are at the discretion of the instructor, in accordance with the policies of the department and college.

All matters related to student absences, including making up work missed, are to be arranged between the student and the instructor before the semester begins or on the first week of classes. All instructors will, at the beginning of each semester, make a clear statement in the course syllabus for each of their classes, describing their policies for handling absences. Students are obligated to adhere to the requirements of each course and of each instructor. Instructors are encouraged to provide avenues for students to make up examinations and other work missed due to an excused absence.

Excused absences are recognized in the following cases:

1. University-Sponsored Events. Absences due to activities approved by the Office of the Provost, in which a student is an official representative of the University will be recognized as excused when the student informs the instructor in writing during the first week of the semester of his or her participation in an activity that may generate excused absences and the dates of planned absences for the semester. If requested, the appropriate university official will provide a memo stating the official nature of the university business in advance of the activity. Absences due to similar events, which could not have been anticipated earlier in the semester, will be recognized as excused absences upon advance notification of the instructor by an appropriate faculty advisor or administrator.

2. Legal Obligations. Absences due to legal obligations (for example, jury duty, military orders) will be recognized as excused absences. The student must provide the instructor with written documentation of such absences at the earliest possible date.

3. Religious Observances. Students wishing to have an excused absence due to the observation of a religious holiday of special importance must provide advance written request to each instructor by the end of the first week of classes.

Class Attendance by Veterans

The Department of Veterans Affairs requires that institutions of higher learning immediately report to them when a student discontinues attendance for any reason. Instructors must report to the Registrar’s Office the absence of a veteran student as soon as it is known that the veteran student will not be returning to class. Generally, this should be reported after one week of absences and no later than two weeks of nonattendance by a veteran student.

In addition, it is suggested that the faculty give due consideration to absences relating to the following events: death or major illness in student’s immediate family, illness of a dependent family member, illness that is too severe or contagious for students to attend class.

1336 Final Examinations

A student shall not be required to take more than two examinations within one 24-hour period during the published final examination period. More than two examinations within 24 hours are referred to as clustered examinations. A student who discovers an exam scheduling conflict should notify his or her professor at least 14 days prior to the final exam period beginning.

A student is considered to have an inappropriate clustering of final examinations when more than two examinations fall within 24 hours (for example, examinations at 8:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., and 6:00 p.m. on the same day, or examinations at 6 p.m. on one day, and at 8:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on the following day); the student is not considered to have an inappropriate clustering of examinations if the third examination in sequence begins at the same time on the subsequent day as the first examination (for example, 6:00 p.m. on one day, and 2:30 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. on the following day).

Students who have three or more clustered examinations may request of one professor that the examination be rescheduled according to the following procedure:

- If a final examination was rescheduled and thereby created a “cluster,” the instructor of the rescheduled examination will provide a special administration for the adversely affected student.
- If one or more of the clustered examinations is a “common examination” with an established conflict resolution time, the student may request to resolve the conflict by taking one of the common examinations in the conflict resolution time. If two or more of the examinations are “common examinations,” the student may choose which “common examination(s)” is to be rescheduled.

- If one of the clustered examinations is not a common examination or the result of rescheduling, the instructor of the middle examination(s) will provide a special administration for the adversely affected student.

Students must inform the instructor, in writing and at least 14 days before the beginning of the final exam period, that a clustered examination situation exists with respect to that instructor’s course and that the student will need to take the final examination as a special administration. If a student fails to inform the instructor, in writing and at least 14 days before the beginning of the final exam period, the instructor is not required to provide a special administration of the final examination.

Once a student has taken an examination, he or she cannot request a reexamination on the basis of this policy.

1340 Classification of Students and Courses

1340.10 Class Standing

Students are classified on the basis of total earned hours of academic credit as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Student Status</th>
<th>Semester Hours</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Freshman</td>
<td>0-29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sophomore</td>
<td>30-59</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Junior</td>
<td>60-89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Senior</td>
<td>90 or more</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The classification under which a student registers at the beginning of any semester will continue through that semester.

1340.20 Change of Catalog Edition

Students must normally satisfy the degree requirements of the catalog in effect at the time they enter Georgia State University. However, in some circumstances, revisions may be required to provide more effective programs. The term “degree requirements” refers to the courses and grades required to earn the degree. Changes in academic regulations affect all students, regardless of the catalog edition; examples include the scholastic discipline policy, procedures for removing incomplete grades, and appeals procedures.

There are several instances when a student will be required to change catalog editions and satisfy the curricular degree requirements of the catalog in effect at the time he or she:

- Officially changes colleges within the university;
• Officially changes their degree;
• Officially changes majors within a college;
• Officially changes from post baccalaureate status to any degree-seeking status;
• Reenters the university after an absence of three or more semesters
• Reenrolls at Georgia State after attending another institution as a transient student with the intention of transferring credits earned at the other institution to Georgia State without having followed protocol as outlined on the Registrar’s Transient Request Form. This regulation applies to any length of absence from the university. In such cases, students are considered to be transfer students;
• Reenrolls at Georgia State after attending another institution as a transfer student. This regulation applies to any length of absence from the university; and
• Has not graduated by the time his or her catalog edition is ten years old.

Students may choose to satisfy the degree requirements of a later catalog, but, if they choose to do this, they must meet all the requirements of the later catalog. Degree requirements of more than one catalog edition cannot be combined. Students who choose to satisfy requirements of a later catalog must notify the University Advisement Center or the Office of Academic Assistance of their college.

Any requests for exceptions to the “change of catalog edition” policy must be submitted as an appeal of academic regulations and graduation requirements and processed as a University level petition.

1340.30 Declaration of Major

All applicants other than freshman must declare a degree and major at application. All freshmen must declare a degree and major one calendar year after their first enrollment at Georgia State. Students are encouraged to declare a major as early as possible. This is especially true for students following a track in natural sciences, health sciences, or mathematics. Colleges and departments may require students to declare a degree and major earlier than indicated above. The Director of the University Advisement Center is authorized to grant exemptions to this policy.

1340.35 Change of Degree Major and College

Students may request to change majors within one college at Georgia State University or change to another college. If the request is approved, students will transfer their academic standings (good, warning, supervision, or probation). Some programs have special requirements for admission, so students should contact the University Advisement Center or the Office of Academic Assistance of the desired college to determine if special criteria apply.

To request a change of degree, major, or college, students should contact the University Advisement Center or the Office of Academic Assistance of the college in which they are currently enrolled. Students who change degree, majors or colleges will be required to satisfy the degree requirements in effect at the time the change is officially recorded. Students who have applied to graduate must declare their degree, major, and minor/concentration (if applicable) with their advisement office prior to their final semester to avoid a possible delay in graduating.
1340.40 Double Major

A double major consists of two separate majors in the same baccalaureate degree (for example, B.S. with majors in Criminal Justice and Psychology), regardless of the college or colleges in which that degree is awarded. A double major is earned when the student completes all requirements for each of the majors and all requirements for the degree. The minimum residence requirement of 39 semester hours at Georgia State University in courses numbered 3000 or above must be met for the first major. If the second major is completed concurrently with the first major, or within five calendar years of the first major, this requirement shall be deemed to have been satisfied for both majors.

After five years from the date of the awarding of the first major, credit that was used to satisfy the university’s academic residence requirement cannot be applied toward the university’s residence requirement for the second major. Regardless of when the second major is completed.

At least one-half of the courses comprising both majors must be taken at Georgia State.

Whether in one degree or two, a student may not graduate with more than two majors. (For example, a student may not earn a B.S. with a double major in Economics and Psychology and also a B.A. in English. This would constitute three majors and would not be permissible.)

Students who wish to earn double majors should consult with the University Advisement Center or the Office of Academic Assistance of their current college and, if the second major is offered by another college in the university, with the Office of Academic Assistance of the relevant college for information on procedures to follow.

The Dean of the Honors College may, in exceptional circumstances, allow a student in the Honors College to complete three majors in one or two degrees.

1340.45 Dual Degrees

Dual degrees are earned when a student satisfies all requirements for two different baccalaureate degrees (for example, B.A. and B.S.) within one or more colleges of Georgia State University. The minimum residence requirement of 39 semester hours at Georgia State University in courses numbered 3000 or above must be met for the first degree. If the second degree is completed concurrently with the first degree, or within five calendar years of the first degree, this requirement shall be deemed to have been satisfied for both degrees. After five years from the date of the award of the first degree, credit that has been used to satisfy the university’s academic residence requirement for this degree cannot be applied toward the university’s minimum academic residence requirement for the second degree. Regardless of when the second degree is completed, both degrees require that at least one-half of the courses comprising the major must be taken at Georgia State. If a department offers more than one degree, it may prohibit a student from earning more than one degree in that department. This restriction will appear in the Program Degree Requirements section of the description of the major.

Students who wish to earn dual degrees should consult with the University Advisement Center or the Office of Academic Assistance of their current college and, if the second degree is offered by another college of this university, with the Office of Academic Assistance of the relevant college for information on procedures to follow.

1340.50 Dual Undergraduate/Graduate Degree Programs

Georgia State offers a number of dual undergraduate/graduate degree programs where select, high caliber students can complete both the bachelor’s degree and one of several prestigious graduate degrees in up to a year’s less time than it would take to pursue the two degrees consecutively. A list of the specific dual degree programs offered and information regarding admission qualifications can be found at enrollment.gsu.edu/catalogs/dual-undergraduate-graduate-degree-programs/.

1340.60 Classification of Courses

1350 The Grading System

1350.10 Grades

The following grades are used to specify level of performance in academic courses:

A: Excellent
B: Good
C: Satisfactory
    (Minimum grade required for certain courses, as specified elsewhere in this catalog.)
D: Passing
    A grade of D, while earning credit hours, will not apply toward the degree in courses requiring a grade of C or higher. Georgia State University will allow no more than 12 semester hours of D grades to apply toward degree requirements. Certain programs limit this further. See Section 1450 for more details.
F: Failure
    This grade indicates failure. No credit toward graduation is given for a course in which a grade of F was received.
WF: Withdrawal while Failing
    This grade indicates failure. No credit toward graduation is given for a course in which a grade of WF was received. A WF and F are treated the same for GPA calculation purposes.

The grades listed below are approved for use in the cases indicated but will not be included in the determination of a student's cumulative grade point average:

W: Withdrawal
This symbol indicates that a student was permitted to withdraw from the course without penalty. (See “WF: Withdrawal While Failing” above, and Section 1332)

WM: Military Withdrawal
This symbol indicates that active duty military personnel and military reservists (including members of the National Guard) received emergency orders to active duty or reassignment during the term (see Military Withdrawal, Section 1332.45).

I: Incomplete
The notation of I may be given to a student who, for nonacademic reasons beyond his or her control, is unable to meet the full requirements of a course. In order to qualify for an “I”, a student must:

- Have completed most of the major assignments of the course (generally all but one); and
- Be earning a passing grade in the course (aside from the assignments not completed) in the judgment of the instructor.

When a student has a nonacademic reason for not completing one or more of the assignments for a course, including examinations, and wishes to receive an incomplete for the course, it is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor in person or in writing of the reason. A grade of incomplete is awarded at the discretion of the instructor and is not the prerogative of the student. Conditions to be met for removing a grade of incomplete are established by the instructor. Registering in a subsequent semester for a course in which a grade of incomplete has been received will not remove the grade of incomplete. (See Section 1350.30, paragraph 2.) No student may graduate with an “I” on his or her record for that degree program. If the requirements to remove a grade of incomplete are not met prior to the deadline, the grade of I will convert to a grade of F.

IP: In Progress
This symbol indicates that credit has not been given in courses that require a continuation of work beyond the term for which the student registered for the course. The use of this symbol is approved for dissertation, thesis, study abroad and project courses (such as student teaching, clinical practice and internships). The IP notation may be replaced with an appropriate grade by the instructor. This symbol cannot be substituted for an “I.” This grade is used in the Learning Support Program (LSP) to indicate that a student has demonstrated academic growth in the course; however, the level of achievement is not sufficient to meet all of the course requirements. In LSP, the grade of IP is a permanent grade and does not meet the minimum exit criteria for any course in the program.

S: Satisfactory
This symbol indicates that credit has been given for completion of degree requirements other than academic course work. The use of this symbol is approved for dissertation and thesis hours, student teaching, clinical practicum, internship, and proficiency requirements in graduate programs. This symbol is also used in a Regents’ Test Preparation Course when the Regents’ Test was passed.

U: Unsatisfactory
This symbol indicates unsatisfactory performance in an attempt to complete degree requirements other than academic course work. No credit will be given. The use of this symbol is approved for dissertation and thesis hours, student teaching, clinical practicum, internship, and proficiency requirements in graduate programs. This symbol is also used in a Regents' Test Preparation Course when the Regents’ Test was not passed.

V: Audit
This notation is used when a student has audited a course. Students do not earn academic credit for such courses. See Section 1330.25.

K: Credit-by-examination
This symbol indicates that a student was given credit for a course based on successful performance on an examination approved for this purpose.

NR: Not Reported
This symbol indicates that a student’s grade was not reported to the Registrar’s Office by the grade submission deadline. The deadline for reporting grades for the term is published in the online Semester Calendar. The grade will be updated as soon as the instructor reports the grade.

GP: Grade Pending
This symbol indicates a grade will be assigned pending the outcome of an academic honesty case.
See Section 1380.

GH: Grade Hold
This symbol indicates a grade will be assigned pending the outcome of a reinstatement appeal.

1350.20 Cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA)

Georgia State University has three cumulative grade point averages that are used to determine academic progress and appear on student’s permanent records.

Institutional GPA – Based on courses taken at Georgia State University

This cumulative grade point average is calculated by dividing all hours attempted at Georgia State University into total quality points earned. Quality points are calculated by multiplying hours earned for each course by the numerical value of the grade earned. (See the following table for numerical equivalents of letter grades.) Credits earned in other institutions, credit by examination, credits which carry S/U grades, CLEP credit, IB credit, AP credit, remedial courses and courses specifically excluded by University policy are not used in computing the grade point average.

The institutional grade point average is used in determining your academic standing, and determines your eligibility for graduation. (A 2.00 is required for undergraduate students for graduation.)

Overall Grade Point Average: – Based on courses taken at Georgia State University and transfer grades.

The overall grade point average is calculated by dividing all hours attempted at Georgia State University and those transferred into total quality points earned. Quality points are calculated by multiplying hours earned for each course by the numerical value of the grade earned. (See the following table for numerical equivalents of letter grades.) Credit by examination, credits which carry S/U grades, CLEP credit, IB credit, AP credit, remedial courses, and courses specifically excluded by University policy are not used in computing the grade point average.

This GPA is used by some departments that require admission to a major. See specific admission requirements within the program descriptions.

HOPE Grade Point Average: The HOPE grade point average is calculated by dividing all hours attempted since high school graduation. This will include credits attempted for remedial courses. The calculation of this GPA does not include plus or minus attributes. For example, both a B+ and B- will be treated as the equivalent of a B. All grades from previous institutions attended are calculated in this grade point average.

This GPA is used to determine eligibility for the HOPE scholarship.

All grade point averages are rounded to the hundredth place. For example, 2.676 is rounded to 2.68.

All attempts at all academic courses taken are included in these calculations, based on the definitions listed above, of total number of grade points earned and the total number of semester hours attempted.

The numerical value (grade point) for academic letter grades are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Value</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A+</td>
<td>4.30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>4.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A-</td>
<td>3.70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B+</td>
<td>3.30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B-</td>
<td>2.70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C+</td>
<td>2.30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>2.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C-</td>
<td>1.70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>1.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>0.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WF</td>
<td>0.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IP</td>
<td>0.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The symbols I (Incomplete), IP (In Progress), W (Withdrawal), S (Satisfactory), U (Unsatisfactory), V (Audit), K (Credit-by-examination), and NR (Not Reported) do not have numerical equivalents and are not used in calculating grade point averages. The Department of Veterans Affairs defines the U and V as non-punitive grades; however, veteran students should notify the veterans’ counselor immediately upon receiving a grade of U or V.

1350.25 Repeat to Replace Policy

Under the conditions outlined below, bachelor-level students who have retaken courses and earned a higher grade may request to have the first grade excluded from their bachelor-level institutional GPA. If the request is approved, the Office of the Registrar will make appropriate notations next to the original course and the retaken course on the student’s official transcript. Grades for all attempts at the course will appear on the student’s official transcript regardless of whether or not the grade has been excluded from the student’s GPA. This policy has no effect on any GPA requirements set by state or federal laws/regulations (such as the GPA requirements set by the HOPE scholarship program). A copy of the request and approval will become part of the student’s permanent record file. The attempt to repeat must be made in Fall 2011 or thereafter. Students who have repeated courses prior to this date will not be allowed to delete earlier attempts from their GPA calculation. Units may prohibit students from repeating certain courses.

An undergraduate student may request to have a grade excluded from GPA computation under the following conditions:

- Before requesting to apply the repeat-to-replace policy, a student must have retaken the same undergraduate course (or the renumbered substitute for that course) in the same department at Georgia State and earned a higher grade in the course retaken.
- No more than a total of four course grades (from four different courses) may be replaced and excluded from the student’s GPA.
- A student may request repeat-to-replace for a course repeated during the intended semester of graduation. Requests must be submitted before the end of the second week of classes. Such requests will only be honored if the student needs a passing grade in the course to graduate.
- Once a request has been approved the request cannot be revoked or reversed.
- This policy applies only to the first recorded grade in a course that a student has repeated. For example, suppose that a student took a course three times. The student may use the second or third grade to replace the first grade. The student may not use the third grade to replace the second grade.
- Only grades that are part of a student’s institutional GPA may be replaced. For example, Ws, Ss, and Us cannot be replaced.
- This policy does not apply if the original grade was assigned as a result of a violation of the Academic Honesty policy. (The University maintains internal records of violations of the Academic Honesty policy. In addition, in some cases, violations of the Academic Honesty policy are noted on the transcript. Whether the violation is recorded internally or on the transcript, a student may not replace a grade that was awarded as a result of a violation of the Academic Honesty policy.)
- The Repeat-to-Replace applies only to degree-seeking students pursuing their first associate-level or bachelor-level degree at Georgia State.
- Students may not use this policy to replace grades awarded prior to semester conversion (for example, quarter courses).

1350.30 Changes in Grade

A course grade that has been reported by the instructor to the Office of the Registrar and recorded on the student’s academic record cannot be changed except in the following circumstances:

- Error in grade. If a student believes that there is an error in a grade, the student should discuss the situation with the instructor. A request for a change of grade assigned by an instructor who has left the University should be addressed to the chair of the department.
- Removal of an Incomplete. A student receiving a grade of I (incomplete) is expected to consult with the instructor within the prescribed time limit and to complete all necessary work. The period of time given to a student to remove a grade of I is established by the instructor, subject only to the maximum time limit set by the University. The University requires that a grade of I be removed no later than the end of the second academic term after the grade of I was assigned (whether or not the student was enrolled during these two terms). The Office of the Registrar will assign a grade of F at the end of the second academic term unless the Office of the Registrar receives an approved grade change request from the instructor. (If the student enrolled for S/U grading, a U will be assigned.). Using the grade change request process, instructors may or may not change this F/U to an authorized academic grade (i.e., A, B, C, D, S or WF) but may not change it back to an I. Instructors may not change an I to a W unless an Emergency Withdrawal is awarded. In exceptional cases, departments may authorize students to have an I grade for more than two semesters. Such authorizations must be approved by the department chair. The authorization to extend the I beyond two semesters must be renewed each semester. Registering in a subsequent semester for a course in which a grade of incomplete has been received will not remove the grade of incomplete. (See Section 1350.30, paragraph 2.) No student may graduate with an “I” on his or her record for that degree program. If the requirements to remove a grade of incomplete are not met prior to the deadline, the grade of I will convert to a grade of F.

1350.40 Posthumous Grades

When a student passes away before completing all assignments in a course, that student will be awarded a grade of W in the course. However, if the student has completed more than half the work required for the course and earned a grade of A or B in that work, the instructor may award the student an A or a B.

See section 1490.40 concerning requests for a posthumous degree.

1352 Academic Recognitions

President’s List: Degree-seeking students with a minimum Georgia State University cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.00 who complete at least nine semester hours of academic credit in fall or spring term (or six semester hours in summer term) with no Incompletes for the semester and who earn a 4.00 GPA will be placed on the President’s List for the semester.

Dean’s List: Degree-seeking students with a minimum Georgia State cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.00 who complete at least nine semester hours of academic credit in fall or spring term (or six semester hours in summer term) with no Incompletes for the semester and who earn a GPA of at least 3.50 shall be placed on the appropriate Dean’s List for the semester.

President’s and Dean’s Lists are posted on the university website three to four weeks in the subsequent semester.

1352.20 Signature Experiences

A signature experience course makes learning comes alive and encourages students to be active in their own education. Specifically, in a signature experience students:

1. Apply what they are learning in the classroom to the experience
2. Engage in an experience over a sustained period of time
3. Learn through experiences that are not typically encountered in the standard classroom and
4. Produce a final product that is evaluated by a faculty member.

The central learning outcome of a signature experience is the ability to apply knowledge/skills outside of a standard classroom context. Final products include (but are not limited to) research papers, conference presentations, presentation of works of art, case studies, and reflection papers. Signature experiences are offered as part of courses that earn course credit. Courses that have multiple sections can be either stand-alone signature experiences, where all students in every section participate in the signature experience component, or the course may have only specific sections with a signature experience dimension.” Every major offers at least one signature experience. Common types of signature experiences offered by departments include Study Abroad, Practicums, Internships, Field Studies, and Research opportunities as well as the preparation of an Honor’s Thesis.

There are six categories of signature experiences:

- Students have an Arts Signature Experience when they participate in the production or presentation of creative works.
- Students have a City Signature Experience when they participate in activities that are related to the unique challenges of urban environments.
- Students have a Global Signature Experience when they participate in activities that offer them the opportunity to learn and engage as global citizens.
- Students have a Professional Signature Experience when they participate in work-related experiences.
- Students have a Research Signature Experience when they work on a research project.
- Students have a Service Signature Experience when they integrate service and learning activities to address a community need.

Units may place appropriate prerequisites on admission to their signature experience courses. They may also limit the number of students who may enter a signature experience and set up appropriate admissions processes to determine who is accepted into a signature experience.

1352.30 Global Scholars

At graduation, students who who earn a B or better in five 3000-4000 courses with a global perspectives designation will be recognized as Global Scholars.

To be eligible to be a Global Scholar, students must have an overall GPA of 3.0 when they become juniors. (Students who are juniors when they first enroll at Georgia State must have a transfer GPA of 3.0.) In addition, Global Scholar must have an overall GPA of 3.0 at graduation.

At least two of these five courses must be outside the discipline of the student’s major. However, in cases, where a major gives credit for 3000-4000 courses outside its discipline, those courses count as being outside the discipline of the student’s major. For example, the pre-education concentration of the major in African-American Studies (AAS) allows students to meet some of the requirements of the AAS major with courses other than those with the AAS prefix. Courses with HIST, POLS, GEOG, ECON, and EDUC prefixes count towards the AAS major. For the purposes the Global Scholars program, the courses with HIST, POLS, GEOG, ECON, and EDUC prefixes are outside the discipline of the student’s major.

Global competence is defined as “the skills, knowledge, and awareness that enhance the ability to function in a global environment.” Each of these aspects of global competence can be further subdivided as follows:

Skills

- Foreign language skills: the ability to communicate in a language other than English
- Communication skills: the ability to communicate with diverse audiences and with people from different backgrounds and learning styles
- Analytical skills: the ability to analyze and synthesize comparative and cross-cultural information with sound judgment

Knowledge

- Comparative grasp of political systems, histories, religions, cultures, literatures, economies, etc.
- Recognition of global interconnectedness and conflict
- Ability to think critically about the U.S. and see it in a global context

Awareness

- Openness to different thoughts, ideas, and perspectives; curiosity; adaptability; flexibility in ambiguous or unfamiliar situations as well as in international or intercultural environments
- Willingness to stay abreast of international current events and seek out new intercultural opportunities at home or abroad
- Appreciation of and respect for difference and diversity and a highly developed sense of empathy, awareness, and concern

1352.40 City Scholars

At graduation, students who earn a B or better in five 3000-4000 courses with a cities perspectives designation will be recognized as City Scholars.

To be eligible to be a City Scholar, students must have an overall GPA of 3.0 when they become juniors. (Students who are juniors when they first enroll at Georgia State must have a transfer GPA of 3.0.) In addition, City Scholars must have an overall GPA of 3.0 at graduation.

At least two of these five courses must be outside the discipline of the student’s major. However, in cases, where a major gives credit for 3000-4000 courses outside its discipline, those courses count as being outside the discipline of the student’s major. For example, the pre-law concentration of the major in philosophy (PHIL) allows students to meet some of the requirements of the PHIL major with courses other than those with the PHIL prefix. For example some courses with HIST or POLS prefixes count towards the PHIL major. For the purposes the City Scholars program, the courses with HIST and POLS prefixes are outside the discipline of the student’s major.
Courses are designed to help students develop competence in urban issues and thus help them to become leaders in understanding the complex challenges of cities and in developing effective solutions to those challenges.

City courses at Georgia State are ones that meet one or more of the following criteria:

1. Have as a substantial focus the historical, geographical, social, cultural, economic, environmental, political, policy & planning, and/or design dimensions of city life.
2. Provide students with hands-on experience in addressing or investigating problems or opportunities inherent in city life.

Competence in urban issues is defined as “the skills, knowledge, and awareness that enhance the ability to understand and address the problems and possibilities of cities.”

Skills

- Analytical skills: the ability to analyze and synthesize comparative and diverse information about cities with sound judgment
- Communication skills: the ability to communicate with diverse audiences and with people from different backgrounds and learning styles
- Organizational skills: the ability to recognize diverse contributing partners and find ways to integrate other disciplines toward a constructive end

Knowledge

- Recognition of the complex interconnectedness of cities in urban systems
- Ability to think critically about the complex challenges posed by the city as a creative force in society

Awareness

- Interest in new and different thoughts, ideas, and perspectives; curiosity; adaptability; flexibility in ambiguous or unique situations
- Appreciation of and respect for differences and diversity, coupled with a developed sense of openness, empathy, and concern
- Advocacy for effective solutions that contribute to livable communities and sustainable cities

1360 Academic Support

1360.10 Scholastic Discipline

There are four levels of scholastic discipline for all students regardless of status or program: warning, supervision, probation, and exclusion. A student who is eligible to enroll in courses is in good standing.

Students are placed on:
• Warning when their cumulative Georgia State University GPA is below 2.0 and they were not on supervision or probation the previous semester in attendance.

• Supervision when their cumulative Georgia State GPA is below 2.0 and they were on warning the previous semester in attendance. However, students on warning who attempt 6 or more semester hours in the subsequent semester and earn a Georgia State term GPA of 2.3 or better will remain on warning.

• Probation when their cumulative Georgia State GPA is below 2.0 and they were on supervision the previous semester in attendance. However, students on supervision who attempt 6 or more semester hours and earn a Georgia State term GPA of 2.3 or better will remain on supervision.

• Exclusion when their cumulative Georgia State GPA is below 2.0 and they were on probation the previous semester in attendance. However, students on probation who attempt 6 or more semester hours and earn a Georgia State term GPA of 2.3 or better will remain on probation.

Students on warning, supervision or probation may be allowed to enroll with specific restrictions (see Section 1360.20). Students on exclusion are not eligible to enroll in any undergraduate program or under any status at Georgia State. No transfer credit will be accepted for courses taken at other institutions while on exclusion.

Students on warning, supervision, or probation should refer to Section 1360.20 and consult with an advisor in the University Advisement Center for additional information about scholastic discipline.

1360.20 Academic Improvement Program (AIP)

The Academic Improvement Program (AIP) is intended to assist students in extricating themselves from scholastic discipline and to meet the graduation requirement of an institutional Georgia State University GPA of 2.0 or higher. The elements of AIP are registration approvals by an advisor, course load limits, and survival skills instruction. For further information about AIP, please contact the University Advisement Center at advisement.gsu.edu.

Students on warning or supervision are required to participate in AIP as follows: (a) have their registration approved by an academic advisor; (b) register for no more than 13 semester hours; (c) and take any other steps required by the academic advisor (for example, seeing their major advisor, participating in an assessment by the Counseling Center, etc.). Students on warning or supervision must continue to participate in AIP until their institutional Georgia State GPA is 2.0 or higher.

A college may, at its option, require students on probation not to enroll at Georgia State for one semester. If students on probation are allowed to enroll, they are required to participate in AIP as follows: (a) have their registration approved by an academic advisor; (b) register for no more than 13 semester hours; and (c) take any other steps required by the academic advisor (for example, seeing their major advisor, participating in an assessment by the Counseling Center, etc.). Students enrolling while on probation must continue to participate in AIP until their institutional Georgia State GPA is 2.0 or higher.

Students participating in AIP may be assigned to GSU 1050, Survival Skills for College. GSU 1050 may be taken only once and does not count toward credit hour requirements for graduation. Credit hours enrolled in GSU 1050 count toward the 13 semester hour course load limit for students participating in AIP. Grades received for GSU 1050 are used to calculate the institutional GPA and the term GPA.
Students on exclusion are not eligible to enroll in any undergraduate program or under any status at Georgia State and may not participate in AIP.

Appeals for exemption from some or all of the requirements of AIP should be submitted to the director of the University Advisement Center. Appeals of decisions by the director of the University Advisement Center may be filed in accordance with the procedure for petition of university regulations. Information about AIP and appeals of AIP requirements is available from the University Advisement Center.

1360.30 Academic Renewal

Under certain conditions, Georgia State University allows its former undergraduate students to apply for academic renewal. This provision is intended to allow Georgia State degree-seeking students who have experienced academic difficulty to make a fresh start and to give them a final opportunity to earn a bachelor’s degree. It can apply to individuals on scholastic exclusion. These are the provisions of academic renewal:

Eligibility for Academic Renewal

- A minimum of five calendar years must have passed since last enrollment at Georgia State University.
- Former Department of Academic Foundations (formerly Division of Learning Support Programs and Developmental Studies) students may apply for academic renewal only if they completed all learning support programs requirements prior to the five-year absence.
- A student can be granted academic renewal only one time.
- A student who was excluded from Georgia State and has attended another college or university during the absence from Georgia State is not eligible for academic renewal.
- A student who was not excluded from Georgia State but attended another college or university during an absence of five or more years may choose one of these options, but not both:
  1. Return to Georgia State, having attended another accredited institution, subject to all relevant transfer and re-entry policies. The student will not be eligible for academic renewal but transfer credit will be granted for applicable courses taken during the absence and previously earned Georgia State credit is retained.
  2. Apply for academic renewal. If academic renewal is approved, no transfer credit will be granted for coursework completed during the absence.

Effects of Academic Renewal

- A cumulative GPA that reflects all attempts at all courses taken at Georgia State continues to be recorded on the student’s official transcript. A new renewal institutional GPA is begun when the student has been approved for academic renewal and is also recorded on the student’s official transcript. The renewal institutional GPA will be used for determining academic standing and eligibility for graduation.
- Academic credit for previously completed course work including transfer course work will be retained only for courses in which an A, B, or C grade has been earned.
- The grades for Georgia State academic credit that are retained are not calculated in the renewal institutional GPA. The courses are applied toward degree requirements are applicable. This credit, therefore, is placed in the same category as transfer credit, credit by examination, and courses with grades of S (not part of the calculated institutional GPA).

- Courses for which academic credit is not retained (those with grades of D or lower) must be repeated at Georgia State if they are required in the student’s degree program. All remaining degree requirements must be completed at Georgia State. No transient or transfer credit will be accepted.
- Whether the retained academic credit is still applicable for degree credit will depend on the degree requirements currently in effect at the time the student returns to Georgia State and on specific program regulations.
- All courses taken at Georgia State remain on the student’s official Georgia State transcript. At the time academic renewal is approved, this approval is noted on the student's transcript. Any Georgia State course work for which credit can be retained is listed below the academic renewal notation.
- Reentry into a program that has specific admission requirements is not automatic. Academic renewal students who wish admission to such a program must apply directly to the program.
- Students must meet the academic residence requirement (see section 1440) using only course credit earned after academic renewal.
- To be eligible for honors at graduation, students must earn at least 60 hours of credit after academic renewal.

Applying for Academic Renewal

To apply for academic renewal, the student must obtain approval both from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions and from the University Advisement Center.

1. File an application for reentry to the university with the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, 200 Sparks Hall, http://admissions.gsu.edu/how-do-i-apply/other-enrollment-types/re-entry-students/.
2. File an application for academic renewal with the University Advisement Center. The deadlines for applying for academic renewal in order to enroll for a semester are:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Semester</th>
<th>Deadline</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fall</td>
<td>July 1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spring</td>
<td>December 1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summer</td>
<td>May 1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Application for Academic Renewal before the prescribed deadlines will aid in the timely return of a decision. Those students whose return to Georgia State University is dependent on approval for academic renewal should be especially diligent in their timely submission of their application.

If a student does not apply for academic renewal at the time of enrollment, it can be requested after reenrollment if the application is filed within one calendar year.

- A student whose application for academic renewal is not approved will be notified by letter from the University Advisement Center. Unless specific information to the contrary is given in the letter, the student may reapply for academic renewal after one year has passed.
- Evaluation of a student’s application for academic renewal will be based on the student’s:
  1. Previous academic record;
  2. Previous student discipline record; and
  3. Current commitment to academic work.
1380 Academic Honesty

1. Introduction

As members of the academic community, students are expected to recognize and uphold standards of intellectual and academic integrity. The University assumes as a basic and minimum standard of conduct in academic matters that students be honest and that they submit for credit only the products of their own efforts. Both the ideals of scholarship and the need for fairness require that all dishonest work be rejected as a basis for academic credit. They also require that students refrain from any and all forms of dishonorable or unethical conduct related to their academic work.

The University’s policy on academic honesty is published in the Faculty Handbook (http://www2.gsu.edu/~wwwfhlb/fhb.html) and the Student Handbook, On Campus, which is available to all members of the University community (http://studenthandbook.gsu.edu/). Academic honesty is a core value of the University and all members of the University community are responsible for abiding by the tenets of the policy. Georgia State students, faculty, and staff, are expected to report all instances of academic dishonesty to the appropriate authorities. The procedures for such reporting are outlined below and on file in the offices of the deans of each college, the Office of the Dean of Students, and the Office of the Provost.

Lack of knowledge of this policy is not an acceptable defense to any charge of academic dishonesty. In an effort to foster an environment of academic integrity and to prevent academic dishonesty, students are expected to discuss with faculty the expectations regarding course assignments and standards of conduct. Students are encouraged to discuss freely with faculty, academic advisors, and other members of the University community any questions pertaining to the provisions of this policy. In addition, students are encouraged to avail themselves of programs in establishing personal standards and ethics offered by the university.

No instructor or department may impose academic or disciplinary penalties for academic dishonesty outside the parameters of this policy. This policy applies to all incidents of academic dishonesty, including those that occur before a student graduates but are not discovered until after the degree is conferred. In such cases, it is possible that the application of this policy will lead to a failure to meet degree completion requirements and therefore a revocation of a student’s degree.

Many colleges and/or departments provide statements of what constitutes academic dishonesty within the context of their discipline, and recommend penalties for specific types of academic dishonesty. As noted in the Faculty Handbook, all syllabi are required to make reference to the Academic Honesty Policy; syllabi should also include a link to departmental standards where they exist.

2. Definitions and Examples

The examples and definitions given below are intended to clarify the standards by which academic honesty and academically honorable conduct are to be judged. The list is merely illustrative of the kinds of infractions that may occur, and it is not intended to be exhaustive. Moreover, the definitions and examples suggest conditions under which unacceptable behavior of the indicated types normally occurs; however, there may be unusual cases that fall outside these conditions which also will be judged unacceptable by the Plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting another person’s work as one’s own. Plagiarism includes any paraphrasing or summarizing of the works of another person without acknowledgment, including the submitting of another student’s work as one’s own. Plagiarism frequently involves a failure to acknowledge in the text, notes, or footnotes the quotation of the paragraphs, sentences, or even a few phrases written or spoken by someone else. The submission of research or completed papers or projects by someone else is plagiarism, as is the unacknowledged use of research sources gathered by someone else when that use is specifically forbidden by the faculty member. Failure to indicate the extent and nature of one’s reliance on other sources is also a form of plagiarism. Failure to indicate the extent and nature of one’s reliance on other sources is also a form of plagiarism. Any work, in whole or part, taken from the internet without properly referencing the corresponding URL (along with the author’s name and title of the work, if available) may be considered plagiarism. Finally, there may be forms of plagiarism that are unique to an individual discipline or course, examples of which should be provided in advance by the faculty member. The student is responsible for understanding the legitimate use of sources, the appropriate ways of acknowledging academic, scholarly or creative indebtedness, and the consequences of violating this responsibility.

Cheating on Examinations. Cheating on examinations involves giving or receiving unauthorized help before, during, or after an examination. Examples of unauthorized help include the use of notes, texts, or “crib sheets” during an examination (unless specifically approved by the faculty member), or sharing information with another student during an examination (unless specifically approved by the faculty member). Other examples include intentionally allowing another student to view one’s own examination and collaboration before or after an examination if such collaboration is specifically forbidden by the faculty member.

Unauthorized Collaboration. Unauthorized collaboration means working with someone or getting assistance from someone (a classmate, friend, etc.) without specific permission from the instructor on any assignment (e.g., exam, paper, homework) that is turned in for a grade. It is also a violation of academic honesty to knowingly provide such assistance to another student. Collaborative work specifically authorized by a faculty member is allowed.

Falsification. It is a violation of academic honesty to misrepresent material or fabricate information in an academic exercise, assignment or proceeding (e.g., false or misleading citation of sources, the falsification of the results of experiments or of computer data, false or misleading information in an academic context in order to gain an unfair advantage).

Multiple Submissions. It is a violation of academic honesty to submit substantial portions of the same work for credit more than once without the explicit consent of the faculty member(s) to whom the material is submitted for additional credit. In cases in which there is a natural development of research or knowledge in a sequence of courses, use of prior work may be desirable, even required; however, the student is responsible for indicating in writing, as a part of such use, that the current work submitted for credit is cumulative in nature.

3. Information and Burden of Proof
In determining whether or not academic dishonesty has occurred, the standard which should be used is that guilt must be proven by a preponderance of the information. This means that if the information which indicates that academic dishonesty occurred produces a stronger impression and is more convincing as to its truth when weighed against opposing information, then academic dishonesty has been proved. In other words, the information does not have to be enough to free the mind from a reasonable doubt but must be sufficient to incline a reasonable and impartial mind to one side of the issue rather than to the other. Information as used in this statement can be any observation, admission, statement, or document which would either directly or circumstantially indicate that academic dishonesty has occurred.

4. Procedures for Resolving Matters of Academic Honesty

The following procedure is the only approved means for resolving matters of academic dishonesty, except for matters arising in the College of Law, which has its own Honor Code for handling such matters. It is available to all members of the academic community who wish to pursue an action against a student for academic dishonesty. A brief summary of the procedures is presented here; details of these procedures are found in the following sections.

1. The faculty member should discuss the incident with the student before filing a charge of academic dishonesty. The faculty member, in consultation with the department chair, prepares the Notice of Academic Dishonesty. The chair forwards the notice to the college dean, who sends the notification to the student by university email or by certified mail.

2. The student must appeal in writing to the College Dean within 10 business days of the date the email was sent or the certified mail was received if the student wishes to deny the finding of academic dishonesty.

3. If the student does not appeal within 10 business days, the College Dean forwards the notice of academic dishonesty to the Dean of Students.

4. If the student appeals the charges, a College Hearing Committee conducts a hearing and reports its findings to the College Dean regarding guilt or innocence. If the student is found not guilty, the faculty member is notified to assign an appropriate grade. If the student is found guilty, the dean forwards the notice of academic dishonesty to the dean of students.

5. Any recommendation for a disciplinary penalty and a challenge of that disciplinary penalty submitted by the student, if any, is reviewed by the University Senate Committee on Student Discipline. Based on the committee’s recommendation, the provost makes a decision and takes action regarding any disciplinary sanction.

6. The dean of students maintains the disciplinary records on all findings of academic dishonesty and is responsible for forwarding notice of multiple findings to the Senate Committee on Student Discipline for review. Multiple findings may result in a disciplinary penalty even if one was not recommended by the faculty member.

5. Initiation of Action

If a member of the academic community believes that a student has engaged in academic dishonesty in a course, on a test, or as a part of an academic program, that individual is responsible for initiating action against the student or bringing the matter to the attention of an individual who may initiate action against the student (i.e., complete and submit a notification of academic honesty). In allegations of academic dishonesty involving course requirements, the course faculty member is required to initiate the action. If the alleged violation involves a departmental program requirement (e.g., comprehensive examination or language competency examination) or an institutionally-required test (e.g., test of Georgia/United States history or Georgia/United States constitutions), or if the individual who discovers the incident is not a faculty member, the individual should bring the matter to the attention of the faculty member and administrator who has responsibility of overseeing the activity (e.g., departmental chair, director of the Testing Office). If that administrator decides to bring charges of academic dishonesty against the student, then that administrator becomes the initiator. (Test proctors, laboratory assistants, and other individuals who are not course faculty members should bring any instances of alleged academic dishonesty to the attention of the course faculty member or their administrative superior. That individual, after weighing the information, may become the initiator by formally charging the student with academic dishonesty.)

The channel of review, recommendation, and decision-making follows the administrative lines associated with the course or program requirement involved. In any instance, however, when the alleged incident does not occur within the context of a course, and when it is unclear which college should have jurisdiction in review and decision-making, any unit may initiate the case.

For the sake of brevity the following processing procedures are written from an academic unit/college perspective. Nonacademic units (i.e., Testing Center) would substitute appropriate supervisory personnel at the respective levels. Herein the initiator will be referred to as faculty member and the administrative unit head will be referred to as chair, designating the departmental chair. Dean will refer to appropriate administrative supervisory personnel at the overall college or division level.

When an allegation of academic dishonesty is made, the relevant dean will inform the Office of the Registrar to place a grade of GP (grade pending) for the student in the course involved. Withdrawal from a course does not preclude the imposition of penalties for academic dishonesty. While the matter of academic dishonesty is pending, the student will be allowed to continue in the course and register for upcoming semesters.

A. Penalties to be Imposed
Penalties to be imposed in incidents of academic dishonesty are classified as academic or disciplinary.
Academic penalties include assignment of a failing grade for a particular course requirement, or for the course itself, or for other tests or program assignments. They are set by the faculty member, in consultation with the department chair.

Disciplinary penalties can be sought in addition to those considered academic and could include, but are not limited to, the following: suspension, expulsion, transcript annotations (temporary for a period of five years or permanent, as designated). Course credit earned at other institutions while on suspension may not be transferred to Georgia State. Disciplinary penalties can be requested by the faculty member, in consultation with the chair; they must be reviewed by the University Senate Committee on Student Discipline and they are set by the provost.

B. Action at Administrative Unit (Department and College Level)
As soon as possible after the alleged incident, the faculty member should discuss the matter with the student. This discussion should be conducted in a manner which protects the rights and confidentiality of students. If the faculty member believes that academic dishonesty has occurred, the faculty member, in consultation with the department chair, will determine the appropriate academic penalty. The faculty member and the chair will complete a notice of academic dishonesty form describing the incident and indicating the academic penalty imposed and any recommended disciplinary penalty. The chair will forward the notice of academic dishonesty, which includes a statement of the right to appeal, to the dean of the college, who delivers it a either through the student’s official university email address or by certified mail.

C. Student Action
The student will have 10 business days after receipt of the notice of charges of academic dishonesty (i.e., the date that the email was sent or that the certified mail was received) to submit a written appeal denying the charges and providing any rationale for the appeal. The appeal should be addressed to the college dean of the initiator. In the event the student is found guilty of academic dishonesty, the student does not have the right to appeal the academic penalty assessed by the faculty member, unless the student can prove that such penalty was arbitrarily imposed or applied in a discriminatory manner.

If the student wishes to challenge a disciplinary penalty, the student must submit a written rationale for challenging the disciplinary penalty within 10 business days of receipt of the notice of charges of academic dishonesty. The statement of challenge should be addressed to the college dean. The college dean will forward the challenge to the dean of students for inclusion in the review of the disciplinary penalty by the University Senate Committee on Student Discipline. All disciplinary penalties are automatically reviewed by the University Senate Committee on Student Discipline, regardless of student appeal.

If the student has also filed an appeal denying the charges of academic dishonesty, any review of disciplinary penalty recommended will be delayed pending review of the charges of academic dishonesty by the college hearing committee.

D. College Action
1. No Appeal by the Student. If the student does not submit a written appeal to the college dean or challenge the disciplinary penalty within 10 business days, the college dean will notify the chair/faculty member to post any pending grade(s) immediately. The college dean will then forward the notice of academic dishonesty to the dean of students for inclusion in the student’s disciplinary file. Any recommendation of a disciplinary penalty will also be forwarded to the dean of students for appropriate review by the Senate Committee on Student Discipline.

2. Appeal by the Student.
   a. If the student submits a written appeal of the charges of academic dishonesty, the college dean will forward the charges to the chair of a college hearing committee and will notify the faculty member to set forth in writing a comprehensive response describing the incident of academic dishonesty. This statement will be presented to the committee and to the student at least five (5) business days prior to the hearing.
   b. If the student wishes to challenge the disciplinary penalty without appealing the charges of academic honesty, a college hearing committee will not be convened; instead, the college dean will forward the challenge to the dean of students for inclusion in the review of the disciplinary penalty by the University Senate Committee on Student Discipline.

3. Student Hearing Committee Process. Guidelines that Govern the Hearing of the Appeal by the College Student Hearing Committee
   a. Within ten (10) business days after the committee receives the charges of academic dishonesty, a hearing date will be determined. The committee will notify the faculty member and the student of the time, date, and the place of the hearing. Copies of all charges of academic dishonesty and related materials for the hearing will be provided to the student at least five (5) business days in advance of the hearing.

b. The faculty member and the student will be allowed to make oral presentations, call witnesses, and present any documentary information regarding the incident in question. The hearing will be recorded on audio tape. The hearing will not be open to observers.

c. At the conclusion of the hearing, the committee will meet in closed session and will make its recommendation as to the guilt or innocence of the student based on a preponderance of information with respect to the charge of academic dishonesty. The committee chair will forward to the college dean its findings and recommendations in a written report within five (5) business days of the hearing.

4. College Decision on Appeals. Within five (5) business days of receiving the committee’s written report, the college dean will make the final decision regarding guilt or innocence. The college dean will notify all appropriate parties of the decision.

If the college dean finds the student not guilty, the matter will be terminated and no notice of charges will be filed with the dean of students. The college dean will notify the chair to post the pending course grade promptly and will notify the registrar to remove the GP (grade pending) on the student’s transcript.

If the college dean finds the student guilty, the notice of charges of academic dishonesty will be forwarded to the dean of students for inclusion in the student’s disciplinary file. The academic penalty stipulated by the faculty member will be imposed. The college dean will notify the chair to insure that any pending grade is posted promptly. The college dean will notify the registrar to remove the GP (grade pending) on the student’s transcript if only an academic penalty was involved.

If a disciplinary penalty has been recommended, the college dean will notify the registrar to continue the GP (grade pending) annotation until the disciplinary penalty can be reviewed by the University Senate Committee on Student Discipline.

5. Appeal of the Decision of the Dean. If the student or initiator wishes to appeal the decision of the college dean regarding guilt or innocence of the charges of academic dishonesty, the student or initiator may appeal to the provost. The subsequent appeal route would be to the president and then the Board of Regents. The student or initiator must submit a written statement of appeal to the provost within 10 business days of notification of the dean’s decision. The basis of the appeal must be on the grounds that the decision was arbitrary, capricious, or discriminatory.

E. UNIVERSITY SENATE COMMITTEE ON STUDENT DISCIPLINE ACTION
In cases where a disciplinary penalty has been recommended, the Senate Committee on Student Discipline will conduct a hearing to review the disciplinary penalty. The committee will review the faculty member’s notice of academic dishonesty and the student’s statement of challenge of the disciplinary penalty, if any.
The faculty member and the student will be allowed to appear at the hearing to discuss the imposition of disciplinary penalties. Only the recommendation concerning the disciplinary penalty to be imposed will be considered by this committee. Issues of guilt or innocence are determined at the college level (see II.4 C and D above).

The Senate Committee will conduct the hearing in accordance with its regular hearing procedures. Copies of these procedures may be obtained from the Provost’s Office.
The Senate Committee on Student Discipline will provide its recommendation within five (5) business days of its hearing to the provost regarding appropriateness of the disciplinary penalty recommended by the college and/or whether other disciplinary penalties are to be imposed in addition to or in lieu of those already recommended by the college.

F. PROVOST ACTION

1. Decision of the Provost. The role of the provost in handling student appeals regarding the charge of academic honesty has been explained (see II.E.5 above). Based on the recommendation, the Provost will render a decision within ten (10) business days of receipt of the recommendation of the Senate Committee. The provost will notify the student, the referring dean, the department chair and the faculty member of the Senate Committee’s recommendations and of the provost’s decision. At that time the provost will also notify the registrar to annotate the student’s transcript, if necessary.

2. Appeal of the Decision of the Provost. If the student wishes to appeal the decision of the provost regarding the imposition of a disciplinary penalty, the student may appeal to the president, and then to the Board of Regents. The student must submit a written statement of appeal to the president within ten (10) business days of notification of the provost’s decision. The basis for such an appeal must be on the grounds that the decision was arbitrary, capricious, or discriminatory.

G. STUDENTS INVOLVED IN TWO OR MORE INCIDENTS OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

A student is subject to disciplinary action in addition to any already undertaken once it is determined that the student has been found guilty in a previous incident of academic dishonesty. In such cases, the dean of students will forward a report to the University Senate Committee on Student Discipline regarding the incidents of academic dishonesty which have been reported. The dean of students is responsible for initiating this report within ten (10) business days of notification of the proceedings of any subsequent finding of academic dishonesty.

The University Senate Committee on Student Discipline will review the report of the dean of students. The student may submit supplemental written documents for the committee’s review and may request to appear before the committee in its deliberations. After reviewing the matter, the committee will send a report to the provost with the recommendation for disciplinary penalty to be imposed. The provost will proceed as in G above.

H. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES FOR ACADEMIC MATTERS

1. Each of the undergraduate colleges has stated policies for settling grievances of students for academic matters. Refer to the office of the dean of each college for policies.

2. Obligation to Report Suspected Violations. Members of the academic community, students, faculty and staff are expected to report all instances of academic dishonesty to the appropriate authorities. The procedures for such reporting are on file in the offices of the deans of each college.

3. Penalties. The University takes the matter of academic honesty most seriously. Penalties for violations vary, but include both suspension and permanent expulsion from the institution.

1382 Student Complaints, Petitions for Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals
The appeals procedure for students will follow different courses depending on the nature of the student’s appeal. Please refer to University Information Section 1050.80 under Polices and Disclosures in this catalog or visit enrollment.gsu.edu/assistance online for details.
1400 University Degree Requirements and Graduation

A degree will be awarded only to a student who meets both the university requirements and the standards of performance, academic requirements, and residence requirements of their college and of their degree program. See below for a complete explanation of university requirements. Consult your college’s chapter of this catalog for your degree program’s requirements. Once a degree has been conferred that academic record is considered closed.

1405 Learning Outcomes

Learning outcomes are the goals students achieve in their programs of study. They represent the knowledge, skills and attitudes that students should gain to successfully complete the requirements of a course, major, and degree. A special set of general learning outcomes cover the goals for all students at the university. Students begin mastery of the university’s learning outcomes in the core (first two years of study) and continue to develop these skills throughout their major. The learning outcomes for all students are:

Area A1. Written Communication

Students produce well-organized written communications that exhibit logical thinking and organization, use appropriate style for audience, and meet conventional standards of usage.

Area A2. Mathematics

Students demonstrate the ability to interpret and analyze quantitative information; to apply mathematical principles and techniques; and to use mathematical models to solve applied problems.

Area B. Institutional Foundations

Students demonstrate effective critical thinking skills through interpreting, presenting or evaluating ideas.

Area C. Humanities/Fine Arts

Students can effectively evaluate the role of the humanities, fine arts, and languages in the human experience.

Area D. Natural and Computational Sciences

Students apply scientific and computational reasoning and methods of inquiry to explain natural phenomena and/or analyze quantitative information and solve applied problems.

Area E. Social Sciences

Students effectively analyze the complexity of human behavior, and how historical, economic, political, social, and/or spatial relationships develop, persist, and/or change.

1410 Core Curriculum Requirements

Georgia State University requires all students seeking an associate’s or bachelor’s degree to satisfactorily complete a basic core of general education subjects. Georgia State’s core curriculum provides students with a broad background in general education and reflects the special mission of this university as an urban research institution with an international, multi-ethnic, and multi-cultural focus. Because of ongoing evaluation of the effectiveness of the core curriculum, changes may occur periodically in its configuration. Every attempt will be made to notify students when such changes occur.

Areas A through E of the core curriculum are designed to provide students with a wide array of courses as a means of gaining a basic education in the liberal arts and assisting students in their choice of a major. Students should normally choose among the courses in areas A to E and select a major before taking courses in Area F. Students who have chosen a major before the completion of Areas A through E should review the departmental sections of the catalog to see specific recommendations for course selection. Some programs, such as art, music, and nursing, require students to begin major-related coursework in their freshman year to meet course sequencing requirements.

There are restricted choices for some majors in Areas A and D. Students must follow the degree-specific requirements listed in Areas A and D for the programs they are pursuing.

Students who are planning to transfer to Georgia State from other institutions in the University System of Georgia should note that this is Georgia State’s core curriculum and is to be followed by students who choose to complete the core curriculum at this university. The core curriculum at a student’s current University System of Georgia (USG) institution may contain different courses. However, Georgia State will grant credit for any approved core curriculum course taken at a student’s current University System of Georgia home institution even if it is different from the course offered at Georgia State.

The core curriculum completed at one USG institution is fully transferable to another system institution for the same major. However, specific situations may result in minor exceptions to this general rule. Students seeking credit for USG core curriculum courses that were not accepted during Georgia State’s admissions process or who believe that the system rules of transferability of the core curriculum are not being honored can make an appeal. Appeals should be initiated by filling out a form available in the University Advisement Center, 25 Park Place, Suites 400 and 500.

1410.10 Area A1: Written Communication (6)

- ENGL 1101 English Composition I (3)
- ENGL 1102 English Composition II (3)

Students meeting specific eligibility requirements may take ENGL 1103 Advanced Composition in Area A1. See your academic advisor for additional information.

Students who have earned 30 hours but have not completed Area A1 must enroll in the next course.
necessary to make progress toward completing this Area in every semester in which they take classes. For students with Learning Support requirements in writing, taking the required Learning Support course(s) counts as making progress toward completing Area A1.

- MATH 2420 Discrete Mathematics (3)

If a 4 hour course is selected, the additional hour will be counted in Area F or Area G (for bachelor’s students).

Students should select mathematics courses that are appropriate for their preferred degree program. Students are strongly advised to consult with an academic advisor before selecting a mathematics course. Specific recommendations may also be listed in the catalog section for the degree program.

Majors in sciences and mathematics programs (i.e., biology, computer science, chemistry, geology A.S., geoscience B.S., mathematics, medical technology, neuroscience, physics, radiologic sciences, and sciences/math education) are required to take Math 1112, 1113, or 2211 in Area A2. MATH 1112 is recommended for majors in computer science, mathematics, neuroscience, and physics. MATH 1113 is recommended for majors in biology, chemistry, geology A.S., geoscience B.S., medical technology, radiologic sciences, and sciences/math education. Engineering students are required to take MATH 2211 in Area A2.

Students who have earned 30 hours but have not completed Area A2 must enroll in the next course necessary to make progress toward completing this Area in every semester in which they take classes. For students with Learning Support requirements in mathematics, taking the required Learning Support course counts as making progress toward completing Area A2.

Note: A math placement test is recommended for all students who do not have credit for an Area A math course and is required for students who wish to take MATH 1111, College Algebra, or higher. See counselingcenter.gsu.edu/testing/ for more information.

1410.20 Area B: Institutional Foundations (4)
Select two courses from the following:

- PHIL 1010 Critical Thinking (2)
- SCOM 1000 Human Communication (2)
- PERS 2001 Perspectives on Comparative Culture (2)
- PERS 2002 Scientific Perspectives on Global Problems (2)
- PERS 2003 Perspectives on Human Expression (2)

Pers 2001 is a group of interdisciplinary courses that provides a better understanding of the contemporary world through the study of different cultures. Only one course from this group may be used to fulfill requirements in Area B.

Pers 2002 is a group of interdisciplinary courses that deals with scientific approaches to important issues on the environment, public health, or technology. Only one course from this group may be used to fulfill requirements in Area B.

Pers 2003 is a group of interdisciplinary courses that focus on the human condition, how people have expressed themselves through the arts and humanities, and how such representations have had broad historical and/or contemporary impact. Only one course in this group may be used to fulfill requirements in Area B.

Additional information about institutional options is available online at advisement.gsu.edu/self-service/core-curriculum/institutional-options/.

1410.30 Area C: Humanities, Fine Arts, and World Languages (6)

Select two courses from groups 1, 2, and 3 below. The two courses may not come from the same group.

1. Humanities

   - ENGL 2110 World Literature (3)
   - ENGL 2120 British Literature (3)
   - ENGL 2130 American Literature (3)
   - HUMN 1000 Introduction to the Humanities (3)
   - PHIL 2010 Introduction to Philosophy (3)
   - PHIL 2030 Introduction to Ethics (3)

Some foreign language courses are not open to native speakers of that language. Please consult the course description before making a selection in this area.

Placement exams in French, German, and Spanish are available. See Section 1310.20 for more information.

1410.40 Area D: Natural and Computational Sciences (11)

Complete the section below appropriate for your major.

Courses with a laboratory component may be offered in two different but equivalent formats: As separate lecture and lab courses (e.g., BIOL 1101 and BIOL 1101L) or as a single course that includes both lecture and lab sections (e.g., BIOL 1101K).

Majors other than Sciences, Mathematics, and Health Professions:

1. Select one two-course sequence. (8)

   • ASTR 1010K Astronomy of the Solar System (4) or ASTR 1010 (3) and ASTR 1010L (1) and
   • ASTR 1020K Stellar and Galactic Astronomy (4) or ASTR 1020 (3) and ASTR 1020L (1)

   • BIOL 1103K Introductory Biology I (4) or BIOL 1103 (3) and BIOL 1103L (1) and
   • BIOL 1104K Introductory Biology II (4) or BIOL 1104 (3) and BIOL 1104L (1)

   • BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4) or BIOL 2107 (3) and BIOL 2107L (1) and
   • BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4) or BIOL 2108 (3) and BIOL 2108L (1)

   • CHEM 1101K Introductory Chemistry I (4) or CHEM 1101 (3) and CHEM 1101L (1) and
   • CHEM 1102K Introductory Chemistry II (4) or CHEM 1102 (3) and CHEM 1102L (1)

   • CHEM 1151K Survey of Chemistry I (4) or CHEM 1151 (3) and CHEM 1151L (1) and
   • CHEM 1152K Survey of Chemistry II (4) or CHEM 1152 (3) and CHEM 1152L (1)

   • CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4) or CHEM 1211 (3) and CHEM 1211L (1) and
   • CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (4) or CHEM 1212 (3) and CHEM 1212L (1)
- ENVS 1401K Environmental Science (4) or ENVS 1401 (3) and ENVS 1401L (1) and
  - ENVS 1402K Plant Resources in the Environment (4) or ENVS 1402 (3) and ENVS 1402L (1)
- GEOG 1112K Introduction to Weather and Climate (4) or GEOG 1112 (3) and GEOG 1112L (1) and
- GEOG 1113K Introduction to Landforms or [Geog 1113 (3) and GEOG 1113L (1) (4)
- GEOL 1121K Introductory Geology I (4) or GEOL 1121 (3) and GEOL 1121L (1) and
  - GEOL 1122K Introductory Geology II (4) or GEOL 1122 (3) and GEOL 1122L (1)
- PHYS 1111K Introductory Physics I (4) or PHYS 1111 (3) and PHYS 1111L (1) and
  - PHYS 1112K Introductory Physics II (4) or PHYS 1112 (3) and PHYS 1112L (1)
  - PHYS 2211K Principles of Physics I (4) or PHYS 2211 (3) and PHYS 2211L (1) and
  - PHYS 2212K Principles of Physics II (4) or PHYS 2212 (3) and PHYS 2212L (1)

2. Select one course (must be from a discipline different from one selected in group 1 above). (3-4)

- Any course from Section D1 above (4)
- ASTR 1000 Introduction to the Universe (3)
- BIOL 2240 Human Physiology (3)
- BIOL 2300 Microbiology and Public Health (3)
- CHEM 1050 Chemistry for Citizens (3)
- CSC 1010 Computers and Applications (3)
- GEOL 2001 Geologic Resources and the Environment (3)
- MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)
- MATH 1112 College Trigonometry (3)
- MATH 1113 Precalculus (3)
- MATH 1220 Survey of Calculus (3)
- MATH 2201 Calculus for the Life Sciences I (4)
- MATH 2202 Calculus for the Life Sciences II (4)
- MATH 2211 Calculus of One Variable I (4)
- MATH 2212 Calculus of One Variable II (4)
- MATH 2420 Discrete Mathematics (3)
- Higher numbered mathematics course (3-4)
- PHYS 2030 Physical Science: Physics of Music and Speech (3)
- PSYC 1100 Intro to Biological Psychology (3)

If a 4 hour course is selected in this section, the additional hour will be counted in Area F or Area G (for bachelor’s programs).

Students should select mathematics courses that are appropriate for their preferred degree program. Students are strongly advised to consult with an academic advisor before selecting a mathematics course. Specific recommendations may also be listed in the catalog section for the degree program.

Majors in Sciences and Mathematics (Biology, Computer Science, Chemistry, Geology A.S., Geoscience B.S., Mathematics, Medical Technology, Neuroscience, Physics, Radiologic Sciences, Sciences/Math Education):

It is recommended that students select a sequence appropriate to the major.

1. Select one two-course sequence. (8)

- BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4) or BIOL 2107 (3) and BIOL 2107L (1) and
- BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4) or BIOL 2108 (3) and BIOL 2108L (1)

- CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4) or CHEM 1211 (3) and CHEM 1211L (1) and
- CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (4) or CHEM 1212 (3) and CHEM 1212L (1)

- GEOL 1121K Introductory Geology I (4) or GEOL 1121 (3) and GEOL 1121L (1) and
- GEOL 1122K Introductory Geology II (4) or GEOL 1122 (3) and GEOL 1122L (1)

- PHYS 1111K Introductory Physics I (4) or PHYS 1111 (3) and PHYS 1111L (1) and
- PHYS 1112K Introductory Physics II (4) or PHYS 1112 (3) and PHYS 1112L (1)

- PHYS 2211K Principles of Physics I (4) or PHYS 2211 (3) and PHYS 2211L (1) and
- PHYS 2212K Principles of Physics II (4) or PHYS 2212 (3) and PHYS 2212L (1)

2. Select an initial calculus course (MATH 2211 Calculus of One Variable or MATH 2201 Calculus for the Life Sciences) or a course with a higher number, or one that is appropriate to the major (see individual departmental degree requirements). Engineering students must take MATH 2212 Calculus of One Variable II.

Majors in Health Professions (Nursing, Nutrition, Respiratory Therapy):

1. Select one two-course sequence. (8)

Note: Nutrition and Respiratory Therapy majors must choose CHEM 1151K and CHEM 1152K (or CHEM 1151/CHEM 1151L and CHEM 1152/CHEM 1152L).

- BIOL 1103K Introductory Biology I (4) or BIOL 1103 (3) and BIOL 1103L (1) and
- BIOL 1104K Introductory Biology II (4) or BIOL 1104 (3) and BIOL 1104L (1)

- BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4) or BIOL 2107 (3) and BIOL 2107L (1) and
- BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4) or BIOL 2108 (3) and BIOL 2108L (1)

- CHEM 1151K Survey of Chemistry I (4) or CHEM 1151 (3) and CHEM 1151L (1) and
- CHEM 1152K Survey of Chemistry II (4) or CHEM 1152 (3) and CHEM 1152L (1)

- PHYS 1111KIntroductory Physics I (4) or PHYS 1111 (3) and PHYS 1111L (1) and
- PHYS 1112K Introductory Physics II (4) or PHYS 1112 (3) and PHYS 1112L (1)

2. Select one mathematics course from the following:

Note: MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3) is recommended for all health professions majors except those in the Health Sciences A.S. in Medical Technology or Radiologic Sciences.
MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)
MATH 1112 College Trigonometry (3)
MATH 1113 Precalculus (3)
MATH 1220 Survey of Calculus (3)
MATH 2201 Calculus for the Life Sciences I (4)
MATH 2202 Calculus for the Life Sciences II (4)
MATH 2211 Calculus of One Variable I (4)
MATH 2212 Calculus of One Variable II (4)
MATH 2420 Discrete Mathematics (3)
Higher numbered mathematics course (3-4)

1410.50 Area E: Social Science (12)

Students who satisfy the requirements of Section 1, United States Politics and History, by examination and choose not to take HIST 2110 and POLS 1101 must select two additional courses from Section 3, Social Science Foundations. No student may take more than six hours in Area E from any one department.

1. United States Politics and History – Legislative Requirement (0-6)
   - HIST 2110 Survey of United States History (3)
   - POLS 1101 American Government (3)

   Georgia law requires all students to pass examinations on (a) the history of the United States and the history of Georgia and (b) the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of Georgia. Students may satisfy these requirements by earning passing grades in Hist 2110 and PolS 1101. (See Section 1425)

2. Global Economics, Global Politics, and World History. Requirement: Select one course (3)
   - ECON 2100 Global Economics (3)
   - HIST 1111 Survey of World History to 1500 (3)
   - HIST 1112 Survey of World History since 1500 (3)
   - POLS 2401 Global Issues (3)

3. Social Science Foundations: Select one course (see note above) (3-9)
   - AAS 2010 Introduction to African-American Studies (3)
   - ANTH 1102 Introduction to Anthropology (3)
   - CRJU 2200 Social Science and the American Crime Problem (3)
   - ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
   - ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
   - GEOG 1101 Introduction to Human Geography (3)
   - GER 2000 Introduction to Gerontology (3)
   - AAS 1140/HIST 1140 African and African-American History (3)
   - PSYC 1101 Introduction to General Psychology (3)
   - SOCI 1101 Introductory Sociology (3)
   - SOCI 1160 Introduction to Social Problems (3)

172
1410.60 Area F: Lower Division Major Requirements (18)

Courses in Area F, which constitute the remaining 18 semester hours in the core curriculum, may be found in the college sections on degree requirements. These listings should also be consulted to see if there are any courses recommended from among the offerings in areas A to E. Students seeking a B.S. in mathematics and secondary school teaching will be required to take an additional nine semester hours of introductory education courses above the general requirement of 18 semester hours.

1415 Area G & Beyond

Courses beyond the core curriculum that are required by the college and/or major department constitute the remaining course degree requirements and are comprised of courses related to a major, major requirements, courses in a minor or concentration, and electives. Consult the college chapters in this catalog for a full explanation of these requirements.

1420 Regents Reading and Writing Requirements

Effective March 9, 2010, Georgia State students were granted an exemption by the University System of Georgia and are no longer required to take the Regents’ Test. This exemption does not necessarily apply should a student transfer out of GSU to another institution in the University System of Georgia. Students should contact their new institution about its Regents’ Test policy. More information can be found at the University System of Georgia website.

1425 Federal and State Constitution and History Requirements

As required by Georgia law, all students must demonstrate knowledge of the history and constitutions of the United States and of Georgia. To demonstrate this knowledge, students must pass HIST 2110 and POLS 1101 at Georgia State, have previously completed these courses at a University System of Georgia institution, or pass the proficiency examination in these legislative requirements available for students at the Testing Center. See the Testing Center for additional information counselingcenter.gsu.edu/testing/tests/historyconstitution/.

Students who transfer in American Government or Constitution courses from a non system school will be required to take the Georgia History and Constitution exams or retake the courses at Georgia State. Transfer students who have fulfilled any or all parts of this requirement will be advised of that fact at the time of admission and evaluation of transfer credit.

Note: If a student meets this requirement with all four examinations, the student must select additional course(s) from Section 3, Social Science Foundations in Core Area E.
1430 Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) Requirement

All students seeking baccalaureate degrees are required to complete a critical thinking through writing (CTW) requirement which includes a CTW course in their major. Students should consult the section of this Catalog that describes their major for its CTW requirements. CTW classes are unique to Georgia State University and therefore students cannot transfer equivalent credit from other universities.

1437 Major Requirement and Minors Policy

In order to graduate, students must complete at least one major. Students may take a minor but they may have no more than two minors per degree. Double majors may have no more than two minors. Dual degree students may have no more than two minors for each degree (for a total of four).

Certain majors require a specific minor. This requirement is listed in the section of this Catalog that lists the requirements of that major.

No unit may prohibit a student from pursuing any minor available at Georgia State.

1440 Academic Residence Requirement

Academic residence is defined as being enrolled in one or more courses at Georgia State University; this is not to be confused with status as a legal resident of the State of Georgia for fee determination purposes. The minimum academic residence requirement for each baccalaureate degree is as follows:

- The candidate must earn 39 semester hours at Georgia State in courses numbered 3000 or above with an average grade of at least a C (2.00 GPA); and
- At least one-half of the hours comprising the major must be taken at Georgia State.

Up to 9 hours of 3000/4000 credit earned at another institution as part of an official Georgia State University joint degree, dual degree, or exchange program may be counted toward the academic residency requirement.

Transfer credit, credit by examination, credit by validation, CLEP credit, AP credit, IB credit, and courses specifically excluded by university policy cannot be used to meet the academic residence requirement.

1450 D Grade Credit Restriction

Georgia State University will allow no more than 12 semester hours of D grades to apply toward degree requirements of a baccalaureate program of study. This 12 semester hours includes both credit completed at Georgia State (resident credit) and transfer credit. Certain degree programs may designate a lesser number of D grades as acceptable. Consult your college’s chapter of this catalog for stricter requirements.
1460 GPA Requirement

In order to earn any Georgia State University baccalaureate degree a student must have at least a 2.00 institutional grade point average. If a student takes a course multiple times at another institution or at Georgia State, the grade earned in the final attempt will determine the applicability of the course to the degree requirements. (For example, some programs require a grade of C or better in a particular course). For details on taking a course more than once, see Section 1330.35.

1470 No I Requirement

No student may graduate with a grade of “I” (Incomplete) on his or her record. All permanent grades for incomplete grades and grade changes for previous semesters should be received in the Office of the Registrar, Academic Records, in writing at least one week prior to the end of classes for the term. It is the student’s responsibility to see to it that incomplete grades are properly recorded in the appropriate offices by this deadline.

1480 Semester Hours Requirement

The curriculum for a baccalaureate degree at Georgia State University requires a minimum of 120 semester hours. Some programs require a higher number of semester hours. Students should consult the description of their program in this catalog to determine the number of semester hours required. Students must earn 25 percent or more of the credit hours required for the degree through Georgia State direct instruction.

The semester hours for graduation are calculated as follows:

Semester hours included:

- Academic credit (transfer and Georgia State) in which grades A, B, C, D, S, or P are earned (except as excluded below) and
- Credit earned through the College-Level Examination Program (CLEP), Advanced Placement (AP), International Baccalaureate (IB), and any other approved credit-by-examination

Semester hours excluded:

- All hours earned in courses that are repeated except the final attempt
- Hours earned in courses with course numbers below 1000
- Courses (transfer and Georgia State) that are required to meet College Preparatory Curriculum deficiencies
- GSU 1010, GSU 1050, and GSU 1060
- Physical education “skills” courses KH 1010, KH 1020, KH 1030 (previous course prefixes: HPRD, HPRS, PE)

Questions may be directed to the Graduation Office, Citizen’s Trust Building, 75 Piedmont Avenue, registrar.gsu.edu/graduation/.

1490.10 Application for Graduation

All candidates for a degree must file a formal application for graduation with the Graduation Office. Students apply online and pay the graduation fee by logging into PAWS. To access the Graduation Application, select the Enrollment tab. The Application for Graduation link is located under the Updates/Requests Student Record section of the page. Once the link is selected, step-by-step instructions will be provided regarding the application process.

Students should apply two semesters prior to their anticipated term of completion. For bachelor’s-level candidates, this is normally when a student has earned 90 credit hours. Students pursuing an undergraduate certificate must also apply online for graduation. There are no minimum hours required to apply for graduation in a certificate program. However, the deadlines posted for each semester must be adhered to.

Candidates must apply by the following deadlines before their expected term of graduation:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Term of Expected Graduation</th>
<th>Deadline</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fall Semester</td>
<td>June 15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spring Semester</td>
<td>September 15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summer Semester</td>
<td>January 15</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

This allows the university to audit the student’s records while there is time for the student to be notified and any issues to be addressed.

The Office of Academic Assistance of the student’s college will conduct an audit and inform the student of any remaining requirements. The Graduation Office conducts an independent audit the expected semester of graduation to ensure that all degree requirements will be satisfied.

Once a student applies for graduation by the deadline, the student can change their graduation date to a future date by completing the Change of Graduation form, located on the graduation website at registrar.gsu.edu/graduation. Official transcripts of prior term course grades from institutions other than Georgia State University must be in the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by the last day of registration of the semester of graduation. Any other documentation pertaining to non-Georgia State courses which is needed to determine if transfer credit can be granted (such as catalog descriptions or course outlines) must be received by the student’s Office of Academic Assistance by the last day of registration of the semester of graduation.

Students who wish to be transient students or who wish to participate in cross-registration for their remaining course work will graduate one semester after the term in which the last course to be transferred to Georgia State University has been taken. Such students must obtain advance permission to complete their degree elsewhere from their college’s Office of Academic Assistance.

1490.20 Graduation with Honors

Scholastic recognition at graduation will be given to each baccalaureate student who maintained a high grade point average. The specific award is based on the cumulative grade point average that the student has during their last term at Georgia State University.

Cum Laude 3.50-3.69
Magna Cum Laude 3.70-3.89
Summa Cum Laude 3.90-4.00 or higher

Honors noted on diplomas or transcripts are based on the cumulative grade point average at George State University after the last term grade point averages are calculated.

1490.25 Graduation Ceremonies

University Commencement Ceremonies are held at the end of the fall and spring academic terms. Individual academic areas may hold convocations at the end of both the fall and spring terms. You should consult with your academic college. In order to participate in the University Commencement ceremony, a student must have completed all degree requirements in accordance with rules and regulations found in this catalog. Students who have registered for all remaining degree requires in the summer and have applied for summer degree conferral may elect to participate in the spring ceremony. However, degree conferral will not occur until successful completion of the summer term. While the University holds only two Commencement ceremonies, degrees are conferred at the end of each term; fall, spring and summer, and diplomas are mailed approximately four weeks following degree conferral. Diplomas are mailed to the student’s mailing address of record. Students should keep their mailing addresses updated through PAWS at paws.gsu.edu. Allow four weeks following the official date of degree conferral for delivery of the diploma.

Students who indicated on the graduation application that they are attending the commencement ceremony are to purchase their regalia from the Georgia State University Bookstore. The bookstore can be reached at 404-413-9700, by email at bookstore@gsu.edu, or online at services.gsu.edu/service/university-bookstore. Commencement photography is also available. Complete information will be sent to degree candidates by the midpoint of their scheduled semester of graduation. If a student later decides not to attend the ceremony, he or she must notify the Graduation Office at 404-413-2248 or email at graduation@gsu.edu.

Additional information concerning graduation procedures can be obtained through the graduation website.

1490.30 Exit Examinations

The university and the student’s college may require the completion of additional competency tests appropriate to a student’s program of study prior to graduation. Information relative to these tests is available in the student’s college.

Any student failing to demonstrate required proficiency on any competency test may be required to complete such additional courses as are necessary to correct the deficiency. Courses required and completed under this provision may be with or without academic credit and may be required without regard to prior course credits in these disciplines.

1490.40 Posthumous Undergraduate Degrees

A posthumous undergraduate degree shall be awarded at the request of or with concurrence of the family or friends of the deceased if, at the time of death, the student was 15 or fewer semester hours short of the semester hours required to complete the degree the student was seeking and the student had a minimum Georgia State University cumulative GPA of 2.00. Additionally, a posthumous degree may be awarded through the normal process of petition for a waiver of the university’s graduation requirements. A request for a posthumous degree should be made to the Office of the Dean of Students.
1500 Student Life and Services

Georgia State University is committed to the idea that total education involves more than academic pursuit. While students are maturing intellectually, they also are developing physically, psychologically, socially, aesthetically, sexually and spiritually. The philosophy of student development is embodied in the areas of responsibility of the office of the Vice President for Student Affairs and the Division of Student Affairs.

The Division of Student Affairs provides a network of support and encouragement for students through counseling, advocacy, advisement, recreation, health, leadership training and opportunities for personal growth. Furthermore, the division seeks to provide an enriching environment that allows for and encourages cross-cultural interaction, an appreciation of diversity and ethical decision making.

1504 Campus Services

The departments in Campus Services supplement the academic campus experience by providing services and facilitating the sale of merchandise to faculty, staff, and students.

The Auxiliary and Support Services office is located on the second floor of Student Center West. Hours of operation are from 8:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., Monday through Thursday and from 8:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. on Fridays. Semester breaks and holiday hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m., Monday through Friday. Phone: 404-413-9500. Fax: 404-413-9525. Email: auxiliary@gsu.edu. Web: services.gsu.edu/.

1504.10 ATMs

ATM banking machines from several financial institutions are located on campus including the University Bookstore Building, first floor; Student Center, first floor; Urban Life, second floor, and Patton Hall, first floor. Phone: 404-413-9500. Fax: 404-413-9525. Email: auxiliary@gsu.edu. Web: services.gsu.edu/service/atm-banking/.

1504.15 University Bookstore

The University Bookstore, located on the third floor of Student Center West, offers a complete selection of new and used textbooks with a guaranteed lowest price, in comparison with competing downtown bookstore textbook prices. The lowest textbook price including price matching guarantee assures that the University Bookstore will match lower textbook pricing, for customers who present lower pricing among competing downtown bookstores to authorized University Bookstore personnel. The rent-a-text (www.rentatext.com) program provides students with the option of renting a new or used textbook for an academic term rather than purchasing it. At the end of the term, students simply bring or ship the textbook back to the University Bookstore. Renting instead of buying can save you more than 50% on average up front, as opposed to having to wait until buyback cash at the end of the term. The University Bookstore also buys used textbooks in some cases paying as much as 50% of the purchase price. The University Bookstore offers a variety of name brand computer products including Acer and Samsung computers built to university specifications, educational discounted computer software, supplies, and related class needs. Officially licensed Georgia State apparel and gifts are also sold in the University Bookstore. Purchases can also be made online at www.gsubookstore.com. Cash, credit cards, checks, and PantherCash are accepted for purchases. Special discounts are available on Fridays when purchases are made with PantherCash.

1504.20 Graduation Regalia and Photography

The University Bookstore provides portrait and ceremony photographs for your Commencement memories. Logo Regalia are available for online purchase for pick-up at the Commencement Fair. Graduation Photography is available through a vendor managed by the University Bookstore. For more information on graduation photography call toll-free 1-800-424-3686. Information on other Commencement items from diploma frames, class rings, invitations, as well as stoles of gratitude are available at the University Bookstore. Phone: 404-413-9700. Fax: 404-413-9709. Email: gsu@bkstr.com. Web: www.gsubookstore.com.

MARTA AND GRTA

Customer Service Area. Students who wish to purchase a Georgia State discounted monthly MARTA pass for each month need to pick up a specially marked MARTA Breeze card from the Parking and Transportation service area in Suite 200, University Bookstore Building. A valid PantherCard is necessary in order to receive a specially marked Georgia State University discounted plastic Breeze Cards initially. Once a new MARTA Breeze Card is obtained, students will need to log on to ParkingWeb at http://parking.gsu.edu/ between the 1st and 15th of each month to purchase the following month’s card in order to receive the maximum discount available for their card.

ENJOY THE BENEFITS

Easy to Reload
The new Breeze Card is reloadable online through ParkingWeb at parking.gsu.edu.

Discounted
If reloaded online between the 1st and 15th of each month, students pay $61 and staff pay $77 instead of the full retail price of $95 if purchased directly through MARTA for a calendar month card.

Durable
Breeze Cards are made of durable plastic, and can either be reloaded online or through any MARTA kiosk although kiosk prices are slightly higher because they do not receive the University subsidy.

Limited Protection Plan
There is also a limited protection plan on all Breeze Cards purchased. As long as the card is reported lost, stolen, damaged, or non-functional before the 22nd of each month at the Parking and Transportation customer service area, the card will be replaced and will still have that month’s benefits. There is a small administration fee for replacement.
A valid PantherCard is required to receive the discount. Students, faculty and staff. GRTA passes are also available for purchase at the Parking and Transportation customer service area.

1506 Child Development Center

The University maintains the Lanette L. Suttles Child Development Center located in Dahlberg Hall. The center is designed for children of students with limited space available for the children of faculty and staff. Full-time child care is available in addition to flexible blocks of time. Information regarding hours, registration, fees and ages of children accepted into the program may be obtained from the center at 404-413-8460.

1508 Civic Engagement

Civic Engagement provides assistance to students, student organizations, faculty and staff concerning volunteer and community service opportunities. Community service offers students the opportunity to gain hands-on experience while preparing for their professional futures. Civic Engagement connects the Georgia State University community with the greater Atlanta community by creating partnerships which foster service-learning opportunities and revitalize the community. Individuals who become engaged with Civic Engagement strengthen their career readiness and capacity to help solve the problems faced by society while learning the importance of being an active, engaged citizen.

Through OrgSync, Civic Engagement is able to provide service opportunities for individuals and groups based on personal interest while allowing participants to log and track volunteer hours. Students and student organizations that engage in service projects and log their hours in OrgSync are able to create a permanent record of their service hours.

Panther Breakaway, one of Civic Engagement’s signature programs, offers students the opportunity to spend their academic breaks in service to others. In the past, students have worked in various locations around the southeast and internationally, including Washington D.C., Florida, Tennessee, Louisiana and Costa Rica. Students are educated on a specific social issue prior to the trip and then immersed in the community where they complete service projects related to that specific issue. Previous trips have addressed social issues such as literacy, poverty, hunger, homelessness and environmental awareness.

For more information, visit Civic Engagement located in Student Center East, Suite 304, call 404-413-1550 or visit the Civic Engagement website service.gsu.edu.

1510 Counseling and Testing Center

The comprehensive services of the Counseling and Testing Center reflect the university’s concern for the many needs of currently enrolled students. Counseling is available free of charge to students who have educational, personal or relationship concerns. The center offers individual, couples and group counseling. Groups include several interpersonal process groups including general growth groups, African American women’s support group, African American co-ed support group, LGBTQIA support group, graduate student support group, grief support group, stress management group and substance abuse group. Individual stress management sessions are also available to students.

Psychiatric services to evaluate the need for medications are available for those in counseling in the Counseling and Testing Center or in the Psychology Clinic located in the Psychology department. Referral services for students having needs that go beyond the scope of the Counseling and Testing Center are also available. Physicians provide psychiatric evaluation, medication management and clinical consultation. All physicians are located in the Counseling and Testing Center. In addition to the psychiatric services, emergency university staff consultation services, inpatient liaison services, staff training and additional PRN university staff consultations are available.

Students may come in for an initial counseling consultation on a walk in basis every day during business hours. The purpose of this visit is to assess the student’s concerns and develop a plan to address these concerns. Follow up counseling visits are by appointment. Faculty, staff or students concerned about a student’s health and well-being are encouraged to phone the Counseling and Testing Center to consult with the senior emergency on call counselor. A counselor will assist in determining the most appropriate course of action.

The Counseling and Testing Center’s testing services offers many national examinations, certifications, psychological assessments, math placement and testing for institutional programs. Test proctoring and test scoring services, complete with statistical analyses, are available to the faculty through testing services.

Educational workshops are designed to respond to the variety of needs that students experience during their academic careers, including stress management, time management, study skills, performance enhancement, relationship enhancement and anger management. Psychologists from the center are also available for guest lectures in classrooms and for student organizations.
All clinicians in the center have advanced degrees in psychology, counseling or social work, are licensed or supervised by a licensed clinician and have a special interest and skills in relating to university students and their concerns. Visits to the Counseling and Testing Center are private and confidential. No one outside the Counseling and Testing Center is given any information regarding any appointments that have been made or what is revealed in counseling sessions without the written release from the student according to Georgia law. The records kept by the Counseling and Testing Center do not become part of a student’s academic record.

For more information, visit the Counseling and Testing Center located in 75 Piedmont Ave., Suite 200A, call 404-413-1640, or visit the Counseling and Testing Center website counselingcenter.gsu.edu.

1510.10 Student Victim Assistance

Student Victim Assistance Services serves as a confidential reporting resource and a central resource point for any student who has experienced a traumatic event, been the victim of sexual assault or has been a victim of other crimes. Staff help connect students to many campus and community resources related to their specific needs. The goal is to help students regain control over their lives so that they may persist in their educational pursuits and thrive personally. Services provided include: confidential reporting resource, direct crisis intervention 24/7, referrals for on and off campus resources, advocacy and support during all phases of university, legal/criminal proceedings, information and resources, consultation and education to students, faculty and staff, safety planning and on-going follow-up and support as needed.

For more information, visit Student Victim Assistance located in 75 Piedmont Ave., Suite 239, call 404-413-1965 or visit the Student Victim Assistance website victimassistance.gsu.edu.

1510.20 Student Health Promotion

The mission of Student Health Promotion is to support activities that empower Georgia State University students to make informed healthier choices and achieve academic success and to ultimately improve the health of individuals and communities. Core areas of education include substance use risk reduction and sexual assault/partner violence prevention. Wellness education is provided through interactive formats including campus events and programs that foster opportunities for students to connect with peers for education about health topics. Self-responsibility, conscious decisions and informed choices in relation to health are encouraged. The peer health educators (PHEs), the health educator and the senior coordinator for student health promotion provide wellness education through interactive formats such as workshops, campus campaigns and awareness events. A wellness library with books, videos, brochures, posters and other materials are available to students to gain additional knowledge about health related topics. The PHEs have received specialized training in the dimensions of health and public health programming and are the university’s first-response to health promotion and wellness education on campus. The health educator and senior coordinator are available to advise students and coordinate programming with various groups. Weekly classes are provided for students who have violated campus alcohol or drug policies in order to assist them with reducing their risk of further harm. Additionally, individual and group tobacco cessation services are offered. Bystander intervention and sexual assault prevention workshops are offered regularly throughout each semester.
For more information, visit Student Health Promotion located in 75 Piedmont, Suite 241, call 404-413-1577 or visit the Student Health Promotion website healthpromotion.gsu.edu.

1512 Dean of Students

1512.10 Student Advocacy and Outreach

Knowledgeable staff assist and empower students in conducting their university affairs by listening and analyzing the student’s issues, questions or concerns; talking with the student to help devise a problem-solving strategy; and referring the student to appropriate staff members and departments. This advocacy and outreach is designed to facilitate student success and retention by helping students understand and utilize the resources and systems within the university.

For more information, visit the Dean of Students located in Student Center East, Suite 303, call 404-413-1514 or visit the Dean of Students website deanofstudents.gsu.edu.

1512.20 Emergency Assistance

Information regarding students’ class schedules cannot be released for any purpose by the Dean of Students. However, in the event of a verified family emergency such as a life threatening situation or serious illness that occurs during regular business hours (Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. – 5:15 p.m.), staff will make an attempt to deliver a message or contact a student in class regarding the emergency information.

The Dean of Students office can provide assistance to a students who have experienced a verifiable emergency circumstance which prevents them from attending class by coordinating with relevant campus resources to support the student’s successful return to the university. In the event a student is hospitalized and unable to contact their professors, the professors can be notified of the absence so that, upon returning to the university, the student can follow up with their professors to complete any missed assignments. If the student is unable to remain enrolled due to the nature of the emergency situation, the student can receive guidance and assistance regarding the withdrawal process.

1512.30 Student Conduct

The Georgia State University Student Code of Conduct contains policies and procedures that promote the university mission and protect the rights of students, faculty and staff. Students are obligated to be knowledgeable of and to comply with the university’s rules, policies and procedures. Students are also individually responsible for understanding and exercising their rights, fulfilling their obligations and respecting the rights of others. The Student Code of Conduct articulates the types of actions that infringe upon the campus climate of civility and the academic integrity of the university. An overarching philosophy of the student conduct process is to provide students with the opportunity to reflect upon their actions, take responsibility for the outcomes of their life and to develop ethical approaches to their decision making process. A copy of the most current Student Code of Conduct may be accessed on the web at codeofconduct.gsu.edu.

For more information, visit the Dean of Students located in Student Center East, Suite 303, call 404-413-1515 or visit the Dean of Students website deanofstudents.gsu.edu.

1512.40 Parent Relations and Panthers Parents Association

In order to provide parents of Georgia State University students with an opportunity to remain actively involved with their student through the college experience, Panthers Parent Relations provides programs and services such as Family Weekend. Parents are also invited to join the Georgia State University Panthers Parents Association. Membership in the association gives family members access to newsletters, programming opportunities and a scholarship for their students. The Panthers Parents Association is led by an executive board of parents of current Georgia State University students. The Panthers Parents Association holds at least one general membership meeting a year and several executive board meetings each semester.

For more information, call 404-413-1580 or visit the Parent Relations website parents.gsu.edu.

1512.50 New Student Orientation

By introducing new undergraduate students and their families to Georgia State University, New Student Orientation facilitates student integration into curricular, co-curricular and university life. Programs offered in addition to orientation include Panther Welcome, Freshman Convocation, Alpha Lambda Delta Freshman Honor Society and Tau Sigma Transfer Honor Society.

For more information, visit New Student Orientation located in Student Center East, Suite 304, call 404-413-1580 or visit the New Student Orientation website at orientation.gsu.edu.

1512.60 Student Health Insurance

The following groups of Georgia State University students are required to have health insurance:

- All graduate students awarded a Full Tuition Waiver as part of their graduate assistantship award
- All undergraduate, graduate and English as a Second Language (ESL) international students holding F and J visas
- All undergraduate and graduate students enrolled in programs that require proof of health insurance
- All graduate students receiving fellowships that fully fund their tuition
- International Scholars

For those students not covered under the mandatory plan, a voluntary plan is also available. Eligible students include all undergraduate students enrolled in at least 6 credit hours and graduate students enrolled in the graduate or professional degree program taking at least one graduate level course. The link www.uhcsr.com/gsu outlines the coverage, benefits and premium for an insurance program specifically designed for Georgia State University students and their dependents.

1514 Disability Services

Students with disabilities can receive services and programs through the Margaret A. Staton office of Disability Services. New students with disabilities are encouraged to register with Disability Services prior to their first semester to ensure that appropriate accommodations are made. Current Georgia State University students with disabilities may register with Disability Services throughout the semester. Disability Services also provides information and resources to the campus regarding accessibility and accommodations issues throughout the university.

For more information, visit Disability Services located in Student Center East, Suite 205, call 404-413-1560 (TTY) or 404-413-1564 or visit the Disability Services website disability.gsu.edu.

1515 Educational Opportunity and TRIO Programs

The office of Educational Opportunity and TRIO Programs is one of the university’s primary vehicles for outreach to the greater Atlanta community. The office serves as the coordinating body for a variety of programs designed to provide access to educational opportunities and increase retention and graduation rates, as well as prepare students for graduate study. Among its current programs are the Educational Opportunity Center, Educational Talent Search, Student Support Services, Student Support Services (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics), Atlanta-Gwinnett Upward Bound, DeKalb Upward Bound, Math-Science Upward Bound and the Veterans Upward Bound Program. For additional information, visit the website oeo.gsu.edu or call 404-413-1690.

Student Support Services (SSS), a federally funded program within the office of Educational Opportunity and TRIO Programs, is designed to increase the retention and graduation rates of undergraduate college students who are first generation, demonstrate low income or have documented disabilities. The college experience is enhanced for all SSS participants by providing individualized academic assessments; academic, personal, career and financial aid counseling; tutoring; workshops dealing with academic, personal and career issues; cultural events and workshops; a computer lab with free prints and copies; and advocacy. SSS participants are also eligible for financial assistance in the form of grant aid and scholarships. All services are aimed at increasing the student’s academic success. Students interested in becoming a Student Support Services participant may contact the office in Sparks Hall, Suite 145, call 404-413-1680 or visit the SSS website at oeo.gsu.edu.

Student Support Services (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) (SSS-STEM), a federally funded program within the office of Educational Opportunity and TRIO Programs, is designed to increase the retention and graduation rates of undergraduate students majoring in STEM fields who are first generation, demonstrate low income or have documented disabilities. The program encourages and prepares the participants to attend professional and graduate schools as well as provides participants with financial assistance in the form of grant aid and scholarships. Some of the services offered to increase the student’s academic success include: individual and group tutoring, academic advisement and assistance, financial aid assistance, field trips, supplemental instruction, leadership and professional development workshops, career exploration and development, computer lab and grant aid. Students interested in becoming a Student Support Services-STEM participant may contact the office in Sparks Hall, Suite 145, call 404-413-1688 or visit the SSS-STEM website at oeo.gsu.edu.

1517 Georgia Career Information Center

The Georgia Career Information Center (GCIC) contractually provides online career exploration tools and up-to-date career information to the citizens of the state of Georgia, primarily in the public schools (K-12) and the technical colleges. GCIC also assists with state-level employment initiatives and agencies by providing career development software solutions. The core tool that GCIC maintains is the Georgia Career Information System, which supports the State of Georgia in meeting state educational mandates with regard to career exploration and planning for students at all grade levels in the public schools. Georgia State University students can access GCIS for career exploration at gcic.gsu.edu.

The Georgia Career Information Center is a part of the University Career Services, which offers to all Georgia State University students, graduate and undergraduate, a wide range of highly supportive personal and professional development opportunities and services. University Career Services is comprised of Employer Relations, Cooperative Education and Internships, Graduate and Professional School Planning, Career Development and the Georgia Career Information Center.

More information is available at gcic.gsu.edu or 404-413-1720. GCIC is located at One Park Place South, Suite 823.

1518 Intercollegiate Athletics

Georgia State University has an intercollegiate athletics program that competes as a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Football Bowl Subdivision level and as a member of the Sun Belt Conference. Other members of the Sun Belt include: Appalachian State, Arkansas State, Coastal Carolina, Georgia Southern, Little Rock, Louisiana, UL Monroe, South Alabama, UT Arlington, Texas State and Troy.

Georgia State sponsors 16 sports programs, including baseball, basketball, football, golf, soccer, and tennis, for men, as well as basketball, cross country, golf, beach volleyball, soccer, softball, tennis, track and field and court volleyball for women. Additional participation opportunities for female students will be added in the near future.

Georgia State abides by all rules and regulations of the NCAA and Sun Belt for all athletics competition, and student-athletes must meet all admission and eligibility requirements in order to compete.

Georgia State’s athletics teams, known as the Panthers, compete not only against conference opponents but also against other top-ranking teams around the nation. Georgia State teams and individual student-athletes have gained regional and national recognition. For further information call 404-413-4000 or visit the athletics website at www.GeorgiaStateSports.com. Students are admitted for free to all Georgia State home sporting events.
1519 Leadership Development

Leadership is a characteristic that serves all students well as they embark on their careers and move forward in their lives. Leadership Development provides services and programs such as round table discussions and the annual Leadership Conclave. Leadership Development addresses the needs of experienced as well as emerging leaders. Student organizations looking for specific leadership training for members are encouraged to contact Leadership Development to set up training sessions.

For more information, visit Leadership Development located in Student Center West, Suite 475, call 404-413-1588 or visit the Leadership Development website leadership.gsu.edu.

1519.10 Greek Life

Involvement in Greek Life at Georgia State University gives students the opportunity to experience leadership development, serve in the local Atlanta and campus community, network with alumni to form career opportunities and make lifelong friendships. In addition, involvement in fraternities and sororities increases students’ chances of graduating from college, enhances their overall academic achievement and improves their satisfaction with their college experience.

There are four governing bodies of fraternities and sororities: the Interfraternity Council (IFC), the Panhellenic Council (PC), the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) and the Multicultural Greek Council (MGC). With more than 30 organizations from which to choose, students can find an organization that provides the experience for which they are looking.

For more information, visit Greek Life located in Student Center West, Suite 475, call 404-413-1582 or visit the Greek Life website greeklife.gsu.edu.

1519.20 Honor Societies and Professional Organizations

Honor societies recognize success of students and can be joined based on year in school, major or involvement. The honor societies on campus consist of both nationally recognized and local organizations. Professional organizations connect students to their desired profession. The professional organizations are often affiliated with national organizations that further broaden the opportunity to connect with others in the profession. Honor societies and professional organizations encourage student excellence in both academic and co-curricular activities.

For more information, visit Student Organizations located in Student Center East, Suite 304, call 404-413-1580 or visit the OrgSync website gsu.orgsync.com or call 404-413-1580.

1519.30 Student Organizations

More than 425 chartered student organizations offer Georgia State University students a wide variety of involvement opportunities. From community service and cultural groups to political and recreational groups, these student organizations reflect a vast array of interests. In addition to providing students with a connection to others with like interests, active involvement in student organizations also offers opportunities for students to gain valuable leadership skills by serving as an officer or planning events and programs. A listing of all chartered student organizations as well as the requirements to charter new groups can be found online.

For more information, visit Student Organizations located in Student Center East, Suite 304, call 404-413-1580 or visit the OrgSync website at gsu.orgsync.com.

1520 Multicultural Programs and Services

1520.10 Leadership Academy

Located on the Clarkston campus, this program is designed to improve retention and graduation rates among undeserved student groups. The Leadership Academy provides academic support, personal support and development, opportunities to earn scholarships and other experiences shown to help support the success of African American males in college. Student interested in learning more about this program should contact the Leadership Academy at 678-891-3737.

1520.20 Multicultural Center

The Multicultural Center promotes cross cultural interactions, awareness, communication, dialogue and mutual learning through engaging activities. The programs offered allow individuals from different cultural backgrounds and social identities to engage in meaningful experiences that assist in building a culture of care.

Programs and events include Heritage and History Month recognition events, Martin Luther King, Jr. Commemoration, community office hours, book discussions, classroom presentations on multicultural and diversity topics and conversations on contemporary social concerns. The Multicultural Center has a Multicultural Programming Council and a library of books, videos and training resources. In addition, the Panther Ambassadors for a Culturally Competent Campus (PAC3) Ambassadors are a group of student leaders who work in collaboration with the Multicultural Center and University Housing to raise cultural competence on campus.

For more information, visit the Multicultural Center located in Student Center East, Suite 206, call 404-413-1584 or visit the Multicultural Center website at multicultural.gsu.edu.

1522 Religious Activities

The Council of Interfaith Concerns is a coordinating body for the religious organizations at Georgia State University. It meets regularly to plan and implement interfaith programs and activities, sponsors special worship services throughout the school year and provides a resource for those interested in learning about religious ministry on campus. Catholic, Jewish and Protestant chaplains are available through the council; contacts and referrals from students, faculty and staff are welcomed.

For more information, visit the Council of Interfaith Concerns located in Student Center West, Suite 452.

1524 Ombudsperson

The Office of the Ombudsperson confidentially assists all members of the campus community with informally resolving conflict or other concerns and issues. The Ombudsperson listens, answers questions, makes referrals, explains University policies and procedures, and mediates between individuals or groups in a dispute to resolve conflict. Mediation and facilitation services offered by the office give all persons involved in conflict the opportunity to discuss problems and cooperate in generating options for resolving disputes. The office also provides training and education in several areas including conflict resolution, respectful communication, cultural awareness and civility. The Ombudsperson does not have power to adjudicate, arbitrate or investigate complaints. Individuals who have questions or concerns about classroom environment, interpersonal conflicts, appeals processes, university policies, fair treatment, communication difficulties or need help with resolving other university concerns are encouraged to call or visit the office to attempt informal resolution prior to filing formal complaints. The Office of the Ombudsperson is located at 215 One Park Place and can be reached by telephone at 404-413-2510, or via the web at ombuds.gsu.edu/.

1526 Recreational Services

Recreational Services promotes healthy lifestyles through exceptional programs, services and facilities. Three facilities within Recreational Services include the Recreation Center and two off campus facilities, Indian Creek Recreation Area and Panthersville. The Recreation Center is a four-story, award winning, 161,000 square foot facility available to Georgia State University students, faculty, staff and alumni. The facility includes a game room with billiards, darts, table tennis, foosball, air hockey and Wii games, a 35-foot climbing wall and bouldering cave, racquetball courts, a squash court, basketball courts, a multi-sport auxiliary court, two weight rooms with cardio, selectorize weight machines and free weights, an indoor track, an aquatic center with lap pool, spa, sauna, sundeck and wet classroom, three studios for aerobics/dance, martial arts and indoor cycling/yoga, an outdoor equipment rental shop, a vending area and a cyber-lounge. The auxiliary gym has spectator bleachers and is lined for seven different sports. The equipment issue desk provides locker rentals, sports equipment rental, towel service, gym clothing rental and general information. Registering for programs and services, purchasing memberships and obtaining general information are all available at the service counter. All first time users must complete an online waiver. A current, validated PantherCard is required for entry into the facility, participation in any recreation activity and all rentals.

The Indian Creek Recreation Area (ICRA), a 16-acre wooded site in DeKalb County, is host to the Indian Creek Lodge that is available for use, for a fee, by chartered university student organizations and departments for retreats, parties and meetings. Recreation members can also rent the facility for personal events, pending approval. The ICRA offers a challenge course with three zip lines and multi-tiered ropes course that is perfect for team building initiatives. The property also includes a large event lawn, a large outdoor swimming pool for use during the summer, a sand volley ball court and picnic areas.
Located on a 100-acre site in southern DeKalb County, the Panthersville Recreation Complex provides lighted playing fields and other accommodations for sport clubs, intramural activities and varsity athletic competitions.

Recreational Services offers a wide variety of programs that serve a diverse student body including aquatics, instructional clinics, fitness classes, personal training, nutritional counseling, outdoor adventure, intramural competition, sport clubs and drop in play. Supported by student fees, many of the programs are free of charge; however, those with a fee are very reasonably priced. Whether you enjoy a playing flag football, skiing in Colorado or learning to salsa, there is a program for you.

Information is available in Recreation RAP-UP, available every semester.

For more information, visit Recreational Services located in the Recreation Center, Suite 200, call 404-413-1750 or 404-413-1780 or visit the Recreational Services website recreation.gsu.edu.

1529 Student Health Clinic

The Georgia State University Health Clinic is staffed by university employees including: a full-time medical director, a full-time physician, three full time advanced practice clinicians and one half-time advanced practice clinician, a full time RN, three full time medical assistants, a full time business manager who is shared by all campuses, three full-time medical secretaries, a part-time registered dietician and a full time immunization coordinator who is shared by all campuses. Clinical services are provided by experienced health care providers who provide triage, evaluation and treatment of medical problems. Currently registered students are eligible to receive services.

Physical exams, including women’s health services, are offered as well as the following services:

Primary care: Visits and medical advice are free—fees are charged for tests, supplies and medicines. Primary care includes diagnosis and treatment of common illnesses and chronic medical problems, wellness visits, annual physicals, STD checks and treatments.

Minor emergency: Wound care including stitches, asthma care, first aid and assessments and referrals are provided. The clinic does not treat serious, life-threatening or limb-threatening illnesses or injuries.

Sports medicine: Sports participation physicals are provided free, and minor injury care is provided.

Women’s health: Appointments for gynecological exams, PAP smears (for a fee) and birth control advice are available and contraceptive pills and shots can be purchased. Also provided for a fee are emergency contraception services and pregnancy tests. Prenatal care is not provided.

Health education: A variety of topics and media are offered such as substance use risk reduction, healthy sexuality, violence prevention, tobacco cessation, nutritional advice, healthy lifestyles brochures and videos and presentations to groups.

Prescriptions dispensed: The doctor can dispense pre-packaged prescription medicines at a discounted price—antibiotics, allergy and cold medicines, ear and eye drops, birth control pills, dermatological creams and more. Outside prescriptions cannot be filled.

Immunizations: All shots and laboratory tests needed to complete the immunization requirement for registration (Board of Regents policy) are available at the clinic. Vaccinations and tests provided include: MMR, Rubella, Meningitis, Hepatitis A and B, Tetanus/Diphtheria, Varicella (chickenpox) and PPD (tuberculosis) skin tests. Allergy shots are provided only after a consultation visit with the doctor, along with a previous diagnosis and prescription of serum from an allergy specialist.

Travel clinic: The clinic offers many travel vaccines and prescriptions.

Laboratory tests: Most tests are available at deeply discounted prices. A few examples are: urinalysis, urine culture, throat culture, thyroid panel, lipids (cholesterol) panel, gonorrhea-chlamydia probe, HIV blood test and pregnancy tests.

Electronic medical records: Electronic medical records system and students are able to obtain several services online. This includes making appointments, accessing medical records and communicating with clinic staff. This improvement in technology allows better service to students and enhanced decision making by clinic management.

Urgent care: After hours phone access to mental health crisis consultants is available to both commuter and residential students. After hours phone access to medical consultants is also available to commuter and residential students. Enhancements to services also provide coordinated medical, mental health and administrative urgent care in an integrated system designed to foster student retention and success.

Medical nutritionist: A nutritionist provides best practice intervention for a range of diagnoses. These efforts are consistent with the mission of education and prevention as strategies for intervention.

Prescription access: Students have access to some of the most frequently prescribed medications, including antibiotics and blood pressure medication, through the student health clinic for a co-pay of less than $10.00.

For more information, visit the Student Health Clinic located in 141 Piedmont Avenue, Suite D, call 404-413-1930 or visit the Student Health Clinic website health.gsu.edu.

1530 Student Government Association

As the representative body for students at Georgia State University, the Student Government Association promotes student self governance and enables elected students to express the opinions of their fellow students. The university adheres to the philosophy that student representation within the larger university structure is a catalyst for student growth and development. The Student Government Association Senate meets every other Thursday during the fall and spring semesters at 7:15 p.m. on the fourth floor of Student Center West. Services provided by the Student Government Association include free blue books and scantron forms (limit two per day), local facsimile use (one per day), free black and white copies (10 per day) and local phone use. A listing of open positions and information on elections is available online.

For more information, visit the Student Government Association located in Student Center West, Suite
1534 Student Center

The Student Center is a place where students can study, grab a bite to eat or hang out with friends; it is a place where all students can feel welcome. The Student Center is comprised of two buildings: Student Center East and Student Center West. The Student Center is home to many campus traditions, large scale programs and student services. Meeting rooms and event spaces provide places for students to experience quality programs aimed at enriching the Georgia State experience.

Numerous offices and programs that promote student growth and development, enhance academic success and connect students with the university community are located in the Student Center. Each building houses an ATM, food court, courtesy cell phone charging stations, lounges and comfortable seating. Student Center East houses Disability Services, the Dean of Students office, Information Center, staffed to help students navigate the facilities. Student Center West Student Government Association, Student Media and Campus Tickets where students can purchase tickets to popular campus programs, advance movie screenings and special Georgia State programs around Atlanta. Student Center West is connected to the Bookstore Building, which also houses Campus Services (Bookstore, PantherCard and Parking).

For more information, visit the Student Center Information Center located in Student Center East, first floor, call 404-413-1850 or visit the Student Center website studentcenter.gsu.edu.

1534.10 Student Programs

Spotlight Programs Board is a university sponsored student-driven organization that coordinates activities to enhance and enrich the quality of student life at Georgia State University. Spotlight addresses the needs and interests of its diverse student body by providing social, cultural and educational events on campus. Most events are free and open to the Georgia State University community and include concerts, movies, speakers, novelty events, exposure to local Atlanta attractions and much more. Spotlight also oversees Cinefest, a 133-seat theater used to show blockbuster, independent and cult classics films free to students. Spotlight coordinates the art exhibits in the gallery lounge on the 3rd floor of Student Center East, a place for students to exhibit their work in a gallery setting while learning to curate their own shows.

Spotlight Programs Board brings a variety of quality educational, enrichment and entertainment programs to the Georgia State community, including the Distinguished Speakers Series, Panther Prowls, Homecoming festivities, Courtyard Music Series, Campus Movie Fest, Georgia State Nights at local Atlanta attractions and both small and large scale concerts, such as Pantherpalooza.

Spotlight Programs Board is always looking for committee members to assist with the planning programs as well as volunteers to help with events throughout the year. Stay connected with Spotlight through Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

For more information, visit Spotlight Programs Board located in Student Center East, Suite 314, call 404-413-1610 or visit the Spotlight Programs Board website spotlight.gsu.edu.
1534.20 Student Media

All students are invited to become involved with the student media organizations on campus. Whether it is music, writing, reporting, editing, producing videos, photography or just great experience and friendships, these organizations offer something for everyone.

GSTV, the student-run television station, streams its content live on its website, www.gstvonline.org. Students interested in TV editing and production are encouraged to volunteer. GSTV is located in Student Center West, Suite 251.

Album 88 (WRAS) is the student radio voice of Georgia State. It has won local and national awards for its cutting edge format. Student programming is featured on WRAS-FM/HD-1 from 7 p.m. – 5 a.m., 24/7 on WRAS-HD-2 and online at www wras.org. Album 88 is located in Student Center West, Suite 271.

The Signal is the university’s student newspaper, which serves as a learning workshop and source of journalistic, marketing and photographic skills. The Signal is published every Tuesday during the fall and spring semesters. Current issues can be found in over 50 locations on campus. Read online at georgiastatesignal.com. The Signal is located in Student Center West, Suite 250.

New South and Underground are the university’s literary magazines edited by students and showcasing literary and artistic contributions from across the country. Both organizations also stage on and off campus readings from Georgia State students throughout the year. Underground focuses on the publication of poetry, literature and photography produced solely by current Georgia State University students. The New South office is located in Langdale Hall, Suite 946, and the Underground office is located in Student Center West, Suite 456.

For more information, visit Student Media located in Student Center East, Suite 310, call 404-413-1592 or visit the Student Media website studentmedia.gsu.edu.

1536 University Career Services

The central office for University Career Services (UCS) houses the comprehensive career center for the campus with programs, services, information, and counseling to assist students with career decisions, as well as preparation for and implementation of successful job and graduate/professional school searches. The central UCS office works with undergraduate and graduate students from the first year on campus through the one year anniversary of their graduation. Alumni beyond a year of graduation may enroll in Alumni Career Services, a program also housed within the office (Note: an Alumni Career Services fee is associated with some services). Students from all majors and areas of study, from all class levels, and from all colleges, are served.

Career Development services are available by appointment. Individual and group sessions are offered, always with the goal of helping students and alumni connect their passion and purpose with career opportunities. The career counselors also provide career assessments, which aid students in exploring career possibilities based on values, interests, and personality.
Workshops, information and career counselors are available to help students and alumni with their career exploration and assess their individual talents, skills, and interests, and to set career goals. Programs and materials, employer panels, employer information sessions, and career fairs provide up-to-date information for use in exploring careers and researching employers.

Through the Employer Relations team, University Career Services has programs and services that connect students, alumni, and employers for internship and career opportunities, as well as employment to meet expenses while attending school. Regular workshops, employer events such as mock interviews and résumé critique days, and online information help students prepare résumés, and develop interviewing and other job search skills.

The Cooperative Education and Internships program helps students prepare for in-depth co-op and internship learning experiences, which build skills and strengthen students’ competitiveness for future opportunities. The program also works with colleges and employers in supporting their co-op and internship initiatives. The Co-op Program is the formal hub for the Georgia State University Cooperative Education initiative.

The Graduate and Professional School Planning program assists students exploring advanced degree opportunities, either here at Georgia State University or at another campus within the United States or abroad. This program has materials to assist students in researching programs as well as support in making application. This program also sponsors the fall Graduate and Professional School Fair, which brings graduate school recruiters from across the country to meet interested Georgia State students.

The Career Resource Center (CRC) is the central point of contact for students and contains workstations with access to online career guidance, job postings, graduate/professional school information, and employer research databases.

Résumania is a walk-in résumé and c.v. review service, available Tuesday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. No appointment is needed and students are seen on a first-come first-serve basis. During walk in hours, students may work on their resumes and cover letters, ask questions regarding major selection, job search and related career questions.

All Georgia State University students have an account on Panther Career Net (career.gsu.edu), a web-based career management system utilized by students, employers and the career services staff. Panther Career Net is free to all enrolled students. Activation of the account (completing a profile and uploading a résumé if seeking employment) provides 24/7 on and off-campus access to many of the Career Resource Center’s online resources, as well as easy application to jobs, and information about career events and employers. Activation requires use of one’s campus ID and password and can be done remotely.

For more information on career counseling, career assessment, career exploration, graduate and professional school planning, internship and career opportunities, and job search support, visit the central office of University Career Services in 270 Student Center West or call 404-413-1820 or visit the website at career.gsu.edu.

1538 University Committees
1538.10 University Senate Committee on Student Life and Development

The University Senate Committee on Student Life and Development is a joint student, faculty and staff committee that advises and makes recommendations to the vice president for student affairs concerning matters relating to student organizations and the following student programs and services: student activities, student conduct, recreation, housing, student media, orientation, leadership, student facilities, volunteerism, disability services, multicultural center, health services, career services and honors and awards.

For more information, visit the Senate website senate.gsu.edu/committees/student-life-development.

1538.20 Student Activity Fee Committee

The Student Activity Fee Committee, including nine fee councils, is comprised of students, faculty and staff members. The committee is responsible for reviewing requests for funds generated by the Student Activity Fee and making recommendations for the allocation of those funds to the dean of students.

For more information, visit the Division of Student Affairs website: studentaffairs.gsu.edu/student-activity-fee.

1538.30 Committee on Student Communications

The Committee on Student Communications is an advisory committee to the vice president for student affairs and has decision-making responsibility in relation to the business of and annual budget allocations for all student-operated media. Its primary functions are to interview candidates to fill the editorial and managerial positions for each of the student-operated media, make recommendations for general policy to the vice president for student affairs and resolve disputes between members.

For more information, visit the Student Media website at studentmedia.gsu.edu/csc.

1538.40 Student Technology Fee Subcommittee

The Student Technology Fee (STF) Subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Information Systems and Technology (IS&T) meets annually to review proposals for expenditures of monies from the Student Technology Fee and makes recommendations for allocations to the Fiscal Advisory Committee to the President.

For more information, visit the Technology Solutions website at solutions.technology.gsu.edu and the Senate website at senate.gsu.edu/committees/fiscal-advisory-committee-to-the-president.

1540 University Housing
Housing accommodations are available in the Georgia State University Commons, University Lofts, Patton Hall, Piedmont North and Greek Housing. These residence halls offer a variety of lifestyle living options.

The University Commons houses approximately 2,000 Georgia State students and offers convenient, apartment style housing in a quadrangle of four residence halls. The two and four bedroom apartments include a full sized kitchen, a fully furnished living and dining room, a bathroom for every two residents and private bedrooms. Private bedrooms have basic cable television and internet connections. The kitchen features a refrigerator, dishwasher and oven. Each floor includes a study or community lounge space, and each building has a fully equipped laundry facility, community offices and mail room. The University Commons is home to all of the Living-Learning Communities, specifically in Hall A and Learning Center in Hall D. This complex includes covered parking spaces, the 911 center for the university, a police substation, a convenience store, the Student Health Clinic and a MILE computer lab for university classes.

The University Lofts residence hall houses approximately 550 residents and is primarily an upper-classman, undergraduate apartment style residence hall. The Lofts are fully furnished loft style apartments that blend urban style with modern day conveniences. There are studios and one, two and four bedroom apartments. The apartments include living areas, private and shared bedrooms, a full bath for every three residents and a full kitchen with a refrigerator, dishwasher and stove with oven. The Lofts community spaces include an activity lounge, multipurpose room, laundry room and the Lofts Learning Center and classroom. Lofts resident parking is managed by Campus Services and is available at an additional monthly cost.

Patton Hall offers one and two person rooms that are adjoined by a full bathroom. Students are provided with a furnished room, including a bed, desk, chair and closet. This residence hall offers a comprehensive first year experience student program and a state of the art, all you can eat dining facility. A meal plan is required for students who reside in Patton Hall.

Piedmont North is a traditional, suite style residence hall. Students share a bedroom and a bathroom. Similar to Patton Hall, a state of the art, all you can eat dining facility is also located in the hall, and a meal plan is required for all students in Piedmont North. Students may use their meal plan at either location. Student rooms in Piedmont North are also furnished, including a bed, desk, chair and closet. Piedmont North also offers a comprehensive first year experience student program like Patton Hall. This area includes several community spaces, a courtyard and a learning center.

Piedmont Central opened in August 2016 adding 1,152 beds to our growing university. This new housing facility is part of Georgia State University’s continued mission to provide top-quality housing that enhances students’ personal and academic development by offering modern, safe and secure facilities and provides opportunities for intellectual and social engagement while promoting meaningful interactions between residents and staff. The new housing will allow Georgia State University to keep up with its significant growth while building a cohesive and unified campus community.

The Greek Housing community consists of four fraternities and five sororities housed in three story town homes, which range in size from nine to 19 beds per unit. Each town home features a spacious living room and kitchen, and all bedrooms are furnished with standard residential furniture. There is a large community center within the complex with mail service and laundry facilities available next door at Patton Hall.

University Housing residence halls are in highly desirable downtown locations that are within minutes of academic buildings, the Recreation Center, the Student Center and most major attractions in Atlanta. Sign up to live on campus and begin enjoying all the advantages University Housing has to offer. All University Housing residence halls meet all requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Housing costs for all facilities include rent, furniture, all utilities, wireless internet in specific building areas, basic cable television and internet connections. To maintain safety and security, all residence halls have card key access, camera systems, security staff and operate a guest check in process.

For more information, visit University Housing located in 75 Piedmont, Suite 110, call 404-413-1800 or visit the University Housing website myhousing.gsu.edu.

1542 Off Campus Housing

The Dean of Students has partnered with an off campus housing website to provide students with a tool to find a place to live off campus and search for a roommate. Because the Dean of Students office does not approve, inspect or assume responsibility for those facilities listed on the off campus housing website, it is strongly recommended that a visit be made to the apartment or home prior to making lease or rental arrangements. If possible, schedule more than one interview with a prospective house share or roommate and always request references.

For more information, visit the Dean of Students located in Student Center East, Suite 303, call 404-413-1515 or visit the Dean of Students website at deanofstudents.gsu.edu/student-assistance/off-campus-living/.
1600 Educator Preparation

The university offers a wide range of educator preparation programs for students who wish to become public school teachers. These programs are administered within the College of the Arts, the College of Arts and Sciences, or the College of Education and Human Development, depending on the program. All undergraduate educator preparation programs are overseen by the Professional Education Faculty, which has membership from the three colleges and is advised by Atlanta-area schools.

The Professional Education Faculty at Georgia State University is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), www.ncate.org. This accreditation covers all initial teacher preparation programs and advanced educator preparation programs at Georgia State University. However, the accreditation does not include individual education courses that the institution offers to P-12 educators for professional development, relicensure, or other purposes.

The following undergraduate programs are offered by the College of Education and Human Development, the College of Arts and Sciences, or the College of the Arts:

The College of Education and Human Development offers initial certification graduate programs in communications sciences and disorders (speech-language pathology), elementary education, educational leadership, English education, English to speakers of other Languages, health and physical education, mathematics education, middle level education, reading specialist, school counseling, school psychology, science education, social studies education and special education.

Educator preparation programs at Georgia State University are field-based; that is, much of the coursework requires structured participation in school settings. Therefore, students must be available for coursework that will be scheduled during elementary, middle, and secondary school hours, typically 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Students will find it necessary to be free of other obligations during the term of student teaching and will find it highly desirable to have few other commitments during the term in which blocks of coursework must be taken. Blocks are comprised of 6 or 12 hours of coursework, which are taken in the same academic term (i.e., fall semester only) and are field-based. Exit requirements for teacher education are satisfied by successful completion of student teaching. Additional requirements exist for specific programs.

Preparation for Prospective Teachers at the Middle Level (4-8) or Secondary Level (6-12) or of ESOL Students (P-12)

Students interested in applying to a Master of Arts in Teaching program in the Department of Middle and Secondary Education or who wish to explore the possibility of teaching in a content area (gr. 4-8 or 6-12) or in English as a Second Language classrooms (ESOL, preschool -12) are encouraged to take pre-education courses such as the following as part of their undergraduate preparation: EDCI 3250 Introduction to Teaching in the Secondary School; EDLA 3200 Topics in Middle Grades Language Arts; EDLA 3230 Special Topics in the Middle Level Literature Curriculum; EDLA 3240 Special Topics in the Middle Level Composition Curriculum; EDMT 3350 Topics in Middle Grades Math; EDMT 3420 Special Topics in the Middle Level Mathematics Curriculum; EDSC 3250 Topics in Middle Grades Science; EDSS 3400 Topics in Middle Grades Social Science and History; EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities; or LT 3210 Teaching, Learning, and Technology Integration.

General information for preparing to teach in these areas can be found below. For more information on specific program admission requirements for the various M.A.T. programs in the Department of Middle and Secondary Education, see those program descriptions in the Georgia State University Graduate Catalog.

English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Education (P-12)

Prospective teachers of ESOL students in Georgia may choose any major but should complete at least two sequential semesters of a foreign language. Courses in applied linguistics and English grammar are also encouraged. Upon completion of an undergraduate degree, students should apply for the M.A.T. in English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Education which leads to certification as an ESOL teacher (P-12) and a reading endorsement.

Middle Level Education (4-8)

Prospective teachers of middle level education (MLE) level should focus on two content areas, either Language Arts/Social Studies or Math/Science, as part of their undergraduate preparation.

- For MLE language arts and social studies, students should major in either English or history and take at least 12 hours of upper division coursework in the second area. Within their undergraduate program, students should address the following areas: children’s literature, grammar, composition, literature or folklore, geography, world history, Georgia history and U.S. history.
- For MLE mathematics and science, students should take at least 12 hours of mathematics and 12 hours of science as part of the undergraduate preparation. Within the undergraduate program, students should address the following areas: life science, earth science, physical science, geometry, algebra, number theory, and probability/statistics.
- Upon completion of an undergraduate degree, students should apply for the M.A.T in Middle Level Education which leads to certification in grades 4-8 in two areas of concentration (either Language Arts/Social Studies or Math/Science).

- Students who do not follow the suggested preparation for Middle Level Education may be able to enroll in the M.A.T program, but additional coursework will be necessary prior to completion of the program and recommendation for certification.

Secondary Education (6-12)

Students interested in teaching English, Mathematics, Science, or Social Studies (history, political science, or economics) at the middle and secondary level should major in Arts and Sciences in the concentration in which they would like to teach. Certification in physics is available within the B.S. in Physics program in the College of Arts and Sciences. For all other fields students should apply to the appropriate Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) program in the College of Education and Human Development upon completion of an undergraduate degree.

1605 Entry into Teacher Education

Admission to Georgia State University and to the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of the Arts, or the College of Education and Human Development (as indicated above) is prerequisite to entry into teacher education. The minimum criteria for entry into teacher education are listed below.

- Unless otherwise specified in specific program requirements, students must have successfully completed Area A (Essential Skills) of the undergraduate core curriculum with a grade of “C” or higher for each course and demonstrated competence in mathematics and science by successfully completing Area D (Science, Mathematics, and Technology).
- Students must have a minimum grade point average of 2.50 based on all undergraduate coursework attempted. For students pursuing degrees in some majors, the minimum grade point average requirement is 2.75. Students are encouraged to contact their academic advisors for information regarding the grade point average requirement for their specific majors.
- Students must have successfully completed EDUC 2110 Investigating Critical & Contemporary Issues in Education with a grade of “C” or higher.
- Students must present passing scores on the GACE Program Admission Assessment or demonstrate an exemption upon application to an initial educator preparation program.
- Students interested in teacher education are encouraged to take the GACE Program Admission Assessment within their sophomore year or as soon as they complete Area A of the undergraduate core curriculum. For more information see the College of Education and Human Development website: education.gsu.edu/admissions/graduate-admissions/gace-and-educator-ethics/
- Students must complete the Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment – Program Entry (350). For more information see the College of Education and Human Development website: education.gsu.edu/admissions/graduate-admissions/gace-and-educator-ethics/.
- Students must complete a separate application for entry to teacher education programs. Application requirements are available at education.gsu.edu/admissions/undergraduate-admissions/.
- Students will need to have Tort liability insurance for field placement and field experiences. More information is available at http://education.gsu.edu/files/2013/08/Tort_Liability_Info_Form.pdf.
- Additional criteria, including departmental requirements, may be added. Students are assigned an advisor to plan an appropriate course of study within the guidelines provided by this catalog.
1610 Educational Field Experiences and Student Teaching

Classroom Observations

Prior to acceptance into a teacher education program, students enrolled in courses which require observation experiences in a school setting will complete the online application for observation placements.

Prior to completing the online application, students must complete a criminal background check through the university-approved vendor. Instructions for the background check are provided at education.gsu.edu/student-services/office-of-field-placements/criminal-background-checks/.

Students can access the online application at education.gsu.edu/student-services/office-of-field-placements/classroom-observations/.

If the course requires the student to complete an observation in a community setting as designated by the course instructors, students do not need to submit an observation application to the Office of Field Placements and may manage their own placement request.

Policy Regarding Tort Liability

Teacher education and counseling students are required to purchase tort liability prior to placements in field experience courses, practica, or student teaching. Students will be expected to show proof of coverage to program coordinators/supervisors prior to field placements.

Educational Field Experiences and Student Teaching

Educational field experiences and student teaching are clinical in nature. They are designed to complement the humanistic, behavioral, and pedagogical studies in teacher education and to offer experiences in a variety of settings.

At the baccalaureate level, a sequence of clinical and field experiences is planned to complement the professional education courses included in the students programs of study.

The Opening School Experience provides practical experience in the school and classroom setting during the week of preplanning and the first week of school. Students learn effective procedures necessary for setting up a classroom at the beginning of the year. This takes place at the beginning of the students’ senior year prior to the student teaching experience. Students in early childhood education and health and physical education must apply for this experience in advance and must register for the course during early registration of the fall term of the year in which the experience takes place. Students should check with their departments for the deadlines to apply for their Open School Experience.

Student teaching is the culmination of the clinical field experiences. Student teaching involves full participation by the students for at least one full academic term. Because student teaching constitutes a full load of academic credit, it is recommended that the students attempt neither regular employment nor other courses during the term of student teaching.
To be eligible for enrollment in student teaching, students must be admitted to teacher education and have:

- successfully completed the specific required courses of the program;
- earned an overall grade-point average no less than 2.50 (2.75 for birth through five and elementary education majors) the term prior to the student teaching experience;
- earned a minimum grade-point average of 2.50 (2.75 for birth through five and elementary education majors) in the major teaching area courses and in professional education courses. (Students who earn a grade of “C-,” “D,” or “F” in a major teaching field or professional education course must repeat that course and earn a grade of “C” or higher. The grade of “C,” “D,” or “F” will still be included in the overall grade-point average.) Elementary Education and Middle Level Education majors must earn a grade of “B” or higher in majors courses specified in the program of study.
- must complete the requirements to obtain a Pre-Service Certificate through the Georgia Professional Standards Commission which includes a criminal background check and the ethics module.
- will not be able to begin their field placement(s) until they receive their Pre-Service certificate number from the GaPSC and provide proof to the Office of Field Placements.

The Professional Education Faculty believes that all students who are in field experiences must be personally and psychologically equipped as well as academically prepared. Students may be denied entry to field experiences based on departmental prerequisites or the professional judgment of faculty based on observed performance and behavior. This policy is based on the premise that educators should be part of the evaluation of the students’ ability to function adequately and safely in classrooms and that educators have a right and responsibility to make such judgments prior to placing students in schools.

The practicum or student teaching supervisor has the authority to withdraw students from their classroom experience if their performance constitutes a detriment to the children in the class. If such removal is necessary, students will be given an F in each corresponding course.

Applications and deadlines for student teaching are posted at education.gsu.edu/student-services/office-of-field-placements/.

Failure to submit applications on or before prescribed deadline dates will result in a delay of one or more terms in student teaching or practicum placement. Further information regarding educational field experiences, practicum, and student teaching experiences for each major is available from the appropriate department in the College of the Arts, College of Arts and Science or the College of Education and Human Development.

An additional lab fee of $125 will be charged at the time students register for the student teaching experience. Educator preparation students must be aware that extra costs such as tort liability and transportation will be incurred at various times during the completion of the various teacher education field experiences, particularly during the students’ senior year.

Final Student Teaching Seminar

At the completion of the student teaching semester, all students who are eligible for certification must attend a final seminar to complete all requirements. Information concerning this seminar will be sent to the students.

Continuing Duty to Report Criminal Events

In addition to the continuing duty Georgia State University students have to report criminal events that occur after application to the University per the Georgia State Student Code of Conduct, students enrolled in educator preparation programs or in education coursework requiring field-based experiences must (1) report to the Office of Field Placement any criminal events described below that occur after the criminal background check required for field placements was conducted (notice to Office of Field Placement must be made within 72 hours of the student’s notice of the event); (2) consent to a new criminal background check; and (3) provide written consent for the release of the criminal background report and all information about the criminal event to any field placement site at which the student is currently student teaching or at which Georgia State attempts to place the student in the future. Failure to comply with the notice requirement described herein may result in sanctions up to and including immediate withdrawal from the University. Failure to comply with the criminal background check and release of information requirement described herein will result in immediate removal from all current field placements and courses and denial of future requests for field placement.

1. Conviction of a crime other than a minor traffic violation.
2. Criminal charges filed against the student.
3. Entering a plea of guilty, a plea of no contest, a plea of nolo contendere, an Alford plea, or a plea under any first offender act in response to charges filed against the student.

Criteria on Academic and Professional Integrity

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to upholding standards of academic and professional integrity. These standards require that students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs within the College of Education and Human Development adhere to both the University’s Student Code of Conduct as described online at codeofconduct.gsu.edu/as well as their individual degree program’s Policy on Student Professionalism, Integrity and Retention. Students should contact their department for a copy of their degree program’s policy.

1615 Teacher Certification

Teachers and other educational personnel must be certified by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission to be employed in the state’s elementary, middle, and secondary public schools. Private elementary and secondary schools may also require state certification for employment.

Completion of Teacher Education Requirements: A requirement for initial certification in Georgia is completion of teacher education requirements. This may be accomplished in one of the following ways at Georgia State University. (Options vary by program.) In all cases, “Entry into Teacher Education” criteria apply.

- Students may complete an approved educator preparation degree program as described in the College of the Arts, College of Arts and Sciences, or the College of Education and Human Development chapter of this catalog.
Students may complete or present a non-educator preparation bachelor’s degree and all additional components of an approved educator preparation degree program.

The College of Education and Human Development offers nine (9) Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) programs which prepare students for initial certification in the following fields: Elementary Education, English Education, English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Education, Health and Physical Education, Mathematics Education, Middle Level Education, Science Education, Social Studies Education, and Special Education. The College of Education and Human Development also offers initial certification programs at the graduate level in Communication Sciences and Disorders, Educational Leadership, Reading Specialist, School Counseling, and School Psychology. See the current Georgia State University Graduate Catalog for more information on the university's master's level programs.

1620 University Recommendation

Students who complete a Georgia State University educator preparation program and who present passing scores on the appropriate GACE Content Assessments, Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment, and edTPA may be eligible for the Georgia State recommendation for teacher certification. The College of Education and Human Development’s Office of Academic Assistance and Graduate Admissions can issue the recommendation to the prospective teacher shortly after Commencement following the term of completion of requirements. Instructions for applying for certification can be found here: education.gsu.edu/student-services/office-of-academic-assistance/applying-for-certification/certification-requirements/.

1625 Application for Teacher Certification

Prospective teachers must apply for teacher certification. It is the students’ responsibility to complete the certification application submission process with the College of Education and Human Development. The Office of Academic Assistance and Graduate Admissions will work with the student to issue the recommendation to the Georgia PSC shortly after Commencement following the term of completion of requirements. Instructions for applying for certification can be found here: education.gsu.edu/student-services/office-of-academic-assistance/applying-for-certification/certification-requirements/.

1630 Georgia Assessments for the Certification of Educators (GACE)

This information is for candidates seeking admission to or enrolled in a teacher preparation program. The state of Georgia requires such candidates to take various GACE and Educator Ethics assessments as part of the educator certification process. These computer-delivered assessments have been developed by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC) and are delivered by the Education Testing Service (ETS). You will take these tests at different times.

Program Admission and Content Assessments:

Program Admission Assessment [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] is an admission requirement (unless candidate meets qualifications for exemption – scroll down to “Options to Satisfy the Program Admission Assessment Requirement”). When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Content Assessment (different content assessments for each program) tests your content knowledge and is taken after enrollment and prior to program completion. You will receive specific information regarding this test as you near completion of your program (required for certification).

Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment:

Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment is an admission requirement. Completion of this assessment is required for admission, though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment is taken after enrollment and prior to program completion. You will receive specific information regarding this test as you near completion of your program (required for certification).

How to Register:

Educational Testing Service (ETS) is the test supplier for the GACE and for the Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment.

Important Step: you must first establish a MyPSC account at the MyPSC website. As you create your account, you will indicate a different “Reason for Testing” specific to the test and your student status:

- Program Admission — select Reason for Testing #1. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.
- Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (or Program Exit) — select Reason for Testing #7 (Be sure to review the 4-step registration process on the link provided here: Register for the Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment). Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment. NOTE: Step #3 of registration — check your email SPAM folder for the email from ETS. Step #4 of registration is tricky — you are now in the ETS portal (not MyPSC) and you must create a new account under “Registration.” Choose the option: Test Takers.
- Content Assessments – Undergraduate students (or graduate students in Educational Leadership, School Psychology, or Counseling): select Reason for Testing #2
- Content Assessments – Graduate students (except in Educational Leadership, School Psychology, or Counseling): select Reason for Testing #3 (students in Educational Leadership, School Psychology, or Counseling select Reason for Testing #2)

1631 edTPA
Teacher preparation candidates will be required to pass an externally scored portfolio assessment (edTPA) to be eligible for certification. This portfolio assessment requires candidates to submit evidence of ability to teach in a subject-specific classroom. Candidates must develop and teach a unit of instruction and then submit materials based on three to five lessons from this unit. The portfolio includes video clips of student-teacher interactions, lesson plans, learner work samples, and candidates’ reflective analysis. The cost of the edTPA portfolio submission is $300.00, which will be associated with student teaching courses.

In the event a candidate has passed their student teaching/practica course included in their teacher preparation program but fails to pass edTPA, candidates may be eligible to graduate but not be eligible for certification. Students in this situation may enroll in EDUC 4750 Clinical Experience for one credit hour to participate in a practicum experience to create and implement a unit of instruction and complete a new edTPA portfolio.

1635 Teacher Education Core

The teacher education core is common to all educator preparation programs in the College of the Arts, College of Arts and Sciences, and the College of Education and Human Development. The core is comprised of the following three courses:

- EDUC 2110 Investigating Critical and Contemporary Issues in Education
- EDUC 2120 Exploring Socio-Cultural Perspectives on Diversity in Educational Contexts
- EDUC 2130 Exploring Learning and Teaching

1640 Professional Education Faculty (PEF)

The Professional Education Faculty’s primary duty is to promote and facilitate constructive interaction of the members of the Professional Education Faculty, especially along interdisciplinary lines, in the interest of maintaining excellence in professional education programs at Georgia State University.

The Dean of the College of Education and Human Development is the presiding officer of the Professional Education Faculty. The faculty meets at least twice each year, once during Fall Term and once during Spring Term. Quotidian governance of the Professional Education Faculty is conducted by the Professional Education Council, which consists of faculty members elected from the various teacher education areas, faculty members appointed by the Dean of the College of Education and Human Development, students appointed by their departments, and school personnel representing Metro-Atlanta school systems. The position of the Professional Education Chair will be filled in alternative years by (a) a member of the faculty of the College of Education and Human Development and (b) a member of the faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences or College of the Arts or Perimeter College.

Additional information about the Professional Education Faculty and its activities is available online.
Conceptual Framework

The Professional Education Faculty’s conceptual framework illustrates its philosophies and purposes in regard to effective teacher preparation. The framework builds on the College of Education and Human Development mission statement and includes the Professional Education Faculty’s purpose, assumptions guiding our programs, and candidate outcomes. The conceptual framework is described fully at http://mycehd.gsu.edu/faculty/resources-policies-forms/.

1650 Teacher Education Warranty

Georgia State University teacher education programs provide a limited warranty and guarantee the following:

- The Professional Education Faculty of Georgia State guarantees the quality of any educator that they recommend for initial certification in Georgia.
- Georgia State guarantees educators during the first two years immediately following graduation from Georgia State or following recommendation by Georgia State for an initial certificate, whichever occurs first.
- Any Georgia State educator in a Georgia school who fails to demonstrate essential skills can receive additional training at no expense to the educator or the employer.

General Information

The Honors College serves high ability students in undergraduate programs of study in the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies, College of Arts & Sciences, College of the Arts, College of Education and Human Development, J. Mack Robinson School of Business, Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing, and School of Public Health. Honors courses, sections, dimensions, independent readings/research and theses are taught and supervised by faculty in all colleges.

Purpose

The Honors College was established in 2011 and evolved from the College of Arts & Sciences Honors Program which began in 1975. A major goal of the College is to enhance the quality of undergraduate education and create transformational learning experiences. The Honors College serves eligible students studying across all Georgia State University colleges with undergraduate programs of study including the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies, College of Arts and Science, College of the Arts, College of Education and Human Development, J. Mack Robinson College of Business, Lewis School of Nursing, Perimeter College, School of Public Health, and Institute of Biomedical Sciences.

The Honors College provides the advantages of a small, highly-selective college with the breadth of programs and opportunities of a large research university. The College is open to incoming freshmen, transfer students, and currently enrolled students who meet eligibility requirements. Honors students take small, seminar-based classes and develop mentored relationships with outstanding faculty members. Honors sections of a number of regular courses, many of which meet core curriculum requirements (Areas A – E), are offered throughout the academic year. In addition, students in the Honors College can enroll in upper division courses, special interdisciplinary courses, and research and write an honors thesis. Students in the college may earn honors recognitions that are noted on their diplomas and transcripts, and pursue additional opportunities such as internships and study abroad experiences to enrich the quality of their education. Honors students may also take advantage of dedicated facilities, a dedicated librarian, priority registration, merit scholarships, graduate and professional school advising, national fellowship and scholarship advising, special travel and study abroad opportunities, and specialized housing in the Honors Living Learning Community in the University Commons.
1700.10 Admission

Admission to the Honors College is competitive and limited to the top 5-8% of the bachelor degree-seeking fall freshmen class. Entering freshmen should have an outstanding high school grade-point average combined with excellent SAT or ACT scores and a record of meaningful community service, leadership, and extra-curricular activity. High school students who are jointly enrolled will also be considered.

Currently enrolled and Perimeter College transition students must have a cumulative grade-point average of at least 3.5 based on a minimum of 12 credit hours completed at Georgia State University to be considered for admission to the Honors College. Transfer students must have 30 hours completed. All applicants are required to obtain a recommendation from a faculty member or staff who can speak to the applicant’s academic performance. Applicants who have completed more than 60 hours will be required to provide additional information and may be required to interview with the dean or associate dean. The application cycle is as follows:

Applications for spring semester will open in mid-December with the release of fall semester grades, and will close on February 1. Applications for fall semester will open in early May with the release of spring semester grades, and will close on July 1. Applications to the Honors College by students from other institutions will also be evaluated during these application periods. Students who do not meet these academic requirements in full but wish to pursue honors work should contact the Honors College staff.

1700.20 Academic Resources & Services

National Scholarship and Fellowship Advisement

The Honors College encourages students to pursue national fellowships and scholarships, such as the Rhodes, Truman, and Goldwater awards, by working early in their studies with the College’s director. Students seeking to distinguish themselves work with the coordinator to determine appropriate scholarship opportunities, identify resources and engage in experiences designed to make them nationally competitive and prepare them for a lifetime of achievement. The Honors College offers a variety of programs to help student compete for these national awards.

University Assistantship Program

First year students have an opportunity to apply to the University Assistantship Program (UAP). The UAP provides $2,500 each year for four years to students involved in faculty-mentored research or creative work. In line with students’ educational and career goals, the program matches students with faculty members or staff in relevant offices. The award is contingent on satisfactory performance in the placement and good standing in the Honors College.

Internships and Study Abroad

The Honors College offers internships through the Capital Experience in Washington, DC, and the London Experience in London, England. The Capital Experience includes opportunities with government agencies, political parties, political action groups, members of the Georgia Congressional delegation, museums, the arts, think tanks, historical archives, research and policy organizations, science and environmental groups, medical centers, and the media. In London, opportunities are available for internships in government, public relations, fashion, risk/reward management, government relations and public affairs, film and video, business administration, and private wealth management. The College also offers a variety of other internships and works individually with students to identify internship opportunities. Internship opportunities are open to students from all majors.

LEAD with Honors

The Honors College Certificate in Leadership is a four-year program that develops small cohorts of Honors College students into tomorrow’s change agents through the mastery of leadership principles and group dynamics. Students must complete an application process. A cohort of 20-25 students completes 16 credit hours over the course of the program, including an honors seminars, an honors course in leadership and group dynamics, and a leadership capstone experience.

DISCOVERY

The Honors College publishes DISCOVERY, an undergraduate research journal that showcases Honors College students' research and creative works. The journal is published annually in hard copy and online at ScholarWorks@GeorgiaStateUniversity. Co-edited by faculty and students, all submissions are peer-reviewed, and accepted for review throughout the year.

Herndon Human Rights Initiative

The Herndon Human Rights Initiative recognizes the legacy of Alonzo F. & Norris B. Herndon in the modern civil rights movements. The Initiative sponsors an annual experimental, research-based course that culminates in a university and community presentation. The Initiative also funds Herndon Scholarships for students with demonstrated participation in research, creative work, or service in support of human rights.

Accelerated Bachelor’s/J.D. program

Students who enter the college with 24 to 30 credit hours may be eligible the Accelerated Bachelor’s/J.D. degree program. Students must complete all the course requirements for your undergraduate degree by the end of the junior year, submit a statement of interest to the Honors College take the LSAT and complete the College of Law’s application process. Credits earned during the first year of law school will fulfill upper-level and residency requirements for the bachelor’s degree, Students earn the bachelor's degree when they successfully complete all first-year law courses, normally at the end of their fourth year.

Computer Laboratory

The Honors College maintains a computer lab with PCs, Macs, and areas for working on laptops. Students can print at reduced rates in the lab. All computers and software are routinely upgraded.

Study Lounges, Project Rooms, Kitchen, and Lockers

The College has three study lounges throughout the college, conference rooms, a group study room, lockers, and a dedicated student kitchen.
1700.30 College Academic Regulations

Scholastic Standard

Continuation in the Honors College requires students to maintain at least a 3.3 cumulative grade-point average. A student whose average falls below 3.3 will be given two academic terms in which to attain a 3.3 average again, at which point the student may continue to take honors courses.

Active-Inactive Status

Although there is no minimum number of courses required to remain enrolled in the Honors College, students who are in good academic standing in the program (see above) and who have taken at least one honors course in the past three academic terms (including summer session) will be considered active in the program. Students newly admitted to the college will be counted as active during their first four academic terms. All others will be considered inactive.

One-Semester Registration

Any student in the university with a 3.0 or higher GPA may take one honors course without being admitted to the college. Authorization for all honors courses must be obtained prior to registration from the Honors College office.

1700.40 Degree Requirements

The Honors College does not confer a degree. Students earn their degree through the college in which their program is situated. Students in the college may earn honors recognitions that are noted on their diplomas and transcripts.

1700.50 Honors Recognitions and Requirements

Students may choose to work toward any or all of three formal recognitions. These are recorded on transcripts and on diplomas, and acknowledged at graduation. Honors recognitions require 3.3 grade-point averages overall and in honors course work. No courses with grades of D or F may be applied toward the satisfaction of the requirements for honors recognitions. All incoming freshmen honors students are required to enroll in Honors 1000, a one-hour seminar that introduces students to research-based academic work in the disciplines.

- Honors: Granted to students who complete at least 12 credit hours of course work in lower-division honors classes at Georgia State University (in addition to Honors 1000). The 12 hours of lower-division course work (1000 and 2000 level courses) must be in classes selected from at least three major areas of study with no more than two classes in any one area. Many of these courses can fulfill core requirements (Areas A – E).
- Advanced Honors: In addition to fulfilling the requirements for Honors, Advanced Honors are granted to students who complete at least 12 semester hours of honors course work at the upper division level (3000 ad 4000 level courses), plus two upper-level honors interdisciplinary seminars, for a total of 18 hours of upper-level courses. Three semester hours of thesis research work (4870), nine hours of honors dimensions, and nine semester hours of graduate courses may be applied toward this recognition.

- Research Honors: Granted to students who complete the requirements for Advanced Honors and an honors thesis, including at least six semester hours and not more than nine semester hours of honors research and thesis course work.

1700.60 Office of Academic Advising

Academic Advisement

The Honors College provides the following services each semester to active Honors students:

- Academic advisement and honors course selection
- Review of AP credit and IB credit and how the credit applies to academic program
- Review of all honors credit and requirements for Honors recognition at graduation

Honors students are advised on an appointment basis. To schedule an appointment with an honors academic advisor, call 404-413-5577. Students are urged to arrange for advisement in their departments and in the Honors College regularly and well in advance of registration to take full advantage of honors offerings. Students should also meet with their academic advisor in the University Advisement Center and as they advance, with their college’s Office of Academic Assistance.

1700.70 Student Complaints, Petitions, Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals

The appeals procedure for students in the Honors College will follow different courses depending on the nature of the student’s appeal. Please refer to University Information Section 1050.80 under Policies and Disclosures in this catalog or visit enrollment.gsu.edu/assistance for details.

2010.10 Purpose

Changing the World: One Student at a Time, One Idea at a Time.

The Andrew Young School of Policy Studies strengthens communities across the globe through policy research, scholarship, public engagement, and the development of leaders.

The school is committed to quality education, offering a variety of academic undergraduate and graduate degree programs as well as nondegree training programs. It engages in basic and applied research and outreach addressed to the ongoing management of policies and programs, as well as effective delivery of human welfare services. The school houses several prestigious research centers focusing on the practical needs of governmental, nonprofit, and private-sector organizations in Atlanta, the state of Georgia, and the broader national and global communities. Degree programs in criminal justice and criminology, economics, policy studies, public administration, and social work integrate individual academic career preparation with addressing those needs.

For current information, visit the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies website: aysps.gsu.edu.

2010.20 Accreditation

The Master of Public Administration degree is accredited by The National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration. The School of Social Work is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education.

2010.25 Academic Advisement

14 Marietta St. N. W., Suite G-52
404-413-0021
aysps.gsu.edu/student-resources/oaa/

The Office of Academic Assistance (OAA) supports the school’s commitment to quality education in the field of policy studies by advising seniors and coordinating the recruitment, admission and advising of graduate students. The OAA also serves as the administrative and regulatory office for student programs within the Dean’s Office in the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies.

Academic advisement is required of all students in the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies. The school has developed a system of advisement that integrates the Office of Academic Assistance and faculty advisors within the school. Through the advisement process, students learn to identify and use university resources effectively to: satisfy degree requirements; plan programs of study; discover how interests, skills and goals connect to fields of study and careers. The office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. Monday through Friday. Walk-in advisement without an appointment is scheduled on Mondays and Thursdays from 2:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., and Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m..

AYSPS Research Vault

14 Marietta St. N.W., Suite V-51
404-413-0019

The Research Vault offers research tools in policy studies and economics for faculty, staff and students at the AYSPS. It provides students with an introduction to relevant databases, data set manuals, and websites. The Vault also houses selected literature and data sets on fiscal policy, public administration, and economic issues to support ongoing research projects of AYSPS faculty and its research centers. The website above is available to assist patrons in searching the literature of regional, national, and international policy issues located in the Vault.

Research Vault staff, along with university liaison librarians, develops links to electronic journals and databases licensed to Georgia State University for the use of its student and faculty community, as well as those licensed by the powerful statewide Galileo system. Available are such sources as the Web of Science, a leading citation index, access to social science data from the Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR), and Lexis-Nexis statistical tables for geographic, demographic, income and time series. The Vault holds data sets and publications from agencies in state government as well as the international community, especially in taxation.

International subscriptions include Government Finance Statistics Yearbook, International Financial Statistics Yearbook, World Economic Outlook, World Development Indicators, as well as other publications and data sets by the OECD, IMF, the World Bank and the United Nations.

2010.50 Research Centers and Programs

Center for Collaborative Social Work

140 Decatur Street, 12th Floor
404-413-1050

The Center for Collaborative Social Work developed out of the School of Social Work’s need for an organizational structure that extended the school’s founding principles beyond the classroom and into the community. The School of Social Work was developed in 1965 and is the first school in the country to offer a Master of Social Work with a sole concentration in community partnerships. The school’s commitment to community partnerships grew out of collaborative efforts with community stakeholders from a variety of social service agencies in the greater Atlanta area. Together, they developed a program based on the following principles:

- “Partnership is critical for human service delivery and building communities;
- Challenges facing individuals and communities are interrelated and that solutions must be as well;
- Students should commit themselves to addressing social and economic justice issues that test the spirit of individuals and communities;
- Students should be educated for leadership roles to facilitate partnerships; and
- The program must continue to be relevant to the professional lives of students and practitioners and to the needs of diverse communities.” (Wertheimer et al. 2004)

Center for State and Local Finance

14 Marietta St. N.W., 4th Floor
404-413-0098
cslf.gsu.edu

The Center for State and Local Finance’s (CSLF) mission is to develop the people and ideas for next generation public finance by bringing together the Andrew Young School’s nationally-ranked faculty and the broader public finance community. Established in 2014, CSLF conducts and publishes innovative, nonpartisan research on economic development and urban policy, education finance, tax policy and reform, and budget and financial management. Additionally, it provides premier executive education classes in public finance for state and local finance officials in Georgia and nationwide. CSLF also works with governmental, non-profit, and for-profit groups to conduct fiscal and economic impact studies, forecast revenues and expenditures, and assist with local and state tax policy and reform efforts. CSLF supports several graduate students pursuing their degrees in public management and policy or economics through its fellowship and graduate research assistantships.

Experimental Economics Center

14 Marietta St. N.W., 4th Floor
The Experimental Economics Center (ExCEN) supports research, teaching, and policy applications involving controlled experiments with human decision-makers. Its central objective is to promote the development and application of economics and related academic disciplines as empirical social science. Research conducted by center faculty covers many topics: theoretical modeling and laboratory experiments with trust, reciprocity, and altruism; small- and large-stakes risk aversion; public goods and common pool resources; centipede games vs. Dutch auctions; risk perception; technology adoption; time preferences; gambling disorders; health seeking behavior in less developed countries; ambiguity attitudes; insurance demand; financial risk management of poor working households; and congestion pricing in transportation. Collaborative research with surgeons is in progress on improving hospital discharge decision-making and analysis of decision-making for human organ rejections or acceptances for transplantation. Research and teaching support facilities developed and maintained by ExCEN include the AYSPS experimental economics laboratory, a mobile laboratory and EconPort (www.econport.org), an economics digital library and virtual laboratory containing Internet software for experiments.

Fiscal Research Center

14 Marietta St. N.W., 4th Floor
404-413-0249
frc.gsu.edu

Established in 1995, the Fiscal Research Center (FRC) provides nonpartisan research, technical assistance and education in the evaluation and design of state tax and economic policy. It leverages the Andrew Young School’s expertise in public finance to assist Georgia’s policymakers on questions of tax and economic policy. FRC’s responsibilities include developing estimates for tax-related fiscal notes for the state of Georgia, writing the Georgia State Tax Expenditure Budget, supporting the state economist, and conducting policy and academic research on a variety of topics associated with state tax policy issues. FRC also maintains a data warehouse of domestic data sources that are used by FRC staff, Andrew Young School faculty and students, and external organizations. FRC supports several graduate research assistantships for students pursuing their degrees in public management and policy or economics.

The Georgia Health Policy Center

55 Park Place, N.E., 8th Floor
404-413-0314
ghpc.gsu.edu/

The Georgia Health Policy Center (GHPC) integrates research, policy and programs to advance health and well-being. GHPC works locally, statewide, and nationally to connect decision makers with the evidence-based research and guidance needed to make informed decisions about health policy and programming. The center focuses on the most complex health care issues today including: public and private health insurance coverage, health care reform, long-term services and supports, public health, children’s health and well-being, behavioral health, and the development of urban and rural health systems. GHPC offers a wide range of services to public and private clients, including research and evaluation, policy analysis, program development, technical assistance, meeting design and facilitation, grants management, strategic planning, and health impact assessment. The center has worked in nearly 1,000 communities in all 50 states to achieve health improvement.

Georgia International Law Enforcement Exchange

P.O. Box 3992, Atlanta, GA 30302-3992
404-413-1035
www.gilee.org

The Georgia International Law Enforcement Exchange (GILEE) was established in 1992. Its mission is to enhance law enforcement executive development and international cooperation for the provision of better law enforcement services and public safety through the protection of civil rights. GILEE’s focus has been on anti-terrorism training; initially to protect the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games and later to improve preparedness for terror threats. Following the 9-11 atrocity, GILEE focuses on enhancing homeland security efforts through international cooperation and training programs. GILEE operates on the principle of providing peer-to-peer professional training through the introduction of best practices and sources of excellence in order to enhance agency capabilities to better deal with threats to public safety and improve security. GILEE offers executive law enforcement training programs and special briefings in and for more than 20 states and more than 20 countries.

International Center for Public Policy

14 Marietta St. N.W., 5th Floor
404-413-0239
icepp.gsu.edu/

Mission: “To expand knowledge, instill optimal practice and build capacity in the public sector around the world to improve human well-being through better public policy.”

The International Center for Public Policy (ICePP) is an interdisciplinary public policy research center that engages faculty members from within the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies (AYSPS) and other departments at Georgia State University who pursue this mission through internationally oriented research, academic programs and technical assistance, and training activities for developing countries. The core expertise of the center lies in its economics and fiscal policy analysis. It serves a diverse client base that includes multilateral donor agencies (e.g. USAID, World Bank, UNDP, ADB, etc.), foreign ministries, government organizations, legislative bodies and private institutions.

ICePP brings together the strengths of cutting-edge technical expertise, extensive real-world policy experience and solid project management capabilities. ICePP faculty have extensive experience in resolving real-world policy challenges, with combined work experience in over 70 developing and transition economies around the world. At the same time, ICePP’s international technical assistance and training efforts uniquely complement the academic research and the educational mission of the Andrew Young School. The exposure to international policy challenges that ICePP brings to the school and its interaction with government leaders and policy-makers from around the world enriches the school’s academic environment and deepens its commitment to resolving international policy challenges.

ICePP has built a strong visiting scholars program and has hosted over 40 scholars since 2007. In addition to the various books, peer reviewed journal articles and policy reports generated by its faculty and research associates, ICePP publishes a working paper series and occasional papers that include research from GSU faculty, research associates, graduate students and external professors, policy-makers and government officials that have participated in ICePP research activities.

Nonprofit Studies Program

14 Marietta St. N.W., 3rd Floor
404-413-0133

The Nonprofit Studies Program (NSP) was organized in 2001 to foster collaborative research on the nonprofit sector within the academic community, to promote policy research that is relevant in today’s political and economic environment, to educate nonprofit managers and leaders, and to serve as a link between scholars and nonprofit practitioners in creating and disseminating knowledge about the sector.
The program involves educational, research and service activities focused on helping nonprofit organizations address their social missions effectively through problem-solving, policy advocacy and effective deployment of their resources. The program is interdisciplinary, and has special strengths in economic analysis, resource development and management, and policy analysis applied to the concerns of nonprofit organizations. It includes over 30 core and associated faculty from the Andrew Young School, other schools and colleges of Georgia State University and other universities.

Public Performance and Management Group

14 Marietta St. N.W., Suite 316
404-413-0180
ppmgsu.org

The Public Performance and Management Group (PPM) offers an array of resources and solutions to assist public administrators to strengthen strategic and operational performance. Core activities include executive level training and development; applied research projects; short or long-term assistance with planning and performance improvement; and dissemination of effective practices. PPM supports improved public performance by providing real-world solutions to today’s public management problems. All activities are practitioner-oriented and customized for a wide range of state and local government settings. Funding for PPM projects comes from federal grants as well as state and local contracts.

Usery Workplace Research Group

14 Marietta St. N.W., 5th Floor
404-413-0880
uwrg.gsu.edu/

The W.J. Usery Workplace Research Group (UWRG) includes scholars at the Andrew Young School conducting research on the economics of the workplace, labor markets, education, health and related areas.
Activities include the annual Usery Distinguished Lecture Series, which brings the nation’s leading labor economists to the Andrew Young School. Research by UWRG faculty are circulated widely through the Usery Workplace Research Group Paper Series. UWRG sponsors Andrew Young School seminar speakers, plus various research activities and occasional research conferences on and off campus. UWRG activities are coordinated and financed through the W.J. Usery Chair of the American Workplace.

2020.05 Grades of C in Major/Minor/Concentration

With the exception of Criminal Justice, grades in all majors, concentrations, minors and policy/business area requirements, where applicable, require a grade of C or higher. The Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology accepts grades of C- to count toward its major and minor coursework.

2020.10 Transient Status at Other Institutions

Students enrolled in the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies who wish to take course work in transient status at another institution, whether as a full-time or part-time student, must have prior written approval from the Office of Academic Assistance if they wish to apply the credit to a degree program. A transient petition form should be submitted prior to registration.

2020.20 Directed Readings

Directed Readings courses in the various undergraduate programs are intended to allow students of proven performance to do independent study in a specific subject area. Enrollment in a directed readings course requires prior consent of the instructor. A maximum of one directed readings course may count toward fulfillment of degree requirements, and the course may not be substituted for a core course requirement. The subject of the independent study will be determined in consultation with the faculty member responsible for supervising the independent work. A faculty member may seek the assessment of a second faculty reader on any directed readings paper. Letter grades, rather than grades of S or U (satisfactory or unsatisfactory), will be assigned for all directed readings courses.

2020.30 Modification of Degree Requirements

Students may petition for modifications of the degree requirements of the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies. Degree modification petitions are granted only in the case of extenuating circumstances and only when an educationally acceptable substitution is proposed. Petition forms and information are available online at the following link: aysps.gsu.edu/oaa/student-forms.

Under certain conditions, an undergraduate or postbaccalaureate student may be admitted into a graduate course. To be eligible, an undergraduate student must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or higher and be within 18 semester hours of graduation; a postbaccalaureate student must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or higher in his or her undergraduate work as well as any graduate work taken at this or any other institution. Information is available at the following link: aysps.gsu.edu/oaa/student-forms.

Eligibility does not guarantee admission into a course. The interested student must apply through the Office of Academic Assistance for special graduate student status. Approval of that status requires the concurrence of the student’s academic advisor and the director of the Office of Academic Assistance. Once the status has been approved, the student is permitted to enroll in a graduate course only with the permission of the instructor and the chair of the department in which the course is taught.

2020.50 Awards and Honors

The Andrew Young School of Policy Studies recognizes the academic achievements and service of its students each spring semester at an Honors Day ceremony. A number of awards and honors are presented annually to outstanding undergraduate students, including the Judge Andrew A. Mickle Scholarship,

Scholarship Award, the Social Work Recognition Award, the Community Leadership in Social Work
Award, the Diane B. Davis Award, the Wanda K. Cardwell Award, the Outstanding M.S.W. Student Award, the Outstanding Part-time M.S.W. Student Award, Field Placement Awards, and the Social Justice Award.

2030 College-level Degree Requirements

All undergraduate programs offered by the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies are designed to comply with the University System of Georgia core curriculum requirements. The program requirements for Undergraduate Core Curriculum Areas A through E are listed in the “Core Curriculum” chapter of this catalog.

2050 Student Complaints, Petitions for Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals

The appeals procedure for students in the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies will follow different courses depending on the nature of the student’s appeal. Please refer to University Information Section under Polices and Disclosures in this catalog or visit deanofstudents.gsu.edu/student-assistance/student-complaints-petitions/ online for details.

2060 Student Organizations
Alpha Phi Sigma

The purposes of Alpha Phi Sigma shall be to recognize and promote high scholarship among students actively engaged in college study in the Criminal Justice area, to keep abreast of the advances in scientific research, to elevate the ethical standards of the Criminal Justice professions, and to establish in the public mind the benefit and necessity of education and professional training. To learn more about Alpha Phi Sigma contact Dr. Leah Daigle at ldaigle@gsu.edu. National website: www.alphaphisigma.org/.

Andrew Young Circle of Enterprising Scholars (AYCES)

AYCES is a brand new student club. The purpose of AYCES is to strengthen student relationships and develop professional skills while fostering a long term professional community within the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies. AYCES is open to any undergraduate or graduate student that AYSPS. To learn more, contact AYS Career Services and Alumni Relations (404-413-0069).

B.S.W. Social Work CLUB (Can Lead US Beyond)

The purpose of the Social Work Club at Georgia State University is to serve as a link between current social work students, prospective social work majors, faculty, and administration. The Social Work Club upholds the core values of the profession: service, social justice, dignity, and worth of the person, importance of human relationships, integrity, and competence while supporting the development of social, academic, and cultural awareness among undergraduate social work students. The Social Work club is also a community organization extending services beyond the limits of Georgia State, by providing needed services to groups within the University and the larger community. Visit their website for more information: socialwork.gsu.edu/student-engagement/bsw-social-work-club/.

Criminal Justice Student Association

The Criminal Justice Student Association (CJSA) is an organization open to all GSU students, regardless of their major, and especially to those who are interested in pursuing a career in criminal justice and related fields. It is our mission to advance the knowledge and understanding of crime and justice, as well as to facilitate networking and career building activities, in order to create a more cohesive and professional student criminal justice community. We seek to provide forums that focus on the interaction between students, faculty, program alumni, professionals employed in the wide field of criminal justice, and members of the broader community. We are committed to developing networks with future criminal justice employers, the Georgia State Student Government Association, and faculty members in the Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology. Membership brings students and the community together to promote awareness of criminal justice issues in society. Being a member of the CJSA is a great way to get involved on campus and in the Atlanta community, to help develop team building and leadership skills, and to meet other individuals interested in criminal justice issues. For more information visit our website at: criminaljustice.gsu.edu/student-resources/student-organizations/criminal-justice-student-association/ and like us on Facebook at facebook.com/groups/gsucjsa/.

The Economics Club

The aim of this chartered organization is to promote knowledge of economics on campus and in the community through its activities, and provide a forum where students with similar interests can meet, share ideas, socialize, and enhance their knowledge. Membership is open to all students interested in economics, regardless of their major. The club’s many activities include a guest speaker series that brings noted economists and business leaders to the campus, seminars focusing on career information, and social events. For more information, contact the Department of Economics, 404-413-0141 or visit the Economics Club website: aysps.gsu.edu/economics/economics-club/.

The Nonprofit Leadership Alliance Club

The Department of Public Management and Policy in the Andrew Young School is affiliated with the Nonprofit Leadership Alliance, a national alliance of colleges, universities and nonprofit organizations dedicated to strengthening the leadership of the social sector and sustaining the ability of nonprofits to fulfill their mission with a talented and prepared workforce. The NLA Club focuses on professional leadership development, fundraising, and career networking within the nonprofit community. While optional, students are strongly encouraged to pursue NLA’s Certified Nonprofit Professional (CNP) credential by meeting the NLA national office’s five requirements. These requirements include:

1. Completing a bachelor’s degree;
2. Demonstrating proficiency in NLA’s 10 competencies;
3. Demonstrating Leadership & Service;
4. Completing a 300-hour internship; and
5. Attending one AMI (NLA’s annual national conference in January).

This club is open to all Georgia State majors (undergraduate and graduate) who are interested in working and/or volunteering in a nonprofit environment. For more information about meeting times and a calendar of events, please visit their website at pmap.gsu.edu/student-organizations/nonprofit-leadership-alliance-student-organization/.

Phi Alpha Social Work Honor Society

Students within the School of Social Work are eligible for induction into the Phi Alpha Honor Society for Social Work. The Georgia State School of Social Work Chapter is Omicron Gamma, and was chartered in November 2007. Undergraduate membership requirements include being a social work major, achieving sophomore status, completing 8 semester hours of required social work course, and achieving an overall 3.0 GPA and a 3.25 social work GPA. Membership meetings are held twice yearly; once in the Fall and again in the Spring semesters. For more information please visit their website at: socialwork.gsu.edu/phi-alpha-honor-society/.

2070 Academic Departments and Faculty

The Andrew Young School of Policy Studies is composed of four academic departments: Criminal Justice and Criminology, Economics, Public Management and Policy, and the School of Social Work.

Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology

1201 Urban Life Building
404-413-1020
The Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree in criminal justice provides a broad range of study into the criminal justice and legal fields. In particular, the program offers two separate curriculum tracks: 1) the crime and justice track and 2) the legal track. Course offerings in each track, along with the completion of their internship experience, prepare students for their professional career in criminal justice or law. The Master of Science (M.S.) degree in criminal justice represents a broad range of study designed to meet the academic needs of students seeking further graduate education, pre-professional students, and those already employed in the wide range of agencies that make up the criminal justice and juvenile justice systems. The Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) degree program in criminal justice and criminology provides additional in-depth training in criminological theory, as well as advanced statistics and research methodology. The Ph.D. program prepares students for careers in research, teaching, management, and community service.

In each degree program, the focus of study includes the justice system as well as the nature, causes, and control of criminal behavior. The requirements of degree programs in this department stress an integrated view of the criminal justice system. In this view, all components of the system interrelate with all other components to provide coordinated justice administration. The curriculum is designed to give students an understanding of the developing theoretical knowledge base in this area of study, while simultaneously providing an understanding of how each of the component parts relates in forming the justice system, and how offenders and victims fit within it.

In addition, students learn how the justice system influences, and is influenced by other institutions in society. An adequately functioning criminal justice system participates in appropriate structuring of legislation, providing information and education within the system and to the public, crime prevention, psychological counseling, and prisoner rehabilitation. Also included among its many roles is work with juveniles, quantitative and qualitative scholarly research, guidance to probationers and parolees, assistance to citizen groups and crime victims, and many other tasks.

Students' learning in the classroom is enhanced as members of the faculty bring forth a myriad of expertise in criminal justice and criminology. Currently, faculty research topics include but are not limited to sex differences in criminality and criminal justice processing; specialty courts; community policing; public defense systems; domestic violence; elder abuse; sexual harassment; comparative criminal justice; drugs and crime; homicide co-victimization; legal issues in policing; evaluation research; community differences in the nature of crime; place-based criminology; private security; electronic monitoring; informal social control; domestic terrorism; homeland security; healthcare fraud; mental health; organizational misconduct; juvenile delinquency and youth violence; criminological theory; active offender decision-making; drug markets and urban violence; crime victimization; and community corrections. Faculty members conduct research drawing on their expertise in a variety of quantitative and qualitative research methods, thus allowing them to bring not only their topical expertise, but also their methodological experience into the learning environment.

Department of Economics
Prefix: ECON

Georgia State’s Department of Economics, recently ranked number one in Georgia by the Southern Economic Journal, has won national acclaim for its insightful research into practical economic topics. Its concentrations in environmental and labor economics, urban and regional economics and public finance are setting new academic standards in programs of study that combine solid research with practical policy education.

Students in our program have access to innovative research resources on campus, including the Experimental Economics Lab, the Fiscal Research Center, the International Center for Public Policy, the Economic Forecasting Center, and the Georgia Health Policy Center. Faculty in these centers work closely with local, state, national and international organizations to provide the information needed to address today’s complex policy issues.

A Bachelor’s degree in Economics provides students with the resources to be leaders and innovators, as well as a broad understanding of economic issues. Undergraduate majors may choose from four degree options: the Bachelor of Arts with a major in Economics, which includes a language option and a minor field; the Bachelor of Science with a major in Economics, which includes math to the calculus level and a minor field; the Bachelor of Arts with a major in International Economics and Modern Languages, which includes intensive study in a language to prepare international professionals; and the Bachelor of Business Administration with a major in Business Economics, including course work in business-related topics such as accounting, marketing and finance (the “business core”). A minor in Economics consists of 15 semester hours with at least nine semester hours at the upper level. Graduate degrees are available in economics, economics with a policy track, and business economics.

Prefix: PMAP

The Department of Public Management and Policy offers a variety of interdisciplinary degree programs designed to prepare students for life and work in a range of professions in metropolitan areas. At the undergraduate level, the department offers a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in public policy which includes a choice of concentrations in nonprofit leadership, planning and economic development, and public management and governance. Minors are available in nonprofit leadership, planning and economic development, and public policy. All minors require 15 semester hours of credit. The department also offers a Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies (BIS) in Social Entrepreneurship. The BIS in Social Entrepreneurship prepares students to become agents and leaders of social change who will transform communities through innovative problem solving and business approaches.

Dr. Mark D. Reed, Undergraduate Program Coordinator

The Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice focuses on the study of the criminal justice system and its component parts, as well as the causes and consequences of crime. The degree program stresses an integrated view of the criminal justice system, highlighting relationships between system components in service provision and how the justice system influences/is influenced by other societal institutions. The curriculum is designed to provide students with a developing theoretical knowledge base in studies of crime and criminal justice, focusing on examining the system and its parts, as well as the roles of victims and offenders. The curriculum also is designed to provide students with a liberal arts education that focuses on basic skills, such as the abilities to read critically, write clearly, speak effectively, and think analytically. The curriculum is broadly structured to meet the academic needs of pre-professional students, those already employed in the wide range of agencies that compose the criminal and juvenile justice systems, and those pursuing graduate education.

Students’ classroom experiences are enhanced through the research expertise of the criminal justice faculty. Currently, faculty research topics highlight sex differences in criminality and criminal justice processing; specialty courts; public defense systems; community policing; problem-oriented policing; domestic violence; violence by and against people with mental illness; elder abuse; sexual harassment; comparative criminal justice; drugs, crime and public policy; homicide investigation; homicide co-victimization; sexual victimization; legal issues in policing; the collateral consequences of mass incarceration; evaluation research; community differences in the nature of crime; informal social control; juvenile delinquency and youth violence; active offender decision-making; and suburban crime and urban violence. Faculty members use a variety of quantitative and qualitative research methods, bringing not only topical knowledge but also methodological expertise into the learning environment.

Degree programs offered through the Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology include a Bachelor of Science in criminal justice, a Master of Science in criminal justice, and a doctorate in criminology and criminal justice. The bachelor’s degree program complies with the core curriculum requirements of the University System of Georgia.

Mission

The Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology emphasizes issues of crime and justice occurring in urban environments from a multicultural, interdisciplinary perspective to inform science, policy, and practice. The mission of the Department is to produce students who are critical and ethical thinkers, knowledgeable about the issues of crime and justice, and prepared for leadership positions in public and private criminal justice.

Program Admission

There are no admission requirements specific to the Bachelor of Science degree program in Criminal Justice beyond the admission requirements to the University.

Program Financial Information

No special fees are associated with the Bachelor of Science degree program in Criminal Justice. Students must pay all tuition and fees required by the University.

Program Academic Regulations

1. The Department has two academic track options: Crime and Justice Track or Legal Track. The Crime and Justice Track provides a traditional curriculum for criminal justice majors, while the Legal Track is designed for criminal justice majors desiring more intensive exposure to law often in preparation for law school. Students are automatically placed in the Crime and Justice Track unless they opt into the Legal Track.
2. Students must earn a grade of C or higher in CRJU 1100 (or equivalent transfer course and CRJU 2200) and C- or higher in all Area F-J, 2000 – 4000-level criminal justice courses to be eligible for a degree in Criminal Justice. Students must have an institutional grade point average of 2.0 at Georgia State (GSU) in order to graduate from the University.

3. Students must complete a minimum of 39 semester hours in 2000-4000-level criminal justice courses at Georgia State University. CRJU 1100/ CRJU 3100 is not included in this GSU CRJU residency requirement.

4. Students may transfer in a maximum of three (3) courses (e.g., 9 credits) in Areas F-I. Students must still meet the GSU CRJU residency requirement.

5. A student who has received a grade of D, F, or WF in an Area (G) (Foundations of Analyses) course may repeat the course up to two times. This allows the student a maximum of three attempts to successfully complete the course. Emergency Withdrawals will not count against course attempts; documentation that a hardship withdrawal was granted must be provided in the situation where a fourth attempt is requested.

6. Students should complete a majority of lower-division courses (Areas A – E) prior to taking 4000 level criminal justice courses.

7. Students should take or complete all Area F (Criminal Justice Core) courses before taking 4000 level criminal justice courses.

8. Students should be enrolled in or have taken all Area G (Foundations of Analyses) courses before enrolling in 4000 level criminal justice courses.

9. All criminal justice majors must complete an internship/capstone experience (CRJU 4930 and CRJU 4935) during their final semester in the program. These combined courses count for a total of nine (9) hours: CRJU 4930 at 3 hours and CRJU 4935 at 6 hours. Students will complete 180 hours at an internship agency as part of the requirements in CRJU 4935. Placement with an agency that deals with sensitive information may require a background investigation, which can include checks for prior arrests and convictions, abuse of illegal drugs, and DUI convictions. If students have a criminal record either before they declare their major or acquire a criminal record after declaring their major, they might be prohibited from participating in the internship. Since the internship is a requirement, students might be excluded from the degree program by the internship coordinator or department chair. A thorough description of the internship program is found at criminaljustice.gsu.edu/student-resources/internship-program/.

10. The Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology believes that all students in the internship program (criminal justice seminar and field placement) must be personally and psychologically equipped as well as academically prepared. A student may be denied entry into an intern field experience based on departmental prerequisites or the professional judgment of faculty based on observed performance, behavior, or documentation that indicates erratic, unpredictable, or unsuitable conduct. This policy is based on the premise that criminal justice faculty should be part of the evaluation of a student’s ability to function adequately and safely in a criminal justice setting and that the faculty has a right and responsibility to make such judgments prior to placing a student in an internship.

11. The internship coordinator or department chair may remove a student from an internship site if circumstances arise at the site that pose an unforeseen danger to the student’s welfare or an unforeseen risk of liability to the student, faculty, or Department. If the reason for the move is not the fault of the student, the internship coordinator shall make reasonable efforts to assist the student with finding a new placement agency. If it is not possible to secure placement with a new agency the student will receive a grade of incomplete and be required to re-enroll in the field placement course the following academic semester. The internship coordinator and department chair also have authority to withdraw a student from a classroom and/or field experience (i.e., CRJU 4930, CRJU 4935) if the student’s performance constitutes a detriment to other students in the class and/or to personnel at the field internship site, or if the student is arrested, convicted, and/or violates the agency’s workplace rules, policies, or procedures. If a student is withdrawn due to academic misconduct, the student will be given an F in both the course(s) and may be subjected to discipline through the University’s academic discipline process. Students terminated from their internships by their host agency, or removed by the Department for inappropriate behavior, will receive a failing grade for both CRJU 4930 and CRJU 4935. In this event they may not administratively withdraw from the courses and will receive a grade of “WF” rather than “W” for both courses should they attempt to withdraw from the courses prior to the term’s midpoint.

12. All applications for the internship program must be completed online at criminaljustice.gsu.edu/student-resources/internship-program and submitted to the AYS Office of Academic Assistance (OAA). OAA shall determine each student’s eligibility to intern and shall forward a list of approved students to the Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology internship coordinator. Without exception, all applications must be submitted by the following dates in order for students to be considered for placement in the specified semester: February 15 for Fall semester; May 15 for Spring semester; September 15 for Summer semester.

For information about the B.B.A. degree with a major in business economics offered by the J. Mack Robinson College of Business, please refer to that college’s chapter in this catalog.
Economics provides a way of thinking about everyday decision-making in a world of limited options. It explains the economy as a whole; how it is best organized to provide goods, services, jobs, stable prices, and other economic goals. Economists study the ways a society distributes scarce resources such as land, labor, raw materials, and machinery to produce goods and services choices that must be made because time, income, wealth, workers, and natural resources are limited. Principles of economics are useful at all levels of decision-making, and provide an essential framework for analyzing and understanding such major issues as inflation, unemployment, deregulation of banking, tax reform, fluctuations in foreign exchange rates, labor productivity, and foreign debt crises.

Most economists are concerned with practical applications of economic policy in a particular area. They use their understanding of economic relationships to advise businesses and other organizations, including insurance companies, banks, securities firms, computer and data processing companies, management consulting firms, industry and trade associations, labor unions, and government agencies. Some economists work abroad for companies with international operations and for organizations like the World Bank and United Nations.

Economists use mathematical models to develop programs that predict, for example, the nature and length of business cycles, the effects of inflation on the economy, or the effects of tax legislation on unemployment levels. Preparing reports on the results of their research is an important part of the economist's job. Being able to present economic concepts in a meaningful way is particularly important for economists who are involved in making policy for their organizations.

The student with a major or minor in economics may choose from a broad array of topics including foreign trade, environmental and natural resources economics, money and credit, public sector economics, labor economics, economic development, international finance, urban and regional economics, economic history, industrial organization and antitrust policies, and mathematical economics. Majors may pursue careers in many areas, some of which are listed below along with courses applicable to the career choice.

Career Opportunities and Related Courses: A recent study by the U.S. Census Bureau showed that college graduates who majored in economics were among the highest paid employees (economics ranked as the third most lucrative major). An undergraduate degree in economics furnishes a valuable background for a domestic or international career in law, government, business or education. Government service provides many opportunities at the federal, state, and local level that require only an undergraduate degree in economics. What economists do in business is as broad and varied as the full scale of managing a firm’s operations; economists are found in staff departments handling marketing, business planning and policy, finance, international operations, government relations, and even purchasing and operating logistics. An economics degree also combines well with training in other disciplines such as finance, real estate, political science, journalism, history, law, and foreign languages.

Students who plan to have a career or pursue graduate work that uses economics should consider the courses linked at economics.gsu.edu/files/2014/12/ECON-Recommended-Economic-Courses.pdf. The listings are suggestions for broad categories and do not exclude other offerings. These suggestions do not replace advisement or override any degree requirements regarding choices of major or elective courses.

A Top Ranked Program: The Department of Economics is ranked 1st in Georgia, and 9th among 33 Southeastern programs, and 50th in the U.S., according to a recent issue of the Southern Economic Journal, with considerably higher national rankings in the subfields that our faculty selected as primary areas of concentration, including: 8th in Urban, Rural and Regional Economics; 11th in Public Economics; 20th in Agricultural and Natural Resource Economics; 23rd in Labor and Demographic Economics. The department also got high marks in general Economics and teaching (14th), methodology and History of Economic Thought (16th).

Program Admission

There are no admission requirements above the requirements for admission to the University for enrollment in the B.A. or B.S. with a major in Economics or the B.A. with a major in International Economics and Modern Languages.

Program Financial Information

There are no additional fees other than the tuition and fees charged by the University for enrollment in these programs.

Program Degree Requirements

For degree credit, a minimum grade of C must be attained in ENGL 1101 and ENGL 1102, in all courses in the major common core curriculum, policy/business and minor for the B.A. and B.S. degrees with a major in Economics, and in all courses in the major common core curriculum and modern languages concentration for the B.A. with a major in International Economics and Modern Languages.

2110.10 Bachelor of Arts Major in Economics

Complete descriptions of requirements for Areas A through E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum can be found in the “University Degree Requirements and Graduation” chapter of this catalog. The number of semester hours credit required for each section is shown in parentheses. Students may not receive both a B.A. and a B.S. degree from the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies with a major in economics.

Area A: Essential Skills (9)

Area B: Institutional Options (4)

Area C: Humanities and Fine Arts (6)

Area D: Math, Technology and Science (11)

Area E: Social Science (12)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

- ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics
- ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics
- MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics – If taken in Area D, a 1000/2000 level elective from Areas A-E may be substituted.
- Foreign language sequence requirement (6): 1001/1002 or 2001/2002. Choose from Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Latin, Portuguese, Persian, Russian, Swahili, Spanish, or Turkish. A combined course, FREN 1101 or SPAN 1101, will satisfy the Area F requirement. If part of your sequence was used in Area C, you must choose an additional 1000/2000 level elective from Areas A-E.

- Elective: One 1000/2000 level course chosen from Areas A-E.

Area G: Major Common Core Curriculum (24). A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

- ECON 3900 Macroeconomics-CTW
- ECON 3910 Microeconomics
- ECON 4999 Senior Capstone in Economic Policy*
- Choose five 4000 level ECON courses (15)*

*The prerequisites for ECON 4999 are ECON 3900, ECON 3910, and two 4000-level economics courses with a grade of C or better. Students are to plan accordingly with regard to the course prerequisites and graduation.

Students accepted into the dual program B.A. Economics and M.A.T. Social Studies Education are eligible to complete the 7000-level versions of the economics undergraduate classes and have them count toward both the B.A. and M.A.T. degrees. Students in this program should take twelve semester hours (12) of 7000-level economics courses to count in place of some of the fifteen semester hours (15) of 4000-level economics courses required in area G. It is recommended that students include ECON 7100 Economics for Teachers in their 7000-level economics courses.

Students accepted into the dual program B.A. Economics and M.A. Economics are eligible to complete graduate-level versions of the economics undergraduate classes and have them count toward both the B.A. and M.A. degrees. Students in this program should take twelve semester hours (12) of graduate-level economics courses to count in place of some of the fifteen semester hours (15) of 4000-level economics courses required in area G.

Area H: Policy/Business (6). A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

Select two courses from the following three topic areas: Both courses cannot be taken from the same topic area, and courses may not be from the department in which the student is receiving the minor.

1. Policy:
   - CRJU 3030 Criminal Justice and Public Policy
   - GEOG 4762 Economics Geography

   - [SPCH 3210] Business and Professional Communication
   - EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities
Area I: Minor (15). The 15 semester hours in the minor must include nine semester hours at the 3000/4000 level. A grade of C or higher is required in all minor courses. The minor area must consist of 15 semester hours in one department/school/institute other than the major. For some minors, the department/school/institute has designated specific courses that must be completed to constitute the minor.

Area J: Electives (15). These 15 semester hours must include six semester hours at the 3000/4000 level. Elective courses to complement the major are selected in consultation with the faculty advisor or undergraduate academic advisor in the University Advisement Center or Office of Academic Assistance.

 Students accepted into the dual program B.A Economics and M.A.T Social Studies Education should enroll in EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities (3) and six hours of graduate-level courses in the College of Education and Human Development. EXC 4020 can count in area H of the B.A. Economics degree program. The additional six hours of graduate-level courses in the College of Education and Human Development should be selected in consultation with the student’s academic advisor, and can count in area J of the B.A. Economics Degree program.

Students accepted into the dual program B.A Economics and MA Economics should enroll in nine hours of graduate level economics courses. The additional nine hours of graduate level economics courses should be selected in consultation with the Department of Economics MA program director, and can count in area J of the B.A. Economics Degree program.

Total Semester Hours for Degree: 120

2110.11 Bachelor of Science Major in Economics

Complete descriptions of requirements for Areas A through E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum can be found in the “University Academic Regulations” chapter of this catalog. The number of semester hours credit required for each section is shown in parentheses.

Area A: Essential Skills (9)

Area B: Institutional Options (4)

Area C: Humanities and Fine Arts (6)

Area D: Math, Technology and Science (11)

Area E: Social Science (12)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

- ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics
- ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics
- MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics – If taken in Area D, a 1000/2000 level elective from Areas A-E may be substituted.
- MATH 1220 Survey of Calculus
Electives: Two 1000/2000 level courses from Areas A-E.

Area G: Major Common Core Curriculum (24). A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

- ECON 3900 Macroeconomics-CTW
- ECON 3910 Microeconomics
- ECON 4950 Econometrics and Applications
- ECON 4999 Senior Capstone in Economic Policy*
- Choose four 4000-level courses (12)

*The prerequisites for ECON 4999 are ECON 3900, ECON 3910, and two 4000-level economics courses with a grade of C or better. Students are to plan accordingly with regard to the course pre-requisites and graduation.

Students accepted into the dual program B.A. Economics and M.A.T. Social Studies Education are eligible to complete the 7000-level versions of the economics undergraduate classes and have them count toward both the B.A. and M.A.T. degrees. Students in this program should take twelve semester hours (12) of 7000-level economics courses to count in place of some of the fifteen semester hours (15) of 4000-level economics courses required in area G. It is recommended that students include ECON 7100 Economics for Teachers in their 7000-level economics courses.

Students accepted into the dual program B.A. Economics and M.A. Economics are eligible to complete graduate-level versions of the economics undergraduate classes and have them count toward both the B.A. and M.A. degrees. Students in this program should take twelve semester hours (12) of graduate-level economics courses to count in place of some of the fifteen semester hours (15) of 4000-level economics courses required in area G.

Area H: Policy/Business (6). A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

Select two courses from the following three topic areas. Both courses cannot be taken from the same topic area, and courses may not be from the department in which the student is receiving the minor.

1. Policy:
   - CRJU 3030 Criminal Justice and Public Policy
   - GEOG 4762 Economic Geography

- SW 3930 Social Welfare Policy

2. Math/Business:
   - MATH 3000 Bridge to Higher Mathematics
   - MATH 3260 Differential Equations
   - MATH 3435 Introductory Linear Algebra
   - MATH 4211 Optimization
   - MATH 4265 Partial Differential Equations
   - MATH 4435 Linear Algebra
   - MATH 4547 Introduction to Statistical Methods
   - MATH 4548 Methods of Regression and Analysis of Variation
   - MATH 4661 Analysis I
   - MATH 4662 Analysis II
   - MATH 4751 Mathematical Statistics I
   - MATH 4752 Mathematical Statistics II
   - ACCT Any 3000/4000 course
   - BCOM Any 3000/4000 course
   - CIS Any 3000/4000 course
   - FI Any 3000/4000 course
   - IB Any 3000/4000 course
   - MGS Any 3000/4000 course
   - MK Any 3000/4000 course
   - RMI Any 3000/4000 course

3. Skills:
   - CPS 3300 Interpersonal Skills
   - ENGL 3130 Business Writing
   - LGLS 3020 Introduction to the Law
   - LGLS 4050 Principles of Business Law

   - [SPCH 3210] Business and Professional Communication
   - EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities

Area I: Minor (15). The 15 semester hours in the minor must include nine semester hours at the 3000/4000 level. A grade of C or higher is required in all minor courses. The minor area must consist of 15 semester hours in one department/school/institute other than the major. For some minors, the department/school/institute has designated specific courses that must be completed to constitute the minor.

Area J: Electives (15). These 15 semester hours must include six semester hours at the 3000/4000 level.

Students accepted into the dual program B.A Economics and M.A.T Social Studies Education should enroll in EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities (3) and six hours of graduate-level courses in the College of Education and Human Development. EXC 4020 can count in area H of the B.A. Economics degree program. The additional six hours of graduate-level courses in the College of Education and Human Development should be selected in consultation with the student's academic advisor, and can count in area J of the B.A. Economics Degree program.

Students accepted into the dual program B.A Economics and MA Economics should enroll in nine hours of graduate level economics courses. The additional nine hours of graduate level economics courses should be selected in consultation with the Department of Economics MA program director, and can count in area J of the B.A. Economics Degree program.

Elective courses to complement the major are selected in consultation with the faculty advisor or undergraduate advisor in the University Advisement Center or Office of Academic Assistance.

Total Semester Hours for Degree: 120

Concentration in Social Studies Education

The Social Studies Education Concentration in Economics is designed for students who wish to become secondary school teachers. This degree provides the initial content area preparation for the Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) in Social Studies Education in the College of Education and Human Development at Georgia State or a similar master's degree at another university. For teacher certification, the student must also complete the M.A.T. in Social Studies Education or a similar master's degree at another university.

The Social Studies Education Concentration in Economics is designed to provide students with the content area preparation required for teaching economics and other social studies courses at the middle and high school levels. Students pursuing this concentration must take 21 hours in economics and must also choose three allied fields from the following departments, taking nine hours in each (for a total of 27 hours in allied fields): African-American studies, geography, history, political science, and only one of the behavioral science departments of sociology, anthropology, or psychology.

Area G: Major Courses (21): A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses.

- ECON 3900 Macroeconomics -CTW (3)
- ECON 3910 Microeconomics (3)
- ECON 4999 Senior Capstone in Economic Policy (3)*
- Choose four 4000 level economics courses (12)

*The prerequisites for ECON 4999 are ECON 3900, ECON 3910, and two 4000-level economics courses with a grade of "C" or better. Students are to plan accordingly with regard to the course prerequisites and graduation.
Area H: Allied Fields (27): The student must take a total of 27 hours in three allied fields (nine hours in each field). The allied fields are political science, geography, history, or behavioral science. The behavioral science field consists of nine hours from anthropology, psychology, or sociology. The student should see each department’s list for the courses to be taken in the nine hours for that discipline.

Area I: Electives (12): These 12 semester hours must be at the 3000/4000 level. Elective courses to complement the major are selected in consultation with the faculty mentor or undergraduate advisor in the University Advisement Center or Office of Academic Assistance.

Total Semester Hours for Degree: 120

Economics as an Allied Field (9): If a student chooses economics as one of their three allied fields, three courses must be chosen from the following two lists: At least one course must be taken from each list.

1. Macroeconomics & Policy – These courses have ECON 2105 as a prerequisite:
   - ECON 3900 Macroeconomics-CTW
   - ECON 4500 Money and Credit
   - ECON 4600 Economic Development
   - ECON 4810 International Finance

2. Microeconomics & Policy – These courses have ECON 2106 as a prerequisite:
   - ECON 3910 Microeconomics
   - ECON 4210 Health Economics
   - ECON 4220 Environmental Economics and Policy
   - ECON 4230 Experimental Economics
   - ECON 4300 Economics of Cities
   - ECON 4350 Economics of Poverty and Public Policy
   - ECON 4400 Public Sector Economics
   - ECON 4470 Industrial Organizations: Regulation and Antitrust Economics
   - ECON 4800 International Trade
   - ECON 4960 Economics of Work and Pay

2110.12 Minor in Economics:

Students who wish to minor in economics must take 15 semester hours of courses in economics, with at least nine of those semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 semester hours in courses in economics may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. (A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor).

2120 International Economics and Modern Languages

2120.10 Bachelor of Arts Major in International Economics and Modern Languages

Complete descriptions of requirements for Areas A through E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum can be found in the “University Academic Regulations” chapter of this catalog. The number of semester hours credit required for each section is shown in parentheses.
Area A: Essential Skills (9)

Area B: Institutional Options (4)

Area C: Humanities and Fine Arts (6)

Area D: Math, Technology and Science (11)

Area E: Social Science (12)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

- ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
- ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
- MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3) – If taken in Area D, a 1000/2000 level elective from Areas A-E may be substituted.
- Elective (3): One 1000/2000 level course chosen from Areas A-E. Students with a language concentration in Spanish must choose SPAN 2203 or 2501 as the Area F elective.
- Foreign Language (6) – select one of the following three language options:
  1. Chinese:
     - CHIN 2001 Intermediate Chinese I
     - CHIN 2002 Intermediate Chinese II
  2. French:
     - FREN 2001 Intermediate French I
     - FREN 2002 Intermediate French II
  3. German:
     - GRMN 2001 Intermediate German I
     - GRMN 2002 Intermediate German II
  4. Italian:
     - ITAL 2001 Intermediate Italian I
     - ITAL 2002 Intermediate Italian II
  5. Spanish:
     - SPAN 2001 Intermediate Spanish I
     - SPAN 2002 Intermediate Spanish II

Note: Students who have not already attained elementary-level proficiency in their chosen language will be required to take prerequisite courses: CHIN, FREN, GRMN, ITAL, or SPAN 1001 and/or 1002. In that case, the 1002 language course may be used to satisfy 3 semester hours of core requirements in Area C, Humanities and Fine Arts.

Students who have already attained intermediate-level competency in the primary language may substitute 1000/2000 level courses in another language for CHIN, FREN, GRMN, ITAL, or SPAN 2001/2002 (or SPAN 2203 or SPAN 2501) upon approval of the Department of World Languages and Cultures advisor.

Area G: Economics Common Core Curriculum (24). A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.
o ECON 3900 Macroeconomics-CTW
o ECON 3910 Microeconomics
o ECON 4600 Economic Development
o ECON 4800 International Trade o ECON 4810 International Finance
o ECON 4999 Senior Capstone in Economic Policy*

Choose two 4000-level Econ courses (6)

*The prerequisites for ECON 4999 are ECON 3900, ECON 3910, and two 4000-level economics courses with a grade of C or better. Students are to plan accordingly with regard to the course pre-requisites and graduation.

Area H: Modern Languages Common Core (24). A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

1. Chinese Language and Society:

2121 Dual Degree and Certificate Programs in Economics

2121.10 B.S./B.A. Economics or BA in International Economics and Modern Languages/ M.A. in Economics Dual Degree Program

This dual degree program, allowing completion of both a bachelors degree and a masters degree in approximately 5 years, is available to undergraduates majoring in economics who have completed at least 30 hours of academic credit and who have earned a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.3. Students may apply to this program at any time after completing 30 hours but prior to completing 90 hours of undergraduate coursework. Applicants are applying for early acceptance into the M.A. in Economics program and therefore must submit the following documentation in addition to meeting the GPA requirement:
Final acceptance into the M.A. portion of the program will be contingent upon the following:

- Maintaining a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher;
- Completion of 90 hours towards the B.S./B.A. degree in Economics or B.A. in IEML.

The curriculum allows students to satisfy the content requirement of the M.A. program by enrolling in the 6000-level or 8000-level counterparts of the economics courses. Normally, students in their 4th year are enrolled in both the B.S. or B.A. and the M.A. programs, and will receive the B.S or B.A. after the 4th year. In the 5th year, students will take graduate courses and complete their M.A. research paper.

The M.A. Economics requirements are described more fully in the Department of Economics section 2050.20 of the Graduate Catalog. For more information on this program’s curriculum, please contact the Department of Economics.

Total Semester Hours for Dual Degree: 148

2121.20 B.S./B.A. Economics/ M.A.T. Social Science Education Dual Degree Program

This dual degree program, allowing completion of both degrees and teacher certification requirements in approximately 5 years, is available to undergraduates majoring in economics who have completed at least 30 hours of academic credit and who have earned a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.3. Students may apply to the option at any time after completing 30 hours, but prior to completing 90 hours of undergraduate coursework. Applicants are applying for early acceptance into the College of Education and Human Development’s M.A.T. program and therefore must submit the following documentation in addition to meeting the GPA requirement:

- Complete the B.S./M.A.T. or B.A./M.A.T. pre-application form. This will be kept on file in the Department of Economics and in the Office of Academic Assistance in the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies.
- 2-3 letters of recommendation: (a) one academic or professional letter; (b) one letter from someone who can evaluate the applicant’s personal qualifications, experience, and background in light of potential to work successfully with adolescents; (c) one letter from a current work supervisor, if applicable
- Documentation of previous work experience (résumé or curriculum vitae)
- Personal statement of goals and/or reasons for teaching
- Successful interview with appropriate program faculty in the Department of Economics and in the College of Education and Human Development

Final acceptance into the M.A.T. portion of the program will be contingent upon the following:
- Maintaining a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher;
- Completion of 90 hours towards the B.S. or B.A. degree in Economics;
- Submission of acceptable GRE scores;
- Filing an application to the M.A.T. program by the appropriate deadline.
- Submission of passing scores on the GACE Program Admission Assessment (or provide an exemption)

The curriculum allows students to satisfy the content requirement of the M.A.T. program by enrolling in the 7000-level counterparts of the economics courses. In addition, to meet the M.A.T. and teacher certification requirements, students will enroll in EXC 4020 and six hours of graduate-level courses required for the M.A.T. in satisfying nine hours of elective credits towards the B.S. or B.A. in Economics.

Normally, students in their 4th year are enrolled in both the B.S. or B.A. and the M.A.T. programs and will receive the B.S or B.A. after the 4th year. In the 5th year, students will take professional education courses (24 semester hours) and will focus on the student teaching requirements.

For more information on this program’s curriculum, please contact the Department of Economics. The M.A.T. requirements for Social Science Education are described more fully in the College of Education and Human Development section of the Graduate Catalog.

2125 Certificates in Economics

Certificates: The Department of Economics offers a certificate to students, which indicates that they have successfully completed (with a minimum grade of C) a concentration of economics courses in a specialty area. These certificates are conferred by the department and will not appear on official transcripts or diplomas from the university. Certificates are available to majors and non-majors.

Certificates are available in the following areas:

- Analytical Economics (choose 3 or 4 courses): ECON 4230, ECON 4750, ECON 4930, ECON 4950
- Business Policy Analysis (choose 3 of 4 courses): ECON 4470, ECON 4500, ECON 4950, ECON 4960.
- Development Economics (choose 3 of 4 courses): ECON 4600, ECON 4610, ECON 4620, ECON 2100 (may be used in core Area E).
- Economic History: ECON 4080, ECON 4680, and choose one 4000-level Economics Elective.
- The Economics of Urban Growth and the Quality of the Environment (choose 3 of 4 courses): ECON 4220, ECON 4300, ECON 4400, ECON 4600.
- Human Resource Economics (choose 3 of 4 courses): ECON 4210, ECON 4300, ECON 4350, ECON 4960.
- International Economics (choose 3 of 4 courses): ECON 4600, ECON 4800, ECON 4810, ECON 2100 (may be used in core Area E).
- Public Policy (choose 3 of 4 courses): ECON 4220, ECON 4350, ECON 4400, ECON 4470.

2130 Public Policy

Programs Offered:

1. B.S. in Public Policy
2. Minors in Policy Studies
   - Minor in Public Policy
   - Minor in Nonprofit Leadership
   - Minor in Planning & Economic Development

Program Admission

There are no admission requirements above the requirements for admission to the University for enrollment in the B.S. program with a major in Public Policy.

Program Financial Information

There are no additional fees other than the tuition and fees charged by the University for enrollment in this program.

Program Degree Requirements

For degree credit, a minimum grade of C must be attained in ENGL 1101, ENGL 1102, ECON 2105, ECON 2106, MATH 1070 and all courses in the major common core curriculum and the concentration.

2130.10 Bachelor of Science Major in Public Policy

Mission: The mission of the Public Policy program is to prepare students for roles as effective citizens and people who work in the public service. We seek talented and motivated students who want to develop the knowledge, skills and values required to become responsible and visionary leaders in a wide range of settings. While many graduates of our program choose to enter a career in the public sector or in nonprofit agencies, others make contributions to their community, state, and nation as active citizens in the civic and public arenas.

The career of the namesake of the School, Ambassador Andrew Young, illustrates how individuals can move from nonprofit organizations to public life and the private sector, while being a part of our increasingly global society. Students in the Bachelor of Science in Public Policy program learn about the institutions of a democracy and the ways in which policy making organizations relate to one another. Students acquire skills in policy writing, critical thinking, and analysis that are in demand by governmental agencies and nonprofit groups, as well as graduate and professional schools. Above all, they learn how to make a difference by becoming engaged in civic and public life.

Career Opportunities: A policy major can work as a city manager, community relations specialist, local or regional planner, policy analyst, environmental resource specialist, human resource manager, journalist, politician or campaign strategist, volunteer coordinator, nonprofit leader, or in many other exciting careers that make a difference.

Many graduates of the Bachelor of Science in Public Policy establish careers in public service. These alumni work in a variety of agencies including federal, state, and local governments as well as a number of public agencies. Others are employed in not-for-profit organizations that address many important needs. Some alumni work in the business world, but use the knowledge and skills from their Public Policy degree to become better, more active citizens in the civic and public arenas. The degree program also provides an excellent preparation for graduate study in law, public policy and administration, and related fields.

A Top Ranked Program: The Andrew Young School of Policy Studies (AYSPS) is nationally recognized as having one of the elite programs in the field of public policy and management. The U.S. News and World Report’s “2013 Edition America’s Best Graduate Schools” ranked the AYSPS 23rd overall among the 269 public affairs schools in the United States, and in the top 25 programs in the specialty areas of nonprofit management, public policy analysis and public management administration, and in the top 12 programs in public finance and budgeting, city management and urban policy, and information and technology management. A B.S. in Public Policy provides students the resources to be leaders and innovators in the public sphere for years after they have graduated from the program.

Complete descriptions of requirements for Areas A through E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum can be found in the “University Academic Regulations” chapter of this catalog. The number of semester credit hours required for each section is shown in parentheses.

Area A: Essential Skills (9)

Area B: Institutional Options (4)

Area C: Humanities and Fine Arts (6)

Area D: Math, Technology and Science (11)

Area E: Social Science (12)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (15):
   - ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (C or better) (3)
   - ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (C or better) (3)
   - MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (C or better) (3)
   - SOCI 1101 Introductory Sociology (3)
   - PSYC 1101 Introduction to Psychology (3)

2. Elective (3): One course chosen from the 1000-2000 level offerings of the College of Arts and Sciences, Robinson College of Business, College of Education and Human Development (with restrictions), or the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies.

Area G: Major Common Core Curriculum (21): C or better grade is required of all courses in this area.
* Internships are required for all undergraduate students lacking significant prior administrative experience in a public or nonprofit agency or a related organization. Internship experiences provide students the opportunity to apply concepts and skills associated with their curriculum. This opportunity for professional growth and development requires enrollment in three hours of PMAP 4941. The department’s internship coordinators assist in the search for an appropriate internship opportunity. Students are expected to take the lead in this search. Internship credit requires the completion of 200 hours of work. Students are free to work full-time or part-time, according to their needs and those of their internship sponsor. Many students find paid internships, but there are some unpaid internships available that are very desirable. Students should consider the value of the experience that an internship provides, in addition to the pay. Internship information and applications are available from the Department of Public Management and Policy, or the PMAP internship homepage on the web at http://aysps.gsu.edu/pmap-internship. Students with substantial prior administrative experience may petition to waive the internship requirement. Petition forms are available online through the Office of Academic Assistance at https://aysps.wufoo.com/forms/undergraduate-petition/.

Area H: Concentration (21): A C or better grade is required for all courses in this area.

Students must choose one concentration from:

- Nonprofit Leadership or
- Planning and Economic Development or
- Public Management and Governance

1. Nonprofit Leadership (21): The nonprofit leadership concentration allows students to learn about the important role of nonprofit organizations in addressing social issues and interests in a democratic society and participating in the formulation and implementation of public policy. Through this concentration, students will become aware of the many and diverse career opportunities in the nonprofit sector, in areas such as the arts, social services, education, health care, the environment, policy advocacy, and international relief and development. They will learn the skills, knowledge and challenges of leadership in this sector. This concentration involves a service learning component and will prepare students for entry level jobs in nonprofit management and for graduate study in nonprofit organizations, philanthropy, and related fields.

   a. Required Courses (15):

   - PMAP 3210 Introduction to the Nonprofit Sector
   - PMAP 3213 Nonprofit Financial Resources
   - PMAP 3231 Nonprofit Management and Leadership
   - PMAP 4211 Human Resource Management Systems in Public and Nonprofit Organizations
b. Concentration Courses (6) – select two courses from the following:

- PMAP 3211 Career Development in Public and Nonprofit Organizations
- PMAP 3411 Contemporary Planning
- PMAP 3801 Public Administration and Politics
- PMAP 4451 Economic Development Policy and Planning

2. Planning and Economic Development (21): The planning and economic development concentration prepares students to work in both the public and private sectors addressing issues facing urban communities. It is appropriate for students who want to pursue careers or further study in the planning, development and management of communities. Courses introduce students to forces shaping the development of urban regions. Special attention is paid to planning for economic development, environmental quality, housing, land use, neighborhood revitalization, and transportation. During their studies, students learn about the variety of policies and strategies that citizens and planners can use to influence development.

   a. Required courses (15):

- ECON 4300 Economics of Cities
- PMAP 3011 Policy and Politics in the American City
- PMAP 3411 Contemporary Planning
- PMAP 4401 Urban Demography and Analysis
- PMAP 4451 Economic Development Policy and Planning

   b. Concentration Electives (6) – select two courses from the following:

- ECON 4350 Economics of Poverty and Public Policy
- ECON 4600 Economic Development
- PMAP 3111 Urban Political Economy
- PMAP 4421 GIS Applications to Planning and Policy Analysis
- PMAP 3831 Governmental Budgeting
- PMAP 4301 Local Governance
- PMAP 4411 Introduction to the Law for Public and Nonprofit Managers

3. Public Management and Governance (21): How does government work, and what can we do to make it work better? The public management and governance concentration is for students who are excited about how government operates and how policies are converted into action. These are fascinating topics for those interested in improving the lives of citizens in communities and nations, and learning how to better address specific policy issues. Students in this concentration will also acquire the skills needed to compete for entry level jobs in governments, consulting firms, and with government contractors. This is the type of knowledge that would also be useful for students contemplating a professional degree in public administration, law, planning, or some type of policy research (think tanks, advocacy groups, universities, and/or lobbying organizations).

   a. Required courses (15):

- PMAP 3411 Contemporary Planning
- PMAP 3801 Public Administration and Politics
- PMAP 3831 Governmental Budgeting
- PMAP 4301 Local Governance
- PMAP 4451 Economic Development Policy and Planning

   b. Concentration Electives (6) – select two courses from the following:

- PMAP 3111 Urban Political Economy
- PMAP 3210 Introduction to the Nonprofit Sector
Area I: Approved Electives (18). Students are required to complete 18 credit hours of advisor approved electives to complete an undergraduate degree. These may be accumulated in any field of study outside the PMAP department. PMAP requires 9 hours (three classes) of these electives to be upper division 3000/4000 level classes, with all 18 hours requiring advisor approval. A grade of “C” or better is recommended for approval.

Total Semester Hours for Degree – 120

2130.11 Minors in Policy Studies

Three minors are offered through the Department of Public Management and Policy (PMA P).

1. Minor in Public Policy (15):
   This is the most general of the three minors offered in PMA P. A public policy minor can work as a city manager, community relations specialist, local or regional planner, policy analyst, environmental resource specialist, human resource manager, journalist, politician or campaign strategist, volunteer coordinator, nonprofit leader, or in many other exciting careers that make a difference. The minor allows students to select from public administration and leadership courses that will complement their major and their chosen career path, thereby opening doors into the public sector and broadening your employment opportunities beyond private (for profit) industry. Students wishing to minor in public policy should take 15 semester hours (5 courses) of PMA P courses at the 3000 level or above.
   Course Titles (15) – select five courses from the following:
   - PMA P 3011 Policy & Politics in the American City
   - PMA P 3021 Citizenship, the Community, & the Public Sector
   - PMA P 3031 Policy Leadership
   - PMA P 3111 Urban Political Economy
   - PMA P 3210 Introduction to Nonprofits
   - PMA P 3211 Career Development in Public & Nonprofit Organizations
   - PMA P 3213 Nonprofit Financial Resources
   - PMA P 3231 Nonprofit Leadership & Management
   - PMA P 3311 Critical Policy Issues – CTW
   - PMA P 3411 Contemporary Planning
   - PMA P 3801 Public Administration and Politics
   - PMA P 3831 Governmental Budgeting
   - PMA P 4041 Policy Data Analysis
   - PMA P 4051 Evaluating Public Policy
   - PMA P 4061 Introduction to Policy Analysis
   - PMA P 4211 Human Resource Management Systems in Public and Nonprofit Organizations
   - PMA P 4301 Local Governance
2. Minor in Nonprofit Leadership (15):

The nonprofit leadership minor allows students to learn about the important role of nonprofit organizations in addressing social issues and interests in a democratic society, and participating in the formulation and implementation of public policy. Through this minor, students will become aware of the many and diverse career opportunities in the nonprofit sector, in areas such as the arts, social services, education, health care, the environment, policy advocacy, and international relief and development, and they will learn the skills, knowledge and challenges of leadership in this sector. This minor will prepare students for entry level jobs in nonprofit management and for graduate study in nonprofit organizations, philanthropy, and related fields. The minor in nonprofit leadership requires 15 hours of coursework, which must include 3 credit hours of required courses and 12 additional credit hours from a list of pre-approved courses. Students are strongly encouraged to complete PMAP 4941 (Internship) as part of their minor.

a. Required course (3):
   - PMAP 3210 Introduction to the Nonprofit Sector

b. Electives (12) – select four courses from the following:
   - PMAP 3031 Policy Leadership
   - PMAP 3213 Nonprofit Financial Resources
   - PMAP 3231 Nonprofit Management and Leadership
   - PMAP 3411 Contemporary Planning
   - PMAP 3801 Public Administration and Politics
   - PMAP 4211 Issues/Probs Personnel Mgmt Syst Public & NP
   - PMAP 4411 Intro to the Law for Public & Nonprofit Managers
   - PMAP 4451 Economic Development Policy and Planning
   - PMAP 4941 Internship

Students who complete the courses marked with an asterisk are eligible to earn the Nonprofit Leadership Alliance national certificate in Nonprofit Leadership. To learn more about the Nonprofit Leadership Alliance, please visit our website at pmap.gsu.edu/student-organizations/nonprofit-leadership-alliance-student-organization/.

2130.15 Nonprofit Leadership Alliance Certificate in Nonprofit Management and Leadership

The Department of Public Management and Policy is affiliated with the Nonprofit Leadership Alliance, a national alliance of colleges, universities and nonprofit organizations dedicated to preparing graduates and undergraduates for careers in nonprofit leadership. Graduate and undergraduate students from all majors are welcome to learn more about the criteria for earning NLA’s Certified Nonprofit Professional (CNP) credential by visiting Georgia State University’s NLA website: pmap.gsu.edu/student-organizations/nonprofit-leadership-alliance-student-organization/.

2135 Social Entrepreneurship

Programs Offered:

1. Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies in Social Entrepreneurship

The BIS in Social Entrepreneurship prepares students to become agents and leaders of social change who will transform communities through innovative problem solving and business approaches. Social entrepreneurship is a growing movement in the nonprofit and business sectors that couples the resources generated by business activities with the social ambitions of nonprofit organizations. This joint program between the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies and the Robinson College of Business gives students the opportunity to draw on coursework spanning both the business and nonprofit worlds. In addition, students are able to choose from a host of courses across the university that relate to different social issues.

Students in the program can focus their attention on gaining the skills and knowledge necessary to work in or build a for-profit business with a social benefit or a nonprofit organization with a revenue-generating social venture. Core courses include entrepreneurship, nonprofit organization and management, and financial resource development, as well as an internship in a social enterprise. Students completing the degree become innovative participants in the social entrepreneurship movement that is developing sustainable solutions to problems on the local, national and international levels.

Learning objectives

- To understand social innovation and its emergence as a strategy for solving global problems.
- To learn conceptual frameworks and analytical techniques aimed at understanding the nature of the social value creation process.
- To understand the financial, legal and business framework of social enterprises.
- To develop skills needed to collaborate across disciplines to find innovative strategies to address global social problems and lead in the public sector.

Program Admission

There are no admission requirements above the requirements for admission to the University for enrollment in the B.I.S. program with a concentration in Social Entrepreneurship.

Program Financial Information

There are no additional fees other than the tuition and fees charged by the University for enrollment in this program.

Program Degree Requirements

Complete descriptions of requirements for Areas A through E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum can be found in the “University Academic Regulations” chapter of this catalog. The number of semester credit hours required for each section is shown in parentheses.

Area A through E: Undergraduate Core Curriculum (42)

Complete descriptions of requirements for Areas A through E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum can be found in the “University Academic Regulations” chapter of this catalog. In Area B, it is recommended that students take PERS 2002: Scientific Perspectives—Social Innovation & Enterprise for Global Problems.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

Students should enter the Social Entrepreneurship major having taken course prerequisites needed for entrance into their planned program of study. Below is a list of prerequisites for upper-level courses in the major or courses relevant to the major. If ECON 2105, ECON 2106, PSYC 1101, or SOCI 1160 is taken in Area E, any 1000/2000 level course may be substituted.

- ANTH 2020 Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (3)
- BUSA 2106 Legal Environment for Business (3)
- ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
- ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
- PSYC 1101 Introduction to Psychology (3)
- SOCI 1160 Introduction to Social Problems (3)
Area G: Major Common Core Curriculum (33): “C” or better grade is required of all courses in this area.

- BUSA 3090 Survey of Business Principles for Non-Business Students (3)
- ENI 3101 Entrepreneurial Thinking for Startups (3)
- ENI 3102 The Startup Venture (3)
- ENI 3103 Commercializing the Startup (3)
- ENI 4100 From Startup to Growth Company (3)
- PMAP 3031 Policy Leadership (3)
- PMAP 3210 Intro to the Nonprofit Sector (3)
- PMAP 3213 Nonprofit Financial Resources (3)
- PMAP 3231 Nonprofit Management & Leadership (3)
- PMAP 3311 Critical Policy Issues-CTW (3)
- PMAP 4941 Internship* (3)

* Internships are required for all undergraduate students lacking significant prior administrative experience in a public or nonprofit agency or a related organization. Internship experiences provide students the opportunity to apply concepts and skills associated with their curriculum. This opportunity for professional growth and development requires enrollment in three hours of PMAP 4941. The department’s internship coordinators assist in the search for an appropriate internship opportunity. Students are expected to take the lead in this search. Internship credit requires the completion of 200 hours of work. Students are free to work full-time or part-time, according to their needs and those of their internship sponsor. Many students find paid internships, but there are some unpaid internships available that are very desirable. Students should consider the value of the experience that an internship provides, in addition to the pay. Internship information and applications are available from the Department of Public Management and Policy, or the PMAP internship homepage on the web at pmap.gsu.edu/student-resources/. Students with substantial prior administrative experience may petition to waive the internship requirement. Petition forms are available online through the Office of Academic Assistance at ayps.wufoo.com/forms/undergraduate-petition/.

Area H: Concentration (18): A “C” or better grade is required for all courses in this area.

Choose six classes from any one concentration. Students may not take more than 12 credits in any one prefix. Students may petition the program director to add classes appropriate to the concentration if not listed.

2140 Social Work

Programs Offered:

1. Bachelor of Social Work

School of Social Work
1242 Urban Life Building
404-413-1050
socialwork.gsu.edu/

The B.S.W. program’s mission is to prepare students for generalist social work practice in a range of roles and services that deal with the existing and developing challenges that confront individuals, families, groups, and communities. The goals of the B.S.W. program are to graduate students who will be able to: (1) think critically and communicate effectively in the application of social work knowledge, skills, and values to entry-level generalist practice, and (2) practice as entry-level generalist social workers.
Successful completion of this program may lead to advanced standing in many accredited graduate programs of social work.

The competencies and practice behaviors of the B.S.W. program are designed to be consistent with the missions and goals of the B.S.W. program, the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies, and Georgia State University. They are aligned with the Council of Social Work Education's Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards.

B.S.W. Program Competencies:

1. Demonstrate ethical and professional behavior.
2. Engage diversity and difference in practice.
3. Advance human rights and social, economic, and environmental justice.
4. Engage in practice-informed research and research-informed practice.
5. Engage in policy practice.
6. Engage with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
7. Assess individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
8. Intervene with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
9. Evaluate Practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.

Program Admission

The requirements and procedures for admission to Georgia State University are summarized in the university section of this General Catalog. That application process permits a potential student to indicate the college in which the individual wishes to register upon acceptance and to indicate the intended major. Based upon that application, an individual may be accepted by the university and by the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies. Entering students who wish to major in social work begin their affiliation with the School of Social Work in a Pre-Social Work (P.S.W.) status. A later, separate application and decision process is required before a student can be formally accepted into the Bachelor of Social Work (B.S.W.) status. The priority application deadline is May 15 prior to the junior year. However, applications will be accepted after that date until August 1 on a space availability basis. (B.S.W. applications are NOT processed between August – December.)

Pre-Social Work (P.S.W.) Student

All students admitted to the School of Social Work begin as Pre-Social Work (P.S.W.) students and change their status only after the student has made formal application and formal admission has been granted. P.S.W. status is assigned to students who have not completed all lower-division courses in Areas A-F or have not met GPA eligibility requirements. To complete these areas, P.S.W. students must register only for the lower-division courses specified in their advisement files.

Bachelor of Social Work (B.S.W.) Student

For a student to be considered for B.S.W. status, the student must:

1. Be in good standing at Georgia State University with a minimum institutional GPA of 2.5.
2. File a formal application in the school for B.S.W. status.
3. Have grades of C or higher in English 1101 and 1102.
4. Have successfully completed Areas A through F (except SW 2000).
5. Have a minimum grade point average of 2.5 or better in the lower-division courses counted for completion of Areas A-F and a minimum grade of C or higher in SW 2000, if completed.

B.S.W. status indicates that a student has demonstrated commitment to professional social work and has been recognized by the school as being ready to utilize that commitment in the demanding preparation for practice in this field. A student with B.S.W. status is expected to internalize the values and ethics of social work and to develop and enhance professional practice skills. In this process, the B.S.W. student is expected to abide by the academic regulations related to the program as outlined in this catalog and in the school’s Student Handbook. Among those academic regulations is the requirement that a student have a grade of C (2.0) or better in each of the social work major courses that are required in Area G.

Entry into the B.S.W. program is a selective process on a space availability basis. A student who meets only the minimum GPA or other criteria is not necessarily guaranteed acceptance. Qualified students who are denied entry at one point in time will be placed on a competitive waiting list in the order of their denial to await possible access to the program at a subsequent time.

Program Financial Information

A $30 field site application is due by February 1st of the Junior year, no other special fees are associated with the Bachelor of Social Work program. Students must pay all tuition and fees required by the University.

Program Academic Regulations

Students in the School of Social Work are required to participate in academic advisement. Each entering B.S.W. student is assigned to a professional staff member in the University Advisement Center or in the college’s Office of Academic Assistance who serves as the student’s academic advisor. B.S.W. students should meet with that assigned academic advisor prior to registering for any courses, and those advisement appointments are available during any semester. When the student achieves B.S.W. status, the student will be reassigned to the director of the B.S.W. program for program advisement. The director of the B.S.W. program will be the advisor throughout the program. The student is expected to meet with the assigned academic advisor at least once each academic semester for the purpose of beginning or enhancing acculturation to the field of social work, as well as for sequencing course selections in accordance with school procedures. B.S.W. advisement appointments are scheduled only during the fall and spring semesters, so students are expected to plan accordingly.

Course sequencing in the B.S.W. program begins only in the fall semester, and a student is admitted to B.S.W. status in accordance with that schedule. P.S.W. and B.S.W. students are expected to follow the written course advisement plan developed in the advisement process, both in terms of course selections and in the sequencing of those courses. Deviations from the advisement plan without the written authorization of the assigned academic advisor or the B.S.W. program director may result in the school’s blocking future registrations that do not conform to the advisement plan or may result in an extension of their course of study. In addition to the review and possible withdrawal of a student from the program, as described in “Review of Academic and Professional Practice Demands,” a student who misses or fails a course but is permitted by the school to continue in the program must work closely with the assigned academic advisor. and the B.S.W. program director to determine the most appropriate point at which to continue degree-related course work. If a student in B.S.W. status is inactive for two academic semesters, the student will be returned to P.S.W. status and must file a new, competitive application to reenter the B.S.W. status.

Field Education

Field education is an integral component of the B.S.W. curriculum and involves the placement of social work students in educationally supervised agency settings. The primary purpose of field education is to enable students to integrate social work theory and practice through the direct application of social work knowledge, values, and skills. Field education provides opportunities to test and refine classroom learning in professional social work settings. B.S.W. students must have a minimum of 400 supervised hours of field education over a period of two consecutive semesters. Students are required to attend a classroom-setting field integrative seminar as part of their field education. The purpose of the integrative seminar is to provide field education students a forum for the synthesizing of classroom learning with their field-based internship.

Students may apply for field education only after lower-division and prescribed social work courses and other requirements have been satisfactorily completed, as explained in the school’s Student Handbook. Students enroll in field education for the fall-spring semesters. Field education applications must be turned in to the Director of Field Education by February 1st for the following fall semester placement.

Grant — Child Welfare

As funds are available, the School of Social Work, in partnership with the Georgia Department of Human Services, has scholarships available under the Title IV E, Child Welfare Scholars Program. The scholarship includes tuition and fees and a stipend. Recipients must take specific child welfare electives and must complete a field placement in a public child welfare setting. Upon graduation, recipients must commit to work for the Division of Family and Children Services on a year-for-year basis.

School of Social Work Policies and Procedures

Georgia State University is an equal educational opportunity institution. Faculty, staff, and students are admitted, employed, and treated without regard to race, sex, color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, or disability. Georgia State University complies with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, Sections 503/504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the American with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act, as well as other applicable federal and state laws.

Students should refer to the current Undergraduate Catalog to ensure compliance with university policies and procedures.

Codes of Ethics

All students admitted into the B.S.W. program are expected to read, understand, and follow the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) Code of Ethics. This code provides a set of values, principles, and standards to guide conduct and decision making when interacting with clients and colleagues and for when critical issues arise. A copy of the Code of Ethics can be found at the NASW website (www.naswdc.org)
Students admitted into the School of Social Work will be held by the academic standards set by the University and the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies. Students will be held to the professional standards set by the school and the National Association of Social Workers. Students should familiarize themselves with these requirements as found in the undergraduate and graduate catalogs for the university and the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies.

A. Academic Competence

Undergraduate students are required to maintain at least a grade of C (2.00) or better in each of the social work major courses in Area G, and be in academic good standing with the University (an institutional GPA of 2.00). In cases where a student has a grade of D or F in an Area G course, the student must meet with the B.S.W. Director and another faculty member of the B.S.W. Committee to determine whether the student is eligible to continue in the program. If the student is allowed to continue in the program, he or she must retake the course and receive a grade of C or higher. Due to course sequencing, graduation date may be postponed in this situation. Undergraduates must also complete a minimum of 400 hours of field placement.

B. Professional Competence

Georgia State University’s School of Social Work has the goal of educating competent social work practitioners. If a student fails to meet the standards set by the National Association of Social Workers and/or the School of Social Work, corrective action may be taken. Corrective action is intended to provide students and faculty with the opportunity to openly discuss problems and issues identified, and to seek a solution to correct the situation or problem presented. Dismissal from the program is an option and may supersede any discussion of corrective action. Professional incompetence signifies that a student is not adequately or appropriately performing at his or her program level.

Failure to comply with the policies and procedures of Georgia State University and/or the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies and/or the School of Social Work may result in a student’s dismissal from the program.

Program Degree Requirements

Semester hours are shown in parentheses following an entry. Requirements for Areas A through E of the undergraduate core curriculum are listed in the “Core Curriculum” chapter of this catalog. Only senior B.S.W. majors may take: SW 4100, SW 4200, SW 4500, SW 4900.

3000 College of Arts and Sciences

Undergraduate programs in the College of Arts and Sciences are described in detail in this chapter. See subsections for specific program information as well as policies and procedures.

3010 General Information

The College of Arts and Sciences consists of 23 departments and institutes within the areas of the humanities, the natural and computational sciences, and the social and behavioral sciences. The college has approximately 11,000 undergraduate majors and 2,000 graduate students. The college also has the primary responsibility for the two-year general education curriculum required of all students in the university.

At the undergraduate level, the College of Arts and Sciences offers the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science, and the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies. The requirements for these degrees build directly upon the broad educational foundation provided by the core curriculum.

The College of Arts and Sciences, through its Graduate Studies division, offers graduate degrees and programs in numerous fields. The university publishes a graduate catalog that includes complete descriptions of all of the graduate programs offered at Georgia State University (available online through the Office of the Registrar website: enrollment.gsu.edu/catalogs/).

Faculty from throughout the college and university collaborate on research and service activities through a variety of interdisciplinary ventures. Additional information on the interdisciplinary centers and programs based in and affiliated with the College of Arts and Sciences is available at cas.gsu.edu/faculty-research/interdisciplinary-research-service-centers/.

Accreditation

In the College of Arts and Sciences, the Department of Chemistry is accredited by the American Chemical Society, the Heritage Preservation Program in the Department of History by the National Council for Preservation Education, the programs in secondary education by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, and the graduate program in psychology by the American Psychological Association.

Degrees Offered

Undergraduate degree and certificate programs are offered through the Departments of African-American Studies, Anthropology, Applied Linguistics and English as a Second Language, Biology, Chemistry, Communication, Computer Science, English, Geosciences, History, Mathematics and Statistics, Philosophy, Physics and Astronomy, Political Science, Psychology, Religious Studies, Sociology, and World Languages and Cultures; and interdisciplinary institutes in the areas of Creative Media Industries, Gerontology, Global Studies, Neuroscience, and Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies.

In addition, undergraduate degree programs in secondary education for teachers of preschool through twelfth grade in world languages are offered through the College of Arts and Sciences. For application procedures and eligibility requirements, please refer to the “Teacher Preparation Programs” chapter of this catalog.

Bachelor of Arts (B.A.)

African-American Studies; Anthropology; Applied Linguistics; English; French; Geosciences; German; History; Journalism, Philosophy; Political Science, Psychology; Religious Studies; Sociology, Spanish; Speech Communication; Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

Bachelor of Science (B.S.)

Biological Sciences, Chemistry, Computer Science, Geosciences, Mathematics, Neuroscience, Physics, Psychology

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies (B.I.S.)

Asian Studies; Environmental Science; Game Design and Development; Gerontology; Global Studies; Italian Studies; Law and Society; Media Entrepreneurship; Middle East Studies; Philosophy, Politics, and Economics; Student-Planned. (See section 3030.50 below.)

Undergraduate Certificates

Geographic Information Science, Gerontology, Language Ability (in multiple world languages), Teaching English as a Foreign Language, Water Science

3010.10 Academic Resources and Services

Cartography Production Laboratory

340 Kell Hall
404-413-5750
geosciences.gsu.edu

The Cartography Production Laboratory, located in the Department of Geosciences, offers mapping and graphic services for the university community. Students have the opportunity to design and produce cartographic materials as an extension of the educational program in cartography offered by the Department of Geosciences. In addition to the Cartography Production Laboratory, the department maintains a Geographic Information Systems facility offering GIS services for the university.

Computer Science Tutoring Center

7th floor, 25 Park Place Bldg.
404-413-5700
www.cs.gsu.edu/?q=tutoring

The Computer Science Tutoring Center supports undergraduate instruction programs by providing tutorial assistance to students who are taking 2000/3000-level major courses in the Department of Computer Science.

ESL Tutoring

Library North 2

library.gsu.edu/learningcommons

The Department of Applied Linguistics and English as a Second Language and the Intensive English Program offer ESL tutoring for Georgia State students. ESL tutoring provides students an opportunity to receive expert assistance in improving their written and oral English skills. Check the ESL Tutoring Schedule at the Research Support Desk on Library North 2 for walk-in appointment times.

James M. Cox, Jr. New Media Instructional

307 Classroom South Building
404-413-5600

The Department of Communication’s James M. Cox, Jr., New Media Instructional Lab provides access to a computer-networked facility with 22 workstations. News writing and desktop publishing courses are enhanced through the use of interactive communication between instructors and students. A satellite downlink transmits CNN NewsSource and other national and international video feeds to students who write, edit, and package their own news stories.

Journalism Writing Lab

832 Twenty Five Park Place
404-413-5600

The Department of Communication’s Journalism Writing Laboratory provides tutorial support to students enrolled in journalism classes who wish assistance in improving their professional writing skills (including feedback on draft news reporting, public relations projects, and other related writing skills connected to media distribution. The lab is open during business hours on an open-access basis.
Language Acquisition and Resource Center
128 Langdale Hall
404-413-5987
wlc.gsu.edu/home/language-resources/language-acquisition-resource-center-larc/

The Language Acquisition and Resource Center (LARC) promotes the development of the student’s foreign language skills and provides added cultural and literary knowledge. The LARC offers a wide range of multimedia and audiovisual materials, including an international video collection, 50-station digital language computer lab, the most up-to-date instructional computer software available, and many other resources. A tutorial support program for students in elementary and intermediate language courses is also available.

Mathematics Assistance Complex
122 Kell Hall
404-413-6462
mathstat.gsu.edu/undergraduate/current-students/mac/

The Mathematics Assistance Complex supports undergraduate instruction programs by providing tutorial assistance to students who are taking lower-division courses in mathematics and statistics in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

The Mathematics Interactive Learning Environment
301 Urban Life Building
404-463-2780
mathstat.gsu.edu/undergraduate/current-students/mile/

Commons MILE
University Commons Complex
141 Piedmont Ave
404-413-5978

The Mathematics Interactive Learning Environment (The MILE) is designed to support and promote the development of the undergraduate student’s mathematics skill and knowledge by accommodating diverse student learning styles and building student confidence and success in early mathematics courses. The MILE provides student-centered, computer-assisted, self-paced tutorials that include streaming video lectures, tutorial exercises and assistance by faculty, graduate, and undergraduate assistants.

Military Science Leadership Lab

ROTC Leadership laboratory meets every Thursday for 3 hours from 1 to 4 p.m. and focuses on key leadership theory and skills. In addition, we integrate our classroom instruction and individualized leadership training and assessment. Major areas encompass leadership theory and application in problem solving, small group interaction, goal setting and accomplishment, and decision making. We focus on developing today’s best and brightest into tomorrow’s leaders, focusing on confidence, mental agility, sound judgment and getting results. As they progress through the ROTC Leadership Lab, they gain self confidence through practical application of leader skills. There will be some mandatory weekend events and one weekend field training exercise during each semester. Major areas of instruction include professional officer- ship, leadership values and ethics, and communication skills.

Writing Studio

23rd Floor, 25 Park Place Bldg. writingstudio.gsu.edu/
404-413-5840

The Writing Studio offers space for conversation, coffee, and writers, by creating a welcoming community for undergraduate and graduate students to practice the art of writing. Its purpose is to enhance the writing instruction that happens in academic classrooms by pairing writers with an experienced Reader. Readers, Graduate Assistants in the department of English, engage student writers in talk about their writing assignments and ideas, and familiarize them with audience expectations and academic genre conventions. We focus on invention (coming up with ideas), drafting (expanding ideas and supporting arguments), and arrangement (figuring out the best structure and organization for a text). Readers focus on the rhetorical aspects of the student text, and provide one-on-one, student-centered teaching of works-in-progress. The Writing Studio does not provide editorial or proofreading services. Readers will not write on student papers or in any way “correct” a student text. Students may work on course assignments or application materials for graduate and professional programs and scholarships. The Writing Studio is open only to currently enrolled students and recent alumni. The Studio is open the second week of each semester and closes the last Thursday before the end of classes. The Studio is closed between terms and for all university holidays. Students are welcome to drop in without appointments. More information is located on the website.

3020 College Academic Regulations

The requirements for entrance into Georgia State University are found in the section of this catalog devoted to undergraduate admissions. A transfer student must comply with all academic regulations of the university. The College of Arts and Sciences reserves the right to validate by examination any credits accepted by transfer. This provision in no way affects the acceptance of courses used to satisfy core curriculum requirements at another unit of the University System of Georgia.

Students holding a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university who wish to complete another undergraduate degree are urged to clear all requirements with an adviser in the Office of Academic Assistance.

Grades of C in Major/Minor

Courses in the major require a grade of C or higher. Courses in the minor chosen within or outside the College, require a grade of C or higher.

Credit by Examination

A maximum of 18 semester hours of degree credit may be granted before or after matriculation to a student who receives satisfactory scores on certain subject examinations of the College Level Examination Program of the College Entrance Examination Board. The student should consult the appropriate department or school or the Office of Academic Assistance for further information.

The College of Arts and Sciences follows university guidelines for the acceptance of credit by examination. See section 1320.40 Credit by Examination for specific course equivalencies. Credit awarded by the academic departments within the College of Arts and Sciences does not apply toward the academic residence requirement.

Credit for Transient Work

Arts and Sciences students who wish to take course work at another institution, whether as a full-time or as a part-time student, must have prior written approval from the Office of Academic Assistance if they wish to apply the credit hours to a degree program. Failure to obtain the required prior approval will prevent the acceptance of such credits. Approval will be granted for no more than two terms of work and only if the student is in good academic standing at Georgia State University. No approval of requests to take courses in Atlanta-area colleges will be granted if the course is readily available from Georgia State offerings. During the term in which the student is scheduled to graduate, all courses must be taken at Georgia State unless prior written approval has been obtained from the Office of Academic Assistance. The acceptance and application of all course work taken as a transient student is subject to any limitations imposed by the student’s major department, school, or program of study.

Please consult the “Academic Regulations” section of this catalog for further clarification in regard to transient credit.

Credit for Veteran’s Service

University students who are veterans of any service, active, reserve, or National Guard, or who have attended a service academy, may receive advanced placement in the Department of Military Science and Leadership (ROTC).

Course 4999 – Directed Readings

Course 4999, Directed Readings, in any department/school/institute that offers a major in the College of Arts and Sciences is designed to assist seniors who are within two terms of graduation and who have curriculum difficulties in fulfilling the requirements necessary for graduation. One to four credit hours may be earned. The supervising professor, the departmental chair/school director, and the dean of the college must approve registration for the course. Forms for Course 4999 must be completed at the time of regular registration for the term in which the credit is to be earned and can be obtained through department/school offices or the college's Office of Academic Assistance.

Policy on Allowing Undergraduates to Take Graduate Courses

Under one of the following conditions, an undergraduate student may be permitted to take a graduate course:

1. Dual Degree Enrollment: The student has been formally accepted into an official university dual degree program that links an undergraduate degree program with a graduate degree program. Students in dual degree programs are granted permission to enroll in specified graduate courses when they reach a designated program milestone. Students who are accepted into the affiliated graduate program upon completion of the undergraduate degree may count specified course work toward fulfillment of the graduate degree requirements. A current listing of official undergraduate/graduate dual degree programs is available at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

2. College Approval of Enrollment: The dean’s office of the college will determine a student’s eligibility for admission into a graduate course. To be eligible, an undergraduate student generally must have a cumulative grade-point average of 3.5 or higher and be within 18 semester hours of graduation, and be enrolled in an undergraduate degree program. Eligibility does not guarantee permission to take a course. Once a student’s eligibility is determined, permission must be granted by the instructor for the course, the department’s/school’s director of graduate studies, the chair/director of the department/school offering the course, and the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies in the College of Arts and Sciences. The request form is located at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/. Please note, graduate courses taken by an undergraduate student cannot be applied toward fulfillment of graduate degree requirements unless the student has been formally accepted into an official university dual degree program.

(This approval process does not apply to postbaccalaureate students. Postbaccalaureate students wishing to take graduate courses must be admitted as non-degree seeking students. See cas.gsu.edu/graduate-studies/admissions/non-degree/ for additional information.)

3030 College Degree Requirements

3030.10 World Language Requirement for B.A./B.I.S. Majors

The College of Arts and Sciences requires the completion of a world language at the 1002 or 1101 level for all students seeking a Bachelor of Arts degree or a Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies degree. This requirement can be met by one of the following options: 1) taking a course numbered 1002, 1101, or higher, 2) Taking the CLEP exam in French, German, or Spanish for credit at the 2001 and 2002 level, or 3) Taking the SAT II exam in Chinese, Japanese, or Korean and receiving at least the equivalent of a grade of “C” (73% of the highest possible exam score). For more information about the exams please contact the Counseling and Testing Center at 404-413-1740.

The world language requirement for students enrolled in the Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies programs is most commonly included in core curriculum Area F (Courses Appropriate to the Major); however, programs may also require students to complete world language courses in Area G, the 60 semester hours beyond the core curriculum. Students transferring to Georgia State with a completed core curriculum Area F, yet without sufficient course work to meet a program’s world language requirement, will be required to fulfill the necessary courses in the second 60 semester hours. Students who take a language course in Area C and subsequently declare a major in a program leading to a Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies will find that the language course no longer counts in Area C but in Area F or Area G. For this reason, the college recommends that students in the Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies programs not include a world language course in core curriculum Area C (Fine Arts and Humanities). Students who would like to begin a new world language, or to take a second world language, should consult a program adviser concerning the possibility of earning credit for the first semester of elementary world language (1001) in either core curriculum Area F or in the second 60 hours.

3030.30 Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies

The Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies degree provides educational opportunities not readily available through traditional departmental degree programs. Students have flexibility in developing a course of study appropriate to their goals by selecting courses from several departments and institutes in the College of Arts and Sciences. Students may also include courses from other colleges of this university in their interdisciplinary program.

It is not the function of the interdisciplinary program to combine an assortment of course work as a last-minute effort to facilitate a student’s graduation. A proposal should be planned by the time a student has earned 42 credit hours and should reflect a logical, consistent course of study that is based on acceptable and germane student objectives.

Program Admission

Applicants to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies program must satisfy the admission requirements for Georgia State University and, in addition, must have a Georgia State cumulative grade-point average of 2.0. Matriculation into the program can occur only after the college B.I.S. coordinator approves a student’s program of study. There is a special application procedure for this degree program and consultation with the specific program coordinator is a mandatory component of this process.

Program Degree Requirements

There are two options in the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies program, the college-planned option and the student-planned option.

No more than 12 hours of the requirements in an area of concentration (Area G), and no more than 6 hours of the requirements in an allied field (Area H), may be taken from the offerings of any single discipline in the university. Courses in the area of concentration (Area G) and allied field (Area H) must be at the 3000-4000 level. Also, a grade of C or higher is required in all courses in the area of concentration (Area G) and allied field (Area H). Electives are used to build the hours in Areas G-J to 60 hours, have 39 hours at Georgia State University taken at the 3000-4000 level for residency, and complete 120 hours required for graduation. The last 27 semester hours prior to graduation must be completed while formally enrolled in the program.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies College-Planned Programs

Students may choose a program designed by the College as follows: Asian Studies; Environmental Science; Game Design and Development; Gerontology, Global Studies; Italian Studies; Law and Society; Media Entrepreneurship; Middle East Studies; and Philosophy, Politics, and Economics. For information about the college-planned programs, see the alphabetical list of programs later in this chapter of this catalog.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies Student-Planned Program
Students may choose the option to propose their own program of study for approval by the college B.I.S. coordinator. Students may select their proposed courses from any college in the university, as long as at least 50 percent of the hours in the program are chosen from courses in the College of Arts and Sciences. Students should have their proposed student-planned programs reviewed by the B.I.S. coordinator by the time they have earned 42 hours.

To gain approval into the program, students must articulate a reasonable and educationally justifiable course of study. Proposed interdisciplinary degree programs cannot resemble current programs offered at the university. Students interested in initiating the application process must first schedule an appointment with an academic advisor in the Office of Academic Assistance, 404-413-5000 (see section 3040). Students must also select an appropriate faculty coordinator to provide guidance in developing the interdisciplinary program.

Course of Study Outline for Student-Planned Programs:

Areas A-E: Core Curriculum (42)

All undergraduate students satisfy a common core curriculum. These requirements are printed in the “Academic Regulations” section of this catalog.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major Field (18)

Courses in this area should be included in the program proposal. The courses selected for this area must be at the lower-division level and judged to be programmatically appropriate to the intent of the proposed program. A world language at the 1002 level must be included in Area F of all student-planned programs.

Area G: Area of Concentration (similar to a traditional major area, except interdisciplinary in content).

Area H: Allied Field (similar to a minor, except interdisciplinary in content).

Area J: Electives

When developing a student-planned program, the student may choose one of the following structures:

- Program Plan Structure One: An area of concentration (27-33 semester hours) with an allied field (15-21 semester hours) and electives (6-18 semester hours).
- Program Plan Structure Two: An area of concentration (27-33 semester hours) with two allied fields (15-21 semester hours each).
- Program Plan Structure Three: Two areas of concentration (27-33 semester hours each).

3030.40 The Interdisciplinary Minor

The interdisciplinary minor provides educational opportunities not otherwise available and allows students the flexibility to select courses for the minor from several departments/schools/colleges at the university. Students can choose to pursue either a college-planned or a student-planned interdisciplinary minor.
College planned interdisciplinary minors are available in the following emphasis areas: Advanced Leadership and Management, Chinese Studies, Communication Sciences, Entertainment Media Management, Game Design and Development, Human Rights and Democracy, Jewish Studies, Latin American Studies, and Middle East Studies are also available. For information about the college-planned interdisciplinary minors, see the alphabetical list of programs later in this chapter of this catalog.

Students pursuing a student-planned interdisciplinary minor must propose their 15-18 hours for approval by the college BIS coordinator. A proposal must identify the way in which the minor fits into the context of the student’s entire degree program. To gain approval, students must articulate a reasonable and educationally justifiable course of study and must keep in mind that this course of study may not duplicate what is currently available.

The following requirements apply to the interdisciplinary minor:

1. The student must have a Georgia State University cumulative grade-point average of 2.0;
2. A minor must contain 15 to 18 semester hours of coursework with at least 9 hours of upper-division coursework (3000 to 4999).
3. No more than six hours from a single discipline/prefix.
4. Courses counted toward the interdisciplinary minor cannot also count toward the major;
5. A grade of “C” or better is required in all minor courses; and
6. For student-planned programs, at least 50 percent of the minor must be completed after the semester in which college BIS coordinator approves the minor program plan.

Students should contact the Office of Academic Assistance at 404-413-5000 for information on the application procedure.

The program of emphasis for the interdisciplinary minor is not listed on the official Georgia State University transcript. The program is designated as Interdisciplinary Minor on the transcript.

3040 Office of Academic Assistance

418 Langdale Hall (2nd floor, 25 Park Place Bldg. effective fall 2017)
404-413-5000
cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/student-advising/

Director: Shelly-Ann Williams
Associate Director: Linda P. King
Assistant Director: Rene Mondy

The Office of Academic Assistance supports departments and schools in providing academic advisement for students in the college, primarily those who have earned 90 hours. Students with fewer than 90 hours are advised through the University Advisement Center (see advisement.gsu.edu). This office also works with students on career development and on marketing a liberal arts background in the current job environment. The Office of Academic Assistance prepares evaluations of transfer work done at other institutions as well as academic program reviews for each major offered through the college. It also assists with course selections and schedule revisions and provides information concerning college and university policies. Students are advised by appointment or may walk-in for brief consultations. During the academic year, the office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. Monday through Friday. Students seeking a degree in the College of Arts and Sciences should become familiar with the academic regulations of the university stated elsewhere in this catalog.

Although the College of Arts and Sciences will endeavor to provide timely and accurate advisement, it is the responsibility of the student to know and to satisfy the degree requirements of his or her academic program. The College of Arts and Sciences encourages its majors to build relationships with the undergraduate support personnel in their major departments and institutes. A strong undergraduate program is possible only if there are frequent opportunities for students to discuss their academic work and career goals with one of their major professors. In a large urban institution such as Georgia State University, contact is essential if students are to receive individual attention and enjoy the full benefits of a liberal arts education.

3050 Student Complaints, Petitions for Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals

The appeals procedure for students in the College of Arts and Sciences will follow different courses depending on the nature of the student’s appeal. Please refer to University Information Section 1050.80 under Polices and Disclosures in this catalog or visit enrollment.gsu.edu/assistance/ for details.

African-American Studies offers an interdisciplinary approach to the study of African people nationally and globally. The field recognizes that the lived experience of African and African descendant peoples worldwide are impacted by a myriad of factors including cultural diversity, emerging technologies, and political economy. As an interdisciplinary field of concentration, it offers, enhances, and critiques knowledge presented in the traditional disciplines and professions, scholarly and artistic accounts of the realities of the lives of African-Americans, and perspectives on social change. The Department of African-American Studies provides students with the intellectual origins, concepts, research, and models of the discipline; the knowledge and skills necessary for the study of group cultures; and a curriculum that contributes to the goals of African-American Studies and a culturally diverse education. Civic engagement, service learning, and a social justice orientation are fundamental aspects to the African-American Studies curriculum. Faculty and courses are drawn from the department itself and from other departments/schools/institutes in the university.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Degree Requirements

Alternatives are available to some core and major requirements. Please see a degree program adviser for specific guidelines.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Pre-Education Concentration

The Department of African-American Studies offers a pre-education track with a concentration in history for students who wish to become public school teachers and to be certified to teach by completing the initial teacher preparation for the M.A.T. Program in Social Studies Education in the College of Education and Human Development (or a similar master’s level initial preparation program at another university). The pre-education track in African-American studies develops teachers to work effectively in multi-cultural classrooms. The pre-education track in African-American Studies prepares teachers to teach students from diverse ethnic, gender, cultural, and social class groups by offering curricula that examine the histories and experiences of people of African descent and aspects of cultural identity formation in the U.S., Africa, and the Caribbean. This track also prepares educators to develop their students to be citizens of a global community. Students who wish to pursue the pre-education track in African-American Studies must take ten designated upper-division major courses (33 credit hours), take three education courses (9), and complete the coursework in one or more of the following allied fields: political science (9), geography (9), or economics (9).

1. Required Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (6)
   - AAS 3980 Research Methods in African-American Studies-CTW (3)
   - AAS 4980 Seminar and Practicum in African-American Studies-CTW (3)

2. Additional Courses (27):
   - AAS 3975 Concepts and Theories in African-American Studies (3)
   - AAS 3450 History of African Americans in Georgia (3)
   - AAS 4010 Service Learning in the African American Community (3)
   - AAS 4640/HIST 4270 African-American People (4)
   - AAS 4600/HIST 4280 Enslavement and Resistance in North America (3)
   - AAS 4620/HIST 4290 Enslavement in the Americas (3)
   - AAS 4772/HIST 4772/WGSS 4772 Women in Africa (3)
   - AAS 4774/HIST 4774 African Rebellions (3)
   - HIST 3000 Introduction to Historical Studies-CTW (4)
   - HIST 3220 United States in the Twentieth Century (4)

Total Number of Hours: 33

Allied Fields (18)

Select two or more out of the following fields:

- Political Science (9) (3000-4000 level courses)
- Geography (9) (3000-4000 level courses)
- Economics (9) (3000-4000 level courses)
- Education (Required: EXC 4020; along with two of the following: LT 3210, EDCI 3200, EDUC 3010, EDUC 4982, EDSS 3400, and EDLA 3200) (9)
- One Behavioral Sciences field: Anthropology, Sociology, or Psychology (9) (3000-4000 level courses)

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

Students majoring in African-American Studies:

1. Are not required to take a minor.
2. Must take additional courses as electives to complete a minimum of 120 hours, exclusive of KH 1010.

Minor in African-American Studies

Students who wish to minor in African-American Studies should complete the following requirements (15).
A grade of C or higher is required in all minor courses.

1. Complete the following three courses (9)
   - AAS 2010 Introduction to African-American Studies (3)
   - AAS 3120 African Diaspora (3)
   - AAS 4120 African-American Political Thought (3)
2. Select two African-American Studies courses at the 3000 level or above (6).

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This department offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. In order to achieve distinction in the major, students must earn a GPA of 3.5 or higher within the AAS major and an overall GPA of 3.0 or higher.
3100 Anthropology

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology
- Minor in Anthropology

Department of Anthropology
335 Sparks Hall
404-413-5156
anthropology.gsu.edu

Kathryn A. Kozaitis, Chair
Cassandra White, Director of Undergraduate Studies

Anthropology, the study of humans, provides students with a perspective on the nature of humankind over time and in different environments. It is concerned with humans as biological beings (biological anthropology), with prehistory and cultural evolution (archaeology), and with how humans order their worlds socially and culturally (social/cultural anthropology), as well as with the nature of human language (linguistic anthropology). The Department of Anthropology offers a Bachelor of Arts degree in Anthropology. Undergraduate majors are encouraged to take a wide range of courses in archaeology, biological anthropology, cultural anthropology, and linguistic anthropology. Anthropologists are frequently teachers and/or researchers in colleges and universities, or, alternatively, they work for public and private agencies. Within these areas, they may be specifically concerned with historic or cultural resource preservation or cross-cultural competencies in such areas as medicine, community development, education, tourism, business, and other specialties.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Financial Information

No additional expenses are needed to complete this degree program. Some special courses that travel away from campus, such as ANTH 4550 Field School in Anthropology, will have additional costs. The department offers two endowed scholarships for undergraduate majors: the Robert L. Blakeley Endowed Scholarship in Anthropology and the Jeremy D. Gillen Endowed Memorial Scholarship in Anthropology.

Program Academic Regulations

Students must earn a grade of C or better in any courses required for Areas F and G. A grade of C or higher is also required in all courses counting toward an Anthropology minor.

Program Degree Requirements
Alternatives are available to some core and major requirements. Please see the Director of Undergraduate Studies for specific guidelines.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

B.A. in Anthropology

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major Field (18)

1. Required Courses (12)
   - ANTH 2010 Introduction to Biological Anthropology (3)
   - ANTH 2020 Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (3)
   - ANTH 2030 Archaeology and Prehistory (3)
   - World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)
2. Select additional courses as follows to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   a. Choose at least one course from the following:
      - ANTH 1102 Introduction to Anthropology (3)
      - ENVS 1402 Plant Resources in the Environment (4)
      - GEOG 1101 Introduction to Human Geography (3)

      - AL 2102/ FORL 2102 Languages of the World (3)
      - ANTH 2040 Introduction to Linguistic Anthropology (3)
      - World language at the 2002 level (3)

Area G: Major Courses (27)

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses.

1. Course that fulfills CTW requirement (3):
   - ANTH 4970 Senior Seminar in Anthropology-CTW (3)
2. Theory Course. Select one:
   - ANTH 4020 Anthropological Theory (4)
   - ANTH 4600 Archaeological Theory (4)
3. Methods Course. Select one (at least 3 hours)
   - ANTH 4340 Applied Anthropology (3)
   - ANTH 4360 Methods and Theories in Biological Anthropology (3)
   - ANTH 4370 Forensic Anthropology (3)
4. Electives: Additional courses at the 3000 or 4000 level (at least 17 hours)

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. Students majoring in anthropology are not required to take a minor.
2. Students majoring in anthropology must take additional courses as electives to complete a minimum of 120 hours, exclusive of KH 1010.

Minor in Anthropology

Students who wish to minor in anthropology should complete the following requirements (1 and 2). (at least 15 hours) A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

1. Select one course. (3)
   - ANTH 2010 Introduction to Biological Anthropology (3)
   - ANTH 2020 Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (3)
   - ANTH 2030 Archaeology and Prehistory (3)
   - ANTH 2040 Introduction to Linguistic Anthropology (3)

2. Select four anthropology courses at the 3000 level or above (at least 12 hours).

Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in anthropology may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major.

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This unit offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.
3110 Applied Linguistics and English as a Second Language

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in Applied Linguistics
- Certificate in Teaching English as a Foreign Language
- Minor in Applied Linguistics
- ESL Credit-Bearing Courses
- Intensive English Program
- Dual B.A. / M.A. in Applied Linguistics

Department of Applied Linguistics and English as a Second Language
15th Floor, 25 Park Place Building
404-413-5200
alesl.gsu.edu

Diane Belcher, Chair

Applied linguistics is an interdisciplinary field that integrates many perspectives on the study of human language. Studying linguistics is not a matter of learning many different languages, but rather it is the study of the nature of language in general. Applied Linguistics is the study of language and communication in relation to real-world problems such as language acquisition and teaching, language assessment, language analysis on a large or small scale, improving intercultural communication, and understanding the relationship between language and social organization or behaviors.

The Department of Applied Linguistics and English as a Second Language offers 1) a B.A. degree in Applied Linguistics; 2) a minor in Applied Linguistics; 3) a certificate* in Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL), 4) ESL credit-bearing courses for non-native speakers of English, and 5) Intensive English Program (IEP) courses for non-native speakers of English.

*NOTE: The TEFL certificate overlaps with and may be combined with either the major or the minor.

The major and minor in Applied Linguistics provide the opportunity for students to explore the field of linguistics from an interdisciplinary perspective.

The TEFL certificate program provides students with appropriate skills and a credential that will enable them to teach English as a foreign language abroad. Students majoring in any undergraduate program can earn the TEFL certificate. In addition, the certificate can be earned by any post baccalaureate student. TEFL certificate requirements consist of the following five courses: AL 3021, AL 3041, AL 3051, AL 3101, and AL 4161. AL 3021 is a prerequisite for AL 3041, AL 3051, and AL 4161. AL 2021 Intro to English Linguistics is a prerequisite to these courses, except for post-baccalaureate students, but students may be exempted from this requirement by taking a departmental exam. AL 3021 is the first course in the series, but may be taken in conjunction with AL 3051 and AL 3101. AL 4161 should be the last course taken, and AL 3051 is a prerequisite to this practicum course.

For information on credit-bearing ESL courses for non-native speakers of English and the Intensive English Program, see Sections 3230 (English as a Second Language) and 3330 (Intensive English Program).

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Academic Regulations

Students must earn a grade of C or better in any courses required for Areas F and G. A grade of C or higher is also required in all courses counting toward an Applied Linguistics minor and/or the TEFL certificate.

Program Degree Requirements

Alternatives are available to some core and major requirements. Please see a degree program adviser for specific guidelines. In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Program Financial Information

Effective summer 2009, lab fees will be assessed automatically for students who register for certain courses. As a result, students will no longer be required to purchase lab fee cards. For more information, please feel free to contact the department or review the GoSolar or catalog course listings to determine if a course includes a lab fee.

B.A. in Applied Linguistics

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major Field (18)

1. Choose two of the following (6):
   - AL 2021 Introduction to English Linguistics (3)*
   - AL 2101 Introduction to Language (3)*
   - AL 2102 Languages of the World (3)
   - AL 2231 Understanding Miscommunication (3)
   - AL 2290 Introductory Special Topics in Applied Linguistics (3)
   *NOTE: Students may not count both AL 2021 and AL 2101 towards this requirement.
   Some 2000-level courses are prerequisites to upper-level AL courses. See GoSOLAR or an advisor for details.

2. World language requirements (3-12):
   a. World language through the 2002 level (0-9):
      Students must complete foreign languages courses through level 2002 in one world language or demonstrate equivalent proficiency through examination (e.g., Advanced Placement, CLEP, or other approved examination procedures). American Sign Language (ASL) may now be taken for your entire four-semester language series.
b. Less commonly taught World language (3):
   Students must complete at least one semester of a less commonly taught language (i.e., any language other than French, German, Latin, Spanish, or Italian) and are strongly encouraged to study a non-Indo-European language to fulfill this requirement. This requirement is in addition to the four-semester language series, unless the language studied through 2002 is an LCTL. American Sign Language is considered an LTCL for the purposes of fulfilling this requirement.
   A student may include foreign language study through course 1002 in area C; in this case additional electives may be taken in Area F to attain 18 credit hours.

3. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   o World Language 1001-1002 (3-6)
   o World Language 2001-2002 (3-6)
   o ANTH 1102 Introduction to Anthropology (3)
   o ANTH 2020 Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (3)
   o ECON 2100 Global Economy (3)
   o ENGL 2110 World Literature (3)
   o PHIL 2010 Introduction to Philosophy (3)
   o PSYC 1101 Introduction to General Psychology (3)
   o SCOM 1010 Voice and Articulation (3)
   o SCOM 2650 Interpersonal Communication (3)
   Students who complete their world language requirement through examination or use their world language courses in a minor must choose additional electives at the 1000/2000 level to reach 18 credit hours in Area F. Applied linguistics students are encouraged to study additional languages to fulfill these requirements.

Area G: Major Courses (30)

1. Students must complete AL 2021 or successfully pass the departmental placement test to enroll in AL 3021.
   o AL 3021/FORL 3021 Introduction to Linguistics (3)+
2. Required courses (6):
   o AL 3031 Language in Society (3)
   o Select one of the following:
     ▪ AL 4151 Communication across Cultures-CTW (3) OR
     ▪ AL 4241 Senior Seminar in Applied Linguistics-CTW (3)

Note: AL 3031 is a prerequisite to AL 4151. AL 4241 may have other prerequisites, depending on its topic.
Take AL 3031 and choose one CTW course (the other may be used as elective under #4 or #5 below).

1. Major Requirements (9):
   AL 3021 is a prerequisite to the courses in this area. Choose three (the fourth may be used as elective under #4 or #5 below).
   o AL 3041 Introduction to Second Language Acquisition (3)+
   o AL 4011 Phonetics and Phonology (3)
   o AL 4012 Morphology and Syntax (3)
   o AL 4111 Semantics and Pragmatics (3)
2. Additional Upper-Level Electives in the Department of Applied Linguistics and ESL. (9)
   - AL 3051 Teaching English as a Foreign Language I: Methods and Approaches (3)+
   - AL 3101 English Grammar in Use (3)+
   - AL 4090 Language and Computers (3)
   - AL 4121 Historical Linguistics (3)
   - AL 4131 Bilingualism (3)
   - AL 4141 Special Topics (3) (may be repeated with different topics)
   - AL 4161 Teaching English as a Foreign Language II: Practicum and Classroom Practices (3)+
   - AL 4980 Internship (3) (may be repeated in different sites)
   - AL 4985 Internship Abroad (3)
   - AL 4999 Directed Reading (3)
   +NOTE: Students completing the five courses marked with a plus sign (+) will also receive the certificate in Teaching English as a Foreign Language.

3. One signature experience elective. Choose one course from the following. Other relevant electives inside or outside the department may be taken with departmental approval. (3)
   - AL 4980 Internship
   - AL 4985 Internship Abroad
   - Any 3xxx or 4xxx course taken while on study abroad or international exchange
   - Any Lang 3xxx or 4xxx Chosen from upper-level foreign language course (including American Sign Language) in your foreign language
   - An extra AL CTW course (AL 4151 or AL 4241, not taken for requirements above)
   - An extra Linguistic Analysis elective (AL 3041, AL 4011, AL 4012, or AL 4011, not taken for requirements above)
   - An approved course in an allied field (see department for approval)

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. Students majoring in applied linguistics are not required to take a minor.
2. Students majoring in applied linguistics must take additional courses as electives to complete a minimum of 120 total hours, exclusive of KH 1010, and 39 residency hours. Students are strongly encouraged to choose electives from the lists above in cognate disciplines such as Anthropology, Foreign Languages, Sociology, Speech Communication, Psychology, Philosophy, History, Religious Studies, English, Education, etc.

Minor Offerings

Students who wish to minor in applied linguistics should complete the following six requirements (15-18 hours). A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor. AL 3021/FORL 3021 Introduction to Linguistics is a prerequisite for all courses in 4-6. Students who wish to complete both a minor and a TEFL certificate may count some of the same courses toward requirements for both programs. The minor is 15-18 hours and the TEFL certificate is 15-18 hours; completed together they are 21-27 hours. See the departmental advisor for more information on this combined program of study.

1. Lang 1002 Beginning Foreign Language II (3)*
2. Any 2000 level AL/ForL course (3)
3. AL 3021/FORL 3021 Introduction to Linguistics (3) +
4. Select one course. (3)
   - AL 3041/FORL 3041 Introduction to Second Language Acquisition (3)
   - AL 4131/FORL 4131 Bilingualism (3)
5. Select one course. (3)
   - AL 4011/FORL 4011 Phonetics & Phonology (3)
   - AL 4012/FORL 4012 Morphology & Syntax (3)
6. Any 3000 or 4000 level AL/ForL course (3):
   *NOTE: The foreign language 1002 is waived if it is a requirement in the student’s declared major.
   +NOTE: AL 2021 Introduction to English Linguistics or a passing exemption exam score is now a prerequisite to AL 3021.

Dual B.A. / M.A. Program in Applied Linguistics

The department offers a dual Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts in Applied Linguistics. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and apply the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the department and College of Arts and Sciences to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This department offers undergraduate students the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the department undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.

This minor is not intended for those who are fluent in written and spoken Arabic. Please see a program advisor before signing up for the Arabic minor.

Certificate of Language Ability in Arabic

A strong demand exists by employers for candidates to offer credentials to verify language proficiency in both oral and written communication. The undergraduate Certificate of Language Ability is designed for students to offer tangible proof of their language abilities and makes an ideal complement to other areas of study such as business, international relations, public health, criminal justice, hospitality, and more.

The certificate consists of 12 credit hours at 2000 and 3000 level (minimum of 6 must be at the 3000 level), with a B or higher in the first attempt at each course. Courses retaken using the university Repeat to Replace policy are not counted as first attempts.

- At the 2000-level, students may enroll in ARBC 2001 and ARBC 2002.
- At the 3000-level students may enroll in ARBC 3001 and ARBC 3002.
Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies with a Concentration in Asian Studies

Program Coordinator: Ghulam Nadri, gnadri@gsu.edu, Department of History

The Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies (BIS) program in Asian Studies offers students an opportunity to acquire knowledge of this important and unique world region and a career-oriented range of skills. It allows students to follow a course plan with concentration in international business and economy. By taking a set of courses, students may also take a minor in international business. For students interested in teaching English in China, Japan, Korea, or elsewhere in Asia, it allows a concentration in English as a Second Language (ESL) with an option to obtain a TEFL certificate from the Department of Applied Linguistics (TEFL Certificate). Students interested in Asian societies and cultures will have the option to concentrate in Chinese, Japanese, or Indian/South Asian studies. It allows students to choose from a large pool of courses (taught by GSU faculty experts in their regions and disciplines) appropriate to their areas of concentration.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college's Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Arts students should also consult regularly with the faculty program coordinator for the specific program regarding course selection, program plans, experiential learning, and other academic opportunities.

Program Admission

A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required in order to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the college Office of Academic Assistance (see above). Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation.

Program Degree Requirements

Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 3030.30 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program. Requirements follow a student’s catalog edition (year when B.I.S. major was approved).

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Areas A-E: Core Curriculum Recommendations

While students are free to choose from the available courses in Areas A-E, the following are recommended choices for students in the Asian Studies BIS.

1. Area B:
   - PERS 2001: Perspectives on Comparative Culture (2)
   - PERS 2002: Scientific Perspectives on Global Problems (2)
   - PERS 2003: Perspectives on Human Expression (2)

2. Area C:
   1. Humanities Group: RELS 2001 Intro to World Religions (3)
   2. World Languages Group:
      - ARBC 1002 or ARBC 2002 Elementary/Intermediate Arabic (3)
      - CHIN 1002 or [ CHIN 2002] Elementary/Intermediate Chinese (3)
      - JAPN 1002 or JAPN 2002 Elementary/Intermediate Japanese (3)
      - KORE 1002 or KORE 2002 Elementary/Intermediate Korean (3)

Note: Students studying a new language for the first time must start at 1001, which can count in Area F.

1. Area D:
   - GEOG 1112 Introduction to Weather and Climate (3)
   - GEOG 1113 Introduction to Landforms (3)

2. Area E:
   - Global Group:
     - HIST 1111 Survey of World History to 1500 (3)
     - HIST 1112 Survey of World History since 1500 (3)
     - POLS 2401 Global Issues (3)
   - Social Science Foundations Group:
     - GEOG 1101 Introduction to Human Geography (3)
     - ANTH 1102 Introduction to Anthropology (3)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required introductory course: (3)
   - GLOS 2030/HIST 2030 Introduction to Asian Studies (3)

2. Required Language: Choose courses from one of the following, (6-9 credit hours)
   - ARBC 1001 – ARBC 2002 Elementary/Intermediate Arabic
   - CHIN 1001 – CHIN 2002 Elementary/Intermediate Chinese
   Note: AP Students may only take 2002-level language course in Area F unless taking a different language.

3. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours Area F:
   - General electives:
     - ANTH 2020 Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (3)
     - ANTH 2040 Introduction to Linguistic Anthropology (3)
     - ECON 2100 Global Economy (3)
     - ENGL 2110 World Literature (3)
     - HIST 1111 Survey of World History to 1500 (3)
     - HIST 1112 Survey of World History since 1500 (3)
PHIL 2010 Introduction to Philosophy (3)
POLS 2401 Global Issues (3)
RELS 2001 Intro to World Religions (3)
WGSS 2010 Introduction to Women’s/Gender/Sexuality Studies (3)

- Recommended for students concentrating in international business and economy:
  - ACCT 2101 Principles of Accounting I (3)
  - ACCT 2102 Principles of Accounting II (3)
  - BUSA 2106 Legal and Ethical Environment of Business (3)
  - CIS 2010 Introduction to Information Systems (3)
  - ECON 2100 Global Economics (3)
  - ECON 2105 Microeconomics (3)*
  - ECON 2106 Macroeconomics (3)*
  - ECON 2990 Special Topics in Economics I (if related with Asia) (3)

- Recommended for students concentrating in ESL or interested in TEFL certificate:
  - AL 2021 Introduction to English Linguistics (3)
  - AL 2101 Introduction to Language (3)
  - AL 2102 Languages of the World (3)
  - SCOM 2900 Intercultural Communication (3)

Area G: Area of Concentration (27-33)

No more than four 3 credit hour courses or three 4 credit hour courses with same prefix (12 hours) can be taken, excluding CTW.

Courses followed by an asterisk (*) have prerequisites. Asian Studies majors may be exempted from a prerequisite for some of the Economics courses through instructor’s permission. See the Asian Studies program coordinator for additional information.

1. Required Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (3-4)
   Select one CTW course from below.

   - AL 4151 Communication across Cultures-CTW (3)
   - AL 4241 Senior Seminar in Applied Linguistics-CTW (3)

Area I: Electives

Electives are used to have 39 hours at Georgia State University taken at the 3000-4000 level for residency and complete 120 hours required for graduation.

Area J: Study Abroad/International Student Exchange Programs

Students are strongly recommended to consider a semester study abroad. For general information about study abroad in different countries of Asia, contact Study Abroad Programs, Office of International Initiatives (404-413-2529, mystudyabroad@gsu.edu).

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This program offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the program director, Ghulam Nadri (gnadri@gsu.edu), for the specific criteria for this honor.
Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Science in Physics with a Concentration in Astronomy

Department of Physics and Astronomy
Room 605, 25 Park Place
404-413-6033
phy-astr.gsu.edu

D. Michael Crenshaw, Chair
Brian Thoms, Associate Chair and Undergraduate Director in Physics

Sumith Doluweera, Undergraduate Director in Physics – Lower Division Courses
Ben McGimsey, Undergraduate Director in Astronomy

The Astronomy program at Georgia State University is integrated with the Physics program. For information on the B.S. in Physics with a Concentration in Astronomy, see section 3460.
Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Science in Biology
  - General Biology Studies (no concentration)
  - Concentration in Neurobiology and Behavior
  - Concentration in Microbiology
  - Concentration in Molecular Genetics and Cell Biology
  - Concentration in Preprofessional Programs/Physiology
- Dual B.S./M.S. in Biology
- Minor in Biology

Department of Biology
Petit Science Center, Suite 495
404-413-5300

Yi Pan, Interim Chair
Jessica Parilla, Director of Undergraduate Programs
Kavita Oommen, Assistant Director of Undergraduate Programs

Biology, the science of life and life processes, includes the study of structure, function, growth, development, reproduction, origin, evolution, and distribution of living organisms.

A degree in biology provides students with a variety of career opportunities. Potential careers range from applied or basic laboratory research and field studies in numerous state and federal organizations and industry, to education in public and private school systems. Furthermore, the degree provides the ideal preparation for entry into medical, dental, and veterinary schools and other health-related professions. Finally, a bachelor’s degree in biology provides a good foundation for advanced studies at the M.S. or Ph.D. level in biological sciences.

As an alternative to the General Biology Studies program (and in addition to the core degree requirements), courses in one of several areas of concentration, listed below, are available. Interdisciplinary programs with other departments/schools/institutes (such as Behavioral Biology or Environmental Science) are also an option. To plan the major according to the particular needs and goals, students should consult the “Undergraduate Program” area of the Biology Department Website (biology.gsu.edu) for information about the major.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

B.S. in Biology
Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400). Alternatives are available for some requirements in Areas A-F. Please see a degree program advisor for specific guidelines.

Area A:

- Required course: MATH 1112 College Trigonometry (3), MATH 1113 Precalculus (3), or any higher-level mathematics course) (3); MATH 1113 recommended.

Area B:

- Recommended course: PHIL 1010 Critical Thinking (2)

Area D:

- Recommended courses: PHYS 1111K Introductory Physics I (4) and PHYS 1112K Introductory Physics II (4)
- Required course: Any mathematics course not taken in Area A from the following choices: MATH 1070, MATH 1220, MATH 2201, MATH 2202, MATH 2211, MATH 2212 (or any higher-level math).

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major Field (18)

1. Required Courses (16):
   - BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4)
   - BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4)
   - CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4)
   - CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (4)

2. Select one from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - BIOL 2106 Introduction to the Biological Sciences (2)
   - BIOL 2110K Human Anatomy and Physiology I (4)
   - BIOL 2120K Human Anatomy and Physiology II (4)
   - BIOL 2240 Introduction to Human Physiology (3)
   - BIOL 2300 Microbiology and Public Health (3)
   - BIOL 2500 Neurobiology and Behavior (2)
   - BIOL 2800 Introduction to Molecular Biology (2)
   - RSCH 1203 Research Strategies and Technology (1)

- Students who decide to major in biology after completing BIOL 1103K may use it for credit toward Area F if they complete BIOL 2108K and BIOL 2800 before enrolling in major courses (Area G).
- Students who decide to major in biology after completing BIOL 1103K and or BIOL 1104K may use these courses for credit toward Area F if they complete BIOL 2800 before enrolling in major courses (Area G).
All courses above ending in K are commonly offered as separate lecture and lab (L) courses by GSU’s Perimeter College. The combined (K) courses and separate lecture and lab (L) courses cover the same subject matter and are considered equivalent courses.

Any credit hours exceeding 18 earned to complete the Area F requirements will count toward elective hours.

Area G: Major Courses (35)

A grade of C or higher is required in all Area G, Area H, and Area I courses

1. Required Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (3)
   - BIOL 3810 Molecular Cell Biology Laboratory-CTW (3)

2. Major Core Requirements (12)
   - BIOL 3800 Molecular Cell Biology (3)
   - BIOL 3840 Animal Biology (3)
   - BIOL 3880 Microbiology (3)
   - BIOL 3900 Genetics (3)

3. Choose one of the following labs: (1) *
   - BIOL 3250 Human Physiology Laboratory (1)
   - BIOL 3850 Animal Biology Laboratory (1)
   - BIOL 3890 Microbiology Laboratory (1)
   - BIOL 3910 Genetics Laboratory (1)
   - * Students should consult with an adviser regarding the laboratory most appropriate to their course of study. Additional laboratories may be appropriate and the credit applied to item 4 below.

4. At least one credit hour of BIOL 4960, Biology Careers Seminar (1), or BIOL 4970, Biology Seminar (1). It is recommended that students take BIOL 4960 early in their courses of study for career advisement.

5. Additional biology courses at the 3000-4000 level and biology credit hours transferred from Area H (18).

Area H: Chemistry Requirements (6)

Students majoring in biology are required to complete the following:

1. Required courses (11)
   - CHEM 2400 Organic Chemistry I (3)
   - CHEM 2410 Organic Chemistry II (3)

Area I: Additional Courses (17)

Select one two-course physics sequence (8) *

- PHYS 1111K Introductory Physics I (4) and
- PHYS 1112K Introductory Physics II (4) or
- PHYS 2211K Principles of Physics I (4) and
• PHYS 2212K Principles of Physics II (4)

* Two semesters of physics are required for biology majors. If the physics sequence is used to fulfill the Area D requirement, then students should:

Select additional biology courses at the 3000 level or above OR courses from this list:

• ANTH 4060 Environmental Anthropology (3)
• ANTH 4300 Human Evolution (3)
• ANTH 4310 Human Variation (4)
• ANTH 4350 Applied Biocultural Anthropology (3)
• ANTH 4370 Forensic Anthropology (3)
• ANTH 4390 Diet, Demography and Disease (3)
• CHEM 2100 Intermediate Organic Chemistry Laboratory I (2)
• CHEM 3110 Intermediate Organic Chemistry Laboratory II (2)
  Note: (CHEM 2100 and CHEM 3110 are required by most professional programs.)
• CHEM 4110 Physical Chemistry I (3)
• CHEM 4600 Biochemistry I (5)
• CHEM 4610 Biochemistry II (3)
• CRJU 3410 Criminology (3)
• CSC 2010 Introduction to Computer Science (3)
• EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities (3)
• EDSC 3250 Topics in Middle Grades Science (3)
• GEOL 4002 Oceanography (3)
• GEOL 4011 Principles of Paleontology (4)
• GEOL 4017 Environmental Geology (4)
• GEOL 4644 Environmental Conservation (4)
• GEOG 4642 Advanced Weather and Climate (4)
• GEOG 4646 Water Resource Management (4)
• SNHP 3000 Communication and Cultural Diversity (3)
• LT 3210 Teaching, Learning, and Technology Integration (3)
• KH 3000 Personal Health and Wellness (3)
• KH 3390 Advanced First Aid and Emergency Care (3)
• KH 3610 Motor Learning and Development (4)
• MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)
• MATH 2202 Calculus for the Life Sciences II (4)
• MATH 2211 Calculus of One Variable I (4)
• MATH 2212 Calculus of One Variable II (4)
• MATH 2215 Multivariate Calculus (4)
• PHIL 4130 Philosophy of Science (3)
• PHIL 4740 Biomedical Ethics (3)
• PHYS 3500 Electronics (3)
• PSYC 3010 Psychological Statistics (4)
• PSYC 3140 Abnormal Psychology (3)
• PT 3000 Introduction to PT and OT Practice (3)
• PT 3660 Complementary and Alternative Therapy (3)
- RT 3005 Clinical Cardiopulmonary Physiology (3)
- Any other 3000- or 4000-level course in Anthropology, Biology, Chemistry, Psychology or Physics

Students majoring in biology must take additional courses as electives to complete a minimum of 120 hours, exclusive of KH 1010.

Neurobiology and Behavior Concentration

Recommended: Area F2

- BIOL 2500 Neurobiology and Behavior (2)

Recommended: Area G3

- BIOL 3850 Animal Biology Laboratory (1)

Required: Area G5

- BIOL 4102 Neurobiology (4)
- Choose 18 hours of the following (3-5 credit hours each):
  - BIOL 4014K Invertebrate Biology (4)
  - BIOL 4015K Vertebrate Biology (4)
  - BIOL 4045K General Ecology-CTW (4)

Minor Offerings and Double Major in Biology

Students who wish to minor in biology must take at least 15 hours in courses in biology, including at least nine hours at the 3000 level or above. Students are responsible for meeting all prerequisite requirements (such as CHEM 1211K/CHEM 1212K) for the biology courses they choose to take, and are strongly encouraged to take these prerequisites as early as possible in their academic career. Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in biology may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor. Students should consult with the Undergraduate Director or Undergraduate Coordinator for more information.

Honors Opportunities

The department encourages qualified students to participate in the Honors College (visit honors.gsu.edu). The department sponsors a Biology Club, a Pre-Vet club, a Pre-Dental club and a local chapter of American Medical Student Association (AMSA) in addition to the Eta Psi chapter of Beta Beta Beta, the national honorary biological society. Interested students are encouraged to participate in these organizations.

Internships

Internships with collaborating institutions and programs (including ZooAtlanta, the Georgia Aquarium and the Bio-Bus program) are available on a limited basis. Students interested in receiving course credit for an internship should consult with the Undergraduate Director or Undergraduate Coordinator for more information.

Undergraduate Research Programs

Students are particularly encouraged to participate in the Undergraduate Research Program after completion of core requirements. Participation in an ongoing research activity provides the student with experience in experimental design and interpretation that is typically not available in routine laboratory courses. Students may enroll in BIOL 4905 and/or BIOL 4910 for undergraduate research experience. Each course may be repeated once. Interested students should consult the departmental website for information on faculty research interests and contact one or more faculty members for development of a specific project.

Dual B.S./M.S. Program in Biology

The department offers a dual Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Biology. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program. and apply the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the department and College of Arts and Sciences to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This department offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. At least five hours of BIOL 4910 and a grade-point average of 3.5 or higher in the major and minor area are required for graduation with distinction.
3180 Chemistry

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Science in Chemistry
  - Concentration in Biochemistry
  - Concentration in Pre-Medicine
- Certification by the American Chemical Society
- Minor in Chemistry
- Dual B.S./M.S. in Chemistry

Department of Chemistry

George Peng Wang, Chair
Jeremiah Harden, Co-director of Undergraduate Studies
Joan Mutanyatta-Comar, Co-director of Undergraduate Studies

Chemistry deals with the nature of substances and the changes that occur therein. It ranges from the study of the structure of atoms and molecules to that of the reactions occurring in living organisms. The study of chemistry can provide knowledge that will give students a greater understanding and appreciation of the world in which they live. In addition, knowledge of chemistry is a great asset in areas such as biology, physics, and health-related fields. It is a logical basis for pre-medical training, pre-veterinary, pre-pharmacy, and other allied health professions.

Each student is urged to consult with an academic advisor at the earliest possible time (even before the first semester) to outline a curriculum to meet his or her needs. A typical program of study for chemistry majors is outlined below. Although not required, several minors are possible for chemistry majors without concentrations.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Financial Information

Lab fees are assessed automatically for students who register for certain Chemistry courses. For more information, please feel free to contact the department or review the GoSolar or catalog course listings to determine if a course includes a lab fee.

Chemistry Courses for Science Majors

Detailed descriptions of the objectives and prerequisites of each course are available online. The student is urged to consult these descriptions if there is any doubt about requirements or qualifications. Laboratory courses and lecture courses on principles are designed to be mutually reinforcing. The laboratory is the real basis for the science, but the lecture courses are designed to reinforce the learning process. The labs and lectures are separated only to provide added flexibility in scheduling and to meet individual needs, particularly for transfer students. Great care should be exercised in scheduling one course component without the other.

Chemistry Courses for Non-Science Majors

CHEM 1050, CHEM 1101K, CHEM 1102K, CHEM 1151K, and CHEM 1152K are of primary interest to students in liberal arts, health sciences, education, business administration, and policy studies. Students in specific programs should consult with an advisor in their program to verify applicability of the above-named courses to their specific needs. These courses cannot be applied to a science degree program in the College of Arts and Sciences.

B.S. in Chemistry

Program Degree Requirements

Students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400). Alternatives are available to some core and major requirements. Please see one of the undergraduate directors for specific guidelines. Chemistry majors need to take CHEM 1211K during their first term at GSU to be on schedule to graduate in 4 years.

Area A:

- Required course: MATH 1113 Precalculus (3) or a higher-level mathematics course. MATH 1113 is recommended.

Area D:

- Recommended courses: CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4) and CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (4)
- Required course (choose one of the following or a higher level mathematics course): MATH 2201 Calculus for the Life Sciences I (4) or MATH 2211 Calculus of One Variable I (4)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (unless used to satisfy Area D requirements) (18):
   - CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4) and CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (4)
   - PHYS 2211K Principles of Physics I (4) and PHYS 2212K Principles of Physics II (4)
   - CHEM 2400 Organic Chemistry I (3)
   - CHEM 2410 Organic Chemistry II (3)
   - MATH 2212 Calculus of One Variable II (4) or MATH 2202 Calculus for the Life Sciences I (4)
Sciences II (4)

2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F if needed. Contact the Undergraduate Director for the BS in Chemistry for advice.

- MATH 2212 Calculus of One Variable II (4)
- MATH 2215 Multivariate Calculus (4)
- MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)
- BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4)
- BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4)
- BIOL 2300 Microbiology and Public Health (3)
- CHEM 2950 Chemistry Research (2-5)
- RSCH 1203 Research Strategies and Technology (1)

- Transfer students, students changing their major, and students pursuing an biochemistry concentration may substitute PHYS 1111K/PHYS 1112K for PHYS 2211K/PHYS 2212K if approved by the Department of Chemistry.
- All courses above ending in K are commonly offered as separate lecture and lab (L) courses by GSU’s Perimeter College. The combined (K) courses and separate lecture and lab (L) courses cover the same subject matter and are considered equivalent courses.
- Credit hours exceeding 18 earned to complete the Areas A-F requirements will count toward elective hours.

Area G: Major Courses (30)

A grade of C or higher is required for all major and minor courses.

1. Required Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (6)
   - CHEM 4000 Fundamentals of Chemical Analysis-CTW (3)
   - CHEM 4160 Chemistry Laboratory IVA-CTW (3)

2. Major Requirements (19)
   - CHEM 2100 Intermediate Organic Chemistry Laboratory I (2)
   - CHEM 3110 Intermediate Organic Chemistry Laboratory II (2)
   - CHEM 3400 Intermediate Organic Chemistry (3)
   - CHEM 4010 Instrumental Methods I: Chromatography (3)
   - CHEM 4110 Physical Chemistry I (3)
   - CHEM 4120 Physical Chemistry II (3)
   - CHEM 4190 Instrumental Methods III: Spectroscopy (3)

3. Major Electives (5):
   - Select additional 3000- and/or 4000-level chemistry courses.
     - Recommended course: CHEM 4600 Biochemistry I (5) (required for ACS certification)

B.S. in Chemistry (Biochemistry concentration)

Area G: Major Courses (30)

1. Required Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (6)
   - CHEM 4000 Fundamentals of Chemical Analysis (3)
CHEM 4160 Chemistry Laboratory IVA (3)

2. Major Requirements (18)
   - CHEM 2100 Organic Chemistry Laboratory I (2)
   - CHEM 3110 Organic Chemistry Laboratory II (2)
   - CHEM 3400 Intermediate Organic Chemistry (3)
   - CHEM 4010 Instrumental Methods I: Chromatography (3)
   - Select one course:
     - CHEM 4150 Intro to Biophysical Chemistry (3)
     - CHEM 4110 Physical Chemistry I (3)
     - CHEM 4600 Biochemistry I (5)

3. Major Electives (6):
   - Select additional 3000- and/or 4000-level chemistry courses.
     - Suggested: CHEM 4610 Biochemistry II (3)

Area H: Biochemistry Concentration (17)

- BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4)
- BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4)
- BIOL 3800 Molecular Cell Biology (3)
- BIOL 3810 Molecular Cell Biology Lab-CTW (3)
- Select one course:
  - BIOL 3880 Microbiology (3)
  - BIOL 3900 Genetics (3)

Students majoring in chemistry must take additional courses as electives to complete a minimum of 120 hours, exclusive of 1000/2000 physical education or military science courses. The department recommends that majors take computer and/or world language courses.

B.S. in Chemistry (Pre-Medicine Concentration)

A pre-medicine concentration is available for chemistry majors. Please contact the Department of Chemistry for further information.

Area G: Major Courses (30)

1. Required Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (6)
   - CHEM 4000 Fundamentals of Chemical Analysis (3)
   - CHEM 4160 Chemistry Laboratory IVA (3)

2. Major Requirements (19)
   - CHEM 2100 Organic Chemistry Laboratory I (2)
   - CHEM 3110 Organic Chemistry Laboratory II (2)
   - CHEM 3400 Intermediate Organic Chemistry (3)
   - CHEM 4010 Instrumental Methods I: Chromatography (3)
   - Select one course:
     - CHEM 4150 Intro to Biophysical Chemistry (3)
     - CHEM 4110 Physical Chemistry I (3)
     - CHEM 4600 Biochemistry I (5)
3. Major Electives (6):
   - Select additional 3000- and/or 4000-level chemistry courses.
     - Suggested: CHEM 4610 Biochemistry II (3)

Area H: Pre-Medical Concentration (15)

- BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4)
- BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4)
- BIOL 3800 Molecular Cell Biology (3)
- Select one course pair:
  - BIOL 3880 Microbiology (3) and BIOL 3890 Microbiology Laboratory (1)
  - BIOL 3900 Genetics (3) and BIOL 3910 Genetics Laboratory (1)

Students majoring in chemistry must take additional courses as electives to complete a minimum of 120 hours, exclusive of 1000/2000 KH or military science courses.

American Chemical Society Certification

For American Chemical Society certification, students must take CHEM 4600 in Area G, and an additional ten hours of coursework as follows:

1. Required Courses (10)
   - CHEM 4210 Inorganic Chemistry (3)
   - CHEM 4330 Advanced Synthesis (3)
2. Elective Courses (4)
   - CHEM 4170 Chemistry Laboratory IVB (4) strongly recommended
   - CHEM 4170 can be substituted by other approved courses (must be different than major elective courses)

Minor in Chemistry

Students who wish to minor in chemistry must take at least 15 hours in courses in chemistry, including at least nine hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in chemistry may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

Dual B.S. / M.S. Program in Chemistry

The department offers a dual Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Chemistry. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and count the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the department and College of Arts and Sciences to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.
Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This department offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the department undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.
3183 Chinese

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in International Economics and Modern Languages
  - Concentration in Chinese Language and Society
- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies with a Concentration in Asian Studies (see section 3150)
- Certificate of Language Ability in Chinese
- Interdisciplinary Minor in Chinese Studies

Department of World Languages and Cultures
841 Langdale Hall (19th Floor, 25 Park Place Bldg. effective summer 2017)
404-413-5980
wlc.gsu.edu

Bill Nichols, Chair
Germán Torres, Associate Chair
Faye Stewart, Undergraduate Director
Shuai Li, Chinese Program Coordinator

The Department of World Languages and Cultures serves a threefold purpose: to encourage an appreciation of humanistic values through the study of foreign languages, literatures, and cultures; to teach foreign languages as a means of communication; and to prepare students for academic careers and the opportunities available in the field of international business. As part of a dynamic urban university in a city of growing international awareness and status, the department is fulfilling its responsibility to meet the increasing foreign language needs of the governmental, business, and professional communities. The department recognizes that an active command of the foreign language and a thorough exploration of the foreign culture form an essential basis for further study in the various areas of its curriculum.

The department maintains a state-of-the-art multimedia Language Acquisition and Resource Center (LARC) with a digital audio laboratory with 50 student computer workstations. The digital lab serves a dual purpose in allowing both independent student access to digitized audio files and interactive software that accompanies the language texts, and also in providing a multimedia environment for teacher-led listening, speaking, and recording activities. In addition to the audio lab, the LARC features a tutoring center and resource library, as well as 17 stand-alone computers for student use. To assist in the development of the student’s active language skills and to provide added cultural enrichment, the LARC contains a wide range of audiovisual materials.

For students who view language study as a preparation for a career in the business world, the department offers a program in conjunction with the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies: the Bachelor of Arts Major in International Economics and Modern Languages (IEML).

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center
Students majoring in the B.A. in International Economics should contact the Andrew Young School of Policy studies for advisement. Information for this program is available at aysps.gsu.edu/oaa.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Arts students should also consult regularly with the faculty program coordinator for the specific program regarding course selection, program plans, experiential learning, and other academic opportunities.

Program Financial Information

Lab fees are assessed automatically for students who register for certain courses. As a result, students will no longer be required to purchase lab fee cards. For more information, please feel free to contact the department or review the GoSolar or catalog course listings to determine if a course includes a lab fee.

B.A. in International Economics and Modern Languages with a concentration in Chinese Language and Society

Program Admission

There are no admission requirements above the requirements for admission to the University for enrollment in the B.A. program with a major in international economics and modern languages.

Program Financial Information

There are no additional fees other than the tuition and fees charged by the University for enrollment in this program.

Program Degree Requirements

For degree credit, a minimum grade of C must be attained in ENGL 1101 and ENGL 1102 and all courses in the economics common core curriculum and modern languages core curriculum.

Complete descriptions of requirements for Areas A through E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum can be found in the “University Degree Requirements and Graduation” chapter of this catalog. The number of semester credit hours required for each section is shown in parentheses.

In addition to courses in Chinese, you are advised to choose courses in other areas that complement your language study. Such courses include other languages, history, philosophy, art and music, business, and education. Faculty advisors in the department are eager to discuss your academic plans with you as you design your course of study. In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)
1. ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
2. ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
3. MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3) – If taken in Area D, a 1000/2000 level elective from Areas A-E may be substituted.
4. Choose one of the following language options:
   - CHIN 2001 Intermediate Chinese I (3)
   - CHIN 2002 Intermediate Chinese II (3)
   Note: Students who have not already attained elementary-level proficiency in their chosen language will be required to take prerequisite courses: CHIN 1001 and/or CHIN 1002. In that case, the 1002 language course may be used to satisfy 3 credit hours of core requirements in Area C, Humanities, Fine Arts, and World Languages.
   Students who have already attained intermediate-level competency in the primary language may substitute 1000/2000 level courses in another language for CHIN 2001/CHIN 2002 upon approval of the Department of World Languages and Cultures advisor.
5. Elective: One 1000/2000 level course chosen from Areas A-E.

Area G: Economics Common Core Curriculum (24)

A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

1. ECON 3900 Macroeconomics-CTW (3)
2. ECON 3910 Microeconomics (3)
3. ECON 4600 Economic Development (3)
4. ECON 4800 International Trade (3)
5. ECON 4810 International Finance (3)
6. ECON 4999 Senior Capstone in Economic Policy-CTW (3)*
7. Choose two 4000-level Econ courses (6)
   *ECON 4999 is only offered during the Fall and Spring semesters of the academic year. The prerequisites for ECON 4999 are ECON 3900, ECON 3910, and two 4000-level economics courses with a grade of C or better. Students are to plan accordingly with regard to the course pre-requisites and graduation.

Area H: Modern Languages Common Core (24)

A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.
Chinese Language and Society:

1. CHIN 3001 Advanced Chinese I (3)
2. CHIN 3002 Advanced Chinese II (3)
3. CHIN 3080 Topics in Chinese Studies (CTW) (3)
4. CHIN 3081 Cultural Dimensions of Language Learning (CTW) (3)
5. IB 4030 China’s Economy and International Business Environment (3)
6. CHIN 4011 Chinese for International Business I (3)
7. CHIN 4012 Chinese for International Business II (3)
8. Choose 1 from the following list of courses (3)
   - CHIN 3395 Study Abroad (3)
   - CHIN 3396 Study Abroad (3)
- CHIN 4995 Directed reading (3)
- AH 4800 Special Studies Lecture (if Chinese Art) (3)
- HIST 3700 China and Japan to 1600 (3)
- HIST 3710 China and Japan since 1600 (3)
- HIST 4890 Topics in World history (if China) (3)
- POLS 4465 China and the International System (3)
- POLS 4257 Chinese Politics (3)
- PT 4130 Taichi-A Therapeutic Exercise (3)
- RELS 4620 Confucianism and Taoism (3)
- RELS 4615 Buddhism (3)
- RELS 4628 Topics in Asian Religion (if China-related) (3)

Area I: Electives (12)

Choose any four 3000/4000 level courses, in consultation with the academic advisor.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies with a Concentration in Asian Studies

The interdisciplinary program in Asian Studies provides students an opportunity to acquire a career-oriented range of skills and knowledge of this important and unique region by choosing from a large number of courses offered at Georgia State in a range of departments. See section 3140 for additional information.

Certificate of Language Ability in Chinese

A strong demand exists by employers for candidates to offer credentials to verify language proficiency in both oral and written communication. The undergraduate Certificate of Language Ability is designed for students to offer tangible proof of their language abilities and makes an ideal complement to other areas of study such as business, international relations, public health, criminal justice, hospitality, and more.

The certificate consists of 12 credit hours at 2000- and 3000-level (minimum of 6 must be at the 3000-level), with a B or higher in the first attempt at each course. Courses retaken using the university Repeat to Replace policy are not counted as first attempts.

- At the 2000-level, students may enroll in CHIN 2001 and CHIN 2002.
- At the 3000-level, students may enroll in CHIN 3001 and CHIN 3002.

Interdisciplinary Minor in Chinese Studies

Program Coordinator: Andrew Wedeman (awedeman@gsu.edu)

Program Degree Requirements

The Chinese Studies minor gives undergraduates in a wide variety of majors the opportunity to take an interdisciplinary set of courses that can combine social sciences, humanities, language, and other disciplines relating to China and Chinese culture. The minor thus provides students with the opportunity to highlight their area studies background and prepares them for higher-level studies on China, Chinese culture and language. Chinese studies minors are highly encouraged to participate in a study abroad program either in China.

Students who wish to minor in Chinese Studies should complete 15 credit hours including at least nine credit hours at the 3000 level or above. Students must complete at least 6 hours in a CHIN course and may obtain credit for no more than two courses from a single other course prefix. A grade of C or higher is required in all minor courses.

Current courses available for the minor include:

- CHIN 1002 Elementary Chinese II (3) (if not counted in core Area C)
- CHIN 2001 Intermediate Chinese I (3) (if not counted in core Area C)
- CHIN 2002 Intermediate Chinese II (3) (if not counted in core Area C)
- CHIN 3001 Advanced Chinese I
- CHIN 3002 Advanced Chinese II
- CHIN 3080 Topics in Chinese Studies (CTW)
- CHIN 3081 Cultural Dimensions of Language Learning (CTW)
- CHIN 3395 Study Abroad (3)
- CHIN 3396 Study Abroad (3)
- CHIN 3397 Study Abroad (3)
- CHIN 4995 Directed Readings B.I.S-CTW (3-4)
- HIST 3700 China and Japan to 1600 (4)
- HIST 3710 China and Japan Since 1600 (4)
- HIST 4890 Topics in World History (3-4) (if China-related)

3190 Classical Studies

The Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies concentration in Classical Studies is no longer accepting new students and is in the process of being deactivated.
3200 Communication Sciences

Program Offered:

- Interdisciplinary Minor in Communication Sciences

Program Coordinator: Luciana Lessa Rodrigues (lrodrigues@gsu.edu)

The Interdisciplinary Minor in Communication Sciences is designed to offer undergraduate students an organized set of classes that will enhance their major coursework and prepare them to apply for graduate programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders (CSD).

The goal of the Interdisciplinary Minor in Communication Sciences is to support the completion of courses that are required by Master’s programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders nationally. By completing this minor, students will be able to obtain knowledge in a variety of disciplines that are required for acceptance in a graduate program in CSD.

Recommended Courses for Area A-F

Students should enter the Communication Sciences minor having taken course prerequisites needed for entrance into their planned program of study. Below is a list of courses that are prerequisites for courses included as options in the Communication Sciences minor. Students should plan their desired program of study and identify which prerequisites they need to fulfill.

- BIOL 1103K Introductory Biology I (4)
- MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)
- PHYS 2030 Physics of Music and Speech (3)
- PSYC 1101 Intro to General Psychology (3)
- SCOM 1010 Voice and Articulation (3)

Required Courses for the Interdisciplinary Minor (15-18)

Students pursuing the interdisciplinary minor in Communication Sciences must take five courses. No more than two of the courses counting towards the minor can have the same course prefix.

1. Choose two of the following:
   - CSD 4360 Anatomy and Physiology for Communication (3)
   - SCOM 4440 Speech Science (3)
   - PSYC 4400 Psychology of the Atypical Child (3)

2. Choose three of the following:
   - AL 3041 Second Language Acquisition (3)
   - EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities (3)
   - EXC 4370 American Sign Language I (3)
   - CSD 4360 Anatomy and Physiology for Communication (3)
   - CSD 4480 Hearing Sciences and Disorders (3)
   - CSD 4490 Audiologic Rehabilitation (3)
- CSD 4320 Introduction to Language Disorders (3)
- [GERO 4475/]SCOM 4475 Communication and Aging (3)
- GERO 4610/PSYC 4610 Psychology of Aging (3)
- SCOM 3000 Phonetics (3)
- SCOM 4410 Communication Disorders (3)
- SCOM 4980 Internship (3)
- SCOM 4800 Communication and Diversity (3)
- SCOM 4440 Speech Science (3)
- SCOM 4400 Communication and Language Development Across the Lifespan (3)
- PSYC 4040 Developmental Psychology (3)
- PSYC 4400 Psychology of the Atypical Child (3)
3210 Computer Science

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Science in Computer Science
  - Concentration in Computer Software Systems
  - Concentration in Databases and Knowledge-based Systems
  - Concentration in Graphics and Human-Computer Interaction
  - Concentration in Hardware Systems
  - Concentration in Networks and Parallel and Distributed Computing
  - Concentration in Theoretical Computer Science
- Dual Degree Programs
  - Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Computer Science
  - Bachelor of Science in Computer Science with the Master of Science in Health Administration (Health Informatics specialization)
  - Bachelor of Science in Computer Science with the Master of Science in Information Systems
- Minor in Computer Science

Department of Computer Science

Raj Sunderraman, Acting Chair
Anu Bourgeois, Director of Undergraduate Studies

Computer science is the systematic exploration of all aspects of computation. Computer science as a discipline seeks to build a scientific foundation for topics such as computer design, computer programming and software, information processing, algorithmic solutions to problems, and the algorithmic process itself. Computer science provides underpinnings for today’s applications in industry, science, government, and business and prepares the foundation for tomorrow’s applications in ubiquitous computing, medical cures for diseases, and instant access to information by everyone.

The B.S. degree program in computer science provides preparation in the fundamental principles and processes of computation and training in applying these principles in application areas in industry, science, government, and business. The student completes a basic group of required courses in the early stages and chooses courses from several concentrations in the later stages to provide for appropriate breadth and depth of knowledge in the discipline.

A B.S. degree in computer science provides a good foundation for advanced studies at the M.S. or Ph.D. level as well as for careers in industry, science, government, and business. To plan the major according to particular goals, students are encouraged to consult with an adviser in the department. Majors who are interested in having a paid work experience related to their area of study should contact the university’s Office of Cooperative Education, which coordinates the university’s cooperative education programs.

The courses are structured, and the department enforces the prerequisites for its courses. Students are urged to check and take the prerequisites for computer science courses and any computer science requirement as listed by their major department/school/institute. Refer any questions to that major department/school/institute or to the Department of Computer Science.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college's Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Academic Regulations

A minimum grade of C is required in all mathematics, physics, and computer science courses and all 3000-level or above courses that are used to fulfill the undergraduate programs of this department.

As part of the core curriculum, students must receive credit for the two calculus courses: Math 2211 and Math 2212. (When counting the number of semester hours in Areas A, D, and F, only 3 of the 4 credit hours of each calculus course will be counted in Area A and/or D. The fourth hour, or the “rollover hour,” will be counted in Area F.)

Prerequisites and co-requisites are strictly enforced in all computer science courses.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

B.S. in Computer Science

Core Curriculum Areas A-E Requirements and Recommendations

Area A:

- Required course: MATH 1112, MATH 1113, or higher level MATH must be taken in Area A. A section of MATH 1113 Precalculus that is designated specifically for this major is recommended (see GoSolar listing to identify appropriate sections).

Area D:

- Required course: MATH 2211 Calculus I (4) (or a higher level mathematics course) (One credit hour counts in Area F or as an elective.)
- Recommended course: PHYS 2211 Principles of Physics I (4) and PHYS 2212 Principles of Physics II (4)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Carry over from Areas A and/or D (1-2):
Students will carry one additional credit hour over to Area F for each 4-credit-hour mathematics course taken in Area A and/or Area D.

2. MATH 2212 Calculus II (4) (unless taken in either Area A or D) (0-4)

3. Required courses: (11)
   - CSC 1301 Principles of Computer Science I (4)
   - CSC 1302 Principles of Computer Science II (4)
   - CSC 2510 Theoretical Foundations of Computer Science or MATH 2420 (3)

4. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - ASTR 1010K, ASTR 1020K, BIOL 1103K, BIOL 1104K, BIOL 2107K BIOL 2108K, CHEM 1211K, CHEM 1212K, GEOL 1121K, GEOL 1122K

- All courses above ending in K are commonly offered as separate lecture and lab (L) courses by GSU’s Perimeter College. The combined (K) courses and separate lecture and lab (L) courses cover the same subject matter and are considered equivalent courses.
- Any credit hours exceeding 18 earned to complete the Area F requirements will count toward elective hours.

Area G: Major Requirements (48)

1. Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (4):
   - CSC 4350 Software Engineering (4)

2. MATH 3030 Mathematical Models for Computer Science (3)

3. PHYS 2212K Principles of Physics II (4) (Unless already taken in Area D)

4. Computer Science Requirements (21):
   - CSC 2720 Data Structures (3)
   - CSC 3210 Computer Organization and Programming (3)
   - CSC 3320 System-Level Programming (3)
   - CSC 4210 Computer Architecture (4)
   - CSC 4330 Programming Language Concepts (4)
   - CSC 4520 Design and Analysis of Algorithms (4)

5. For a total of twenty (20) hours, select at least three courses from within one of the following concentrations and at least two additional courses from among the courses strictly outside your chosen concentration.

   - Computer Software Systems Concentration
     - CSC 4110 Introduction to Embedded Systems Laboratory (4)
     - CSC 4310 Parallel and Distributed Computing (4)
     - CSC 4320 Operating Systems (4)
     - CSC 4340 Introduction to Compilers (4)
     - CSC 4360 Mobile App Development (4)
     - CSC 4370 Web Programming (4)
     - CSC 4380 Windowing Systems Programming (4)
     - CSC 4760 Big Data Programming (4)
     - and other 4000-level courses approved by the Department

   - Databases and Knowledge-based Systems Concentration
     - CSC 4260 Digital Image Processing (4)
     - CSC 4360 Network-Oriented Software Development (4)
     - CSC 4370 Web Programming (4)
- CSC 4710 Database Systems (4)
- CSC 4740 Data Mining (4)
- CSC 4750 Semantic Web (4)
- CSC 4760 Big Data Programming (4)
- CSC 4810 Artificial Intelligence (4)
- and other 4000-level courses approved by the Department

○ Graphics and Human-Computer Interaction Concentration
  - CSC 4260 Digital Image Processing (4)
  - CSC 4380 Windowing Systems Programming (4)
  - CSC 4720 Human-Computer Interaction (4)
  - CSC 4730 Data Visualization (4)
  - CSC 4820 Interactive Computer Graphics (4)
  - CSC 4821 Fundamentals of Game Design (4)
  - CSC 4840 Computer Graphics Imaging (4)
  - CSC 4841 Computer Animation (3)
  - and other 4000-level courses approved by the Department

○ Hardware Systems Concentration
  - CSC 4110 Introduction to Embedded Systems Laboratory (4)
  - CSC 4120 Introduction to Robotics (4)
  - CSC 4220 Computer Networks (4)
  - CSC 4270 Introduction to Digital Signal Processing (4)
  - CSC 4630 Introduction to Matlab Programming (4)
  - and other 4000-level courses approved by the Department

○ Networks and Parallel and Distributed Computing Concentration
  - CSC 4220 Computer Networks (4)
  - CSC 4221 Wireless Networks and Mobile Computing (4)
  - CSC 4222 Introduction to Information Security (4)
  - CSC 4225 Internetwork Programming (4)
  - CSC 4310 Parallel and Distributed Computing (4)
  - CSC 4320 Operating Systems (4)
  - CSC 4360 Mobile App Development (4)
  - CSC 4830 System Simulation (4)
  - and other 4000-level courses approved by the Department

○ Theoretical Computer Science Concentration
  - CSC 4340 Introduction to Compilers (4)
  - CSC 4510 Automata (4)
  - CSC 4610 Numerical Analysis I (3)
  - CSC 4620 Numerical Analysis II (3)
  - and other 4000-level courses approved by the Department

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses (12)

1. Twelve hours of additional courses taken at the 2000-4000 level (12)
2. Students earning a B.S. in the Department of Computer Science are not required to complete a minor.
3. Additional courses must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010.
Minor in Computer Science

Students choosing to minor in computer science should complete CSC 1302 and CSC 2720 and nine hours of additional computer science courses at the 3000 level or above. Consultation with an adviser in computer science is recommended. Students majoring in mathematics may not include CSC 4610 or CSC 4620 in the minor.

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic adviser to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.

Dual Bachelor's/Master's Degree Programs

The department offers the following dual degree programs, the last two in partnership with the J. Mack Robinson College of Business:

- Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Computer Science
- Bachelor of Science in Computer Science with the Master of Science in Health Administration (Health Informatics specialization)
- Bachelor of Science in Computer Science with the Master of Science in Information Systems

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the participating departments and colleges to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This unit offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.
3220 English

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in English
  - Concentration in Creative Writing
  - Concentration in Literature
  - Concentration in Pre-Education
  - Concentration in Rhetoric and Composition
- British-American Joint Studies Program Concentration
- Minor in English
- Minor in Folklore

Department of English

Lynée Lewis Gaillet, Chair
Audrey Goodman, Associate Chair
Stephen B. Dobranski, Director of Undergraduate Studies
Elizabeth Sanders Lopez, Director of Lower Division Studies
Josh Russell, Director of Creative Writing

The Department of English is concerned with the study of language and literature and with the craft of writing considered integral to education since ancient times. Although the department concentrates on texts written in English by authors from Great Britain, Ireland, and the United States, it also examines translations of texts from other languages as well as newly emerging literatures in English from other cultural perspectives. Students may also encounter practices that are not, strictly speaking, “writing” at all, such as oral compositions, hypertexts, and folk art.

In the first year, all students in the university take courses in the fundamentals of college-level writing and in the reasoned analysis of texts. Other English courses that form part of the core curriculum provide students with opportunities to study topics in world literature or surveys of British, American, and World literature.

English majors may concentrate in one of four areas: literature, rhetoric and composition, creative writing, and pre-education. Before choosing their concentrations, all English majors have the opportunity at the sophomore level to gain a broad foundation in British and American literature and studies in literature or rhetoric. Then, with the help of their advisers, majors choose upper-division courses, which allow them to pursue their interests in more depth. Finally, students study within their chosen concentrations in seminars designed as capstones for the major.

In addition, the department’s joint studies program with the University of Northumbria in Newcastle, England, offers Georgia State University English and history majors the opportunity to complete their degrees with a concentration in British and American Cultures.
On successfully completing their studies, English majors will have acquired a sensitivity to the written word and an appreciation for the creative process. They will have developed their skills in organization, writing, and interpretation. English courses offer students the opportunity to discover their own insights and to articulate them with precision.

Majors who concentrate in literature take a range of courses that afford them opportunities to read poetry, prose, and drama from a variety of historical periods and cultural groups. These literature courses seek to promote students’ verbal acuity and abilities at thoughtful evaluation.

Closely related to the study of literature is the department’s creative writing program. Faculty in this program guide students as they practice and refine their work in the genres of poetry and fiction.

Students who concentrate in rhetoric and composition learn about the history, theory, and practice of writing to specific audiences for particular purposes. In this concentration, students may focus on either historical rhetoric and the teaching of composition or writing within business and technical environments. Courses in this area allow students to explore the history and theory of writing as applied to the teaching of composition and to writing practices in the workplace.

English majors who wish to teach English in secondary schools integrate studies of literature, language, and composition with a senior seminar that combines these areas with pedagogy.

The Department of English offers courses in the related field of folklore. Georgia State University is the only institution in the state offering a wide selection of folklore courses.

A number of courses in the Department of English have an interdisciplinary approach, and several are crosslisted with other units within the university, such as the Department of African-American Studies and the Institute for Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies.

Because of the dynamic and varied nature of our discipline, many of the courses offered (especially on the 4000 level) focus on specific topics not indicated in detail here. Students should inquire in the department office for further information about courses.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Degree Requirements

Students must pass ENGL 1102 with a grade of C or higher to register for ENGL 2105, ENGL 2110, ENGL 2120, ENGL 2130, or ENGL 2160. All English majors must pass ENGL 1102 and either ENGL 2120 or ENGL 2130 with a grade of C or higher to enroll in upper-division English courses. Students must pass at least 6 hours in 3000-level English courses with a grade of C or higher in order to enroll in any 4000-level English course. All English minors who plan to take British literature courses must have completed ENGL 2120 with a grade of C or higher, and all English minors planning to take American literature courses must have completed ENGL 2130 with a grade of C or higher.
The department requires a minimum of 30 semester hours in upper-division English, with no more than 11 being transferred credits. The College of Arts and Sciences requires that students pass all upper-division courses in their majors with a grade of C or higher.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

B.A. in English

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major Field (18)

1. World language or literature (6)
   - World language (including American Sign Language) at the 2001 level (3)
   - Either ENGL 2110 World Literature (3) or world language at the 2002 level (3)

2. Required Courses (6)
   - ENGL 2120 British Literature (3)
   - ENGL 2130 American Literature (3)

3. Select additional elective courses from Area C or from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - AAS 2010, ENGL 2160, HIST 1111, HIST 1112, HIST 1140, WGSS 2010, World language 1002 (3)

Area G: Major Courses (30)

The English major requires ten upper-division courses (30 semester hours) distributed as described below. The same course may not be used to satisfy more than one of the listed requirements. A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses.

Each of the four concentrations within the major has specific requirements as outlined here. Students should consult the department for specific information about which courses offered in each two-year sequence will fit the requirements for each concentration. All students are encouraged to pursue internships (ENGL 4500).

Creative Writing Concentration

1. Creative Writing Core Requirements (12)
   A student electing to pursue the B.A. in English, Concentration in Creative Writing must choose a sub-concentration in either Poetry or Fiction and complete the 12-hour/4-class sequence of Creative Writing classes in that sub-concentration.

   @. Poetry:
   - Select one course:
     - ENGL 3150A Introduction to Creative Writing: Poetry (3)
     - ENGL 3150C Introduction to Creative Writing: Poetry & Fiction (3)
   - ENGL 3170 Poetic Techniques (3)
   - ENGL 3180A Contemporary Poetry (3)
   - ENGL 4310A Senior Seminar: Poetry Writing (CTW) (3)
@. Fiction:
- Select one course:
  - ENGL 3150B Introduction to Creative Writing: Fiction (3)
  - ENGL 3150C Introduction to Creative Writing: Poetry and Fiction (3)
- ENGL 3160 Narrative Techniques (3)
- ENGL 3180B Contemporary Fiction Craft (3)
- ENGL 4310B Senior Seminar: Fiction Writing (CTW) (3)
2. Methods: Select one course from Literature Studies Area 1. (3)
  - ENGL 3040 Introduction to Literary Studies (3)
  - ENGL 3105 Practical Grammar (3)
  - ENGL 3210 Advanced Grammar (3)
  - ENGL 3220 History of the English Language (3)
  - ENGL 3225 History and Future of the Book (3)
  - ENGL 3230 History of Literary and Cultural Theory (3)
  - ENGL 3250 Topics in Contemporary Theory (3)
  - ENGL 3260 Theories of Popular Culture (3)
  - ENGL 3995 Feminist Literary Criticism (3)
  - FOLK 3100 Folklore and Literature (3)
  - ENGL 4204 Special Topics in Criticism and Theory (3)
3. Literature before 1800: Select one class from Literature Studies Area 2. (3)
  - ENGL 3280 English Drama before 1800 (3)
  - ENGL 3290 English Fiction before 1800 (3)
  - ENGL 3300 Medieval Literature (3)
  - ENGL 3100 Old English (3)
  - ENGL 3350 Literature and War (3)
  - ENGL 3400 Courtiers, Clergy, and Poets (3)
  - ENGL 3410 Seduction, Revolution, and the Birth of Science (3)
    - ENGL 3420 Mythology (3)
  - ENGL 3500 Restoration and Eighteenth-Century English Literature (3)
  - ENGL 3510 Later Eighteenth-Century English Literature (3)
  - ENGL 3520 Life Writing (3)
  - ENGL 3550 Early Indigenous Literature (3)
  - ENGL 3600 Early Romanticism (3)
  - ENGL 3800 Early American Literature (3)
  - ENGL 3915 Literature of the Early South (3)
  - ENGL 3980 Women’s Literature before 1800 (3)
  - ENGL 4110 Chaucer (3)
  - ENGL 4130 Shakespeare, Earlier Works (3)
  - ENGL 4140 Shakespeare, Later Works (3)
  - ENGL 4150 Milton (3)
  - ENGL 4100 Study of a Single Author before 1800 (3)
  - ENGL 4201 Special Topics before 1800 (3)
4. Literature after 1800: Select one course from Literature Studies Area 3. (3)
  - ENGL 3605 Late Romanticism (3)
  - ENGL 3610 Love and Death in Victorian Poetry (3)
  - ENGL 3620 The Victorian Novel (3)
  - ENGL 3630 Haunted Texts (3)
5. 4000-level Literature Elective: Select one 4000-level course from Literature Studies Area 2 or Area 3. (3)
   - ENGL 4110 Chaucer (3)
   - ENGL 4130 Shakespeare, Earlier Works (3)
   - ENGL 4140 Shakespeare, Later Works (3)
   - ENGL 4150 Milton (3)
   - ENGL 4100 Study of a Single Author before 1800 (3)
   - ENGL 4201 Special Topics before 1800 (3)
   - ENGL 4010 Topics in African American Culture (3)
   - ENGL 4020 Advanced Indigenous Literature (3)
   - ENGL 4030 Literature and the City (3)
   - ENGL 4040 Religion and Literature (3)
   - ENGL 4050 Transnational Literature (3)
ENGL 4101 Study of a Single Author after 1800 (3)
ENGL 4202 Special Topics after 1800 (3)

6. Creative Writing, Literature, Rhetoric and Composition, Folklore, Pre-Education in English
Electives. Select two 3000-level or 4000-level English or Folklore courses. (6)

When choosing classes from this section, consider how you can use this coursework to increase your professional and/or personal post-graduate options. If your primary interest is writing poetry or fiction, take an additional Creative Writing class or classes (fiction if your sub-concentration is poetry, poetry if your sub-concentration is fiction; Special Topics in Creative Writing (ENGL 4205); etc.). If you would like the option of entering the workforce directly after graduation, use these elective hours to prepare for a career as a technical or professional writer by enrolling in ENGL 3110 Technical Writing or ENGL 4510 Grant and Proposal Writing. If you’re considering graduate school in Literature, Creative Writing, or a research-and-writing-focused field (Law, Education, etc.), choose an additional Literature or Folklore class.
Editing classes, including ENGL 3140 Editing for Publication and ENGL 4501 Literary Editing and Publishing, can be useful if you’re interested in launching your own magazine or small press, or entering the workforce as an editor. ENGL 4500 Internship offers a variety of experiences useful for both professional and personal growth.

Teacher Certification

English majors who want to pursue certification to teach at the middle or secondary school level should seek advisement from the College of Education Office of Academic Assistance (300] College of Education Building, 404-413-8000) and the Middle Secondary Education and Instructional Technology Department (639 College of Education Building, 404-413-8060). Georgia State University offers a four-semester Master of Arts in Teaching degree in Middle Childhood or in English Education (TEEMS MCE and TEEMS Secondary English) with initial certification that is a four-semester program. Application deadlines are October 1 and February 1 for the following semesters. Students interested in teaching in middle school should major and minor in a combination of English (Pre-Education in English Concentration) and Social Studies. The English minor interested in teaching middle school should complete the following plan of study: ENGL 2120, ENGL 2130, and ENGL 3040, ENGL 3105, ENGL 3910, and one of the following: ENGL 3100, ENGL 3180, ENGL 3190.

7. General Electives: select two courses in English or Folklore (3000- or 4000-level). (6)

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

English majors have three options: a minor, a double major, or additional courses in the major. One of these options, combined with electives, will complete their degree requirements. Each student should discuss these options with a department adviser and choose the one that will best serve the student’s long-term goals.

- Minor: at least 15 semester hours, 9 hours of which must be taken at the 3000 level or above, either in Folklore or from one department, school, or institute other than the English department. The requirements for a minor must be fulfilled in a department, school, or institute that offers a baccalaureate degree. Students interested in an interdisciplinary minor should consult their advisers.
  The College of Arts and Sciences requires a grade of C or higher in each course counted toward the minor.
- Double major: course work to satisfy requirements for a second major in addition English; all college and departmental requirements apply to this as to the first major.
- Further course work in the major: three courses (9 hours) beyond the ten courses (30 hours) required for the major. Additional courses from departments, schools, or institutes other than the major must be taken to complete a minimum of 120 hours, exclusive of 1000-2000 level physical education. One of these courses must be Lang 2002 (see “Major Courses” above).

Departmental Student Assessment: Senior Exit Portfolio

To graduate, English majors must submit an exit portfolio designed appropriate to their concentration. All portfolios include a statement of self-assessment and four to six substantial pieces of writing that demonstrate their skills appropriate to their concentration. Specific information about the exit portfolio for each concentration is available from the department. Portfolios are due at the mid-point of the semester of graduation.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major
Departmental distinction is separate from the Honors College. Majors who have a grade-point average of at least 3.5 in upper-division English courses are eligible to undertake a project that could lead to graduation with distinction.

In the academic term in which the student plans to graduate, she works with a faculty member who directs the substantial revision of a previous work related to any of the English Department’s concentrations.

Faculty members may invite students to pursue Graduation with Distinction (based on the student’s work in the faculty member’s course), or students may nominate themselves to earn Graduation with Distinction. The student must submit the project’s title, the name of the faculty director, and a brief description of the proposed project to the Chair of the Events and Awards Committee by the end of the second week of classes in the semester that the student plans to graduate.

The student does not get course credit for undertaking this project—and is not guaranteed that she will earn Graduation with Distinction. That decision is made by an oral examination committee comprising the director and two other members chosen by the Chair of the Events and Awards Committee. The oral examination must occur before the end of classes in the semester that the student plans to graduate. The student must maintain the stipulated GPA requirement at the time of graduation.

Minor in English or Folklore

Students who minor in English or Folklore must complete at least 15-18 hours of course work in English or Folklore, including 12 hours at the 3000 level or above (and any prerequisites required). Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in English may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. See above under Teacher Certification for an English minor in preparation to teach middle school. (A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.)

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.
3230 English as a Second Language (ESL)

Programs Offered:

- ESL Credit-Bearing Courses
- Intensive English Program (IEP)

Department of Applied Linguistics and English as a Second Language
15th Floor, 25 Park Place Building
404-413-5200
alsl.gsu.edu

Diane Belcher, Chair
Sarah Kegley, ESL Director (credit-bearing courses)
Alison Camacho, IEP Director

The ESL credit–bearing courses for bilingual/non-native speakers of English at the undergraduate level include special sections of ENGL 1101 and ENGL 1102 and Human Communication ([Spch 1000] and [Spch 1500]). These courses are for both international students and resident bilingual/bicultural students. For more information, see “ESL Program” at alsl.gsu.edu.

The IEP is a non-credit program designed to prepare students with the language and study skills necessary for successful academic work in American colleges and universities. Classes are offered at advanced beginning, low intermediate, intermediate, high intermediate, and advanced levels in the following areas: structure/composition, reading/listening, academic writing, extensive reading, and oral communication.

Students are admitted to the IEP through the Department of Applied Linguistics and ESL and not through regular Georgia State admission procedures. For information and/or application forms, contact: Intensive English Program, Georgia State University, P.O. Box 4099, Atlanta, GA 30302-4099, or at iep.gsu.edu.

Admission to the Intensive English Program does not constitute regular admission to a degree-granting program of Georgia State or of any other branch of the University System of Georgia. Students who wish to take degree work at the university must complete the student application appropriate for the desired program, submit all credentials, and receive an official decision from the Office of Admissions or Office of Graduate Services.
3235 Entertainment Media Management

Program Offered:

- Interdisciplinary Minor in Entertainment Media Management

Creative Media Industries Institute

David Cheshier, director and program coordinator, dcheshier@gsu.edu

The interdisciplinary Entertainment Media Management minor prepares students for a variety of management-related careers in the entertainment and music industries. The curriculum is founded on a basic knowledge of business administration, contracts, intellectual property issues, event management, artist management, marketing, promotion and branding basics. The minor would prepare students to work in a range of capacities in artist management, concert promotion, music publishing, recording, publicity and marketing/promotion firms. Graduates will leave with an understanding of the distinctiveness of the entertainment business and will be prepared to enter this rapidly changing and multifaceted world.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Arts students should also consult regularly with the faculty program coordinator for the specific program regarding course selection, program plans, experiential learning, and other academic opportunities.

Interdisciplinary Minor in Entertainment Media Management

Recommended Courses for Area A-F

Students should enter the Entertainment Media Management minor having taken course prerequisites needed for entrance into their planned program of study. Below is a list of courses that are common prerequisites for courses in the Entertainment Media Management.

- ART 1010 Drawing I (3 credit hours)
- ART 1020 Two-Dimensional Design (3)
- ENGL 1101 English Composition I (3)
- ENGL 1102 English Composition II (3)
- FLME 1010 Film Aesthetics and Analysis (3)

Required Courses for the Interdisciplinary Minor (15-18 hours)

Students pursuing the interdisciplinary minor in Entertainment Media Management must take five courses, with at least one from each of three areas: Media Industry/Law/Policy, Marketing and Promotion, and Production Perspectives. No more than two of the five courses counting toward the minor can have the same course prefix. Additionally, no more than two of the five courses counting toward the minor may also count toward the major.

Courses in the Media Industry/Law/Policy area survey the contemporary media landscape in terms of ownership, distribution structures, and intellectual property/regulation issues. Marketing and Promotion Courses equip the student with the basic tools to analyze entertainment markets and publicize media properties. Production Perspectives courses allow the student to briefly engage in media production in order to better understand how to interact with media creative personnel.

Environmental Science

Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies in Environmental Science

Program Coordinator: Rebekah Chapman, rchapman@gsu.edu

The BIS in Environmental Science program provides a foundation in the physical and life sciences, policy, and global and urban sustainability issues. This concentration emphasizes a broad-based course of study, exposing students to the complex social and scientific processes involved in understanding and addressing environmental issues. Students are encouraged to develop specific areas of focus depending on their future goals (e.g., graduate school, government agencies, and environmental consulting firms).

Program Admission

A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required in order to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the Office of Academic Assistance (see below). Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Arts students should also consult regularly with the faculty program coordinator for the specific program regarding course selection, program plans, experiential learning, and other academic opportunities.

Program Degree Requirements

Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 3030.30 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program. In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

B.I.S. in Environmental Science

Area A:

1. Recommended Course: MATH 1112 College Trigonometry, MATH 1113 Precalculus (3), or any higher-level mathematics course. MATH 1113 recommended.

Area C:
1. Recommended: World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)

Area D:

1. Recommended courses: GEOL 1121K Introductory Geology I (4) and GEOL 1122K Introductory Geology II (4)
2. Recommended course: Any one math not taken in Area A from the following choices: MATH 1070, MATH 1220, MATH 2201, MATH 2202, MATH 2211, MATH 2212 (or any higher level math). For any four credit-hour course, three hours are applied to Area D and one credit hour is applied to Area F.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

Please discuss Area F selections with program coordinator or your academic advisor, as many of the options below are prerequisites for upper-level courses.

1. Required courses (if not taken in Areas C or D) (16):
   a. World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)
   b. Select one geosciences lab sequence (8):
      ■ GEOG 1112K Introduction to Weather and Climate (4) and GEOG 1113K Introduction to Landforms (4)
   c. Select one biology lab sequence (8):
      ■ BIOL 1103K Introductory Biology I (4) and BIOL 1104K Introductory Biology II (4)
      ■ BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4) and BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4)
2. Select additional courses from the list below to complete 18 hours in Area F. (Please discuss these choices with your academic advisor to be certain you are taking the prerequisites necessary for Areas G and H.)
   o ANTH 1102, ANTH 2010, ANTH 2020, ANTH 2030, BIOL 2300, BIOL 2800, CHEM 1151K, CHEM 1152K or CHEM 1211K, [CHEM 1122K], CHEM 2400, [ECON 2105, ECON 2106, GEOL 1121K, GEOL 1122K, GEOL 2001, MATH 1070, MATH 2211, MATH 2212, POLS 2401, PSYC 1101, SOCI 1101

   • All courses above ending in K are commonly offered as separate lecture and lab (L) courses by GSU’s Perimeter College. The combined (K) courses and separate lecture and lab (L) courses cover the same subject matter and are considered equivalent courses.
   • Any credit hours exceeding 18 earned to complete the Area F requirements will count toward elective hours.

Area G: Area of Concentration — Foundations of Environmental Science and Sustainability (27-34)

No more than 12 credit hours can come from a single discipline. Some of the Area G courses listed below are also in Area H. They may only count in one place.

1. Required of all BIS Environmental Science Majors (10)
   a. Geosciences. Select one course:
b. Public Management and Policy. Select one course:
   - Recommended option:
     - PMAP 3021 Citizenship, The Community, and The Public Sector (3)
   - Additional options:
     - PMAP 3011 Policy and Politics in the American City (3)
     - PMAP 4421 GIS Application to Planning and Policy Analysis (3)

c. Biology. Select one course:
   - BIOL 3020 Introduction to Marine Biology (3)
   - BIOL 3820 Plant Biology (3) (consult with advisor prior to registration)
   - BIOL 3840 Animal Biology (3) (consult with advisor prior to registration)

2. CTW Course. Students must take one CTW course appropriate to the program (3-4). CTW courses do not count toward the maximum number of courses within a single discipline.
   - Recommended options:
     - BIOL 4045K General Ecology-CTW (4)
     - GEOG 4784 Climate Change-CTW (4)
   - Additional options:
     - BIOL 3810 Molecular Cell Biology Lab-CTW (3)
     - GEOG 4764 Urban Geography-CTW (4)
     - PMAP 3311 Critical Policy Issues-CTW (3)
     - PMAP 4051 Evaluating Public Policy-CTW (3)
     - SCOM 3250 Persuasion-CTW (3)

3. Research Methods/Spatial Analysis (3-10)
   - Recommended options:
     - BIOL 4045K General Ecology (4)
     - GEOG 4532 Geographic Information Systems (4)
     - PMAP 4421 GIS Application Planning and Policy Analysis (3)
   - Additional options:
     - ANTH 4360 Methods and Theories in Biological Anthropology (3)
     - ANTH 4590 Archeological Methods (4)
     - ANTH 4670 Research Methods in Sociocultural Anthropology (3)
     - GEOG 4515 Qualitative Methods in Geography (4)
     - GEOG 4518 Digital Cartography (4)
     - GEOG 4520 Quantitative Spatial Analysis (4)
     - GEOG 4530 Introduction to Remote Sensing (4)
     - PMAP 4041 Policy Data Analysis (3)
     - [PSYCH 3510] Introduction to Research Design and Analysis (4)
     - SOCI 3010 Social Statistics (3)
     - MATH 4547 Intro to Statistical Methods (3)

4. Elective Courses in Environmental Science (3-10)
   - ANTH 4060 Environmental Anthropology (3)
   - ANTH 4550 Field School in Anthropology (4-8)
   - BIOL 3020 Introduction to Marine Biology (3)
   - BIOL 3440 Fundamentals of Evolution (3)
   - BIOL 3800 Molecular and Cell Biology (3)
- BIOL 4011/GEOL 4011 Principles of Paleontology (4)
- BIOL 4050/GEOG 4050 Natural Environments of Georgia (4)
- BIOL 4930 Tropical Island Ecology
- BIOL 4910 Undergraduate Research in Biology (Ecology) (1-5)
- BIOL 4915 Collaborative Internships in Biology (Sustainability) (2)
- BIOL 4916 Ecology Internship (2)
- BIOL 4930 Tropical Island Ecology (3)
- ECON 4220 Environmental Economics and Policy (3)
- EDCI 4100 Service Learning in Action (3)
- GEOG 4534 Advanced Geographic Information Systems (4)
- GEOG 4538 Urban Health Geographic Information Systems (4)
- GEOG 4640 Geomorphology (4)
- GEOL 4005 Geology of Georgia (3)
- GEOL 4017 Environmental Geology (4)
- JOUR 3040/SCOM 3040 Communicating Environmental Issues (3)
- PMAP 3210 Introduction to Nonprofits (3)
- PMAP 4331 Urban Development and Sustainable Cities (3)
- PSYC 4520 Environmental Psychology (3)
- SOCI 3350 Social Change and the Future (3)

5. Elective Courses at Large (0-8)
   - Additional courses may be taken from areas 1-4 to bring total hours to 27-34.

Area H: Allied Field – Environmental Science in Context (15-21)

Choose one area of concentration from the options below and select the courses that fit your career goals. If courses have been taken to fulfill Area G, they cannot also count in Area H. Students may combine courses to create their own area of focus with the approval of the faculty program coordinator and the college BIS director. No more than eight hours may come from a single discipline.

Courses with multiple prerequisites are indicated with an asterisk (*). Please consult with the faculty program coordinator regarding prerequisite waivers, which may not be possible for many courses.

1. Sustainability Focus:
   - BIOL 4916 Internships in Biology (focus: Ecology/Sustainability Internships) (2)
   - BIOL 4930 Topics in Biology (topic: Tropical Island Ecology, Virgin Islands) (3-4)
   - EDCI 4100 Service Learning in Action (3)
   - GEOG 4644 Environmental Conservation (4)
   - JOUR 3040 Communicating Environmental Issues (3)*
   - PMAP 3210 Introduction to Nonprofits (3)
   - PMAP 3211 Career Development in Public and Nonprofit (3)
   - PMAP 3213 Nonprofit Financial Resources (3)
   - PMAP 3231 Nonprofit Leadership and Management (3)
   - PSYC 4520 Environmental Psychology (3)
   - SOCI 3350 Social Change and the Future (3)

2. Natural and Cultural Resources Management:
   - ANTH 4170 Mesoamerican Archaeology (4)
   - ANTH 4180 Archeology of the Southeastern US (4)
3. Urban Ecology/Sustainable Development:
   - ANTH 4200 Urban Anthropology (3)
   - BIOL 4915 Collaborative Internships in Biology (focus: Ecology/Sustainability Externship) (2)
   - ECON 4300 Economics of Cities (3)
   - EDCI 4100 Service Learning in Action (3)
   - GEOG 4538 Urban Health Geographic Systems (4)

Area I: Electives

Electives are used to build the hours in Areas G-I to 60 hours, have 39 hours at Georgia State University taken at the 3000-4000 level for residency, and complete 120 hours required for graduation.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This program offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the program director for the specific criteria for this honor.
3250 Ethics

Program Offered:

- Minor in Ethics

Department of Philosophy
16th floor, 25 Park Place Bldg.
philosophy.gsu.edu

George Rainbolt, Chair
Eddy Nahmias, Director of Undergraduate Studies

Ethical conduct is a vitally important part of a good life and a good society. There is a growing recognition that ethical behavior cannot be assumed. It often requires an education about how to act ethically and about how to reason about morality. The minor in Ethics does not seek to transform students into ethical people. Instead, it seeks to give them the skills and knowledge needed to confront the ethical dilemmas of life and work in a thoughtful and critical manner. The minor is designed to complement any major. Students with a major in business, education, the natural sciences, the social sciences, or the health and human sciences are particularly encouraged to consider a minor in Ethics.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Minor in Ethics

Select 15 semester hours from the following courses:

- PHIL 2030 Introduction to Ethics (3)
- PHIL 3710 Sex and Love (3)
- PHIL 3720 Contemporary Moral Problems (3)
- PHIL 3730 Business Ethics (3)
- PHIL 3855 Topics in Political Theory (3)
- PHIL 4070 Marxism (3)
- PHIL 4700 Ethics (3)
- PHIL 4740 Biomedical Ethics (3)
- PHIL 4750 Topics in Ethics (3)
- PHIL 4760 Ethics and Contemporary Public Policy (3)
- PHIL 4770 Moral Psychology
- PHIL 4780 Neuroethics
- PHIL 4790 Topics in Neuroethics
- PHIL 4800 Social and Political Philosophy (3)
- PHIL 4820 Philosophy of Law (3)
- PHIL 4855 Advanced Topics in Political Theory (3)
- PHIL 4860 Feminist Philosophy (3)
The following courses may count towards the Ethics minor with the advance approval of the Director of Undergraduate Studies. No courses will be approved after the mid-point of the semester of the course.

- PHIL 3000 Introductory Seminar in Philosophy-CTW (3)
- PHIL 3060 Existentialism (3)
- PHIL 4030 Topics in Ancient Philosophy (3)
- PHIL 4050 Topics in Modern Philosophy (3)
- PHIL 4075 Topics in 19th Century Philosophy (3)
- PHIL 4085 Topics in the History of Philosophy (3)
- Phil 4090] Topics in Continental Philosophy (3)
- PHIL 4095 Topics in Analytic Philosophy (3)
- PHIL 4900 Issues in Philosophy (3)
- PHIL 4960 Internship (3)
3260 European Union Studies

Program Offered:

- European Union Studies Certificate

Department of Political Science
1005 Langdale Hall
404-413-6159
politicalscience.gsu.edu/

Program Coordinator: Jeannie Grussendorf (jgrussendorf@gsu.edu)

The certificate in European Union Studies is operated under the supervision of the European Council of the University System of Georgia. The program is open to all institutions and students of the University System as well as to professionals with an undergraduate degree. The program’s purpose is to promote knowledge of the European Union (EU) and certify individuals as competent in the subject area of EU studies. Since the EU is the most important economic and political partner of the United States, this certification demonstrates valuable professional expertise to potential employers. For students in the academic track, this interdisciplinary certificate can be earned as a supplement to any conventional undergraduate degree.

Admission to the Program

A certificate in European Union Studies can be earned in one of two ways. Under the academic track, a certificate is taken in tandem with an undergraduate degree program. Students from all academic majors are eligible to participate so long as they possess a minimum 2.75 cumulative grade point average (GPA). Under the professional track, non-degree seeking students — such as business executives — are eligible to enroll in the program upon proof of a valid undergraduate degree from an accredited institution. The minimum GPA requirement is waived.

Under either track, an application to the program cannot be made until successful completion of the following: (1) the introductory course on the European Union (POLS 4242) with a grade of “C” or better, (2) 30 semester hours of academic credit, and (3) a course in world or western civilization (HIST 1111 or HIST 1112).

The European Union Studies Certificate

To earn the EU Studies Certificate, students must complete the certificate curriculum (18 hours) and fulfill the practicum experience requirement. Students must have a 3.0 cumulative GPA in curriculum courses upon completion of the program. An official certificate is awarded upon graduation, and the certificate is noted on a student's permanent transcripts.

The EU Studies Certificate Curriculum (18):

1. POLS 4242 The European Union (3)
2. Multidisciplinary Menu (12)
A student must complete four courses from an approved menu of courses dealing substantially with the EU. These courses must be distributed among at least three different discipline areas: Social Sciences, Humanities and Fine Arts, Business and Economics, and Natural and Health Sciences. The program’s campus representative decides which courses qualify for the certificate and maintains an updated list of approved courses in the different discipline areas. No more than one course in this menu can be taken at the 1000-2000 level, with the exception of EU Studies online courses (see below) and study abroad courses. Students may substitute for up to two menu courses by performing an internship and/or composing a thesis.

3. Capstone Seminar in EU Studies (3)
   Taken either as a Directed Study (PolS 4920) or online course, this is ideally the last course in the certificate program. It has three learning objectives: (1) to update students on EU developments and reinforce their general knowledge of the EU, (2) to provide in-depth knowledge of important EU issues, and (3) to allow students to conduct intensive research on EU-related topics.

4. Practicum Experience:
   Since it is deemed crucial that students demonstrate more than an academic knowledge of the European Union to be certified as adequately prepared in the subject, a “real-life” practicum experience pertaining to the EU must be performed either in the form of an overseas visit or an internship. The overseas option is broadly defined and can be accommodated by a wide range of activities, including study or research abroad. The same flexibility applies to the internship, which can be served domestically or internationally. A student’s specific practicum experience must be approved by the program’s campus representative.

Online Courses and Transatlantic Joint Certificate

The EU Studies program has developed a curriculum of online courses in conjunction with European university partners. These are courses in different discipline areas that deal with various aspects of the EU and are taught jointly by University System institutions and European universities at specified times throughout the academic year. The program’s campus representative maintains an updated list of these courses and a teaching schedule, as well as information about course registration.

The EU Studies program offers the option of acquiring a certificate that is jointly conferred with a European institution. This option requires students to complete — with a grade of “B” or better — a minimum of two online courses that are co-taught with European partner universities. Students completing this option have the EU Studies certificate awarded by both their home institution and one in Europe, thus giving them an academic credential from a respected European university.

Areas of Distinction

In addition to acknowledging competence in the EU generally, the certificate also highlights special achievements by providing a notation of “distinction” in two areas: (1) foreign language proficiency (six semester hours at or above the 2000 level and (2) composition of a thesis.

The foreign language distinction must be earned in a European language approved by the program’s campus representative as appropriate to the certificate’s objectives. A student with prior language skills can earn a distinction by successful completion of an examination demonstrating competency equivalent to the 2000 level. The exam is administered at the student’s home institution.
The thesis can be written anytime during the final year of study. It is supervised by a committee composed of three faculty members representing at least two different academic disciplines. The program’s campus representative maintains a more detailed description of thesis requirements.
Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in French
  - Concentration in Language, Culture, and Society
  - Concentration in Foreign Language Education
  - Concentration in Language and International Business
- Bachelor of Arts in International Economics and Modern Languages
- Minor in French
- Certificate of Language Ability in French
- Dual B.A. / M.A. Program in French

Department of World Languages and Cultures
841 Langdale Hall (19th Floor, 25 Park Place Bldg., effective summer 2017)
404-413-5980
wlc.gsu.edu

William Nichols, Chair
Germán Torres, Associate Chair
Faye Stewart, Undergraduate Director
Peter Swanson, Director of Foreign Language Education and Advisor

The Department of World Languages and Cultures serves a threefold purpose: to encourage an appreciation of humanistic values through the study of world languages, literatures, and cultures; to teach world languages as a means of communication; and to prepare students for academic careers and the opportunities available in the field of international business. As part of a dynamic urban university in a city of growing international awareness and status, the department is fulfilling its responsibility to meet the increasing world language needs of the governmental, business, and professional communities.

The department recognizes that an active command of the world language and a thorough exploration of the related cultures form an essential basis for further study in the various areas of its curriculum. To this end, the department sponsors a study-abroad program in Tours (France).

The department maintains a state-of-the-art multimedia Language Acquisition and Resource Center (LARC) with a digital audio laboratory with 50 student computer workstations. The digital lab serves a dual purpose in allowing both independent student access to digitized audio files and interactive software that accompanies the language texts, and also in providing a multimedia environment for teacher-led listening, speaking, and recording activities. In addition to the audio lab, the LARC features a tutoring center and resource library, as well as stand-alone computers for student use. To assist in the development of the student’s active language skills and to provide added cultural enrichment, the LARC contains a wide range of audiovisual materials.

The department sponsors two Freshman Learning Communities each year. One group is designed for students interested in using their world language in international business. The other, sponsored jointly by the Department of Applied Linguistics/ESL, is in Language Studies.
For students who hope to teach at the K-12 levels, the department offers a concentration that leads to certification in French.

For students who view language study as a preparation for a career in the business world, the department has two special programs: a concentration in the business language of French; and a practicum in an internationally oriented business or service organization in the metro area for qualified and interested students in their senior year. The department also offers the Bachelor of Arts Major in International Economics and Modern Languages (IEML), in collaboration with the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies.

All French majors are encouraged to consult regularly with their departmental adviser in designing and following a program of study that fits their own career objective and the requirements of their particular concentration.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to courses in the language major, students are advised to choose courses in other areas that complement their language study. Such courses include other languages, history, philosophy, art and music, business, and education. Faculty advisers in the department are eager to discuss students’ academic plans as they design their course of study.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Program Financial Information

Lab fees are assessed automatically for students who register for certain courses. As a result, students will no longer be required to purchase lab fee cards. For more information, please feel free to contact the department or review the GoSolar or catalog course listings to determine if a course includes a lab fee.

B.A. in French

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required courses (0-9):
   - FREN through the 2002 level (0-9)
     Majors must achieve competence at the intermediate level before beginning courses at the 3000 level. They may demonstrate competence through placement exam scores, including the CLEP exam, prior study, or courses taken at Georgia State University.

2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - Any courses in other world languages
Area G: Major Courses (30)

The major in French consists of 30 hours (ten courses) on the 3000/4000 level. Prerequisite for all courses on the 3000 level is FREN 2002. Prerequisite for all courses at the 4000 level is the completion of the three courses at the 3000 level.

1. Major Requirements (6)
   - FREN 3013 Intensive Grammar Review (3)
   - FREN 3023 Advanced Conversation and Composition-CTW (3)

2. Concentration Courses (24)
   - Language, Culture, and Society Concentration
     a. Required Course to fulfill CTW requirement (3)
        - FREN 3033 Introduction to Analysis of Literary Texts-CTW (3)
     b. Select four courses. (12)
        - FREN 4414 Topics in French and Francophone Culture and Society (3)
        - FREN 4503 French Romanticism, Realism, and Symbolism (3)
        - FREN 4623 French Literature of the Twentieth Century (3)
        - FREN 4633 Francophone Literature (3)
     c. Select three additional courses in French at the 3000/4000 level (9)
   - Foreign Language Education Concentration
     a. Required Course to fulfill CTW requirement (3)
        - FREN 3033 Introduction to the Analysis of Literary Texts-CTW (3)
     b. Concentration Requirement (3)
        - FREN 4123 Contemporary France-CTW (3)
     c. Select two courses. (6)
        - FREN 4414 Topics in French and Francophone Culture and Society (3)
        - FREN 4503 French Romanticism, Realism, and Symbolism (3)
        - FREN 4623 French Literature of the Twentieth Century (3)
        - FREN 4633 Francophone Literature (3)
     d. Select four additional courses in French at the 3000/4000 level (12)

Requirements for Teacher Certification

Students who wish to be certified to teach French in the public schools of Georgia should choose the courses listed under the “World Language Education Concentration” above and the following methodology courses in the Department of World Languages and Cultures: FORL 3022, FORL 4021, FORL 4025, FORL 4026, and FORL 4030. All students will register for Opening School Experience (FORL 4650) and Student Teaching (FORL 4061, FORL 4062, FORL 4063).

All students seeking certification in French must pass the following courses in the College of Education and Human Development with a grade of C or higher: EDUC 2110, EDUC 2120, EDUC 2130, and EXC 4020.
Students must apply formally and be admitted to the Teacher Education program in world languages. For the application forms, please go to the Department of World Languages and Cultures’ website under Teacher Certification and then Program Information. To qualify for the Student Teaching experience, students must receive a grade of B or higher on a departmental test of oral and written proficiency in their target languages. Specific information about date and place of these exams is available in the department office. To apply, students must have:

- earned a 2.5 overall cumulative GPA,
- passed [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] or been exempted from the GACE Program Admission Assessment. When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.; and
- completed the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment; though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

In order to be recommended for K-12 certification in French, students must complete all courses taken in the Department of World Languages and Cultures (the major and ForL courses) with a grade of B or higher.

Pre-Service Certificate

Upon admission to a teacher education program, students will be contacted by the college advisement/admissions office and provided with instructions to claim enrollment in their program and submit a GaPSC Pre-Service Certificate Application. The pre-service certificate is required for placement in required field experiences or clinical practice.

Georgia Assessments for the Certification of Educators (GACE)

The state of Georgia requires such candidates to take various GACE and Educator Ethics assessments as part of the educator certification process. These computer-delivered assessments have been developed by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC) and are delivered by the Education Testing Service (ETS). You will take these tests at different times.

Program Admission and Content Assessments: Program Admission Assessment [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] is an admission requirement (unless candidate meets qualifications for exemption – scroll down to “Options to Satisfy the Program Admission Assessment Requirement”). When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Content Assessment (different content assessments for each program) tests your content knowledge and is taken after enrollment and prior to program completion. You will receive specific information regarding this test as you near completion of your program (required for certification).

Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment: Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment is an admission requirement. Completion of this assessment is required for admission, though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

edTPA

edTPA is a preservice assessment process designed by educators to answer the essential question: “Is a new teacher ready for the job?” edTPA includes a review of a teacher candidate’s authentic teaching materials as the culmination of a teaching and learning process that documents and demonstrates each candidate’s ability to effectively teach his/her subject matter to all students.

edTPA is a program completion and teacher certification requirement. Students may graduate from the BIS program while continuing to complete teacher certification requirements for edTPA.

Language and International Business Concentration

a. Required Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (3)
   o FREN 3033 Introduction to the Analysis of Literary Texts-CTW (3)

b. Concentration Requirements (9)
   o FREN 3023 Advanced Conversation and Composition CTW (3)
   o FREN 4033 French for International Business I (3)
   o FREN 4043 French for International Business II (3)

c. Select two courses. (6)
   o FREN 4414 Topics in French and Francophone Culture and Society (3)
   o FREN 4503 French Romanticism, Realism, and Symbolism (3)
   o FREN 4623 French Literature of the Twentieth Century (3)
   o FREN 4633 Francophone Literature (3)

d. Select four additional courses in French at the 3000/4000 level (6)
   o Students interested in FREN 4063 Practicum in French must consult with the section coordinator early in the semester prior to taking the course.

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. French majors are not required to take a minor. French majors who choose a minor in other departments/schools/institutes are encouraged to select courses that are appropriate to their area of concentration. Students are also urged to consider combining their major with a second major in another language or another discipline under the Double Major option.
2. Up to six additional hours may be taken in the major.

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available.
Bachelor of Arts in International Economics and Modern Languages

Students majoring in the IEML program with a French concentration should contact the Andrew Young School of Policy studies for advisement. Information for this program is available at aysps.gsu.edu/oaa.

Program Admission

There are no admission requirements above the requirements for admission to the University for enrollment in the IEML.

Program Financial Information

There are no additional fees other than the tuition and fees charged by the University for enrollment in this program.

Program Degree Requirements

For degree credit, a minimum grade of C must be attained in ENGL 1101 and ENGL 1102 and all courses in the economics common core curriculum and modern languages core curriculum.

Complete descriptions of requirements for Areas A through E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum can be found in the “University Degree Requirements and Graduation” chapter of this catalog. The number of semester credit hours required for each section is shown in parentheses.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (15):
   - ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
   - ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
   - MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)
   - FREN 2001 Intermediate French I (3)
   - FREN 2002 Intermediate French II (3)

2. Select additional 1000/2000-level elective courses from Areas A-E to complete 18 hours in Area F.

Students who have not already attained elementary-level proficiency in their chosen language will be required to take prerequisite courses (FREN 1001 and/or FREN 1002). In that case, the 1002 language course may be used to satisfy 3 credit hours of core requirements in Area C.

Students who have already attained intermediate-level competency in French may substitute 1000/2000-level courses in another language for FREN 2001/FREN 2002 upon approval of the Department of World Languages and Cultures advisor.

Area G: Economics Common Core Curriculum (24) A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.
- ECON 3900 Macroeconomics-CTW (3)
- ECON 3910 Microeconomics (3)
- ECON 4600 Economic Development (3)
- ECON 4800 International Trade (3)
- ECON 4810 International Finance (3)
- Choose 3 elective 4000-level Econ courses (9)

Area H: Modern Languages Common Core (24) A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

- FREN 3013 Intensive Grammar Review (3)
- FREN 3023 Advanced Conversation and Composition-CTW (3)
- FREN 3033 Introduction to Analysis of Literary Texts-CTW (3)
- FREN 4033 French for International Business I (3)
- FREN 4043 French for International Business II (3)
- Choose three additional 3000- or 4000-level French courses (3)
  - Students interested in FREN 4063 Practicum in French must consult with the section coordinator early in the semester prior to taking the course.

Area I: Electives (12) Choose any four 4000-level courses, in consultation with the faculty adviser.

---

Minor in French

Students who wish to minor in French must take 15-18 hours in courses in French, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours of courses in the language may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

Certificate of Language Ability in French

A strong demand exists by employers for candidates to offer credentials to verify language proficiency in both oral and written communication. The undergraduate Certificate of Language Ability is designed for students to offer tangible proof of their language abilities and makes an ideal complement to other areas of study such as business, international relations, public health, criminal justice, hospitality, and more.

The certificate consists of 12 credit hours at the 2000- and 3000-level (minimum of 6 must be at the 3000-level), with a B or higher in the first attempt at each course. Courses retaken using the university Repeat to Replace policy are not counted as first attempts.

- At the 2000-level, students may enroll in FREN 2001 and FREN 2002.
- At the 3000-level, students may choose from FREN 3010, FREN 3013, or FREN 3023.

Dual B.A. / M.A. Program in French

The department offers a dual Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts in French. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and count the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the department and College of Arts and Sciences to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This department offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the department undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.
3285 Game Design and Development

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies Concentration in Game Design and Development
- Interdisciplinary Minor in Game Design and Development

Creative Media Industries Institute

David Cheshier, director and program coordinator, dcheshier@gsu.edu

The interdisciplinary Game Design and Development major concentration and the minor explore the interactive entertainment landscape, along with other related areas of software development and interactive storytelling. The program has its technical roots in computer and information science, while simultaneously covering the breadth of courses in many academic disciplines, including writing, film, graphic design, music, and psychology. The programs are for students who aspire to gain the background and technical skill necessary for a career in gaming or related areas in interactive media.

Program Admission

A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required in order to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the Office of Academic Assistance (see below). Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Arts students should also consult regularly with the faculty program coordinator for the specific program regarding course selection, program plans, experiential learning, and other academic opportunities.

Program Degree Requirements

Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 3030.30 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Courses used to fulfill the two Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) courses for each B.I.S. program will not count towards the rules of Area G (i.e., no more than three to four 3-4 credit hour courses from a single discipline) nor of Area H (i.e., no more than two 3-4 credit hour courses can be taken within a single discipline).
Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies Concentration in Game Design and Development

Recommended Courses for Area F:

Students should enter the Game Design and Development major having taken course prerequisites needed for entrance into their planned program of study. Below is a list of courses that are prerequisites for courses included as options in Game Design and Development. Students should plan their desired program of study and identify which prerequisites they need to fulfill.

1. World language at 1002 level or above (3)
2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - CMIS 2000 Introduction to On-Set Film Production (6)
   - CMIS 2001 Georgia Film Academy Semester on Set (6)
   - CMIS 2100 Introduction to Games Industries (3)
   - CSC 1301 Principles of Computer Science I (4)*
   - CSC 1302 Principles of Computer Science II (4)*
   - CSC 2301 Programming for Non-Majors (3)*
   - CSC 2302 Programming II for Non-Majors (3)*
   - CSC 2510 Theoretical Foundations of Computer Science
   - ENGL 2130 American Literature (3)
   - ENGL 2160 Studies in Popular Culture (3)
   - FLME 1010 Film Aesthetics and Analysis (3)
   - ART 1010 Drawing I (3)
   - ART 1020 Two-Dimensional Design (3)
   - PSYC 1101 Introduction to General Psychology (3)
   - MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)

Many of the courses listed above are required prerequisites for Game Design and Development BIS courses in Area G and H. Students should select Area F courses in consultation with a BIS advisor.

Additionally, any student planning to take 3000- or 4000-level courses in CSC in Area G or Area H should determine which programming sequence (indicated with * above) best meets their academic needs, as many CSC classes require CSC and/or Math prerequisites.

Area G: Area of Concentration (27-33 hours)

No more than four (4) three-hour courses (i.e. 12 hours) can come from the same course prefix in a student’s program study. CTW courses do not count toward the four course limit. Some film and sound production courses require departmental authorization.

1. CTW requirement (6 hours). Choose two of the following:
   - CMIS 4910 Special Topics in Creative Media (3)
   - CSC 4995 Directed Readings BIS – CTW (3-4)
   - ENGL 4995 Directed Readings BIS – CTW (3-4)
   - FLME 4995 Directed Readings BIS – CTW (3-4)
   - GRD 4995 Directed Readings BIS – CTW (3-4)
   - MUS 4995 Directed Readings BIS – CTW (3-4)
2. Required courses (9-12 hours) Choose three of the following:
   - CSC 4820 Interactive Computer Graphics (4)
   - CSC 4821 Fundamentals of Game Design (4)
   - CSC 4840/GRD 4840/FLME 4840 Computer Graphics Imaging (3)
   - DPP 3000 Life Drawing (3)
   - ENGL 3150B Introduction to Creative Writing- Fiction (3)
   - ENGL 4204/FLME 4780 Special Topics – Introduction to Writing Interactive Fiction (3-4)
   - ENGL 4204/FLME 4780 Special Topics – Game Studies (3-4)
   - FLME 4110 Sound Design (4) (previously FILM 4361)
   - FLME 3155 Digital Cinematography (4)
   - GRD 4310 Multimedia Design (3)
   - GRD 3000 Introduction to Graphic Design (3)
   - MUS 4730 Computer Applications in Music (3)
   - MUS 4981 Computer Music (3)

3. Program focus area (12-15) Select courses as directed from either the Game Development or the Game Design areas below:
   a. Game Development (12-15 hours) Choose 3-5 courses from the following:
      - CMIS 4100/CSC 4821 Fundamentals of Game Design (3)
      - CMIS 4140/CSC 4840/GRD 4840/FLME 4840 Computer Graphics Imaging (3)
      - CMIS 4980 Internship (1-6)
      - CSC 4820 Interactive Computer Graphics (4)
      - CSC 3320 System-Level Programming (3)
      - CSC 3410 Data Structure (CTW) (3)
      - CSC 4220 Computer Networks (4)
      - CSC 4330 Programming Language Concepts (4)
      - CSC 4350 Software Engineering (CTW) (4)
      - CSC 4370 Web Programming (4)
      - CSC 4710 Database Systems (4)
      - CSC 4720 Human-Computer Interaction (4)
      - CSC 4810 Artificial Intelligence (4)
      - CSC 4841/GRD 4841/FLME 4841 Computer Animation (4)
      - ENGL 3150B Introduction to Creative Writing- Fiction (3)
      - ENGL 4204/FLME 4780 Special Topics: Game Studies (3-4)
      - FLME 3155 Digital Cinematography (4)
      - FLME 4110 Sound Design (4)
      - GRD 3000 Introduction to Graphic Design (3)
      - MUS 4730 Computer Applications in Music (3)
      - MUS 4981 Computer Music (3)
   b. Game Design (12-15 hours) Choose 3-5 courses from the following:
      - CMIS 4100/CSC 4821 Fundamentals of Game Design (3)
      - CMIS 4140/CSC 4840/GRD 4840/FLME 4840 Computer Graphics Imaging (3)
      - CMIS 4160/[CSC 4841]/GRD 4841/FLME 4841 Computer Animation (4)
      - CMIS 4980 Internship (1-6)
      - DPP 3000 Life Drawing (3)
      - ENGL 3150B Introduction to Creative Writing- Fiction (3)
      - ENGL 3160 Narrative Techniques (3)
      - ENGL 4204/FLME 4780 Special Topics: Game Studies (3/3-4)
Interdisciplinary Minor in Game Design and Development

Recommended Courses for Area A-F

Students should enter the Game Design and Development minor having taken course prerequisites needed for entrance into their planned program of study. Below is a list of courses that are prerequisites for courses included as options in Game Design and Development minor. Students should plan their desired program of study and identify which prerequisites they need to fulfill.

- CMIS 2100 Introduction to Games Industries (3)
- CSC 2310 Principles of Computer Programming (3)
- FLME 1010 Film Aesthetics and Analysis (3)
- FLME 2700 History of the Motion Picture (3)
- ID 3000 Drafting (3)
- ART 1010 Drawing I (3)
- ART 1020 Two Dimensional Design (3)
- ART 1030 Three Dimensional Design (3)
- ART 1050 Introductory Studio (3)

Required Courses for the Interdisciplinary Minor (15-18 hours)

Students pursuing the interdisciplinary minor in Game Design and Development must take five courses. No more than two of the courses counting towards the minor can have the same course prefix. Additionally, no more than two of the five courses counting toward the minor may also count toward the major.

1. Choose two of the following:
   - GRD 3400 Graphic Design Survey (3)
   - FLME 4780 Introduction to Writing Interactive Fiction (3-4)
   - FLME 4361 Sound Design for Media Production (3)
   - CSC 4821 Fundamentals of Game Design (4)

2. Choose three of the following:
   - CMIS 4100/CSC 4821 Fundamentals of Game Design (4)
   - CMIS 4140/CSC 4840/GRD 4840/FLME 4840 Computer Graphics Imaging (3-4)
   - CMIS 4160/CSC 4841 Computer Animation (4)
   - CSC 4820 Interactive Computer Graphics (4)
   - DPP 3000 Life Drawing (3)
   - ENGL 4204/FLME 4800 Game Studies (3)
   - ENGL 3150B Introduction to Creative Writing - Fiction (3)
   - ENGL 4204/FLME 4780 Special Topics: Introduction to Writing Interactive Fiction (3)
   - FLME 3115 Screenwriting & Visualization for the Short Film/Video (4)
   - FLME 3155 Digital Cinematography (4)
   - FLME 4000 Acting for the Camera and Directing (4)
   - FLME 4110 Sound Design (4)
   - FLME 4120 Production I (4)
   - GRD 4310 Multimedia Design (3)
   - ID 3000 Drafting (3)
   - ID 3300 Interior Design: Theory (3)
   - ID 4100 Lighting Design (2)
   - ID 3250 Computer Aided Drafting and Design I (2)
   - MUS 4730 Computer Applications in Music (3)
3290 Geosciences

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in Geosciences (3290.1)
  - Concentration in Geography
  - Concentration in Urban Studies
- Bachelor of Science in Geosciences (3290.2)
  - Concentration in Geology
  - Concentration in Environmental Geosciences
  - Concentration in Geography
  - Concentration in Urban Studies
- Minor in Geosciences (3290.3)
- Dual B.A. or B.S. / M.S. in Geosciences (3290.4)
- Certificate in Geographic Information Science (3290.5)
- Certificate in Water Science (3290.6)

Department of Geosciences
340 Kell Hall
404-413-5750
geosciences.gsu.edu

Daniel Deocampo, Chair
Christy Vissagi, Undergraduate Director

Geosciences involves the study of the social and physical dimensions of the earth, including its interior, surface, atmosphere, and people. The Department of Geosciences makes available to students instruction, training, and experiences in the fields of Geology and Geography. These two disciplines provide complementary perspectives on a broad range of issues dealing with natural landscapes at all spatial and temporal scales, human-environment interactions, geospatial analysis, including Geographic Information Systems, and the social and physical dynamics of urban life.

The Department of Geosciences offers the B.A. degree in Geosciences with a concentration in either Geography or Urban Studies; and the B.S. degree in Geosciences with a concentration in Geology, Geography, Environmental Geosciences, or Urban Studies.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college's Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

3290.10 B.A. in Geosciences

Students earning the B.A. degree in Geosciences must choose one of two concentrations: either Geography or Urban Studies.
The Geography concentration develops a broad understanding of social and environmental issues, attains depth in a specialized area within Geography, and provides skills needed to gain employment and carry out lifelong learning. An undergraduate degree in Geosciences with a Geography concentration affords many opportunities for employment in both the public and private sectors. Geographers generally find employment as cartographers, city/regional planners, conservationists, environmental managers, environmental regulators, Geographic Information System (GIS) specialists, historic preservationists, location analysts, and as physical scientists working for the government. In addition, with their broad liberal arts training, geographers also qualify for professional management positions as well as teachers.

The Geography concentration also provides a solid intellectual foundation for people getting advanced degrees in either the social or natural sciences. In addition to having substantial flexibility of course selections, students in the Geography concentration are required to take multiple upper-division courses in human geography, physical geography, and geographic information science. Finally, the Geography concentration enables majors interested in geography to find their intellectual niche within geography.

The Urban Studies concentration permits the students to focus on the study of cities including urban development and economics, urban politics and institutions, the urban built environment, social and environmental disparities in cities, and the changing physical and social dynamics of urbanization processes. This interdisciplinary approach enables students to draw from a variety of courses to solve some of the most pressing challenges of the twenty-first century city. The Urban Studies concentration draws from classes in other complementary departments, enabling the student to develop specific interests within the concentration.

In addition to course content focused on different aspects of urban problems and solutions, students will gain a skill set to address such issues, including a holistic approach to understanding urban dynamics, critical thinking and writing skills to express the complexity of urban issues, and a tool kit of data collection and analysis skills, which may include Geographic Information Systems (GIS), quantitative spatial analysis, and/or qualitative analysis. Students graduating with this concentration will be well poised to enter jobs and graduate study in urban planning, urban policy work, non-governmental organization administration, community-based work, and in urban public health, among many others. Students interested in any geography or urban studies course, or in enrolling in these concentrations within the B.A. degree in Geosciences or pursuing a minor in Geosciences, are invited to contact the Geosciences Undergraduate adviser to discuss how this degree program may best help make their college experience positive and productive.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Program Financial Information

Lab fees will be assessed automatically for students who register for certain courses. For more information, please feel free to contact the department or review the GoSolar or catalog course listings to determine if a course includes a lab fee.

B.A. in Geosciences
Area D:

- Recommended courses:
  - GEOG 1112 Weather and Climate (4)
  - GEOG 1113 Introduction to Landforms (4)
  - MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)

Area E:

- Recommended course: GEOG 1101 Introduction to Human Geography (3)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major

1. Required Courses (if not taken in Areas C-E) (17):
   - GEOG 1112 Weather and Climate (4)
   - GEOG 1113 Introduction to Landforms (4)
   - MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)
   - GEOG 1101 Introduction to Human Geography (3)
   - World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)

2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - AAS 2010 Introduction to African-American Studies (3)
   - ANTH 2020 Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (3)
   - ANTH 2030 Archaeology and Prehistory (3)
   - ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
   - ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
   - Any HIST course not taken in Area E
   - PHIL 1010 Critical Thinking (2)
   - POLS 2401 Global Issues (3)
   - PSYC 1101 Introduction to General Psychology (3)
   - SOCI 1101 Introduction to Sociology (3)
   - SOCI 1160 Introduction to Social Problems (3)
   - WGSS 2010 Introduction to Women’s, Gender and Sexuality Studies (3)
   - World language at the 1001 level (3) (if student has no previous experience with language)
   - World language at the 2001 or higher level (3)

- Students should select Area F elective courses in consultation with their advisor, as some upper level geosciences courses have prerequisites.

Area G: Major Courses, B.A. in Geosciences

Geography Concentration Courses (39)

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses.

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (4)
   - GEOG 4830 Senior Seminar (4)
2. Required courses
   - GEOG 4515 Qualitative Methods (4)
   - GEOG 4518 Digital Cartography (4)
   - GEOG 4520 Quantitative Spatial Analysis (4)
   - Select two courses:
     - GEOG 4534 Advanced GIS (4)
     - GEOG 4640 Geomorphology (4)
     - GEOG 4648 Biogeography (4)
     - GEOG 4762 Economic Geography (4)
   - Select one or more courses:
     - GEOG 4402 Geography of Africa (3)
     - GEOG 4530 Introduction to Remote Sensing (4)
     - GEOG 4534 Advanced Geographic Information Systems (4)
     - GEOG 4642 Advanced Weather and Climate (4)
     - GEOG 4644 Environmental Conservation (4)
     - GEOG 4646 Water Resources Management (4)
     - GEOG 4650 Surface Water Hydrology (4)
     - GEOG 4768 Metropolitan Atlanta (3)
     - GEOG 4774 Contemporary Urban Theory and Issues (3)
     - GEOG 4784 Climatic Change (3)
     - GEOG 4764 Urban Geography (3)
     - GEOG 4778 Political Geography (3)

3. Remaining Geography or Geology courses selected in consultation with advisor.

Urban Studies Concentration Courses (39)

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses. At least half of the required 39 hours be GEOG courses as specified in 1, 2, and 4 below.

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (4)
   - GEOG 4830 Senior Seminar (4)

2. Required courses
   - GEOG 4764 Urban Geography (3)
   - GEOG 4774 Contemporary Urban Theory and Issues (3)
   - GEOG 4768 Metropolitan Atlanta (3)
   - Select one course:
     - GEOG 4515 Qualitative Methods (4)
     - GEOG 4520 Quantitative Spatial Analysis (4)
   - Select one or more courses from following:
     - PMAP 3011 Policy and Politics in the American City (3)
     - PMAP 3111 Urban Political Economy (3)
     - ANTH 4200 Urban Anthropology (4)

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

Students earning a B.A. in Geosciences are not required to take a minor.

3290.20 B.S. in Geosciences

Students earning the B.S. degree in Geosciences must choose one of four concentrations: Geology, Environmental Geosciences, Geography, or Urban Studies. Many career opportunities allow for practical application of geosciences in industry, consulting firms, and governmental agencies at all levels. Practical and essential applications of geology and geography include development and stewardship of water resources, both surface and subsurface; land-use planning for urban, suburban, and rural development; exploration for and development of mineral and energy resources including petroleum and other fossil fuels; and development of environmentally sound strategies for hazardous waste disposal and treatment. The curriculum leading to the B.S. degree in geosciences is excellent preparation for graduate work in geoscience and environmental science, geography, and urban studies. For students who are interested in geoscience and environmental science but who intend to pursue graduate or advanced study in other fields, for example environmental law or business, the B.S. degree may still be an appropriate choice. The B.S. degree meets certain federal criteria required for science-track career pathways in federal agencies such as the EPA, USGS, and others.

The concentrations in Geography and Geology are the most traditional of the programs, and they are designed to prepare the student for graduate studies or employment in a wide variety of geoscience areas. Students considering employment and state licensure as a Professional Geologist (required for supervisory environmental consultants) should select the traditional Geology concentration. The Environmental Geosciences concentration offers a more interdisciplinary set of courses that emphasize the study of ground water and the delicate environmental balances of the natural world. The Urban Studies Concentration is focused on geoscience topics applicable to the study of urban settings. Specific requirements for the concentrations are shown below.

Majors should be aware that there are prerequisites for many geology courses and that several courses are offered only once a year. As soon as they have selected the geology concentration, these students are advised to consult with department advisers to be informed in these matters and to ensure that programs of study accord with their specific career aspirations and needs. The department participates actively in the university’s Cooperative Education Program, whereby the student can work and attend school at the same time or in alternate years. The program enables students to develop long-term career opportunities while in school. Because of the potential complexities of such a program, students are encouraged to seek early advisement in the department. Co-op students also should discuss their academic plans and curriculum options with their employers.

Program Financial Information

Lab fees will be assessed automatically for students who register for certain courses. For more information, please feel free to contact the department.
Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements outlined below, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

B.S. in Geosciences

Area A:

- Required course:
  - MATH 1112 College Trigonometry (3) or MATH 1113 Precalculus (3) or higher level MATH course. MATH 1113 recommended.

Area D:

- Required course: MATH 2201 Calculus for Life Sciences I (4) or MATH 2211 Calculus of One Variable I (4) or a higher-level mathematics course.

  - Recommended courses:
    - GEOL 1121K Introductory Geology I (4) and
    - GEOL 1122K Introductory Geology II (4)

Area E:

- Recommended course: GEOG 1101 Introduction to Human Geography (3)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (if not taken in Area D) (11):
   - GEOL 1121K Introductory Geology I (4)
   - GEOL 1122K Introductory Geology II (4)
   - MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)

2. Complete one of the following science sequences. Students in the Geology concentration are strongly advised to complete the chemistry sequence. Students in the Environmental Geosciences concentration are strongly advised to complete either the geography or chemistry sequence depending on their interests. Students in the Geography or Urban Studies concentrations are strongly advised to complete the geography sequence. (8)
   - CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4) and CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (4)
   - GEOG 1112K Weather and Climate (4) and GEOG 1113K Introduction to Landforms (4)

3. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F. Students in the Geology concentration are recommended to take a Physics sequence and an additional Calculus course if possible. Students in the Environmental Geosciences, Geography, or Urban Studies concentrations are recommended to take either the Biology or Chemistry sequence depending on their interests.
CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4)
CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (4)
CHEM 2400 Organic Chemistry I (3)
CHEM 2410 Organic Chemistry I (3)
CHEM 2400L and CHEM 2410L or CHEM 2100 Organic Chemistry Lab I and II (2)
GEOG 1112K Weather and Climate (4)
GEOG 1113K Introduction to Landforms (4)
PHYS 1111K Introductory Physics I (4)
PHYS 1112K Introductory Physics II (4)
PHYS 2211K Principles of Physics I (4)
PHYS 2212K Principles of Physics II (4)
BIOL 1103K Introductory Biology I (4)
BIOL 1104K Introductory Biology II (4)
MATH 2202 Calculus for the Life Sciences II (4) or MATH 2212 Calculus of One Variable II (4)
MATH 2215 Multivariate Calculus (4)
CSC 1301 Principles of Computer Science I (4)
CSC 1302 Principles of Computer Science II (4)
RSCH 1203 Research Strategies and Technology (1)

- All courses above ending in K are commonly offered as separate lecture and lab (L) courses by GSU's Perimeter College. The combined (K) courses and separate lecture and lab (L) courses cover the same subject matter and are considered equivalent courses (but both lecture and lab sections must be completed with a passing grade).
- Any credit hours exceeding 18 earned to complete the Area F requirements will count toward elective hours.

Area G: Major Courses, B.S. in Geosciences.
Geology Concentration Courses (39)

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses.

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (4)
   - GEOG 4830 Senior Seminar (4)
2. Required Courses:
   - GEOL 4006 Sedimentary Environments and Stratigraphy (4)
   - GEOL 4013 Structural Geology (4)
   - GEOL 4015 Crystallography and Optical Mineralogy (4)
   - GEOL 4016 Petrology of Igneous and Metamorphic Rocks (4)
   - GEOL 4120 Basic Field Geology (3)
   - GEOL 4121 Adv Field Geology (3)
3. Remaining Geology or Geography courses selected in consultation with advisor, including the following:
   - GEOL 4530 Introduction to Remote Sensing (4)
   - GEG 4532 Introduction to Geographic Information Systems (4)
   - GEOG 4640 Geomorphology (4)
   - GEOG 4650 Surface Water Hydrology (4)

Environmental Geosciences Concentration Courses (39)

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses.

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (4)
   - GEOG 4830 Senior Seminar (4)

2. Required Courses (8):
   - GEOG 4532 Geographic Information Systems (4)
   - GEOL 4006 Sedimentary Environments and Stratigraphy (4)

3. Choose one of the following course pairs (a or b) (8):
   a. GEOG 4520 Quantitative Spatial Analysis (4) and GEOG 4530 Remote Sensing (4), or
   b. GEOG 4644 Environmental Conservation (4) and GEOL 4017 Environmental Geology (4)

4. Choose either of the following field experience courses (a or b) (4-6):
   a. GEOG 4050 Natural Environments of Georgia (4)
   b. GEOG 4550 Field School in Geography (4), or another approved field course as available (e.g., study abroad)

5. Select from the following to complete 39 credits:
   - GEOG 4644 Environmental Conservation (3)
   - GEOG 4520 Quantitative Spatial Analysis (4)
   - GEOG 4518 Digital Cartography (4)
   - GEOG 4532 Geographic Information Systems (4)
   - GEOG 4530 Introduction to Remote Sensing (4)
   - GEOG 4640 Geomorphology (4)
   - GEOG 4648 Biogeography (4)
   - GEOG 4534 Advanced Geographic Information Systems (4)
   - GEOG 4642 Advanced Weather and Climate (4)
   - GEOG 4646 Water Resources Management (4)
   - GEOG 4650 Surface Water Hydrology (4)

   - GEOL 4003 Aqueous Geochemistry (4)
   - GEOL 4005 Geology of Georgia (3)
   - GEOL 4007 Hydrogeology (4)
   - GEOL 4017 Environmental Geology (4)
   - GEOL 4042 Environmental Instrumentations (4)

Geography Concentration Courses (39)
A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses.

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (4)
   - GEOG 4830 Senior Seminar (4)

2. Required courses
   - GEOG 4515 Qualitative Methods (4)
   - GEOG 4520 Quantitative Spatial Analysis (4)
   - GEOG 4518 Digital Cartography (4)
   - Select two courses from:
     - GEOG 4534 Advanced GIS (4)
     - GEOG 4640 Geomorphology (4)
     - GEOG 4648 Biogeography (4)
     - GEOG 4762 Economic Geography (4)
   - Select one or more courses from:
     - GEOG 4402 Geography of Africa (3)
     - GEOG 4530 Introduction to Remote Sensing (4)
     - GEOG 4534 Advanced Geographic Information Systems (4)
     - GEOG 4642 Advanced Weather and Climate (4)

     - GEOG 4778 Political Geography (3)

3. Remaining Geography or Geology courses selected in consultation with advisor.

Urban Studies Concentration Courses (39)

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses. At least half of the required 39 hours be Geography courses as specified in 1, 2 and 4.

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (4)
   - GEOG 4830 Senior Seminar (4)

2. Required courses:
   - GEOG 4764 Urban Geography (4)
   - GEOG 4774 Contemporary Urban Theory and Issues (3)
   - GEOG 4768 Metropolitan Atlanta (3)
   - Select one course:
     - GEOG 4515 Qualitative Methods (4)
     - GEOG 4520 Quantitative Spatial Analysis (4)

3. Choose at least one or more courses from following:
   - PMAP 3011 Policy and Politics in the American City (3)
   - PMAP 3111 Urban Political Economy (3)
   - ANTH 4200 Urban Anthropology (4)
   - HIST 4215 American Buildings (4)

4. Remaining Geography or Geology courses selected in consultation with advisor.

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

Students earning a B.S. in Geosciences are not required to take a minor.

3290.30 Minor in Geosciences

Students who wish to minor in Geosciences must take 15-18 hours in courses in Geosciences, including at least nine hours at the 3000-level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in Geosciences may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor. Courses that are being applied to the core may not also be applied to the minor.

3290.40 Dual B.A./M.S. and Dual B.S./M.S. Programs in Geosciences

The department offers a dual Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Sciences and Master of Arts in Geosciences. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and count the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the department and College of Arts and Sciences to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

3290.5 Certificate in Geographic Information Science

Geographic Information Science (GIS) is a rapidly growing discipline, with applications in many fields. A strong demand exists for proficient users of geospatial technology. The undergraduate-level Certificate Program in GIS is designed to facilitate the learning of GIS by students working toward undergraduate degrees in Geosciences and in many other disciplines. The Certificate Program consists of four courses with a total of 15 credit hours. Please contact the Department of Geosciences for more information.

GIS Certificate Requirements (15 hours)

1. Required Courses (12 hours). The student must take the following courses:
   - GEOG 4518 Digital Cartography (4)
2. Elective Course (3 hours). The student must complete one of the following courses:
   - GEOG 4520 Quantitative Spatial Analysis (4)
   - GEOG 4530 Introduction to Remote Sensing (4)
   - GEOG 4536 GIS Programming (4)
   - GEOG 4538 Urban Health GIS (4)
   - GEOG 4834 Applied Research in GIS (4)
   - GEOL 4123 Geoinformatics (4)
   - CSC 1310 Introduction to Computer Programming (non-majors) (3)

Students enrolled in this certificate program should seek advice regarding choices of the elective course from the Undergraduate Director of Geosciences. For students interested in programming, Intro to Computer Science (CSC 2010 (3)); CSC 1310 (3); or course(s) selected with approval of the Undergraduate Director of Geosciences may also qualify as elective courses for this Certificate.

3290.60 Certificate in Water Sciences (15-16)

A strong demand exists in the public sector and private industry for understanding of aquatic systems. The undergraduate Certificate in Water Sciences is designed to provide students with a working knowledge of both the quality and quantity of water in the environment, and modern techniques to assess, model, and remediate aquatic environmental problems, and understand the social context and implications of water resources.

The Certificate Program consists of four courses with a total of 15-16 credit hours, and is an excellent complement to undergraduates pursuing careers in natural resources or environmental fields. Please contact the Department of Geosciences for more information.

1. Required Course Group I (4):
   Select one of the following courses.
   - GEOG 4650 Surface Water Hydrology
   - GEOL 4007 Hydrogeology (4)

2. Required Course Group II (3-4):
   Select one of the following courses.
   - GEOL 4003 Aqueous Geochemistry (4)
   - GEOL 4042 Environmental Instrumentations (4)
   - GEOG 4642 Advanced Weather and Climate (4)
   - GEOG 4646 Water Resources Management (4)
   - GEOG 4784 Climatic Change (4)

3. Required Course Group III (4):
   Select one of the following courses.
   - GEOG 4530 Introduction to Remote Sensing (4)
   - GEOG 4644 Environmental Conservation (4)
In addition to the above, complete one additional course from either Group I or Group II (3-4).

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.

Residency Requirement

A minimum of 39 semester hours in courses 3000 and higher must be completed in residence at Georgia State University with an average of C or higher. At least 50% of the Area G courses must be completed at Georgia State University.

Honors College

The Department of Geosciences encourages qualified students to participate in the Georgia State Honors College.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This unit offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.

William Nichols, Chair
Germán Torres, Associate Chair
Faye Stewart, Undergraduate Director
Robin Huff, Head of German section and Advisor
Peter Swanson, Director of Foreign Language Education and Advisor

The Department of World Languages and Cultures serves a threefold purpose: to encourage an appreciation of humanistic values through the study of world languages, literatures, and cultures; to teach world languages as a means of communication; and to prepare students for academic careers and the opportunities available in the field of international business. As part of a dynamic urban university in a city of growing international awareness and status, the department is fulfilling its responsibility to meet the increasing world language needs of the governmental, business, and professional communities.

The department recognizes that an active command of a world languages and a thorough exploration of related cultures form an essential basis for further study in the various areas of its curriculum.

The department maintains a state-of-the-art multimedia Language Acquisition and Resource Center (LARC) with a digital audio laboratory with 50 student computer workstations. The digital lab serves a dual purpose in allowing both independent student access to digitized audio files and interactive software that accompanies the language texts, and also in providing a multimedia environment for teacher-led listening, speaking, and recording activities. In addition to the audio lab, the LARC features a tutoring center and resource library, as well as stand-alone computers for student use. To assist in the development of the student's active language skills and to provide added cultural enrichment, the LARC contains a wide range of audiovisual materials.

The department sponsors two Freshman Learning Communities each year. One group is designed for students interested in using their world language in international business. The other, sponsored jointly by the Department of Applied Linguistics/ESL, is in Language Studies.

For students who hope to teach at the K-12 levels, the department offers a concentration that leads to certification in German.

For students who view language study as a preparation for a career in the business world, the department has two special programs: a concentration in the business language of German, and a practicum in an internationally oriented business or service organization in the metro area for qualified and interested students in their senior year. The department also offers the Bachelor of Arts Major in International Economics and Modern Languages (IEML), in collaboration with the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies.

All German majors are encouraged to consult regularly with their academic advisor in designing and following a program of study that fits their own career objective and the requirements of their particular concentration.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to courses in the language major, students are advised to choose courses in other areas that complement their language study. Such courses include other languages, history, philosophy, art and music, business, and education. Faculty in the department are eager to discuss students’ academic plans as they design their course of study.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Program Financial Information

Lab fees are assessed automatically for students who register for certain courses. As a result, students will no longer be required to purchase lab fee cards. For more information, please feel free to contact the department or review the GoSolar or catalog course listings to determine if a course includes a lab fee.

B.A. in German

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required courses (0-9):
   - GRMN through the 2002 level (0-9)
     Majors must achieve competence at the intermediate level before beginning courses at the 3000 level. They may demonstrate competence through placement exam scores, including the CLEP exam, prior study, or courses taken at Georgia State University.

2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - Any courses in other world languages
   - AL 2101, AL 2102, ANTH 1002, ANTH 2020, AH 1700, AH 1750, ART 1301, ECON 2105
The major in German consists of 30 hours (10 courses) on the 3000/4000 level. Prerequisite for all courses on the 3000 level is Grmn 2002. Prerequisite for all courses at the 4000 level is the completion of at least 3 of the 4 courses at the 3000 level.

1. Required Course to fulfill CTW requirement (6)
   - GRMN 3301 Advanced German I-CTW (3)

2. Major Requirements (9)
   - GRMN 3302 Advanced German II (3)
   - GRMN 3311 Stories and Histories (3)
   - GRMN 3313 Introduction to German Cultural Studies (3)

3. Concentration Courses (21)
   - Language, Culture, and Society Concentration
     - GRMN 4411 Crossing Borders: German and Culture (3)
     - GRMN 4413 Screen Cultures: German Film and Media Studies (3)
     - GRMN 4421 Introduction to German Civilization (3)
     - Select three additional courses in German at the 4000 level (9)
   - Foreign Language Education Concentration
     - GRMN 4401 History of the German Language (3)
     - GRMN 4421 Introduction to German Civilization (3)
     - GRMN 4422 Contemporary Germany (3)
     - Select three additional courses in German at the 4000 level (9)

Requirements for Teacher Certification

Students who wish to be certified to teach German in the public schools of Georgia should choose the courses listed under the “World Language Education Concentration” above and the following methodology courses in the Department of World Languages and Cultures: FORL 3022, FORL 4021, FORL 4025, FORL 4026, and FORL 4030. All students will register for Opening School Experience (FORL 4650) and Student Teaching (FORL 4061, FORL 4062, FORL 4063).

All students seeking certification in German must pass the following courses in the College of Education and Human Development with a grade of C or higher: EDUC 2110, EDUC 2120, EDUC 2130, and EXC 4020.

Students must apply formally and be admitted to the Teacher Education program in world languages. For the application forms, please go to the Department of World Languages and Cultures’ website under Teacher Certification and then Program Information. To apply, students must have:

- earned a 2.5 overall cumulative GPA,
- passed [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] or been exempted from the GACE Program Admission Assessment. When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.; and

- completed the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment; though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

To qualify for the Student Teaching experience, students must receive a grade of B or higher on a departmental test of oral and written proficiency in their target languages. Specific information about date and place of these exams is available in the department office.

In order to be recommended for K-12 certification in German, students must complete all courses taken in the Department of World Languages and Cultures (the major and ForL courses) with a grade of B or higher.

Pre-Service Certificate

Upon admission to a teacher education program, students will be contacted by the college advisement/admissions office and provided with instructions to claim enrollment in their program and submit a GaPSC Pre-Service Certificate Application. The pre-service certificate is required for placement in required field experiences or clinical practice.

Georgia Assessments for the Certification of Educators (GACE)

The state of Georgia requires such candidates to take various GACE and Educator Ethics assessments as part of the educator certification process. These computer-delivered assessments have been developed by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC) and are delivered by the Education Testing Service (ETS). You will take these tests at different times.

Program Admission and Content Assessments: Program Admission Assessment [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] is an admission requirement (unless candidate meets qualifications for exemption – scroll down to “Options to Satisfy the Program Admission Assessment Requirement”). When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Content Assessment (different content assessments for each program) tests your content knowledge and is taken after enrollment and prior to program completion. You will receive specific information regarding this test as you near completion of your program (required for certification).

Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment: Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment is an admission requirement. Completion of this assessment is required for admission, though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

edTPA
edTPA is a preservice assessment process designed by educators to answer the essential question: “Is a new teacher ready for the job?” edTPA includes a review of a teacher candidate’s authentic teaching materials as the culmination of a teaching and learning process that documents and demonstrates each candidate’s ability to effectively teach his/her subject matter to all students.

edTPA is a program completion and teacher certification requirement. Students may graduate from the BIS program while continuing to complete teacher certification requirements for edTPA.

Language and International Business Concentration

- GRMN 4422 Contemporary Germany (3)
- GRMN 4431 German for International Business I (3)
- GRMN 4432 German for International Business II (3)
- Select three additional courses in German at the 4000 level (9)

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. World language majors are not required to take a minor. World language majors who choose a minor in other departments/schools/institutes are encouraged to select courses that are appropriate to their area of concentration. Students are also urged to consider combining their major with a second major in another language or another discipline under the Double Major option.
2. Up to six additional hours may be taken in the major.

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.

Bachelor of Arts in International Economics and Modern Languages

Students majoring in the IEML program with a German concentration should contact the Andrew Young School of Policy studies for advisement. Information for this program is available at aysps.gsu.edu/oaa.

Program Admission

There are no admission requirements above the requirements for admission to the University for enrollment in the B. A. program with a major in international economics and modern languages.

Program Financial Information

There are no additional fees other than the tuition and fees charged by the University for enrollment in this program.
Program Degree Requirements

For degree credit, a minimum grade of C must be attained in Engl 1101 and 1102 and all courses in the economics common core curriculum and modern languages core curriculum.

Complete descriptions of requirements for Areas A through E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum can be found in the “University Degree Requirements and Graduation” chapter of this catalog. The number of semester credit hours required for each section is shown in parentheses.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (15):
   - ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
   - ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
   - MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)
   - GRMN 2001 Intermediate German I (3)
   - GRMN 2002 Intermediate German II (3)

2. Select additional 1000/2000-level elective courses from Areas A-E to complete 18 hours in Area F.

Students who have not already attained elementary-level proficiency in German will be required to take prerequisite courses (GRMN 1001 and/or [GRMN 1002]). In that case, the 1002 language course may be used to satisfy 3 credit hours of core requirements in Area C.

Students who have already attained intermediate-level competency in German may substitute 1000/2000-level courses in another language for GRMN 2001/GRMN 2002 upon approval of the Department of World Languages and Cultures advisor.

Area G:

Required Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (6)

- GRMN 3301 Advanced German I-CTW (3)
- ECON 3900 Macroeconomics-CTW (3)

Economics Common Core Curriculum (21) A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

- ECON 3910 Microeconomics (3)
- ECON 4600 Economic Development (3)
- ECON 4800 International Trade (3)
- ECON 4810 International Finance (3)
- Choose 3 elective 4000-level Econ courses (9)

Area H: Modern Languages Common Core (21) A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

- GRMN 3301 Advanced German I-CTW (3)
- GRMN 3302 Advanced German II (3)
- GRMN 3311 Introduction to Reading German Literature (3)
- GRMN 3313 Introduction to German Cultural Studies (3)
- GRMN 4431 German for International Business I (3)
- GRMN 4432 German for International Business II (3)
- Choose one of the following two courses (3)
  - GRMN 4422 Contemporary German (3)
  - GRMN 4435 Techniques of Translation (3)

Area I: Electives (12) Choose any four 3000/4000-level courses, in consultation with the faculty advisor.

---

Minor in German

Students who wish to minor in German must take 15-18 hours in German, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours of courses in the language may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

Certificate of Language Ability in German

A strong demand exists by employers for candidates to offer credentials to verify language proficiency in both oral and written communication. The undergraduate Certificate of Language Ability is designed for students to offer tangible proof of their language abilities and makes an ideal complement to other areas of study such as business, international relations, public health, criminal justice, hospitality, and more.

The certificate consists of 12 credit hours at the 2000 and 3000 level (a minimum of 6 must be at the 3000 level), with a B or higher in the first attempt at each course. Courses retaken using the university Repeat to Replace policy are not counted as first attempts.

- At the 2000-level, students may enroll in GRMN 2001 and GRMN 2002.
- At the 3000-level, students may enroll in GRMN 3301 and GRMN 3302.

Elisabeth Burgess, Director
Chivon A. Mingo, Director of Undergraduate Studies

The Gerontology Institute offers a Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies (BIS) in Gerontology and an Undergraduate Certificate in Gerontology. Gerontology is an Interdisciplinary discipline that encompasses the biological, psychological, and social aspects of aging. The Gerontology program is designed to provide students with an opportunity to gain foundational, contextual, and interactional competencies in Gerontology that will support their future goals of engaging in professional careers in aging that would ultimately enhance an aging society.

The BIS in Gerontology will provide undergraduate students an opportunity to gain knowledge of aging across the life course through a diverse perspective. Gerontology-related courses are designed to draw on a variety of disciplines to expose students to the issues, knowledge, and research about aging processes, older people, and the complex needs of our rapidly aging society. The overarching objective is to offer a major that will provide students with a gerontological knowledge base and skills that will prepare them for career opportunities in the field of aging (e.g., entry-level professional jobs in direct services to older persons in nutrition programs, senior centers, volunteer programs, nursing homes, and residential and assisted living facilities) and/or admission to graduate and professional degree programs (e.g., such as gerontology, medicine, nursing, psychology, public administration, sociology, and social work) in which they plan to pursue a specialization in gerontology. Students interested in pursuing the BIS in Gerontology major can select either the Behavioral and Social Sciences or Health and Health Services Allied Field.

The Undergraduate Certificate in Gerontology gives students throughout the university the option of combining their existing major of study with an emphasis in gerontology. This certificate is designed to support students who have an interest in adding an aging focus to their declared major. The certificate curriculum provides an overview of biological, psychological, and sociological aspects of aging; health care and social service programs for older persons; and contemporary aging policy issues.

Both the BIS in Gerontology and the Undergraduate Certificate in Gerontology include an internship experience that will allow students to gain specialized skills needed to live and work in today’s aging society. For more information visit gerontology.gsu.edu

B.I.S. with a Concentration in Gerontology

Program Admission
The admission process for the BIS degree is outlined in section 3030 of the Georgia State University Undergraduate Catalog. The BIS in Gerontology will follow the same admission process with no variation.

Students interested in pursuing a BIS in Gerontology must apply for admission. Application materials can be obtained from the University’s Office of Academic Assistance (see below). Applicants must have a Georgia State University cumulative GPA of 2.0. Students should apply to the BIS in Gerontology program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation. Gerontology Faculty in the Gerontology Institute are available to advise for the BIS in Gerontology degree.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Degree Requirements

Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 3030 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program.

In addition, Per Georgia State University’s requirements, all undergraduate students must satisfy a common core curriculum. The requirements can be found in the current university Undergraduate Catalog (see sections 3030 and 1400).

Area G: Area of Concentration – Gerontology (27-29)

Interdisciplinary Course Selection

No more than 12 of the required hours (3-4 courses) in an area of concentration can be taken within any single discipline as designated by its departmental prefix (e.g., SOCI or GERO). Many courses are cross-listed with one or more disciplines. Therefore, in a situation where students have already selected or taken 12 hours of SOCI classes, and wanted to take an additional course that is cross listed with SOCI and GERO, students would have to register for the GERO course to meet this requirement.
Students are strongly encouraged to take the statistics and methods courses in sequence. Specifically, a course in section 1 below should be taken prior to the course selected in section 2 below. Several courses in section 2 have a prerequisite from section 1, and in this case sequencing is not optional. Students may not take courses in section 1 and 2 below during the same term.*

1. Select One Course (3-4)
   - PSYC 3510 Introduction to Research Design and Data Analysis (4)
   - SOCI 3010 Social Statistics (3)
   - SW 3500 Methods of Social Work Research (3)

2. Select One Course (3-4)
   - AAS 3980 Research Methods in African Americans Studies (CTW) (3)
   - PSYC 3530 Advanced Research Design and Analysis (CTW) (4)
   - SOCI 3020 Social Research Methods (CTW) (3)

3. Required Courses (21)
   See “Interdisciplinary Course Selection” guidance above.
   - GER 3124/SOCI 3124 Diversity and Aging (3)

Courses selected within Area H: Allied Field – Health and Health Services may require authorization from the instructor prior to registration.

Area J: Electives

Students take elective courses beyond those specified in Areas A-H to reach the 120 hours needed to earn a bachelor’s degree (including 39 hours at the 3000-4000 level taken at Georgia State University). The following courses are recommended as elective options for students pursuing the BIS with a concentration in Gerontology if additional hours are needed to reach 120 hours.

- GERO 4119 Global Aging and Families (3)
- GERO 4122 Death, Dying and Loss (3)
- GERO 4130 Family, Intimacy, and Aging (3)
- GERO 4475 Communication and Aging (3)
- GERO 4700 Special Topics in Gerontology (3)
- GERO 4800 Directed Study in Gerontology (3)
Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This program offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.

Undergraduate Certificate in Gerontology

Program Admission

To be admitted to the undergraduate Certificate in Gerontology, students must be regularly enrolled in a degree program at Georgia State University. Students are required to submit an application to the certificate program obtained from the Gerontology Institute and have a minimal institutional GPA of 2.0.

Program Degree Requirements

To receive the undergraduate Certificate in Gerontology, students must complete the following 18-semester-hour curriculum with a grade of C or higher on all course work.

Undergraduate Certificate in Gerontology

1. Required courses (9):
   - GER 2000 Introduction to Gerontology (3)
   - Select two of the following required courses (6):
     - GER 4116 Aging and Society (3)
     - GER 4200 Health and the Older Adult (3)
     - GER 4610 Psychology of Aging (3)

2. Select one course (3):
   - GER 4110 Aging Policy and Services (3)
   - SW 4460 Aging Practice, Policy and Research Issues (3)

3. Select one course (3):
   - GER 3124 Diversity and Aging (3)
   - GER 4110 Aging Policy and Services (3) (if not taken in section 2 above)
   - GER 4116 Aging and Society (3) (if not taken in section 1 above)
   - GER 4119 Global Aging and Services
   - GER 4122 Death, Dying, and Loss (3)
   - GER 4130 Family, Intimacy, and Aging (3)
   - GER 4200 Health and the Older Adult (3) (if not taken in section 1 above)

   - GER 4800 Directed Study in Gerontology (3)
   - SW 4460 Aging Practice, Policy and Research Issues (3) (if not taken in section 2 above)

4. Required course (3):
   - SW 4460 Aging Practice, Policy and Research (3)
   - Any course listed in Area H not taken to meet Area H requirements
• GER 4910 Gerontology Internship (1-3) (or an approved alternate internship course)
3315 Global Studies

Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies with a Concentration in Global Studies

25 Park Place, 18th floor
404-413-6645
gsi.gsu.edu

Anthony Lemieux, Director
Jennie Burnet, Associate Director and Director of Undergraduate Studies

The Global Studies Institute brings together different academic disciplines to tackle pressing problems in today’s world. We are a diverse group of researchers, including political scientists, psychologists, anthropologists, geographers, environmental policy experts, sociologists, and social psychologists. We are united by a deep concern to address critical global issues through our research and teaching.

The Global Studies Institute offers a Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies (B.I.S.) with a concentration in Global Studies. The degree prepares students to be globally aware in their chosen careers. Students develop a broad set of perspectives and skills. Our aim is to equip students with the knowledge and abilities needed to be successful in today’s fast-moving and inter-connected world. We offer students courses on critical issues like conflict, terrorism, peace building, water access, urbanization, and global cities. In addition to focusing on global issues, students develop deep regional knowledge in a specific area, including Europe, Africa, Asia, the Middle East, or Latin America. Students are encouraged to pursue world language study at an advanced level.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Arts students should also consult regularly with the director of undergraduate studies for the specific program regarding course selection, program plans, experiential learning, and other academic opportunities.

Program Admission

A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the college Office of Academic Assistance (see above). Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation. Students may apply for the major after one semester at Georgia State University. We strongly recommend that students decide to become global studies majors early in their sophomore year to maximize the opportunities for experiential learning and study abroad.
Program Degree Requirements

Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 3030.30 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

In selecting courses for this program, students are responsible for completing any required prerequisites.

The course used to fulfill the Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course for the B.I.S. program will not count towards the rules of Area G — no more than three to four 3-4 credit hour courses (12 hours) from a single discipline — nor of Area H — no more than two 3-4 credit hour courses (6-8 hours) can be taken within a single discipline.

Courses below marked with an asterisk (*) have prerequisites. Students should ensure that they include prerequisites for selected courses elsewhere in their degree program. Internship experiences may be undertaken only after completing at least 21 hours of credit in the concentration area.

Robert Baker, Undergraduate Director

Historians study various aspects of humanity’s recorded past. Some historians explore the rise and fall of empires, while others describe the everyday lives of men and women. They are interested in every period of the past and all parts of the world. Historians also examine the principles and theories that influence the writing of history. They seek to understand the forces that have structured human life and the ideas that have shaped the way people perceive and experience their worlds. Historians are concerned with change and continuity within societies and interactions among cultures. Historians pay particular attention to the effect of perspectives and values because their discipline involves the interpretation of findings, not just the collection of facts. History can teach us many lessons, not simply about our past but also about the paradoxes and potentials of our present.

The Department of History offers a wide range of courses in African, Asian, European, Latin American, Middle Eastern, and United States history. Arranged in three levels — introductory, intermediate, and advanced — these courses afford students an opportunity not only to become familiar with a body of historical knowledge but also to enhance their skills as readers, discussants, writers, and researchers. Because it emphasizes analytic and critical thinking, history prepares students for further professional training in education, international studies, journalism, law, politics, and public policy, and for all manner of careers. All students can benefit from the insights history provides into the human condition.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Degree Requirements

Students should complete the freshman courses in history in the core curriculum and HIST 3000 (Introduction to Historical Studies-CTW) before enrolling in other history courses numbered 3000 and above. In all lower-division history courses the department requires that majors attain a minimum grade of C.

The department requires a total of 30 hours in upper-division history. At least one course must be taken from each of the areas of American, European, and African/Asian/Latin American/Middle Eastern History. All majors must take HIST 4990 (Historical Research-CTW) after completing HIST 3000 and at least four other upper-division courses. However, students enrolling in the dual degree BA/MA program may elect to substitute a graduate level research course for HIST 4990. No more than 15 hours of upper-division history may be transfer credits.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

B.A. in History

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major Field (18)

1. Required Courses (9):
   - HIST 1111 Survey of World History to 1500 (3)
   - HIST 1112 Survey of World History since 1500 (3)
   - World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)
2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - AAS 2010, ANTH 1102, ANTH 2010, ANTH 2020, ANTH 2030, ECON 2105, ECON 2106, ENGL 2110, ENGL 2120, ENGL 2130, GEOG 1101, HIST 1200, HIST 1140, HIST 2200, JOUR 1000, MATH 1070, PHIL 2010, POLS 2101, POLS 2401, PSYC 1101, SOCI 1101, SOCI 1160, WGSS 2010; World language 1001 (if different from world language taken in high school), World Lang 2001, World Lang 2002

The Department of History recommends that all majors complete the world language 1002, 2001, and 2002 sequence. (See “World Language Requirement for B.A. and B.I.S. Majors,” previously described.)

Area G: Major Courses (30)

Unless otherwise specified, HIST 1111, HIST 1112, and HIST 2110 are prerequisites for all advanced course work in history. History majors may complete no more than eight hours of 3000/4000-level history courses before completing HIST 3000.

A minimum total of 30 hours must be taken from courses at the 3000-4000 level, and must include one course from each of the following:

1. Required Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (4)
   - HIST 3000 Introduction to Historical Studies-CTW (4) (should be taken first among upper-division courses)
2. U. S. History (one course)
3. European History (one course)
4. African, Asian, Latin American, or Middle Eastern History (one course)
5. Capstone Course in Historical Research (4)
Area H: Additional Courses

Additional courses must be taken to complete a minimum of 120 hours, exclusive of KH 1010.

The department strongly recommends that majors take the fourth semester of a world language (2002).

Pre-Education Concentration

The Department of History offers a pre-education track for those students who plan to teach at the middle school or high school level. Students have the opportunity to take a variety of courses in U.S., European, and world history, which will provide the analytic and writing skills, the global perspective, and the historical content that they will need to teach in the public schools. Along with the B.A. in History, it prepares students to be tested for temporary certification or to enter the M.A.T. Program in Social Studies Education in the College of Education and Human Development at Georgia State or a similar program elsewhere to complete the requirements for state certification.

Area A-F requirements for the Pre-Education Concentration are the same as for the B.A. in History.

Area G (Pre-Education): Major Courses (30)

Students in the pre-education track will take eight history courses at the 3000-4000 level distributed as follows:

1. Required Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (4)
   - HIST 3000 Introduction to Historical Studies-CTW (4) (should be taken first among upper-division courses)
2. Two courses in U.S. history. The department strongly recommends that one of these be History 4310 (Georgia).
3. One course in European history.
4. One course in African, Asian, Latin American, Middle Eastern, or world history.
5. Two additional HIST courses the 3000-4000 level.
6. Capstone Course in Historical Research (4)
   - HIST 4990 Historical Research-CTW (4) (Prerequisite: HIST 3000 and at least four other upper-division HIST courses, including at least two 4000-level classes.)

Area H (Pre-Education): Additional Courses

Students in the pre-education track will also complete a minimum of nine hours of 3000-4000-level course work in two or more of the following allied fields:

- Political Science
- Geography
- Economics
- Education (Required: EXC 4020; along with two of the following: LT 3210, EDCI 3200, EDUC
A C or better is required in all the courses in the Allied Field of the Pre-Ed track.

Additional courses must be taken to complete a minimum of 120 hours, exclusive of KH 1010.

History as an allied field consists of three courses at the 3000-4000 level: one in U.S. history, one in European history, and one in African, Asian, Latin American, or Middle Eastern history.

Pre-Law Concentration

Students who wish to major in history and prepare for law school or prestigious J.D.-Ph.D. programs can opt for a pre-law concentration. Students should contact Robert Baker, the department’s pre-law advisor, for more information about law school admissions.

Area A-F requirements for the Pre-Law Concentration are the same as for the B.A. in History. One or more of the following courses are strongly recommended:

- PHIL 2500 Introduction to Symbolic Logic (3)
- ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (Prerequisite: MATH 1101 or MATH 1111) (3)
- ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (Prerequisite: MATH 1101 or MATH 1111) (3)

Area G (Pre-Law): Major Courses (30)

1. Required Courses to fulfill CTW requirement (4)
   - HIST 3000 Introduction to Historical Studies-CTW (4) (should be taken first among upper-division courses)
2. Two of the following courses (8):
   - HIST 4450 Crime in America (4)
   - HIST 4460 Bills of Rights (4)
   - HIST 4470 The Founders’ Constitution (4)
   - HIST 4532 Crime & Law, Early Modern Europe (4)
   - HIST 4540 Britain, Ireland, and the British Atlantic, 1485-1689 (4)
   - HIST 4550 Britain, Ireland, and the British Empire since 1689 (4)
3. One course in African, Asian, Latin American, Middle Eastern, or world history.
4. Capstone Course in Historical Research (4)
   - HIST 4990 Historical Research-CTW (4) (Prerequisite: HIST 3000 and at least three other upper-division courses, including at least two 4000-level classes.)

Area H (Pre-Law): Minor and Additional Courses

Students in the pre-law concentration must take an additional 9 hours. At least three credit hours must come from Field 2.

Field 1:

- HIST 3250 Religion in American Life (4)
- HIST 3900 Human Rights in World History (3 or 4)
- HIST 4100 Philosophy of History (3)
- HIST 4190 American Culture and Ideas I (4)
- HIST 4200 American Culture and Ideas II (4)
- HIST 4630 European Intellectual History I: from Medieval to Marx (4)
- HIST 4640 European Intellectual History II: from Marx to Postmodernism (4)

Field 2:

- PHIL 4500 Symbolic Logic (prerequisite: PHIL 2500 with grade of B or higher) (3)
- PHIL 4700 Ethics (prerequisite: one 2000 or 3000-level Philosophy course) (3)
- PHIL 4820 Philosophy of Law (prerequisite: one 2000 or 3000-level Philosophy course) (3)
- RELS 4140 Religion and Law (3)
- RELS 5150 Religion, Nation, and Law (3)
- RELS 4670 Church and State (3)
- SOCI 3224 Crime and Punishment (3)
- SOCI 4366 Law and Society (3)
- POLS 3140 Judicial Process and Courts (3)
- POLS 4130 American Constitutional Law (3)
- POLS 4131 Civil Liberties and Rights (3)

Other courses may be substituted for the Area H requirement by the History pre-law advisor.

Additional courses from departments other than the major must be taken to complete a minimum of 120 hours, exclusive of KH 1010. The department strongly recommends that majors take the fourth semester of a foreign language: Lang 2002.

Minor in History

Students who wish to minor in history must take 15-18 hours in history courses, including at least three courses at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in history may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

Dual Bachelor's/Master's Degree Programs

The department offers the following dual degree program:

- Dual B.A./M.A. in History
- Dual B.A. in History and Master of Historic Preservation

These dual degree opportunities enable qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and apply the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the department and College of Arts and Sciences to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This unit offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.
3325 Human Rights and Democracy

Program Offering:

- Interdisciplinary Minor in Human Rights and Democracy

This program offers students an avenue to take advantage of the rich offerings in the areas of human rights and democracy available across several departments in the College of Arts and Science. The minor addresses the needs of students interested in a multidisciplinary, non-traditional introduction to issues and skills surrounding human rights and democracy.

Minor Coordinator: Ryan Carlin (rcarlin@gsu.edu)

Program Admission

A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the Office of Academic Assistance (see below). Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Degree Requirements

Please refer to The Interdisciplinary Minor section 3030.40 of the course catalog for academic regulations for this program.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Students who wish to minor in Human Rights and Democracy should choose courses in consultation with faculty advisor. This minor is open to all students. A few courses in this program have prerequisites.

Area H:

No more than two 3-4 credit hour courses (6-8 hours) can be taken within a single discipline. All courses must be at the 3000-4000 levels. Students must take at least 2 courses from the Foundations area and at least 1 from each of the following thematic areas: Mass Atrocities, Genocide and the Holocaust; Social Conflict and Conflict Resolution; and Identity Perspectives. Other related 3000- or 4000-level courses (in any college) may be approved in advance by the faculty advisor. No courses will be approved after a student has enrolled in the course. The Intensive English Program (IEP) is a non-credit program designed to prepare students in the language and study skills necessary for successful academic work in American colleges and universities. The IEP offers academic English courses from basic to advanced levels of proficiency. In some cases, students who have been accepted to a degree program at Georgia State may combine upper-level English as a Second Language (ESL) courses and regular academic work.

Every level in the IEP offers five courses each semester (a total of 18 hours in class each week). Courses include academic writing, structure/composition, academic reading/listening, extensive reading, and oral communication. Tutoring services are available for students.

The Department of World Languages and Cultures serves a threefold purpose: to encourage an appreciation of humanistic values through the study of foreign languages, literatures, and cultures; to teach foreign languages as a means of communication; and to prepare students for academic careers and the opportunities available in the field of international business. As part of a dynamic urban university in a city of growing international awareness and status, the department is fulfilling its responsibility to meet the increasing foreign language needs of the governmental, business, and professional communities. The department recognizes that an active command of the foreign language and a thorough exploration of the foreign culture form an essential basis for further study in the various areas of its curriculum. To this end, the department sponsors a study-abroad program in Perugia, Italy.

The department maintains a state-of-the-art multimedia Language Acquisition and Resource Center (LARC) with a digital audio laboratory with 50 student computer workstations. The digital lab serves a dual purpose in allowing both independent student access to digitized audio files and interactive software that accompanies the language texts, and also in providing a multimedia environment for teacher-led listening, speaking, and recording activities. In addition to the audio lab, the LARC features a tutoring center and resource library, as well as 17 stand-alone computers for student use. To assist in the development of the student’s active language skills and to provide added cultural enrichment, the LARC contains a wide range of audiovisual materials, including an extensive collection of videos, CD-ROMs and DVDs.

The department sponsors two Freshman Learning Communities each year. One group is designed for students interested in using their foreign language in international business. The other, sponsored jointly by the Department of Applied Linguistics / ESL, is in Language Studies.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center
(freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Arts students should also consult regularly with the faculty program coordinator for the specific program regarding course selection, program plans, experiential learning, and other academic opportunities.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to courses in the language major, you are advised to choose courses in other areas that complement your language study. Such courses include other languages, history, philosophy, art and music, business, and education. Faculty advisors in the department are eager to discuss your academic plans with you as you design your course of study. In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Program Financial Information

Lab fees are assessed automatically for students who register for certain courses. As a result, students will no longer be required to purchase lab fee cards. For more information, please feel free to contact the department or review the GoSolar or catalog course listings to determine if a course includes a lab fee.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies with a Concentration in Italian Studies

Program Coordinator: Richard Keatley (rekeatley@gsu.edu)

The Italian Studies program takes into account the vast influence Italian culture has had on the world and Italy’s continued role in a global cultural and economic context. While emphasizing the need for students to speak fluent Italian, the B.I.S. is interdisciplinary in approach and allows students to concentrate on specific aspects of Italian culture such as music, art, philosophy, history, cinema and politics.

Students of the B.I.S. are highly encouraged to study abroad through Georgia State University’s two programs in Italy – the Summer Study Abroad in Perugia, designed specifically to smooth the transition from intermediate to an advanced level of Italian proficiency, and the Venice Exchange (Ca’Foscari), which allows students to take courses on an Italian campus or at the associated Venice International University and allowing Italian Studies students to gain first-hand understanding of Italian culture and language. Students interested in this program should contact the program coordinator.

Program Admission

A 2.00 GSU GPA is required in order to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the Office of Academic Assistance (see section 3040). Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation.

Program Degree Requirements

Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 3030.30 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

The course taken to fulfill the Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) requirement will not count towards the rules of Area G. No more than twelve hours (excluding CTW course) can be taken within a single discipline in area G. No more than two courses (6-8 hours) can be taken within a single discipline in Area H.

- ITAL 2002 Intermediate Italian II (3)

Students who have not already attained elementary-level proficiency in Italian will be required to take prerequisite courses: ITAL 1001 and/or –ITAL 1002. In that case, the 1002 language course may be used to satisfy three credit hours of core requirements in Area C, Humanities, Fine Arts, and World Languages.

Students who have already attained intermediate-level competency in the primary language may substitute 1000/2000 level courses in another language for Fren, Grmn, Ital or SPAN 2001/SPAN 2002 (or SPAN 2203 or SPAN 2501) upon approval of the Department of World Languages and Cultures advisor.

Elective: one 1000/2000-level course chosen from Areas A-E.

Area G: Economics Common Core Curriculum (24) A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

- ECON 3900 Macroeconomics-CTW (3)
- ECON 3910 Microeconomics (3)
- ECON 4600 Economic Development (3)
- ECON 4800 International Trade (3)
- ECON 4810 International Finance (3)
- ECON 4999 Senior Capstone in Economic Policy (3)
Choose 2 elective 4000-level Econ courses (6)

Area H: Modern Languages Common Core (24) A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

- ITAL 3301 Civilization (3)
- ITAL 3302 Advanced Composition and Conversation (3)
- ITAL 3303 Italian Cultural Expression (3)
- ITAL 4414 Topics in Italian Literature (may be taken more than once if topic is different) (3)
- ITAL 4033 Italian for International Business I (3)
- ITAL 4043 Italian for International Business II (3)
- Two additional Ital 3000/4000 level courses (6)

Area I: Electives (12) Choose any four 3000/4000-level courses, in consultation with the faculty advisor.

---

Minor in Italian

Students who wish to minor in Italian must take 15-18 hours in Italian, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours of courses in the language may count the additional hours toward their electives. A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

Certificate of Language Ability in Italian

A strong demand exists by employers for candidates to offer credentials to verify language proficiency in both oral and written communication. The undergraduate Certificate of Language Ability is designed for students to offer tangible proof of their language abilities and makes an ideal complement to other areas of study such as business, international relations, public health, criminal justice, hospitality, and more.

The certificate consists of 12 credit hours at 2000- and 3000-level (minimum of 6 must be at the 3000-level), with a B or higher in the first attempt at each course. Courses retaken using the university Repeat to Replace policy are not counted as first attempts.

- At the 2000-level, students may enroll in ITAL 2001 and ITAL 2002.
- At the 3000-level, students may enroll in ITAL 3301 and ITAL 3302.
Program Offered:

The Department of Communication offers courses that explore the processes and effects of human communication in a variety of contexts ranging from interpersonal communication to the dissemination of information through the mass media. The Department of Communication offers courses of study that develop knowledge and skills in managing face-to-face communication, the nature and social functions of the mass media, and the tools necessary for communication careers. Majors are offered in the areas of film and media, journalism, and speech communication.

Journalism is the practice of collecting, evaluating, and disseminating current, relevant information and opinion. The journalism major prepares students for a variety of careers as multimedia news producers or public relations practitioners. Journalism courses are also useful electives for students planning to enter other vocations who wish to deepen and expand their media-literacy.

Credit for special projects and internships is available in all majors. Internships provide students who have already completed all other requirements to gain experience in a variety of professional sectors in the metropolitan area and to tailor programs to their specific career goals.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Major Eligibility Requirements

Effective fall semester 2013, to be eligible for the Journalism major and to enroll in 3000-4000 level Journalism courses (i.e., JOUR courses), students must fulfill the following requirements:

- Complete all courses with the JOUR prefix that are in Journalism’s Area F (with a minimum grade
- Earn a 2.5 grade-point average in all Area F JOUR courses. This GPA will be calculated based on the first attempt at these JOUR courses at Georgia State University. WFs counts as an attempt. Transfer students who transfer these course(s) into Georgia State, may use the grades in the transferred course(s) to calculate the GPA or they may attempt them once at Georgia State.
- Courses retaken using the university Repeat to Replace policy are not counted as first attempts.

Once a student is eligible to take 3000-4000 Journalism courses, they remain eligible to take them as long as they are eligible to enroll at Georgia State University.

College and University Degree Requirements

In addition to the Major Eligibility Requirements for Journalism, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Program Financial Information

Effective summer 2009, lab fees will be assessed automatically for students who register for certain courses. As a result, students will no longer be required to purchase lab fee cards. For more information, please feel free to contact the department or review the PAWS or catalog course listings to determine if a course includes a lab fee.

H: Minor and Additional Courses

Majors in the Department of Communication’s three B.A. programs must select a minor consisting of at least 15 hours of courses in a discipline within the Department of Communication other than the major (journalism, film/video, or speech) or in another academic department/school/institute that offers a baccalaureate degree. At least nine semester hours of minor courses must be at the 3000 level or above, unless otherwise specified by the minor-granting department/school/institute. A grade of C or higher is required in all minor courses.
Minor in Journalism

Students who wish to minor in one of the department’s three programs must take 15-18 hours in the specific area, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in the specific area may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor. Students wishing to take 3000-4000 level Journalism courses (i.e., JOUR) as part of a minor must first request departmental registration approval.

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This unit offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.
Certificate of Language Ability in Korean

A strong demand exists by employers for candidates to offer credentials to verify language proficiency in both oral and written communication. The undergraduate Certificate of Language Ability is designed for students to offer tangible proof of their language abilities and makes an ideal complement to other areas of study such as business, international relations, public health, criminal justice, hospitality, and more.

The certificate consists of 12 credit hours at 2000- and 3000-level (minimum of 6 must be at the 3000-level), with a B or higher in the first attempt at each course. Courses retaken using the university Repeat to Replace policy are not counted as first attempts.

- At the 2000-level, students may enroll in KORE 2001 and KORE 2002.
- At the 3000-level, students may enroll in KORE 3002 and KORE 3011.
3390 Latin

The minor in Latin will no longer accept new students and is in the process of being deactivated.
3395 Latin American Studies

Program Offered:

- Interdisciplinary Minor in Latin American Studies

Minor Coordinator: Leslie Marsh (llmarsh@gsu.edu), World Languages and Cultures

Program Requirements:

The specific requirements for an interdisciplinary minor in Latin American Studies are as follows:

- The minor course work must consist of 15 hours of classes with significant Latin American content with a GPA of 3.0.
- These courses must be selected from at least three different departments and may not be from the major department.
- Completion of credit for a Spanish or Portuguese language course sequence of at least four semesters or certification to a similar level by means of an examination administered by the Department of World Languages and Cultures.

The courses below will fulfill the specific requirements of the interdisciplinary minor in Latin American Studies.

- AH 4669 Pre-Columbian Art (3)
- AH 4660 Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Art in Latin America (3)
- AH 4665 Latin American Avant-Gardes of the 1920s (3)
- AH 4669 Art in Latin America I: 1900-1950 (3)

- SPAN 4480 Special Topics in Hispanic Culture (3)

Other courses can also be considered, depending on the professor and content of the course. There are several Anthropology courses (ANTH prefix), for example, taught by faculty in the Department of Anthropology, who teach courses with significant Latin American content (see courses taught by Dr.
Jeffrey Glover, Dr. Nicola Sharrat, Dr. Cassandra White, and Dr. Bethany Turner). Please consult with the program coordinator to determine if a course not listed above is appropriate for the minor.

Examples:
ANTH 4040 Race, Class, and Gender in Global Perspective
ANTH 4170 Mesoamerican Archaeology
ANTH 4530 Ancient Cities
3400 Law and Society

Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies with a Concentration in Law and Society
  - Pre-Law Allied Field
  - Criminology Allied Field

Program Coordinator: Michael Evans, mevans33@gsu.edu

This program emphasizes the social sciences and humanities perspectives of the law. Drawing on the disciplines of political science, sociology, history, English, philosophy, psychology, criminal justice, and business law, the Law and Society area of concentration offers the student a broad liberal but non-professional background in law. It is a viable option for pre-law students. For students interested in the program, please contact the program coordinator or the Department of Political Science (404-413-6159).

Program Admission

A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the Office of Academic Assistance (see below). Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college's Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Arts students should also consult regularly with the faculty program coordinator for the specific program regarding course selection, program plans, experiential learning, and other academic opportunities.

Program Degree Requirements

Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 3030.30 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Courses used to fulfill the two Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) courses for each B.I.S. program will not count towards the rules of Area G — no more than three to four 3-4 credit hour courses (12 hours) from a single discipline — nor of Area H — no more than two 3-4 credit hour courses (6-8 hours) can be taken within a single discipline.

Alexandra Smirnova, Associate Chair
Michael Stewart, Director of Undergraduate Studies

All freshmen entering Georgia State University are required to take either the College Entrance Examination Board Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or the assessment of the American College Testing Program (ACT). The results of the test, performance in and time of previous mathematical education, and the student’s intended major or career goals are all factors to be considered when registering for any mathematics course. In order to register for courses numbered 1111 or higher, students must make an appropriate score on the mathematics placement test (see Section 1410.10) or have other appropriate prerequisite work. Therefore, students are urged to check the prerequisites for mathematics courses, and the mathematics requirement as listed by their major department/school/institute. Refer any questions to that department/school/ institute or to the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

Mathematics is one of the great unifying themes in our modern culture. It is a language, a science, an art form, and a tool of tremendous power. The Department of Mathematics and Statistics, in its courses for both majors and non-majors, seeks to introduce students to this vast area of knowledge and to show them how mathematics can be used to solve problems.

The B.S. degree program in mathematics prepares a student for positions in business, industry, and government; a career in the teaching of mathematics at the secondary level; or further study in mathematics.
or statistics leading to graduate degrees.

Six concentrations are offered within the B.S. degree in mathematics. The concentration in actuarial science prepares a student to work as an actuary. The concentration in computer information systems prepares students for work in the field of management information systems. The concentration in computer science provides education in more scientific aspects of computing. The concentration in managerial sciences provides training in management modeling, problem solving, and computer-assisted decision support/expert systems technologies. The concentration in statistics prepares students for work as applied statisticians. The concentration in applied mathematics provides background in core areas of applied mathematics, computational mathematics, and statistics. Finally, in addition to the undergraduate concentrations, the department offers dual degrees that give students a seamless path from a B.S. in mathematics to business graduate degrees in actuarial science, information systems, and mathematical risk management.

Guidelines for minors in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics are given after the program descriptions.

In addition to immediate employment, there are opportunities for good students to pursue further study at the graduate level in mathematics, statistics, and other fields.

In 1978, the department initiated a cooperative education program with International Business Machines, Inc. Over the years, the program has expanded to include many other firms. Hundreds of majors have benefited from a co-op experience. Majors have an opportunity for paid work experience related to their area of study. They may also make important contacts that may lead to full-time employment after graduation. The Office of Cooperative Education has been established to coordinate the university’s cooperative education programs.

Majors are asked to consider carefully the career objectives they wish to pursue after graduation. A particular career objective may suggest a special choice for the minor or concentration that would prepare one for that career. It also might suggest that a co-op experience would be useful. Faculty who serve as academic advisers for majors can discuss choices and concentrations that are available to majors.

Program Financial Information

There are no extra fees, scholarships or other expenses outside of regular Georgia State University fees applicable to a B.S. degree in mathematics, other than those associated with teacher preparation (see Sections 1605 and 1610).

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Academic Regulations

Students must earn a grade of C or higher in all mathematics courses in the core, Area F, and Area G.
B.S. in Mathematics

Program Degree Requirements

Students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Area A:

- Required course: MATH 1112, MATH 1113, or higher level MATH must be taken in Area A. A section of MATH 1113 Precalculus that is designated specifically for this major is recommended (see GoSolar listing to identify appropriate sections).

Area D:

- Required course: MATH 2211 Calculus of One Variable I (4) (or a higher-level mathematics course)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Carry over from Areas A and/or D (1-2):
   - Students will carry one additional credit hour over to Area F for each four hour mathematics course taken in Area A and/or Area D.

2. Required Courses (1-2 of the following should be taken in Area A and/or D) (10-14):
   - MATH 2211 Calculus of One Variable I (4)
   - MATH 2212 Calculus of One Variable II (4)
   - MATH 2215 Multivariate Calculus (4)
   - MATH 2420 Discrete Mathematics (3)
   - MATH 2641 Linear Algebra I (3)

3. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - ACCT 2101 Principles of Accounting I (3)
   - ACCT 2102 Principles of Accounting II (3)
   - BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (3) and BIOL 2107L Principles of Biology I Lab (1)
   - BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (3) and BIOL 2108L Principles of Biology II Lab (1)
   - CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (3) and CHEM 1211L Principles of Chemistry I Lab (1)
   - CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (3) and CHEM 1212L Principles of Chemistry II Lab (1)
   - CHEM 2400 Organic Chemistry I (3)
   - CIS 2100 Introduction to Information Systems (3)
   - CSC 1301 Principles of Computer Science I (4)
   - CSC 1302 Principles of Computer Science II (4)
   - ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
   - ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
   - MATH 2652 Differential Equations (4)
   - PHIL 1010 Critical Thinking (2)
   - PHYS 2211K Principles of Physics I (3) and PHYS 2211L Principles of Physics I Lab (1)
   - PHYS 2212K Principles of Physics II (3) and PHYS 2212L Principles of Physics II Lab (1)
- RSCH 1203 Research Strategies and Technology (1)
- World language at the 1002, 2001, or 2002 level (3)

- All courses above ending in K are commonly offered as separate lecture and lab (L) courses by GSU's Perimeter College. The combined (K) courses and separate lecture and lab (L) courses cover the same subject matter and are considered equivalent courses.
- Students with MATH 2211 (4) in Area A2 and MATH 2212 (4) in Area D will have MATH 2215 (4), MATH 2420 (3), MATH 2641 (3), and two extra hours from Areas A2 and D in the required portion of Area F, for subtotals of 12 hours of required courses and 6 hours of additional courses. Students with MATH 1112 (3) in Area A2 and MATH 2211 (4) in Area D will have MATH 2212 (4), MATH 2215 (4), MATH 2420 (3), MATH 2641 (3), and one extra hour from Area D in the required portion of Area F, for subtotals of 15 hours of required courses and 3 hours of additional courses. Any credit hours exceeding 18 earned to complete the Area F requirements will count toward elective hours.

Area G: Major Courses (39)

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (3):
   - MATH 3000 Bridge to Higher Mathematics-CTW (3)
2. Required Courses (21):
   - MATH 4435 Linear Algebra II (3)
   - MATH 4441 Modern Algebra (3)
   - MATH 4442 Modern Algebra II (3)
   - MATH 4661 Analysis I (3)
   - MATH 4662 Analysis II (3)
   - MATH 4751 Mathematical Statistics I (3)
   - MATH 4991 Senior Seminar (3)
3. Mathematics Electives (15):
   Select 15 additional hours of 3000- or 4000-level mathematics courses, of which six hours at most may be at the 3000 level (excluding Math 3030, 3050, 3070, and 3090).
4. Additional courses must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010.

Area H: Additional Major Courses, Concentrations, Minor, and Electives

See descriptions below as to the specifics of special programs, such as the various concentrations offered. Students earning a B.S. in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics are not required to complete a minor.

Actuarial Science Concentration (42-48)

An actuary is an executive who uses mathematical and statistical skills to define, analyze, and solve problems of society. Actuaries create and manage programs to reduce the adverse financial impact of the expected and unexpected events that happen to people. They are employed in business, industry, and government.

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics, in cooperation with the actuarial science program in the Department of Risk Management and Insurance, offers the Bachelor of Science with a major in mathematics and a concentration in actuarial science. This program provides strong preparation in both mathematics and actuarial science. Students completing this program may request that a suitable annotation be placed on their permanent record.

Students must receive credit for CSC 1301, CSC 1302, ECON 2105 and ECON 2106 in the core curriculum Areas A-F or as electives.

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (3):
   - MATH 3000 Bridge to Higher Mathematics-CTW (3)
2. Mathematics Requirements (24):
   - MATH 4211 Optimization (3)
   - MATH 4435 Linear Algebra II (3)
   - MATH 4610 Numerical Analysis I (3)
   - MATH 4661 Analysis I (3)
   - Either MATH 4662 Analysis II or MATH 4441 Modern Algebra I (3)
   - MATH 4751 Mathematical Statistics I (3)
   - MATH 4752 Mathematical Statistics II (3)
   - MATH 4991 Senior Seminar (3)
3. Actuarial Science Requirements (15):
   - AS 4140 Mathematical Foundations of Actuarial Science (3)
   - AS 4230 Theory of Interest (3)
   - AS 4340 Life Contingencies I (3)
   - Two of AS 4320, AS 4350, or AS 4510 (6)
4. Required Economics Courses (6) (if not completed in Area F):
   - ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
   - ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
5. Additional courses must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010. (9)

Applied Mathematics Concentration (39-43)

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics offers the Bachelor of Science with a major in mathematics and concentration in applied mathematics. The program provides a broad background in core areas of applied mathematics, including differential equations, modeling, computational mathematics, numerical methods, and statistics.

Students must receive credit for CSC 1301 and CSC 1302 in the Area F or as electives.

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (3)
   - MATH 3000 Bridge to Higher Mathematics-CTW (3)
2. Mathematics Requirements (24-28):
   - MATH 4258 Vector Calculus (3)
   - MATH 4435 Linear Algebra II (3)
   - MATH 2652 Differential Equations (4) (If not taken in area F)
   - MATH 4265 Partial Differential Equations (3)
   - MATH 4751 Mathematical Statistics I (3)
MATH 4752 Mathematical Statistics II (3)
MATH 4211 Optimization (3)
MATH 4610 Numerical Analysis I (3)
MATH 4991 Senior Seminar

3. Choose two courses from the following list (6)
   - MATH 4275 Applied Dynamical Systems (3)
   - MATH 4548 Methods of Regression and Analysis of Variance (3)
   - MATH 4620 Numerical Analysis II (3)

4. Select 6 additional hours of 3000/4000-level mathematics courses, of which 3 hours at most may be at the 3000 level (excluding MATH 3030, MATH 3050, MATH 3070, and MATH 3090).

5. Additional courses must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, excluding KH 1010.

Computer Information Systems Concentration (42-43)

In cooperation with the Department of Computer Information Systems, the Department of Mathematics and Statistics offers the Bachelor of Science with a major in mathematics and a concentration in computer information systems. This program provides strong preparation in both mathematics and computer information systems. Students completing this concentration may request that a suitable annotation be placed on their permanent record. They are eligible to receive a certificate signed by the chair of the Department of Mathematics and Statistics and the dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. Students must receive credit CSC 1301, CSC 1302, and CIS 2010 in the core curriculum Areas A-F or as electives.

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (3):
   - MATH 3000 Bridge to Higher Mathematics-CTW (3)

2. Mathematics Requirements (15):
   - MATH 4435 Linear Algebra (3)
   - MATH 4661 Analysis I (3)
   - Either MATH 4662 Analysis II or MATH 4441 Modern Algebra I (3)
   - MATH 4751 Mathematical Statistics I (3)
   - MATH 4991 Senior Seminar (3)

3. Select one additional upper-level mathematics course (exclusive of Math 3030, 3050, 3070, and 3090). (3)

4. Computer Science Requirements (9-10):
   - CSC 2720 Data Structures (3)
   - CSC 3210 Computer Organization and Programming (3)
   - Select one of the following:
     - CSC 3320 System-Level Programming (3)
     - CSC 4210 Computer Architecture (4)
     - CSC 4320 Operating Systems (4)

5. Computer Information Systems Requirements (12):
   - CIS 3210 End User Applications Programming (3)
   - CIS 3300 Systems Analysis (3)
   - CIS 3310 Systems Design (3)
   - Select one additional CIS course, preapproved by the director of undergraduate studies. (3)

6. Additional courses must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010. (8-9)
Computer Science Concentration (43-45)

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics offers the Bachelor of Science in mathematics with a concentration in computer science. This program provides strong preparation in both mathematics and computer science. Students completing this program may request that a suitable annotation be placed on their permanent record. Students must receive credit CSC 1301, and CSC 1302 in the core curriculum Areas A-F or as electives.

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (3):
   - MATH 3000 Bridge to Higher Mathematics-CTW (3)

2. Mathematics Requirements (18):
   - MATH 3435 Linear Algebra I (3)
   - MATH 4435 Linear Algebra II (3)
   - MATH 4661 Analysis I (3)
   - MATH 4662 Analysis II (3)
   - MATH 4751 Mathematical Statistics I (3)
   - MATH 4991 Senior Seminar (3)

3. Select one additional upper-level mathematics course (exclusive of Math 3030, 3050, 3070, and 3090). (3)

4. Computer Science Requirements (16):
   - CSC 2720 Data Structures (3)
   - CSC 3210 Computer Organization and Programming (3)
   - CSC 4520 Design and Analysis of Algorithms (4)
   - CSC 4610 Numerical Analysis I (3)
   - CSC 4620 Numerical Analysis II (3)

5. Additional Computer Science Courses (6-8):
   Select two additional upper-level computer science courses with at least one selected from the following:
   - CSC 3320 System-Level Programming (3)
   - CSC 4210 Computer Architecture (4)
   - CSC 4330 Programming Language Concepts (4)
   - CSC 4350 Software Engineering-CTW (4)

6. Additional courses must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010. (6-8)

Managerial Sciences Concentration (45)

In cooperation with the Department of Managerial Sciences, the Department of Mathematics and Statistics offers the Bachelor of Science with a major in mathematics and a concentration in managerial sciences. In the managerial sciences, students receive training in management modeling, problem solving, and computer-assisted decision support/expert systems technologies. They learn to apply these skills to the functional areas of administration to increase managerial effectiveness and productivity. Managerial sciences training leads to such careers as management consultants; logistics specialists; quality assurance analysts; data analysts/statisticians; and decision support/expert systems builders. Students completing this program may request that a suitable annotation be placed on their permanent record. Students must receive credit CSC 1301 and CSC 1302 in the core curriculum Areas A-F or as electives.
1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (3):
   - MATH 3000 Bridge to Higher Mathematics-CTW (3)

2. Mathematics Requirements (15):
   - MATH 4211 Optimization (3)
   - MATH 4435 Linear Algebra (3)
   - MATH 4661 Analysis I (3)
   - MATH 4662 Analysis II (3)
   - MATH 4991 Senior Seminar (3)

3. Statistics Requirements (6):
   Select one of the following two-course sequences.
   - MATH 4751 Mathematical Statistics I (3) and MATH 4752 Mathematical Statistics II (3)
   - MATH 4547 Introduction to Statistical Methods (3) and MATH 4548 Methods of Regression and Analysis of Variance (3)

4. Select one additional courses in mathematics and/or computer science (6-7) (exclusive of Math 3030, 3050, 3070, and 3090).

5. Managerial Sciences Requirements (15):*
   - MGS 3100 Business Analysis (3)
   - MGS 4000 Managerial Decision Making (3)
   - MGS 4020 Introduction to Business Intelligence (3)
   - MGS 4110 Analysis of Business Data (3)
   - MGS 4120 Optimal Resource Allocation (3)

6. Managerial Sciences Electives (3):
   Select one course.
   - MGS 4140 Business Modeling (3)
   - MGS 4760 Total Quality Management (3)

7. Additional courses must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010. (11-12)

*Students must have satisfied the statistics requirements before enrolling in any Mgs courses.

Statistics Concentration (42)

Statisticians give advice on the statistical design of experiments, conduct surveys, and analyze data. They use computers, often writing their own programs. They collaborate with specialists in fields such as biology, health sciences, medicine, economics, marketing, psychology, and sociology as well as in business and industry. They are employed in business, industry, and government. The Department of Mathematics and Statistics offers the Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics with a concentration in statistics. Students in this program should select additional courses from a field to which statistics can be applied. Such a selection is called a related field and must be pre-approved by a departmental adviser. Examples of seven related fields are shown in section 5. Students must receive credit CSC 1301 and CSC 1302 in the core curriculum Areas A-F or as electives.

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (3):
   - MATH 3000 Bridge to Higher Mathematics-CTW (3)

o MATH 4435 Linear Algebra II (3)
o MATH 4548 Methods of Regression and Analysis of Variance (3)
o MATH 4661 Analysis I (3)
o MATH 4662 Analysis II (3)
o MATH 4751 Mathematical Statistics I (3)
o MATH 4752 Mathematical Statistics II (3)
o MATH 4991 Senior Seminar (3)

3. Select one course (3):
   o MATH 4544 Biostatistics (3)*
   o MATH 4547 Introduction to Statistical Methods (3)*
   *At most, one semester of Math 4544 and 4547 may be counted in this program.

4. Select one course (3):
   o MATH 4211 Optimization (3)
   o MATH 4610 Numerical Analysis I (3)
   o Any one of the courses not taken in group 2 (3)

5. Related Field Courses (12):
   Select 12 hours of course work in a field other than mathematics. (12) Related field courses must be pre-approved by a faculty adviser and must include at least nine hours of upper-division course work. Examples of related fields are: Actuarial Science, Biology, Computer Information Systems, Computer Science, Economics, Managerial Sciences, and Marketing.

6. Additional courses must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010. (14-15)

Minor in Mathematics

Students choosing to minor in mathematics should complete Math 2212, 2215, and nine hours of additional mathematics courses at the 3000 level or above. There are some restrictions, and course selections must be approved by the Department of Mathematics and Statistics. Students are urged to consult with members of the Department of Mathematics and Statistics to determine which courses would be most useful in their major field.

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.

Dual Bachelor's/Master's Degree Programs

The department offers the following dual degree programs in partnership with the J. Mack Robinson
College of Business:

- B.S. in Mathematics (Actuarial Science concentration) with the Master of Actuarial Science
• B.S. in Mathematics (Computer Information Systems concentration) with the Master of Science in Information Systems
• B.S. in Mathematics (Mathematical Risk Management concentration) with the Master of Science in Risk Management and Insurance (Mathematical Risk Management specialization)

These dual degree opportunities enable qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and apply the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by participating departments and colleges to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This unit offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.
3415 Media Entrepreneurship

Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies Concentration in Media Entrepreneurship

Creative Media Industries Institute

David Cheshier, director and program coordinator, dcheshier@gsu.edu

The interdisciplinary major concentration in Media Entrepreneurship prepares students for entry into a changing media environment with an understanding of current business dynamics and opportunities. Students will gain grounding in the skills they need to start their own businesses and to bring innovative and entrepreneurial thinking to traditional media organizations. Throughout the program, students will examine organizational culture, emerging and traditional business models, opportunities and challenges presented by the start-up climate, and will discuss how to leverage digital media tools in an entrepreneurial context.

Program Admission

A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required in order to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the Office of Academic Assistance (see below). Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Arts students should also consult regularly with the faculty program coordinator for the specific program regarding course selection, program plans, experiential learning, and other academic opportunities.

Program Degree Requirements

Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 3030.30 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Courses used to fulfill the two Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) courses for each B.I.S. program will not count towards the rules of Area G (i.e., no more than three to four 3-4 credit hour courses from a single discipline) nor of Area H (i.e., no more than two 3-4 credit hour courses can be taken within a single discipline).
Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies Concentration in Media Entrepreneurship

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. World language at the 1002 level or above (3)
2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - ART 1010 Drawing I (3)
   - ART 1020 Two-Dimensional Design (3)
   - ACCT 2101 Principles of Accounting I (3)
   - ACCT 2012 Principles of Accounting II (3)
   - BUSA 2106 Legal Environment for Business (3)
   - CIS 2010 Introduction to Computer Based Information Systems (3)
   - CMIS 2000 Introduction to On-Set Film Production (6)
   - CMIS 2001 Georgia Film Academy Semester on Set (6)
   - CMIS 2100 Introduction to Games Industries (3)
   - ECON 2105 Introduction to Macroeconomics (3)
   - ECON 2106 Introduction to Microeconomics (3)
   - FLME 1010 Film Aesthetics and Analysis (3)
   - FLME 2700 History of the Motion Picture (3)
   - MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)
   - MATH 1113 Precalculus (3)
   - MUS 1430 Fundamentals of Music (3)
   - MUS 1440 Theory I (3)
   - MUS 1540 Theory II (3)
   - MUS 2440 Theory III (3)
   - PHYS 1111K Introductory Physics I (4)
   - PHYS 1112K Introductory Physics II (4)
   - PHYS 2030 Physics of Music and Speech (3)
   - THEA 2210 Beginning Acting (3)

Many of the courses listed above are required prerequisites for Media Entrepreneurship BIS courses in Area G and H. Students should select Area F courses in consultation with a BIS advisor.

Area G: Area of Concentration (27-33 hours)

Not more than four (4) three hour courses (i.e. 12 hours) can come from the same course prefix in the student’s program of study, excluding CTW courses.

1. Required courses (12 Hours)
   a. BUSA 3090 Survey of Business Principles for Non-Business Students (3)
   b. [BIS 4995] / CMIS 4910 Directed Readings-CTW (3) (must have permission of the Media Entrepreneurship advisor)
   c. ENI 3101 Entrepreneurial Thinking for Startups (3)
   d. JOUR 4800 Media Ethics and Society (3) (CTW)
2. Entrepreneurship Core (choose two)
   - CMIS 4000 New Ventures in Creative Media (3)
   - ENI 3102 The Startup Venture (3)
- ENI 3103 Commercializing the Startup (3)
- FLME 4156 Media Entrepreneurship (4)
- MTM 3440 Entrepreneurship in the Music Industry (2)
- MK 4850 Marketing for Entrepreneurs (3)
- JOUR 4900 Journalism Entrepreneurship (3)
- MGS 4590 Entrepreneurship Field Study (3)

3. Media Industry/Law/Policy/Management (choose three)
   - ACCT 4111 Intermediate Accounting I (3)
   - BCOM 3950 Business Communication and Professional Development (3)
   - BUSA 3000 Globalization and Business Practice (3)
   - CIS 3730 Database Management Systems (3)
   - CMIS 4050 Producing Television (3)
   - CMIS 4914 Special Topics in Media/Arts Entrepreneurship (3)
   - CMIS 4600/MTM 3010 Introduction to Music Industry (3)
   - CMIS 4630/MTM 3050 Legal Aspects of the Music Industry (3)
   - CMIS 4660/MTM 3450 Artist Representation (2)
   - CMIS 4915 Special Topics in Advanced Technology Media Production (3)
   - CMIS 4980 Internship (1-6)
   - ENI 4100 From Startup to Growth Company (3)
   - FLME 4800 Film and Media Industries (3)
   - FI 3300 Corporate Finance (3)
   - JOUR 3060 Communication Law and Regulation (3)
   - JOUR 4770 Media Management and Marketing (3)
   - LGLS 3020 Introduction to the Law (3)
   - LGLS 4050 Principles of Business Law (3)
   - LGLS 4060 Internet Law (3)
   - MGS 3100 Business Analysis (3)
   - MGS 3400 Managing People in Orgs (3)
   - MGS 4110 Analysis of Business Data (3)
   - MGS 4430 Negotiation (3) (BIS students have only BUSA 3090 as prereq with consent of instructor.)
   - MGS 4500 Entrepreneurship/New Venture Management (3) (BIS students have only BUSA 3090 as prereq with consent of instructor.)

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies with a Concentration in Middle East Studies
- Minor in Middle East Studies
- Minor in Arabic

Department of World Languages and Cultures
841 Langdale Hall (19th floor, 25 Park Place Bldg. effective summer 2017)
404-413-5980
wlc.gsu.edu

William Nichols, Chair
Program Coordinator: Ian Campbell (icampbell@gsu.edu)

The Department of World Languages and Cultures offers an interdisciplinary major in Middle East Studies (MES), a minor in Middle East Studies and a minor in Arabic. The major is ideal for students who want a well-rounded understanding of the Middle East along with the opportunity to study languages of the region. Students take courses on the Middle East in a variety of disciplines, including history, political science, religious studies, communication and women's studies. Each student selects the specific courses included in his or her program of study in consultation with a program advisor. The MES major prepares students for graduate school or for careers in government, business, the non-profit sector or the military.

MES faculty offer courses in three Middle Eastern languages: Arabic, Hebrew and Turkish. Summer intensive courses are offered in some languages. The department encourages students to take advantage of study abroad opportunities to deepen their knowledge of the culture and languages of the Middle East.

The department and the Middle East Center sponsor a dynamic set of activities outside the classroom, including a lecture series and cultural activities, focused on achieving greater understanding of the rich and varied cultures of the Middle East. Arabic and Turkish coffee hours are a great way for students to engage with other students and faculty and experience Middle East culture. For more information visit: wlc.gsu.edu.

Program Admission

A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required in order to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the Office of Academic Assistance (see below). Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Degree Requirements
Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 3030.30 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Courses used to fulfill the two Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) courses for each B.I.S. program will not count towards the rules of Area G — no more than three to four 3-4 credit hour courses (12 hours) from a single discipline — nor of Area H — no more than two 3-4 credit hour courses (6-8 hours) can be taken within a single discipline.

Program Financial Information

Effective summer 2009, lab fees will be assessed automatically for students who register for certain courses. As a result, students will no longer be required to purchase lab fee cards. For more information, please feel free to contact the department or review the GoSolar or catalog course listings to determine if a course includes a lab fee.

B.I.S. with a Concentration in Middle East Studies

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Language Courses: competency in Arabic, Hebrew, Turkish, or another Middle Eastern language through 2002 level (9-12)

2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - AH 1700 Survey of Art I: Western Art from Antiquity to the Middle Ages (3)
   - AH 1750 Survey of Art II: Western Art from the Renaissance to the Present (3)
   - AH 1850 Survey of Art III: Art of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas (3)
   - AL 2102 Languages of the World (3)
   - ANTH 1102 Introduction to Anthropology (3)
   - ANTH 2010 Introduction to Biological Anthropology (3)
   - GEOG 1101 Introduction to Human Geography (3)
   - HIST 1111 Survey of World History to 1500
   - HIST 2500 Contemporary World History (3)
   - POLS 2401 Global Issues (3)
   - RELS 2001 Introduction to World Religions (3)

Area G: Area of Concentration (27-33)

No more than three to four 3-4 credit hour courses (12 hours) can be taken within a single discipline.

1. Required Course to fulfill CTW requirement (3)
   Select one course:
   - ECON 3900 Macroeconomics (3)
   - HIST 3000 Introduction to Historical Studies-CTW (3)
POLS 3800 Introduction to Political Research-CTW (3)
RELS 3750 Theories and Methods in Religious Studies-CTW (3)

2. Required Course to fulfill CTW requirement (3)
Select one course:
- ARBC 4501 Classical Arabic Lit & Culture (3)
- ARBC 4502 Modern Arabic Literature in Translation (3)

3. Select two courses (6-8)
- MES 3400/RELS 3400 Introduction to Judaism (3)
- MES 3500/RELS 3500 Introduction to Islam (3)
- MES 4110/HIST 3780 The Middle East, 600 to 1800 (4)
- MES 4120/HIST 3790 The Middle East since 1800 (4)
- MES 4210/POLS 4260 Politics of the Middle East and North Africa (3)
- MES 4310/GEOG 4408 Geography of the Middle East and North Africa (4)
- MES 4510/AH 4010 Art of Ancient Egypt and Nubia (3)
- MES 4520/AH 4020 Art and Architecture of the Ancient Near East (3)

4. Fifteen to nineteen hours taken at the 3000 level or above from the Middle East Studies course list below or other appropriate courses selected in consultation with the program coordinator.
- AH 4900 Special Studies Seminar (3) (when appropriate) recent topics have included: Ancient Egyptian Hieroglyphs, Iconography and Symbolism in Ancient Funerary Art, Art of Persia and Mughal India, Islamic Art 1, Islamic Art 2, Ancient Egyptian Portraiture, and Orientalism

○ MES 4530 Islamic Philosophy (3)
○ MES 4590 Special Studies Seminar (1-6)
○ WGSS 4910 Special Topics (3) (when appropriate, i.e. Arab and Islamic Feminisms)

New courses are regularly added to this list, please check with the Department of World Languages and Cultures for the most recent list of courses.

Area H: Allied Field (15-21)

No more than two 3-4 credit hour courses (6-8 hours) can be taken within a single discipline. In consultation with the adviser, students choose courses in from two or more departments.

Area J: Electives

Electives are used to build the hours in Areas G-J to 60 hours, have 39 hours at Georgia State University taken at the 3000-4000 level for residency, and complete 120 hours required for graduation.

Study Abroad

Students are strongly encouraged to participate in a study abroad program to the region. MES faculty members regularly conduct related summer programs. Students may also study abroad in the region on semester and year-long programs.

Minor in Middle East Studies

Select 15 semester hours from the following courses or other appropriate courses selected in consultation with the program coordinator:

- AH 4900 Advanced Studies Seminar (3) (when appropriate) recent topics have included: Ancient Egyptian Hieroglyphs, Iconography and Symbolism in Ancient Funerary Art, Art of Persia and Mughal India, Islamic Art 1, Islamic Art 2, Ancient Egyptian Portraiture, and Orientalism

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This unit offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.
3430 Military Science and Leadership

Program Offered:

- Minor in Advanced Leadership and Management
  - Concentration in Human Behavior
  - Concentration in Military History
  - Concentration in Management
  - Concentration in National Security Studies

Department of Military Science and Leadership
120 Courtland Building
404-413-6487
www.gsu.edu/rotc

The Department of Military Science and Leadership, most often referred to as the Reserve Officer's Training Corps (ROTC), develops leadership and problem solving skills training, through hands-on training and classroom instruction by experienced, active-duty Army officers and non-commissioned officers. Students learn the necessary skills to become successful civilian or military professionals. Students apply leadership, organizational and personnel management skills in a variety of challenging environments. Qualified students may obtain a commission as a Second Lieutenant, with the opportunity to serve as either full time in the active Army, or full or part time in the National Guard or U.S. Army Reserve. Students may also compete for two, three, or four year ROTC scholarships.

The basic courses (MSL 1000 and 2000 series) are normally taken in the freshman and sophomore years. Contracted students in the basic course are paid $300-350 per month while enrolled. Successful completion of the basic course gives students the credentials necessary for enrollment in the advanced course. The advanced course (MSL 3000 and 4000 series) is taken during the final two years of college and includes an advanced summer training between the junior and senior years. Students in the advanced program are paid $450-500 per month while enrolled, and earn a salary for all summer internships.

Army ROTC offers opportunities for scholarships for the full amount of tuition and fees or for room and board up to $10,000. Students may apply for two, three and four year scholarships. Each contracted cadet receives a tax free allowance each month classes are in session. The allowance increases each year: $300 per month during the student’s freshman year, $350 per month during the sophomore year, $450 per month during the junior year, and $500 per month during the senior year. Army ROTC scholarships are awarded on the basis of merit. Family income has no bearing on eligibility for an award. For more details, contact the scholarship advisor at the ROTC department at 404-413-6492.

Nursing

GSU Army ROTC also offers a unique scholarship opportunity for School of Nursing students. These scholarships cover full tuition, books and fees, and provide a monthly allowance. Two, three, and four-year scholarships are available for all qualified nursing majors. Contact the scholarship advisor at the ROTC department at 404-413-6492

Veterans
Students with prior military experience can fulfill credit requirements for the ROTC basic course. If credit is granted, and provided the student is not on a three year Army ROTC scholarship, veterans may bypass the freshman and sophomore years of ROTC and enroll directly in the advance course. In addition to any financial assistance from ROTC veterans are still qualified to receive any and all GI Bill, Army College Fund, or VEAP benefits to which they are entitled.

Simultaneous Membership Program

Students may take advantage of the Simultaneous Membership Program (SMP), which allows participation in ROTC and enlistment in the Army National Guard or Reserve at the same time. SMP students serve as officer trainees in a Guard or Reserve unit and perform duties commensurate with the grade of Second Lieutenant. SMPs are paid at the rate of at least a Sergeant E-5 for Guard or Reserve service.

Program Degree Requirements

Minor in Advanced Leadership and Management

General Minor Requirements

1. A cumulative Georgia State University grade-point average of 2.0.
2. All courses for the minor must be taken at the 3000 level or above.
3. No more than six hours may be taken in any department/school/institute.
4. A grade of C or higher is required in all minor courses.
5. Completion of courses required for major.
6. Minor courses cannot be from a major area.

Advanced Leadership and Management Requirements

1. Acceptance into the program by the Professor of Military Science (PMS) and the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies (BIS) council.
2. A grade-point average of 2.0 or higher in all military science courses.
3. Must be enrolled in the Advanced Military Science program.
4. Successful completion of Leader Development Assessment Course (LDAC).
5. Completion of HIST 3625 War in Europe and America Since 1500 (3)
6. Select one course. (3)
   - ENGL 3110 Technical Writing (3)
   - ENGL 3130 Business Writing (3)
   - ENGL 3210 Advanced Grammar (3)
   - [Spch 3010] Advanced Public Speaking (3)
   - [Spch 3210] Business and Professional Communication (3)
7. Select two courses. Only one course may be chosen from each concentration (6)
   1. Human Behavior Concentration
      - PSYC 3110 Psychology of Interpersonal Behavior (3)
      - PSYC 3560 Leadership and Group Dynamics (3)
      - PSYC 4160 Theories of Personality (3)
   2. Military History Concentration
      - HIST 3220 United States in the Twentieth Century (4)
HIST 3790 The Middle East since 1800 (4)
HIST 4230 Foreign Relations of the United States (4)
HIST 4600 Russia and the Soviet Union since 1861 (4)

3. Management Concentration
- BCOM 3950 Fundamentals of Business Communication (3)
- MGS 3400 Managing People in Organizations (3)
- MGS 4470 Organizational Communication (3)

4. National Security Studies Concentration
- POLS 3400 International Politics (3)
- POLS 3450 United States Foreign Policy (3)
- POLS 4130 American Constitutional Law (3)
- POLS 4210 Politics of Developing Countries (3)
- POLS 4245 Politics of Russia and Eastern Europe (3)
- POLS 4290 Studies in Comparative Politics (3)
- POLS 4460 U.S. National Security Policy (3)

Students must complete one of the following programs of instruction to qualify for a commission in the U.S. Army:

Standard:
- MSL 1000-4000 level courses
- Leader Development and Assessment Course (Ft. Lewis, WA – Summer)

Basic Progression:
- Leader’s Training Course (Ft. Knox, KY – Summer)
- MSL 3000-4000 level courses
- Leader Development and Assessment Course (Ft. Lewis, WA – Summer)

JROTC-ROTC:
- 4 years of Junior ROTC
- MSL 3000-4000 level courses
- Leader Development and Assessment Course (Ft. Lewis, WA – Summer)

Prior Service:
- Basic Training
- MSL 3000-4000 level courses
- Leader Development and Assessment Course (Ft. Lewis, WA – Summer)
3445 Neuroscience

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Science in Neuroscience
  - Pre-Medical Concentration
- Minor in Neuroscience
- Dual B.S./M.S. Program in Neuroscience

Neuroscience Institute
Georgia State University
880 Petit Science Center neuroscience.gsu.edu

Geert de Vries, Director
Aras Petrulis, Director of Undergraduate Studies

Neuroscience asks how the brain and body produce our sensations, our thoughts, our behavior and the behavior of other animals. Neuroscientists address fundamental and health-related questions that affect every aspect of our lives and society. To answer them, neuroscience bridges the biological, chemical, physical, behavioral and computational sciences, as well as philosophy, engineering, and medicine. Neuroscience is among the fastest growing fields of science and medicine. Neuroscience is interdisciplinary, as shown by the Neuroscience Institute’s faculty and the neuroscience course offerings. Faculty are drawn from multiple departments, including Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Communication, Education, Law, Mathematics and Statistics, Neuroscience Institute, Nursing, Philosophy, Physics and Astronomy, and Psychology (see neuroscience.gsu.edu/contact-us-2/ni-faculty/ for a full list). They teach courses in cell and molecular neuroscience, computational neuroscience, neuroethology (animal behavior), drugs and the nervous system, cognitive neuroscience, neuroethics, and medical neuroanatomy, among many others. For questions about the major, students should contact the Undergraduate Coordinator who will help connect them with an appropriate faculty member.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

B.S. in Neuroscience

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Area A:
- Recommended course: MATH 1112 College Trigonometry (3) or MATH 1113 Precalculus (3) or higher level MATH course. MATH 1113 recommended.

Area B:

- Recommended course: PHIL 1010 Critical Thinking (2)

Area D:

- Recommended courses (select one of the sequences below):
  - PHYS 1111K Introductory Physics I (4) and PHYS 1112K Introductory Physics II (4)
  - PHYS 2211K Principles of Physics I (4) and PHYS 2212K Principles of Physics II (4)

- Required course: Any mathematics course not taken in Area A from the following choices: MATH 2201, MATH 2202, or any comparable higher-level math.

Area F: Courses Appropriate for the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (16):
   - BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4)
   - BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4)
   - CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4)
   - CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (4)

2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - ANTH 2010 Introduction to Biological Anthropology (3)
   - BIOL 2240 Human Physiology (3)
   - BIOL 2800 Introduction to Molecular Biology (2)
   - CHEM 2400 Organic Chemistry I (3)
   - NEUR 2000 Brain Basics: Introduction to Neuroscience (3)
   - NEUR 2010 Careers in Neuroscience (2)
   - PHIL 2010 Introduction to Philosophy (3)
   - PSYC 2050 Introduction to Drugs and Behavior (3)
   - PSYC 2080 Sex, Evolution, and Human Behavior (3)

- Students who decide to major in neuroscience after completing BIOL 1103K may take it for credit toward Area F if they complete BIOL 2108K and BIOL 2800] before enrolling in major courses (Area G).
- Students who decide to major in neuroscience after completing BIOL 1103K and BIOL 1104K may use these courses for credit toward Area F if they complete BIOL 2800 before enrolling in major courses (Area G).
- All courses above ending in K are commonly offered as separate lecture and lab (L) courses by GSU’s Perimeter College. The combined (K) courses and separate lecture and lab (L) courses cover the same subject matter and are considered equivalent courses.
- Any credit hours exceeding 18 earned to complete the Areas A-F requirements will count toward elective hours.

Area G: Major Courses (36)
1. Neuroscience Core Requirements (16)
   - NEUR 3000 Principles of Neuroscience I (4)
   - NEUR 3001 Principles of Neuroscience II (4)
   - NEUR 3010 Neuroscience Laboratory (4) (lab)
   - NEUR 3020 The Scientific Method in Neuroscience-CTW (4)

2. Neuroscience Electives (at least 10 hours from the following list of courses):
   - NEUR 4010 Cellular and Molecular Neuroscience (4)
   - NEUR 4020 Cognitive Neuroscience (4)
   - NEUR 4030 Computational Neuroscience (4)
   - NEUR 4040 Neuroethology (4)
   - NEUR 4050 Statistics for Neuroscience (4)
   - NEUR 4060 Neurophysiology (4)
   - NEUR 4070 Sensory Neuroscience (3)
   - NEUR 4080 Clinical Neuroscience (4)
   - NEUR 4100 Developmental Neurobiology (4)
   - NEUR 4115 Medical Neuroanatomy (4)
   - NEUR 4150 Drugs and the Nervous System (4)
   - NEUR 4200 Neuroscience of Memory (3)
   - NEUR 4250 Neuroscience of Motivation and Emotion (3)
   - NEUR 4330 Functional Neuroimaging (3)
   - NEUR 4340 Neurophysics (3)
   - NEUR 4350 Numerical Methods for Neuroscience (3)
   - NEUR 4360 Mathematical Biology (3) (Cross-listed with BIOL 4010 and MATH 4010)
   - NEUR 4370 Applied Dynamical Systems (3)
   - NEUR 4420 Hormones and Behavior (4) (Cross-listed with BIOL 4241 and PSYC 4630)
   - NEUR 4576 Neurovirology (4)
   - NEUR 4610 Neurorobotics (4)
   - NEUR 4700 Neural Plasticity (4)
   - NEUR 4910 Topics in Neuroscience (4)

3. Neuroscience-related Electives (at least 10 hours from courses on the list below, or from the list of Neuroscience Electives above, if the course is not being used to fulfill the Neuroscience Electives requirement). Other neuroscience-related electives not on this list may fulfill this elective requirement with permission of the Director of Undergraduate Studies.
   - ANTH 4300 Human Evolution (3)
   - BIOL 3440 Fundamentals of Evolution (3)
   - BIOL 3800 Molecular Cell Biology (3)
   - BIOL 3810 Molecular Cell Biology Lab (3)
   - BIOL 3840 Animal Biology (3)
   - BIOL 3850 Animal Biology Lab (1)
   - BIOL 3900 Genetics (3)
   - BIOL 3910 Genetics Lab (1)
   - BIOL 4045K General Ecology (4)
   - BIOL 4074 Developmental Biology (4)
   - BIOL 4240 Endocrinology (4)

Pre-Medicine Concentration

A pre-medicine concentration is available for B.S. in Neuroscience majors. Please contact the Undergraduate Coordinator for further information.

Pre-med students are also required to take:

- CHEM 2400 Organic Chemistry I (3)
- CHEM 2410 Organic Chemistry II (3)
- CHEM 2100 Intermediate Organic Chemistry Laboratory I (2)
- CHEM 3110 Intermediate Organic Chemistry Laboratory II (2)
- CHEM 4600 Biochemistry (5)

Minor in Neuroscience

Students who wish to minor in Neuroscience must take NEUR 3000 and at least 12 additional hours in Neuroscience courses (any courses with NEUR prefix). A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. Students majoring in Neuroscience are encouraged, but not required, to take a minor.
2. Students majoring in Neuroscience must take additional courses as electives to complete 120 hours. Students are encouraged to choose electives from the lists above.

Dual B.S./M.S. Program in Neuroscience

The Neuroscience Institute offers a dual Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Neuroscience. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and apply the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the Neuroscience Institute and College of Arts and Sciences to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This program offers undergraduate students the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. To graduate with distinction in the Neuroscience major, the student must have at least a 3.5 GPA in the major and a 3.5 GPA overall, and must be in good academic standing. The Undergraduate Program Committee may make rare exceptions (e.g. for students with a record of outstanding research or other accomplishments in neuroscience).
3450 Philosophy

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy
  - Concentration in Pre-Law
- Minor in Philosophy
- Minor in Ethics

Department of Philosophy
16th floor, 25 Park Place Bldg.

George Rainbolt, Chair
Eddy Nahmias, Director of Undergraduate Studies

Philosophy is the study of what exists, how we know, and how to live. Students of philosophy consider questions about the scientific method, human nature, justice, God, art, and the meaning of life. Philosophy majors develop the intellectual abilities to think critically and to write effectively. They learn to apply these valuable skills in other disciplines, in their career, and in their life. Because philosophy deals with fundamental questions and explores methods for answering them, it is highly interdisciplinary, connecting to every other discipline in the university curriculum. Hence, philosophy is an ideal double major or minor. Philosophy prepares students for careers and graduate programs that value the abilities to solve problems, to communicate clearly, to learn new skills, and to use new knowledge. It is an excellent major for a wide range of careers, including law, government, the sciences, medicine, public service, education, religion, writing, media, and all areas of business.

The Department of Philosophy offers a B.A. in Philosophy and B.A. in Philosophy with a Pre-Law Concentration, as well as minors in Philosophy and in Ethics. The Department maintains an extensive website, philosophy.gsu.edu.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Academic Regulations

A 2000 or 3000-level philosophy course is a prerequisite for all 4000-level philosophy courses. Majors are strongly urged to take PHIL 2010 and PHIL 3000 before taking 4000-level courses.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).
B.A. in Philosophy

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (8-9):
   a. One of the following (2-3):
      ■ PHIL 1010 Critical Thinking (2)
      ■ PHIL 2500 Introduction to Symbolic Logic (3) (Required for Graduation with Distinction and can improve performance on LSAT for Pre-Law students.)
   b. One of the following (3):
      ■ PHIL 2010 Introduction to Philosophy (3)
      ■ PHIL 2030 Introduction to Ethics (3)
   c. World language at the 1002 or higher level (3)

2. Select additional 1000- or 2000-level courses from those with a subject in the core curriculum to complete 18 hours in Area F.
   o Recommended courses for the B.A. in Philosophy with no concentration: Any 1000/2000-level philosophy courses not used to fulfill requirements in Areas B, C, or F. o Recommended courses for the B.A. in Philosophy with a Pre-Law concentration:
      ■ Any 1000/2000-level philosophy courses not used to fulfill requirements in Areas B, C, or F.
      ■ ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
      ■ ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)

Area G: Major Courses (27)

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses.

To satisfy the requirements for the B.A. degree with a major in philosophy, students must take a total of 27 semester hours in philosophy courses at the 3000 level or above, including the following distribution requirements:

1. CTW Requirement (3):
   o PHIL 3000 Introductory Seminar in Philosophy-CTW (3)

2. History of Philosophy Requirements (6):
   o PHIL 3010 Origins of Western Philosophy (3)
   o PHIL 3020 Early Modern Philosophy (3)

3. Value Theory Requirement (3):
   Select at least one of the following courses.
   o PHIL 4700 Ethics (3)
   o PHIL 4720 Environmental Ethics (3)
   o PHIL 4740 Advanced Biomedical Ethics (3)
   o PHIL 4750 Topics in Ethics (3)
   o PHIL 4760 Ethics and Contemporary Public Policy (3)
   o PHIL 4770 Moral Psychology (3)
   o PHIL 4780 Neuroethics (3)
4. Metaphysics and Epistemology Requirement (3):
Select at least one of the following courses.

- PHIL 4100 Epistemology (3)
- PHIL 4130 Philosophy of Science (3)
- PHIL 4150 Topics in Epistemology (3)
- PHIL 4300 Metaphysics (3)
- PHIL 4330 Philosophy of Mind (3)
- PHIL 4340 Philosophy and Cognitive Science (3)
- PHIL 4350 Topics in Metaphysics (3)
- PHIL 4530 Philosophy of Language (3)

5. Select four more philosophy courses at the 3000 or 4000-level. (12)

B.A. in Philosophy with a Pre-Law Concentration

Area A-F requirements are the same for the B.A. in Philosophy and the B.A. in Philosophy with a Pre-Law Concentration

Area G: Major Courses (27-28)

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses. To satisfy the requirements for the B.A. degree with a major in philosophy with a pre-law concentration, students must take a total of 27 semester hours at the 3000 level or above, including the following distribution requirements:

1. CTW Requirement (3):
   - PHIL 3000 Introductory Seminar in Philosophy-CTW (3)

2. History of Philosophy Requirements (6):
   - PHIL 3010 Origins of Western Philosophy (3)
   - PHIL 3020 Early Modern Philosophy (3)

3. Value Theory Requirement (3):
   Select at least one of the following courses.

   - PHIL 4700 Ethics (3)
   - PHIL 4720 Environmental Ethics (3)
   - PHIL 4740 Advanced Biomedical Ethics (3)
   - PHIL 4750 Topics in Ethics (3)
   - PHIL 4760 Ethics and Contemporary Public Policy (3)
   - PHIL 4770 Moral Psychology (3)
   - PHIL 4780 Neuroethics (3)
4. Metaphysics and Epistemology Requirement (3):
Select at least one of the following courses.

- PHIL 4100 Epistemology (3)
- PHIL 4130 Philosophy of Science (3)
- PHIL 4150 Topics in Epistemology (3)
- PHIL 4300 Metaphysics (3)
- PHIL 4330 Philosophy of Mind (3)
- PHIL 4340 Philosophy and Cognitive Science (3)
- PHIL 4350 Topics in Metaphysics (3)
- PHIL 4530 Philosophy of Language (3)

5. PHIL 4820 Philosophy of Law (3)

6. Select two more philosophy courses at the 3000 or 4000 level. (6)

7. Select one of the following courses (3-4):

- AAS 4600 Enslavement and Resistance in North America (3)
- AAS 4780 African-American Lesbian and Gay Activism (3)
- CRJU: Any 3000- or 4000-level Criminal Justice course
- HIST 3900 Human Rights in Historical Perspective (4)
- HIST 4240 American Labor and Working Class (4)
- HIST 4460 Bill of Rights (4)
- HIST 4470 Legal and Constitutional History (4)
- HIST 4532 Crime, Law, and Society in Early Modern Europe (4)
- HIST 4620 Europe: Culture and Ideas (4)
- LGLS: Any 3000- or 4000-level Legal Studies course
- POLS: Any 3000- or 4000-level Political Science course
- RELS 4140 Religion and Law (3)
- RELS 4150 Religion, Nation, and Law (3)
- SOCI 3224 Crime and Punishment (3)
- SOCI 4218 Power and Politics (3)
- SOCI 4366 Law and Society (3)

Other law-related 3000- or 4000-level courses (in any college) approved in advance by the Philosophy Pre-Law Advisor. No courses will be approved after a student has enrolled in the course.

Graduation with Distinction

To graduate with distinction in the Philosophy major, the student must have excelled in his or her philosophy courses and undergraduate career. For a student to earn Graduation with Distinction, the student must have at least a 3.5 GPA in the major and 3.5 GPA overall, must have passed PHIL 2500 (Introduction to Symbolic Logic), and must be in good academic standing. Rare exceptions may be made by faculty vote.
Minor in Philosophy

Students who wish to minor in Philosophy must take at least 15 hours in courses in philosophy, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 or 4000-level. Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in the specific area may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

Minor in Ethics

See section 3250 for information about the Minor in Ethics.

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.
3460 Physics

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Science in Physics
- Standard Program in Physics
  - Concentration in Applied Physics
  - Concentration in Astronomy
  - Concentration in Pre-Medicine
  - Concentration in Biophysics
  - Concentration in Geology
  - Concentration in Computer Science
  - Concentration in Education
- Dual Degree Programs: B.S. Physics with the M.A.T. Science Education
- Minor in Physics

Department of Physics and Astronomy
Room 605, 25 Park Place
Atlanta, GA 30303
phy-astr.gsu.edu

D. Michael Crenshaw, Chair
Brian Thoms, Associate Chair and Undergraduate Director in Physics
Sumith Doluweera, Undergraduate Director in Physics – Lower Division Courses
Ben McGimsey, Undergraduate Director in Astronomy

All degree programs described below are built on a core of 21 semester hours of physics numbered 3300 or above and 4 semester hours of mathematics. The standard program is designed to prepare the student for graduate school or immediate employment upon graduation. Students selecting the standard program must complete 21 semester hours of physics, astronomy and mathematics beyond the core set of physics and mathematics courses listed below. As an alternative to the standard program, courses in one of several specific areas of concentration may be chosen as described below. The available areas of concentration are applied physics, astronomy, pre-medicine, biophysics, geology, computer science, and education.

A central objective of Georgia State University is that all graduates from its programs will be proficient in writing, critical and analytical thinking, and use of information resources. In support of this objective, the Department of Physics and Astronomy explicitly incorporates activities to develop these skills as appropriate in each course.

To schedule an effective program of study, it is very important that all students intending to major in physics consult with the physics faculty adviser as soon as possible. Physics majors are strongly encouraged to complete PHYS 1000 in their first or second semester. PHYS 1000 is also appropriate for students considering physics and astronomy. Physics majors should pay special attention to the early completion of the mathematical requirements if they are to complete their physics requirements during the usual four-year span. The first calculus course should be taken during the freshman year, and the second and third calculus courses should be completed during the sophomore year. The department recommends that General Chemistry I and II be taken during the freshman year. The beginning physics sequence (PHYS 2211K–PHYS 2212K) should be completed before the end of the sophomore year. Students who enter the physics major after completing a non-calculus level elementary physics sequence should consult with their departmental adviser on the best method of preparing for more advanced courses in physics.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

B.S. in Physics

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Area A:

- Required course: MATH 1112, MATH 1113, or higher level MATH must be taken in Area A. A section of MATH 1113 Precalculus that is designated specifically for this major is recommended (see GoSolar listing to identify appropriate sections).

Areas D:

- Required course: MATH 2211 Calculus of One Variable I (4) (or a higher-level mathematics course)

- Recommended courses: CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4) and CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (4)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (Unless used to satisfy Area D requirements) (18):
   - PHYS 1000 Gateway to Physics (2) (Not required of student entering with an AS degree)
   - PHYS 2211K Principles of Physics I (4) and PHYS 2212K Principles of Physics II (4)
   - CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4) and CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (4)
   - MATH 2212 Calculus of One Variable II (4)
   - MATH 2215 Multivariate Calculus (4)

2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - CSC 1301 Principles of Computer Science I (4)
   - CSC 1302 Principles of Computer Science II (4)
   - ASTR 1010K Astronomy of the Solar System (4)
   - ASTR 1020K Stellar and Galactic Astronomy (4)
   - BIOL 1103K Introductory Biology I (4)
   - BIOL 1104K Introductory Biology II (4)
- BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4)
- BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4)
- GEOL 1121K Introductory Geology I (4)
- GEOL 1122K Introductory Geology II (4)
- EDUC 2110 Investigating Critical and Contemporary Issues in Education (3)
- EDUC 2120 Exploring Socio-Cultural Perspectives on Diversity in Educ. Contexts (3)
- EDUC 2130 Exploring Learning and Teaching (3)
- RSCH 1203 Research Strategies and Technology (1)

- Students should choose courses appropriate to their intended concentration. Consult the Undergraduate Director for the BS in Physics for advice.
- All courses above ending in K are commonly offered as separate lecture and lab (L) courses by GSU’s Perimeter College. The combined (K) courses and separate lecture and lab (L) courses cover the same subject matter and are considered equivalent courses.
- Any credit hours exceeding 18 earned to complete the Area F requirements will count toward elective hours.

Area G: Major Courses

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses. The Department of Physics and Astronomy offers several concentrations within the B.S. in Physics degree program. The standard program is recommended for those who plan to pursue graduate study in physics. Other options include concentrations in applied physics, astronomy, pre-medicine, biophysics, geology, computer science, and education. Course requirements listed below for each of the options are in addition to the courses listed under Area F and the required lower division courses listed above. The standard program and all concentrations are centered on the 21-hour core of physics courses and the four-hour core of mathematics courses listed below.

Physics and Mathematics Core (25)

1. Required Courses to Fulfill CTW Requirement (6):
   - PHYS 3300 Advanced Physics Laboratory-CTW (3)
   - PHYS 4900 Research Project-CTW (3)
2. Additional Physics Requirements (15):
   - PHYS 3401 Modern Physics I (4)
   - PHYS 3850 Statistical and Thermal Physics (3)
   - PHYS 4600 Classical Mechanics (4)
   - PHYS 4700 Electricity and Magnetism (4)
3. Mathematics Requirements (4):
   - MATH 2652 Differential Equations (4)

Standard Program in Physics (21)

To meet the requirements for the degree with the standard program, the core set of physics and mathematics courses must be completed along with additional physics and mathematics courses as described below:

1. Required courses (9):
2. Physics and Astronomy Courses (9):
Select nine hours from the following.

- PHYS 3500 Electronics (3)
- PHYS 3550 Mathematical Methods and Computational Physics I (3)
- PHYS 3560 Mathematical Methods and Computational Physics II (3)
- PHYS 3800 Optics (4)
- PHYS 4110 Introduction to Embedded Systems Laboratory (4)
- PHYS 4340 Neurophysics (3)
- PHYS 4410 Nuclear and Particle Physics (3)
- PHYS 4500 Special Topics in Physics (3)
- PHYS 4710 Functional Neuroimaging (3)
- PHYS 4810 Quantum Mechanics (3)
- PHYS 4910 Solid State Physics (3)
- PHYS 4720 Introduction to Magnetism and Magnetic Materials (3)
- PHYS 4950 Advanced Research (1-3)
- ASTR 3500 Quantitative Astronomy (4)
- ASTR 3510 Astrophysics of Stars and Planets (3)
- ASTR 3520 Galactic and Extragalactic Astrophysics (3)
- ASTR 4100 Astronomical Techniques and Instrumentation (3)

3. Mathematics and Computer Science Courses (3):
Select one course.

- CSC 4610 Numerical Analysis I (3)
- MATH 2641 Linear Algebra I (3)
- MATH 4250 Complex Analysis (3)

Applied Physics Concentration (21)

In addition to the core courses in physics and mathematics, the applied physics concentration allows courses from other sciences and engineering to complete the program in physics-related areas. Engineering courses may be available through cross registration at the Georgia Institute of Technology. At least 18 semester hours must be completed at the 3000 level or above, and at least nine semester hours must be selected from science and/or engineering courses offered by other departments. The overall program must be developed in consultation with a faculty advisor within the Department of Physics and Astronomy.

Astronomy Concentration (21)

In addition to the core set of physics and mathematics courses, the astronomy concentration consists of 12 semester hours in astronomy courses (ASTR 3510, ASTR 3520, ASTR 4000, and ASTR 4100), and others from the list below, to complete the requirements for the degree.

1. Required courses (12):
- ASTR 3510 Astrophysics of Stars and Planets (3)
- ASTR 3520 Galactic and Extragalactic Astrophysics (3)
- ASTR 4100 Astronomical Techniques and Instrumentation (3)
- ASTR 4200 Applications in Modern Astronomy (3)

2. Physics, Mathematics, and Computer Science Courses (9):
   Select eleven hours from the following or other courses approved by the undergraduate director.
   - PHYS 3402 Modern Physics II (3)
   - PHYS 3500 Electronics (3)
   - PHYS 3550 Mathematical Methods and Computational Physics I (4)
   - PHYS 3560 Mathematical Methods and Computational Physics II (4)
   - PHYS 3800 Optics (4)
   - PHYS 4110 Introduction to Embedded Systems Laboratory (4)
   - PHYS 4340 Neurophysics (3)
   - PHYS 4410 Nuclear and Particle Physics (3)
   - PHYS 4500 Special Topics in Physics (3)
   - PHYS 4710 Functional Neuroimaging (3)
   - PHYS 4720 Introduction to Magnetism and Magnetic Materials (3)
   - PHYS 4810 Quantum Mechanics (3)
   - PHYS 4910 Solid State Physics (3)
   - PHYS 4950 Advanced Research (1-3)
   - CSC 4610 Numerical Analysis I (3)
   - MATH 2641 Linear Algebra I (3)
   - MATH 4250 Complex Analysis (3)
   - MATH 4258 Vector Calculus (3)
   - MATH 4265 Partial Differential Equations (3)

Pre-Medicine Concentration (21)

In addition to the core set of physics and mathematics courses, the pre-medicine concentration allows courses from biology and chemistry to complete the requirements for the degree. The concentration also provides the set of physics, chemistry, and biology courses required for admission to most medical schools. Note that BIOL 2107K and BIOL 2108K are prerequisites for BIOL 3800 and other upper-division biology courses.

1. Required Chemistry courses (8):
   - CHEM 2400 Organic Chemistry I (3)
   - CHEM 2410 Organic Chemistry II (3)
   - Select one of the following options (2):
     - CHEM 2400L Organic Chemistry Laboratory I (1) and CHEM 2410L Organic Chemistry Laboratory II (1)
     - CHEM 2100 Intermediate Organic Chemistry Laboratory (2)

2. Required Biology course (3):
   Select one of the following.
   - BIOL 3240 Human Physiology (3)
   - BIOL 3800 Molecular Cell Biology (3)
3. Electives (10):
Select ten hours from the following or other courses approved by the undergraduate director.

- BIOL 3240 Human Physiology (3) (unless used above)
- BIOL 3250 Human Physiology Laboratory (1)
- BIOL 3800 Molecular Cell Biology (3) (unless used above)
- BIOL 3810 Molecular Cell Biology Laboratory-CTW (3)
- BIOL 3880 Microbiology (3)
- BIOL 3890 Microbiology Laboratory (1)
- BIOL 3900 Genetics (3)
- BIOL 3910 Genetics Laboratory (1)
- CHEM 3400 Intermediate Organic Chemistry (3)
- CHEM 3110 Intermediate Organic Chemistry Laboratory II (2)
- CHEM 4600 Biochemistry I (5)
- NEUR 3000 Principles of Neuroscience (4)
- NEUR 3010 Neuroscience Laboratory (4)
- NEUR 4030 Computational Neuroscience (4)
- PHYS 4340 Neurophysics (3)
- PHYS 4710 Functional Neuroimaging (3)
- MATH 4258 Vector Calculus (3)
- MATH 4265 Partial Differential Equations (3)

Biophysics Concentration (21)

In addition to the core set of physics and mathematics courses, the biophysics concentration allows biology and chemistry courses to complete the requirements for the degree. The courses should be chosen from the list below and provide background in several areas including biochemical, biomolecular, and neural sciences. This concentration provides excellent preparation for advanced study in biological physics and for admission to M.D./Ph.D. programs. Note that Biol 2107K and 2108K are prerequisites for Biol 3800 and other upper-division biology courses.

1. Required courses (6):
   - BIOL 3800 Molecular Cell Biology (3)
   - CHEM 2400 Organic Chemistry I (3)

2. Electives (15):
Select 15 hours from the following or other courses approved by the undergraduate director. Note that CHEM 2410, Organic Chemistry II, is a prerequisite for many other courses listed.

- CHEM 2400L Organic Chemistry Laboratory I (1)
- CHEM 2410L Organic Chemistry Laboratory II (1)
- CHEM 2100 Intermediate Organic Chemistry Laboratory (2)
- CHEM 2410 Organic Chemistry II (3)
- CHEM 3400 Intermediate Organic Chemistry (3)
- CHEM 3110 Intermediate Organic Chemistry Laboratory II (2)
- CHEM 4000 Fundamentals of Chemical Analysis-CTW (3)
- CHEM 4110 Physical Chemistry I (3)
- CHEM 4120 Physical Chemistry II (3)
CHEM 4600 Biochemistry I (5)
BIOL 3810 Molecular Cell Biology Laboratory-CTW (3)
BIOL 3840 Animal Biology (3)
BIOL 3850 Animal Biology Laboratory (1)
BIOL 3880 Microbiology (3)
BIOL 3890 Microbiology Laboratory (1)
BIOL 3900 Genetics (3)
BIOL 3910 Genetics Laboratory (1)
BIOL 4102 Neurobiology (4)
NEUR 3000 Principles of Neuroscience (4)
NEUR 3010 Neuroscience Laboratory (4)
NEUR 4030 Computational Neuroscience (4)
PHYS 3402 Modern Physics II (3)
PHYS 3500 Electronics (3)
PHYS 4340 Neurophysics (3)
PHYS 4710 Functional Neuroimaging (3)
MATH 4258 Vector Calculus (3)
MATH 4265 Partial Differential Equations (3)

Geology Concentration (21)

In addition to the core set of physics and mathematics courses, this concentration allows geology courses to complete the requirements for the degree. The courses should be chosen from the list below. Note that GEOL 1121K and GEOL 1122K are prerequisites for upper-division geology courses.

1. Geology Courses (15):
   Select at least 15 hours from the following or other courses approved by the undergraduate director.
   - GEOL 3002 Introduction to Earth Minerals (4)
   - GEOL 4003 Aqueous Geochemistry (4)
   - GEOL 4005 Geology of Georgia (3)
   - GEOL 4007 Hydrogeology (4)
   - GEOL 4013 Structural Geology (4)
   - GEOL 4015 Crystallography and Optical Mineralogy (4)
   - GEOL 4016 Igneous and Metamorphic Petrology (4)
   - GEOL 4017 Environmental Geology (4)
   - GEOL 4030 X-Ray Methods and Techniques (4)

2. Electives (6):
   Select at least six hours from the following or other courses approved by the undergraduate director.
   - PHYS 3402 Modern Physics II (3)
   - PHYS 3500 Electronics (3)
   - PHYS 3800 Optics (4)
   - PHYS 4110 Introduction to Embedded Systems Laboratory (4)
   - PHYS 4340 Neurophysics (3)
   - PHYS 4410 Nuclear and Particle Physics (3)
   - PHYS 4710 Functional Neuroimaging (3)
Computer Science Concentration (21)

In addition to the core set of physics and mathematics courses, this option allows courses in computer science and related areas to complete the requirements for the degree. The courses should be chosen from the list below. Note that one or more of CSC 1301, CSC 1302, CSC 2510, and CSC 2720 are prerequisites for many upper-division computer science courses.

1. Required Physics course (3):
   - PHYS 3500 Electronics (3)

2. Computer Science Courses (12):
   Select 12 hours of courses from the following or other courses approved by the undergraduate director.

   - CSC 3210 Computer Organization and Programming (3)
   - CSC 3320 System Level Programming (3)
   - CSC 3330 C++ Programming (3)
   - CSC 4120 Introduction to Robotics (4)
   - CSC 4210 Computer Architecture (4)
   - CSC 4220 Computer Networks (3)
   - CSC 4310 Parallel and Distributed Computing (4)
   - CSC 4330 Programming Language Concepts (3)
   - CSC 4520 Design and Analysis of Algorithms (4)
   - CSC 4610 Numerical Analysis I (3)
   - CSC 4620 Numerical Analysis II (3)
   - CSC 4630 Introduction to Matlab Programming (4)
   - CSC 4730 Data Visualization (4)
   - CSC 4820 Interactive Computer Graphics (4)

3. Electives (6):
   Select six hours from the following or other courses approved by the undergraduate director.

   - PHYS 3402 Modern Physics II (3)
   - PHYS 3800 Optics (4)
   - PHYS 4110 Introduction to Embedded Systems Laboratory (4)
   - PHYS 4410 Nuclear and Particle Physics (3)
   - PHYS 4340 Neurophysics (3)
   - PHYS 4410 Nuclear and Particle Physics (3)
   - PHYS 4710 Functional Neuroimaging (3)
Education Concentration (21)

In addition to the core set of physics and mathematics courses, this option leads to certification to teach physics in grades 6-12. Prior to beginning this concentration, students must be accepted into Teacher Education in the College of Education and Human Development. To apply, students must have:

- completed Areas A-F of the program of study,
- earned a 2.5 overall cumulative GPA,
- passed [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] or been exempted from the GACE Program Admission Assessment. When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment; and
- Completed the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment; though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Note that EDUC 2110, EDUC 2120, and EDUC 2130 are prerequisites for the field placement courses (EDCI 4600, EDCI 4650, and EDCI 4750).

1. Required courses (21):
   - EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities (3)
   - EDSC 4655 Principles of Science Instruction (3)
   - EDSC 4755 Theory and Pedagogy of Science Instruction (3)
   - EDCI 3250 Introduction to Teaching in Secondary Schools (3)
   - EDCI 4600 Practicum (3)
   - EDCI 4650 Opening School Experience (0)
   - EDCI 4750 Student Teaching in the Secondary Schools (6)

2. Additional requirements for teacher certification:
   - Students must maintain a 3.00 GPA for courses in the education concentration.
   - Only hours of EDCI 4600 and EDCI 4750 completed with a grade of B or better will count toward certification.
   - Students must pass appropriate GACE II examination to be recommended for certification.
   - Each student will be required to maintain an electronic program portfolio and to demonstrate proficiency in the pedagogy standards from the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC) and the content standards from the National Science Education Standards (NSES). Requirements for the INTASC standards and the National Educational Technology Standards (NETS) will be embedded in the coursework listed...
Pre-Service Certificate: Upon admission to a teacher education program, students will be contacted by the college advisement/admissions office and provided with instructions to claim enrollment in their program and submit a GaPSC Pre-Service Certificate Application. The pre-service certificate is required for placement in required field experiences or clinical practice.

Georgia Assessments for the Certification of Educators (GACE): The state of Georgia requires such candidates to take various GACE and Educator Ethics assessments as part of the educator certification process. These computer-delivered assessments have been developed by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC) and are delivered by the Education Testing Service (ETS). You will take these tests at different times.

Program Admission and Content Assessments: Program Admission Assessment [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] is an admission requirement (unless candidate meets qualifications for exemption – scroll down to “Options to Satisfy the Program Admission Assessment Requirement”). When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Content Assessment (different content assessments for each program) tests your content knowledge and is taken after enrollment and prior to program completion. You will receive specific information regarding this test as you near completion of your program (required for certification).

Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment: Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment is an admission requirement. Completion of this assessment is required for admission, though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

edTPA: edTPA is a preservice assessment process designed by educators to answer the essential question: “Is a new teacher ready for the job?” edTPA includes a review of a teacher candidate’s authentic teaching materials as the culmination of a teaching and learning process that documents and demonstrates each candidate’s ability to effectively teach his/her subject matter to all students. edTPA is a program completion and teacher certification requirement. Students may graduate from the BIS program while continuing to complete teacher certification requirements for edTPA.

Area H: Minor and/or Additional Courses

1. Students earning a B.S. through the Department of Physics and Astronomy are not required to take a minor.
2. Additional courses must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010. Although not a requirement, the department recommends that physics majors take these elective courses at the 2000 level or above in mathematics, computer science, chemistry, biology, geology, physics, or astronomy. (Consult with the departmental academic adviser.)
This dual degree program, allowing completion of both degrees and teacher certification requirements in approximately 5 years, is available to undergraduates majoring in physics who have completed at least 30 hours of academic credit (including MATH 2211 and PHYS 2211K) and who have earned a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.3. Students may apply to the option at any time after completing 30 hours but prior to completing 90 hours of undergraduate coursework. Applicants are applying for early acceptance into the College of Education and Human Development’s MAT program and therefore must submit the following documentation in addition to meeting the GPA requirement:

- Complete the BS/MAT pre-application form. This will be kept on file in the Department of Physics & Astronomy and in the Office of Academic Assistance in the College of Arts & Sciences.
- 2-3 letters of recommendation: (a) one academic or professional letter; (b) one letter from someone who can evaluate the applicant’s personal qualifications, experience, and background in light of potential to work successfully with adolescents; (c) one letter from a current work supervisor, if applicable
- Documentation of previous work experience (résumé or curriculum vitae)
- Personal statement of goals and/or reasons for teaching
- Successful interview with appropriate program faculty in the Department of Physics and Astronomy and in the College of Education and Human Development

Final acceptance into the M.A.T. portion of the program will be contingent upon the following:

- Maintaining a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher;
- Completion of 90 hours towards the B.S. degree in Physics (including Phys 7460 and Phys 7850);
- Submission of acceptable GRE scores;
- Filing an application to the M.A.T. program by the appropriate deadline.

Acceptance into the Teacher Education track is contingent upon acceptance into the M.A.T. portion, completion of 24 hours in physics, and passing or exempting the GACE Basic Skills test.

Students in this program will select one of the B.S. concentrations listed above. The curriculum allows students to satisfy the content requirement of the M.A.T. program by enrolling in the 7000-level counterparts of the core physics courses (PHYS 7850 for PHYS 3850, Phys 7460] for PHYS 3401, Phys 7600] for PHYS 4600, and Phys 7700] for PHYS 4700). In addition, to meet the M.A.T. and teacher certification requirements, students will enroll in EXC 4020 and 6 hours of graduate-level courses required for the M.A.T. in satisfying 9 hours of elective credits towards the B.S. in Physics.

Normally, students in their 4th year are enrolled in both the B.S. and the M.A.T. programs and will receive the B.S after the 4th year. In the 5th year, students will take professional education courses (24 hours) and will focus on the student teaching requirements.

For more information on this program’s curriculum, please contact the Department of Physics and Astronomy. The M.A.T. requirements for Science Education are described more fully in the College of Education and Human Development section of the Graduate Catalog.
Students who wish to minor in physics must take at least 15 semester hours in physics and/or astronomy courses, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 semester hours in these courses may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

Graduation with distinction

To qualify for Graduation with Distinction in Physics, students need a minimum grade-point average of 3.4 for all their GSU courses, plus a minimum grade-point average of 3.4 for all courses taken for their major, plus a grade of either A or A+ in the course PHYS 4900 Research Project-CTW.
3470 Political Science

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in Political Science
  - Concentration in General Political Science
  - Concentration in International Affairs
  - Concentration in Pre-Law
  - European Union Studies Certificate
- Minor in Political Science
- Dual B.A. / M.A. Program

Department of Political Science
1005 Langdale Hall
404-413-6159
politicalscience.gsu.edu

Carrie Manning, Chair
Rashid Naim, Undergraduate Director

Political science is the study of “who gets what, when, and how” in the distribution of goods and values in society and in groups. Specifically, political scientists study the determinants of such distributions, including political parties and voters, public opinion, interest groups, bureaucracies and administrative behavior, public law, international relations, international law and organizations, national security, intergovernmental relations, political behavior, political philosophy, comparative politics, public policy, and conflict.

Students may specialize in any of the five fields of the discipline: American politics and government, comparative politics, international politics, political theory, and public policy and administration. The department also provides specific concentrations for majors and minors in pre-law and in international affairs. The department sponsors intercollegiate academic teams for Mock Trial, Model United Nations, and Model Arab League. The department sponsors student honor societies and clubs in pre-law, international relations, and political science. In addition, the department provides advisement for pre-law students.

The proximity of Georgia State University to the center of government for the Southeast and the State of Georgia and its location in an international city of business, communication, and transportation provide unique opportunities for students to observe and participate in government and politics. For example, many qualified students serve as interns as part of their academic program.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Academic Regulations
Internship and Practicum Credit: Applicants for internships must meet departmental prerequisites. Internship and practicum credit may not be applied toward the major or minor, but may be used as elective credit. Such credit includes: POLS 4930, POLS 4940, POLS 4950, POLS 4951, POLS 4952, and POLS 4955.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

B.A. in Political Science

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required courses (6)
   - POLS 2401 Global Issues (3) (if not taken in Area E)
   - World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)
     (See “World Language Requirement for B.A. and B.I.S. Majors,” previously described.)

Select additional courses as follows to complete 18 hours in Area F:

   a. Choose at least two of the following:
      - ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
      - ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
      - SOCI 1101 Introduction to Sociology (3)
   b. Choose at least two of the following:
      - AAS 2010 Introduction to African-American Studies (3)
      - ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
      - ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
      - GEOG 1101 Introduction to Human Geography (3)
      - HIST 1111 A Survey of World History to 1500 (3)
      - HIST 1112 A Survey of World History since 1500 (3)
      - HIST 2110 Survey of United States History (3)
      - MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)
      - MATH 1112 College Trigonometry (3) or MATH 1113 Precalculus (3)
      - PHIL 2010 Introduction to Philosophy (3)
      - POLS 210 Introduction to Political Science (3)
      - SOCI 1101 Introduction to Sociology (3)
      - SOCI 1160 Introduction to Social Problems (3)
      - WGSS 2010 Introduction to Women’s, Gender and Sexuality Studies (3)
      - World language 2001 (3)
      - World language 2002 (3)

Area G: Major Courses (30)

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses.
General Political Science Concentration (30)

1. Required Courses (12)
   - POLS 3800 Introduction to Political Research-CTW (3)
   - POLS 4900 Senior Seminar in Political Science (3)
   - Either POLS 3200 Comparative Politics or POLS 3400 International Relations
   - Either POLS 3530 Classical and Early Modern Political Thought or POLS 3540 Modern Political Thought

2. Take 18 hours in political science at the 3000 level or above. At least one course must be taken in American government and politics (3100s and 4100s). (18)

International Affairs Concentration (30)

1. Required Courses (6)
   - POLS 3800 Introduction to Political Research-CTW (3)
   - POLS 4900 Senior Seminar in Political Science (3)

2. International Affairs Requirements (6)
   - POLS 3200 Comparative Politics (3)
   - POLS 3400 International Politics (3)

3. Select 18 hours at the 3000 level or above in comparative politics and international politics. (18)
4. Select 3 hours at the 3000 level or above in American politics, public policy and administration, or political theory. (3)

Pre-Law Concentration (30)

1. Required Courses (6)
   - POLS 3800 Introduction to Political Research-CTW (3)
   - POLS 4900 Senior Seminar in Political Science (3)

2. Pre-Law Requirements (9)
   - POLS 3140 Judicial Process and Courts (3)
   - POLS 4130 American Constitutional Law (3)
   - POLS 4131 Civil Liberties and Rights (3)

3. Select 2 courses. (6)
   - POLS 3110 State Government (3)
   - POLS 3145 Introduction to American Law (3)
   - POLS 3170 American Legislative Process (3)
   - POLS 3171 Congressional Simulation (3)
   - POLS 3530 Classical and Early Modern Political Thought (3)
   - POLS 3540 Modern Political Thought (3)
   - POLS 3700 Public Administration and Bureaucratic Politics (3)
   - POLS 3750 Public Policy Analysis (3)
   - POLS 4155 Voting and Elections (3)
   - POLS 4160 Political Attitudes and Public Opinion (3)
   - POLS 4165 African-American Politics (3)
   - POLS 4180 American Chief Executives (3)
   - POLS 4205 Comparative Democratization (3)
   - POLS 4220 Comparative Legal Systems and Politics (3)
POLS 4223 Comparative Electoral Systems (3)
POLS 4420 International Law (3)
POLS 4421 International Organizations (3)
POLS 4425 Politics of International Criminal Justice (3)
POLS 4427 Politics of International Human Rights (3)
POLS 4520 Theories of Democracy (3)
POLS 4555 Contemporary Political Philosophy (3)
POLS 4570 American Political Thought (3)

4. Select nine additional hours in political science. (9)
5. Of the courses taken, students must have one course in three of the five areas of the discipline.
6. POLS 4940 is recommended as an elective.

Area H: Minor and/or Additional Courses

1. Students majoring in political science who take either the general political science concentration or the international affairs concentration are not required to take a minor. Students in the pre-law concentration should see the department’s pre-law adviser for further information.
2. Additional courses not in the major or in a minor must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010.

Allied Field Concentration in Political Science for Pre-Education Majors in Other Social Science Departments (9)

Students majoring in other social sciences and who are pursuing a concentration in Pre-Education should choose from the following courses in using political science as an allied field to their major.

1. Select one course
   - POLS 4130 American Constitutional Law (3)
   - POLS 4131 Civil Liberties and Rights (3)
2. Select one course
   - POLS 3110 State Government (3)
   - POLS 3170 American Legislative Process (3)
   - POLS 4180 American Chief Executives (3)
3. Select one course
   - POLS 3200 Comparative Politics (3)
   - POLS 3400 International Politics (3)

European Union Studies Certificate

The department provides courses and advising in regard to the European Union Studies Certificate offered by the University System of Georgia. This program enables students to develop expertise in the European Unions and in EU studies. Dr. Jeannie Grussendorf of the department serves as campus representative. See Section 3260 for a detailed description.

Courses that count towards the European Union Studies Certificate will have the EURO prefix. Students taking EURO courses can have these applied to their political science major. EURO courses can fulfill political science credit counting towards the International Affairs concentration. For more information, visit www.eustudiesprogram.org.

Minor in Political Science

Students wishing to minor in political science should take 15 semester hours of political science courses at the 3000 level or above.

Students seeking to take a minor in political science/pre-law should take POLS 3140, POLS 4130, POLS 4131, and two courses from POLS 3110, POLS 3145, POLS 3170, POLS 3700, POLS 3750, POLS 3770, POLS 4115, POLS 4157, POLS 4180, POLS 4220, POLS 4420, POLS 4425, POLS 4427, and POLS 4570.

Students seeking to take a minor in political science/international affairs should take POLS 2401 (if not taken in Area E), POLS 3200, POLS 3400, and nine additional hours at the 3000 level or above in comparative or international politics.

Cooperative Education and Internship Programs

The department participates in the University's Cooperative Education program, in which students work for six months in paid, full-time professional positions as part of their four-year degree program. Details are available on the department's website, from the department chair or director of undergraduate studies.

The department also encourages students to seek out relevant internships to enhance their preparation for careers related to Political Science. Our students regularly intern with the state legislature through the Georgia Legislative Internship Program; the World Affairs Council; with local, state, and federal government agencies; the courts, local non-profits; lobbying organizations; and international organizations. We offer both major credit and elective credit, subject to department approval.

Exchange Programs and Study Abroad Programs

The department offers a Maymester study abroad program in Turkey; a Fall semester study abroad program in India; and spring break study abroad programs in Cuba, Brazil, and Ireland. Contact the department chair or undergraduate director for more information.

The department offers an exchange/study abroad program with the University of Strasbourg in France. Courses are available in English. Students spend one semester in residence and earn 12-15 credit hours.

The department also offers undergraduate exchange programs with the following universities:

- Ewha Women’s University and Hanyang University in Seoul, Korea
- Sciences Po’ in Lilles, France
- Marmara University and Sehir University in Turkey

Students spend up to one academic year in residence in one of the universities with credit given for classes on a cross-registration basis.

Dual B.A. / M.A. Program in Political Science
The department offers a dual Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts in Political Science. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and apply the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the department and College of Arts and Sciences to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This department offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the department undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.
3455 Philosophy, Politics, and Economics

Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies with a Concentration in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics (PPE)

Program Coordinator: Andrew J. Cohen (cohenaj@gsu.edu)

Historically, Philosophy, Political Science, and Economics (PPE) were deeply connected. The father of modern economics, Adam Smith, was a philosopher concerned with moral and political philosophy. PPE, as a contemporary academic field of study, began at Oxford University in 1920 and has spread across the English-speaking world. The program at GSU helps students become familiar with and capable of contributing to ongoing debates about the nature of good political and economic institutions, as well as the policies and practices that are best suited for creating and sustaining them. More broadly, students develop the intellectual skills of both the social scientist, who seeks to understand how the social world operates, and the moral philosopher, who seeks to critically evaluate the social world in relation to how it ought to be. The program prepares students for careers and graduate programs that require independent thought with significant analytic and critical reasoning as well as writing. They are well-positioned for careers in law, government, public service, or entrepreneurial endeavors as well as Ph.D. programs in political science, philosophy, and economics. Moreover, they are ideally situated to contribute intelligently to the public dialogue of a vibrant democracy.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college's Office of Academic Advisement (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Admission

A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the college Office of Academic Assistance (see above). Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation. Students may apply for the major after one semester at Georgia State University.

Program Degree Requirements

Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 3030.30 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Areas A-E. Core Curriculum
Per Georgia State University’s requirements, all undergraduate students must satisfy a common core curriculum. The requirements can be found in the current university Undergraduate Catalog. http://catalog.gsu.edu/undergraduate20152016/

Areas A-E. Core Curriculum Recommendations (42)

1. Area A: MATH 1101 or MATH 1111 (3)
2. Area B: PHIL 1010 Critical Thinking (2)
3. Area C: PHIL 2010 Introduction to Philosophy (3)
4. Area E: ECON 2100 Global Economics (3), POLS 2401 Global Issues (3); ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3); ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (6-12)
   - World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)
   - PHIL 2500 Introduction to Symbolic Logic (3) or PHIL 2030 Introduction to Ethics (3)
   - ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3) and ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3) (if not taken in Area E)
2. Recommended Courses
   - ECON 2100 Global Economics (3) (if not used in Area E)
   - PHIL 2010 Introduction to Philosophy (3) (if not used in Area C)
   - POLS 2401 Global Issues (3) (if not used in Area E)
3. Courses to complete area F (minimum 6 hrs to get to 18 hrs): can be any 1000-2000 level courses in subjects (prefixes) that satisfy the core areas A-E.
   - World language at the 1001 level if needed

Area G: Area of Concentration — PPE (27-30)

*NOTE: Excluding the CTW course, no more than 12 hours (3-4 courses) of the requirements in an area of concentration can be taken within any single discipline. For example, you may not take any more than 12 hours using the PHIL prefix (i.e., any single discipline). Some courses are cross-listed with one or more additional disciplines. Therefore, in a situation where you have already selected or taken 12 hours of PHIL classes, if you wanted to take an additional course that is cross listed with PHIL and POLS, you would have to register for the POLS course in order not to violate this requirement.

- Select one Introduction to PPE course (3)
  - ECON 3810, PHIL 3810, or POLS 3810 (3)
- Select one course to fulfill CTW requirement (3)
  - ECON 3900 Macroeconomics-CTW (3)
  - POLS 3800 Introduction to Research Methods-CTW (3)
- Select one Econ course (3)
  - ECON 3900 Macroeconomics if not used for CTW requirement (3)
  - ECON 3910 Microeconomics (3)
- Select one Phil course (3)
  - PHIL 4800 Social and Political Philosophy (3)
  - PHIL 4820 Philosophy of Law (3)
Select one Pols course (3)
- POLS 4270 Comparative Political Economy (3)
- POLS 4430 International Political Economy (3)
- POLS 4435 Studies in International Political Economy (3)

Select four to five additional courses (12-15)
- ECON 4080 History of Economic Thought (3)
- ECON 4350 Economics of Poverty and Public Policy (3)
- ECON 4100 Economics, Philosophy, and Public Policy (3)
- ECON 4400 Public Sector Economics (3)
- ECON 4750 Introduction to Game Theory (3)
- PHIL 3710 Marriage and Family (3)
- PHIL 3720 Contemporary Moral Problems or 3730 Business Ethics (3)
- PHIL 4720 Environmental Ethics (3)
- PHIL 4760 Ethics and Contemporary Public Policy (3)
- PHIL 4860 Feminist Philosophy (3)
- POLS 4130 American Constitutional Law (3)
- POLS 4131 Civil Liberties and Rights (3)
- POLS 4210 Politics of Developing Nations (3)
- POLS 4270 Comparative Political Economy (3)
- POLS 4550 Liberalism and its Critics (3)
- POLS 4555 Contemporary Political Philosophy (3)
- Any course from the other Area G requirements above not used to satisfy that requirement (3)

Area H: Allied Fields (15-18)

Select courses as indicated from one of the two allied field areas below (i.e., Law, Morality, and Society or International PPE). No more than two 3-4 credit hour courses (6-8 hours) of the requirements in an allied field can be taken within any single discipline. For example, you may not take any more than 6 hours using the PHIL prefix (i.e., any single discipline). Some courses are cross-listed with one or more additional disciplines. Therefore, in a situation where you have already selected or taken 6 hours of PHIL classes, if you wanted to take an additional course that is cross listed with PHIL and POLS, you would have to register for the POLS course in order not to violate this requirement.

- Law, Morality, and Society (15-18)
  Select five to six courses, with no more than two 3-4 credit hour courses (6-8 hours) within a single discipline.
  - ECON 4220 Environmental Economics and Policy (3)
  - ECON 4300 Economics of Cities (3)
  - ECON 4350 Economics of Poverty and Public Policy (3)
  - ECON 4400 Public Sector Economics (3)
  - ECON 4470 Industrial Organization, Regulation, and Antitrust Economics (3)

Area J: Electives

Students take elective courses beyond those specified in Areas A-H to reach the 120 hours needed to earn a bachelor’s degree (including 39 hours at the 3000-4000 level taken at Georgia State University).

Graduation with Distinction in the Major
This unit offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. To graduate with distinction in the PPE program, the student must have excelled in his or her PPE courses and undergraduate career. For a student to earn Graduation with Distinction, the student must have at least a 3.5 GPA in the major and 3.5 GPA overall and must be in good academic standing. Rare exceptions may be made by faculty vote.
3480 Pre-Law Programs

Four different pre-law preparatory programs are offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies in Law and Society (Section 3400)
- Bachelors of Arts in History with a Pre-Law Concentration (Section 3320)
- Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy with a Pre-Law Concentration (Section 3450)
- Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with a Pre-Law Concentration (Section 3470)
- Minor in Political Science/Pre-Law (Section 3470)

Students interested in a career in law are encouraged to consult these sections of this catalog.
3490 Pre-Medical Programs

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Science in Biology with a Pre-Professional/Physiology Concentration (Section 3170)
- Bachelor of Science in Chemistry with a Pre-Medicine Concentration (Section 3180)
- Bachelor of Science in Neuroscience with a Pre-Medical Concentration (Section 3445)
- Bachelor of Science in Physics with a Pre-Medicine Concentration (Section 3460)
- Bachelor of Science in Psychology with a Pre-Medicine Concentration (Section 3500)

Students interested in a career in medicine are encouraged to consult these sections of this catalog.

Faculty from these departments compose the Premedical Professions Advisory Committee and advise pre-med students. This committee maintains contact with medical schools concerning specific requirements and selection criteria and helps students design specific programs of study for dentistry, medicine, optometry, osteopathic medicine, pharmacy, podiatry, or veterinary medicine. While most premedical students major in biology, chemistry or physics, requirements for admission to medical or dental schools may be met by other majors, provided the requisite science courses are completed.

A student interested in one of these preparatory medical programs should contact the Office of Academic Assistance, 404-413-5000 (see Section 3040). This office serves as a liaison to the Premedical Professions Advisory Committee and maintains pertinent information such as entrance exam applications and other appropriate materials.
3500 Psychology

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in Psychology
  - General Program in Psychology
  - Concentration in Community Psychology
- Bachelor of Science in Psychology
  - General Program in Psychology
  - Concentration in Community Psychology
  - Concentration in Pre-Medicine
- Minor in Psychology

Chris. Henrich, Chair
Erin Tone, Associate Chair
Chris Goode, Director of Undergraduate Studies

Psychology is the science of mind and behavior. It investigates how and why organisms engage in the behaviors and thought-processes they do. The topics of investigation range from the life sciences to the social sciences, and applications occur in clinical, research, industrial, community, and other social contexts.

A career in psychology usually requires a graduate degree. An undergraduate major in psychology can serve as a prerequisite for graduate study in psychology or as background for other careers, e.g., business, law, medical or allied health sciences, and teaching. A major in psychology also can serve the general interest of liberal arts education. The department maintains reference materials, including audio/visual material and an Internet website to assist in career advisement.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See Section 3040 for additional information.

Students wishing to be psychology majors must first be advised by the Office of Academic Assistance.

B.A. in Psychology and B.S. in Psychology

Major Eligibility Requirements

Effective fall semester 2014, to be eligible for the Psychology major and to enroll in 3000 and 4000 level Psyc courses, students must fulfill the following requirements:
Complete all courses with the Psyc prefix designated in Psychology’s Area F and Earn a 2.3 grade-point average in all Psyc courses counting toward the Area F requirements (with a minimum grade of “C” in PSYC 1101). This GPA will be calculated based on the first attempt at Georgia State University at PSYC 1101 and the first two Psyc Area F courses taken. WFs counts as an attempt. Ws do not count as attempts. Transfer students who transfer these course(s) into Georgia State, may use the grades in the transferred course(s) to calculate the GPA or they may attempt them once at Georgia State.
Courses retaken using the university Repeat to Replace policy are not counted as first attempts.
If a student has a grade of K in PSYC 1101, the GPA will be computed based on the other two courses.

Once students are eligible to take 3000- and 4000-level Psychology courses, they remain eligible to take them as long as they are eligible to enroll at Georgia State University and satisfy other psychology program requirements.

This requirement applies to students entering or re-entering the university in fall 2014 or thereafter, or to students who choose to follow the Psychology program requirements in the undergraduate catalog for 2014-15 or thereafter.

Students in majors other than Psychology, including those minoring in Psychology, may enroll in 3000- and 4000-level courses as long as they meet any pre-requisites for the specific course.

College and University Degree Requirements

In addition to the Major Eligibility Requirements for Psychology, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

B.A. Degree

Students must take a foreign language and six additional hours from courses in Area E. (See “World Language Requirement for B.A. and B.I.S. Majors,” previously described.)

B.S. Degree

Students must take nine semester hours from the courses listed below. We strongly recommend a two-course laboratory sequence in Principles of Biology, Introduction to Chemistry, or Introduction to Physics.

Areas A-E: Core Curriculum Recommendations

1. Recommended course:
   - PSYC 1100 Introduction to Biological Psychology (3)
Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required courses (12):
   - PSYC 1101 Introduction to General Psychology (3)*
   - Select two courses from the following (6):*
     - PSYC 2030 Careers in Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 2040 Introduction to Applied Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 2050 Introduction to Drugs and Behavior (3)
     - PSYC 2060 Introduction to Positive Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 2070 Introduction to Human Sexuality (3)
     - PSYC 2080 Sex, Evolution, & Human Behavior (3)
     - PSYC 2101 Introduction to the Psychology of Adjustment (3)
     - PSYC 2103 Introduction to Human Development: Individual and Family Issues (3)
     - PSYC 2107 Introduction to Social Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 2618 Introduction to Psychology of Women (3)
     - PSYC 2621 Introduction to Abnormal Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 2900 Special Topics in Psychology (3)
   - World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)

2. Select additional courses from Area E to complete 18 hours in Area F.

* Psychology majors must have a 2.3 grade-point average in the first attempt at PSYC 1101 Intro to General Psychology and the next two Psychology Area F courses attempted (with a minimum grade of “C” in PSYC 1101) to be eligible to take 3000- and 4000-level Psyc courses. Only the first attempt at these three courses is considered in computing Area F GPA (see Major Eligibility Requirements).

Area G: Major Courses (32)

The Department of Psychology offers a general program in psychology plus concentration in specific areas of psychology. The general program offers the most choice in courses for a degree in psychology. Concentrations have more restrictive curricula than the general program and are intended to prepare students for a specific career path. Most students will be in the general program. Students planning graduate school or other advanced training in an area related to one of the concentrations should consider applying for admission to that concentration.

Program Academic Regulations

Before taking upper-division courses, students must have completed 60 hours or have the permission of the instructor.

All majors must complete the courses in Area G, as specified below. Concentrations have specific requirements (for more details see the concentration requirements that are listed after the area requirements). Majors who meet the requirements in Area G and do not choose to pursue a concentration will graduate in the general program.

General Program in Psychology (32)

1. Required Methodology Courses (8):
These required methodology courses must be completed by the end of the junior year (90 hours). Students with 90 hours who have not completed both methodology courses may not register for any other psychology courses. To ensure that this requirement is met, students should take Psyc 3510 (a prerequisite for Psyc 3530) during the second semester of the sophomore year. Failure to complete these courses in a timely manner may delay graduation. Additionally, students who are unable to pass either Psyc 3510 or Psyc 3530 with a grade of C or better in two attempts shall not be permitted to repeat the course or to enroll in any departmental courses for which the course is a prerequisite.

2. Required Courses (8):
   - PSYC 3510 Introduction to Research Design and Data Analysis (4)
   - PSYC 3530 Advanced Research Design and Analysis-CTW (4)

3. Advanced Required Courses (9):
   Take one course from each group below.

   o Group 1:
     - PSYC 3140 Psychopathology and Abnormal Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4020 Social Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4040 Developmental Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4160 Theories of Personality (3)
     - PSYC 4510 Community Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4801 Seminar – Group 1 (3)

   o Group 2:
     - PSYC 4100 Cognitive Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4110 Physiological Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4120 Learning (3)
     - PSYC 4130 Sensation and Perception (3)
     - PSYC 4802 Seminar – Group 2 (3)

   o Group 3:
     - PSYC 3520 Introduction to African American Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 3570 Multicultural Issues in Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4030 Cross Cultural Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4610 Psychology of Aging (3)
     - PSYC 4620 Advanced Psychology of Women (3)
     - PSYC 3901 Study Abroad in Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4803 Seminar – Group 3 (3)

4. Psychology Electives (15):
   - Select 15 hours in psychology courses at the 3000 level or above.

Concentrations

Psychology majors wishing to graduate in a concentration must meet the requirements for graduation listed below. They also must meet all general program requirements listed above. Students must complete all lower-division requirements prior to beginning a concentration. Students completing a concentration will receive a certificate and will have an appropriate annotation placed on their transcript.

Community Psychology Concentration (32)

Community Psychology is an area of psychology that aims to apply psychology toward improving the well-being of human groups. An ecological perspective, a prevention orientation, and an appreciation of diversity characterize this area. Often community psychology takes the form of “action research” in which knowledge gained from basic research or psychological theory is applied in real-world settings. At other times it takes the form of relatively more basic research on social problems or community functioning. The concentration is most appropriate for students who want to apply psychology theories and methods to solving social and environmental problems, such as drug abuse, homelessness, and violence. The curriculum should prepare graduates either to pursue graduate education in community psychology or to work in community-based organizations.

1. Required Methodology Courses (8):
   (See “General Program in Psychology,” described above.)
2. Advanced Required Courses (9):
   - Group 1:
     - PSYC 4510 Community Psychology (3)
   - Group 2: Select one course (3):
     - PSYC 4100 Cognitive Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4105 Cognitive Neuroscience (4)
     - PSYC 4110 Physiological Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4120 Learning (3)
     - PSYC 4130 Sensation and Perception (3)
   - Group 3: Select one course (3):
     - PSYC 3520 Introduction to African American Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 3570 Multicultural Issues in Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4030 Cross Cultural Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4610 Psychology of Aging (3)
     - PSYC 4620 Advanced Psychology of Women (3)
     - PSYC 3901 Study Abroad in Psychology (3)
3. Select one course to fulfill CTW requirement (3):
   - PSYC 4000 Laboratory Experience in Psychology (3)
   - PSYC 4800 Seminar-CTW (3)
4. Psychology Electives (12):
   Select from below for a total of four courses.
   - a. Select a second course from Group 3 above. (3)
   - b. Select two courses (6):
     - PSYC 3110 Psychology of Interpersonal Behavior (3)
     - PSYC 3450 Health Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4020 Social Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4300 Adolescent Psychology (3)
   - c. Select one course (3):
     - PSYC 4760 Research Practicum in Psychology (3)
     - PSYC 4770 Applied Practicum in Psychology (3)

Pre-Medicine Concentration

Students interested in attending medical school are advised to consider the pre-medicine concentration. Those wishing to pursue this concentration should be aware that the requirements will differ from those listed in the regular psychology curriculum. The Department of Psychology has a pre-medicine adviser. For more information on the pre-medicine curriculum contact the Office of Academic Assistance, College of Arts and Sciences, 404-413-5000 (see section 3040).

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

Students majoring in psychology are not required to take a minor.

Minor in Psychology

Students who wish to minor in psychology must take 15 hours in courses in psychology including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in psychology may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. (A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.)

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.

Honors College and Psi Chi

The department participates in the Honors College and sponsors a chapter of Psi Chi, the national honor society in psychology. Qualified students are encouraged to participate in these programs. The diplomas of students who complete the University Honors College indicate that they graduate with honors in psychology.

Graduation with Distinction in Psychology

Departmental distinction is separate from the Honors College. Faculty members may nominate majors who have an overall average of at least 3.5 and who have demonstrated outstanding research, leadership, or service to the department for graduation with distinction. More information about graduation with distinction is available in the department.

Students should consult the department’s website to learn about extracurricular activities that can enhance the psychology major experience.
3510 Religious Studies

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies
- Minor in Religious Studies
- Dual B.A./M.A. in Religious Studies

Department of Religious Studies
17th floor, 25 Park Place Bldg.
404-413-6110
religiousstudies.gsu.edu

Kathryn McClymond, Chair
Jonathan Herman, Director of Undergraduate Studies

Offerings in religious studies, all of which are taught from a non-sectarian perspective, include comparative courses on such topics as world religions, religious thought, religious ethics, mysticism, and women and religion, as well as a host of courses on specific religious traditions including Buddhism, Hinduism, Shinto, Taoism, Confucianism, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. Students majoring in religious studies can take and have counted toward their major select courses in other departments and programs in the College of Arts and Sciences including African-American studies, anthropology, art history, classics, history, music, political science, and sociology. Courses in religious studies contribute to a student’s understanding of the beliefs and actions of diverse peoples and cultures. They also contribute to the student’s self understanding through uncovering and exploring major tenets of his or her own culture. The major in religious studies is designed to provide a rich training in the liberal arts and is particularly appropriate for those students considering careers in government, health, law, education, international business, social work, the ministry, or media. Students in other fields are encouraged to consider the possibility of a double major with religious studies. Students can find a more detailed description of the Religious Studies program and its offerings, as well as news about its faculty and upcoming events, online at religiousstudies.gsu.edu.

Program Admission

All undergraduates in good academic standing are eligible for the major and minor in religious studies.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Academic Regulations

Only courses in which students earn a C or higher may be applied to the major and minor in religious studies.

Program Degree Requirements
In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

B.A. in Religious Studies

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (6)
   - RELS 2001 Introduction to World Religions (3)
   - World language at the 1002 or higher level (3)
2. Select additional 1000- or 2000-level courses from those with a subject in the core curriculum to complete 18 hours in Area F.
   - Recommended courses: World language 2001 or 2002 (See “World Language Requirement for B.A. and B.I.S. Majors,” previously described.)

Area G: Major Courses (24)

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses. To satisfy the requirements for the B.A. degree with a major in religious studies, a student must take a total of 24 semester hours, including the following distribution requirements:

1. Required course to fulfill CTW requirement (3):
   - RELS 3750 Theories and Methods in Religious Studies-CTW (3)
2. Required Course (3):
   - RELS 3270 Religious Traditions of the World (3)
3. Electives (18)

Students must take an additional 18 credit hours in RelS courses at the 3000 and 4000 level to complete the major. Of these 18 hours, up to six semester hours may be taken in the following upper-division courses taught outside the Department of Religious Studies: AH 4020, AH 4200, CLAS 2202, CLAS 2203, HIST 3510, HIST 3780, HIST 4530, MUS 4300, POLS 4285, SOCI 4360.

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. Students majoring in religious studies are not required to take a minor.
2. Additional courses not in the major must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010. The department strongly recommends that religious studies majors take the fourth semester of a foreign language as an elective course.

Minor in Religious Studies

Students who wish to minor in religious studies must take at least 15 hours in courses with a RelS prefix, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours in RelS courses may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. (A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.)
Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.

Dual B.A./M.A. Program in Religious Studies

The department offers a dual Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts in Religious Studies. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and apply the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the department and College of Arts and Sciences to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This unit offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the undergraduate director for the specific criteria for this honor.
3520 Sociology

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in Sociology
- General Program in Sociology
  - Concentration in Family
  - Concentration in Gender and Sexuality
  - Concentration in Gerontology
  - Concentration in Race and Urban Studies
- Minor in Sociology
- Dual B.A. in Sociology/M.A. in Gerontology
- Dual B.A./M.A. in Sociology

Department of Sociology
1041 Langdale Hall
404-413-6500
sociology.gsu.edu

Eric Wright, Chair
Jung Ha Kim, Undergraduate Director
La’Isla Emeruem, Undergraduate Coordinator

Sociologists study power dynamics as they relate to family life, race, gender, class, sexuality, deviance, selfhood, social change, urbanization, aging, birth and death, and a host of applied topics. Students majoring in sociology explore the ways in which individual agency affects and is limited by social structures.

Students majoring in sociology may choose one of six programs of study. Majors can follow the general program in sociology, or they can select a concentration in family, race and urban studies, gender and sexuality, or gerontology. Students completing concentrations are awarded a certificate in their area of concentration from either the Department of Sociology or the Gerontology Institute. Students wishing to be sociology majors must first be advised by the sociology undergraduate advisor.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Academic Regulations

A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the major.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences
Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

B.A. in Sociology

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (9)
   - SOCI 1101 Introduction to Sociology (3)*
   - SOCI 1160 Introduction to Social Problems (3)
   - World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)
     See “World Language Requirement for B.A. and B.I.S. Majors,” previously described.)

2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:

* SOCI 1101 is a prerequisite for many upper-level courses, including SOCI 3030 Sociological Theory.

Area G: Major Courses (30)

A grade of C or higher is required in all major courses. 30 credit hours of 3000-4000 level courses are required for the general program, family concentration, gender and sexuality concentration, and race and urban studies concentration. 33 credit hours of 3000-4000 level courses are required for the gerontology concentration.

General Program in Sociology (30)

1. Major Requirements (12)
   - SOCI 3010 Social Statistics (3) (Any mathematics course from core curriculum Area A2 or MATH 1070 with a grade of C or higher is a prerequisite for SOCI 3010.)
   - SOCI 3020 Social Research Methods-CTW (3)
   - SOCI 3030 Sociological Theory (3) (SOCI 1101 with a grade of C or higher is a prerequisite for this course.)
   - SOCI 3201 Wealth, Power, and Inequality (3)

NOTES: Students must take SOCI 3010 and SOCI 3020 in sequence, beginning with 3010, and may not take these courses during the same term. SOCI 3020 and SOCI 3030 are not offered in the summer semester.

Students who decide to major in Sociology after completing PSYC 3510 may use it for credit toward SOCI 3010. SOCI 3020 cannot be replaced with a methods course from another discipline.

2. Select an additional 15 hours in sociology courses at the 3000 level or above. (15)
NOTE: SOCI 4980 (Internship) credit may be applied toward the general program in this section or Area H.

Family Concentration (30)

The family concentration provides students with a comprehensive educational and training curriculum in the study of the family. The concentration is appropriate for students who plan to pursue careers in public and private agencies concerned with the family and family problems. This concentration is also appropriate for students preparing for admission to graduate or professional programs in a variety of fields (e.g., sociology, social work, family studies, or health science). Students completing the concentration are awarded a certificate in family sociology by the Department of Sociology.

1. Major Requirements (12)
   - Same as in section 1 of General Program in Sociology, described above
2. Family Core Course (3)
   - SOCI 3101 Families and Society (3)
3. Select one course from the following list. (3)
   - SOCI 3152 Birth and Parenthood (3)
   - SOCI 3162 African-American Family (3)
   - SOCI 4150 Sexual and Intimate Violence (3)
4. Select two courses from the list below. (6)
   - SOCI 3040 Cognition and Society (3)
   - SOCI 3110 Identity, Self, and Social Interaction (3)
   - SOCI 3156 Sexuality and Society (3)
   - SOCI 3212 Race and Ethnic Relations (3)
   - SOCI 3216 Gender and Society (3)
   - SOCI 3232 Poverty and Welfare (3)
   - SOCI 3346 Drug Use and Abuse (3)
   - SOCI 3352 Mental Illness in the United States (3)
   - SOCI 3356 Queer Identities (3)
   - SOCI 4119 Global Aging and Families (3)
   - SOCI 4116 Aging and Society (3)
   - SOCI 4122 Death, Dying and Loss (3)
   - SOCI 4230 Sociology of Health and Illness (3)
   - SOCI 4310 Issues in the African-American Community (3)
   - SOCI 4315 Girls (3)
   - SOCI 4380 Educational Sociology (3)
5. SOCI 4980 Internship (3-6)

Gender and Sexuality Concentration (30)

This concentration provides students with a comprehensive educational and training curriculum in the study of gender and sexuality. It is appropriate for students who wish to pursue careers in public and private agencies dealing with issues such as domestic violence, sexual assault, legal equity and equal access issues, sexual health and education, and procreative issues. The concentration is also appropriate for students preparing for admission to graduate or professional programs in a variety of fields (e.g., sociology, social work, health sciences, family studies, or women's studies). Students completing the gender and sexuality concentration will be awarded a certificate by the Department of Sociology.

Race and Urban Studies Concentration (30)

The race and urban studies concentration is designed to provide students with an understanding of the various social forces which shape race relations, urban politics, social inequality, and the ever changing relationship between city and suburb. This concentration is appropriate for students seeking training in careers or activism in non-profit organizations, city or state government, housing and urban advocacy organizations, social justice institutes, or any private organization that focuses on social or racial inequality. The program is of particular relevance to students preparing for admission to graduate or professional programs in a variety of fields (e.g., law, sociology, urban planning, and public health). Students completing the concentration are awarded a certificate in race and urban studies by the Department of Sociology.

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. Students majoring in sociology are not required to take a minor.
2. Additional courses not in the major must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010.

Minor in Sociology

Students who wish to minor in sociology must take 15-18 hours in courses in sociology, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in sociology may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. (A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.) Students wishing to minor in sociology may seek advisement from the sociology undergraduate advisor.

Dual B.A./M.A. Programs

The department offers a dual Bachelor of Arts and either a Master of Arts in Sociology or Master of Arts in Gerontology. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and apply the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the department and College of Arts and Sciences to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitute for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.

Sociology Club and Honor Society

The department sponsors a Sociology Club. The club is an academic, social and service organization.
Interested students are encouraged to participate. Additional information can be obtained from the university student organization website (gsu.orgsync.com) or by contacting Dr. Maura Ryan at mryan@gsu.edu.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This program offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the program director for the specific criteria for this honor.

Department of World Languages and Cultures
841 Langdale Hall (19th Floor, 25 Park Place Bldg. effective summer 2017)
404-413-5980
wlc.gsu.edu

William Nichols, Chair
Germán Torres, Associate Chair
Faye Stewart, Undergraduate Director
Victoria Rodrigo, Head of Spanish section and Advisor
Peter Swanson, Director of Foreign Language Education and Advisor

The Department of World Languages and Cultures serves a threefold purpose: to encourage an appreciation of humanistic values through the study of world languages, literatures, and cultures; to teach world languages as a means of communication; and to prepare students for academic careers and the opportunities available in the field of international business. As part of a dynamic urban university in a city of growing international awareness and status, the department is fulfilling its responsibility to meet the increasing world language needs of the governmental, business, and professional communities.

The department recognizes that an active command of the world language and a thorough exploration of related cultures form an essential basis for further study in the various areas of its curriculum. To this end, the department sponsors study-abroad programs in Granada (Spain) and Costa Rica.

The department maintains a state-of-the-art multimedia Language Acquisition and Resource Center (LARC) with a digital audio laboratory with 50 student computer workstations. The digital lab serves a dual purpose in allowing both independent student access to digitized audio files and interactive software that accompanies the language texts, and also in providing a multimedia environment for teacher-led listening, speaking, and recording activities. In addition to the audio lab, the LARC features a tutoring center and resource library, as well as 17 stand-alone computers for student use. To assist in the development of the student’s active language skills and to provide added cultural enrichment, the LARC contains a wide range of audiovisual materials, including an extensive collection of videos, CD-ROMs and DVDs.

The department sponsors two Freshman Learning Communities each year. One group is designed for students interested in using their world language in international business. The other, sponsored jointly by the Department of Applied Linguistics/ESL, is in Language Studies.

For students who hope to teach at the K-12 levels, the department offers Spanish with a concentration that leads to certification.

For students who view language study as a preparation for a career in the business world, the department has two special programs: a concentration in the business language of Spanish, and a practicum in an internationally oriented business or service organization in the metro area for qualified and interested students in their senior year. The department also offers the Bachelor of Arts Major in International Economics and Modern Languages (IEML), in collaboration with the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies.

The department is also a testing center for diplomas certifying proficiency in business language and procedures. These diplomas are granted by chambers of commerce in various countries.

All Spanish majors are encouraged to consult regularly with their departmental advisor in designing and following a program of study that fits their own career objective and the requirements of their particular concentration.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to courses in the language major, you are advised to choose courses in other areas that complement your language study. Such courses include other languages, history, philosophy, art and music, business, and education. Faculty advisors in the department are eager to discuss your academic plans with you as you design your course of study.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Program Financial Information

Lab fees are assessed automatically for students who register for certain courses. As a result, students will no longer be required to purchase lab fee cards. For more information, please feel free to contact the department or review the GoSolar or catalog course listings to determine if a course includes a lab fee.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required courses (0-9):
   - SPAN through the 2002 level (0-9)
Majors must achieve competence at the intermediate level before beginning courses at the 3000 level. They may demonstrate competence through placement exam scores, including the CLEP exam, prior study, or courses taken at Georgia State University.

2. Select additional elective courses from the following to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   - SPAN 2203 or SPAN 2501
   - Any courses in other world languages
   - AL 2101, AL 2102, ANTH 1002, ANTH 2020, AH 1700, AH 1750, ART 1301, ECON 2105, ECON 2106, ENGL 2110, ENGL 2120, ENGL 2130, EDUC 2110, EDUC 2120, EDUC 2130, GEOG 1101, HIST 1111, HIST 1112, FLME 1010, JOUR 1010, [MUSC 1301], PHIL 2010, POLS 2401, THEA 1301, WGSS 2010

Area G: Major Courses (30)

The major in Spanish consists of 30 hours (ten courses) at the 3000/4000 level. Prerequisite for all courses at the 4000 level is the successful completion of 3303 and at least 1 other course at the 3000 level.

1. Major Requirements (9)
   - Select one course:
     - SPAN 3303 Advanced Grammar I (3)
     - SPAN 3501 Advanced Spanish for Heritage Speakers (3)
     - SPAN 3310 Hispanic Culture-CTW (3)

2. Concentration Requirements (21)
   - Language, Culture and Society Concentration (21)
     - Four literature and/or culture courses above Span 3314. (12)
     - Three additional courses in Spanish at the 3000-4000 level. (9)
   - Language and International Business Concentration (21)
     - SPAN 4405 Spanish for International Business I (3)
     - SPAN 4407 Spanish for International Business II (3)
     - Select one of the following courses (3):
       - SPAN 4409 Techniques of Translation
       - SPAN 4445 Literature for Students of International Business
       - BUSA 3000 Globalization and Business Practice (when taught in Spanish)
     - One literature and/or culture course above SPAN 3314 (3)
     - Three additional courses in Spanish at the 3000-4000 level. (9)
   - Foreign Language Education Concentration (21)
     - SPAN 3301 Oral Communication in Spanish: Topics in Language and Culture (3) (non-native speakers only; others must take an additional course at the 3000-4000 level)
     - A 4000-level Culture course (3)
     - Two literature and/or culture courses above SPAN 3314 (6)
     - Three additional courses in Spanish at the 3000-4000 level (9). (Span 3308 Introduction to Spanish Linguistics recommended).

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. World language majors are not required to take a minor. World language majors who choose a minor in other departments/schools/institutes are encouraged to select courses that are appropriate to their area of concentration. Students are also urged to consider combining their major with a second major in another language or another discipline under the Double Major option.

2. Additional courses must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010. Up to six additional hours may be taken in the major.

Requirements for Teacher Certification

Students who wish to be certified to teach Spanish in the public schools of Georgia should choose the courses listed under the “World Language Education Concentration” above and the following methodology courses in the Department of World Languages and Cultures: FORL 3022, FORL 4021, FORL 4025, FORL 4026, and FORL 4030. All students will register for Opening School Experience (FORL 4650) and Student Teaching (FORL 4061/FORL 4062/FORL 4063). All students seeking teaching certification in Spanish must pass the following courses in the College of Education and Human Development with a grade of C or higher: EDUC 2110, EDUC 2120, EDUC 2130, and EXC 4020.

Students must apply formally and be admitted to the Teacher Education program in foreign languages. For the application forms, please go to the Department of World Languages and Cultures’ website under Teacher Certification and then Program Information. To apply, students must have:

- earned a 2.5 overall cumulative GPA,
- passed [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] or been exempted from the GACE Program Admission Assessment. When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.; and
- completed the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment; though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

To qualify for the Student Teaching experience, students must receive a grade of B or higher on a departmental test of oral and written proficiency in Spanish. Specific information about date and place of these exams is available in the department office (841 LH).

In order to be recommended for K-12 certification in Spanish, students must complete all courses taken in the Department of World Languages and Cultures (the major and ForL courses) with a grade of B or higher.

Pre-Service Certificate

Upon admission to a teacher education program, students will be contacted by the college advisement/admissions office and provided with instructions to claim enrollment in their program and submit a GaPSC Pre-Service Certificate Application. The pre-service certificate is required for placement in required field experiences or clinical practice.

Georgia Assessments for the Certification of Educators (GACE)

The state of Georgia requires such candidates to take various GACE and Educator Ethics assessments as part of the educator certification process. These computer-delivered assessments have been developed by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC) and are delivered by the Education Testing Service (ETS). You will take these tests at different times.

Program Admission and Content Assessments: Program Admission Assessment [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] is an admission requirement (unless candidate meets qualifications for exemption – scroll down to “Options to Satisfy the Program Admission Assessment Requirement”). When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Content Assessment (different content assessments for each program) tests your content knowledge and is taken after enrollment and prior to program completion. You will receive specific information regarding this test as you near completion of your program (required for certification).

Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment: Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment is an admission requirement. Completion of this assessment is required for admission, though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

edTPA

edTPA is a preservice assessment process designed by educators to answer the essential question: “Is a new teacher ready for the job?” edTPA includes a review of a teacher candidate’s authentic teaching materials as the culmination of a teaching and learning process that documents and demonstrates each candidate’s ability to effectively teach his/her subject matter to all students.

edTPA is a program completion and teacher certification requirement. Students may graduate from the BIS program while continuing to complete teacher certification requirements for edTPA.

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. A second CTW requirement can be satisfied by taking Span 3310 Hispanic Culture-CTW (3) or any Spanish literature or Spanish culture class at the 4000 level (3). Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.

Bachelor of Arts Major in International Economics and Modern Languages

Students majoring in this IEML program with a Spanish concentration should contact the Andrew Young School of Policy studies for advisement. Information for this program is available at www.aysps.gsu.edu/oaa.
Program Admission

There are no admission requirements above the requirements for admission to the University for enrollment in the B. A. program with a major in international economics and modern languages.

Program Financial Information

There are no additional fees other than the tuition and fees charged by the University for enrollment in this program.

Program Degree Requirements

For degree credit, a minimum grade of C must be attained in ENGL 1101 and ENGL 1102 and all courses in the economics common core curriculum and modern languages core curriculum.

Complete descriptions of requirements for Areas A through E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum can be found in the “University Degree Requirements and Graduation” chapter of this catalog. The number of semester credit hours required for each section is shown in parentheses.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (15):
   - ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
   - ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
   - MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)
   - SPAN 2001 Intermediate Spanish I (3)
   - SPAN 2002 Intermediate Spanish II (3)
2. SPAN 2203 or SPAN 2501
3. Select additional 1000/2000-level elective courses from Areas A-E to complete 18 hours in Area F.

Students who have not already attained elementary-level proficiency in Spanish will be required to take prerequisite courses (SPAN 1001 and/or SPAN 1002). In that case, the 1002 language course may be used to satisfy 3 credit hours of core requirements in Area C.

Students who have already attained intermediate-level competency in Spanish may substitute 1000/2000-level courses in another language for SPAN 2001/SPAN 2002 upon approval of the Department of World Languages and Cultures advisor.

Area G: Economics Common Core Curriculum (24) A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

- ECON 3900 Macroeconomics (3)
- ECON 3910 Microeconomics (3)
- ECON 4600 Economic Development (3)
- ECON 4800 International Trade (3)
- ECON 4810 International Finance (3)
- Choose 3 elective 4000-level Econ courses (9)
Area H: Modern Languages Common Core (24) A minimum grade of C is required for all courses in this area.

1. Major Requirements (6):
   - Select one course:
     - SPAN 3303 Advanced Grammar (3)
     - SPAN 3501 Advanced Spanish for Heritage Speakers (3)
   - SPAN 3310 Hispanic Culture-CTW (3)

2. Concentration Requirements (9):
   - SPAN 4405 Spanish for International Business I (3)
   - SPAN 4407 Spanish for International Business II (3)
   - SPAN 4409 Techniques of Translation (3) or BUSA 3000 Globalization and Business Practice (3) (when taught in Spanish)

3. Electives (9):
   - Choose two other Span 3000/Span 4000 courses

Area I: Electives (12) Choose any four 3000/4000-level courses, in consultation with the faculty advisor.

Minor in Spanish

Students who wish to minor in Spanish must take 15-18 hours in courses in the language, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours of courses in the language may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

Certificate of Language Ability in Spanish

A strong demand exists by employers for candidates to offer credentials to verify language proficiency in both oral and written communication. The undergraduate Certificate of Language Ability is designed for students to offer tangible proof of their language abilities and makes an ideal complement to other areas of study such as business, international relations, public healthy, criminal justice, hospitality, and more.

The certificate consists of 12 credit hours at 2000- and 3000-level (minimum of 6 must be at the 3000-level), with a B or higher in the first attempt at each course. Courses retaken using the university Repeat to Replace policy are not counted as first attempts.

- At the 2000-level, students may choose from SPAN 2001, SPAN 2002, SPAN 2101 (6 credit hours), and SPAN 2203.
- At the 3000-level, students may choose from SPAN 3301, or SPAN 3303.

Dual B.A./M.A. Program in Spanish

The department offers a dual Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts in Spanish. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and apply the coursework toward both the bachelor's and master's programs.
Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the department and College of Arts and Sciences to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at cas.gsu.edu/dual-degrees/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

Jaye Atkinson and Greg Smith, Associate Chairs
Douglas Barthlow and Rasha Ramzy, Undergraduate Directors

Speech communication explores the construction, diffusion, analysis, and impact of messages as they occur among individuals, groups, organizations, and cultures in the media age. Students begin the major with courses in interpersonal communication, argumentation, and public speaking. The core of the speech major focuses on how people develop communication skills, how we study communication phenomena, how we critically examine particular communication events, and how various persuasive tactics may influence members of diverse and globalized societies. Elective courses examine such areas as protest rhetoric, communication of identities, political campaigns, media and politics, visual communication, communication styles, communication disorders, intercultural communication, and the dark side of interpersonal relationships.

The concepts and skills provided by the major in speech communication form a strong, liberal arts foundation for a wide variety of occupations (e.g., business, law, politics, teaching, the ministry, public relations, marketing, and communication campaigns).

Credit for special projects and internships is available. Internships enable students who already have completed the appropriate course work and have met departmental eligibility criteria to take advantage of expertise in a variety of professional sectors in the metropolitan area and to tailor programs to their specific career goals.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences Degree Requirements (see section 3030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. Majors in the Department of Communication’s three B.A. programs must select a minor consisting of at least 15 hours of courses in a discipline within the Department of Communication other than the major (journalism, film and media, or speech communication) or in another academic department/school/institute that offers a baccalaureate degree. At least nine semester hours of minor courses must be at the 3000 level or above, unless otherwise specified by the minor-granting department/school/institute. A grade of C or higher is required in all minor courses.

2. Additional courses from departments/schools/institutes other than the major must be taken to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours exclusive of KH 1010.

Minor in Speech Communication

Students who wish to minor in one of the department’s three programs must take 15-18 hours in the specific area, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in the specific area may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. (A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.)

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.
3550 Teacher Preparation Programs

Programs Offered:

The social science departments of the College of Arts and Sciences offer two different pre-education tracks:

- Bachelor of Arts in African-American Studies (Section 3090)
- Bachelor of Arts in History (Section 3320)

Students interested in pre-education are encouraged to consult these sections of this catalog.

The pre-education programs in these departments are for students who plan to teach social studies at the high school level. To be certified to teach, students in this program must complete the initial teacher preparation Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) Program in Social Studies Education in the College of Education and Human Development (or a similar master's level initial preparation program at another university).

Education Program Offerings:

These departments offer programs in education. Students interested in a career in education are encouraged to consult these sections of this catalog.

- Department of World Languages and Cultures
  - Bachelor of Arts in French with a concentration in Foreign Language Education (section 3280)
  - Bachelor of Arts in German with a concentration in Foreign Language Education (section 3300)
  - Bachelor of Arts in Spanish with a concentration in Foreign Language Education (section 3530)
- Department of Physics and Astronomy
  - Bachelor of Science in Physics with a concentration in education (section 3460)
  - Dual Degree Programs: B.S. Physics with the M.A.T. Science Education (section 3460)

To apply, students must have:

- earned a 2.5 overall cumulative GPA,
- passed [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] or been exempted from the GACE Program Admission Assessment. When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment; and
- completed the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment; though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Additional admission requirements may apply, please the program sections in the catalog.
Georgia Assessments for the Certification of Educators (GACE):

The state of Georgia requires such candidates to take various GACE and Educator Ethics assessments as part of the educator certification process. These computer-delivered assessments have been developed by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC) and are delivered by the Education Testing Service (ETS). You will take these tests at different times.

Program Admission and Content Assessments:

Program Admission Assessment [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] is an admission requirement (unless candidate meets qualifications for exemption – scroll down to “Options to Satisfy the Program Admission Assessment Requirement”). When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Content Assessment (different content assessments for each program) tests your content knowledge and is taken after enrollment and prior to program completion. You will receive specific information regarding this test as you near completion of your program (required for certification).

Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment:

Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment is an admission requirement. Completion of this assessment is required for admission, though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment is taken after enrollment and prior to program completion. You will receive specific information regarding this test as you near completion of your program (required for certification).

edTPA

edTPA is a preservice assessment process designed by educators to answer the essential question: “Is a new teacher ready for the job?” edTPA includes a review of a teacher candidate’s authentic teaching materials as the culmination of a teaching and learning process that documents and demonstrates each candidate’s ability to effectively teach his/her subject matter to all students.

edTPA is a program completion and teacher certification requirement. Students may graduate from the Art Education program while continuing to complete teacher certification requirements for edTPA.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Advisement (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Susan Talburt, Interim Director
Julie Kubala, Director of Undergraduate Studies

Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies (WGSS) at Georgia State University contributes to the University’s broader mission of encouraging critical thinking through a focus on feminist interdisciplinary scholarship, teaching, and community participation. WGSS makes explicit the ways in which gender and sexuality, in connection with other categories such as race, class, ability, and age, construct our understandings and experiences of the world. Furthermore, WGSS analyzes the ways public discourse relies on gender and sexuality to conceptualize such issues as war and militarism, policy, the environment, education, healthcare, economics, the media, and popular culture. In order to explore these issues, WGSS emphasizes the following areas of study: sexualities, race and globalization, and social change.

Program Admission

Students wishing to major or minor in WGSS must meet the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree as described earlier in this catalog. Students should come to the institute office to receive advisement.

Academic Advisement for Undergraduate Students

Academic advisement for undergraduate students is provided through the University Advisement Center (freshman through junior status/fewer than 90 hours) and the college’s Office of Academic Assistance (senior status/90 or more hours). See section 3040 for additional information.

Program Academic Regulations

To take WGSS 4920 (Senior Research-CTW), WGSS 4950 (Internship-CTW), or WGSS 4999 (Directed Readings), students must first receive approval from the Institute for Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Director of Undergraduate Studies. Students are responsible for contacting sites and arranging for their own internships. A list of possible internship sites is available at wgss.gsu.edu.
Program Degree Requirements

Students wishing to major or minor in WGSS must meet the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree as described earlier in this catalog. Students should come to the Institute office to meet with the Undergraduate Director.

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. Students majoring in WGSS are required to complete a minor of at least 15 hours, at least 9 hours of which must be 3000 level or above. The minor may be taken through a department or institute, or it may be an interdisciplinary minor.
2. Additional courses not in the major or the minor must be taken as electives to complete a minimum of 120 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010.

Minor in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

Students choosing to minor in WGSS should complete 15 hours including WGSS 2010, WGSS 3010, WGSS 3030, WGSS 3040, and three additional hours of upper-division elective WGSS courses. Only courses with the WGSS prefix count as Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies courses.

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course. Information on senior advisement in the Office of Academic Assistance is available at cas.gsu.edu/undergraduate/senior-advisement-90-credit-hours/.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This unit offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Faculty can nominate students for graduation with distinction. They should meet minimum grade requirements and be recognized for outstanding research, leadership, or service.

Criteria for significant contributions to the field include the following. Additional possibilities may be approved at faculty discretion.

1. Minimum GPA of 3.5 either overall or in the major
2. Significant contribution to the field such as the following:
   o Presentation of a scholarly paper at a conference
   o Authorship (or significant co-authorship) on a manuscript submitted for publication o Exceptional service to the department o Leadership in a women’s/gender/sexuality studies organization, such as Faces of Feminism or BlackOUT
   o Outstanding community activism
Undergraduate programs in the College of Education and Human Development are described in detail in this chapter. See subsections for specific program information as well as policies and procedures.

(See section 1600 for Educator Preparation Information)

General Information

The information contained in this chapter applies to programs, course offerings, and requirements specific to the College of Education and Human Development. However, the information in this chapter is to be considered supplemental to the general university information found in the preceding chapters of this catalog. Therefore, students should familiarize themselves thoroughly with general information on registration, fees and refunds, academic regulations, student life, and campus services. All policies, regulations, and requirements explained in the preceding chapters of this catalog also apply to the College of Education and Human Development.

College Facilities

Many of the college’s programs involve student and faculty participation and interaction with metropolitan Atlanta community schools and agencies. Atlanta offers an ideal laboratory for the development of our students. Special facilities in the college of particular interest to undergraduate students are listed below.

Alonzo A. Crim Center for Urban Educational Excellence

350 College of Education and Human Development Building
404-413-8070
crim.education.gsu.edu/

The Alonzo A. Crim Center for Urban Educational Excellence works in partnership with the larger Georgia State community, other universities, school systems, social agencies, and community organizations. Current work includes: (1) Benjamin E. Mays Lecture Series, an annual program which brings nationally prominent educators to Atlanta to address critical issues facing education; (2) Coalition Urban Affiliate Liaisons, meetings between College of Education and Human Development and Atlanta Public Schools urban affiliates to develop research agendas and to discuss difficult issues related to providing excellent education for those children who traditionally have been least well-served by schools; (3) Quarterly Forums, events which address the topic, “Tapping Into the Genius of Our Children,” which allows teachers and educators to participate in dialogue with outstanding people who have demonstrated success in fostering academic excellence for economically disenfranchised children in urban schools; (4) The Peachtree Urban Writing Project, a national writing project site and a collaborative of the Atlanta Public School System, Georgia State University, Morehouse College, and Spelman College; (5) National Board Certification Resource Center, provides awareness training to principals and teachers who are going through National Board Certification (NBC), places special emphasis on the recruitment of minority candidates and houses an information library for NBC literature; (6) Martin Luther King, Jr. Curriculum Project, lesson plans developed and designed to encourage hands-on, interactive exploration of materials available in The King Center, while providing historical and sociological knowledge to students as well as in social studies, civics, history, writing and language arts; (7) Staff Development and Curriculum Enhancement, facilitates and hosts ongoing workshops and training sessions that promote professional development for in-service teachers, and identifies supplemental learning resources that will complement the curriculum that are currently used by teachers. The director of the center is Dr. Brian Williams.

Instructional Technology Center

2nd floor, College of Education and Human Development Building 404-413-8080
itc.gsu.edu/

The Instructional Technology Center serves faculty, students, and prekindergarten through twelfth-grade educators by encouraging and supporting technological confidence and expertise in the areas of teaching, collaboration, and consulting. The ITC serves as a resource center providing learning spaces, technology workshops, student computer access, and specialized educational technology resources. Our resources include computers, peripheral equipment, productivity and educational software titles, audio/video production and reproduction technology and over 100 years of combined educational technology expertise from our experienced staff.

The ITC will provide customized workshops for faculty and instructor-led classes on topics that support instruction. The ITC can create workshops for a variety of instructional technologies. It has a variety of purpose-built teaching facilities including smart classrooms, computer classrooms, a conference room and a student computing commons.

The director of the center is Mr. Randy Jones. Call the Instructional Technology Center for information and appointments or visit their website at itc.gsu.edu.

Capital Hill Childhood Enrichment

197 Decatur Rd.
404-413-8454

cdp.education.gsu.edu/

The program at Georgia State University is comprised of two centers, the Lanette L. Suttles Child Development Center and Capital Hill Child Enrichment. The Centers are operated by the College of Education and Human Development under the direction of the Department of Early Childhood and Elementary Education. The program provides care for children of students, faculty, and staff. The Suttles Center is open from 7:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, and the Capital Hill Center is open from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. There is a waiting list for parents interested in enrolling their children. Information regarding registration, fees, and ages for children accepted into the program may be obtained by contacting the center. The director of the center is Ms. Stacey French-Lee.

Speech – Language – Hearing Clinic

8th floor, College of Education and Human Development Building
404-413-8044
speechlanguagehearing.education.gsu.edu/

The Speech–Language–Hearing Clinic is operated by the Department of Educational Psychology, Special Education, and Communication Disorders to provide practicum and experience for students in the master’s level Communication Sciences and Disorders program offered through the College of Education and Human Development. Students who are identified by faculty as needing evaluation may be referred to the clinic. Students can also receive evaluations and treatment services at their own request. The director of the center is Dr. Debra Schober-Peterson.

4010 Students' Responsibilities

Knowledge of Regulations

Students must assume full responsibility for knowledge of the policies, rules, and regulations of the College of Education and Human Development and the university as well as the departmental requirements concerning their individual programs.

It is the responsibility of the students to become knowledgeable of and to observe all regulations and procedures required by the program being pursued. In no case will a regulation be waived or an exception granted because a student pleads ignorance of the regulation or asserts that an adviser or other university authority did not inform the individual of a specific requirement. Each student should become especially familiar with the chapters of this catalog that present the academic requirements for the degree being sought, the offerings and requirements of the students’ major department, and any changes published in the online Schedule of Classes each academic term.

While the provisions set forth in this catalog will ordinarily be applied as stated, Georgia State University and the College of Education and Human Development have the right to change any provision, including but not limited to academic requirements for graduation, without actual notice to individual students. Every effort will be made to keep students advised of any such changes. Information on changes will be available in the Office of the Dean and Office of Academic Assistance and Graduate Admissions when changes are made by the College of Education and Human Development. It is especially important that each student note that it is the individual student’s responsibility to keep apprised of current graduation requirements for his or her particular degree program.

Criteria on Academic and Professional Integrity

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to upholding standards of academic and professional integrity. These standards require that students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs within the College of Education and Human Development adhere to both the University’s Student Code of Conduct as described online at codeofconduct.gsu.edu as well as their individual degree program’s Policy on Student Professionalism, Integrity and Retention. Students should contact their department for a copy of their degree program’s policy.

4020 College Academic Advisement

Academic advisors in the Office of Academic Assistance and Graduate Admissions advise undergraduate students in the College of Education and Human Development who have completed 90 credit hours or more and are admitted to or are pursuing admission to one of the college’s undergraduate degree programs. The college encourages students with questions about their degree requirements or the academic regulations of the college or university to contact their academic advisor.

Students with questions about course content, career plans, and expectations for their fields of preparation and interest may contact faculty members in the college. Students should contact the academic department in advance to arrange a conference with a faculty member.

For students considering a change of major related to career interest, professional assistance in selecting a career area is available through University Career Services (270 Student Center West). The services of the center are described in section 1536 of this catalog.

Office of Academic Assistance and Graduate Admissions
The Office of Academic Assistance and Graduate Admissions is here to serve you. This office:

- Provides programs of study of each undergraduate major offered by the college;
- Evaluates previous coursework of undergraduate transfer students for specific course credits that can be applied toward the B.A., B.I.S., B.S. and B.S.E. degrees;
- Confirms eligibility for entry into teacher education;
- Assists students in course selections and schedule revisions each term;
- Explains catalog regulations;
- Administers policies for the college and the university;
- Refers students to other sources of assistance in the university;
- Receives and processes admission applications for the college’s undergraduate and graduate programs; and
- Assists graduates in applying for initial certification or upgrading an existing certificate.

Students are advised by appointment except during walk-in times that are provided for brief questions that can be resolved in 10 or fewer minutes. Students should schedule appointments one day in advance so updated records can be provided. Wednesdays are reserved for walk-ins. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. (M.-F.).

Teacher preparation students in the College of Arts and Sciences (Art, Foreign Language, and Music) should contact the Arts & Sciences Office of Academic Assistance (418 Langdale Hall, 404-413-5000) for advisement.

4030 College Academic Regulations

Pre-Major Status

Students may select the College of Education and Human Development as a pre-major at the point of application to the university or at any point thereafter. However, this selection represents only a pre-education status until the student applies for admission to a degree program through the college’s admissions process. Transfer students must comply with all academic regulations of the university and the college.

Entry into teacher education is a separate step and requires meeting specific criteria. Students must complete a separate application, show proof of Tort liability insurance, and pass the GACE program.
admission assessment (or meet exemption criteria) and the Georgia Educator Ethics entry assessment. Students interested in teacher education programs should refer to Educator Preparation in section 1600 of this catalog or visit the College of Education and Human Development Office of Academic Assistance and Graduate Admissions website, education.gsu.edu/admissions/undergraduate-admissions/, for more information.

Visiting Students

Students currently enrolled in a degree program at another institution who wish to take coursework from the College of Education and Human Development must follow the admissions requirements shown in the “Undergraduate Admissions” chapter of this catalog. Students from other institutions may be enrolled as visiting students at Georgia State University for no more than two academic terms.

Transient Credit

College of Education and Human Development students must have prior written approval from the college to earn transient credit from another institution if that credit is to be used in a degree program. Contact the Office of Academic Assistance and Graduate Admissions for procedures.

Prerequisite Courses

The faculty have designated prerequisites for many College of Education and Human Development courses. Students are expected to have completed a course’s prerequisites prior to the first day of class. If students have appropriate academic and professional experience, they may ask the instructor or department to allow them to register for a course without having completed the published prerequisites for a course; however, the instructor and department are under no obligation to allow the students to enroll without having completed the prerequisites. In some courses, the students may be administratively withdrawn from the course if the instructor or department discovers that they have not completed the course’s prerequisites.

Directed Reading Courses

Directed reading courses are designated with the prefix of the program area for which the content of the course is relevant and are numbered 4810. Such a course is for junior or senior level students of superior abilities and proven performance who wish to do independent study in a specific area. Applications for directed reading courses are available from the Office of Academic Assistance and Graduate Admissions. These courses require consultation with the instructor of choice to develop the topic of study, approval of the student’s adviser, and approval of the department chair of the instructor’s department. Directed reading courses may not substitute for courses that are part of the regular course offerings of the college.

Separate Undergraduate and Graduate Programs

The undergraduate and graduate programs of the college are entirely separate and only those persons who have been admitted to a graduate program may enroll in courses numbered 6000 or higher.
Re-entry

A re-entry student is one who has been enrolled at Georgia State University and who meets at least one of these criteria:

- has not registered for courses at Georgia State during any of the previous three semesters.
- has been on scholastic suspension after an absence of one calendar year.
- has been on scholastic exclusions after an absence of five or more years. (undergraduate students only)
- has attended any semester as a transient and wishes to attend an additional term. (undergraduate students only)

Application Procedures for Re-entry

The Re-entry Application is available online at admissions.gsu.edu/re-entry/. Students will need to submit a $25.00 application fee with their applications. Re-entry students who are accepted but do not attend the semester in which they were admitted must contact admissions@gsu.edu to attend the succeeding semester. If their academic program no longer exists at the time of re-entry, they may not re-enter but instead apply for a new degree program.

Student Complaints, Petitions for Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals

The appeals procedure for students in the College of Education will follow different courses of action depending on the nature of the student’s appeal. Please refer to University Information Section 1050.80 under Polices and Disclosures in this catalog or visit enrollment.gsu.edu/assistance/ for details.

Georgia State University seeks to maintain the highest standards of integrity and fairness in its relationships with students. The Undergraduate Catalog and the Graduate Catalog Student Code of Conduct set forth policies and requirements for Georgia State students. Students are expected to know and comply with these policies. Students may, however, seek relief or resolution when they believe that:

- The application of these policies and procedures will create undue hardship for them or will not recognize their extraordinary or extenuating circumstances; or
- Specific actions, practices, or decisions on academic or non-academic matters have been made or carried out in an arbitrary, discriminatory, or inequitable manner.

To adhere to University policy, the College of Education and Human Development has developed two forms: Petition for Waiver or Variance and Student Petition for Resolution. Students should complete these forms and submit to appropriate department for review.

Petition for Waiver or Variance

Any student in the College of Education and Human Development may petition for a waiver or variance of established policy, procedure, rule, or guideline governed by the college. This form should be used for requests of substitutions of required courses and/or waivers of college policies governing students. The Student Petition for Waiver or Variance must be submitted by the end of the term prior to the term in which the exception is needed. The form can be found at education.gsu.edu/student-services/forms-policies-regulations/.

Student Petition for Resolution

Students are encouraged to discuss academic or non-academic problems or grade concerns with the instructor prior to filing a formal petition, in an effort to gain understanding about the basis of the treatment or grade. If the issue is not resolved informally, students should complete the Student Petition for Resolution process. The form can be found at education.gsu.edu/student-services/forms-policies-regulations/.

College Degree Requirements

The College of Education and Human Development has no additional degree requirements beyond the university academic regulations.

4040 Program Degree Requirements

Undergraduate degrees offered by the College of Education and Human Development are listed in this section alphabetically by major and then by degree designation followed by minors and non-degree, certification only programs. Students enrolled in degree programs must complete all the requirements for the selected degree and must comply with the general academic regulations of the university. Each program of study listed in this section provides the minimum requirements for that specified program. Additional coursework and non-coursework activities may be required based on faculty evaluation of the students’ background preparations and demonstration of their skills and knowledge.

Course descriptions are listed alphabetically by prefix name then course number in the “Course Descriptions” chapter of this catalog.

Undergraduate Core Curriculum

Georgia State University requires all students seeking a baccalaureate degree to satisfactorily complete a basic core of general education subjects. All programs offered by the College of Education and Human Development are designed to comply with the University System of Georgia core curriculum requirements. For a full description of the requirements for Areas A through E of the undergraduate core curriculum, please see the “Core Curriculum” chapter of this catalog. Requirements for completing Areas F through H of each degree program are listed in this chapter.

Students who are completing the core curriculum requirements at another unit of the University System of Georgia are encouraged to check the Georgia State catalog for specific required course prerequisites to maximize the transfer of core credits to apply to the programs in which they plan to enroll.

4100 Birth Through Five
Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Science in Education in Birth Through Five

The B.S.E. major in Birth Through Five (B-5) prepares teachers and other early care and education professionals to work in varied settings with young children and their families from infancy through Kindergarten age, including children who are typically developing and those with disabilities.

The program reflects national and state standards, research and best practice in the field of early childhood development and education and teacher education. Candidates receive content and pedagogy in developmentally and individually appropriate practices for infants, toddlers, preschoolers and Kindergarten-age children. The program provides a multidisciplinary, comprehensive and holistic approach to working with young children and families in diverse settings.

Field-based experiences are structured to provide candidates with opportunities to work with different ages and children of varying ability levels and educational needs. A broad range of courses and practicum will strengthen candidates’ knowledge and ability to select and implement appropriate curriculum and instructional strategies, developmental activities and care routines, and observation and assessment methods.

Successful completion of this program leads to a baccalaureate degree along with recommendation for Birth Through Kindergarten licensure. Candidates completing the Birth through Five preparation program may be recommended for certification in both Birth through Kindergarten as well as the Endorsement in Pre-School Special Education (3-5).

Program Admission

Students are required to meet all University and College admission requirements. In addition, students must apply for admission to teacher education (B-5) prior to beginning coursework in the upper division core, Area G of the program.

To apply for teacher education (B-5):

- Students must have a minimum 2.75 overall grade point average on all postsecondary coursework previously completed;
- Students must present passing scores on the GACE Program Admission Assessment or demonstrate an exemption upon application to an initial educator preparation program.
- Students must complete the Georgia Educators Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment.
Students must have successfully completed all courses in Areas A-F.
Students must have successfully completed all required courses in Areas A and F with a grade of “C” or higher, or have transferred in approved Area A-F courses as outlined in approved USG-DTAE Articulation Agreements;
Students must submit proof of tort liability insurance;
And students must complete a writing sample and participate in an interview with program faculty. Please note that the completion of the writing sample and participation in the interview does not guarantee admission to the Birth Through Five program.

The Technical College System of Georgia Articulation Agreements and the Birth through Five program handbook can be found on the Department of Early Childhood and Elementary Education website.

Program Financial Information

Birth Through Five (B-5) majors must pay all tuition and fees charged by the University and the College. A $125.00 lab fee may be charged at the time students register for the student teaching experience. Educator preparation students must be aware that extra cost such as tort liability insurance, criminal background check, and transportation will be incurred at various times during the completion of various teacher education field experiences. The cost of the edTPA portfolio submission is $300.00, which will also be associated with student teaching.

Program Academic Regulations

Program of Study: Students must complete 42 semester hours in Areas A-E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum. Courses in Area A must be completed with “C” or higher grades. All courses listed below in Areas F-G must be completed with a grade of “C” or higher unless otherwise noted. Semester hours are shown in parentheses following an entry.

B.S.E. students are required to meet the Georgia 2006 Technology Proficiency Requirement. Students enrolled in the Birth Through Five (B-5) Program at Georgia State University will complete this graduation and certification requirement by successfully completing a technology course (LT 2210 recommended) and by demonstrating competency on designated assignments embedded in the program of study.

Pre-Service Certificate: Upon admission to a teacher education program, students will be contacted by the College’s Office of Academic Assistance office with instructions to claim enrollment in their program and submit a GaPSC Pre-Service Certificate Application. The pre-service certificate is required for placement in required field experiences or clinical practice.

Certification: Students must post passing scores on the GACE Content Assessment, Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment, and edTPA in order to be recommended by Georgia State University for clear, renewable certification.

- KH 2360 Childhood Health and Wellness (3)

Areas A-F Articulation Agreement for USG – DTAE Institutions

Graduates from Early Childhood Care and Education degree programs from COC accredited Technical College System of Georgia institutions will have satisfied the requirements for all six courses in the USG Area F for the BSED in Birth-Age 5 Teacher Preparation Program.

Area G: Courses Required for the Major

Required Courses (40):

- BRFV 3200 Introduction to Administration and Organization of Programs for Young Children (3)
- BRFV 3250 Professional and Ethical Practice-CTW (3)
- BRFV 4360 Child Guidance Birth to Five (3)
- BRFV 4370 Language, Literacy, and Cognition-CTW (3)
- BRFV 4380 Methods for Infants and Toddlers (4)
- BRFV 4390 Reading/Literacy, Social Studies and the Arts: Methods for Young Children(4)
- BRFV 4400 Family and Community Relationships (3)
- BRFV 4490 Mathematics, Science and Technology: Methods for Young Children(3)
- EXC 3560 Observation and Assessment for Infants, Toddlers and Preschoolers (3)
- EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities (3)
- EXC 4520 Methods for Infants and Toddlers with Disabilities (4)
- EXC 4530 Methods for Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten Children with Disabilities (4)
Electives (8-11):

- LT 2210 Integrating Technology into the Elementary Classroom (3) or equivalent

Graduates from Early Childhood Care and Education degree programs from COC accredited Technical College System of Georgia institutions may transfer one of the program specializations to complete 9 hours of Electives (11 hours) in the B.S.E. Birth Through Five (B-5) degree program.

Required prior to Area H: (40) Semester Hours; All courses in B-5 Major Area must be completed with a grade of C or higher before students are authorized to enroll in student teaching.

Area H: Student Teaching (9-12)

All program requirements must be satisfactorily completed before students are authorized to enroll in student teaching. Students must complete student teaching coursework in Area H with a grade of “C” or higher.

Required (9-12):

- BRFV 4650 Opening School Experience (0)
- BRFV 4661 Student Teaching (9-12)

Students must post passing scores on the GACE Content Assessment, Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment, and edTPA in order to be recommended by Georgia State University for clear, renewable certification.

Elementary Education B.S.E. program Faculty prepare undergraduates to teach diverse learners in 1) pre-kindergarten through fifth grade, 2) English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL), and 3) special education. There are two program options for completing the B.S.E. degree in Elementary Education: the Initial Certification in PreK-5th grades with an endorsement to teach English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) and the Dual Certification in Early Childhood and Special Education. The program reflects research and best practice in the field of early childhood education and teacher education. Candidates receive content and pedagogy in all academic disciplines taught in the early childhood classroom. The program further provides integration of the visual, theatrical and musical arts within the context of digital technology. The broad and extensive field-based experiences intentionally scaffold candidates’ knowledge and ability to select and implement developmentally appropriate technology, resources and activities for teaching and learning in diverse settings across grade levels. Successful completion of this program leads to a recommendation for P-5 licensure and an endorsement to teach English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) or dual certification in Early Childhood Education (P-5) and Early Childhood Special Education (P-5).

4120 Exercise Science

Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Science in Exercise Science

Department of Kinesiology and Health
Sports Arena
404-413-8050
Mark Geil, Chair
th.education.gsu.edu/

The B.S. major in Exercise Science prepares students for careers in adult fitness, worksite health promotion/corporate fitness, personal training, clinical exercise physiology, cardiac rehabilitation, and other related fields. Preparation is also provided in fitness management, program management, sports skills development and enhancement, strength and conditionings, and related topics. The degree program also provides an excellent academic background for graduate study or for application to physical therapy, occupational therapy, physician’s assistant, medical school, sports medicine, public health, and other health science professional programs.

The B.S. Exercise Science program is accredited by the Commission of Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs (CAAHEP).

Program Admission

Students must apply to the B.S. Exercise Science program after completion of areas A-E and the following Area F courses: KH 2220, KH 2221, KH 2230, and KH 2231. A minimum of “C+” on the first attempt (WF counts as an attempt) is required in each of the following classes: KH 2220, KH 2221, KH 2230, and KH 2231. Competitive applicants will have a “B-” or better in each of these courses.

To apply for the B.S. in Exercise Science, students must submit the application available on the CEHD website at education.gsu.edu/admissions/undergraduate-admissions/. As part of the application, students will be required to upload a statement of purpose (must be no more than 1000 words in length) and include the following information: 1) educational and career objectives and how a degree in Exercise Science will aid you in achieving those goals, and 2) list of extracurricular activities, including jobs, volunteer work, student clubs/organizations, etc.

Program Financial Information

Lab fees are associated with several courses within the Exercise Science program. In addition, B.S. majors must pay all tuition and fees charged by the university and the college.

Program Degree Requirements

B.S. in Exercise Science

Areas A-E: Core Curriculum Recommendations

Students must complete 42 semester hours in Areas A-E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum. MATH 1111 is a prerequisite for B.S. Exercise Science majors. The Department of Kinesiology and Health recommends that students take MATH 1111 in Area A2. If a student chooses MATH 1101 or lower in Area A2, they must still complete MATH 1111 prior to taking KH 3600 in Area G. The department recommends taking CHEM 1151K/1152K or PHYS 1111K/1112K as the 2 course sequence in Area D (the 1 extra credit hour will count in Area G). MATH 1112 or MATH 1113 are prerequisites for PHYS1111K/1112K. The department recommends taking PSYC 1101 for Area E.

Semester hours are shown in parentheses after an entry.

Area F. Courses Appropriate for a Major (18)

Required (18):

- KH 2130 Introduction to Kinesiology and Health (3)
- KH 2220 Anatomy in Kinesiology and Health (3)
- KH 2221 Anatomy in Kinesiology and Health Laboratory (1)
• KH 2230 Physiology in Kinesiology and Health (3)
• KH 2231 Physiology in Kinesiology and Health Laboratory (1)
• KH 2520 Principles of Physical Activity and Fitness (3)

Choose One Course (4):
The course cannot be used in Area D.

• BIOL 1103K Introductory Biology I (4)
• BIOL 1104K Introductory Biology II (4)
• BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4)
• BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4)
• CHEM 1151K Survey of Chemistry I (4)
• CHEM 1152K Survey of Chemistry II (4)
• CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4)
• CHEM 1212 Principles of Chemistry II (4)
• PHYS 1111K Introductory Physics I (4)
• PHYS 1112K Introductory Physics II (4)
• PHYS 2211K Principles of Physics I (4)
• PHYS 2212K Principles of Physics II (4)

KH 2220, KH 2221, KH 2230, and KH 2231 may be attempted only once. A WF counts as an attempt. Transfer students who transfer these course(s) into Georgia State University, may use the grades in the last attempted transferred course or they may attempt them (once) at Georgia State University.

Students can petition to use BIOL 2110K and BIOL 2120K in place of KH 2220, KH 2221, KH 2230, and KH 2231; however, a student must still receive a “C+” or higher in each course.

Area G. Major Courses (54)

A grade of “C” or higher is required in all courses in Area G.

Pre-Exercise Science students can register for the following courses as long as prerequisites are met.

• KH 3500 Athletic Training (3)
• KH 3550 Statistics and Evaluation in Exercise Science (3)
• Electives for which appropriate prerequisites have been completed

To enroll in the upper-level courses listed below, students must be declared B.S. Exercise Science students and complete with a grade of “C” or better appropriate prerequisites for the following classes:

• KH 3600 Biomechanics (3)
• KH 3650 Physiology of Exercise-CTW (4)
• KH 4280 Psychology of Physical Activity (3)
• KH 4290 Cardiopulmonary Physiology (3)
• KH 4300 Neuromuscular Physiology and Plasticity (3)
• KH 4350 Fitness Program Management-CTW (3)
• KH 4360 Clinical Exercise Physiology (4)
Electives (18):
Select six or more:

- BIOL 2240 Introduction to Human Physiology (3) and BIOL 2250 Human Physiology Laboratory (1)
- GER 4200 Health and the Older Adult (3) (same as SNHP 4200)
- GER 4610 Psychology of Aging (3) (same as PSYC 4610)
- KH 3020 Fitness and Physical Activity (3)
- KH 3060 Performance and Analysis in Disability Sport (3)
- KH 3360 Disability, Sport, and Physical Activity (3)
- KH 3520 Strength Training and Conditioning (4)
- KH 3610 Motor Learning and Development (3)
- KH 3630 American Sport Education Program (ASEP) Coaching Principles (3)
- KH 3635 Special Considerations for Coaching Athletes with Disabilities (3)
- KH 3680 International Experience in Sport and Exercise Science (3)
- KH 3760 Special Topics in Kinesiology and Health (3)
- KH 3820 Research Methods in Kinesiology (3)
- KH 4200 Analysis of Sport Coaching (3)
- KH 4210 Long Term Athlete Development (3)
- KH 4380 Obesity and Related Complications (3)
- KH 4390 ECG and Exercise Stress Training (3)
- KH 4400 Environmental Exercise Physiology (3)
- MATH 1111 College Algebra (3)
- PSYC 3450 Health Psychology (3)
- NUTR 3100 Nutrition and Health (3)
- NUTR 3200 Introduction to Clinical Nutrition (2)
- NUTR 3500 Nutrition and Metabolism (3)
- NUTR 4960 Nutrition and Physical Fitness (3)
- RT 3005 Clinical Cardiopulmonary Physiology (3)
- SOCI 4230 Sociology of Health and Illness (3)
- Other courses may be selected with consent of adviser.

Area H. Practicum (6 semester hours)

Students must successfully complete all courses in Area G to be authorized to enroll in Area H courses. Students should not enroll in other courses while completing Area H requirements. A grade of “S” is required in all courses in Area H. This experience is established with the assistance of the Program advisor and the Internship Coordinator.

Required (1):

- KH 4750 Practicum in Exercise Science (1)*

Select One (5):

- KH 4600 Advanced Biomechanics for Exercise Science (3)
- KH 4630 Fitness Assessment and Exercise Prescription (4)
- KH 4760 Internship in Exercise Science (5)
- KH 4800 Research Fellowship in Exercise Science (5)

*Students are required to complete an Exit Exam. This exam is given in KH 4750 Practicum in Exercise Science and must be passed with a score/percentage of 75% in order to successfully complete KH 4750 and graduate. Students are also required to take a national certification exam from a list of department-approved certification exams and report their results in order to successfully complete KH 4750 Practicum in Exercise Science.

Students are required to successfully complete a minimum of 5 credit hours that may extend beyond one semester but no more than three semesters.

Total Program: minimum of 120 semester hours

4130 Health and Physical Education

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Science in Education in Health and Physical Education

The B.S.E. major in Health and Physical Education has two concentrations. The first prepares graduates to teach integrated programs of health and physical education teacher certification (TC) for pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade. The second prepares sport coaching, physical activity, health and wellness professionals (CPAHW) to work in community sport and movement settings from early childhood through later adulthood. Areas of emphasis across the two concentrations include movement skill development and analysis, personal health and wellness, pedagogical-disciplinary study, contemporary curriculum, instructional skills and models, sport coaching and development of athletes, and direct field experiences. Both concentrations feature a field-based approach.

Program Admission

Students are required to meet all university and college admission requirements. In addition, students in the teacher certification concentration must apply for teacher education prior to beginning Area G of the program.

To be accepted into the B.S.E. Health and Physical Education program:

- Students must have a 2.50 overall grade point average on all undergraduate coursework previously completed;
- Students must have successfully completed areas A-F of program, as listed in the Undergraduate Catalog. This includes completion of Area A Essential Skills with a “C” or better and Area F courses appropriate to the major with a grade of “C” or better;
- Students must demonstrate competence in oral communication. Screening takes place in all education courses (see catalog for more details);
- Students must participate in an interview (including a writing exercise) with program faculty.

Students in the teacher certification concentration:

- must present passing scores on the GACE Program Admission Assessment or demonstrate an exemption upon application to an initial educator preparation program;
- must complete the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment;
- must apply for a Pre-Service Certificate which includes a background check and show proof of tort liability insurance.

Students in the sport coaching, physical activity, health and wellness professionals (SCPAHW) concentration:

- must pass a criminal background check and show proof of tort liability

Program Financial Information

B.S.E. majors must pay all tuition and fees charged by the university and the college. A lab fee of $125 will be charged at the time students register for the student teaching/internship experience. Students must be aware that extra cost such as fees for LiveText, tort liability, criminal background check, edTPA, and transportation will be incurred at various times during the completion of various field experiences, particularly during the students’ senior year. The cost of the edTPA portfolio submission is $300.00, which will be associated with student teaching.

Program Academic Regulations

Program of Study for teacher certification concentration: students must complete 42 semester hours in Areas A-E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum. Courses in Area A must be completed with “C” or higher grades. A grade of “C” or higher is required in Area F courses. A grade of “C+” is required for the following courses: KH 3410, KH 3420, KH 4510, KH 4520, KH 4530, KH 4540. Students who do not receive a grade of “C+” or better may repeat the course once. If a student fails to earn a “C+” the second time, then the student is administratively removed from the teacher certification concentration. A grade of “B” in KH 4710 and KH 4720 is required for recommendation for certification. Students who do not receive a grade of “B” or better may repeat the course once. If a student fails to earn a “B” the second time, he or she will not be allowed to enroll in the course again and will not be recommended for certification.

Entry into the program does not guarantee continuation in the program, graduation from the program and/or recommendation for certification even if all requirements have been met. Students may graduate from the program with a “B-“, “C+”, “C”, or “C-” without recommendation for certification even if the certification test has been passed.
Pre-Service Certificate (for teacher certification concentration only): Upon admission to a teacher education program, students will be contacted by the College’s Office of Academic Assistance office with instructions to claim enrollment in their program and submit a GaPSC Pre-Service Certificate Application. The pre-service certificate is required for placement in required field experiences or clinical practice.

Certification (for teacher certification concentration only): Students must post passing scores on the GACE Content Assessment, Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment, and edTPA in order to be recommended by Georgia State University for clear, renewable certification.

Program of Study for SCPAHW concentration: Students must complete 42 semester hours in Areas A-E of the Undergraduate Core curriculum. Courses in Area A must be completed with a C grade or higher. A grade of B is required in KH 4730 and KH 4740. Students who do not receive a grade of B or better may repeat the courses once. If a student fails to earn a B or better the second time, he or she will not be permitted to enroll in the course again and will be removed from the program.

Tort Liability: All students must show proof of tort liability insurance prior to admission to taking courses in the methods and curriculum section of Area G and then again prior to enrollment in student teaching/internship. Students may obtain the appropriate forms through http://education.gsu.edu/student-services/office-of-field-placements/.

Professional Development Plan: Program candidates may be placed on a Professional Development Plan (PDP). The HPE faculty has many options to choose from for determining a PDP for individuals. These options may include but are not limited to retaking courses; taking additional courses; and taking speech or writing workshops. Continuation in the program will depend on demonstrating timely and successful completion of PDP requirements.

As the courses progressively become more field-based, program faculty, cooperating teachers, and school/agency administrators may also recommend that program candidates be placed on a PDP, removed from a course or removed from the program. The HPE program faculty has a personal and professional responsibility to ensure that candidates that enter and graduate from the program exhibit professional behaviors. The HPE faculty is obligated to follow university policy set forth in the following excerpt from the GSU catalog:

The Professional Education Faculty believes that all students who are in field experiences must be personally and psychologically equipped as well as academically prepared. Students may be denied entry to field experiences based on departmental prerequisites or the professional judgment of faculty based on observed performance and behavior. This policy is based on the premise that educators should be part of the evaluation of the students’ ability to function adequately and safely in classrooms and those educators have a right and responsibility to make such judgments prior to placing students in schools. The practicum or student teaching supervisor has the authority to withdraw students from their classroom experience if their performance constitutes a detriment to the children in the class. If such removal is necessary, students will be given an F in each corresponding course.

Program Degree Requirements

B.S.E. in Health and Physical Education
Areas A-E: Core Curriculum Recommendations

Students must complete 42 semester hours in Areas A-E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum. Courses in Area A must be completed with “C” or higher grades.

Semester hours are shown in parentheses following an entry.

Area F. Courses Appropriate for a Major (18)

Students must complete coursework with a grade of “C” or higher in Area F prior to admission to teacher education.

Required for Teacher Certification and Sport Coaching, Physical Activity, Health and Wellness concentrations (18):

- EDUC 2110 Investigating Critical and Contemporary Issues in Education (3)
- EDUC 2120 Exploring Socio Cultural Perspectives on Diversity (3)
- EDUC 2130 Exploring Teaching and Learning (3)
- KH 2122 Applied Health and Wellness (3)
- KH 2130 Introduction to Kinesiology and Health (3)
- KH 2211 Movement Sciences for Practitioners (3)

Area G. Major Courses (53-56)

Content:

Required Courses for Teacher Certification and Sport Coaching, Physical Activity, Health and Wellness concentrations (32):

- KH 3010 Skill Themes and Movement Concepts (3)
- KH 3020 Fitness and Physical Activity (3)
- KH 3030 Invasion Games (3)
- KH 3040 Net/Wall Games (3)
- KH 3070 Target and Field Games (3)
- KH 3080 Dance and Gymnastics (3)
- KH 3200 Instructional Skills for Physical Education and Physical Activity Professionals (3)*
- KH 3375 Injury Prevention and First Aid (2)
- KH 3610 Motor Learning and Development (3)
- KH 3710 Health Risk Behaviors- CTW (3)
- KH 4280 Psychology of Physical Activity (3)

Completion of KH 3010 is required before taking KH 3200, KH 3410 and KH 3420.

KH 3710 will fulfill the Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) requirement.

*For Teacher Certification, completion of KH 3200 with a “C+” or higher.

Methods and Curriculum for Teacher Certification concentration:
Required (24):

- EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities (3) (or equivalent)
- KH 3410 Assessment in Health and Physical Education (3)
- KH 3420 Curriculum in Health and Physical Education (3)
- KH 3700 Sexuality Education for P-12 (3)
- KH 4510 Contemporary Instructional Models for Pre-K and Elementary Physical Education (3)
- KH 4520 Contemporary Instructional Models for Secondary Physical Education (3)
- KH 4530 Contemporary Instructional Models for Health Education (3)
- KH 4540 Contemporary Instructional Models for Adapted Physical Education (3)

Completion of KH 3410, KH 3420, KH 3700, KH 4510, KH 4520, KH 4530, and KH 4540 with a “C+” or higher is required along with permission from HPE faculty before taking KH 4710 and KH 4720.

Methods and Curriculum for Sport Coaching, Physical Activity, Health and Wellness concentration:
Required (21):

- KH 4350 Fitness Program Management (3)

Students must select courses from two disciplines and complete a minimum of six (6) hours of coursework in each of the two (2) disciplines for a total of 18 credit hours. Students must complete coursework with a grade of “C” or higher in each discipline class. Students can select courses with prefix ranges between 1000-4999.

- Business Administration (BUSA)
- Counseling and Psychological Services (CPS)
- Education (EDUC)
- Educational Psychology (EPY)
- Gerontology (GERO)
- Learning Technologies (LT)
- Nutrition (NUTR)
- Public Health (PH)
- Public Management and Policy (PMAP)
- Psychology (PSYC)
- Sociology (SOCI)
- Sport Coaching and Human Performance (KH)

Area H. Internship and Student Teaching (8)

First Aid and CPR Proficiency: All students must have current certifications in First Aid and CPR (including infant, child, and adult) at the time of application to student teaching or internships. Those certifications must remain current through the end of the student teaching/internship term. Students may demonstrate this proficiency by attaining the appropriate certifications from GSU Recreation Department, American Heart Association, local fire departments or the American Red Cross at www.redcrossatlanta.org/pdf/communitycourses.pdf. Please note: The skills test for first aid and CPR cannot be taken online.
Students must complete internship or student teaching coursework in Area H with a grade of “B” or higher for program completion. A grade of B or higher is required for students in the teacher certification concentration for recommendation for certification.

Required for Teacher Certification concentration (8):

- KH 4650 Opening School Experience (0)
- KH 4710 Student Teaching in Health and Physical Education, P-5 (4)
- KH 4720 Student Teaching in Health and Physical Education, 6-12 (4)

Students must post passing scores on the GACE Content Assessment, Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment, and edTPA in order to be recommended by Georgia State University for clear, renewable certification.

Required for Sport Coaching, Physical Activity, Health and Wellness Concentration (8):

- KH 4730 Physical Activity Internship I (4)
- KH 4740 Physical Activity Internship (4)

Total Program Teacher Certification concentration: minimum of 124 semester hours

Total Program SCPAHW concentration: minimum of 121 semester hours

4140 Human Learning and Development

Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies in Human Learning and Development

The Human Learning and Development concentration is an interdisciplinary program in the College of Education and Human Development. Courses are taught by faculty from the Departments of Counseling and Psychological Services; Early Childhood and Elementary Education; Educational Policy Studies; Educational Psychology, Special Education, and Communication Disorders; Learning Technologies; and Middle and Secondary Education.

This concentration provides students an opportunity to acquire a career-oriented range of skills and knowledge of this important field by choosing from the coursework in behavior and learning disabilities; child growth and development; counseling; deaf studies; educational psychology; family and community literacy; learning technologies; and research methods and problem solving.

Students should contact an advisor in the University Advisement Center or the College of Education and Human Development Office of Academic Assistance to declare the major. Students should declare their major by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation. A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required in order to pursue the program.

Program Degree Requirements
Areas A-E: Core Curriculum (42-43 hours)
(see section 1410 University Core Curriculum Requirements in the undergraduate catalog)

Area F. Preparation for the Major (18 hours)

Required (9 hours):

- EPY 2040 The Science of Learning (3)
- EPY 2050 Human Growth and Development (3)
- LT 2010 Computer Skills for the Information Age (3)

Choose Three Courses (9 hours):

- ASL 2001 Elementary Sign Language III (3)
- ASL 2002 Elementary Sign Language IV (3)
- EDRD 2200 Reading for Undergraduate Success (3)
- EDUC 2110 Investigating Critical and Contemporary Issues in Education (3)
- EDUC 2120 Exploring Socio-Cultural Perspectives on Diversity in Educational Contexts (3)

Research Methods and Problem Solving (15 hours)
Required (3 hours):

• EPRS 4905 Methods of Research in Education (3)
Choose Four Courses (12 hours):

- EDUC 4660 Field Based Research in Urban Education (3)
- EPRS 4500 Qualitative Research I (3)
- EPRS 4530 Quantitative Methods and Analysis in Education (3)
- EPRS 4910 Action Research (3)
- EPRS 4920 Educational Measurement (3)
- EPSF 4100 Critical Pedagogy (3)
- Other courses may be substituted with approval of the HLD program Coordinator and a faculty member in the Department of Educational Policy Studies.

Internship (3-9 hours)

Students should complete 3-9 hours of internship related to one or more of the disciplines chosen above.

Choose from the following repeatable courses.

- EDUC 4670 Internship in Human Learning and Development (3)
- EDUC 4982 Undergraduate Research in Urban Education (1-3)

Area H. Electives (11-18 hours)

Students may choose two courses from one of the disciplines listed above which were not previously selected or take courses numbered 1000 level or above to fulfill the elective requirement.

Reminder: Students must earn 39 semester hours at Georgia State University in courses numbered 3000 or above with an average grade of at least a C (2.00 GPA).

4150 Middle Level Education

Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Science in Education in Middle Level Education

The B.S.E. major in Middle Level Education prepares outstanding middle level educators who can meet the needs of young adolescents in today’s diverse, highly technological, and changing society. Graduates have a well-developed content knowledge in two fields (language arts, mathematics, reading, science, and/or social studies) and have the option to pick up a third general curriculum concentration in Special Education. Successful completion of this program, the appropriate GACE Content Assessment tests, Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment, and edtPA leads to a recommendation for licensure for grades four through eight in the areas of concentration. Students may also choose to add a concentration in Special Education which leads to certification in P-12 Special Education General Curriculum or a concentration in ESOL which leads to an ESOL Endorsement for teaching English Language learners in grades 4-8.

Program Admission

Students are required to apply for teacher education after completing Areas A-F. To be accepted into teacher education:

- students must have a 2.50 composite grade point average on all undergraduate coursework previously completed;
- students must present passing scores on the GACE Program Admission Assessment or demonstrate an exemption upon application to an initial educator preparation program;
- students must complete the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment;
- students must have successfully completed Areas A through F of the program of study; and
- students may be asked to participate in an interview and/or writing sample as a part of the application process.

Program Financial Information

B.S.E majors must pay all tuition and fees charged by the University and the College. A lab fee of $125 will be charged at the time students register for the student teaching experience. Educator preparation students must be aware that extra cost such as tort liability and transportation will be incurred at various times during the completion of various teacher education field experiences, particularly during the students’ senior year. The cost of the edTPA portfolio submission is $300.00, which will also be associated with student teaching.

Program Academic Regulations

Pre-Service Certificate: Upon admission to a teacher education program, students will be contacted by the College’s Office of Academic Assistance office with instructions to claim enrollment in their program and submit a GaPSC Pre-Service Certificate Application. The pre-service certificate is required for placement in required field experiences or clinical practice.

Certification: Students must post passing scores on the GACE Content Assessments, Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment, and edTPA in order to be recommended by Georgia State University for clear, renewable certification.

Program Degree Requirements

B.S.E. Middle Level Education

Students must complete 42 semester hours in Areas A-E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum with the recommendations listed in this section. Courses in Area A must be completed with “C” or higher grades.

Semester hours are shown in parentheses following an entry.
Area A. Essential Skills

Students who choose mathematics or science as one of their areas of concentration should select pre-calculus or a more advanced mathematics course) to fulfill the mathematics requirement.

Area C. Humanities and Fine Arts

Students who choose language arts as one of their areas of concentration should select ENGL 2110 World Literature 3), ENGL 2120 British Literature (3), or ENGL 2130 American Literature (3) to fulfill three semester hours of the Humanities and Fine Arts requirements.

Area D. Science, Mathematics, and Technology

Students who choose mathematics as one of their areas of concentration should select calculus of one variable (or a more advanced mathematics course) to fulfill three semester hours of the Science, Mathematics, and Technology requirements. Students who choose science as one of their concentration areas are encouraged to choose CHEM 1101K and CHEM 1102k or BIOL 1103K and BIOL 1104K. Students who choose Social Studies as an area of concentration are encouraged to choose GEOG 1112 and GEOG 1113.

Area E. Social Science

Students who choose social studies as one of their areas of concentration should select either AAS 1140 Introduction to African and African-American History and Culture (3), AAS 2010 Introduction to African-American Studies (3), ANTH 1102 Introduction to Anthropology (3), ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3), ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3), GEOG 1101 Introduction to Human Geography (3), or HIST 1140 Introduction to African and African-American History (3) to complete the Social Science Foundations requirement.

Area F. Preparation for a Major (18 semester hours)

Students must earn a grade of “C” or higher in each course used to fulfill Area F requirements.

Required (9):

- EDUC 2110 Investigating Critical and Contemporary Issues in Education (3)
- EDUC 2120 Exploring Socio Cultural Perspectives on Diversity (3)
- EDUC 2130 Exploring Teaching and Learning (3)

Select three (9):

With advisor approval, students select two additional 1000- or 2000-level courses for a minimum of six semester hours in one concentration area and one course for three semester hours in a second concentration area.

- Language Arts: ENGL 2110 World Literature, ENGL 2120 British Literature, or ENGL 2130 American Literature
- Reading: AL 2101 Introduction to Language (highly recommended prerequisite for Area G.1. AL course), ENGL 2110 World Literature, ENGL 2120 British Literature, or ENGL 2130 American Literature

- Mathematics: MATH 2008 Foundations of Numbers and Operations (prerequisite for 3 required Area G.1 math courses) (3), MATH 2211 Calculus of One Variable I (prerequisite for 1 Area G.1 math course) (4), MATH 2212 Calculus of One Variable II (4) or MATH 2420 Discrete Mathematics (3)
- Sciences: CHEM 1101K and/or CHEM 1102, or BIOL 1103K and/or BIOL 1104K are recommended if not taken in Area D.
- Social Studies: GEOG 1101 Introduction to Human Geography, GEOG 1112 Introduction to Weather and Climate or GEOG 1113 Introduction to Landforms recommended if not taken in Area D

Area G. Major/Teaching Field (48-57 semester hours)

Students who have completed the above criteria and are ready to apply for the program must choose two content concentrations within Area G.1 from the following list: Language Arts, Mathematics, Reading, Science, and Social Studies. In addition to fulfilling requirements for content concentrations, students may also choose to add a concentration in Special Education which leads to certification in P-12 Special Education General Curriculum or in ESOL which leads to an ESOL Endorsement for teaching English Language learners in grades 4-8.

G.1 Content Concentrations for Middle Level Education (24 hours)

In consultation with their advisors, students select TWO areas of concentration from among language arts, mathematics, reading, science, and social studies. Each area of content concentration consists of 12 semester hours of coursework, at least 6 of which must be numbered 3000 or higher. Students are expected to have completed all prerequisites prior to enrolling in any of the following courses requiring prerequisites. Students must earn a grade of “C” or higher in each course used to fulfill Area G.1 requirements.

Language Arts Concentration (12)

Required (3):

- EDLA 3200 Topics in Middle Childhood Language Arts (3)

Literature/Folklore

Select one course (3):

- ENGL 3040 Introduction to Literary Studies (3)
- ENGL 3290 English Fiction (3)
- ENGL 3850 American Poetry (3)
- ENGL 3860 American Drama (3)
- ENGL 3870 American Fiction (3)
- ENGL 3890 Contemporary Ethnic American Literature (3)
- ENGL 3910 The Tradition of Children’s and Young Adults’ Literature (3)
- ENGL 3920 Southern Literature (3)
- ENGL 3950 African-American Literature (3)
- ENGL 3960 African-American Literature by Women (3)
- ENGL 3970 Caribbean Literature (3)
- ENGL 4130 Shakespeare, Earlier Works (3)
- ENGL 4140 Shakespeare, Later Works (3)
- FOLK 3000 American Folklore (3)
- FOLK 4000 Georgia Folklore (3)
- EDLA 3230 Special Topics in the Middle Level Literature Curriculum (3)
- Another course may be selected with consent of advisor.

Composition
Select one course (3):

- ENGL 3080 History, Theory, and Practice of Argumentative Writing (3)
- ENGL 3090 History, Theory, and Practice of Expository Writing (3)
- ENGL 3100 Twentieth-Century Composition Theory and Practice (3)
- ENGL 3150A Introduction to Creative Writing – Poetry (3)
- ENGL 3150B Introduction to Creative Writing – Fiction (3)
- EDLA 3240 Special Topics in the Middle Level Composition Curriculum (3)
- Another course may be selected with consent of advisor.

Language
Select one course (3):

- AL 3021 Introduction to Linguistics (3)
- ENGL 3105 Practical Grammar (3)
- ENGL 3190 Language Analysis for Teachers of English (3)
- ENGL 3200 Introduction to the English Language (3)
- ENGL 3220 History of the English Language (3)
- ENGL 3955 Language in the African-American Community (3)
- SCOM 2900 Intercultural Communication (3)
- SCOM 4500 Visual Communication (3)
- Another course may be selected with consent of advisor.

Mathematics Concentration (12)
Required (12):

- EDMT 3350 Topics in Middle Childhood Mathematics (3)
- MATH 3050 Geometry and Spatial Sense (3)
- MATH 3070 Introduction to Probability and Statistics (3)
- MATH 3090 Algebraic Concepts

Reading Concentration (12)
Select four courses (12):

- EDLA 3200 Topics in Middle Grades Language Arts (3)
  - (Students selecting Language Arts as their second concentration may select another literacy elective with recommendation of their advisor.)
- EDRD 2200 Reading for Undergraduate Success (3)
Science Concentration (12-15)
Students are required to take a minimum of 12 credits hours with at least 6 hours of upper-level (3000-level or above) science courses. Students must take one course in each section listed below.

Required (3):

- EDSC 3250 Topics in Middle Grades Science (3)

Select one course (3-4):

- ASTR 1000 Introduction to the Universe (3)
- ASTR 1010K Astronomy of the Solar System (4)
- NSCI 3001 Integrated Science I: Physics and Astronomy (3)
- PHYS 1111K Introductory Physics I (4)

Select one course (3-4):

- CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4)
- CHEM 4590 Special Topics in Physical Chemistry (4)
- GEOL 1121K Introductory Geosciences I (4)
- GEOL 1122K Introductory Geosciences II (4)
- NSCI 3002 Integrated Science II: Chemistry and Geology (3)

Select one course (2-3):

- BIOL 2240 Introduction to Human Physiology (3)
- BIOL 2300 Microbiology and Public Health (3)
- BIOL 2800 Introduction to Molecular Biology (2)
- NSCI 3003 Integrated Science III: Geology and Biology (3)

Social Studies Concentration (13-15)
Required (7):

- EDSS 3400 Topics in Middle Grades Social Science/History (3)
- HIST 4310 Georgia History (4)

Select two courses (6-8):

North American or World Studies

- HIST 3200 North America before 1800 (4)
- HIST 3210 United States in the Nineteenth Century (4)

The B.S.E. in Special Education prepares students to teach children and youth with mild to moderate behavior and learning disabilities (e.g., dyslexia and other specific learning disabilities, attention disorders, emotional behavior disorders); mild, moderate, severe, and profound intellectual disabilities; and autism spectrum disorders; and hearing impairments (e.g., deaf or hard of hearing). Students entering the B.S.E. will choose a concentration in adapted curriculum, general curriculum, or deaf education and learn to work with children and youth across the lifespan (e.g., children in preschool through 12th grade; adolescents; and adults) in a variety of settings (e.g., separate specialized schools, typical school settings, restrictive school settings such as alternative, residential, and juvenile justices, cognitive and behavioral specialty agencies, and resource and inclusion settings), and across languages (i.e., American Sign Language and English) and modes (i.e., spoken or signed) as well as in collaborative/co-teaching models. Graduates across concentrations will be prepared to work with children and youth with special needs successfully via a curriculum that focuses on evidence-based practices that prepares them to differentiate instruction for this unique population in a variety of education and therapeutic settings. Graduates are provided coursework and practicum experiences resulting in knowledge of characteristics, curriculum, instructional strategies, and classroom management procedures.

Program Admission

To be accepted into teacher education:

- students must have a 2.50 overall grade point average on all undergraduate coursework previously completed;
- students must have successfully completed all courses in areas A-F;
- students must have completed at least six (6) hours in their chosen area of content concentration;
- students must present passing scores on the GACE Program Admission Assessment or demonstrate an exemption upon application to an initial educator preparation program;
- students must complete the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment;
- students must show proof of tort liability insurance.

Program Academic Regulations

Program of Study: Students must complete 42 semester hours in Areas A-E of the Undergraduate Core Curriculum

Pre-Service Certificate: Upon admission to a teacher education program, students will be contacted by the College’s Office of Academic Assistance office with instructions to claim enrollment in their program and submit a GaPSC Pre-Service Certificate Application. The pre-service certificate is required for placement in required field experiences or clinical practice.

Certification: Students must post passing scores on the GACE Content Assessment, Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment, and edTPA in order to be recommended by Georgia State University for clear, renewable certification.

Program Financial Information

B.S.E majors must pay all tuition and fees charged by the University and the College. A lab fee of $125 will be charged at the time students register for the student teaching experience. Educator preparation students must be aware that extra cost such as tort liability and transportation will be incurred at various times during the completion of various teacher education field experiences, particularly during the students’ senior year. The cost of the edTPA portfolio submission is $300.00, which will be associated with student teaching.

4200 Minor in Educational Psychology

Department of Educational Psychology, Special Education and Communication Disorders
850 College of Education Building and Human Development, 404-413-8040
esc.education.gsu.edu/
Laura Fredrick, Chair

The minor is designed to provide undergraduate students with knowledge and expertise in Educational Psychology. Educational Psychologists are interested in applications of psychology to education, broadly defined. A minor in Educational Psychology will allow students to explore learning and teaching in classrooms as well as other educational outreach programs. Such explorations, along with students’ knowledge of major content areas, will provide viable possibilities for future careers and a deeper appreciation for learning in a variety of contexts.

Coursework counting toward the minor cannot also count toward Area A-E of the undergraduate degree.

A grade of C or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

The coursework in the minor will include three required courses focusing on Educational Psychology to ensure students explore and research critical areas of the field.

A. Required (9):

- EDUC 2130 Exploring Learning and Teaching (3)
- EPY 2050 Human Growth and Development (3)
- EPY 4960 Seminar in Educational psychology (3)

B. Students must select 9 hours (at least 6 hours at or above the 3000 level) from the following list:

- EDUC 2120 Exploring Sociocultural Perspectives of Diversity in Educational Context (3)
- EPY 2040 The Science of Learning: Theories, Application, and Practice (3)
- EPY 3010 Learning, Memory, and Cognition in the Real World (3)
- EPY 4190 Introduction to Behavioral Analysis (3)
- EPY 4360 Learning and Development During Adolescence (3)
- Another course may be selected with consent of advisor.

Total Program: minimum of 18 Hours
Students who have questions regarding the Minor in Educational Psychology may contact the College of Education and Human Development Office of Academic Assistance at 404-413-8000 or the Department of Educational Psychology, Special Education, and Communication Disorders at 404-413-8040.

4250 Dual Immersion Early Childhood Education Endorsement

Department of Early Childhood and Elementary Education
550 College of Education Building
404-413-8020
Lynn Hart, Chair
ece.education.gsu.edu/

This endorsement is intended for candidates who are enrolled in a foreign language certification program or who have an active teaching certificate or license in foreign language education. This endorsement will prepare candidates for P-5 Dual Immersion classrooms. Candidates will learn about current research, curricula, and content-area teaching methods applicable to Dual Language settings. They will acquire knowledge of child development and elementary content standards and learn how to apply this knowledge in Dual Immersion classrooms.

Required (15):

- ECE 4397 Elementary Mathematics in Dual Immersion Settings (3)
- ECE 4430 Perspectives on Child Development for Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Students (3)
- ECE 4440 Biliteracy: Literacy Development in Multilingual Settings (3)
- ECE 4450 Content-Based Curricula, Instruction and Assessment for Dual Immersion Classrooms (3)
- FORL 4030 Teaching Diverse World Language Learners – Field Experience (3)
Total hours for endorsement: minimum of 15 semester hours

4300 Initial Certification in Special Education General Curriculum P-12

Department of Educational Psychology, Special Education and Communication Disorders
850 College of Education Building and Human Development
404-413-8040
Laura Fredrick, Chair
esc.education.gsu.edu/

This is an initial certification program for undergraduate students or post-baccalaureate at Georgia State University. Students seeking admission to this initial certification program must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5; have passing scores on the GACE Program Admission Assessment or demonstrate an exemption; and complete the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment, and tort liability insurance.

Undergraduate students at Georgia State University must meet the requirements jointly set by their major department and the Department of Educational Psychology, Special Education and Communication Disorders.

Pre-Service Certificate: Upon admission to a teacher education program, students will be contacted by the College’s Office of Academic Assistance office with instructions to claim enrollment in their program and submit a GaPSC Pre-Service Certificate Application. The pre-service certificate is required for placement in required field experiences or clinical practice.

Certification: Students must post passing scores on the GACE Content Assessment, Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment, and edTPA in order to be recommended by Georgia State University for clear, renewable certification.

Program Requirements

Students who do not satisfactorily pass a course (grade of ‘B’ or higher) must retake the course and satisfactorily pass the course prior to taking additional courses in the program. Courses may be repeated once.

The sequence of required certification courses are as follows:

- EPY 2050 Human Growth and Development (3)
- EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities (3)
- EXC 4560 Educational Evaluation of Students with Disabilities (3)
- EXC 4570 Individual and Classroom Management (3)
- EXC 4580 Instructional Methods for Students with Behavior Learning Disabilities (3)
- EXC 4590 Functional and Social Methods for Students with Behavior Learning Disabilities (3)
- EXC 4650 Opening School Experience (0)
- EXC 4661 Practicum I: Special Education (3)
- EXC 4671 Student Teaching in Special Education (3)
Total hours for certification: 24 semester hours

Undergraduate students also are required to complete EDUC 2110 Investigating Critical and Contemporary Issues in Education, EDUC 2120 Exploring Socio-Cultural Perspectives on Diversity in Educational Contexts, and EDUC 2130 Exploring Learning and Teaching.

Post-Baccalaureate students are required to complete 15 hours in a content concentration in social science, science, math, language arts, or reading if not already completed in an undergraduate program. This will be determined through a transcript review. Students can also take the 3 reading endorsement courses to satisfy requirements for “Highly Qualified.”

4310 Initial Certification in Healthcare Science Technology Education

Department of Middle and Secondary Education
600 College of Education Building
404-413-8060
Gertrude Tinker Sachs, Chair
mse.education.gsu.edu/

The department offers undergraduate courses to allow individuals from specific areas of healthcare to become teachers at middle and secondary schools based on occupational work experience, industry licensing and assessments, and an Associate’s Degree in a Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC) eligible healthcare field. Applicants to this program have qualified for the Healthcare Science Induction certificate in Georgia and are required to complete an approved program to convert to the Professional certificate. This GaPSC Approved program leads to initial certification only.

Students seeking Career and Technical Specializations certification who do not hold an associate’s degree must pass the GACE Program Admission Assessment within three (3) years of program admission or prior to program completion, whichever occurs first. All students must take Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment for program admission and pass the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment for program completion. Successful completion of the following courses qualifies a person for either a second Induction or Professional certificate, depending upon the current level of certification. Students are admitted through a special application process once a year in summer session; they may take these courses either as non-degree or degree-seeking students. Classes offered in fall and spring may be available in a synchronous online format.

Contact the Department of Middle and Secondary Education at 404-413-8060 for additional information.

Required (24):

- EDBT 3020 Instructional Development in Technology/Career Education (3)
- EDBT 3360 Foundations of Management and Safety in Technology/Career Education (3)
- EDBT 3690 Teaching Practicum in Technology/Career Education (3)
- EDBT 3700 Teaching Practicum in Technology/Career Education (3)
- EDBT 3710 Teaching Practicum in Technology/Career Education (3)
- EDBT 4250 Principles and Practices in Technology/Career Education (3)
The department offers undergraduate courses to allow individuals from specific areas of industry, information technology and other occupational fields to become teachers at middle and secondary schools based on occupational experience, industry licensing and assessments, and the minimum educational level required for the field. 5000 Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions

Undergraduate programs in the Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions are described in detail in this chapter. See subsections for specific program information as well as policies and procedures.

5010 General Information

The Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions is committed to the preparation of professionals in the areas of Nursing, Nutrition, Respiratory Therapy and Health Informatics. The programs are designed to meet the health and human service needs of the citizens of Georgia. Involvement in research and practice in the urban community is encouraged. The programs are responsive to the needs of students entering both first and second careers. Courses are delivered through a variety of modes including classroom and laboratory instruction, web-based instruction, and distance technology.

5010.30 Accreditation

The baccalaureate program in the School of Nursing is approved by the Georgia Board of Nursing and is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education. The Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs accredits the baccalaureate program in the Department of Respiratory Therapy in collaboration with the Committee on Accreditation for Respiratory Care Education. The Nutrition Science in the Department of Nutrition is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Dietetics Education of the American Dietetic Association.

5010.40 Degree Programs

The School of Nursing and Health Professions offers a Bachelor of Science degree with majors in nursing, nutrition science, and respiratory therapy. The School also has a Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies in Health Informatics.

5010.70 Admission to Professional Programs

Acceptance to Georgia State University into one of the majors in the School of Nursing and Health Professions allows a student to take prerequisite course work leading to the professional program. A separate application process is required for acceptance into the professional programs in nursing, nutrition, respiratory therapy and health informatics.
The professional program in nursing begins in the fall and spring semesters only. The professional programs in nutrition and respiratory therapy begin annually in the fall semester only. The B.I.S. in Health Informatics will have new cohorts in the Fall and Spring. Admission into these programs is highly competitive, and students are encouraged to inquire about admission criteria, policies, and deadlines as soon as possible. Admission information and requirements for each program are included in the section on the major.

It is highly recommended that a student wishing to enter the programs in nursing, nutrition science and respiratory therapy take one year of biology and one year of chemistry in high school.

Applicants for admission to the professional programs must be able to demonstrate prior to admission an ability to meet certain technical standards of performance which are necessary to carry out their activities as health professionals. They must be able to communicate effectively and efficiently in oral and written form. Applicants for admission must demonstrate the functional use of their senses that will allow them to elicit appropriate information, as well as to perceive nonverbal communications from patients or clients whom they are serving. Additionally, each of these applicants should be able physically to provide reasonable care and emergency treatment when necessary.

The School of Nursing and Health Professions reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student at any time in order to preserve and maintain the program’s standards of scholarship and conduct.

International applicants to the School of Nursing and Health Professions whose native language is not English, regardless of language of instruction, may be required to submit acceptable results from an English proficiency examination.

Each division may require other, more specific, technical abilities in its consideration of candidates for admission to its program.

5020 Academic Regulations

5020.10 Credit for Transfer Work

The specific credit for work done at other institutions that may apply toward a degree from the School of Nursing and Health Professions is determined by the Undergraduate Admissions Office, the University Advisement Center, the School of Nursing and Health Professions Office of Academic Assistance, and, if appropriate, department the student is applying for. Allowance of transfer credit by the Office of Admissions does not mean necessarily that all such credit will be accepted toward a degree from the School of Nursing and Health Professions.

5020.20 Credit for Transient Work

Students in the School of Nursing and Health Profession who wish to take course work at another college must have prior written approval from the University Advisement Center or the Office of Academic Assistance if they wish to apply that credit to a degree program. The student must be in good academic standing at Georgia State University. A student may not take more than four courses as a transient student. Courses that have been failed at Georgia State may not be retaken at another institution. Please consult section 1300 of this catalog for additional regulations pertaining to transient status.

5020.30 Clinical, Field Experience or Internship

As part of the degree completion requirements in the School of Nursing and Health Professions, the student will be placed in a clinical setting which requires the student to care for and/or be exposed to individuals and patients of all ages and with a variety of diagnoses and symptoms, some of which are communicable and infectious. However, unless otherwise required by law, the School of Nursing and Health Professions does not grant special consideration or waiver of any degree completion requirements, including placement in a clinical setting.

Please note that majors must complete a clinical program during their matriculation. Some students will be placed with a clinical affiliate that gives care to vulnerable populations or deals with sensitive information. As a result, the agency or affiliate may request a criminal background check and/or drug screen as a prerequisite for placement. If students use illegal drugs, have a criminal record before they declare their major, or acquire a criminal record after declaring their major, they might be prohibited from participating in the clinical program.

5020.40 Graduation

Coursework with a grade of D can satisfy no more than 12 semester hours of degree requirements. A minimum grade of C is required in all major courses. Certain programs may require a grade of C or higher in other courses as well. A 2.00 grade point average is required for graduation.

Any deviations from catalog requirements are unauthorized except by approval of the department, or by written petition filed through the Office of Academic Assistance and properly approved by the appropriate committee.

Please note that licensing boards or agencies for program-related occupations may deny, suspend or revoke a license if an applicant has a criminal history or licensee is convicted, pleads guilty or nolo contendre to a felony or other crime. Students should consult the licensing board corresponding to their intended occupations for more details. Successful completion of a program of study in the School of Nursing and Health Professions does not guarantee licensure, certification, or employment in the relevant occupation.

5030 Degree Requirements

The undergraduate programs in the School of Nursing and Health Professions are designed to comply with the University System of Georgia core curriculum requirements. The program requirements for Undergraduate Core Curriculum Areas A through E are listed in the “Core Curriculum” chapter of this catalog. Recommendations of specific courses in the core curriculum for nursing, nutrition science and respiratory therapy students are listed below as well as in each program section. Area F requirements for the major and other course requirements are found in the sections of this chapter which describe the specific major.

5030.10 Core Curriculum Recommendation
Area B: Institutional Options:

It is suggested that nursing majors take [PHIL 1010] as one of the two required courses, as critical thinking skills are an essential piece of the nursing profession.

Area C: Humanities and Fine Arts:

It is suggested that nursing majors take SPAN 1002 as one of the two required courses.

Area D: Science, Mathematics and Technology:

It is strongly recommended that respiratory therapy majors take [CHEM 1151K] and CHEM 1152K. For nutrition science majors, CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K is required. Health Informatics majors can select one two-course science sequence listed in section 1410.40 of the undergraduate catalog.

Area E: Social Sciences:

It is strongly recommended that nursing majors take PSYC 1101 as the social science foundations selection as it is a prerequisite to PSYC 3140.

5030.20 Program Admissions

The undergraduate programs in the Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions because of their professional nature, have more stringent admission requirements than those of Georgia State University.

Health Informatics

Admission is by application. All SNHP B.I.S. degree prerequisites must be completed for the Clinical Informatics concentration and all RCB B.I.S. degree prerequisites must be completed for the Health Information Technology Management or Health Administration Management concentrations, with a GPA of 3.0 or better. The prerequisites will be listed in the curriculum section of the BIS. Students generally apply at the end of their second year (sophomore) when prerequisite courses are complete and will begin this BIS program in the junior year. A new cohort starts each fall and spring semesters. As demand for this major grows, the need to limit the number of times a student can apply and additional admission criteria will be re-evaluated. The application deadline for Fall is March 15th. The application deadline for Spring is October 1st.

Nursing

The applicant must meet the general admission requirements of Georgia State University and the School of Nursing. Acceptance to the university allows the student applicant to register for prerequisite course work leading to the professional program in nursing and but does not guarantee automatic admission into the nursing program. Acceptance into the professional program requires a separate application and admissions process. Applicants are admitted on a space-available basis. The University gives some preference to applicants who began their college careers at Georgia State and meet all other criteria. Due to the high demand for this major, the need to limit the number of times a student can apply and additional admission criteria will be re-evaluated on a continuous basis and changes will be made as necessary.

Two program options are available in the undergraduate nursing program: the traditional option and ACE (Achieving the Curriculum Expeditiously). The traditional option is six semesters and does not require summer classes. The ACE option is four semesters, including summer over a 16-month period. Students in both options have identical degree requirements; however, the ACE option has more stringent application requirements.

The RN-BS is an undergraduate degree option, however it is only open to students who hold a current RN license and have graduate from an NLN-Accredited associate degree or diploma. The RN-BS only admits in the summer.

Traditional Option Prerequisites: The following courses are prerequisites, which must be completed before entering the traditional option in the fall or spring semester.

- BIOL 2110K, BIOL 2120K – Anatomy & Physiology 1 & 2
- BIOL 2300, BIOL 2310 – Microbiology with lab
- CHEM 1151K, CHEM 1152K – Survey of Chemistry 1 & 2 — PHYS 1111K, PHYS 1112K (Introductory Physics 1 & 2) OR BIOL 1103K, BIOL 1104K (Introductory Biology 1 & 2) are accepted.

It is recommended that NURS 2010 be taken before beginning the nursing courses, but it is not required.

Traditional Option Requirements:

1. Acceptance to Georgia State University.
2. Completion of 9 hours of the science courses in the prerequisite courses listed above and English 1101.
3. A minimum grade point average of 3.30. Higher grade point averages receive preference for admission. A minimum grade point average of 3.30 in the sciences courses listed in the prerequisite courses. In computing this GPA, only the first two attempts at a course will be will be considered. Even if a student repeats a course under Georgia State’s repeat-to-repeat policy, only the first two attempts will be considered in the Nursing admissions process.
4. Successful completion of the current version of the Test Essential Academic Skills (TEAS).
5. A two-page typed paper discussing the applicant’s position on a current social or health-related issue.
6. Two letters of reference. One should be academic (high school or college instructor); one should be professional (employer, volunteer organization, etc.).
7. An Application Cover Sheet form.
8. Answers to a short list of questions that are included with the Application Cover Sheet form.

ACE Option Prerequisites: The ACE option requires the following prerequisites, in addition to those listed for the traditional option, be completed before entering the first semester of the ACE option.

- All Core Curriculum requirements, Areas A-E
- NURS 2010 (Health and Human Development Across the Lifespan)
ACE Option Requirements:

1. Acceptance to Georgia State University.
2. Completion of 9 hours of the science courses in the prerequisites courses listed above and English 1101.
3. A minimum grade point average of 3.30. Higher grade point averages receive preference for admission. A minimum grade point average of 3.30 in the science courses listed in the prerequisite section. In computing this GPA, only the first two attempts at a course will be considered. Even if a student repeats a course under Georgia State's repeat-replace policy, only the first two attempts will be considered in the Nursing admissions process.
4. Successful completion of the current version of the Test Essential Academic Skills (TEAS).
5. A two-page typed paper discussing the applicant’s position on a current social or health-related issue.
6. Two letters of reference. One should be academic (high school or college instructor); one should be professional (employer, volunteer organization, etc.).
7. An Application Cover Sheet form.
8. Answers to a short list of questions that are included with the Application Cover Sheet form.

A person may apply to Nursing only twice. If not accepted on the first application, applicants who have earned fewer than 89 credit hours must meet with an advisor in the University Advisement Center. Applicants who have earned at least 89 credit hours and are not accepted on the first application must meet with an admission advisor in the School of Nursing.

A student who has a cumulative Georgia State GPA below 3.0 at the end of their first semester at Georgia State is permanently ineligible to apply to enter Nursing.

A student who has a cumulative Georgia State GPA below 3.3 at the end of their third semester at Georgia State is permanently ineligible to apply to enter Nursing.

Effective for Fall 2016 admissions round, pre-nursing applicants must have grade of B or higher in at least one course in each of the following four categories by the end of the freshman year:

- English (ENGL 1101 or 1102)
- Math (MATH 1070 or 1111)
- Science (BIO 2300 or CHEM 1151)
- Social Science (PHIL 1010, PSYC 1101, or SPCH 1000)

All applicants will be screened for this requirement.

Admission selection for both options is based on GPA, number of and grades earned in required science courses taken, score on the nursing entrance exam, letters of reference, and a social/health issue paper. If the applicant’s native language is not English, regardless of language of instruction, he or she may be required to submit acceptable results on the Georgia State Test of English Proficiency (GSTEP) or the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL).

It is important that applicants are aware of the current level of competition for admission. The program can accommodate only a limited number of students each year.

The application deadline for the fall semester is March 1. The application deadline for the spring semester is October 1. Early applications are advisable. Application requirements and information about the Test Essential Academic Skills (TEAS) Test are available on the Nursing website nursing.gsu.edu/academics/undergraduate/frequently-asked-questions/. The cost of the exam is the applicant’s responsibility.

Upon receipt of an acceptance letter, the student will be required to complete the Program Intake for Nursing School orientation on Brightspace’s Desire2Learn and attend an orientation meeting before the first semester of nursing classes begin. The student must complete required forms and health-related requirements prior to the first semester of nursing classes. The accepted student must submit to Nursing a current health record (and must keep this record current). Evidence of in-force liability insurance and current cardiopulmonary resuscitation certification by the American Heart Association is required for enrollment in clinical nursing courses. Students may be required to have a criminal background check and a drug screen based on hospital policy. It will be the student’s responsibility to pay for any cost associated with the criminal background check and/or drug screen.

When applying to the Georgia Board of Nursing to take NCLEX upon graduation, students will be required to complete a criminal background check and drug screen according to a Georgia law that went into effect in July 2008. Students may be required to provide documentation to the Georgia Board of Nursing explaining any such positive findings on the criminal background check. The Georgia Board of Nursing has the exclusive authority to issue a license for the Registered Professional Nurse and could decline to issue a license based on an applicant’s prior criminal record. Further information regarding this requirement can be obtained from the Georgia Board of Nursing or any other state licensing board where practice is contemplated.

Nutrition Science

Admission to the nutrition science program requires completion of prerequisite courses and a submission of an information form to the department. Information forms must be submitted to the SNHP Office of Academic Assistance by March 1.

Respiratory Therapy

Admission to the Department of Respiratory Therapy is limited. In addition to meeting the general admission requirements of the university, the applicant must meet the specific admission requirements and regulations of the Department of Respiratory Therapy. Acceptance into the program is based competitively on the factors of demonstrated academic ability, consistency of performance, personal qualifications, including motivation and interpersonal abilities.

International applicants whose native language is not English, regardless of language of instruction, must submit acceptable results from the Georgia State Test of English Proficiency (GSTEP). Because of the communication demands in the profession of respiratory therapy, both with patients and staff members, and the critical nature of clinical care, adequate verbal and written comprehension of English is necessary.

Individuals who desire to pursue respiratory therapy as a profession and show academic ability may apply for admission. Enrollment in the Department of Respiratory Therapy is limited and, therefore, early application is advisable. The application deadline is May 1st proceeding the fall semester in which admission is desired. The Office of Admissions evaluates the credentials of students transferring from other colleges and universities. Acceptance into the university does not ensure admission into the respiratory therapy program.

Students taking the prerequisite courses in colleges or universities other than Georgia State University should take equivalent course work.

Students are admitted into the professional courses in the fall of the junior year. A minimum grade point average of 2.50 is required. Higher GPAs receive preference for admission.

A.S. to B.S. Program

Requirements for Admission

- Admission to Georgia State University in the Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions with a major in respiratory therapy.
- A complete Advanced Standing application for admission to the respiratory care program.
- Notarized copy of RRT certificate.
- AARC Student Membership.
- GPA at least 2.5

Program Highlights

Bridge students must complete University core education requirements (see General Education Courses), as mandated by the University System for a Bachelor's degree. Many students have coursework from other schools that can transfer to satisfy some of the required prerequisite courses. Georgia State University also requires that 39 semester hours in the major area (Respiratory Therapy) be completed in residence (at Georgia State). The suggested courses are listed, which represent the most advanced coursework in the Bachelor program in the Bachelor degree program (See AreaG: Major).

Credit by Validation for 30 semester hours is given based on the RRT credential. This includes all clinical coursework.

Students must also demonstrate knowledge of the history and constitutions of the United States and Georgia by either completing an American History and an American Government course, or by taking exams to fulfill these requirements after enrollment at Georgia State. Information is available at advisement.gsu.edu/self-service/testing/georgia-history-and-constitution-legislative-requirements/.

Students have the option to Test Out of a Course, if they are competent in the course area, with the exception of the final capstone course, RT 4950, Directed Study (Contact course instructor for further
An Integrated B.S. to M.S. degree is an option to those who have a bachelor’s degree in another field and wish to enter the respiratory therapy profession. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

5040 Academic Advisement

The Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions is committed to providing advisement, counseling, and referrals to help students achieve academic success. Students in the School receive advisement from faculty members as well as from professional academic advisors in the Office of Academic Assistance located in the Urban Life Building Room 811. All students with 89 hours or less are advised by the University Advisement Center, advisement.gsu.edu. All students with 90 hours or more are advised by professional advisors located in the School of Nursing and Health Professions Office of Academic Assistance, snhp.gsu.edu/student-resources/academic-assistance/.

5050 Student Complaints, Petitions for Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals

The appeals procedure for students in the Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions will follow different courses depending on the nature of the student’s appeal. Please refer to University Information Section 1050.80 under Policies and Disclosures in this catalog or visit enrollment.gsu.edu/assistance/ online for details.

5060 Honors and Awards

Maymi Walker Chandler Memorial Scholarship: This award was established in memory of Maymi Walker Chandler in recognition of her commitment to the professional development of women. The award recognizes students who demonstrate academic excellence and leadership.

Kaiser Permanente Undergraduate Nursing Scholarship: These scholarships are funded by Kaiser Permanente, one of America’s leading healthcare organizations, and are given to undergraduate students in recognition of academic achievement.

Kaiser Permanente Endowed Nursing Scholarship: This scholarship was established to benefit graduate students who are interested in pursuing a career as a nurse educator.

Barbara Haltiwanger Nursing Scholarship Endowment: This award was established in memory of Barbara Haltiwanger. The scholarship is awarded to undergraduate students who are midway through their nursing education and who demonstrate academic excellence, exhibit character and motivation, and are committed to a career in adult health nursing.

Byrdine F. Lewis Clinical Practice Scholarship: This award was established to honor Mrs. Byrdine F. Lewis for whom the Georgia State University School of Nursing and Health Professions was named. The scholarship is awarded to undergraduate nursing students who have a strong academic record and who are committed to clinical practice in a hospital setting.

Merle Kennon Lott Scholarship: This award was established in memory of Merle Lott, who was Director of Nursing for the Dekalb County Health Department and a dedicated public health nurse in Georgia for over 30 years. It recognizes students who have demonstrated academic excellence and plan to pursue a career in public health nursing.

Cennette Fisher Jackson Scholarship: This scholarship was established to honor Dr. Cennette Fisher Jackson, a faculty member for 25 years in Nursing program. Awardees are undergraduate students in nursing who espouse the values Dr. Jackson personified: compassion, fairness, collaboration and respect for cultural diversity, and dignity in all people.

Daniel J. Sansone Memorial Scholarship: this award was created in memory of Daniel Sansone, son of Joseph Sansone, founder and CEO of Pediatric Healthcare, LLC. The award is given to an undergraduate student interested in pediatric nursing or respiratory therapy.

Gordon Seagraves Cummings Scholarship: Professor Gordon Cummings taught in the Georgia State University physical therapy program for 27 years. The scholarship recognizes individuals who are critical thinkers and caring, competent practitioner.

James Ancil Lewis Award: This award was established in memory of James Ancil Lewis and honors his exemplary work in respiratory therapy, from his graduation in 1973 until his death in 1992. The award is given to a junior in the program who exemplifies Mr. Lewis’ characteristics of service to others, particularly in clinical work and direct patient care.

Nutrition and Dietetics Scholarship: To provide scholarships for undergraduate students majoring in nutrition. Students must have a 3.0 GPA to be eligible.

Pediatria Healthcare Endowed Nursing Scholarship: To provide scholarships to Georgia State University undergraduate and graduate nursing students enrolled in the Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing. Students must have a Georgia State program GPA of 3.0 or higher, and be presently studying or will be studying pediatric nursing at the time of the awarding of the scholarship. Financial need will be taken into consideration.

The units in the School of Nursing and Health Professions may award honors. Criteria for honors are listed below:

1. Students must be recommended and approved by departmental faculty committee.
2. The residence requirements for graduation from Georgia State University must be fulfilled. No courses exempted or validated by examination are considered as being taken in residence.
3. The following grade point average requirements must be met:
   a. A minimum overall accumulated grade point average of 3.0 in all courses excluding professional program courses. This includes all courses applied toward the degree including courses transferred in.
   b. An accumulated grade point average of at least 3.5 in all professional program courses.
   c. Accumulated grade point average will be calculated on courses that apply to the degree including courses transferred in from other schools.

Awards are contingent on final clearance by the Office of Student Financial Aid. Any student receiving aid under any federal financial aid program is limited by the student’s “estimated cost of attendance” as to the total amount of aid that may be received. This applies to aid from all sources, public and private. You will find this information in your aid letter from the financial aid office or online in your financial aid record in PAWS.

5110 Health Informatics

Program Offered:

B. I. S. in Health Informatics

1228 Urban Life Center
404-413-1225
Tamara S. Melton, Program Director and Clinical Instructor
healthinformatics.gsu.edu

The Mission of this concentration is to prepare graduates to address the expanding complex information technology needs of our healthcare system.

The Goals of the program are as follows:

- A student graduating with a B.I.S. degree in Health Informatics will understand the systems and processes associated with health informatics in the areas of Clinical Informatics; Health Information Technology; and Health Administration Management.
- A student graduating with a B.I.S. degree in Health Informatics will be able to analyze and draw relevant conclusions associated with health informatics in the areas of Clinical Informatics; Health Information Technology; and Health Administration Management.
- A student graduating with a B.I.S. degree in Health Informatics will understand the role of and be able to effectively work in the health information, technology and administration industry.
- A student graduating with a B.I.S. degree in Health Informatics will be able to function as an effective member of a successful interdisciplinary healthcare team.
- A student graduating with a B.I.S. degree in Health Informatics will be an effective critical thinker.
- A student graduating with a B.I.S. degree in Health Informatics will be an effective oral and written communicator.

The Learning Outcomes are the following:

- A student graduating with a B.I.S. degree in Health Informatics will be able to analyze and evaluate the systems and processes associated with health informatics in the areas of Clinical Informatics; Health Information Technology; and Health Administration Management.
- A student graduating with a B.I.S. degree in Health Informatics will demonstrate the ability to effectively function in multifunction teams operating in the field.
- A student graduating with a B.I.S. degree in Health Informatics will present their analysis and evaluations of health information systems and processes as an integrated part of the health information industry and a larger health care system.

- A student graduating with a B.I.S. degree in Health Informatics will use critical thinking in their decision processes.
- A student graduating with a B.I.S. degree in Health Informatics will demonstrate effective oral and written communication skills.

Program Academic Regulations

A minimum grade of C (2.0) is required in all courses designated as health informatics major courses. All health informatics majors must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 to remain in the program.

The Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student at any time in order to preserve and maintain the school’s standards of scholarship and conduct. Furthermore, if the student has been sanctioned for any violation of university rules, procedures, or policies, an automatic review and determination of that student’s progress in the program will occur.

5110.10 Curriculum Requirements

Prerequisites – 42 hours of pre-requisites (Areas A through E) are listed first followed by Area F which includes pre-requisites related to Clinical Informatics or Health Information Technology Management/Health Administration Management (includes 18 hours that students must complete prior to admission to the BIS in Health Informatics).

Area F – Courses Related to BIS Program for Clinical Informatics concentration (18 hours)

- BIOL 2110K Human Anatomy and Physiology I (4)
- BIOL 2120K Human Anatomy and Physiology II (4)
- CIS 2010 Achieving Business Goals using Information Systems (3)
- SNHP 2010 Basic Medical Terminology (3)
- SNHP 2000 Introduction to Clinical Informatics (1)
- Elective (3)

Area F – Courses Related to BIS Program for Health Information Technology and Health Administration Management concentrations:

- ACCT 2101 Accounting I (3)
- ACCT 2102 Accounting II (3)
- ECON 2105 Macroeconomics (3)
- ECON 2106 Microeconomics (3)
- CIS 2010 Achieving Business Goals using Information Systems (3)
- SNHP 2010 Basic Medical Terminology (3)
Major – 60 hours total in junior/senior years
Area G – Core, 36 hours

- SNHP 3010 Advanced Medical Terminology (3)
- SNHP 3100 Electronic Health Records (3)
- SNHP 4010 Healthcare Leadership and Ethics (3)
- SNHP 4110 Future Trends – Telemedicine, Telehealth-CTW (3)
- CIS 3001 Managing Information Technology Projects (3)
- CIS 3730 Database Management Systems (3)
- SNHP 4120 Business Processes for Health Informatics (3)
- SNHP 4680 Introduction to Security and Privacy (3)

5120 Nursing

Program Offered:

- B. S. with major in Nursing

900 Urban Life Center
404-413-1200
Susan J Kelley PhD, RN, FAAN, Associate Dean & Chief Academic Officer for Nursing nursing.gsu.edu/

The Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions offers a curriculum leading to the Bachelor of Science degree with a major in nursing. Upon the completion of the baccalaureate program and subject to the rules of the Georgia Board of Nursing, the graduate becomes eligible to write the National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX) a requirement for becoming a registered professional nurse.

The university catalog in effect at the time a student is admitted to the nursing program will normally apply to a student. However, the nursing curriculum and other requirements are subject to change in order to comply with regulations of accrediting agencies or with institutional or university-system policies. Every effort will be made to notify students of such changes; however, it is the student’s responsibility to become aware of all current program and college requirements. Students who withdraw from the nursing sequence and wish to return will enter under the current catalog if space is available in nursing courses. Academic credit for nursing courses for a student who withdraws from the nursing program is valid for a five-year period. Abnormal Psychology (PSYC 3140) and Anatomy and Physiology I and II (BIOL 2110K – BIOL 2120K) must be completed within five years prior to beginning the nursing sequence. Special exceptions may be made to this policy for individuals who can document current utilization of the knowledge gained from these classes. All requests for exception will be reviewed by the Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Programs.

Academic advisers work closely with students to plan programs; however, it is the student’s responsibility to see that course prerequisites are met as required. The student is expected to follow the program planned in conjunction with the assigned academic and faculty advisers.

Clinical and didactic learning experiences may be scheduled at any time during the day and/or evening hours and on weekdays and weekends; personal schedules must be flexible to meet program requirements.
Students will be expected to provide their own transportation to/from both the classroom and clinical settings.

Nursing has the right to make changes in the program, curriculum and courses with appropriate notification. Students will be expected to accommodate these changes as long as the total hours required for graduation are not increased.

The student is responsible for adhering to policies and procedures specified in the Nursing Undergraduate Student Handbook. Degree requirements must be completed in order to meet the eligibility requirements for writing the NCLEX.

Program Financial Information

Clinical practice will require that the applicant obtain student uniforms that meet Nursing program standards. Additional costs that are the responsibility of the student include 1) the cost of cardiopulmonary resuscitation certification and liability insurance; 2) the cost of lab supplies; 3) the cost of a standardized testing program; and 4) the cost of criminal background checks and drug screens.

Program Academic Regulations

A minimum grade of C (2.0) is required in statistics and all courses designated as nursing. All nursing majors must maintain a minimum GPA of 2.0 to remain in the nursing sequence.

Enrollment in a course may be terminated at any time if, in the judgment of the instructor, the student’s behavior jeopardizes patient safety. This termination would result in a course failure and may result in dismissal.

A student may repeat a nursing course in which a grade of D, U, F or WF was received one time only. Failure of the repeated course or a second nursing course results in termination from the program. In the event a student is unsuccessful in NURS 3510, NURS 3610, NURS 3710 or NURS 3810, the student may take one new clinical course (NURS 3510, NURS 3610, NURS 3710, NURS 3810) concurrently with the course that must be repeated.

The Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student at any time in order to preserve and maintain the school’s standards of scholarship and conduct. Furthermore, if the student has been sanctioned for any violation of university rules, procedures, or policies, an automatic review and determination of that student’s progress in the program will occur.

The procedure for re-entering students may be found in the previous section entitled “Admission Requirements.”

Each teaching team establishes the attendance policies for classroom and clinical experiences. In general, however, all learning experiences are required. Due to the complexity involved in selecting and supervising clinical learning experiences, students are required to complete all assignments promptly.

Selected achievement tests are required throughout the program. An end-of-program exit activity will be required of all nursing students.
Additional information, including information on program, policies and procedures, can be found in the Nursing's Undergraduate Student Handbook. Students are responsible for the information in this handbook as well as that in other university publications.

5120.10 Curriculum Requirements

Area B: Institutional Options:

It is suggested that nursing majors take PHIL 1010 as one of the two required courses, as critical thinking skills are a vital part of the nursing profession.

Area C: Humanities and Fine Arts:

It is suggested that nursing majors take SPAN 1002 as one of the two required courses.

Area D: Science, Mathematics and Technology:

It is recommended that nursing majors take CHEM 1151K and CHEM 1152K or BIOL 1103K and BIOL 1104K or PHYS 1111K and PHYS 1112K.

Area E: Social Sciences:

It is recommended that nursing majors take PSYC 1101 as the social science foundations selection, as it is a prerequisite for [PSYC 3140].

Area F: Courses Related to the Program of Study (18)

- BIOL 2110K & BIOL 2120K Human Anatomy and Physiology I & II (8)
- BIOL 2300 Microbiology and Public Health (3)
- BIOL 2310 Microbiology and Public Health Lab (1)
- NURS 2010 Health and Human Development Across the Lifespan (3)
- NURS 2060 Pathophysiology (3)

Area G: Major (49)

- NURS 2040 Conceptual Foundations of Nursing and Trends (1)
- NURS 2061 Pharmacology (3)
- NURS 2080 Basic Concepts of Nursing Care (3)
- NURS 2160 Basic Health Assessment and Nursing Skills (6)
- NURS 3510 Caring For Adult Populations (6)
- NURS 3610 Caring for Childbearing Families (5)
- NURS 3710 Caring for Children and Adolescents (5)
- NURS 3810 Psychiatric/Mental Health Care for Populations (5)
- NURS 4510 Caring for Families and Communities (5)
- NURS 4600 Leadership and Management in Nursing (3)
- NURS 4610 Senior Practicum (4)
NURS 4620 Complex Health Care Problems Across the Lifespan (3)

Area H: Allied Fields (14)

- SNHP 3000 Communication/Cultural Diversity (3)
- NURS 3300 Human Services Policy, Planning and Trends (3)
- NURS 3500 Research Methods (3)
- NUTR 3200 Introduction to Clinical Nutrition (2)
- PSYC 3140 Abnormal Psychology (2)

Total Program Hours Required: a minimum of 123 semester hours

RN-BS Bridge Program
The RN to BS Bridge program is designated for licensed Registered Nurses with an associate degree or nursing diploma to earn a Bachelors of Science with a major in nursing. The program is three semesters, 30 credit hours, online program. For the RN-BSN Bridge Program only, the 39 hour Residency Requirement, which is a requirement of all Bachelor degree programs at Georgia State University is waived. Admission to this program is only once per year in the summer.

Admission requirements

- Acceptance to Georgia State University with nursing as the designated major.
- Graduation from an NLN-accredited associate degree or diploma program.
- Current registration to practice as a registered professional nurse in Georgia.
- Evidence of practice – a current resume must be submitted. Individualized evaluation and testing may be done for students with less than 1000 hours of clinical practice in the past 3 years.
- Two letters of reference – one professional and one academic. Academic reference must come from school of nursing attended. Professional reference must come from an immediate supervisor. If a student has been out of school for more than 5yrs then a reference from a work colleague may take the place of the academic reference.
- An essay, 2 pages maximum, discussing the students career goals and plan for achieving these goals.
- Grade point average of at least 2.8.
- Must have finished all of the Georgia State University Core requirements areas A-E prior to acceptance to the nursing program.
- A minimum grade of C or higher is required for all prerequisites.
- Upon receipt of an acceptance letter from the School of Nursing, the student will be required to establish contact with the Office of Records & Information and to complete required forms and health-related requirements prior to entry into the nursing sequence.
- The following prerequisites must be completed prior to completing the program:
  - ENGL 1101, ENGL 1102, (Composition I and II)
  - MATH 1101 or MATH 1111 (Math Modeling or College Algebra)
  - BIOL 2110K and BIOL 2120K (Human Anatomy & Physiology I and II w/labs)
  - Sequence of two science courses with labs from the following: CHEM 1151K and CHEM 1152K (Survey of Chemistry I and II w/ labs) OR BIOL 1103K and BIOL 1104K (Introductory Biology I and II w/ labs) OR PHYS 1111K and PHYS 1112K (Introductory Physics I and II w/ labs)
  - MATH 1070 (Elementary Statistics)
Credit is given for the following courses based on R.N. license, successful completion of 7 credit hours and successful completion of the NURS 3490 Professional Concepts bridge course: NURS 2061, NURS 3510, NURS 3610, NURS 3710, NURS 3810, NURS 4610, NURS 4620 and NUTR 3200.

The student must present his or her current license to practice as a registered nurse in the state of Georgia to the academic adviser no later than the time of registration for the first nursing courses. The license number will be recorded at that time. The Georgia Board of Nursing recommends that copies not be made due to the risk of unauthorized duplication’s.

For general questions about the RN-BS bridge program please contact the Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions Office of Academic Assistance at 404-413-1000.

Accreditation

The baccalaureate program is approved by the Georgia Board of Nursing. The baccalaureate and master’s programs are accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education.

The School maintains membership in the Council of Member Agencies of the Southern Council on Collegiate Education for Nursing of the Southern Regional Education Board, and the American Association of Colleges of Nursing.

Honors and Awards

Students may graduate with honors if the criteria listed under the “Honors” section of this chapter are met.

Evangeline B. Lane Founders Award: This award is given to all graduating senior students in nursing who have a 3.5 overall average in those courses required for the Bachelor of Science degree in nursing and a 3.67 average in the nursing courses. These recipients will receive a certificate of achievement.

The Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions is home to the Epsilon Alpha Chapter of the nursing honor society, Sigma Theta Tau International.

The Excellence in Pediatric Nursing is an award given by Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta to an individual in each graduating class who has demonstrated high academic achievement and interest in Pediatric Nursing.

5130 Nutrition Science

Program Offered:

- B. S. in Nutrition Science
The Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions offers a Bachelor of Science degree in nutrition science. The program provides a strong foundation for those interested in positions in applied sciences or for those pursuing pre-professional (medical, dental, occupational therapy, speech pathology, and dietetics) studies. After completing the core requirements, students take courses in physiology, and nutrition (required for the major) and may take additional courses in biology, biochemistry, chemistry, and physics.

Student outcomes associated with the Nutrition Science program.

1. Demonstrate how to locate, interpret, evaluate, and use professional literature.
2. Use current information technologies to locate and apply evidence based guidelines.
3. Demonstrate effective oral and written communication skills.
4. Demonstrate advocacy and negotiation skills.
5. Apply knowledge of the role of environment, food, and lifestyle choices in health and disease.
6. Describe the role of essential nutrients in health promotion and disease prevention.
7. Determine nutrient needs across the lifespan.
8. Integrate knowledge of the use of nutrients at the molecular, cellular and organ level.
9. Integrate genetic, physiologic and biochemical mechanisms by which food and nutrients promote optimal health.
10. Use the scientific method in the application of research methodologies.
11. Interpret basic statistics used in nutrition and medical research.
12. Demonstrate ability to critically evaluate information.
13. Apply theoretical information to solve practical problems.

Program Degree Requirements

Students must have a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 and a science GPA of 2.5 to register for 3000 and 4000 level nutrition courses. Any grade below a C is not acceptable toward the degree. A minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 is required to receive the degree.

Area A: MATH 1113 is a prerequisite for CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K.

Area D: CHEM 1211K and CHEM 1212K are required as the lab science sequence.

Area F: Courses Related to the Program of Study (18)

CHEM 1211K, CHEM 1212K, CHEM 2400, NUTR 2100, Choose one or more of the following classes for a total of 4 hours: BIOL 2107k, BIOL 2500, BIOL 2800, PERS 2001, PERS 2002, PHYS 1111k
Area G: Major (60)

Required Courses (46)

- SNHP 3010 Advanced Medical Terminology (3)
- BIOL 3240 Human Physiology (3)
- BIOL 3250 Human Physiology Laboratory (1)
- NUTR 3105 Normal Nutrition through the Life Cycle (3)
- NUTR 3150 Food Science (3)
- NUTR 3500 Macronutrient Nutrition (3)
- NUTR 3700 Micronutrient Nutrition (3)
- NUTR 4100 Energy, Metabolism, and Obesity (3)
- NUTR 4108 Nutrition Assessment (3)
- NUTR 4200 Nutrition and Disease (3)
- NUTR 4280 Nutritional Genomics (3)
- NUTR 4400 Nutrition Intervention (3)
- NUTR 4950 Nutrition Seminar for Seniors-CTW (3)
- NUTR 4955 Nutrition and Food Policy (3)
- NUTR 4960 Nutrition and Physical Fitness (3)
- SNHP 3000 Communication and Cultural Diversity (3)
- SNHP 3500 Research Methods (3) or NUTR 3010 Introduction to Research (3)

Electives (14)
Any other 3000 or 4000-level NUTR course; CHEM 3100 (Organic Chemistry I Lab), CHEM 3110 (Organic Chemistry II Lab), CHEM 3410 (Organic Chemistry II), PHYS 1111K (Introductory Physics I), PHYS 1112K (Introductory Physics II), CHEM 4600 (Biochemistry I), BIOL 3240 (Human Physiology), BIOL 3250 (Human Physiology Laboratory), BIOL 3800 (Molecular Cell Biology), BIOL 3810 (Molecular Cell Biology Lab), BIOL 3900 (Genetics). Other electives may be used if approved by advisor. 1000 or 2000-level courses will not count as electives in Junior or Senior years.

Total Program Hours Required: a minimum of 120 semester hours

5140 Respiratory Therapy

Programs Offered:

- B.S. in Respiratory Therapy

Online and Traditional Advanced Standing Degree in Respiratory Therapy (A.S. to B.S)

Department of Respiratory Therapy
1228 Urban Life Building
404-413-1225
Douglas S. Gardenhire, Interim Chair
Robert Pettignano, MD, Medical Director
Respiratory therapy is a health care profession dedicated to the support and management of individuals with abnormalities or deficiencies of the cardiopulmonary system. The respiratory therapist is an expert in therapeutic and diagnostic modalities associated with the pulmonary system, as well as the heart. He or she must have a working knowledge of chemistry, microbiology, and physiology as well as respiratory therapy. This background affords the therapist the ability to become proficient in working with respiratory life support systems. Under the guidance and supervision of a physician, the therapist treats by employing academic knowledge and technical skill for direct patient care. For a dedicated man or woman who finds a service field rewarding, respiratory therapy offers a career opportunity as a vital member of the health care team that is both personally and financially rewarding.

The Department of Respiratory Therapy offers a program that leads to a Bachelor of Science degree. The program provides classroom study with observation, clinical experience, independent study, and seminars. The Georgia State University respiratory therapy program is fully accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Respiratory Care (CoARC). The program provides classroom study, laboratory study and observation, clinical experience, computer-assisted instruction and simulation, seminars, and independent study. Classes generally meet on a daily basis from approximately 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Clinical courses in area hospitals (clinical affiliates) meet generally from 6:45 AM to 3:15 PM.

The overall purpose of the Department of Respiratory Therapy is to provide a quality education that is relevant and professionally sound to meet the respiratory therapy needs of the health care community. Inherent to this purpose is the goal to prepare respiratory therapists who are able to demonstrate the attitudes, skills, and knowledge required to meet the changing needs of the community. It will be necessary for the respiratory therapist to cooperate with all members of the health care team in identifying and solving the problems related to respiratory diseases and disorders of the cardiopulmonary system. The respiratory therapist must be able to think critically, communicate effectively, demonstrate good judgment, and provide self-direction. It is a primary objective of the respiratory therapy program to educate well-qualified, competent respiratory therapists who demonstrate leadership ability.

The baccalaureate degree program in respiratory therapy seeks to establish an atmosphere in which the student achieves respect for the dignity and worth of the individual, the capacity for critical thinking, a genuine desire for knowledge, and the realization of his or her own potential. Graduates of the baccalaureate program are qualified to enter the Registry Examination System of the National Board for Respiratory Care (NBRC).

Clinical Course Requirement

Students who must complete a clinical component as part of their program of study must complete the School of Nursing and Health Professions Health Form and provide evidence of current tuberculosis status, immunization for hepatitis B, and review of current CDC guidelines on universal precautions. The health form and review of CDC guidelines on universal precautions must be updated annually. Clinical agencies may require additional evidence of health status. It is the responsibility of the student to consult with the graduate program director in their academic unit prior to beginning a clinical assignment. Liability insurance must be purchased before the clinical course begins.

Criminal Background Check and Drug Screen
Your application for licensure may ask you to respond to questions regarding any violations of federal, state or local law. You may be required to provide documentation to the state licensing board explaining any such occurrence. The individual state licensing agencies have exclusive authority to issue a license and could decline to issue such a license based on an applicant’s prior criminal record.

Additionally, many of the clinical sites with which we have a clinical agreement require criminal background checks, finger printing and drug screen prior to allowing the student to be placed in the facility. The clinical facility has the right to deny the student an internship in the facility based on the findings of the criminal background check or drug screen.

A.S. to B.S. Program

The Department of Respiratory Therapy has a comprehensive advanced standing policy. Students who are graduates of CoARC-approved A.S. degree programs and are Registered Respiratory Therapists (RRT) may apply for advanced standing to the B.S. degree program. The department utilizes the following mechanisms to assess the awarding of credit in advanced standing: transfer credit, credit for professional credentials and credit for specialty exams from NBRC and courses offered from the AARC. Notarized proof of completion of specialty exam or course must accompany the application. The department maintains a philosophy of educational flexibility to meet the needs of the profession. The student has the option of testing out of the course, taking the course online or attending the class on campus. Students must complete all general education course requirements before taking respiratory therapy courses. All students must meet the GSU 39 hour upper division residency requirement that requires students to take 39 hours of 3000-4000 level course work at Georgia State University. Students must complete all general education course requirements before taking respiratory therapy courses.

Program Financial Information

During the junior year, students can expect to pay approximately $1400 for uniforms, stethoscopes, student liability insurance, books and background check. In the senior year, expenses are estimated at approximately $1000. This includes books and expenses related clinical training, NBRC self-assessment exams.

Program Academic Regulations

A minimum grade of C is required in all major, major-field-related, and mathematics and natural sciences courses for graduation. If a student’s progress is interrupted at any point in the program through withdrawal or unsatisfactory performance, the student will no longer be in the program. If an individual applies to reenter the program, consideration will be given on the same basis as any new applicant. Curriculum changes are made whenever necessary to keep the learning experiences up to date and relevant in this rapidly changing technological field. Students will be expected to subscribe to these changes whenever they are necessary.

Students are expected to provide their own transportation to clinical training sites. Students are expected to comply with the policies and regulations of the division regarding absences, tardiness, standards of performance, conduct, dress code for the clinical areas, and other regulations as specified. A copy of these policies and regulations may be obtained from the division and will be given to all entering students.
Respiratory therapy courses are intended to be taken by students majoring in the Department of Respiratory Therapy. All professional courses involving a component of clinical training are open only to professional program majors.

Program Degree Requirements

Semester hours are shown in parentheses following an entry. Requirements for areas A through E of the undergraduate core curriculum are listed in the “Core Curriculum” chapter of this catalog. Area D, F and G apply to both B.S. Respiratory Therapy students and A.S. to B.S. students.

Area D: CHEM 1151K and CHEM 1152K are strongly recommended as the lab science sequence.

7010.20 Mission of the J. Mack Robinson College of Business

The J. Mack Robinson College of Business of Georgia State University is committed to academic excellence through advancing the creation and dissemination of knowledge in business and management. Moreover, the college seeks to prepare its students for the practice of management with the knowledge and skills needed to remain effective in a global, culturally diverse, and technologically advanced world that is characterized by rapid change and complex interdependencies. As an academic unit of Georgia State University, the Robinson College seeks to add value to private, public, and not-for-profit organizations through excellence in its research, education, and outreach programs. The college enjoys a location that is distinctive among business schools and is committed to taking full advantage of its proximity to multinational corporations, entrepreneurial enterprises, federal, state, and city agencies, and not-for-profit organizations.

7010.21 Mission of the B.B.A. Program

The mission of the Bachelor of Business Administration (B.B.A.) program is to provide a broad general education and the core business knowledge and skills to prepare both traditional and nontraditional students for entry-level positions in private, public, and not-for-profit organizations and to stimulate in students a desire for lifelong learning. The program relies on a complement of full-time and part-time faculty using the most effective educational methods and technology to meet this mission.
7010.22 Objectives of the B.B.A. Program

The faculty seeks to fulfill the mission of the B.B.A. program by accomplishing the following objectives:

- Students will demonstrate effective communication skills.
- Students will effectively and efficiently use computer technology.
- Students will effectively and efficiently analyze and solve business problems.
- Students will function effectively as team members.
- Students will demonstrate a desire for lifelong learning.

7010.30 Accreditation

The J. Mack Robinson College of Business is accredited by the AACSB International, the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. The accounting programs of the college also hold accounting accreditation granted by the AACSB. The Institute of Health Administration is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Management Education. The program in hospitality administration is accredited by the Accreditation Commission on Programs in Hospitality Administration.

7010.40 Bachelor's Degree Offered

The Robinson College of Business offers the Bachelor of Business Administration with ten majors. The requirements for the B.B.A. degree are shown later in this chapter. A degree is awarded only after admission to and completion of the prescribed program in accordance with the specific degree requirements and academic regulations of the college and the university.

7010.50 Tutorial Facilities

Tutorial facilities are available to students who may need assistance with writing or mathematics and are described in section 3000, College of Arts and Sciences.

7020 Academic Regulations

Students seeking a degree in the Robinson College of Business are encouraged to become familiar with the academic regulations of the university that are given elsewhere in this catalog. The sections concerning transfer requirements and the university degree policies, including the residence requirement, the core curriculum, the constitutions and histories requirement, application for graduation, academic recognitions, withdrawal from classes, incomplete grades, and scholastic discipline, are of particular importance. (Consult the index for the page numbers of these sections.) The college regulations discussed below should also be read carefully.

7020.10 Credit Transferred from Other Institutions

Some majors require that transfer credit for upper-level major courses be no more than five years old at the time the student enrolls in the B.B.A. program. Contact the Office of Undergraduate Academic Assistance for further information.
Course credit transferred from two-year colleges shall apply only toward freshman- or sophomore-level credit.

No more than 27 semester credit hours of course work earned through correspondence or extension will be accepted toward the B.B.A. degree. Courses completed through correspondence or extension may not apply toward junior- or senior-level credit.

Re-enrollment after Transferring Elsewhere: Undergraduate students who enroll at another institution as regular students (as opposed to transient- or visiting-student status) will be considered as having transferred to that institution. If such students later re-enroll in the B.B.A. program, regardless of the length of the absence, they will be subject to the curricular degree requirements in effect at the time of their return. Such students are encouraged to discuss their transfer to the other institution with their academic advisor in advance if they intend to apply this work toward a degree of the Robinson College of Business. Students may not take courses for degree credit at another institution during the semester they expect to graduate from Georgia State University.

7020.20 Policy on Allowing Undergraduates to Take Graduate Courses

Students with a cumulative grade point average of 3.50 or higher who have at least 18 semester hours of credit at Georgia State University and who are in their senior year may petition to take up to two graduate courses in the Robinson College of Business in lieu of undergraduate courses. Students interested in petitioning should contact the Office of Undergraduate Academic Assistance for a statement of restrictions and procedures pertaining to this policy.

7020.30 Minimum Grade Requirements for B.B.A. Students

A grade of C- or higher is necessary to receive degree credit in the following required courses in the B.B.A. degree program: Acct 2101-2102, Econ 2105-2106, CIS 2010, BusA 2106; all the courses in the junior-year business core; the junior-year communication requirement; all the courses in the major; BusA 4980; the junior/senior RCB electives.

In addition to the minimum grade requirements in these courses, a grade of C- or higher must be earned by actuarial science majors in Math 2215.

7020.40 Minimum GPA Requirement for All Students Enrolled in RCB Courses

Students may not register for any 3000/4000-level course taught by the Robinson College of Business unless they meet eligibility requirements.

7020.41 Initial Eligibility Requirements for Students Admitted to Georgia State University as Freshman (i.e. a native Georgia State student with no transfer credit)

Students in this category, regardless of degree program or status, may not enroll in upper-level courses (those numbered 3000-4999) offered by the Robinson College of Business unless they meet the following requirements:
Earned at least 45 semester hours of college-level credit.

Completed RCB’s Area F: Business Foundation with an Area F GPA of 2.8 or better. In attempting to satisfy this requirement each Area F course may be attempted only twice. The Area F GPA will be computed using the last attempt in each course. A WF counts as an attempt.

7020.42 Initial Eligibility Requirements for Students Admitted to Georgia State University as Transfer Students (i.e. has been given transfer credit by Georgia State for coursework completed at another academic institution, regardless of class standing)

Students in this category, regardless of degree program or status, may not enroll in upper-level courses (those numbered 3000-4999) offered by the Robinson College of Business unless they meet the following requirements:

- Earned at least 45 semester hours of college-level credit.
- Completed RCB’s Area F: Business Foundation with an area F GPA of 2.8 or better. The grades in Area F courses transferred to GSU or taken in residence will be used to compute the Area F GPA. Each Area F course may be attempted only twice at Georgia State regardless of previous attempts at other institutions. The Area F GPA will be computed using the last attempt in each course. A WF counts as an attempt.

7020.43 Continuing Eligibility Requirements for Students

Once a student is eligible to take 3000/4000 RCB courses under either section 7020.41 or 7020.42 of this catalog they may remain eligible to take 3000/4000 level RCB courses as long as they maintain a GPA of 2.0 or higher and remain in good standing. If the student’s GPA falls below the 2.0 required he or she will remain one semester to raise the GPA to the standard. If unable they will be ineligible to enroll in additional 3000/4000 level RCB courses and will be advised into another degree program.

7020.50 Course Sequencing Requirements

Students are expected to proceed through the B.B.A. program in proper sequence to receive maximum benefit from their studies. Courses that are intended for the freshman through senior years are indicated by the course numbering system (1000 level through 4000 level, respectively). The lower-level courses taken in the freshman and sophomore years provide a foundation of general education on which the junior and senior years are based.

Sequencing requirements for all students and specifically for B.B.A. students follow. Students who violate any of the course sequencing requirements are subject to disenrollment by the college regardless of performance or time lapse and will be allowed a tuition refund in accordance with the university’s refund schedule.

7020.60 Sequencing for All Students Enrolled in RCB Courses

Students may not register for any 3000/4000-level course taught by the Robinson College of Business until they have earned at least 45 semester hours of college-level credit.
7020.80 Business Residence Requirement

At least 50 percent of the business credit hours required for the B.B.A. degree must be taken in residence at Georgia State University. This regulation is a requirement of the college’s accrediting body. These are the courses in the B.B.A. program that are considered “business credit hours”: ACCT 2101, ACCT 2102, BUSA 2106, CIS 2010, FI 3300, MGS 3100, MGS 3400, MK 3010, BUSA 4980, courses in the major (18-21 semester hours, depending on the major chosen), RCB electives (9-12 hours).

7020.90 Core Curriculum

As stated in the “Core Curriculum” section (1410) of the “University Degree Requirements and Graduation” section of this catalog, the university complies with the requirements of the core curriculum of the University System of Georgia. The 60 semester hours of course work for the freshman and sophomore years of the B.B.A. program are designed to conform to that core.

Transfer students from institutions in the University System of Georgia who followed the core curriculum at their previous institution and earned sufficient grades in courses listed in areas A through E of the core curriculum will be granted transfer credit for those relevant courses. This may mean that credit will be granted for courses that differ from those which would be taken at Georgia State University, as shown in the curriculum listed below.

Transfer credit will be given in Core Area F of the B.B.A. program for students who were following the business transfer program at a two-year college or the business curriculum for a bachelor’s degree at a four-year college or university in the University System of Georgia.

If a portion of a core area has been completed, then transfer credit for the corresponding portion at Georgia State will be granted.

7030 B.B.A. Degree Requirements

Areas A through E of the undergraduate core curriculum make up the first 42 semester hours of the freshman and sophomore years of the Bachelor of Business Administration degree program. These requirements are listed in the “University Degree Requirements and Graduation” chapter of this catalog as part of the description of the university’s core curriculum. Courses in the core curriculum that are recommended by the Robinson College of Business faculty are given in that description. These suggestions reflect choices that will be particularly helpful in providing B.B.A. students with a strong foundation for Core Area F and the junior and senior years of the program.

The hours and course requirements for Core Area F, Business Foundation, and the junior and senior years are listed in this chapter. Please note the following information:

Refer to the “Business Residence Requirement” section, listed previously in this chapter, for information on the business credit hours that must be completed in residence at Georgia State University.

Students must have completed no fewer than 45 semester hours of college-level course work before taking 3000/4000-level courses in the Robinson College. Refer to the heading “Sequencing for All Students Enrolled in RCB Courses,” listed previously in this chapter.

Consult the course descriptions section for prerequisites and descriptions of courses listed below.

Total Semester Hours Required for the B.B.A. Degree: 120

B.B.A. Program Information

Lower-Division (Freshman/Sophomore) Years

Core Areas A through E. For courses that satisfy these requirements, refer to “University Degree Requirements and Graduation” of this catalog. The Robinson College of Business requires MATH 1070 and MATH 1111 to satisfy degree requirements. It recommends that students take MATH 1111 in Area A and MATH 1070 in Area D. If not taken in Area A or Area D, they must be taken later in the program.

Core Area F: Business Foundation. (Minimum of grade of C- or higher is required in each course.)

- ACCT 2101 Principles of Accounting I
- ACCT 2102 Principles of Accounting II
- ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics
- ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics
- CIS 2010 Introduction to Information Systems*
- BUSA 2106 The Legal and Ethical Environment of Business*

Upper-Division (Junior/Senior) Years.

Junior Business Core (Minimum of grade of C- or higher is required in each course.)
- BUSA 3000 Globalization and Business Practices
- FI 3300 Corporation Finance
- MGS 3100 Business Analysis*
- MGS 3400 Managing People in Organizations
- MK 3010 Marketing Management

*Actuarial Science majors must take MATH 4751 in lieu of MGS 3100 to satisfy the junior core.

Junior Communication Course. (Minimum of grade of C- or higher is required in this course.)

- BCOM 3950 Business Communication and Professionalism

Major. (Minimum of grade of C- or higher is required in each course.) The following major requires 18 semester hours in this portion of the curriculum:

Finance

The following majors require 21 semester hours in this portion of the curriculum:

- Accounting
- Actuarial Science
- Computer Information Systems
- Economics
- Hospitality Administration
- Managerial Sciences
- Marketing
- Real Estate
- Risk Management and Insurance

Courses for each major should be selected after reviewing the appropriate school or department descriptions for each major that follow and, if needed, after consultation with a faculty adviser in the school or department that offers the major. The catalog describes each major and, if applicable, lists possible areas of specialization within the major. The required courses in each major, if any, are also listed in the school or department descriptions. The college reserves the right to amend this list of majors at the end of any semester.

Junior/Senior RCB Electives. (Minimum of grade of C- or higher is required in each course.)

Major requiring six semester hours of RCB electives: Actuarial Science, RMI 3750 and RMI 4350 must be taken as the RCB electives for actuarial science majors.

Major requiring nine semester hours of RCB electives: Accounting, Actuarial Science, Computer Information Systems*, Economics, Finance, Hospitality Administration*, Managerial Sciences, Marketing, Real Estate, Risk Management and Insurance.

These electives must be selected from 3000/4000-level courses in the Robinson College of Business that are outside the student’s major and are not cross-listed with courses in the student’s major. Majors other than economics may also select from the 3000/4000-level courses in the Department of Economics in the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies. Refer to the online course listing at www.gosolar.gsu.edu/webforstudent.htm to determine the Georgia state college that teaches a course. Do not refer only to the course title. For example, course titles with the words “business,” “management,” or “administration” in them are not necessarily RCB courses.

A cross-listed course is indicated by the parenthetical statement “Same as . . .” after the title in the course descriptions.

Junior/Senior Electives Outside RCB. These electives must be selected from the 3000/4000-level courses taught by Georgia State colleges other than the Robinson College of Business. These electives enable the B.B.A. program to meet the breath requirement of the college’s accrediting body and cannot be taken in the Robinson College. Economics majors may not choose any economics courses for these electives.

Exceptions to the requirement that non-RCB electives be 3000- or 4000-level courses: Math 1070, 1111, 2211, 2212, 2215, and 2420 may be taken to satisfy all or part of the non-RCB elective requirement if the student will still have a minimum of 39 upper-level semester hours to complete at Georgia State. This provision ensures that the student will meet the university’s academic residence requirement.

For the following two specific majors, these required 2000-level mathematics courses may be used to satisfy part of the non-RCB elective requirement:

Actuarial Science: Mathematics 2211, Mathematics 2212, and Mathematics 2215 (grade of C- or higher required in Math 2215). These courses carry four semester hours of credit each. If the student’s mathematics background permits beginning this calculus sequence in Core Area A or D (in place of college algebra and/or precalculus), three-semester-hour courses that meet the requirements for non-RCB electives will replace Mathematics 2211 and/or Mathematics 2212. Thus, this portion of the curriculum can range from 10 to 12 semester hours.

Business Policy. (Minimum of grade of C- or higher is required in this course.)

BUSA 4980 Strategic Management Policy. Minimum of grade of C- or higher is required in this course. Students must take BUSA 4990 concurrently. Prerequisites for both BUSA 4980 and BUSA 4990 are completion of all of the following with a grade of C- or better: All courses in Core Area F: Business Foundations, the Junior Business Core as listed in this section above, BCOM 3950, and three upper-level major courses.

BUSA 4980 Strategic Management Policy

* Students who transfer from other institutions in the University System of Georgia and have taken other approved courses in the Core Area F for business will take CIS 2010 and/or BUSA 2106, as appropriate, in the Junior/Senior RCB electives section.

 Actuarial Science majors must take RMI 3750 and RMI 4350 as the RCB electives.

 Finance majors must take ACCT 4210 as one of the RCB electives. The finance major requires an additional three semester hours that are either an RCB elective or a 4000-level finance course.

Hospitality majors must take all RCB electives (9 credit hours) in hospitality to support the development of industry specialization(s)

*CIS majors can take additional CIS courses to count toward the 9 credit hours required for RCB electives.

7030.20 Information Technology Access and Skill Requirements

Access Requirements: Because information technology is an integral part of business decision-making, courses in the Robinson College of Business frequently incorporate assignments that require computing skills. Consistent with university policy available at www.gsu.edu/ist/policies.html, the Robinson College requires students to be responsible for providing computer and Internet access for all RCB courses and programs.

Hardware and Software Requirements: Georgia State has standardized on the Microsoft Office Suite in the student computer labs. Students may consult the university’s Office of Student Financial Aid for information about possible funding opportunities for computer and Internet access expenses.

Skill Requirements: Although students can expect to enhance their information technology skills as they work toward their degrees, the college expects all students to have certain basic skills before enrolling in any business course. These skills are defined as Basic Microcomputing Skills and are described below in the CSP 1 skills definition.

When courses require additional computing skills, these Computing Skill Prerequisites (CSP’s) are listed by number in the catalog course description.

7030.30 Computing Skills Prerequisites(CSPs)/Definitions

CSP 1. Basic Microcomputing Skills: Understand the PC and its components; turn on the PC; use command-oriented, windows-based, and LAN operating environments to accomplish tasks such as formatting floppy disks, creating and navigating through directories and subdirectories, creating and deleting files, copying and renaming files, using help screens, loading application software, exiting from application programs and operating environments in an orderly manner, and using appropriate measures to check for and prevent the spread of computer viruses.

CSP 2. Basic Microcomputing Spreadsheet Skills: Load the spreadsheet software; create, organize, and navigate through spreadsheets; format the spreadsheet or a block of cells; enter and edit formulas, values, and text; copy, move, and protect cells; insert and delete columns and rows; save and retrieve files; print spreadsheets; use financial, statistical, and mathematical functions such as totaling and averaging of rows and columns; create and print charts and graphs, create data tables, invoke existing macros, and use help screens.

CSP 3. Advanced Microcomputer Spreadsheet Skills: Use advanced spreadsheet features such as database commands and functions; create macros; create menu systems; and develop customized applications.

CSP 4. Basic Microcomputer Database Skills: Load database software, create databases; enter and edit data; add and delete records; list, query, and generate reports using the database; and use help screens.

CSP 5. Advanced Microcomputer Database Skills: Link databases through keys; create input screens; and develop customized applications.

CSP 6. Word Processing and Presentation Skills: For word processing: Load the word processing software; create, format, edit, and save documents; copy and move text; adjust margins, indents, and line space; adjust fonts and styles. For presentation graphics: Load the presentation graphics software; choose and modify templates; choose and modify slide layouts; insert slides; modify slide, handout, and note masters; change color schemes; apply effects, animation, and multimedia to slides; run a slide show. For both: Import tables, clip art, and graphs from other applications; use spell-checking; load additional toolbars; use help screens.

CSP 7. Basic Internet Usage: Send and receive Email messages including attachments of files; transfer files with FTP, compress and uncompress files with utility programs; use search engines to locate documents and find information on the web; navigate the web with a browser including copying/pasting/saving web information; download and set up web browser plug-in programs such as electronic document readers and audio/video players; use web-based clients such as library catalog systems to find specific information.

CSP 8. Advanced Internet Usage: Create formatted *.html pages with tags including links within and between pages; publish pages to a website; create image files and embed them in *.html pages.

Students should regularly consult the website for updates and changes to the B.B.A. program and college regulations that occur after publication of this catalog and for other notices of interest to undergraduate students.

The Robinson College of Business provides the Office of Undergraduate Academic Assistance for the benefit of its students.
Mission: This office supports the college’s mission of and commitment to academic excellence by assisting enrolled students in the development of meaningful educational plans that are compatible with their life goals. The office helps undergraduate students become knowledgeable about academic programs, pertinent regulations, and services available throughout the university.

Areas of responsibility: To support the undergraduate aspects of its mission, the Office of Undergraduate Academic Assistance and the University Advisement Center work with B.B.A. students in these areas:

- to provide programs of study for each major offered by the college;
- to indicate to transfer students the specific credits for work done at other institutions which can be applied toward the B.B.A. degree;
- to assist students in course selections and schedule revisions each semester;
- to explain catalog regulations;
- to administer policies for the college and the university;
- to refer students to other sources of help in the university.

Students advised by the Office of Undergraduate Academic Advisement are seen by appointment except during walk-in times that are provided for brief questions that can be resolved in ten or fewer minutes. Walk-in advisement is 10 a.m. – 11 a.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and 2 p.m. – 3 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday. Additional walk-in hours are available during some phases of registration. Contact the Office of Undergraduate Academic Assistance for dates and times. Appointment hours are 8:30 a.m. – 4 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday and 8:30 a.m. – 1 p.m. on Thursday.

7040.10 Advisement

To ensure orderly progression through the degree program, students are urged to keep their catalogs and evaluations of credits readily available and to refer to them frequently as they schedule courses each semester. Students’ familiarity with their degree requirements is the foundation for advisement provided by the college.

B.B.A. students can be advised by academic advisers in the Office of Undergraduate Academic Assistance and the University Advisement Center as described in the preceding section. Advisement from these offices is not mandatory for the B.B.A. program, but the college encourages students with questions about their degree requirements or the academic regulations of the college or university to contact their adviser.

All students also may consult faculty members in the academic units of the college with questions about course content or for help in selecting major courses after reviewing the description of the major in the catalog. Students should contact the academic unit in advance to arrange a conference with a faculty adviser.

Mission
The mission of Robinson Career Management is to help students in the Robinson College of Business effectively evaluate and implement their career plans. In addition, we help students and alumni manage their on-going career development. Fulfilling this mission includes offering students high-quality, individual services and information designed to help them meet their career objectives.

Services

The following services are available to undergraduates in the Robinson College of Business:

- Individual career advising and assessment
- Resume and cover letter critiques
- Mock interviews
- Job and internship postings
- Campus interviews
- Workshops pertaining to all aspects of the job search process.
- RCC – Robinson Career Connection – Our online career management system provides Robinson students with access to hundreds of internship, part time and full, time job opportunities.
- We also offer a wealth of online resources. Contact your Career Counselor for information and access codes. Annual career fairs and networking events are sponsored to give students exposure to employers. These events offer an excellent opportunity to make personal contact and gather information concerning specific companies, internship programs, staffing needs and industry trends.

7050 Student Complaints, Petitions for Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals

The appeals procedure for students in the J. Mack Robinson College of Business will follow different courses depending on the nature of the student’s appeal. Please refer to University Information Section 1050.80 under Polices and Disclosures in this catalog for details.

7060 College Honors Day

Each spring semester a College Honors Day is observed to recognize students in the Robinson College of Business for their academic excellence.

7070 Beta Gamma Sigma

Membership in Beta Gamma Sigma is the highest general scholastic honor a business student can receive at Georgia State University, and it is recognized as such throughout the academic and business communities. Nominations for membership in this national honorary business fraternity occur early in spring semester. Second-semester juniors who are in the upper seven percent of their class and seniors in the upper ten percent of their class are eligible for nomination.
7080 Business Learning Community

Robinson College of Business
Suite 1100
404-413-7555

Dr. Marta Szabo White, Director

The Robinson College of Business offers a special Business Learning Community (BLC) for sophomore students in the fall and spring semesters. The BLC builds on the successful model of the Freshman Learning Community, giving students an integrated business curriculum and providing them with an introduction to the many programs offered in the Robinson College of Business. (See the Freshman Learning Community heading in a later chapter of this catalog.) Enrollment in the BLC is on a first-come/first-serve basis and requires a minimum 3.00 Georgia State GPA.

Students who are not a declared major in the Robinson College may be interested in the BLC program as the basis for a business minor. For students who are undecided about their major but have an interest in business, the BLC is a good way to get exposure to some business disciplines with required courses in the B.B.A. program. One of the major benefits of the BLC program is that its structure allows students to take multiple classes with a group of classmates, providing opportunities to work and learn together. The classes in the learning community are limited to 40 students, providing opportunities for more interaction with professors.

The Business Learning Community consists of the following grouping of courses:

Fall Semester:
- ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics
- ACCT 2101 Principles of Accounting I
- CIS 2010 Introduction to Computer Based Information Systems
- Plus two additional three-hour courses of the student’s choice.

Spring Semester:
- ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics
- ACCT 2102 Principles of Accounting II
- BUSA 2106 Legal Environment of Business
- Plus two additional three-hour courses of the student’s choice.

7100 School of Accountancy

Programs Offered:

1. B.B.A. in Accounting

5th floor, Robinson College of Business Building,
404-413-7200
Course prefix: Acct

The undergraduate accounting program is designed to provide the foundation-level technical and analytical accounting knowledge and skills needed to become a professional in the accounting field and to pursue a fifth (graduate) year of accounting study. The primary emphasis of the program is preparation for students who wish to apply for admission to the Master of Professional Accountancy program. In addition, the program is designed to provide appropriate preparation for entry-level positions in business and for graduate study in law or other business fields. The B.B.A. in accounting focuses on broad business and accounting exposure based on a sound foundation of general education.

Accountants today are expected to participate extensively in the general area of business management. The profession of accountancy is becoming increasingly divergent, encompassing such areas as financial and operational auditing, operations research, information systems development and assurance, financial reporting, corporate tax planning, and cost analysis and control.

In recognition of the advisability of acquiring a broadly based education in liberal arts and general business subjects, as well as the necessity of a thorough foundation in the highly specialized and diversified fields of accounting, a person desiring a career in accounting is encouraged to complete the entire professional program of study leading to the Master of Professional Accountancy degree.

7100.10 Program Admission

There are no admission requirements specific to the Accounting program. However, Accounting students are required to meet all University and College admission requirements.

7100.20 Program Financial Information

There are no special fees associated with majoring in Accounting. However, Accounting majors must pay all tuition and fees charged by the University and the College.

7100.30 Program Academic Regulations

Minimum Grade Requirement to Satisfy Prerequisites to any Acct Course:

- A Minimum of Grade of C- is required to satisfy the prerequisites to any accounting course.
- Minimum Grade Requirement to enroll in ACCT 4111, and ACCT 4210: Students need a grade of B or higher in both ACCT 2101 and ACCT 2102, in order to enroll in ACCT 4111, and ACCT 4210.
- Required Major Courses (credit hours): ACCT 4111(3), ACCT 4112(3), ACCT 4113 (3), ACCT 4210(3), ACCT 4310(3), ACCT 4510(3), and ACCT 4610(3), for a total of 21 credit hours.
- Recommended Courses: PSYC 1101 or SOCI 1101 as the Core Area E social science electives; LGLS 4050 as an RCB elective; and PHIL 3730 as a non-RCB elective. Recommended courses for students planning to enter the Master of Professional Accountancy’s accounting systems specialization: MATH 2420 as a non-RCB elective; CIS 3260 as an RCB elective.
Other Requirement: Transfer credit toward the accounting major courses may not be more than five years old at the time the student enrolls. Students who reenroll after an absence of more than two years may retain major credit only for course work that is less than five years old at the time of reenrollment; this includes Georgia State credit and transfer credit.

7100.40 Certified Public Accountant (CPA) Examination

Taking the Uniform Certified Public Accountant (CPA) examination in the state of Georgia: Beginning with the November 2003 administration of the Uniform CPA Examination, candidates may qualify to take the examination based on having earned a baccalaureate degree with a concentration in accounting. A concentration in accounting is defined as completion of 20 semester hours in accounting subjects above the principles level at a 4-year accredited college or university that offers a baccalaureate degree.

Obtaining a license to practice as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in the state of Georgia: A candidate must pass the CPA Exam and meet additional educational and work experience requirements, to obtain a license to practice as a CPA. Students must have completed no fewer than 150 semester hours of college credit, of which 30 semester hours have to be in accounting above the principles level and 24 semester hours in general business subjects. An applicant who meets the general, educational, and examination requirements will be issued a license to practice as a CPA upon presenting evidence that such applicant has attained two years, including 4,000 hours, of continuous experience in public accounting, under the supervision of a person licensed to practice public accounting, immediately preceding the date of application for the certificate. Five years, including 10,000 hours, of continuous employment in the accounting field in business or industry, under the supervision of a person licensed to practice public accounting, or in government or college teaching, may be accepted in lieu of the aforementioned experience requirement. Part-time experience is permitted if it is continuous.

Students may take the CPA Exam after obtaining their undergraduate degree in accounting from Georgia State University. However, the School of Accountancy recommends that students meet the licensing requirements of the law by being admitted to either the Master of Professional Accountancy or Master of Taxation degree programs after completing an undergraduate degree. Students who plan to enroll at the master’s level should become aware of the admission requirements early in their undergraduate studies; a strong academic record and satisfactory scores on the Graduate Management Admission Test are important factors in master’s-level admission.

7110 Department of Computer Information Systems

Programs Offered:

1. B.B.A. in Computer Information Systems
2. Minor in Computer Information Systems

9th floor, Robinson College of Business Building
404-413-7360

cis.robinson.gsu.edu
In today’s highly competitive global environment, the effective deployment of information technology has become the key to organizational success. There is a continuing shortage of individuals with the combination of business and technology skills needed to develop and manage information systems that provide competitive advantage in the global marketplace. The mission of the CIS major in the B.B.A. program is to produce graduates able to fill this need. Students will learn how to combine their general business knowledge with the latest software engineering tools and techniques to create information systems needed by today’s organizations. Graduates will be prepared for careers in a variety of areas such as consulting, systems development, business process analysis, cyber security, IT project management, database administration, process architecture, and programming.

The Department of Computer Information Systems cooperates with the Department of Health Administration to offer a specialization in Health Informatics of the CIS major. The purpose of this specialization is to produce graduates that know how to effectively deploy information technology to innovate medical services and administrative processes within the healthcare industry. For more information, see Health Informatics below. The Department of Computer Information Systems cooperates with the Department of Mathematics and Statistics in offering a concentration in computer information systems associated with the degree Bachelor of Science with a major in mathematics. This program is described under the offerings of the Department of Mathematics and Statistics in the “College of Arts and Sciences” chapter of this catalog.

7110.10 Program Admission

There are no admission requirements specific to the Computer Information Systems program. However, Computer Information Systems students are required to meet all University and College admission requirements.

7110.20 Program Financial Information

There are no special fees associated with majoring in Computer Information Systems. However, Computer Information Systems majors must pay all tuition and fees charged by the University and the College.

7110.30 Program Academic Regulations

Required Major Courses: All undergraduate CIS majors must complete CIS 3001 Managing Information Technology Projects, CIS 3260 Introduction to Programming, CIS 3300 Analyzing Business Systems (Systems Analysis), CIS 3730 Designing and Managing Data (Database Management), and either CIS 4970 Internship in an IT organization or CIS 4980 Practicing Real-World IT Skills. Majors must take two additional CIS courses. CIS majors who complete the Cooperative Education program can opt out of taking CIS 4970 or CIS 4980 and take any 3000-4000 level CIS course in its place. The requirement for CIS 3260 may be met with no credit hours awarded upon successful completion of approved online courses and exams in programming as directed by the CIS chair. CIS majors who exercise this CIS 3260 exam option must take additional CIS course (for a total of three CIS courses beyond the other three required CIS courses) to complete the 21 credit hour requirement.
Required Sets of Electives: The CIS Department required that students develop particular expertise in at least one Information Systems field as shown below. Data Analytics CIS 4730 & CIS 4930

- Process CIS 4120 & CIS 4140
- Development CIS 3270 & CIS 4280
- Cybersecurity CIS 4000 & CIS 4680
- IS Management CIS 4300 & CIS 4620

Additional information about individual courses appears at cis.robinson.gsu.edu/academic-programs/course-information/undergraduate-courses/.

Other Requirements: (1) Students may take CIS 4970 or CIS 4980 only after completion of all required 3000-level business core and CIS courses. In addition, CIS 4980 may only be taken after completion of 15 credit hours of CIS courses beyond CIS 2010. (2) Transfer credit toward the CIS major courses may not be more than five years old at the time the student enrolls. Students who re-enroll after an absence of more than two years may retain major credit only for course work that is less than five years old at the time of re-enrollment; this includes Georgia State credit and transfer credit. (3) CIS students may use additional CIS courses to count toward the required 9 hours of RCB electives for the degree.

All CIS students must be proficient in the series of Computing Skills Prerequisites (CSP 1-8) listed in this catalog.

CIS Internship Program: The CIS department encourages internships for undergraduate CIS majors. For the overall internship process including identifying and getting approval for internships, please visit cis.robinson.gsu.edu/students/internship/.

Health Informatics

The healthcare sector plays an increasingly important role in the US society and there is growing pressure to implement innovations that make it possible to deliver health services of higher quality and at lower costs. Healthcare institutions and processes are information-intensive in nature and the use of information technology (IT) to enable innovations has therefore been, and continues to be, in focus. On this background, there is a strong need for graduates that know how to effectively deploy information technology to innovate medical services and administrative processes within the healthcare industry. To graduate with a specialization in Health Informatics, students are required to complement a CIS major with the following RCB electives in Health Administration (9 hours): The Health Care System (HA 3900); Health Policy in the U.S. (HA 3910); Health Information Systems (HA 3970).

7110.40 Minor in Information Systems

This IS minor is designed for undergraduate students who want to participate in the digital revolution that is transforming organizations and society. Information systems have become increasingly important in most fields including accounting, biology, communications, health, psychology, music, art & design, political science, sociology, and education. Students seeking a minor in Information Systems must complete 15 hours in upper-level CIS-prefixed courses. Non-business majors may substitute CIS 2010 for one CIS upper-level course.
All students pursuing a minor in Information Systems must maintain a 2.5 or higher GPA, and must earn a grade of C- or better in all courses counting toward the major. Please see cis.robinson.gsu.edu/academic-programs/undergraduate-minor-in-cis/ for more information.

7120 Department of Economics

Programs Offered:

1. B.B.A. in Business Economics

5th floor, AYSPS Building
404-413-0141

Shiferaw Gurmu, Chair

Course Prefix: Econ

The Department of Economics is part of the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies. For economics faculty listing, see the Department of Economics heading in the “Andrew Young School of Policy Studies” chapter of this catalog.

Economics examines the material prosperity of countries and their citizens in an interdependent world of limited resources and technological change. In doing so, it studies how decisions are made by private businesses, governments, and households in producing, consuming, and distributing goods. In general, economics is concerned with how society can obtain the greatest output from its limited resources. Economics is also concerned with monetary arrangements and their impact upon purchasing power and economic performance.

Economic principles yield basic insights into the workings of the market system and the national and international environment within which business operates. These principles provide analysis that is fundamental to understanding the organization and decisions of the government, business, and financial sectors. Economics also develops criteria for assessing the performance of the market systems and of governments regarding their efficiency and their impact upon the well being of consumers and workers.

Recent graduates with majors in economics have accepted positions as financial analysts for a real-estate financing firm and a major bank and as general manager for a recording studio, as well as having been accepted to prominent graduate programs in law and economics.

7120.10 Program Admission

There are no admission requirements specific to the Economics program. However, Economics students are required to meet all University and College admission requirements.

7120.20 Program Financial Information
There are no special fees associated with majoring in Economics. However, Economics majors must pay all tuition and fees charged by the University and the College.

7120.30 Program Academic Regulations

Required Major Courses: Econ 3900, 3910, 4999, and four other 4000-level economics courses approved by a B.B.A. faculty adviser. Econ 3900 and 3910 provide theoretical background for 4000-level courses and should be taken as soon as possible. Econ 4999 is only offered during the Fall and Spring semester of the academic year. The pre-requisites for Econ 4999 are Econ 3900, Econ 3910, and two 4000-level economics courses with a grade of C or better. Students are to plan accordingly with regard to the course pre-requisites and graduation.

Advisement for Major Courses: Economics majors must contact a faculty adviser in the department to discuss their selection of major courses. See economics.gsu.edu for more information about economics advisement.

7130 Department of Finance

Programs Offered:

1. B.B.A. in Finance
2. Minor in Finance

Gerald D. Gay, Chairman

Course Prefix: Fi

The goal of the undergraduate finance program is to prepare graduates to succeed in entry-level positions in finance and elsewhere in business. Careers in finance are available in nearly every organization ranging from the small entrepreneurial firm to the large corporate organization as well as in the financial services industry including commercial and investment banking, investment management, insurance organizations and securities firms. Students completing the finance program will possess a number of proficiencies including a strong technical knowledge of finance, the ability to critically analyze and solve problems associated with the financial operations of a firm, and to prepare and present business reports of a financial perspective.

7130.10 Program Admission

There are no admission requirements specific to the Finance program. However, Finance students are required to meet all University and College admission requirements.
7130.20 Program Financial Information

There are no special fees associated with majoring in Finance. However, Finance majors must pay all tuition and fees charged by the University and the College.

7130.30 Program Academic Regulations

Notice to all Finance and pre-Finance students: A minimum of a B- in FI 3300 is required to take any 4000 level Finance course.
Note to all students: A minimum grade of C- is required to satisfy the prerequisites to any finance course.

Required Major Courses: FI 4000 (six semester hours), FI 4020, and three additional 4000-level finance courses. See the recommended sequence below.

Recommended Sequence: The Department of Finance encourages all students pursuing a major in finance to take FI 4000 and FI 4020 early in their program of study. FI 4000 is a prerequisite to all 4000-level finance courses except FI 4020. Students may take FI 4000 and FI 4020 in any order or concurrently.

The following sets of electives in the major are suggested for those students who wish to develop particular expertise in various fields of finance. These are simply suggestions.

- Corporate: FI 4300, FI 4320, FI 4200, or FI 4040, or FI 4080.
- Financial Institutions: FI 4400, FI 4420, FI 4200 or FI 4040 or FI 4080.
- Investment Management: FI 4200, FI 4210, FI 4240, FI 4260 or FI 4080.
- Other Required Course: ACCT 4210 must be taken in place of one course in the Robinson College of Business electives portion of the program.
- Other elective option: One three-semester-hour elective can be chosen from the 4000-level finance courses or from the other 3000/4000-level courses taught by the Robinson College of Business.
- Suggested electives: ACCT 4010, RE 4150, and RE 4160 are suggested as RCB electives.

Honors Track in Finance

The Department of Finance also offers a two-semester, 18 credit hour Honors Track in Finance designed to provide Robinson’s most accomplished undergraduate finance majors with a deeper understanding of the discipline, a distinguished skill set, and a strategic advantage throughout their careers. For additional information, please see the Honor’s track website at finance.robinson.gsu.edu/academic-programs/bba/honors/.

7140 Institute of Health Administration

805 Robinson College of Business Building
404-413-7630

Andrew T. Sumner, Director
Course Prefix: HA

Healthcare represents the largest single sector of the economy, and many students will ultimately assume professional roles in fields that interact with healthcare in some manner. Health administration careers are available in many businesses and healthcare organizations in areas such as hospital and health system administration, physician practice management, consulting, research, marketing, information systems, managed care administration, finance, accounting, compliance, and human resources management. Since all consumers are part of an increasingly complex healthcare system, health administration courses are relevant and appropriate for all undergraduate majors.

Upper-level elective courses in health administration, perspectives courses in the core curriculum, and freshman learning communities are offered for those interested in acquiring general knowledge of the healthcare system, particularly those considering careers related to healthcare such as physicians, nurses, or other providers. Specifically, HA 3900, Introduction to the U.S. Healthcare System, which offers introduction to the organization of healthcare delivery in the U.S., HA 3910, Health Policy in the United States, which examines how healthcare policy is developed, and HA 3970, Health Information Systems, which provides an overview of information systems in healthcare, are three elective courses. A health informatics specialization is available in the BBA computer information systems major. Although no BBA major is available in health administration, graduate degree programs are offered: Master of Business Administration/Master of Health Administration joint programs, Master of Science in Health Administration, and the MBA with a concentration in health administration.

The Institute of Health Administration at Georgia State University has a primary mission to prepare future executives to assume responsible managerial positions in health services and business organizations. It is the only program in North Georgia accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Management Education and is a full member of the Association of University Programs in Health Administration. Over 1000 graduates hold numerous executive positions in healthcare and business throughout the nation.

7150 Honors Program

Robinson College of Business
Suite 1001
404-413-7555

robinson.gsu.edu/programs/undergraduate-programs/honors-program/

Dr. Marta Szabo White, Director

Purpose

The Honors Program provides a cohort learning experience for top undergraduate Robinson College of Business (RCB) majors who strive to excel academically and accept the challenge of becoming strong, exemplary global business leaders. Honors classes are required for the junior business core courses, junior communications course, RCB (2) electives, and Business Policy (capstone). A total of 27 hours of honors classes must be taken to graduate with RCB honors. The RCB Mentoring program is the cornerstone of the college’s signature program, where honors students are paired with experience professionals who share their expertise and guidance through individual mentoring sessions. Students are also strongly encouraged to participate in a study abroad program. In addition, at least one professional/social event for the RCB Honors students will be offered each semester. Honors students will also have the opportunity to network with Atlanta business professionals by serving as RCB student ambassadors at both the RCB Hall of Fame dinner and RCB Alumni Awards program. The RCB Honors Program presents students with a forum for unique opportunities, special recognitions and enhanced career prospects, while enriching the quality of their education.

Admission

Full-time students majoring in business who have completed at least 45 hours with a Georgia State grade point average of 3.5, or junior transfers who have a transfer GPA of 3.5 may apply. An interview with the faculty director of the RCB Honors Program is required for admission into the program. Students who have participated in the Freshman and/or Business (sophomore) Learning Communities are encouraged to apply.

Scholastic Standards

Students must maintain a 3.5 grade point average (GPA) in order to remain in the honors program. A student whose GPA falls below 3.5 will be given one academic semester (fall, spring or summer) in which to attain a 3.5 GPA again.

Honors Recognition

Students who successfully complete the RCB Honors program will receive special recognition in the commencement program, on their transcript and their diploma will be distinguished with an honors seal. In addition, RCB honors students will be recognized at the RCB Honors/Awards program.

7160 Cecil B. Day School of Hospitality Administration

Programs Offered:

Debra F. Cannon, Director
Course Prefix: HADM

The mission of the Cecil B. Day School of Hospitality Administration is to develop hospitality leaders in a global society.

The primary goal is to provide a well-integrated curriculum incorporating courses in the arts, sciences, general business theory, and hospitality applications that will prepare our students for management and leadership positions in the hospitality industry.

The Cecil B. Day School of Hospitality Administration was named in honor of the late founder of the Days Inn Hotel chain. Cecil B. Day is remembered as an astute businessman who developed Days Inn to national prominence. He was equally respected because he gave freely of his time and wealth to worthy organizations. His legacy of excellence is the foundation upon which the program bases its philosophy for preparing future generations of hospitality executives.

The Cecil B. Day School of Hospitality Administration prepares its graduates for management careers in numerous hospitality industry segments including: hotels and lodging, resorts, restaurants, private clubs, food service, tourism, event planning, meeting planning, festivals, trade shows and airline and airport management. Graduates are awarded a bachelor of business administration degree with a major in hospitality administration.

Students majoring in hospitality administration will take 21 semester hours of required hospitality courses and 9 semester hours of elective hospitality courses. These core courses will give the student a general knowledge of all segments of the hospitality industry. Specialized elective courses and industry field study allow students to gain additional insight regarding specific industry segments.

The school has the support of local, regional, and national hospitality executives. Georgia State University was the first institution of higher education to offer specialized courses in trade show management. The school was chosen in 1986 by the Club Managers Association of America to develop, produce, and direct their Business Management Institute for certification of club managers across the United States and this program continues today. The School of Hospitality works closely with leading professional associations such as the Georgia Hotel and Lodging Association and the Georgia Restaurant Association. Student organizations are tied to these professional organizations and offer excellent leadership opportunities for students interested in the hospitality field. The School of Hospitality has student chapters of the American Hotel and Lodging Association, the Club Managers Association of America, the International Association of Events and Expositions and the National Society of Minorities in Hospitality as well as the student club, Georgia Restaurant Organization (GRO). Eta Sigma Delta International Hospitality Management Honor Society is available for hospitality majors excelling academically.

The program was accredited in 1992 by the Accreditation Commission on Programs in Hospitality Administration, a specialized accrediting body and reaccredited in 2000, 2007 and 2015. The program is an institutional member of the International Council on Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Education, the principle academic and professional association for hospitality education programs.

The School of Hospitality has unique state-of-the-art facilities. The School’s Hospitality Learning Center is the first dedicated classroom in the nation located within a major convention center, the Georgia World Congress Center. The School’s Culinary Learning Center features a new food production kitchen lab.
The faculty of the program call upon practitioners to lecture on specialized industry topics. Industry managers and executives work with faculty and college administration to maintain a program relevant to industry needs. The school offers scholarships which are awarded annually.

7160.10 Program Admission

There are no admission requirements specific to the Hospitality Administration program. However, Hospitality Administration students are required to meet all University and College admission requirements.

7160.20 Program Financial Information

There are no special fees associated with majoring in Hospitality Administration. However, Hospitality Administration majors must pay all tuition and fees charged by the University and the College.

7160.30 Program Academic Regulations

Required Major Courses: HADM 3010, HADM 3401, HADM 3402, HADM 3720, HADM 3750, HADM 3760, HADM 4100, HADM 4800.

Robinson College of Business (RCB) Electives: As an exception to normal degree requirements, hospitality majors are required to select RCB electives from courses in the hospitality major. This exception is provided to fulfill the requirements of the hospitality administration accrediting body that hospitality majors specialize in more than one area of the discipline.

Faculty Advisement: All new hospitality administration majors are invited to initially contact the department. The school offers orientation materials at the beginning of each semester for new hospitality majors. Majors should call the school office at 404-413-7615 to schedule appointments.

Industry Field Study Requirement: All students majoring in hospitality administration must have practical industry experience in order to be approved for graduation. Each student is given the opportunity to apply career objectives and gain exposure to the work environment as it actually exists in the hospitality industry. This experience assists in developing professional work habits, provides for a smooth transition into full-time employment, helps develop self-confidence, and provides exposure to the different components of the hospitality industry. Students who have full-time jobs in non-hospitality occupations do not have to quit their jobs; however, in order to satisfy the requirements for the work-study experience, students are advised to begin working part-time in an adviser-approved hospitality position as soon as possible.

A required noncredit course, HADM 4900, is offered each semester to assist students in meeting this work-study requirement. Students must register for this course during their senior year. They should obtain a course description packet from the school office and contact the Work Study Coordinator in the school for more detailed information.

7160.40 Certificate in Hospitality Administration
The Certificate in Hospitality Administration (CHAD) program is designed for non-hospitality majors. Admission to the CHAD program is subject to the minimum Georgia State cumulative GPA required for entrance into RCB upper-level classes. Obtaining the Certificate of Hospitality Administration is based on completion of at least four stipulated undergraduate hospitality courses with a combined GPA of 3.0 for these courses.

The certificate option is available for undergraduate, graduate, and postbaccalaureate students who are not current hospitality majors. Certificates are awarded by the Cecil B. Day School of Hospitality Administration to undergraduate and graduate students upon graduation from Georgia State University. For postbaccalaureate students, the certificates are awarded upon completion of the four courses with a cumulative GPA of 3.0.

This certificate focuses on operational aspects of hotels, restaurants, private clubs; meeting, special-event, and trade show management; and managerial functional areas in hospitality such as human resources, marketing, law, and financial analysis.

Specialization options within the certificate program are available. These specialty areas include hospitality operations, aviation management, culinary management, event management and meeting and tradeshown management. Please visit the School’s website (hospitality.robinson.gsu.edu) to find out about specific requirements for each type of certificate.

Certificate Applications and Fees. Interested students should apply for the certificate program through the School of Hospitality Administration. There are no additional fees required for the Certificate in Hospitality Administration.

7170 Institute of International Business

14th Floor, Robinson College of Business Building
404-413-7275

Daniel Bello, Director

The explosion of technological advances coupled with the rapid expansion of world trade means that business managers function in an economic environment where a local decision can have implications around the world almost immediately. An understanding of the global aspects of business is vital to success in today’s world.

Any BBA major or undergraduate Georgia State student may obtain a minor in international business. The institute offers several upper-level electives that can enhance the program of any student. IB 3090, International Business Operations; IB 4020, International Trade Management; IB 4080, Legal Issues in International Business, IB 4100, Introduction to International Entrepreneurship and IB 4410, Study Abroad: Analysis of Regional International Business Practices, which can be repeated for different world regions and focus on different disciplines. The Institute of International Business participates in the undergraduate program in several ways. An integral part of the Business Learning Community described earlier in section 7110 is BUSA 3000, Globalization and Business Practices. BUSA 3000 is also offered in Spanish.
Minor in International Business

The minor in International Business, open to all Georgia State University undergraduates, is designed to increase students’ knowledge and develop the necessary skills in order to function effectively in today’s dynamic global environment. Students who are seeking opportunities with a firm that has existing international operations, or one that plans to internationalize and/or expand its global footprint, will benefit from completing their major area concentration with a minor in international business. Hands-on experiences can be an integral part of the Minor in International Business. The Minor prepares students to extend functional area knowledge with internationally-oriented skills that will give a competitive edge in today’s competitive job market. For additional information about the minor, please consult the website: iib.robinson.gsu.edu/academic-programs/minor/

Study Abroad Programs

The Institute promotes international learning experiences through a strong portfolio offering of study abroad programs. The study abroad programs range from two-to-three week intensive experiences to semester- and year-long programs. The programs span disciplines and geographic regions, affording students in all business disciplines the rich rewards of an international study experience. RCB currently offers programs in Argentina, Belgium, Brazil, China, France, Germany, Hungary/Czech Republic, Italy, South Africa, Turkey, and Switzerland. Semester- and/or year-long options are available in Germany, France, Mexico, and Italy. Other locations are possible through our partner institutions. Students must be in good standing with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0. Additional requirements vary by program. For individual program descriptions and application information, consult the Institute of International Business website at iib.robinson.gsu.edu/study-abroad/.

- MGS 4760
- MGS 4770

*Students following one of these tracks would choose a fourth elective course (any course with a MGS prefix, including courses from the other three career tracks).

7190 Department of Marketing

Programs Offered:

- B.B.A. in Marketing
Marketing is an exciting, dynamic process through which customer needs and wants are determined and satisfied through the conception, development, promotion, exchange, and distribution of goods and services. The undergraduate program in marketing provides students with fundamental preparation in general marketing and an understanding of markets and customers, product development, pricing strategies, advertising and promotion, and methods of distribution. The program also develops the student’s capacity to solve managerial problems in marketing and prepares men and women to enter careers in the field. A wide range of career opportunities is available to marketing graduates. Marketing management is often the path to the top of the business organization. Entry-level positions are available in selling, product development, advertising, promotion, physical distribution, industrial marketing, marketing research, customer service, and many other specialties. The challenges of marketing require men and women with creative ability, intelligence, and analytical skill that are prepared to fill an ever-increasing number of senior staff and executive positions.

7190.10 Program Admission

There are no admission requirements specific to the Marketing program. However, Marketing students are required to meet all University and College admission requirements.

7190.20 Program Financial Information

Conrad S. Ciccotello, Chair

The Department of Risk Management and Insurance is an interdisciplinary academic unit. It offers undergraduate majors in actuarial science and in risk management and insurance, together with courses in the areas of legal studies and personal financial planning.

7220 Actuarial Science

Course Prefix: AS

Actuaries have been called financial architects and social mathematicians because of their unique blend of analytical and business skills in the insurance and financial services industry, as consultants in firms that specialize in employee benefits and pensions, in the government sector, and in a variety of other roles. To be recognized as a qualified actuary, a person should become a member of the Society of Actuaries or the Casualty Actuarial Society. Admission to membership is obtained by passing a series of examinations given by the societies. Completion of the actuarial science program at Georgia State University greatly enhances the possibility of passing the examinations given by the actuarial societies.

The tremendous demand for such highly trained persons makes a career in this area very rewarding financially and in providing the satisfaction that comes from membership in a well-recognized profession.

In order to meet the critical shortage of actuarial personnel in this region, the Southeastern Actuaries Club endorsed the establishment of the actuarial program at Georgia State University as part of the university’s comprehensive insurance educational activity. The program continues to have the strong support of the actuarial profession. Inquiries concerning the actuarial profession or the details of the program at Georgia State University should be directed to the department.

7220.10 Program Admission

There are no admission requirements specific to the Actuarial Science program. However, Actuarial Science students are required to meet all University and College admission requirements.

7220.20 Program Financial Information
There are no special fees associated with majoring in Actuarial Science. However, Actuarial Science majors must pay all tuition and fees charged by the University and the College.

7220.30 Program Academic Regulations

Required Major Courses: FI 4000: AS 4140, AS 4230, AS 4350 and pick two out of three from AS 4320, AS 4350, and AS 4510

Other Required Courses: MATH 2212, MATH 2215, as well as MATH 4752 or ECON 4950 must be taken in place of the non-RCB electives. For students with appropriate mathematics background, MATH 2211 should be taken in core area A in place of MATH 1111 (college algebra) or in place of MATH 1113 (precalculus) in core Area D. Students who make one or both of these substitutions will choose one or two non-RCB electives, as appropriate. MATH 4751 should be taken in place of MGS 3100 in the junior business core. MATH 2215 must be completed with a grade of C or higher.

MATH 2215 must be completed with a grade of C- or higher.

RMI 3750 and any 4000 level RMI course must be taken in place of RCB electives; grades of C- or higher are required.

It is highly recommended that new actuarial science majors consult with their major adviser at their earliest convenience so that an efficient program can be constructed in accordance with the unique nature of the actuarial science major and course scheduling requirements.

7230 Legal Studies

Course Prefix: LGLS

The Legal Studies Courses offered through the Department of Risk Management and Insurance afford a base for scholarship and teaching at the intersection of law and business. Legal Studies courses provide non-professional legal education open to business students in both the J. Mack Robinson College Business and those in the broader university community.

Students can receive a minor in the BBA-RMI program that emphasizes legal transactions and risk. Doing so provides non-major students the opportunity to examine legal approaches to the management of risk exposures in corporate and personal settings. All business majors may find the minor attractive but specific majors that should find the minor especially attractive include accounting and managerial sciences, economics, political science and pre-law students,

The Legal Studies course offerings are among the most popular at the undergraduate level in the college.

BUSA 2106 Legal Environment of Business

This course provides the business student with a study of the interrelationship of law, ethics, and business.
LGLS 3020 Introduction to the Law

This course is an introduction to the law, a multifaceted and broad discipline which affects every aspect of our society. The course provides an overview of the legal system and legal analytical models.

LGLS 4030 The Legal Process

The course gives students a better understanding of the legal process, the role of the primary actors in the process, how they think and act, and why.

LGLS 4050 Legal Transactions and Risk

This course examines legal transactions in the corporate environment and provides a conceptual framework for examining contracts and other transactions to enable students to minimize and/or allocate risk to produce more legal certainty in business.

LGLS 4060 Internet Law

This course examines how the U.S. legal system is evolving to accommodate the Internet’s impact on business practices, society and values. The course covers a wide range of Internet-related legal issues including technology and the law, court jurisdiction over Internet-related business activities, intellectual property, e-commerce, taxation of Internet sales, privacy in cyberspace, on-line defamation, information security, cyber-crimes, and government regulation of Internet services (cross-listed as ENI 4060: Technology Law for Entrepreneurs)

LGLS 4080 Legal Issues in International Business

This course covers all types of international business transactions—import/export, distributorships, technology transfers, and foreign direct investment—as well as the international regulation of trade and international dispute resolution. Students will learn practical strategies for negotiating international contracts, working with overseas agents and partners, protecting intellectual property rights and managing cross-cultural, commercial, political and other concerns in international transactions (cross-listed as IB 4080)

Students interested in Legal Studies and Risk may also want to consider:

RMI 4025 Law, Policy and Risk Regulation

This course students the ways in which federal; and state governments in the United States insure risks faced by businesses, workers, consumers and others. Government sponsored insurance regimes that may be considered include: limited liability, paper money, banking reserve requirements, bankruptcy, worker’s compensation, unemployment insurance, Social Security, product liability, environmental liability, federal disaster relief, insurer guarantee funds, the credit card fraud liability cap and rules governing international currency rates.

7240 Risk Management and Insurance
The program in risk management and insurance strives to prepare qualified and motivated students for positions of leadership and responsibility in risk management, insurance, and other financial services businesses and in general business and government. The Bachelor of Business Administration in Risk Management and Insurance challenges the student both quantitatively and qualitatively as it emphasizes critical thinking for decision making under uncertainty. Qualified students can find excellent opportunities for creative work, professional recognition, financial reward, and public service within this degree program.

The major has two tracks of study. The first track is for those who desire to work in the insurance industry or in risk management in general. The required courses introduce students to the business of insurance and risk management from a corporate perspective. Elective course can allow the student a degree of specialization in life insurance, property liability insurance, or risk management. Graduates of the risk management and insurance track find employment as brokers/agents providing professional risk management counseling and market placement services for clients, as consultants and personal financial planners, and in the underwriting, marketing, claims adjusting, planning, governmental relations, and financial management activities of insurers.

The second track is for those with an interest in risk analysis. This track is for those who are interested in the understanding how to model risk, how to assess risk, and how to communicate risk in a business or governmental setting. Students will take courses in risk modeling, legal risk analysis, regulation, economics, and policy. Graduates in the risk analysis track find a variety of career opportunities open to them as risk analysts within the risk management and insurance business, in other financial institutions, and in community and government agencies.

7240.10 Program Admission

There are no admission requirements specific to the Risk Management and Insurance program. However, Risk Management and Insurance students are required to meet all University and College admission requirements.

Undergraduate programs in the School of Public Health are described in detail in this chapter. See subsections for specific program information as well as policies and procedures.

About the School of Public Health

The School of Public Health (SPH) is a multi-disciplinary, research-based unit, drawing upon partnerships with community members and organizations, dedicated to the mission of advancing health through leadership, scholarship, research and service to better the human condition and promote the common good, especially for urban communities and for global populations. The School of Public Health achieves this mission by applying existing scholarship within Georgia State University to priority public health problems, particularly those that are aimed at reducing health disparities in urban settings. Training and research programs focus on both building the science base that underlies public health practice, as well as applying effective interventions that have been demonstrated to improve the public health. Academic and training efforts emphasize the basic prevention sciences (e.g., emerging infectious diseases, immunology, virology, bioinformatics, genomics, and geographic sciences), as well as applied public health efforts (e.g., chronic disease prevention, health promotion, environmental health, program evaluation, health policy, public health ethics and law, health communications, community-based participatory research, and global health).

In June 2016, The Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH) Board of Councilors accredited the SPH at Georgia State University. The school received a ‘met’ finding, the highest possible, on all criteria evaluated and the school’s initial school-level accreditation is for a five-year term, extending through July 1, 2021.

The SPH Master of Public Health (MPH) program has been accredited by CEPH since 2007, and was re-accredited in 2012 for a seven year period (2012-2019). The School began the rigorous process to transition from its MPH program-level only accreditation to its new full school-level accreditation in 2013. This recent CEPH decision to accredit Georgia State University at the school-level is the culmination of that three-year process that involved the efforts of faculty, staff, students, alumni, and community partners. CEPH is an independent agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education to accredit schools of public health and public health programs outside schools of public health.

8000.20 Mission, Vision, Values and Goals

The School of Public Health has the mission of advancing health through leadership, scholarship, research, and service to better the human condition and promote the common good, especially for urban communities and for global populations.

The School’s mission is strengthened by the objective of the University System of Georgia, through its Strategic Plan for Public Health Education, Research and Service, “to ensure that the System becomes one of the national leaders in public health education, research and service.”

Six values were determined in a School-wide review process. All values were developed with input from the administration, faculty, staff and students and are reaffirmed or revised during each subsequent review process. The values are succinct and specific in nature and are reflected in faculty, staff and students’ instruction, service and learning activities. The values are:

1. Scholarship and inquiry
2. Human rights and social justice
3. Diversity in multicultural and multiethnic environments
4. Integrity, accountability and transparency
5. Leadership, innovation and transformation
6. Healthy, sustainable social environments

The goals of the School of Public Health are to:

1. Prepare students to use multi-disciplinary skills to address contemporary public health problems.
2. Advance public health sciences and our understanding of the causes and prevention of disease.
3. Promote service activities and initiatives by implementing community-based projects, educating professional and lay audiences, and collaborating with the public health workforce to advance health promotion and disease prevention.

Measurable objectives related to each goal may be found on the SPH website or in student handbooks.
Note: At Catalog press-time, the SPH was revising its mission, vision, values and goals. The most recent information can be found on the SPH website.

8000.30 Degrees and Certificates Offered

The School of Public Health offers the following programs:

- Bachelor of Science in Public Health
- Graduate Certificate in Public Health
- Master of Public Health
- Doctor of Philosophy in Public Health

8000.40 Research Centers and Initiatives

The Mark Chaffin Center for Healthy Development
14 Marietta Street NW, 2nd Floor
404-413-1281
healthy.gsu.edu

The Mark Chaffin Center for Healthy Development (CHD) was established in August 2008 to house the National SafeCare® Training and Research Center (NSTRC) and the Center for Leadership in Disability (CLD), a University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD). In 2011 CHD welcomed Prevent Child Abuse Georgia, a state chapter of Prevent Child Abuse America, which will provide a statewide direction to promote healthy children and develop strong families through community resources, public awareness, prevention programs, research, and advocacy activities. The center was designated a university-level research center in 2015, and its name honors and memorializes Dr. Mark Chaffin (1952 – 2015), a pre-eminent scholar in child maltreatment, parenting, implementation science and services for disadvantaged people and populations with disabilities.

The NSTRC is funded by a number of private and public service and research grants and contracts. It was created in 2007 with a center grant from the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation. The CLD is primarily funded by a center grant from the Administration on Developmental Disabilities (ADD) of the Administration on Children and Families (ACF) within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (USDHHS). PCA Georgia is funded by a grant from the Governor’s Office for Children and Families, the Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation, and other sources. The general mission of the CHD is to promote the health, safety, well-being, and quality of life of children, adults, and families with and without disabilities through research, service, advocacy, and to prevent child maltreatment.

The Community Research Center (CRC)
75 Piedmont Ave, Suites 904-906
404-413-1147

The Community Research Center is a focus for expertise in working with citizens and organizations within disadvantaged communities. It currently manages a number of research projects and interventions on HIV/AIDS and related issues. The Center has established a strong presence in the community, and builds partnerships with community organizations for training, conducting community-based participatory research, and local capacity building.

Partnership for Urban Health Research
848 Urban Life Building
404-413-1137
urban.publichealth.gsu.edu

The Partnership for Urban Health Research (PUHR) was established to understand how the urban environment affects the health and well-being of people who reside and work in the metropolitan Atlanta area. The focus of its efforts is on populations that bear a disproportionate burden of illness and disease using an interdisciplinary approach to research. In partnership with surrounding communities, PUHR creates and disseminates knowledge that is both meaningful and beneficial to the communities that participate in the process.

Tobacco Center of Regulatory Science
847 Urban Life Building
404-413-1142
tcors.publichealth.gsu.edu

Georgia State University’s School of Public Health has been named one of 14 Tobacco Centers of Regulatory Science (TCORS) by the National Institute of Health (NIH) and the Food and Drug Administration (FDA). Along with major partners – the University of Illinois, Chicago and RTI International, the Georgia State University TCORS focuses on both the human and economic factors that contribute to decision making related to tobacco products. Funded through a five-year, $19 million grant, the Georgia State University project is titled “The Science of Decision Making: Connecting People and Policy.”

The Policy Leadership for Active Youth (PLAY)
848 Urban Life Building
404-413-1133
publichealth.gsu.edu/research-2/policy-leadership-for-active-youth/

Policy Leadership for Active Youth (PLAY) is a policy research initiative of the Georgia State University School of Public Health in partnership with the Georgia Center for Obesity and Related Disorders (GCORD) of the University of Georgia and Medical College of Georgia focused on engaging multiple sectors. Supported by Healthcare Georgia Foundation, the major focus of PLAY is connecting emerging evidence around childhood overweight and obesity to prevention and reduction activities occurring throughout Georgia.

Esther Singh, Administrative Assistant

The Office of Academic Assistance and Career Services (OAA) provides the SPH current and prospective students with comprehensive student support services to ensure academic and career success.

Advising and Academic Assistance publichealth.gsu.edu/students/academic-advising/

The Office of Academic Assistance (OAA) supports the school’s commitment to quality education in the field of public health by advising undergraduate seniors and coordinating the recruitment, admission and advising of graduate students. Through the advisement process, students learn to identify and use university resources effectively to: satisfy degree requirements; plan programs of study; discover how interests, skills and goals connect to fields of study and careers. The office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. Monday through Friday. Walk-in advisement without an appointment is scheduled on Mondays and Thursdays from 2:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., and Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

Career Services

University Career Services (UCS) within Enrollment Services is a comprehensive career center dedicated to the success of all Georgia State University students, including public health students. UCS

- helps students and alumni explore academic majors, find internships and jobs, launch careers, explore graduate and professional school options and pursue their professional goals.
- helps employment recruiters from big corporations to small agencies discover, recruit and hire Georgia State University students and alumni. UCS is like an extension of a recruiting organization’s human resources wing, seeking collegiate talent. They help with both internship hiring and entry-level career position hiring.
- manages Panther Career Net, Georgia State University’s online job board for students, alumni and employers. There is no student or employer fee to use Panther Career Net.
- helps professional and graduate school recruiters connect with students and alumni seeking advanced educational opportunities locally, regionally, nationally and internationally.

UCS provides primary career support to undergraduate public health students, while the School of Public Health Career Services office supplements UCS offerings as appropriate. To contact UCS, please call 404-413-1820 or visit them in Student Center West, Room 270, located at 66 Courtland St. SE, Atlanta, Georgia 30303, or visit their website at: http://career.gsu.edu/
8000.60 Student Organizations

Public Health Student Life

The Office of Academic Assistance and Career Services (OAA) also supports all SPH student clubs and organizations – students are encouraged to read about the various groups within the college, and join one while being enrolled in the SPH: publichealth.gsu.edu/student-life.

8000.70 Study Abroad

SPH Study Abroad Website: publichealth.gsu.edu/academic/study-abroad/

Contact: SPHstudyabroad@gsu.edu

Study abroad is one of the ways the School provides a learning environment that prepares students with broad skills regarding diversity and cultural competence. Opportunities to earn Signature Experience and undergraduate elective course credits abroad are available in most years, and opportunities increase as student interest increases. Previously planned study abroad opportunity cities include: Salvador, Brazil; Kampala, Uganda; Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic; and Shanghai, China. Students should check the above-linked study abroad website for future opportunities.

8010 Undergraduate Admission and Program Requirements

8010.10 Undergraduate Admission into the Full Public Health Major

Students are required to meet all University and College Bachelor degree admission requirements. The undergraduate program in the School of Public Health has more stringent admission requirements than those of Georgia State University. When all the college admission requirements listed below are satisfied, students are no longer pre-public health majors; instead, they automatically admit into the full public health major at the School of Public Health and are permitted to continue completing public health major courses.

Requirements for Transitioning from the Pre-public Health Major Status and Admitting into the Full Public Health Major:

- Admission into Georgia State University’s bachelor degree.
- Successful completion of each Area A course with a grade of “C” (2.0) or higher.
- Successful completion of the first course of the two-course science sequence in Area D1.
- Successful completion of each Area F course with an overall Area F GPA of 2.8 or higher, including:
  - Successful completion of the following Area F courses with a grade of “C” (2.0) or higher on the first attempt:
    - PH 2000 Introduction to Public Health,
    - PH 2010 Public Health Careers and Profession,
    - BIOL 2300 Microbiology and Public Health, and
    - SCOM 1500 Public Speaking.
Transfer students who transfer these Area F courses into Georgia State University may use their grades from their first attempted transfer courses or they may attempt the courses at Georgia State. A WF counts as an attempt.

- Successful completion of the additional mathematics, science and/or social sciences courses satisfying Area F with a grade of “C” (2.0) or higher.
- An overall GPA of 2.5 or higher.

8010.20 Program Degree Requirements for the Public Health Major

Program Degree Requirements:

Requirements for Areas A through D of the undergraduate core curriculum are listed in the “Core Curriculum Requirements” in the Georgia State University undergraduate catalog. School of Public Health academic regulations are noted below each area here:

Area A: GSU General Education – Essential Skills (9 credit hours)

- Students must successfully complete each of their Area A courses with a grade of “C” (2.0) or higher.
- It is strongly recommended that public health majors select MATH 1111 or higher.

Area B: GSU General Education – Institutional Options (4 credit hours)

Area C: GSU General Education – Humanities and Fine Arts (6 credit hours)

- The School of Public Health recommends students select Group 3: Foreign Language.

Area D: GSU General Education – Math, Technology and Science (11 credit hours)

Public Health majors must complete

Group D1 (8): Select one two-course sequence from the following:

- BIOL 1103K Introductory Biology I (4) and BIOL 1104K Introductory Biology II (4)
- CHEM 1151K Survey of Chemistry I (4) and CHEM 1152K Survey of Chemistry II (4)

Group D2 (3): MATH 1070 Elementary Statistics (3)

Area E: GSU General Education – Social Science (12 credit hours)

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Public Health Major (18 credit hours)

Students must also complete each of the following Area F courses with a grade of “C” (2.0) or higher in their first attempt. Transfer students who transfer these Area F courses into Georgia State University may use their grades from their first attempted transfer courses or they may attempt the courses at Georgia State. A WF counts as an attempt. Due to the merger, attempts made at Perimeter College campus in fall...
2016 semester or after are considered a first attempt at Georgia State.

- PH 2000 Introduction to Public Health (3)
- PH 2010 Public Health Careers and Profession (3)
- BIOL 2300 Microbiology and Public Health (3)
- SCOM 1500 Public Speaking (3)

Students must also complete an Additional Mathematics course (0-3) from list below with a grade of “C” (2.0) or higher. If Area A2 is satisfied with MATH 1111 College Algebra or higher, students may complete an additional Mathematics, Science or Social Sciences Course from the Area F list below with a grade of “C” (2.0) or higher, instead. If Area A2 is not satisfied with MATH 1111 or higher, students must select one Mathematics course from the following list:

- MATH 1111 College Algebra (3)
- MATH 1112 College Trigonometry (3)
- MATH 1113 Precalculus (3)
- MATH 1220 Survey of Calculus (3)
- MATH 2201 Calculus for the Life Sciences I (4)
- MATH 2202 Calculus for the Life Sciences II (4)
- MATH 2211 Calculus of One Variable I (4)
- MATH 2212 Calculus of One Variable II (4)
- MATH 2215 Multivariate Calculus (4)
- MATH 2420 Discrete Mathematics (3)

Additional Science or Social Sciences Course(s) from list below (not taken for Area D or Area E) (3-6). Select course(s) from the following list:

- AAS 1140/HIST 1140 African and African-American History (3)
- AAS 2010 Introduction to African-American Studies (3)
- ANTH 1102 Introduction to Anthropology (3)
- BIOL 1103K Introductory Biology I (4)
- BIOL 1104K Introductory Biology II (4)
- BIOL 2110K Human Anatomy and Physiology I (4)
- BIOL 2120K Human Anatomy and Physiology II (4)
- BIOL 2107K Principles of Biology I (4)
  - Cannot be counted here if BIOL 1103K already taken for another area
- BIOL 2108K Principles of Biology II (4)
- CHEM 1101K Introductory Chemistry I (4)
  - Cannot be counted here if CHEM 1151K or 1211K already taken for another area
- CHEM 1102K Introductory Chemistry II (4)
- CHEM 1151K Survey of Chemistry I (4)
  - Cannot be counted here if CHEM 1101K or 1211K already taken for another area
- CHEM 1152K Survey of Chemistry II (4)
- CHEM 1211K Principles of Chemistry I (4)
  - Cannot be counted here if CHEM 1101K or 1151K already taken for another area
- CHEM 1212K Principles of Chemistry II (4)
- CRJU 2200 Social Science and the American Crime Problem (3)
- ECON 2105 Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
- ECON 2106 Principles of Microeconomics (3)
- GEOG 1101 Introduction to Human Geography (3)

Area J – Advanced Electives (6 credit hours)

Select any 1000-, 2000-, 3000-, or 4000-level courses (6 credit hours)

Total Semester Hours for Degree: 120

8020 Academic Regulations

8020.05 Grades of C in Major and Signature Experience

Grades in the public health major area and signature experience area requirements, where applicable, require a grade of C (2.0) or higher. The School of Public Health does not accept grades of C- to count toward its major and signature experience coursework.

8020.10 Transient Status at Other Institutions

Students enrolled in the Georgia State University School of Public Health who wish to take course work in transient status at another institution, whether as a full-time or part-time student, must have prior written approval from the Office of Academic Assistance and Career Services if they wish to apply the credit to a Georgia State degree program. A transient petition form should be submitted prior to registration.
8020.20 Directed Readings

Directed Readings courses in the undergraduate program are intended to allow students of proven performance to do independent study in a specific subject area. Enrollment in a directed readings course requires prior consent of the instructor and the Office of Academic Assistance and Career Services. A maximum of one directed readings course may count toward fulfillment of degree requirements, and the course may not be substituted for a core course requirement. The subject of the independent study will be determined in consultation with the faculty member responsible for supervising the independent work. A faculty member may seek the assessment of a second faculty reader on any directed readings paper. Letter grades, rather than grades of S or U (satisfactory or unsatisfactory), will be assigned for all directed readings courses.

8020.30 Modification of Degree Requirements

Students may petition for modifications of the degree requirements of the School of Public Health. Degree modification petitions are granted only in the case of extenuating circumstances and only when an educationally acceptable substitution is proposed. Petition forms and information are available at the University Advisement Center for freshman, sophomore, and junior students, and at the School of Public Health Office of Academic Assistance and Career Services for seniors (at least 90 credit hours completed).

8020.40 Catalog Editions

Undergraduate students should refer to the Change of Catalog Edition section in the University Academic Regulations chapter of the undergraduate catalog.

8030 Student Complaints, Petitions for Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals

The appeals procedure for students in the School of Public Health will follow different courses depending on the nature of the student’s appeal. Please refer to Student Complaints, Petitions for Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals section University Academic Regulations chapter of the undergraduate catalog or visit deanofstudents.gsu.edu/student-assistance/student-complaints-petitions/ online for details.
Georgia State University's Perimeter College offers associate degrees in more than 30 guided pathways. Perimeter College comprises five campuses and an online program. Perimeter College does not provide bachelor-level degrees. For more about Perimeter College's degree offerings, view the associate-level catalog at catalog.gsu.edu or visit perimeter.gsu.edu.
Undergraduate programs in the College of the Arts are described in detail in this chapter. See subsections for specific program information as well as policies and procedures.

The College of the Arts consists of three schools and two centers. The college has approximately 2,000 undergraduate majors and 220 graduate students.

The liberal arts education offered by the College of the Arts prepares students for professional careers and provides the foundation for lifelong learning, enabling students to meet the challenges of career development. Programs in the liberal arts promote the independent discovery of knowledge, an appreciation of the arts, and the ability to think critically and analytically.

At the undergraduate level, the College of the Arts offers the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science, the Bachelor of Fine Arts, the Bachelor of Music, and the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies degrees. The requirements for these degrees build directly upon the broad educational foundation provided by the core curriculum.

Within the framework of the various degree offerings, specific programs have been designed for students who wish to pursue a career in teaching. In collaboration with the College of Education & Human Development, these teacher education programs provide for a major concentration within a special field of knowledge suitable for teaching at the various school levels. The programs prepare a student to meet the certification requirements of the Professional Standards Commission of the State of Georgia.

The College of the Arts offers graduate degrees and programs in art and design, music, and film studies and production. The university publishes a graduate catalog that includes complete descriptions of all of the graduate programs offered at Georgia State University (available online at catalog.gsu.edu).

10020 College Academic Regulations

The requirements for entrance into Georgia State University are found in section 1100 of this catalog, which is devoted to undergraduate admissions. A transfer student must comply with all academic regulations of the university. The College of the Arts reserves the right to validate by examination any credits accepted by transfer. This provision in no way affects the acceptance of courses used to satisfy core
Students holding a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university who wish to complete another undergraduate degree are urged to clear all requirements with an adviser in the Office of Academic Assistance.

Grades of C- in Major/Minor

Courses in the major require a grade of C- or higher. Courses in the minor chosen within or outside the College, require a grade of C- or higher. Some prerequisite courses for both the major and minor require a grade of C or higher to progress through the program.

Credit by Examination

A maximum of 18 semester hours of degree credit may be granted before or after matriculation to a student who receives satisfactory scores on certain subject examinations of the College Level Examination Program of the College Entrance Examination Board. The student should consult the appropriate school or the Office of Academic Assistance for further information.

Credit for Transient Work

College of the Arts students who wish to take course work at another institution, whether as a full-time or as a part-time student, must have prior written approval from the Office of Academic Assistance if they wish to apply the credit hours to a degree program. Failure to obtain the required prior approval will prevent the acceptance of such credits. Approval will be granted for no more than two terms of work and only if the student is in good academic standing at Georgia State University. No approval of requests to take courses in Atlanta-area colleges will be granted if the course is readily available from Georgia State offerings. During the term in which the student is scheduled to graduate, all courses must be taken at Georgia State unless prior written approval has been obtained from the Office of Academic Assistance. The acceptance and application of all course work taken as a transient student is subject to any limitations imposed by the student’s major school or program of study.

Please consult the “Academic Regulations” section of this catalog for further clarification in regard to transient credit.

Course 4999 – Directed Readings

Course 4999, Directed Readings, in any school that offers a major in the College of the Arts is designed to assist seniors who are within two terms of graduation and who have curriculum difficulties in fulfilling the requirements necessary for graduation. One to four credit hours may be earned. The supervising professor, the school director, and the dean of the college must approve registration for the course. Forms for Course 4999 must be completed at the time of regular registration for the term in which the credit is to be earned.
Policy on Allowing Undergraduates to Take Graduate Courses

Under one of the following conditions, an undergraduate student may be permitted to take a graduate course:

1. Dual Degree Enrollment: The student has been formally accepted into an official university dual degree program that links an undergraduate degree program with a graduate degree program. Students in dual degree programs are granted permission to enroll in specified graduate courses when they reach a designated program milestone. Students who are accepted into the affiliated graduate program upon completion of the undergraduate degree may count specified course work toward fulfillment of the graduate degree requirements.

2. College Approval of Enrollment: The Dean's Office of the college will determine a student’s eligibility for admission into a graduate course. To be eligible, an undergraduate student generally must have a cumulative grade-point average of 3.5 or higher and be within 18 semester hours of graduation, and be enrolled in an undergraduate degree program. Eligibility does not guarantee permission to take a course. Once a student’s eligibility is determined, permission must be granted by the instructor for the course, the school’s director of graduate studies, the director of the school offering the course, and the Associate Dean of the College of the Arts. The request form is available in the college's Office of Academic Assistance. Please note, graduate courses taken by an undergraduate student cannot be applied toward fulfillment of graduate degree requirements unless the student has been formally accepted into an official university dual degree program.

(This approval process does not apply to postbaccalaureate students. Postbaccalaureate students wishing to take graduate courses must be admitted as non-degree seeking students.)

10030 College Degree Requirements

10030.10 World Language Requirement for B.A./B.I.S. Majors

The College of the Arts requires the completion of a world language at the 1002 or 1101 level for all students seeking a Bachelor of Arts degree or a Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies degree. This requirement can be met by one of the following options: 1) Taking a course numbered 1002, 1101, or higher, 2) Taking the CLEP exam in French, German, or Spanish for credit at the 2001 and 2002 level, or 3) Taking the SAT II exam in Chinese, Japanese, or Korean and receiving at least the equivalent of a grade of “C” (73% of the highest possible exam score). For more information about the exams please contact the Counseling and Testing Center at 404-413-1740.

The world language requirement for students enrolled in Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies programs is most commonly included in core curriculum Area F (Courses Appropriate to the Major); however, programs may also require students to complete world language courses in Area G, the 60 semester hours beyond the core curriculum. Students transferring to Georgia State with a completed core curriculum Area F, yet without sufficient course work to meet a program’s world language requirement, will be required to fulfill the necessary courses in the second 60 semester hours. Students who take a language course in Area C and subsequently declare a major in a program leading to a Bachelor of Arts or a Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies will find that the language course no longer counts in Area C but in Area F or Area G. For this reason, the college recommends that students in Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies programs not include a world language course in core curriculum Area C (Fine Arts and Humanities). Students who would like to begin a new world language, or to take a second world language, should consult a program advisor concerning the possibility of earning credit for the first semester of elementary world language (1001) in either core curriculum Area F or in the second 60 hours.

10030.20 Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies

The Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies degree provides educational opportunities not available through the existing, traditional degree programs. The purpose of the program is to offer students an avenue by which they may take advantage of the rich offerings available in several colleges, schools, departments and institutes at the university. An individual student, in consultation with a faculty advisor, may tailor a program of study that meets his or her particular educational needs, desires, and interests.

A student can pursue either a college-planned or a student-planned interdisciplinary program. The established college-planned programs address the needs of many students interested in a multidisciplinary, non-traditional education. Existing areas of concentration within the College of the Arts are Arts Administration-Speech/Theatre, and Theatre. Information about the B.I.S. program, including program options and the application process, is available from the college's Office of Academic Assistance.

Purpose

The Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies degree provides educational opportunities not readily available through traditional departmental degree programs. Students have flexibility in developing a course of study appropriate to their goals by selecting courses from several schools in the College of the Arts. Students may also include courses from other colleges of this university in their interdisciplinary program.

It is not the function of the interdisciplinary program to pull together an assortment of course work as a last-minute effort to facilitate a student’s graduation. A proposal should be planned by the time a student has earned 42 credit hours and should reflect a logical, consistent course of study that is based on acceptable and germane student objectives.

Program Admission

Applicants to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies program must satisfy the admission requirements for Georgia State University and, in addition, must have a Georgia State cumulative grade-point average of 2.0. Matriculation into the program can occur only after the College’s B.I.S. Council approves a student’s program of study. There is a special application procedure for this degree program and faculty advisement is a mandatory component of this process.

Program Degree Requirements

There are two options in the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies program, the student-planned option and the college-planned option. Descriptions are listed below.
No more than 12 hours of the requirements in an area of concentration (Area G), and no more than 6 hours of the requirements in an allied field (Area H), may be taken from the offerings of any single discipline in the university. Courses in the area of concentration (Area G) and allied field (Area H) must be at the 3000-4000 level. Also, a grade of C- or higher is required in all courses in the area of concentration (Area G) and allied field (Area H). Electives are used to build the hours in Areas G-J to 60 hours, have 39 hours at Georgia State University taken at the 3000-4000 level for residency, and complete 120 hours required for graduation. The last 27 semester hours prior to graduation must be completed while formally enrolled in the program.

Option One: Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies Student-Planned Program

Students may choose the option to propose their own program of study for approval by the College’s B.I.S. Council. Students may select their proposed courses from any college in the university, as long as at least 50 percent of the hours in the program are chosen from courses in the College of the Arts. Students should have their proposed student-planned programs reviewed by the College’s B.I.S. Council by the time they have earned 42 hours.

To gain approval into the program, students must articulate a reasonable and educationally justifiable course of study. Proposed interdisciplinary degree programs cannot resemble current programs offered at the university. Students interested in initiating the application process must first schedule an appointment with an academic advisor in the college’s Office of Academic Assistance. Students must also select an appropriate faculty advisor to provide guidance in developing the interdisciplinary program.

Course of Study Outline for Student-Planned Programs:

Areas A-E:

Core Curriculum (42)

All undergraduate students satisfy a common core curriculum. These requirements are printed in the “Academic Regulations” section of this catalog.

Area F:

Courses Appropriate to the Major Field (18)

Courses in this area should be included in the program proposal. The courses selected for this area must be at the lower-division level and judged to be programmatically appropriate to the intent of the proposed program. A world language at the 1002 level must be included in Area F of all student-planned programs.

Area G:

Area of Concentration (similar to a traditional major area, except interdisciplinary in content).

Area H:

Allied Field (similar to a minor, except interdisciplinary in content).
Area J:

Electives

When developing a student-planned program, the student may choose one of the following structures:

Program Plan Structure One:

An area of concentration (27-33 semester hours) with an allied field (15-21 semester hours) and electives (6-18 semester hours).

Program Plan Structure Two:

An area of concentration (27-33 semester hours) with two allied fields (15-21 semester hours each).

Program Plan Structure Three:

Two areas of concentration (27-33 semester hours each).

Option Two: Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies College-Planned Programs

Students may choose a program designed by the College of the Arts as follows: Arts Administration – Speech/Theatre, and Theatre.

10030.30 The Interdisciplinary Minor

The interdisciplinary minor provides educational opportunities not otherwise available and allows students the flexibility to select courses for the minor from several colleges, schools, departments, and institutes at the university. Students must propose their student-planned interdisciplinary minor of 15-18 hours for approval by the College’s B.I.S. Council. A proposal must identify the way in which the minor fits into the context of the student’s entire degree program. To gain approval, students must articulate a reasonable and educationally justifiable course of study and must keep in mind that this course of study may not duplicate what is currently available.

The following requirements apply to the interdisciplinary minor:

1. The student must have a Georgia State University cumulative grade-point average of 2.0
2. All courses included must be at the 3000 level or above
3. No more than six hours may be taken in any one department or school and courses cannot be from the major area
4. A grade of C- or better is required in all minor courses
5. At least 50 percent of the minor must be completed after the semester in which the college’s B.I.S. Council approves the minor program plan.

Students should contact the college’s Office of Academic Assistance for information on the application procedure.
10050 Student Complaints, Petitions for Policy Waivers and Variances, and Appeals

The appeals procedure for students in the College of the Arts will follow different courses depending on the nature of the student’s appeal. Please refer to University Information Section 1050.80 under Policies and Disclosures in this catalog or visit enrollment.gsu.edu/assistance for details.

10060 Academic Resources and Services

Creative Media Center (CM)

460 Art and Humanities Building
404-413-5278
cmc.gsu.edu

The Ernest G. Welch School of Art & Design’s Creative Media Center (CMC) offers access to cutting-edge digital technology for students who are currently enrolled in courses within the school. The CMC offers an array of Macintosh computer workstations and functions as both a digital classroom and computer laboratory, offering Open Lab access during scheduled times. The CMC includes specialized input and output computer hardware for print, sound, and video, as well as many industry-standard design and imaging software packages.

Music Media Center

400 Haas Howell Building
404-413-5903

The School of Music’s Music Media Center provides students with a valuable resource for music study through the use of the Bobbie Bailey Technology Classroom, consisting of 18 workstations that facilitate the art of music composition, a multi-media seminar room, and the Charles Thomas Wurm Circulation area with access to 16 listening-keyboard computer workstations.

Visual Resource Center (VRC)

520 Art and Humanities Building
404-413-5233

The Ernest G. Welch School of Art & Design’s Visual Resource Center (VRC) has a large collection of art and architecture slides, print, and digital media covering all phases of art history. The collection is used extensively for instruction and learning by university faculty and students as well as visual arts professionals throughout the region. The university subscribes to Artstor Digital Library, a database of more than 1.4 million images in the arts, architecture, humanities, and sciences from outstanding museums, photo archives, photographers, scholars, and artists.

Center for Collaborative and International Arts (CENCIA)

Nickitas Demos, Director
cencia.gsu.edu/

The Center for Collaborative and International Arts brings together creative writers, visual artist composers, musicians, actors and playwrights, filmmakers, and scholars engaged in arts-related research at Georgia State University. This cutting-edge union of arts-related disciplines is helping to guide the trajectory of the arts in the 21st century, as boundaries between traditional disciplines give way to exciting new partnerships.

Center for Educational Partnerships in Music

Katie Carlisle, Director
music.gsu.edu/centers/center-educational-partnerships-music/

The Center for Educational Partnerships is increasingly recognized as a conduit for artistic excellence and innovation in urban music education. The Center for Educational Partnerships unites university music faculty and undergraduate/graduate music students with the greater education community in a collaboration that advances the role of music in school culture and prepares strong leaders to teach in diverse and interdependent context. Drawing on Atlanta’s unique community resources, the relationship created by the Center fosters relevant and engaging music-making for all learners throughout the lifespan.

The Ernest G. Welch School of Art & Design
117 Arts and Humanities Building
Michael White, Director
Melody Milbrandt, Associate Director

The Ernest G. Welch School of Art & Design offers degree programs in studio, art education, and art history. The Bachelor of Fine Arts professional degree is available in studio and art education. Within the studio degree, students may choose from these concentrations: drawing and painting or printmaking, graphic design, interior design, photography, textiles, or three-dimensional studies (ceramics or sculpture).

The School of Art & Design offers the Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree for students who wish to pursue a liberal arts education. They may select a concentration in studio or in art history. The B.A. program in Studio covers a range of art courses and a studio concentration. Art history is an academic liberal arts program devoted to preparing future scholars and curators.

The School of Art & Design seeks to provide an educational environment that encourages the creation and presentation of the visual arts, the study of visual culture, the creation and enhancement of our interior environments, and the promotion of the visual arts to the larger community. Graduates of the school carry their knowledge forward and contribute to the cultural conscience of the community. A strong corps of the school’s graduates is found in prominent art centers and schools. Others hold positions with regional, national, and international design firms. Faculty, student artists, and alumni frequently exhibit in national and international galleries and competitions. Their works are in numerous private and corporate collections.

The School of Art & Design is professionally accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art & Design.

Program Admission

Admission to B.F.A

Students who wish to pursue a Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.) degree must apply to seek this degree. Students may pursue the B.F.A. by being accepted either into studio or into art education. The studio program requires a concentration in one of the following areas: drawing, painting, or printmaking, graphic design, interior design, photography, textiles, or three-dimensional studies (ceramics or sculpture). Acceptance to a concentration is determined by application and portfolio review following completion of the art core sequence. Students should consult with the undergraduate area coordinator in their area of interest for details.

Portfolios and applications are reviewed fall and spring semesters on Portfolio Review Day. Students should check with the School of Art & Design office for information about Portfolio Review Day.

Admission to Art Education B.F.A.

Application to the B.F.A. program in art education should occur upon completion of the 18 semester hours required in Area F and at the end of the semester in which the student is taking the introductory art education course (AE 4200). To apply, students must have:
- passed the portfolio review of artwork
- received at least “Good” in all dispositional ratings
- earned a 2.5 overall cumulative GPA
- earned a 3.0 GPA in all art content courses
- passed [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] or been exempted from the GACE Program Admission Assessment. When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment
- Completed the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment; though there is no Pass/Fail grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment

Guidelines for the Entry-to-the-Major Review will be distributed during Art Education courses and posted in the Art Education area. In the event that a student is not accepted into the major, or is accepted with pending status, the student may be advised not to take any further Art Education courses until the issue for admission to the major is resolved. If the issue cannot be resolved within one semester of applying to the major, the student should see the Office of Academic Assistance to explore other options.

Admission to Studio B.F.A.

Upon completion of the 18 semester hours required in Area F and prior to completion of 15 additional semester hours, each student who wishes to seek a B.F.A. in Studio must submit an application and pass a portfolio review for acceptance into a major concentration. Applications to concentrate in a discipline are available in the School of Art & Design office and are reviewed fall and spring semesters on Portfolio Review Day scheduled prior to Phase I registration (Graphic Design Portfolio Review is held at the end of Spring Semester only and Interior Design Portfolio Review is held at the end of the Fall semester only). Students should meet with the area coordinator in the concentration they are considering one semester before they apply for the concentration. In the event that a student is not accepted into the concentration, the student should see the Office of Academic Assistance to explore other options.

Program Academic Regulations

Evaluation of transfer credits should be completed during the first semester of attendance at the university.

Program Degree Requirements

Art students should seek regular advisement from the Office of Academic Assistance. Once accepted into a B.F.A. concentration, students should seek advisement from the area coordinator for that concentration. Students in the B.F.A. degree program should declare their intention to pursue a B.F.A. degree to the Office of Academic Assistance in the College of the Arts when they initiate their Area F requirements. Students intending to pursue the B.F.A. should enroll in two Area F courses during their first semester and should continue taking two Area F courses each semester until those courses are completed. Upon completion of the Area F requirements and prior to completion of 15 additional hours in art, students who intend to pursue the B.F.A. degree program must submit an application and portfolio to the concentration faculty for review and approval. In order to facilitate advisement, students in the B.A. degree program should declare their major and area of concentration (studio or art history) prior to completion of their Area
A grade of C- or higher is required for all Studio and Art History courses in Area G. BA Studio Majors must satisfy the world language requirement to the 1002 level with a passing grade of D or higher. For Art Education a grade of B and a GPA of 3.0 or higher is required in all art content courses.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of the Arts Degree Requirements (see section 10030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Graduation with Distinction

This school offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the School of Art & Design for the specific criteria for this honor.

Program Financial Information

Lab fees will be assessed automatically for students who register for certain courses. For more information, please feel free to contact the school or review the GoSolar or catalog course listings to determine if a course includes a lab fee.

B.A. in Art

Areas A-E: Core Curriculum Recommendations

Area B: Cross-cultural art history courses may be offered in this area as sections of PERS 2001 Perspectives in Comparative Culture (2), or PERS 2003 Perspectives on Human Expression (2).

Area C: Recommended courses: Either AH 1700, AH 1750, or AH 1850 to maximize the opportunity to take elective courses in Art History.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (6):
   - World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)
   - Select one of the following Art History courses (3):
     - AH 1700 Survey of Art I: Western Art from Antiquity to the Middle Ages (3)
     - AH 1750 Survey of Art II: Western Art from the Renaissance to the Present (3)
     - AH 1850 Survey of Art III: Art of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas (3)

2. Select additional elective courses as recommended under each concentration section below to complete 18 hours in Area F.

Art History Concentration

All Art History students are required to meet with the area coordinator for assignment of a faculty adviser.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)
1. Required Courses (6):
   - World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)
   - Select one of the following Art History courses (3):

   - AH 4980 Special Problems (3)*
   - Cross-disciplinary Art History Seminars (3DS 3910, PHOT 3910, TEXT 3910, and GRD 3910). No more than two cross-disciplinary seminars may count towards degree requirements.

* May be taken more than once

3. Select four additional Art History courses from the courses listed in Area G2. (12)
4. Select one more Art or Art History course. This course must be an Art Studio, if not already taken. (3)

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. Select additional courses to complete a minimum of 120 hours.
2. Students in art history are not required to take a minor, although they may complete one if they so choose.

Dual B.A. in Art (Art History Concentration) / M.A. in Art History

The department offers a dual Bachelor of Arts with an Art History concentration and Master of Arts in Art History. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and apply the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the school and College of the Arts to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following the college’s processes, though GRE scores are not required for admission into the M.A. in Art History if applying through the dual degree program.

Information about the dual program, including application instructions and program requirements, can be found at http://artdesign.gsu.edu.

Studio Concentration

Areas A-E: Core Curriculum Recommendations

1. Students may select one art history survey in Area C.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Required Courses (6):
   - World language at the 1002 level or higher (3)
   - Select one of the following Art History courses (3):
     - AH 1700 Survey of Art I: Western Art from Antiquity to the Middle Ages (3)
     - AH 1750 Survey of Art II: Western Art from the Renaissance to the Present (3)
     - AH 1850 Survey of Art III: Art of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas (3)

2. Select additional elective courses as recommended below to complete 18 hours in Area F:
   a. Studio Foundations (12)
      - ART 1010 Drawing I (3)
      - ART 1020 Two-Dimensional Design (3)
      - ART 1030 Three-Dimensional Design (3)
      - ART 1050 Introductory Studio (3)

Area G: Major Courses (45)

In order to graduate, students must have taken the two CTW courses required for this concentration (ART 3910 and ART 4500). These courses should be taken at the appropriate time, as described below.

1. AH 2000 Survey of Art Since 1900 (3)
2. ART 3910 Critical Issues in Contemporary Art-CTW (3) (serves as one of the two courses needed to fulfill CTW requirement)
3. Art History 3000/4000-level elective (3)
4. Two Art History Electives (4000 level) (6)
5. Complete 19-21 hours in 2000/3000-level courses from among four different studio disciplines (19-21) Note: 3000/4000-level studio courses vary from three to four credit hours. Only one 2000-level course is allowed.
6. Studio Concentration (3000/4000 level, select from one discipline previously studied) (6-8)
7. ART 4500 Directed Study in Art-CTW (3) (serves as one of the two courses needed to fulfill CTW requirement)

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

Students seeking the B.A. in Studio Art are not required to take a minor, although they may complete one if they so choose.

B.F.A. in Art Education

Areas A-E: Core Curriculum Recommendations

1. Area B: Cross-cultural art history courses may be offered in this area as sections of PERS 2001 Perspectives in Comparative Culture 92) or PERS 2003 Perspectives on Human Expression (2).
2. Area C: Students may select one art history survey in Area C.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major (18)

1. Studio Requirements (12)
   - ART 1010 Drawing I (3)
   - ART 1020 Two-Dimensional Design (3)
   - ART 1030 Three-Dimensional Design (3)
   - ART 1050 Introductory Studio (3)
2. Art History Requirements
   a. Select one course in addition to any taken in Area C. (3)
      - AH 1700 Survey of Art I: Western Art from Antiquity to the Middle Ages (3)
      - AH 1750 Survey of Art II: Western Art from the Renaissance to the Present (3)
      - AH 1850 Survey of Art III: Art of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas (3)
   b. AH 2000 Survey of Art Since 1900 (3)

See “Admission to Art Education” above for complete admission requirements. Once admitted to the Art Education program, students should maintain continual contact with the school and submit a form declaring their “Intent to Student Teach” at least three semesters prior to student teaching/graduation. Failure to submit the “Intent to Student Teach” form may result in a delay in student teaching placement and graduation.

Area G: Major Courses (67-69)

A grade of C- or higher must be earned in all required courses, a grade of B- or higher is required in all art education courses, and a GPA of 3.0 is required for all art content courses.

In order to graduate, students must have taken the two CTW courses required for this concentration (AE 4200 and AE 4300). These courses should be taken at the appropriate time, as described below.

1. Required Courses (36)
   - EDUC 2110 Investigating Critical & Contemporary Issues in Education (3)
   - EDUC 2120 Exploring Socio-Cultural Perspectives on Diversity in Educational Contexts (3)
   - EDUC 2130 Exploring Learning & Teaching (3)
   - EXC 4020 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Disabilities (3)
   - Two AH electives not taken in Area C or F2.a (recommended), or one 1000-level survey and one AH 3000-4000 level (6)
   - 3DS 3050 Hand Building I (3)
2. Select two additional courses in one area to satisfy the 26-hour requirement of a studio art concentration. (6-8)

3. Art Education (12)
   - AE 4200 Art for Preschool through Fifth Grade (3)
   - AE 4300 Art for Middle and Secondary Schools (3)
   - AE 4400 Media, Technology, and Visual Presentation (3)
   - AE 4600 Teaching Practicum (3) (This course requires a large number of hours spent in observations in schools off campus, so schedules must be arranged accordingly.)

4. AE 4650 Opening School Experience (0)

5. AE 4750, AE 4760, AE 4770, and AE 4780 (Student Teaching) (12)

6. Select additional courses to complete a minimum of 129 hours. (See “Area H” following the degree requirement listings in this section.) Art 4980, Special Problems (1-6), may be used in order to meet the specified requirements. Consent of Art Education Area Coordinator and instructor required.

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

Students seeking the B.F.A. in art education may not seek a minor. They must take additional courses as electives to complete a minimum of 129 semester hours, exclusive of KH 1010.

Note: Only graduate students will be allowed to register in 6000-level courses, AE 6200, 6300, 6400, and 6600. These courses count only toward certification not as hours in the M.A.Ed.

Application for Entry into Teacher Education

Prior to being approved for entry into the program, art education students must meet professional requirements and standards, including but not limited to displaying professional dispositions and attitudes, the ability to speak in public, professional ethics, and strong content knowledge, as listed in the “Teacher Preparation” chapter of this catalog. Students are evaluated throughout the art education program, and their progress is noted during the Entry-to-the-Art-Education-Major and Pre-Student-Teaching Reviews. If students fail to pass benchmark reviews, they may not be allowed to progress to the next course until they demonstrate the competencies in question. Students are also required to have a 2.5 overall cumulative GPA and to have passed the GACE Program Admission Assessment exam. See “Admission to Art Education” above for complete admission requirements.

Upon admission to a teacher education program, students will be contacted by the Office of Academic Assistance and Graduate Admissions Office with instructions to claim enrollment in their program and submit a GaPSC Pre-Service Certificate Application. The pre-service certificate is required for placement in required field experiences or clinical practice.

Pre-Student-Teaching Review
One semester prior to student teaching, all student teaching applicants will practice their teaching at a local community school art class before their official student-teaching semester, regardless of whether the applicants have previous teaching experiences or not. Prior to being approved for student teaching, all art education students must have met all criteria for entry to the major, and have earned a grade of B- or higher in all art education courses, with a 3.0 GPA for all art courses. Art Education faculty members will review applications according to the teacher certification standards. Students must submit a form declaring their “Intent to Student Teach” at least three semesters prior to student teaching/graduation. Failure to submit the “Intent to Student Teach” form may result in a delay in student teaching placement and graduation. For details about the Pre-Student-Teaching Review, students should contact their art education adviser.

Georgia Assessments for the Certification of Educators (GACE)

The state of Georgia requires such candidates to take various GACE and Educator Ethics assessments as part of the educator certification process. These computer-delivered assessments have been developed by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC) and are delivered by the Education Testing Service (ETS). You will take these tests at different times.

Program Admission and Content Assessments

Program Admission Assessment [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] is an admission requirement (unless candidate meets qualifications for exemption – scroll down to “Options to Satisfy the Program Admission Assessment Requirement”). When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Content Assessment (different content assessments for each program) tests your content knowledge and is taken after enrollment and prior to program completion. You will receive specific information regarding this test as you near completion of your program (required for certification).

Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment

Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment is an admission requirement. Completion of this assessment is required for admission, though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment is taken after enrollment and prior to program completion. You will receive specific information regarding this test as you near completion of your program (required for certification).

Student Teaching

The Art Education program and the Office of Field Placements (housed in the College of Education) will place each student with two placements—elementary and secondary—during the semester of student teaching. Student teaching involves full participation by the students for at least one full academic term. Because student teaching constitutes a full load of academic credit, it is recommended that the students attempt neither regular employment nor other courses during the term of student teaching.
edTPA

edTPA is a preservice assessment process designed by educators to answer the essential question: “Is a new teacher ready for the job?” edTPA includes a review of a teacher candidate’s authentic teaching materials as the culmination of a teaching and learning process that documents and demonstrates each candidate’s ability to effectively teach his/her subject matter to all students. edTPA is a program completion and teacher certification requirement. Students may graduate from the Art Education program while continuing to complete teacher certification requirements for edTPA.

B.F.A. in Studio (120)

See the Program Admission requirements at the beginning of this section.

Areas A-E: Core Curriculum Recommendations

1. Area B: Cross-cultural art history courses may be offered in this area as sections of PERS 2001 Perspectives in Comparative Culture (2) or PERS 2003 Perspectives on Human Expression (2).
2. Area C: Students may select one art history survey in Area C.

Area F: Courses Appropriate to the Major Field (18)

1. Studio Requirements (12)
   - ART 1010 Drawing I (3)
   - ART 1020 Two-Dimensional Design (3)
   - ART 1030 Three-Dimensional Design (3)
   - ART 1050 Introductory Studio (3)
2. Art History Requirements
   a. Select one course in addition to any taken in Area C. (3)
      - AH 1700 Survey of Art I: Western Art from Antiquity to the Middle Ages (3)
      - AH 1750 Survey of Art II: Western Art from the Renaissance to the Present (3)
      - AH 1850 Survey of Art III: Art of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas (3)
   b. AH 2000 Survey of Art Since 1900 (3)

Area G: Major Courses (60)

Course requirements for each of the areas of concentration in studio are listed below. B.F.A. degree requirements for each of the areas of concentration in studio are listed below.

Drawing, Painting, and Printmaking (DPP) Concentration

The following courses are required in Area G for students who are accepted into the Drawing, Painting, and Printmaking (DPP) concentration. Prospective students should attend the DPP orientation/group advisement offered once each Fall. ART 4980, Special Problems (1-6), may be used to adjust program in order to meet the 60-hour requirement. Consent of the area coordinator and instructor required. Acceptance to the DPP concentration is determined by application and portfolio review following completion of at least two DPP 3000-level courses from the art core sequence listed below.
In order to graduate, students must have taken the two CTW courses required for this concentration (Art 3910 and DPP 4950). These courses should be taken at the appropriate time, as described below.

1. Concentration Core Requirements (9)
   - DPP 2100 Advanced Drawing (3)
   - DPP 3000 Life Drawing (3)
   - DPP 3050 Introduction to Printmaking (3)
2. ART 3910 Critical Issues in Contemporary Art-CTW (3) fulfills CTW entry level requirement
3. Art History: Select one course (3)
   - AH 4610 20th Century Art of Europe & US (3)
   - AH 4700 Contemporary Art: Theory and Criticism (3)
4. Art and Art History Electives: any 4000-level art history course and/or one to two 3000/4000-level studio courses outside drawing, painting, and printmaking (6-8)
5. ART 3400 Space, Scale, Time: Digital Possibilities (3)
   This course may only be taken by students who are already accepted into their B.F.A. Studio Concentration.

6. Areas of Emphasis
   Students must elect to follow the drawing and painting emphasis or the printmaking emphasis. Each program of study is described below.

   a. Drawing and Painting Emphasis Requirements (35-36)
      - The following courses are required in Area G for students who are accepted into the drawing and painting emphasis (16).
        - DPP 3200 Painting with Water-Based Media (3)
        - DPP 3300 Painting with Oil-Based Media (3)
        - DPP 3600 Drawing Research (4)
        - DPP 4940 Portfolio I (3)
        - DPP 4950 Portfolio II-CTW (3) fulfills CTW exit level requirement
      - Select from below for a total of 16 hours:
        - DPP 3900 Selected Topics in Drawing and Painting (4-8)
        - DPP 4500 Directed Study in Drawing and Painting (8-12)
      - Select one course from below (3-4):
        - DPP 3150 Intaglio/Etching and Lithography (4)
        - DPP 3250 Screen Print and Experimental Printmaking (4)
        - DPP 3350 Monoprinting (3)
        - DPP 3550 Book Arts (3)

   b. Printmaking Emphasis Requirements (36)
      - The following courses are required in Area G for students who are accepted into the printmaking emphasis.
        - DPP 3150 Intaglio/Etching and Lithography (4)
        - DPP 3250 Screen Print and Experimental Printmaking (4)
        - DPP 4500 Directed Study in Drawing and Painting (4)
        - DPP 4940 Portfolio I (3)
        - DPP 4950 Portfolio II-CTW (3) fulfills CTW exit level requirement
      - Select from below for a total of 12 hours:
        - DPP 3900 Selected Topics in Drawing and Painting (4-8)
        - DPP 4550 Directed Study in Printmaking (4-8)
Select one course from below (3)
- DPP 3350 Monoprinting (3)
- DPP 3550 Book Arts (3)
Select one course from below (3)
- DPP 3200 Painting with Water-Based Media (3)
- DPP 3300 Painting with Oil-Based Media (3)

Graphic Design Concentration

The following courses are required in Area G for students who wish to pursue the Graphic Design concentration. Graphic design courses should be taken in the order listed below. Prospective students should attend a Graphic Design orientation/group advisement offered once each Fall. Graphic design course work should begin fall semester of the sophomore year. Additional information about the graphic design program is available in the School of Art & Design. Students who are not enrolled in graphic design courses for more than one semester, during the junior or senior sequences, are required to resubmit an entrance portfolio for review and acceptance.

In order to graduate, students must have taken the two CTW courses required for this concentration (GRD 3910 and GRD 4950). These courses should be taken at the appropriate time, as described below.

1. Sophomore Requirements (9)
   - Sophomore Level (fall) (6)
     - GRD 3000 Introduction to Graphic Design (3)
     - GRD 3150 Introduction to Typography (3)
     - Enroll in 3150 concurrently with either 3000 (fall) or 3200 (spring)
   - Sophomore Level (spring) (3)
     - GRD 3200 Intermediate Graphic Design (3)

2. BFA Entrance Review

3. Upper Level Requirements (36)
   - Junior Level (fall) (12)
     - GRD 3910 History of Graphic Design-CTW (3) (serves as one of the two courses needed to fulfill CTW requirement)
     - GRD 4020 Advanced Typographic Design (3)
     - GRD 4100 Print and Editorial Design (3)
     - GRD 4310 Multimedia Design (3)
   - Junior Level (spring) (9)
     - GRD 4150 Collateral Design for Print Applications (3)
     - GRD 4300 Internship in Graphic Design (3)

     - 3DS 3800 Installation Art (4)
     - 3DS 3900 Selected Topics in Sculpture (4-8)
     - 3DS 4930 Internship (4)

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses
Students seeking a B.F.A. may not seek a minor due to the focused nature of the B.F.A. degree.

Senior Portfolio Review and Exhibition

Recommendation for graduation with a B.F.A. degree in a studio concentration requires the presentation of a body of work. This includes work completed as part of portfolio courses. B.F.A. candidates who successfully complete portfolio courses 4950 are required to participate in the B.F.A. Senior Group Exhibition.

As an additional condition of graduation for Graphic Design and Interior Design students, a final portfolio of student work includes portfolio course 4950 projects(s), is to be submitted for review and approval by a Senior Exit Review Committee comprised of area faculty.

Art Education students may participate in the B.F.A. Senior Group Exhibition. Artwork from a student’s final portfolio will be recommended by faculty for submission to the exhibition.

Minor in Art or Art History

Students pursuing non-art degrees may take a minor in art or art history. The Art Minor is an 18 credit hour program consisting of two 1000-level studio courses, one 1000-level art history course, two 3000- or 4000-level studio courses, and either one 3000- or 4000-level art history course or one cross-disciplinary art history course (3DS 3910, 3DS 3920, GRD 3910, ID 3910, ID 3920, PHOT 3910, TEXT 3910). The Art History Minor is an 18 credit hour program consisting of three 1000-level art history courses and three 3000- or 4000-level art history courses. A grade of C- or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

10200 Arts Administration – Speech and Theatre

Program Offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies with a Concentration in Arts Administration — Speech and Theatre

The purpose of this program is to provide a broad-based knowledge of the fine arts and business in order to prepare students for managerial positions in the fine arts areas. This program should allow the student with an interest in the arts to develop widely marketable skills. Please contact the School of Film, Media & Theatre or faculty advisement in the program.

Program Admission

A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required in order to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the Office of Academic Assistance. Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation.

Program Degree Requirements
Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 10030.20 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of the Arts Degree Requirements (see section 10030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Courses used to fulfill the two Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) courses for each B.I.S. program will not count towards the rules of Area G — no more than three to four 3-4 credit hour courses (12 hours) from a single discipline — nor of Area H — no more than two 3-4 credit hour courses (6-8 hours) can be taken within a single discipline.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This program offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the program director for the specific criteria for this honor.

10300 Film and Media

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Arts in Film and Media
- Dual B.A. in Film and Media Studies/ M.A. in Communication, Film and Media Concentration

School of Film, Media, & Theatre
10th Floor, 25 Park Place

TBD, Director
TBD, Associate Chairs
TBD, Undergraduate directors

The Film and Media major is devoted to the interdisciplinary study of film, television, and new media. Courses focus on the histories and theories of cinematic, electronic, and digital media in addition to providing the opportunity for hands-on experience in film/media production. Students work closely with faculty members to devise an optimum program of study integrating creative and collaborative thinking, critical analysis, primary research, and media production.

The curriculum invites students to discover how meanings circulate through the conventions and alternative practices specific to various media and their institutions. Courses in the major also pay close attention to the broader cultural, social, industrial, and aesthetic contexts out of which media representations emerge. This liberal arts approach to film, television, and new media provides the student with the necessary skills and knowledge to adapt to the changing media environment of the 21st century. The major equips students for active and critical participation in contemporary visual culture.
Internships are available in the Atlanta metro area and beyond. A flexible curriculum has been configured to enable students to pursue interests in production, historical and critical studies, industries and contemporary culture, and screenwriting. Students graduating with a Film and Media major are prepared to succeed in film/media production, in media industries, or in graduate study.

Major Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for the Film and Media major and to enroll in 3000-4000 level Film and Media courses (i.e., FLME courses), students must fulfill the following requirements:

- Complete [FLME 1010] and FLME 2700 with a minimum grade of C, but a combined grade-point average of 2.5 or better for these two classes.
- Earn a 2.5 grade-point average in all Area F FLME courses. This GPA will be calculated based on the first attempt at these FLME courses at Georgia State University. The University's Repeat to Replace Policy may not be used to fulfill this requirement. WFs counts as an attempt. Transfer students who transfer these course(s) into Georgia State, may use the grades in the transferred course(s) to calculate the GPA or they may attempt them once at Georgia State.

Once a student is eligible to take 3000- and 4000-level Film and Media courses, they remain eligible to take them as long as they are eligible to enroll at Georgia State University.

College and University Degree Requirements

In addition to the Major Eligibility Requirements for Film and Media, students must fulfill the College of the Arts Degree Requirements (see section 10030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

*Students must obtain consent of instructor for FLME 4125, 4130, 4150, 4165, 4780, 4870, 4880, 4890 and
 Students must apply in the school before obtaining an internship for credit.

Area H: Minor and Additional Courses

1. Students majoring in Film and Media must select a minor consisting of at least 15 hours of courses in an academic department/school/institute that offers a baccalaureate degree. At least nine semester hours of minor courses must be at the 3000 level or above, unless otherwise specified by the minor-granting department/school/institute. A grade of C- or higher is required in all minor courses.

Minor in Film and Media

Students who wish to minor in one of the department’s three programs must take 15-18 hours in the specific area, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Students taking more than 15 hours in courses in the specific area may count the additional hours toward their electives or may consider completing a double major. A grade of C- or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor. Students wishing to take 3000- and 4000-level Film and Media (i.e., FLME) courses as part of a minor must first request departmental registration approval.

Dual B.A. in Film and Media/ M.A. in Communication, Film and Media Concentration

The department offers a dual B.A. in Film and Media / M.A. in Communication with a concentration in Film and Media. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and count the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the school and the College of the Arts to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes, though GRE scores are not required for admission into the M.A. in Art History if applying through the dual degree program.

Critical Thinking Through Writing Requirement

As of summer 2015, all students are required to complete one Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course as part of the major. The university formerly required two CTW courses. Students following previous catalog requirements who have passed one CTW course in the major should consult with their senior academic advisor to determine which courses may be used as a substitution for the other formerly required CTW course.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This school offers undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the School of Film, Media & Theatre for the specific criteria for this honor.

The mission of the Georgia State University School of Music is to preserve, promote, and advance humanity's rich and expanding tradition of artistic music-making through performance, composition, education, and research in accordance with the urban and global initiatives of the University.

The School of Music meets this mission by providing all university students with courses designed to help them understand and enjoy music, and by offering Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Science degrees that prepare students for careers in music or further study at the graduate level. The undergraduate degrees in music include specializations in performance, music education, music composition, jazz studies, music technology (recording), and music management. In addition to courses and degree programs, the School of Music offers concerts, recitals, lectures, and workshops that are open to all students and the community.

The School of Music is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music. It participates in the Honors College and offers Honors courses in music. The School of Music also offers scholarships that are awarded to students based on their musical merit and academic achievement.

The School of Music is located in the historic Fairlie-Poplar District in downtown Atlanta. Four buildings comprise the Music Complex: the Haas-Howell Building at 75 Poplar Street, the Rialto Center for the Performing Arts at 80 Forsyth Street, the Standard Building at 92 Luckie Street, and the Aderhold Learning Center at 60 Luckie Street, which houses instrumental and choral rehearsal halls. Some classes are held in the Arts and Humanities Building at 10 Peachtree Center Avenue. Chamber music, faculty, and student recitals are presented in the Kopleff Recital Hall in the Art and Humanities Building. Large ensembles perform throughout the academic year in the Rialto Theater, a 850-seat, state-of-the-art performance venue. The administrative offices are on the fifth floor of the Haas-Howell Building.

Program Admission

Applicants to the School of Music must meet the entrance requirements of both the School of Music and those of Georgia State University. Please refer to the Undergraduate Admissions section of this catalog for information concerning admission requirements to the university.

Individuals who wish to apply for admission to the School of Music should complete the School of Music application. An audition is required for admission to all programs, including the Bachelor of Science program in music management.

Admission to the School of Music is based on (1) the level of performance skill demonstrated in the audition, (2) the availability of openings in the various performing areas.

Students who have been absent from the School of Music for twelve consecutive months must re-audition for reentry.

Audition Requirements

The audition requirements are determined by the applicant’s instrument and are not tied to the program of study. These requirements can be found on the School of Music website at music.gsu.edu/undergraduate/audition-information/

Program Financial Information

All applicants to the School of Music are automatically considered for talent-based scholarships. Program fees include locker, laboratory, and recital expenses associated with certain programs, classes, and degree requirements. Every student registering for an Applied Music course will be charged an Applied Music fee. For each 1000 or 6000-level Applied Music course, a $200.00 fee will be charged. For all other Applied Music courses, a $350.00 fee will be charged.

Program Academic Regulations

Undergraduate music degrees (B.Mu. and B.S.) require students to take general education courses in the sciences and humanities, courses in musical foundations, and courses in a concentration of their choice. Foundation courses include music performance, piano, music theory, and music history/literature. In addition to foundation courses, students must complete courses in a concentration. Available concentrations for the B.Mu. degree are: performance, composition, music technology (recording), music education, and jazz studies. The music management curriculum leads to a B.S. degree. Some concentrations have specializations that are detailed below.

Explanation of Applied Music Levels

Applied music consists of individual or small-group performance instruction in a student’s principal performing medium. All music majors must study applied music as part of their degree programs.

- 1000 level: Introductory. May be used by students who are admitted to the School of Music but who wish to study in a secondary area. With permission, introductory level courses may also be used by music minors or approved non-majors. 1000-level applied music classes are not applicable to degree requirements in a student’s principal performing medium. Authorization is required. One credit hour per semester; one half-hour lesson each week:
  - 1001/1002 level: Freshman level. One credit hour per semester; one hour lesson per week.
  - 2001/2002 level: Sophomore level. One or two credit hours per semester; one hour lesson per week.
  - 3001/3002 level: Junior level. One to three credit hours per semester; one hour lesson per week.
  - 4001/4002 level: Senior level. One to three credit hours per semester; one hour lesson per week.

Musical Ensembles

Musical ensembles (choral groups, jazz ensembles, orchestra, and wind ensembles) are open to all Georgia State University students by audition. Non-music majors should contact the School of Music or the appropriate ensemble director for information on scheduling a pool audition.

Every student who is registered for applied music is required to enroll concurrently in a conducted ensemble. A music student may be required to perform in more than one ensemble. Factors considered in making assignments will include the specific needs and abilities of the student and the requirements of the various ensembles.

All music majors (with the exception of music education) are required to complete a minimum of eight credit hours of ensemble. Only one credit hour of ensemble per semester may be applied to the total. Assignments to specific ensembles are made each fall semester through pool auditions. Students are required to perform in those ensembles to which they are assigned. Students in the jazz studies concentration may count four credit hours of jazz band toward the eight required credit hours of large ensemble.

The Applied Cluster

Music students who register for applied music must also register for both chamber music/performance laboratory and a large ensemble. These activities are collectively known as the Applied Cluster. Students may be required to participate in studio classes, labs, and/or master classes as required by applied instructors.

Concert Attendance (Mus 1101 through Mus 1106)

Music majors must successfully complete six semesters of concert attendance (MUS 1101 through MUS
MUS 1101 through MUS 1106 is a zero-credit-hour course. Credit may be granted to transfer students for documented concert attendance requirements at prior institutions.

Program Degree Requirements

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of the Arts Degree Requirements and the University Degree Requirements, sections 10030.20 and 1400 of this catalog.

Admission to a Concentration

Music students must pass a qualifying examination for entrance to their concentration during their fourth semester of applied study. Information about qualifying examinations is available from the School of Music office.

Music education faculty evaluate each music education student prior to student teaching in order to determine their qualifications.

These qualifications are 1) an overall GPA of 2.5 or above, 2) a GPA of at least 2.5 in all music courses, 3) grades of C or higher in all of the courses in the concentration, and 4) grades of B or higher in all music education methods courses. Music education students must also demonstrate teaching competence as determined by the music education faculty and must demonstrate a record of professional attributes and personal behaviors suitable for placement in a school with children.

Application for Entry to Teacher Education

Music education majors must file a formal application for entry into teacher education using the form available on the College of Education and Human Development’s website or supplied by the music education faculty. Students must apply for entry into teacher education concurrent with their applications for practicum/internship (MUS 4260 or 4310). This normally occurs upon completion of 60 hours of course work, including courses required in Areas A through D and EDUC 2110. Students are also required to have passed the GACE I (a test of basic reading, writing, and mathematics skills).

To apply, students must have:

- earned a 2.5 overall cumulative GPA,
- earned a 2.5 GPA in all music courses,
- earned grades of C- or higher in all of the courses in the concentration,
- earned grades of B or higher in all music education methods courses,
- passed [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] or been exempted from the GACE Program Admission Assessment. When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment; and
- completed the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment; though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.
Georgia Assessments for the Certification of Educators (GACE)
The state of Georgia requires such candidates to take various GACE and Educator Ethics assessments as part of the educator certification process. These computer-delivered assessments have been developed by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC) and are delivered by the Education Testing Service (ETS). You will take these tests at different times.

Program Admission and Content Assessments: Program Admission Assessment [Combined Test I, II, and III (700)] is an admission requirement (unless candidate meets qualifications for exemption – scroll down to “Options to Satisfy the Program Admission Assessment Requirement”). When registering for the assessment, program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University – school code 5090) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

Content Assessment (different content assessments for each program) tests your content knowledge and is taken after enrollment and prior to program completion. You will receive specific information regarding this test as you near completion of your program (required for certification).

Upon admission to a teacher education program, students will be contacted by the Office of Academic Assistance and Graduate Admissions Office with instructions to claim enrollment in their program and submit a GaPSC Pre-Service Certificate Application. The pre-service certificate is required for placement in required field experiences or clinical practice.

Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment: Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Entry (350) Assessment is an admission requirement. Completion of this assessment is required for admission, though there is no “Pass/Fail” grade assigned. Program entry candidates must add your program provider (Georgia State University) as a score recipient when you register or we will not receive notification that you have completed the assessment.

edTPA: edTPA is a preservice assessment process designed by educators to answer the essential question: “Is a new teacher ready for the job?” edTPA includes a review of a teacher candidate’s authentic teaching materials as the culmination of a teaching and learning process that documents and demonstrates each candidate’s ability to effectively teach his/her subject matter to all students. edTPA is a program completion and teacher certification requirement. Students may graduate from the BIS program while continuing to complete teacher certification requirements for edTPA.

Double-Numbered Courses
Students may only receive credit for one level of a double-numbered course, with the exception of courses for which they are required to register in more than one semester.

Minor in Music

The School of Music offers a minor in music with either an emphasis in general music studies or in music management. A background in music is helpful but not necessary. The minor requires 18 semester hours of course work in music, 9 of which must be at the 3000-4000 level. Required courses include music theory, music history, performance, and electives. Certain prerequisites may not count toward the requirements for the minor. Interested students should contact the School of Music for further information.

Dual B.Mu./M.Mu. Program

The school offers a dual Bachelor of Music and Master of Music program. The dual degree opportunity enables qualified students to enroll in graduate courses late in their undergraduate program and apply the coursework toward both the bachelor’s and master’s programs.

Students must be formally accepted into the dual degree program by the school and College of the Arts to be able to take graduate courses as an undergraduate. Additionally, acceptance into the dual program does not constitute admission to the master’s program. Students must fulfill regular graduate admissions requirements and apply for the master’s program following college processes.
Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This school offers undergraduate students the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the School of Music for the specific criteria for this honor.

10500 Theatre

Programs Offered:

- Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies in Theatre
  - Concentration in Performance Studies
  - Concentration in Design and Production
- Minor in Theatre

The B.I.S. in Theatre program focuses on the history, theory, and practice of creating live theatrical performance. Theatre courses are designed to promote the artistic development of students whose interests and talents will lead them to careers in theatre or allied arts, and to help students with other vocational interests to understand and appreciate the cultural heritage represented in drama and to improve their oral communication skills. The University Theatre and the Georgia State University Players afford majors practical experience through participation in productions. Credit for special projects and internships is available so students can take advantage of the expertise in the professional sector of the metropolitan area and to tailor programs to their specific career goals.

Program Admission

A 2.0 Georgia State University GPA is required in order to apply to the program. Application materials can be obtained from the Office of Academic Assistance. Students should apply to the program by the time they have earned 42 credit hours to avoid a delay in graduation. Theatre faculty in the School of Film, Media & Theatre are available to advise for the B.I.S. in Theatre degree.

Program Degree Requirements

Please refer to the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies section 10030.20 of this catalog for academic regulations for this program.

In addition to the Program Degree Requirements, students must fulfill the College of the Arts Degree Requirements (see section 10030) and the University Degree Requirements (see section 1400).

Courses used to fulfill the Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) requirement for each B.I.S. program will not count towards the rules of Area G — no more than three to four 3-4 credit hour courses (12 hours) from a single discipline — nor of Area H — no more than two 3-4 credit hour courses (6-8 hours) can be taken within a single discipline.

Area J. Electives (12)

Students need pre-requisites for studio arts courses. Electives would normally include THEA 4980 as an option.

Minor in Theatre

Theatre is both a respected art form whose roots reach back 4,000 years and a field of academic study whose practitioners have made major contributions to our understandings of art, culture, the social sciences, political activism, multicultural awareness, and gender diversity. The minor in theatre can prepare students to incorporate theatre studies and production within a wide variety of career paths in such fields as education, filmmaking, journalism, literary studies, and community service. In addition, Georgia State’s theatre minors have gone on to advanced studies in theatre on the graduate level and professional careers as actors, directors, writers, designers, and technicians.

Program Degree Requirements

Students who wish to minor in Theatre must take 15-18 hours in Theatre, including at least nine semester hours at the 3000 level or above. Theatre minors are held to the same course prerequisite requirements as majors. Students taking more than 15 hours of courses in the field may count the additional hours toward their electives. A grade of C- or higher is required in all courses counting toward the minor.

Graduation with Distinction in the Major

This program offers undergraduate students the opportunity to earn the designation of graduation with distinction in the major. Please contact the School of Film, Media & Theatre for the specific criteria for this honor.

Computer Skills Prerequisites (CSP)
Some courses offered by the Robinson College of Business require any student who enrolls in that course to be proficient with certain computer skills. For a complete description of CSP requirements, please refer to the “J. Mack Robinson College of Business” chapter of this catalog (see section 7000).

Corequisites
A corequisite identifies another course or courses that should be taken concurrently with the listed course. A student who enrolls in a listed course with corequisites must also enroll in those corequisite courses. A student who has previously completed a corequisite course may not need to repeat it; he or she should consult with an academic adviser before registering to determine specific requirements.

Course Credit Hours
The total semester hours of credit for each course are shown in parentheses immediately following the course title.

Prerequisites
A prerequisite identifies a course or other requirements that a student must have completed successfully before enrolling in the listed course. Any student who has not met prerequisites for a course may be administratively withdrawn from that course at the discretion of the instructor. It is the policy of some university departments to withdraw automatically any student who enrolls in a course without first meeting its prerequisites.
ACCT ACCOUNTING

ACCT 2101  Principles of Accounting I

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

REQUIREMENTS  CSP: 1, 2, 7

DESCRIPTION  Principles of Accounting I is an introduction to the principles of financial accounting. The course focuses on analyzing business transactions to chart their effects on the results of operations, the cash flows, and the financial position of businesses organized for profit. Emphasis is placed on using financial information from a decision-making perspective to optimize the outcomes of business decisions. Topics include recording, reporting, and analyzing assets, liabilities, stockholders equity, revenues, and expenses.

ACCT 2102  Principles of Accounting II

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

REQUIREMENTS  CSP: 1, 2, 7

DESCRIPTION  Prerequisite: ACCT 2101. Principles of Accounting II is an introduction to the principles of managerial accounting. Emphasis is given to the development and use of accounting information to support managerial decision-making in manufacturing, service, and merchandising operations. Topics include managerial concepts and systems, analyses for decision making, and planning and control.

ACCT 4111  Intermediate Accounting I

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

PREREQUISITES  ACCT 2101, ACCT 2102 and BCOM 3950 with grade of B or higher

REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP: 1, 2, 6

DESCRIPTION  Students will learn the environmental and theoretical structure of financial accounting, the accounting process, and preparation of an income statement, balance sheet and statement of cash flows. Students will also learn to measure income, do profitability analysis, apply time value of money concepts to financial accounting measurements, account for cash, receivables and inventories, and learn to research financial accounting issues using the FASB Codification Database.

ACCT 4112  Intermediate Accounting II

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

PREREQUISITES  ACCT 2101, and ACCT 2102 with grade of B or higher and ACCT 4111, and MGS 3100 with grade of C- or higher

REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP: 1, 2, 6

DESCRIPTION  Students will learn how to account for the economic resources and liabilities of an enterprise. Topics studied will include operational assets, investments, current liabilities, bonds, and leases. Students will also learn rudimentary financial statement analysis pertaining to these topics, analyze real world cases and learn to research financial accounting issues using the FASB Codification Database.

ACCT 4391  Field Study in Accounting
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ACCT 4112 with a 3.0 GPA or higher and enrolled as an undergraduate accounting major and consent of instructor
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP: 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, 8
DESCRIPTION  (May be repeated once) The field study is a supervised, employer-site learning experience. In this experience, students have the opportunity to apply accounting skills in a professional setting. Students must consult with the instructor or with the School of Accountancy's Undergraduate Program Coordinator before registering to determine whether their employment internship experiences will qualify for credit. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

ACCT 4510  Introduction to Federal Income Taxes
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  Must have senior standing or graduate status
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP: 1, 2, 6
DESCRIPTION  This course introduces students to the federal tax concepts applicable to sole proprietorships, partnerships, corporations, estates, and trusts. Emphasis is placed on differences between tax and financial accounting concepts. In addition, students are exposed to accounting periods and methods, deferred compensation, tax planning, ethical practices, and tax research.

ACCT 4610  Introduction to Assurance Services
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ACCT 4113
DESCRIPTION  This course develops students' knowledge of auditing, attest, and assurance services in traditional and e-business environments. Topics include the role of such services in society, evidence relevance and reliability, materiality, risk and control, information integrity, and methods of verification.
AS 4140  Mathematical Foundations of Actuarial Science
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  RMI 3750 or MATH 4751
DESCRIPTION  This course covers 1) uni-variate probability distributions, including binomial, negative binomial, geometric, hypergeometric, Poisson, uniform, exponential, chi-square, beta, Pareto, lognormal, gamma, Weibull, and normal; 2) multivariate joint distributions, conditional and marginal distributions; 3) moments and moment generating function, 4) transform of variables, 5) order statistics, and 6) central limit theorem. The purpose of this course of reading is to develop knowledge of the fundamental probability tools for quantitatively assessing risk. The application of these tools to problems encountered in actuarial science is emphasized. A thorough command of probability topics and the supporting calculus is assumed.

AS 4230  Theory of Interest
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MATH 2215
DESCRIPTION  Topics include measurement of interest, accumulation and discount, forces of interest and discount, equations of value, annuities, perpetuities, amortization and sinking funds, yield rates, bonds and securities, depreciation, depletion, and capitalized costs.

AS 4260  Microeconomic Foundations of Actuarial Science
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ECON 2106 and concurrent registration in AS 4230
DESCRIPTION  CSP: 1. This course covers the applications of interest theory and calculus to intermediate microeconomics in an actuarial context.

AS 4320  Introduction to Stochastic Actuarial Models
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MATH 4751
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP: 2
DESCRIPTION  This course covers the application of basic stochastic models in an actuarial setting. Topics include review of frequency-severity models, introduction to compound distributions, stochastic models, and simulation techniques.

AS 4340  Life Contingencies I
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MATH 4751
COREQUISITES  AS 4230
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP: 2
DESCRIPTION  This course is an introduction to life contingencies as applied in actuarial practice. Topics include present value random variables for contingent annuities and insurance, their distributions and actuarial present values, equivalence principle, and other principles for determining premiums.

AS 4350  Life Contingencies II
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  AS 4340
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP: 2
DESCRIPTION  This course is a continuation of the study of life contingencies. Topics include insurance and annuity reserves, characterization of discrete and continuous multiple decrement models in insurance and employee benefits, and multiple life models.

REQUIREMENTS
Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP: 1, 2, 5, 6, 7

DESCRIPTION
This course introduces quantitative methods for pricing financial derivatives, treating in detail the program of valuation by "no-arbitrage." Institutional features of derivative markets are covered along with theory and application. The discrete-time binomial pricing model is studied in depth. An introduction to the elements of stochastic calculus (Brownian Motion, and Ito's formula) then enables students to work with the mainstream continuous-time models of Black-Scholes-Merton and others. These methods are applied to price and hedge standard securities such as stock options, interest rate caps, swaps, swaptions, and commodity futures. Students will see application to insurance and actuarial science. The course will cover Society of Actuaries required reading.
AAS AFRICAN-AMERICAN STUDIES

AAS 1140  Introduction to African and African-American History and Culture
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  (Same as [HIST 1140].) An introductory survey of African-American History that provides engagement with significant topics, themes and issues in the African American experience from pre-colonial Africa, through enslavement in North America to the present.

DESCRIPTION  This course examines historical, contemporary, and interdisciplinary perspectives of applied anthropology: a way of life and work informed by scientific and scholarly knowledge, expressed as socially responsible conduct, and defined by ethical principles and strategies of social reform. We will explore, evaluate, and critique (1) anthropologists' claims of a "new anthropology" concerned with the study of humanity at the service of humanity; (2) epistemological, theoretical, and methodological frameworks of applied anthropology across the sub-disciplines of archaeology, biological anthropology, sociocultural anthropology, and linguistics; and (3) empirical case studies of policy and practice.
ANTH 4360  Methods and Theories in Biological Anthropology
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ANTH 2010 with grade of C or higher, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  A survey of theories in skeletal biology, bioarchaeology, paleoanthropology, biomedical anthropology, population genetics, and contemporary human biological adaptation. Bioanthropological methods for testing hypotheses and creating explanatory models.

ANTH 4370  Forensic Anthropology
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ANTH 2010 with grade of C or higher, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  Laboratory-based identification of skeletal remains of unknown individuals with an emphasis on determining age, sex, evidence of trauma, and cause of death. Crime scene recovery, documentation of evidence, the criminal justice system, and human rights initiatives will be explored.

ANTH 4390  Diet, Demography, and Disease
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ANTH 1102, ANTH 2010, or ANTH 2030 with grade of C or higher, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  Overview of human/disease interactions from prehistoric to contemporary populations. Emphasis on major social transformation, such as sedentism, animal and plant domestication, urbanism, and globalism. Global Perspectives Course.

ANTH 4420  Gender and Power in Ethnographic Perspective
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ANTH 2010 with grade of C or higher, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  (Same as WGSS 4210.) Ethnographic and theoretical examination of the role of gender in human societies, including role differences and inequalities between women and men cross-culturally; the cultural significance and social institutions associated with public and domestic spheres; power, ideology, and the production of historically specific gender identities and sexualities; global perspectives on feminism and approaches to women’s empowerment. Global Perspectives Course.

ANTH 4430  Anthropology and Public Health
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ANTH 1102 or ANTH 2020 with grade of C or higher

BIOL 4010 Mathematical Biology
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES MATH 1220, MATH 2202, or MATH 2212 with a C or higher.
DESCRIPTION (Same as MATH 4010.) This course provides an introduction to the use of continuous and discrete differential equations in the biological sciences. Biological topics will include single species and interacting population dynamics, modeling infectious and dynamic diseases, regulation of cell function, molecular interactions and receptor-ligand binding, biological oscillators, and an introduction to biological pattern formation. There will also be discussions of current topics of interest such as Tumor Growth and Angiogenesis, HIV and AIDS, and Control of the Mitotic Clock. Mathematical tools such as phase portraits, bifurcation diagrams, perturbation theory, and parameter estimation techniques that are necessary to analyze and interpret biological models will also be covered.

BIOL 4011 Principles of Paleontology
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES GEOL 1122K with grade of C or higher, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION (Same as GEOL 4011.) Three lecture and three laboratory hours a week. An introduction to the principles of paleontology including taphonomy, taxonomy, evolution, and extinction by examination of the fossil record. Study of commonly preserved organisms and their use in paleoecology, paleoenvironmental reconstruction, biostratigraphic correlation, and conservation paleobiology will be stressed as well.

BIOL 4014K Invertebrate Biology
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES BIOL 3840 and BIOL 3850 with grades of C or higher, or equivalent course work
DESCRIPTION Three lecture and three laboratory hours a week. Structure, function, distribution, and taxonomic relationships of invertebrate animals.

BIOL 4015K Vertebrate Biology
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES BIOL 3840 and BIOL 3850 with grades of C or higher, or equivalent course work, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION Three lecture and three laboratory hours a week. Diversity, taxonomy, structure, function, distribution, and ecology of living and extinct vertebrates.

BIOL 4040 Neuroethology
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES NEUR 3000 or BIOL 4102, or equivalent, with a grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION (Same as NEUR 4040). Four lecture hours per week. The neural basis of behavior from an ethological perspective. The course will cover discoveries, techniques, and concepts underlying neuroethological research. Developmental, evolutionary, and comparative approaches are emphasized. 4.00 credit hours.

BIOL 4045K General Ecology-CTW
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES BIOL 3840 with a grade of C or higher, or equivalent course
DESCRIPTION BIOL 3820 recommended. Three lecture and two laboratory hours per week. Principles governing distribution and abundance of organisms and their interactions. Experiments, data collection and analysis of ecological processes with an emphasis on critical thinking through writing. Serves as one of the two Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) courses required of all biology majors.
BIOL 4050K The Natural Environment of Georgia

CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES BIOL 1104K or BIOL 2108K with grade of C or higher, and GEOG 1113 or equivalent, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION (Same as GEOG 4050.) Three lecture hours a week with a one day weekend lab every other weekend. Georgia is a state with great a diversity of natural communities, in large part because of the many different landscapes present in the state. Through readings, discussions, tests, field outings, projects and in-class exercises, students will become familiar with the principles involved in the structure and function of Georgia's dwindling, but diverse, ecosystems. There will be an emphasis on plant communities and the physical environment, but animal communities and landscape management strategies will also be covered. Locations, diversity, and plant indicator species (especially trees) will be examined in the classroom and in the field, and experiential learning is emphasized.

BIOL 4074 Developmental Biology

CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES BIOL 3840 and BIOL 3900 with grades of C or higher
DESCRIPTION Four lecture hours a week. Introduction to developmental biology emphasizing cellular, genetic, and molecular aspects and mechanisms of development.

BIOL 4094 Developmental Neurobiology

CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES BIOL 3800 with grade of C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION Four lecture hours per week. Introduction to the development of the nervous system. Covers the field of developmental neurobiology from neural induction to the modification of neuronal connections in the adult nervous system and uses a variety of model organisms to demonstrate the rules by which nervous systems develop.

BIOL 4102 Neurobiology

CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES BIOL 3800 and BIOL 3840 with grades of C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION Comprehensive basis for understanding brain research, major discoveries in neuroscience, and the methods employed for those achievements. Topics include the neural basis of learning and memory, sensory perception, motor control, neurological diseases, drug action, and behavior.

BIOL 4104 Zoo Biology

CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES BIOL 3840 with grade of C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION Four lecture hours a week. Historical background as well as current issues and developments in zoos. Topics include conservation, SSPs (Species Survival Plans), behavioral enrichment, studbook management, and planning/economics of major exhibits. Course instruction will be on-site at Zoo Atlanta. Students will work directly with animal curators and keepers.

BIOL 4280  Immunology of Infectious Diseases
CREDIT HOURS  4.0
PREREQUISITES  BIOL 3880 and BIOL 3900 with grades of C or higher, or equivalent course work
DESCRIPTION  Four lecture hours a week. Principles of immunobiology focusing on human innate and adaptive immune responses and mechanisms that coordinate these responses to protect from infection. Over-reactions of the immune system and principles underlying efficacy of vaccines for infectious diseases. Analysis of research articles to explore recent advances in immunology research with an emphasis on critical thinking.

BIOL 4282  Tumor Immunology
CREDIT HOURS  4.0
PREREQUISITES  BIOL 3800 with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION  This course discusses the molecular basis of tumorigenesis and the interactions between the immune system and tumors/cancer cells. Topics covered include: basic tumorigenesis of common solid tumors, basic immunology, tumor antigen expression, types of immune responses to tumors, mechanisms by which tumors escape/suppress the immune response and novel approaches for immunotherapy of advanced cancers.

BIOL 4900  Directed Laboratory Study
CREDIT HOURS  2.0
COREQUISITES  BIOL 4910 or equivalent
DESCRIPTION  One lecture hour and one discussion hour per week. Student learning of experimental strategies and procedures through laboratory group meetings and individual discussion with faculty laboratory director.

BIOL 4905  Theme-Based Biology Laboratory
CREDIT HOURS  2.0 - 4.0
PREREQUISITES  BIOL 3810 with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION  Students will work in small groups to develop specific biological hypotheses, design and carry out experiments to test these hypotheses, and analyze the results they obtain. May be repeated for credit if topic is different.

BIOL 4910  Undergraduate Research in Biology
CREDIT HOURS  1.0 - 5.0
PREREQUISITES  at least 20 hours in biology and consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  Independent laboratory investigation of common interest to student and instructor. May be repeated once. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

BIOL 4911  Internship in Zoo Research
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  BIOL 4104 with grade of C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION  Admission by permission of instructor. Nine lab hours per week. Students will directly participate in ongoing primary research at the zoo. This will be under the direction of animal curators and keepers at the zoo and will provide specific research opportunities with the living collections at Zoo Atlanta. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

BIOL 4912  Zoo Internship in Animal Management
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  BIOL 4104 with grade of C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION  Admission by permission of instructor. Nine lab hours per week. Supervised hands-on experience with the practical aspects of managing a wide range of exotic animals in a captive setting. Students will work directly with animal curators and keepers. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

BIOL 4913  Georgia Aquarium Internship I
CREDIT HOURS  2.0
PREREQUISITES  BIOL 3020 with grade of B or higher, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  Students will participate in the education programs at the Georgia Aquarium one morning a week for about three hours, depending on Aquarium requirements, and under the supervision of Aquarium staff. The primary goal is to train interns to be able to deliver education programs at the Georgia Aquarium. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

BIOL 4914  Georgia Aquarium Internship II
CREDIT HOURS  2.0
PREREQUISITES  BIOL 4913 with grade of S and consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  This is the second part of the Georgia Aquarium internship program. Students will participate in the education programs at the Georgia Aquarium one morning a week for about three hours, depending on Aquarium requirements, and under the supervision of Aquarium staff. The interns will deliver education programs to visiting student groups and train interns in first part of the Intern program (BIOL 4913 or BIOL 6913). This course may include a Signature Experience component.

Introduction to Administration and Organization of Programs for Young Children

CREDIT HOURS
3.0

PREREQUISITES
EDUC 2300 with a grade of "C" or higher

DESCRIPTION
Teacher candidates will develop knowledge and skills in planning, implementation, and maintenance of an effective early childhood program. Laws, rules, regulations, accreditation and program evaluation will be addressed. Managing a facility, financial resources, and personnel will be emphasized. Program administrator competencies of national accrediting agencies will be addressed.

BRFV 3250
Professional and Ethical Practice-CTW

CREDIT HOURS
3.0

DESCRIPTION
Teacher candidates will develop knowledge, skills, and dispositions that will enable them to work as professionals in a variety of settings with children from birth through five years of age and their caregivers. Teacher candidates will become familiar with organizations and publications relevant to the fields of early childhood education and early childhood/special education and will learn to adhere to codes of ethical behavior for those fields. Topics include professional qualifications, professionalism, advocacy, and team process models. This course is a Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course.

CREDIT HOURS
3.0

PREREQUISITES
EDUC 2300 with a grade of "C" or higher or ECE 3021 with a grade of "C" or higher

DESCRIPTION
Teacher candidates will develop knowledge about the inter-relatedness of cognition, language, and literacy such that they gain a strong pedagogical foundation in literacy and language development with an emphasis on the practical application of course topics to implement developmentally appropriate practices and experiences. Topics include pre-linguistic development, components of language, relationships between oral and written language, early literacy development, individual differences, and cultural and linguistic variations in language including bilingualism and biliteracy. This course is a Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course. This course may include a Signature Experience component.
BRFV 4380  Methods for Infants and Toddlers
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES EDUC 2300 with a grade of "C" or higher
COREQUISITES EXC 4520
DESCRIPTION Teacher candidates will develop knowledge and skills in planning and implementing developmentally appropriate activities in a flexible and supportive learning environment for children birth through 36 months of age. Teacher candidates will use instructional methods and materials based on knowledge of child, family, community, and curricular goals. Topics include application of brain and attachment research, how infants learn, and how caregivers can use routines to provide individual, respectful, and responsive care to support optimum social/emotional, cognitive, and physical development of children, birth to age 18 months; promoting the development of toddlers' sense of self, building teaching relationships with toddlers, socialization and guidance in toddler years, facilitation of language development, toilet learning. DECAL standards for 0-3 will be explored. (Includes field experience).

BRFV 4390  Reading/Literacy, Social Studies and the Arts: Methods for Young Children
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES EDUC 2300 with a grade of "C" or higher
COREQUISITES EXC 4530
DESCRIPTION Teacher candidates will learn to plan, teach and assess developmentally appropriate individual and group activities for children in preschool, Pre-K and Kindergarten. Topics and activities will include the curriculum areas of early literacy, including reading, writing, expressive language, phonological awareness and childrens literature. Additional topics include social studies and strategies to promote social and emotional development. Curriculum planning will emphasize integration of the arts, including music and movement, the visual arts, and dramatic play. DECAL and GA DOE standards will be explored (Includes field experience).

BRFV 4400  Family and Community Relationships
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES EDUC 2152 with a grade of "C" or higher or ECE 3021 with a grade of "C" or higher
DESCRIPTION The structure, function, and process of parenting are explored. An emphasis is placed on understanding characteristics of parents, parenting behavior, parenting styles, and their consequences on children and parent-child relationships. Families' relationships with caregivers, early childhood care and education settings, and communities will also be discussed.
BRFV 4490

CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES EDUC 2300 with a grade of "C" or higher
COREQUISITES BRFV 4390 and EXC 4530
DESCRIPTION Teacher candidates will learn to plan, teach and assess developmentally appropriate individual and group activities for children in preschool, Pre-K and Kindergarten. Topics and activities will include the curriculum areas of science, technology, applied principles of engineering, mathematics and other STEM content. Additional topics include critical thinking, executive function, and creative problem solving strategies to promote intellectual development. Curriculum planning will also emphasize integration of the arts (STEAM). DECAL and GA DOE standards will be explored (Includes field experience).

BRFV 4661
Student Teaching Birth Through Five

CREDIT HOURS 9.0 - 12.0
PREREQUISITES All courses in Birth Through Five BSE Program
DESCRIPTION This course is the culmination of teacher candidates' knowledge gained in previous coursework and allows them to demonstrate self-sufficiency and independence if they are beginning teachers or at high levels of competence if experienced teachers. Teacher candidates will complete the student teaching internship in an early care and education setting for young children or in a preschool/Pre-kindergarten or Kindergarten setting. Opportunity is given for teacher candidates to work with young children with or without special needs. Teacher candidates will demonstrate the knowledge, skills, and dispositions acquired in the program. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

BRFV 4650
Opening School Experience

CREDIT HOURS 0.0
REQUIREMENTS Course is graded as satisfactory/unsatisfactory
DESCRIPTION A minimum grade of "S" is required for this course. Students gain practical experiences in the school and classroom during the weeks of pre-planning. While assisting in the classroom, students learn effective procedures for beginning the school year. This course may include a Signature Experience component.
BUSA BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION--BUSA

BUSA 1105
Business, Value and You

- CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
- PREREQUISITES: None
- REQUIREMENTS: By permission of instructor only
- DESCRIPTION: CSP's: None Why does the world need business Why do some succeed and others fail What value do non-governmental organizations, not-for-profits, non-profits, and social entrepreneurship add And what value do you bring as an employee, manager, professional, or entrepreneur Find out in this hybrid, hands-on course which introduces students to the basics of business. Students will explore the role of markets in society, how firms operate in a global, market economy, and the environmental forces that affect them. Students will investigate the different functions within the firm and how those functions work in an integrated manner to create value. Students will also enhance their professional image as they hone their elevator pitches, refine their resumes, and polish their social network profiles.

BUSA 2106
The Legal and Ethical Environment of Business

- CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
- PREREQUISITES: None
- DESCRIPTION: The legal environment plays a significant role in facilitating and constraining business activity. To be competitive, American business must understand and strategically use the legal environment to minimize risk and add value to the enterprise. This course provides you with an overview of US statutory, administrative and judicial efforts to regulate business activity in several areas: business entities, corporations and governance, agency and employment law, contract law, tort law, products liability, and the protection of intellectual property. Because strategic responses to competitive pressures may also require managers to make difficult ethical decisions, the course also explores the interrelationship of law, ethics and business.

BUSA 3000
Globalization and Business Practice-CTW

- CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
- PREREQUISITES: None
- DESCRIPTION: This course examines worldwide integration of economic, political, technological, cultural, and social facets to explore the impact of globalization on organizations and individuals worldwide. Students develop an understanding of the macro environment of the global marketplace. They learn how to incorporate their knowledge of global markets through the simultaneous consideration of all business functions. Methodologies of country market assessment are utilized applying critical thinking through writing. The course is the required first CTW course for all majors in the Robinson College of Business. Global Perspectives Course.
BUSA 3090
Survey of Business Principles for Non-Business Students

CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
REQUIREMENTS: CSP: 1, 2, 6, 7.
DESCRIPTION: Prerequisites: Minimum of a 2.8 GPA and 45 credit hours. It is a survey course that spans many of the business management areas including: marketing, operations, accounting, finance, strategy, ethics and economics. The course is not intended to replace more in-depth studies of any of these business disciplines but rather to jump-start such studies for students with little or no background in business. The course is designed for non-business students interested in starting their own entrepreneurial ventures. This course will prepare these students to take additional entrepreneurship courses and to participate in various entrepreneurship activities within the University.

BUSA 3110
Introduction to Business Analytics

CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
PREREQUISITES: CIS 2010, Junior Standing in RCB
COREQUISITES: MK 3010, BCOM 3002
DESCRIPTION: CSP’s: 1, 2, 6. This course develops students’ ability to perform analysis of business decisions problems using modern data analytics methods and statistical models. Students will be able to identify the type of data that is appropriate for the problem in hand; recognize the sources of relevant data; collect, organize and clean data for analysis; identify the techniques that are suitable for analyzing the problem; create meaningful data visualization; compute various statistical measures; and perform data driven analysis to make inferences and decisions. Students will have hands-on experience on the development of data analytics applications to analyze real world business decisions problems.

BUSA 3400
Women Lead in Business

CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
PREREQUISITES: None
DESCRIPTION: The Women Lead in Business course is a Signature Experience course that focuses on three themes: (1) self-awareness and self-efficacy, (2) critical analysis of the economic and social effects of women in the workforce and (3) a leadership development component that will demonstrate how self awareness, interpersonal influence, commitment, goal setting and power are necessary to be effective in the workplace. The course allows students to learn beyond the classroom and to prepare for success and leadership across various sectors of the economy.

BUSA 4110
Practical Business Analytics

CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
PREREQUISITES: BUSA 3110
DESCRIPTION: This course provides a frame of reference for using models in support of decision making in an enterprise, then introduces some of the more commonly useful modeling approaches and principles. Topics covered include modeling components, simulation, optimization, time series and causal forecasting, decision analysis, Monte Carlo simulation and quality management. The course emphasizes hands-on application of the techniques using commonly available software, and demonstrates the value of these approaches in a wide variety of functional settings.
BUSA 4500  Panther Accelerated Consulting Experience
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  The Panthers Accelerated Consulting Experience (PACE) is a Signature Experience open to Seniors who have completed their business core and who have a GPA of at least 3.2. Students in teams of 4 or 5 will work with real companies to consult on real business strategy issues that are important to those companies over the course of a semester.

BUSA 4980  Strategic Management
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  BCOM 3950, and BUSA 3000, and Fi I300, and MGS 3100, and MGS 3400, and MK 3010 and completion of four upper-level major courses
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2
DESCRIPTION  This is a capstone course in the B.B.A. program and is required of all seniors. The course integrates subject matter from the business core courses and other disciplines. This course focuses on integrated approaches to medium and long-term organizational challenges in a dynamic environment. Students develop skills in, and appreciation of, the role of all managers in the formulation and implementation of organizational strategies. A computer simulation involving teams of students from different functional backgrounds is a major part of the instructional design. Warning: B.B.A. students who violate any of the prerequisites for BUSA 4980 are subject to disenrollment by the college regardless of performance or time lapse and will be allowed a tuition refund in accordance with the university's refund schedule.

BUSA 4990  Comprehensive Exit Exam
CREDIT HOURS  0.0
REQUIREMENTS  CSP 1, 2, and 3
DESCRIPTION  This non-credit course will administer the RCB exit exam for Undergraduate students. The class meets one time for three hours. This course is required for graduation in the semester of graduation for all Robinson College of Business majors. Corequisite: Enrollment in BUSA 4980. Transient students are not eligible for nor required to take this class.
BCOM BUSINESS COMMUNICATION

BCOM 3950 Business Communication and Professional Development

CREDIT HOURS 3.0

PREREQUISITES ENGL 1101 and ENGL 1102

REQUIREMENTS Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 6, 7

DESCRIPTION This course enables students to develop the communication skills necessary to thrive in a professional setting and to create a personal career management strategy. Upon completing this course, students will be able to transition confidently and effectively from college to the workplace, graduate school or professional school. Students will be able to communicate in a proficient, influential manner in a variety of business situations. They will also learn how to develop and apply successful communication strategies to inform, persuade, and motivate others. Students will be able to write concise business documents and deliver high-quality oral presentations. Through a combination of course and lab work, students will develop the materials necessary to launch a productive self-directed internship and job search. In addition, class members will develop long-term personal career management strategies including an understanding of graduate and professional school options. Topics will include aspects of interpersonal communication, nonverbal communication, interview preparation, resume writing and job search correspondence, as well as the influence of culture, ethics, and technology.
CHEM CHEMISTRY

CHEM 1050 Chemistry for Citizens
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES High school chemistry recommended
DESCRIPTION Three lecture hours a week. Modern chemical concepts and chemical processes with their impact on a technological society; the background for informed decisions.

CHEM 1101K Introductory Chemistry I
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
DESCRIPTION Three lecture and three laboratory hours a week. First course in a two-semester sequence covering the basic principles and applications of chemistry for non-science majors. Topics to be covered include atomic structure and isotopes, periodicity, and chemical equations. Laboratory exercises supplement the lecture material.

CHEM 1102K Introductory Chemistry II
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES CHEM 1101K with grade of D or higher
DESCRIPTION Three lecture and three laboratory hours a week. Second course in a two-semester sequence covering the basic principles and applications of chemistry for non-science majors. Laboratory exercises supplement the lecture material.

CHEM 1151 Survey Of Chemistry I
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
COREQUISITES CHEM 1151L
DESCRIPTION This is the first course in a two course sequence designed for physical education, business, humanities, social science, and allied health (Nursing or Dental Hygiene) majors planning to pursue baccalaureate degrees. Topics to be covered include elements, compounds, measurements, nomenclature, atomic bonding, states of matter, and molecular geometry. Laboratory exercises complement/supplement the lecture material.

CHEM 1151K Survey of Chemistry I
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
DESCRIPTION Three lecture hours a week. First course in a two course sequence designed for physical education, business, humanities, social sciences, and allied health (Nursing or Dental Hygiene) majors planning to pursue baccalaureate degrees. CHEM 1152K  Survey of Chemistry II
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES CHEM 1151K or CHEM 1151 and CHEM 1151L with a grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION Three lecture hours and one laboratory session. Second course in a two course sequence designed for physical education, business, humanities, social sciences, and allied health (Nursing or Dental Hygiene) majors planning to pursue baccalaureate degrees. Topics include general, organic, and biochemistry.

CHEM 1152L  Survey of Chemistry II Laboratory
CREDIT HOURS 1.0
COREQUISITES CHEM 1152
DESCRIPTION This is a laboratory to accompany CHEM 1152.

CHEM 1201  Chemistry I Concept Development
CREDIT HOURS 1.0
PREREQUISITES concurrent enrollment in CHEM 1211K
DESCRIPTION One lecture hour a week. Elaborates key chemical concepts and illustrates problem-solving techniques for college chemistry for natural science majors. This course does not count toward a degree.

CHEM 3690  Honors Readings
CREDIT HOURS  1.0 - 3.0
PREREQUISITES  Good standing with the Honors College and consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  Discussion and readings on selected topics.

CHEM 4000  Fundamentals of Chemical Analysis-CTW
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  CHEM 2410 with grade of C or higher, MATH 2202 or MATH 2212 with grade of C or higher, and an undergraduate GPA of 2.2 or higher
DESCRIPTION  Two lecture and four laboratory hours a week. Chemical equilibria of acid-base systems, metal ion complexes and solubility, and their relationship to chemical analysis; use of manual and semi-automatic methods of data collection. Serves as one of the two Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) courses required of all chemistry majors and may not be transferred in.

CHEM 4001  Problem Solving in Analytical Chemistry
CREDIT HOURS  2.0
DESCRIPTION  Two lecture hours a week. Concurrent enrollment in CHEM 4000 required. Emphasis on solving assigned problems and review of lecture material. This course does not count toward a B.S. Degree in Chemistry.

CHEM 4005  Instrumental Analysis
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  CHEM 3015 or equivalent with grade of C or higher, and Physics 2212K or equivalent with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION  Extensive data analysis, report writing and revisions in addition to the laboratory contacts. Contents: signal/noise and electronics; chemical separation; spectroscopic analysis; electrochemistry; mass spectrometry and others. The lab section requires operation of research instruments, multiple team projects, comprehensive data analysis and scientific report writing.

CHEM 4010  Instrumental Methods I: Chromatography
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  CHEM 4000 with grade of C or higher
COREQUISITES  CHEM 4110
DESCRIPTION  Two lecture and three laboratory hours a week. Modern methods, e.g., gas, liquid, thin layer, column, and ion exclusion chromatographic techniques, used to demonstrate the principles of chromatography.

CHEM 4015  Separation in Biosciences
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  CHEM 4000 and CHEM 4010 with grades of C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION  Two lecture and three laboratory hours a week. Analytical chemistry applications of electrophoresis, gel chromatography precipitation, and ultracentrifugation to molecular recognition and separations in biological systems.

CHEM 4230  Metals in Biology and Medicine
CREDIT HOURS 5.0
PREREQUISITES CHEM 4600 (Biochemistry I) or equivalent with a grade of C or better
DESCRIPTION Metal ions play critical roles in over one third of all enzymes. They are involved in oxygen activation and a number of important biosynthetic pathways. Moreover, metal ions control many diseases. This course is an overview of the roles of metals in biology and medicine, focusing on the metal-binding ability of proteins and nucleic acids and their relations to various disease states. Our emphasis will be on the mechanism of metal-dependent enzymes. Important topics include oxygen activation by metal ions, the production of reactive oxygen species (ROS) in biological systems, metal uptake and toxicity, metal-assisted amino acid radical productions, metals in medicine, and biomineralization. An overview of bioinformatics and the key instrumental methods used in bioinorganic chemistry will also be covered.

CHEM 4240  Chemical Biology
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES one year of Organic Chemistry, CHEM 2410, or equivalent, and one semester of Biochemistry 4600/6600 or equivalent
DESCRIPTION Comprehensive survey of the field of chemical biology. Topics such as natural product biosynthesis, biological activities of the natural products, chemical tools to study biology, and engineering biological process to enable new chemistry will be covered.

CHEM 4330  Advanced Synthesis
CREDIT HOURS 3.0

CHIN CHINESE

CHIN 1001  Elementary Chinese I

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

DESCRIPTION  This course is designed for true beginners to acquire the fundamental skills in Chinese language (Mandarin) and to learn key elements of Chinese culture. Students will develop communicative competence in handling some typical daily situations (e.g., greetings, talking about family, discussing hobbies, visiting friends) through carefully designed pedagogical activities and assignments. The development of speaking and listening skills will be emphasized throughout the semester. Reading and writing skills will also be cultivated accordingly. Students will also have opportunities to develop their independent learning ability. This course is not open to native speakers of Chinese.

CHIN 1002  Elementary Chinese II

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

PREREQUISITES  CHIN 1001 with grade of C or higher, or placement into 1002

DESCRIPTION  As a continuation of CHIN 1001, this course is designed for beginners to reinforce the fundamental skills in Chinese language (Mandarin) and to continue learning about the key elements of Chinese culture and society. Students will develop communicative competence in handling daily situations (e.g., making appointments, shopping, discussing school life, talking about transportation) through carefully designed pedagogical activities and assignments. The development of speaking and listening skills will be emphasized throughout the semester. Reading and writing skills will also be cultivated. Students will also have opportunities to develop their independent learning ability. This course is not open to Chinese native speakers.

CHIN 2001  Intermediate Chinese I

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

PREREQUISITES  CHIN 1002 with a grade of C or higher or permission of course instructor

DESCRIPTION  This course is designed for students who have successfully completed two semesters of Chinese classes at Georgia State University and plan to further develop their Chinese language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) and cultural competence. This course is not open to native speakers of Chinese. Starting with an emphasis on sentence level proficiency, this course will gradually help students develop discourse level competence. The course will develop the students pragmatic competence and independent learning ability.

CHIN 2002  Intermediate Chinese II

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

PREREQUISITES  CHIN 2001 with a grade of C or higher, placement into CHIN 2002, or permission of instructor

DESCRIPTION  This course, a continuation of CHIN 2001, further develops Chinese language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) and cultural competence. A major goal of this course is developing discourse-level competence. The course will emphasize appropriate language usage and develop the students sensitivity to formal and informal speech. Students will also have opportunities to develop independent learning ability. This course is not open to native speakers of Chinese.
CHIN 3001  Advanced Chinese I
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  Grade C or higher in CHIN 2002 Intermediate Chinese II, or permitted by course instructor
DESCRIPTION  This course is not open to native speakers of Chinese. For heritage learners, please contact your instructor for eligibility. This course is designed for students who have successfully completed two years of Chinese classes at Georgia State University and plan to further develop their Chinese language proficiency and cultural competence. Adopting an integrated approach, this course will gradually develop and refine student's oral and written proficiency at discourse level. Meanwhile, listening and reading skills at more advanced level will also be part of the course foci. Students will continue to build their pragmatic competence in dealing with professional and everyday situations. Strategies in acquiring more advanced language and cultural competence will also be discussed and practiced throughout the semester.

CHIN 3002  Advanced Chinese II
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  Grade of C or higher in CHIN 3001 Advanced Chinese I, or permission by course instructor
DESCRIPTION  This course is not open to native speakers of Chinese. For heritage learners, please contact your instructor for eligibility. This course is designed for students who have successfully completed CHIN 3001 Advanced Chinese at Georgia State University. A major task of this course is to develop and strengthen students' ability to perform the essential language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) at discourse level. Another important task is to help students to build their language competence in dealing with a wider range of topics beyond daily situations (e.g., history, tourism, education). Strategies for acquiring those more advanced language skills will also be discussed and practiced throughout the semester. This course is not open to native speakers of Chinese. For heritage learners, please contact your instructor for eligibility.

CHIN 3080  Topics in Chinese studies
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  This course surveys key aspects of Chinese culture and society pertaining to literature, arts, education, philosophy, religion, language, etc. Organized around thematic topics, this course aims to promote students' cultural understanding with regard to China. Lectures will be accompanied with in-depth reading and discussions of primary texts selected from the classics of various fields (e.g., literature, religion, philosophy), with the goal of helping students to better understand and appreciate the continuity and diversity of Chinese civilization. Course may be repeated for credit when topics vary. Global Perspectives Course.
CHIN 3081  Cultural Dimensions of Language Learning
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  Completion of at least three semesters (through 2001 or above) of Chinese or another Asian language (e.g., Japanese or Korean) with a grade of C or higher, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  This course familiarizes students of Chinese and Asian Studies with theories of language acquisition that apply specifically to Asian languages. Students will gain experience in using methodologies of second language (L2) acquisition in analyzing and assessing cultural competence. This course will count toward credit in the Asian Studies program. Taught in English. Global Perspectives Course.

CHIN 3082  Cross-Cultural Encounters
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ENGL 1102 with a C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION  A selection of works by American writers of Asian descent (Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Indian, etc.). Addresses some important themes, such as identity, assimilation, displacement, cultural conflict, and generational gap. Global perspective course.

CHIN 3083  Modern China through Film
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ENGL 1102 with a C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION  Studies of modern China and Chinese culture through contemporary films. Examines some important events and various aspects of Chinese culture and the artistic approaches and styles of the selected movies. Films in Chinese with English subtitles. Taught in English.

CHIN 3395  Study Abroad
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  (Appropriate placement is done at the foreign university). Chinese language and culture in a native environment. Designed specifically for those students participating in the University System of Georgia Study Abroad Programs. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

CHIN 3396  Study Abroad
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  (Appropriate placement is done at the foreign university). Chinese language and culture in a native environment. Designed specifically for those students participating in the University System of Georgia Study Abroad Programs. This course may include a Signature Experience component. Global Perspectives Course.

CHIN 3397  Study Abroad

CHIN 4011  Chinese for Internal Business I
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  Grade C or higher in CHIN 3002 Advanced Chinese II, or instructors permission
DESCRIPTION  This course is designed to develop and consolidate students advanced-level Chinese proficiency and to prepare students for their future encounters with Chinese business professionals. A variety of topics related to China’s business world will be discussed, such as stock market, real estate market, marketing, business administration, foreign exchange market, and international trade.

CHIN 4012  Chinese for International Business II
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  Grade C or higher in CHIN 4011 Chinese for International Business I, or instructors permission
DESCRIPTION  This course builds on CHIN 4011. It aims to prepare students for their future business communication conducted in Chinese by expanding their linguistic repertoire as well as cultural knowledge in the business realm. The course will discuss the following topics: transnational operations, ownership and modes of operation, economic recession and inflation, taxation, and intellectual property.

CHIN 4021  Modern/Contemporary Chinese Literature in Translation
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ENGL 1102 with a C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION  Selected works from modern and contemporary Chinese literature in translation. Examines some major works in relation to their cultural and historical backgrounds. Requires no knowledge of Chinese. Taught in English. Global Perspective Course.

CHIN 4995  Directed Readings B.I.S.-CTW
CREDIT HOURS  3.0 - 4.0
DESCRIPTION  Directed Readings designed for Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies students. This course may satisfy the junior and/or senior-level Critical Thinking Through Writing requirements.

CIS 2010  Introduction to Information Systems
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  None
DESCRIPTION  This course provides an introduction to the role of information systems technology and applications in organizations and professional settings. Students explore the issues associated with developing and managing information systems resources, aligning systems with business processes, utilizing communications networks, devising and applying analytics, and securing systems and data. Course participants examine the practices of companies and identify strategies that can be deployed to gain advantage in diverse settings.

CIS 3001  Managing Information Technology Projects
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  CIS 2010: (CIS 3260 with B- or better) or permission of the instructor, 2.5 GPA
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6
DESCRIPTION  This course examines the defining characteristics of IT projects, especially involving the development of software intensive systems, and introduces the student to a variety of project management techniques that can be applied in an IT project context. This course provides an introduction to the disciplined approaches to IT project management. While IT projects are similar in some ways to other types of projects, they pose unique challenges for the managers and organizations that undertake them. This course will give students an understanding of the most common processes, tools, techniques, and theories that are necessary to manage IT projects. Managing IT projects that follow both plan driven traditional development methods as well as agile methods will be covered.

CIS 3260  Introduction to Programming
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  CIS 2010
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 4, 7
DESCRIPTION  This course provides an introduction to programming using a contemporary object-oriented language. Emphasis is placed upon the development of correct, efficient programs that are easy to maintain. Topics include problem analysis, program design, documentation, testing and debugging. Basic features of the programming language are covered. The specific language will be noted in the course listing for each semester.

CIS 3270  Internet Programming with Java
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  CIS 3260
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8
DESCRIPTION  This course builds upon the student's foundation of programming principles through the introduction of application programming. Major areas covered include operating system dependent versus operating system independent, Internet, phone, or web service applications. Focus is on object-oriented programming as it relates to embedded or service-based applications, as well as on best coding practices. Students implement applets and develop a working prototype of Internet programs. The specific language will be noted in the course listing for each semester.
CIS 3300 Systems Analysis
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES CIS 2010 or permission of instructor
COREQUISITES CIS 3260 or permission of instructor
REQUIREMENTS 2.5 GSU GPA
DESCRIPTION Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 4, 7. This course provides an introduction to the analysis and logical design of computer based information systems. Emphasis is placed upon the development of requirements specifications that serve the business needs of the organization and provide the necessary base for subsequent systems development. Both data oriented and process oriented approaches are covered.

CIS 3310 Systems Design
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES CIS 3300 and CIS 3270 or CIS 3215 and BCOM 3950
DESCRIPTION This course builds upon the skills and knowledge developed in CIS 3300. Emphasis is placed upon the design and development of information systems, including the software and databases that are needed to support the business needs of the organization. Object oriented design and the transition to object oriented programming are covered. These methods are discussed in the context of managing a systems development project, including issues such as project estimation and project management techniques, software quality assurance, and configuration management.

CIS 3320 Telecommunications for Business
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES CIS 2010
REQUIREMENTS Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 4, 7
DESCRIPTION This course introduces the subject of computer networks and the use of computer networks in business applications. Topics covered include client server networks, network hardware and software, distributed computing, key issues in network management, and the fundamentals of data communications.

CIS 3370 Database Management Systems
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES CIS 2010; (CIS 3260 with B- or better) or permission of the instructor) and MGS 3100. 2.5 GSU GPA
REQUIREMENTS Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP: 1, 4, 7
DESCRIPTION This course provides an introduction to the management of database systems. Major emphasis is placed on understanding the various database management functions and providing database support for the organization. Topics include types of data models and database management systems, data definition and manipulation, administration of database systems, and the management of databases, including database security, error recovery, concurrency control, and distributed database systems.

<td>This course introduces students to the collection, preservation, presentation and preparation of computer based evidence for the purposes of criminal law enforcement or civil litigation. These activities define the central roles of computer forensic practitioners involved in investigating computer crime scenes and torts involving computers. Students will be prepared to assist in the formulation and implementation of organizational computer forensics preparedness policies, to determine the necessity for forensic procedures, extend governance processes to allow for proper future forensic investigations, and to be contributing members of computer forensics investigation teams.</td>

<td>CIS 4120 examines how an organization's business processes and the services they provide can be improved, innovated and enabled by information technology. The course begins by defining business services, their associated processes and metrics, and then proceeds to how processes are discovered and modeled for purposes of improvement, innovation and IT-enablement using a standardized modeling approach (BPMN). Additional topics include business rules and object models. The course finishes with an examination of problems related to organizational implementation. As part of the course, students work on a real-world, process-related project to identify and model a business process, assess improvement and innovation potential, and to propose improvements to these processes.</td>

REQUIREMENTS Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 6, 7
DESCRIPTION This course is designed to develop knowledge and skills for security of information and information systems within organizations. It focuses on concepts and methods associated with security across several systems platforms, including internal and Internet facing networks. The course overviews critical infrastructure concepts as well as techniques for assessing risk associated with accidental and intentional breaches of security. It introduces the associated issues of ethical uses of information and privacy considerations. |

DESCRIPTION This course focuses on advanced IT project management concepts, with particular emphasis on managing vendors, contracts, and IT project risk. The special management challenges associated with outsourced and off-shored projects are examined, along with the specific skills required to successfully manage these types of projects. Coverage will include contract law and the different contract options available, as well as the portfolio of control mechanisms that can be employed to help manage such projects. Concepts and techniques for controlling software projects and dealing with schedule and other project risks will be introduced, including Monte Carlo analysis, Earned Value Analysis, and a variety of risk assessment tools and risk mitigation approaches. |

CIS 4850 Software Development Environments
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES Varies depending on topic
REQUIREMENTS Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 7
DESCRIPTION This course provides an opportunity for the student to gain experience with one of several widely used software development platforms. A "software development platform" typically includes a programming language, a database system, and an operating system. The specific platform covered will vary from semester to semester as will the associated course prerequisites.

CIS 4930 Big Dsts Analytics
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES CIS 4730
REQUIREMENTS Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours
DESCRIPTION CSP: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7. The 'Big Data revolution is underway. Technology advancements now allow companies to capture and store large amount of data (or facts) in databases and data warehouses. The management and exploitation of big data is among the top priorities of organizations. IT professionals often are unable to integrate all the data that flows through the organization and find the information needed to make critical decisions. The course uses state of the art software for the organization, analysis, and visualization of organizational data to provide the right data at the right time to improve business performance.

CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES Senior class standing
REQUIREMENTS Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7
DESCRIPTION This course is designed to provide the senior level student an opportunity to assist with the planning and implementation of computing technologies in an approved on campus site. Students may perform information systems trainer/consultant and/or end user support duties. Students will meet periodically with a mentoring instructor to discuss problems and issues relevant to the area of implementing computer information systems. Compensation may or may not be granted for the internship/practicum. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

CIS 4980 System Development Projects
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES CIS 3001 and CIS 3300 and CIS 3730 and (CIS 3260 at B- or better), GPA 2.5, and 15 semester hours of CIS 3000 /4000-level courses
REQUIREMENTS Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8
DESCRIPTION This course provides the student with an opportunity to apply the knowledge and skills acquired in the core courses to larger and more complex problems and to gain experience in working as part of a team. This course is available only to BBA CIS majors at Georgia State University. It may require students to meet with clients during normal business hours. This course is the designated Critical Thinking through Writing (CTW) course for students pursuing a BBA degree in Computer Information Systems.

DESCRIPTION (Same as MATH 4620.) Gaussian Elimination for linear systems; least squares; Taylor, predictor-corrector and Runge-Kutta methods for solving ordinary differential equations; boundary value problems; partial differential equations.

CSC 4630  Introduction to Matlab Programming
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES MATH 3030 with a grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION This course is designed to give science majors experience with the Matlab programming language. Matlab is used for scientific applications involving images, sound, and other signals. No previous programming experience is needed.

CSC 4650  Introduction to Bioinformatics
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES CSC 2720, BIOL 1103K, [or BIOL 1103 and BIOL 1103L] and CHEM 1211K [or CHEM 1211 and CHEM 1211L] with grades of "C" or higher
DESCRIPTION The explosion in biological knowledge due to various genome projects and other high-throughput techniques has created entirely new fields and industries, and a need for trained computational biologists who are familiar with Biology, Statistics, and Computer Science. This course will introduce principles underlying current techniques in the analysis of different kinds of biological data. Topics include: sequence alignment, database searching, microarrays, structure analysis, and phylogenetic tree algorithms.

CSC 4710  Database Systems
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES CS 2720 with grade of "C" or higher
DESCRIPTION An introduction to the fundamental concepts and principles that underlie the relational model of data. Topics include formal query languages; SQL; query optimization; relational database design theory; physical database design, integrity, security, and concurrency control.

CSC 4720  Human-Computer Interaction
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES CSC 3320 with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION Techniques and methodologies for development of user interfaces in software systems; topics include interaction styles, interaction devices, user documentation, and interface assessment.

PREREQUISITES CSC 3320, CSC 4210, and CSC 4350 with grades of C or higher
DESCRIPTION Consent of instructor may override the prerequisites in special circumstances. This course is meant to be the first part of two senior project classes. Students who enroll in this class are expected to enroll in the second part the following semester. Students will work as a team on a project, including planning the project, assigning roles, creating a timeline, literature research, acquiring equipment, and hardware and/or software design.

CSC 4921  Senior Project II
CREDIT HOURS 2.0
PREREQUISITES CSC 4920 with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION CSC 4921 consists of finishing the project from CSC 4920, followed by testing, revision, improvements, and further documentation. At the end of the semester, the team will turn in a comprehensive report detailing the project, its progress, evaluation, results, interpretation of the results, and conclusions. This report may be twice the size of the previous semester's report, since it will likely include much of the first report. Also, the team is expected to explain and demonstrate the project.

CPS COUNSELING & PSYCH SERVICES

CPS 2500  Career Development and Life Planning
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  The purpose of this course is to help students learn how to manage their career development and life planning, based on relevant theories, practice, and trends in economic, technology, and labor market development. Students obtain skills for career decision making and life planning, and adapting to the rapidly changing world of work. The goal is to facilitate personal fulfillment and satisfying interpersonal relationships through career and life planning, with special attention to multicultural issues in the world of work.

CPS 3200  Diversity and Human Relations
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
REQUIREMENTS  Students pay a lab fee of $40.00
DESCRIPTION  The purpose of this course is to provide students with an overview of human diversity and human relations, beginning with an examination of the nature of diversity and the roles of both genetics and culture. Attention is given to diversity issues -past, present, and future- that still need to be studied and confronted. This course will cover types of human diversity and how they are grouped, while studying their unique social, physical, intellectual and emotional attributes. This course will help students employ a multicultural perspective for examining human interaction and relations on many different levels. This course is fully online, with no course meetings. Global Perspectives Course. [Course is not repeatable. Formerly numbered CPS 2200].

CPS 3300  Interpersonal Communication Skills
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
REQUIREMENTS  Students pay a lab fee of $40.00
DESCRIPTION  The purpose of this course is to provide students with an overview of interpersonal communication skills, including how these skills affect individuals and groups in society. Emphasis is on personal and interpersonal strategies for understanding, appreciating, and managing communication skills in personal and career relationships. It focuses on self disclosure, perceptions, spoken and unspoken communication, listening and responding strategies and problem-solving skills. A secondary benefit of this course is examining the many ways technology and online communication intersect with and become part of interpersonal communication as interactive technologies shrink the distance between people and their respective cultures. This course is full online, with no course meetings. [Course is not repeatable. Formerly numbered CPS 2300].

CPS 3400  Career and Lifespan Development
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
REQUIREMENTS  Students pay a lab fee of $40.00
DESCRIPTION  The purpose of this course is to provide an overview of career and lifespan development theories and skills, and how students can employ those skills in their own career and lifespan development. The course will include how personal growth and life stages impact individuals and society, and in turn, their career choices. Emphasis is on understanding career and job choices now available, as well as personal strategies for career decision-making. This course is fully online, with no course meetings. [Course is not repeatable. Formerly numbered CPS 2400].
CPS 3500  Stress and Stress Management

3.0

The course provides information about what stress is and the major sources of stress in daily living, the ways stress is studied, the way our bodies react to stress, and how stress is related to a variety of psychological and physical factors. The major topics to be covered include: (1) models of understanding stress; (2) how the body reacts to and defends against stress; (3) the physical, psychological, and emotional effects of chronic stress; (4) sources of stress in life changes, life habits, personality traits, and working conditions; and (5) life principles and practices which will assist in lessening the harmful effects of chronic stress.

CMIS 4180 Visual Effects
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES Game programming experience required: CSC 1302 with a C or higher for Computer Science majors; CSC 2302 with a C or higher for non-CSC majors
DESCRIPTION Introduction to methods and practice of visual effects for film and video games. Techniques and creative processes in motion capture, compositing, particle displacement, typographic, photographic and interface effects will be explored through production assignments in design and implementation for interactive levels and "cut-scene" sequences. Productions supplemented by critical readings on game play, modeling and simulation.

CMIS 4600 Introduction to the Music Industry
CREDIT HOURS 2.0
PREREQUISITES ENGL 1102 with a C or higher
DESCRIPTION A survey course in which students examine processes involved in the creation and consumption of music, and the vital roles individuals play in creating, managing, marketing and distributing musical products to the consumer. Topics will include but not be limited to the roles of artists, engineers, managers, promoters, producers and lawyers, as well as music licensing, retail and physical/digital distribution operations.

CMIS 4610 Promotion of Recorded Music
CREDIT HOURS 2.0
PREREQUISITES CMIS 4600 with a C or higher
DESCRIPTION Study of how the record industry relates to and makes use of various media to bring recorded music to its intended market. The course examines record promotion strategies and techniques and the environment within which promotion representatives, radio programmers and various media interact. Cross-listed with MTM 3020.

CMIS 4630 Legal Aspects of the Music Industry
CREDIT HOURS 2.0
PREREQUISITES CMIS 4600 with a C or higher
DESCRIPTION The course provides basic knowledge of legal issues relevant to the music industry. Students will learn key terminology of the music business and will gain industry acumen as it relates to legal issues in music and entertainment law. Cross-listed with MTM 3050.

CMIS 4660 Artist Representation in the Music Industry
CREDIT HOURS 2.0
PREREQUISITES CMIS 4600 with a C or higher
DESCRIPTION This course focuses on the responsibilities of the personal and business manager, booking agent, and other representatives as they relate to the development of artists careers. Topics include contract negotiation, promotional packages, and securing employment within the music industry. Cross-listed with MTM 3450.

EDCI 3200  Organization and Instruction of the Middle Grades Curriculum
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  Grounded in culturally relevant pedagogy, this course will introduce and examine the major programmatic and organizational features of middle schools as they relate to the educational needs of middle level students, particularly those in urban contexts. The course interactions and engagements are organized around three major themes: (a) diverse contexts of teaching and learning, (b) structure of middle level education, and (c) middle level teaching, learning, and professionalism.

EDCI 3220  Understanding and Supporting Middle School Learners
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  The focus of this course is on middle school learners and on the diversity among them (e.g., development, culture, ethnicity, language, gender, religion, SES, ability/disability). The course will also focus on the instructional, curricular, and organizational issues related to the development of each child. Major emphases include an understanding of the ways in which the teacher's expectations, knowledge, and pedagogy influence students' learning and efficacy. Middle school philosophy, the role of parents, and the role of community members are also addressed. School and community observations and participation are included.

EDCI 3230  From Ferris Bueller to Freedom Writers: Images of Education in Film
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  This course uses films and research to analyze educational issues of historic and contemporary significance. Students will discuss how films have shaped society's perceptions of students, schools, and teachers and how these films either challenge or perpetuate stereotypes. Films will be covered thematically, with viewing both in and out of class, and a significant portion of the class will be focused on images of urban education. Major topics within each theme include cultural diversity, curriculum, school violence, education in out-of-school contexts, and educational policy. Students will be responsible for film reviews, debates, group discussion, weekly journal reflections, and a final paper.

EDCI 3240  Education or Incarceration: Schools, Communities, and the Prison Industrial Complex
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  As the population of incarcerated people in the U.S. grows to over two million and the rate of African American and Latino Youth Prisoners continues to rise, students in this course will investigate the school-to-prison pipeline, the prison industrial complex, and the implications of education. Through an examination of readings in educational policy, cultural studies, history, and sociology, as well as through dialogue, debate, and fieldwork, students will consider ways to challenge prevailing assumptions about education and incarceration. Cross-listed with EDCI 6240.

<td>When did literature in English begin? We look back a thousand years to when &quot;England&quot; was just beginning to be imagined and &quot;English&quot; was so different that it seems like a foreign language. Study the rudiments of the Old English language and explore medieval manuscripts using the many digital resources available today. Read heroic poetry celebrating the feats of dimly remembered heroes, stories of voyages to exotic places, and the miraculous lives of saints.</td>

<td>ENGL 3350</td>
<td>Literature and War</td>
<td>3.0</td>
<td>ENGL 1102 and either ENGL 2120 or ENGL 2130 with a C or higher</td>
<td>From Homer's Odyssey and Virgil's Aeneid, to Julius Caesar's account of his wars in Gaul, to monster fighting in Beowulf or the idealized chivalric combat of the high middle ages, to the revolutionary upheavals of early modernity or the horrors of industrialized conflict, war has been a persistent setting and theme for Western literature. Can there be a &quot;just&quot; war? Can violence be controlled without more violence? This course examines texts that explore the relationship between violence and civilization.</td>

DESCRIPTION  (Same as WGSS 3995.) Critical approaches to the varieties of feminist thinking that influence studies of language, literature, and culture. Topics and writers may range from the medieval period to the present. Multicultural perspectives on issues of gender, race, and class emphasized.

ENGL 4010  Topics in African American Culture
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  At least 6 hours in 3000-level English courses with a C or higher
DESCRIPTION  Advanced study of writing, art, and music emerging from or addressed to a particular movement in African American history. Possible topics include but are not limited to slave narratives, the Harlem Renaissance, Black Arts, and hip hop.

ENGL 4020  Advanced Study in Indigenous Literature
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  At least 6 hours in 3000-level English courses with a C or higher
DESCRIPTION  Advanced study of a specific tribal literary tradition. Rotating tribal literatures considered include but are not limited to: Cherokee, Creek, Choctaw, Dine/Navajo, and Pueblo. Focusing on an individual tribal literature encourages advanced research on the specific cultural, religious, linguistic, historical, and geographical elements of selected texts. We ask how specific tribal worldviews inform historical and contemporary debates about colonialism, cultural appropriation, and tribal sovereignty.

ENGL 4030  Literature and the City
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  At least 6 hours in 3000-level English courses with a C or higher
DESCRIPTION  Advanced study of literature tied to a particular urban environment. How have writers depicting Victorian London, or bohemian San Francisco, or contemporary Atlanta shaped our understanding of city life? In addition to prose, poetry, and drama linked to the city in question, readings for this course will include examinations of the urban infrastructure, socioeconomic realities, and artistic communities that populate modern cities.

ENGL 4040  Religion and Literature
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  At least 6 hours in 3000-level English courses with a C or higher
DESCRIPTION  Advanced study of modern literature tied to particular religious tradition. Possible topics include but are not limited to Buddhism in American writing, poetics in the history of Christianity, the role of Islam in narratives of decolonization, and literary responses to secularization.

ENGL 4050  Transnational Literature
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  At least 6 hours in 3000-level English courses with a C or higher
DESCRIPTION  Advanced study of writers who depict the experience of living in multiple national or cultural contexts. Our focus on writing that crosses borders relies on theories of transnationalism and globalization, linking literature to discussions of colonialism, urbanization, hybridity, cosmopolitanism, and neoliberalism. Topics for advanced research might include literary depictions of the trans-Atlantic slave trade, the advent of the spy novel, narratives of migration and diaspora, and the emergence of international political movements.

ENI 3101  Entrepreneurial Thinking for Startups

CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  None
REQUIREMENTS  CSP 1, 2, 6, 7
DESCRIPTION  This course focuses on applying evidence-based entrepreneurship methods to go from idea to a sustainable business model. Students learn how to apply behavioral economics, the Customer Development Model and the Lean Startup methodology to discover important and unsatisfied customer needs by designing compelling and competitive value propositions, viable business models that can profitably fulfill these value propositions, and persuasively pitch value propositions/business models to prospective customers/investors. Students engage in a variety of hands on team activities while in class, engage in a team field study involving a local startup, and develop/pitch their own startup ideas.

ENI 3102  Product-Service Design for New Ventures

CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ENI 3101
REQUIREMENTS  CSP 1, 2, 6, 7
DESCRIPTION  The focus of this course is actually designing the product-service (offering) that can profitably capture customer demand. Once authentic customer demand is discovered and a compelling value proposition that satisfies that demand is verified, the next step is to design an offering that that customers will want to use and one that is sustainable. Students apply Lean/Agile design methodologies and customer value targets to iterate through offering designs, prototypes, and business models until a best fit design is achieved and "fast followers" can't easily imitate. This is a highly interactive course where students 1) engage in a variety of hands on team activities while in class and 2) design and test their own offering concepts.

ENI 3103  Business Model Validation

CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  ENI 3101
REQUIREMENTS  CSP 1, 2, 6, 7
DESCRIPTION  This course focuses on the business model validation phase of creating a new venture. Once a best fit product-service (offering) design is achieved that can profitably satisfy customer needs better than competitive solutions, a logical next step is to validate demand traction for that business model to ramp up customer sales. Students learn to apply various demand traction strategies and how to best position an offering in a competitive market to realize profitable revenue potential. It also addresses the capital funding process, progressive business plan development, types of investors, company valuation strategies, capitalization tables, negotiating tactics, term sheets, and more. Students create a mock start-up that takes them through this critical validation stage.

3.0

PREREQUISITES
EPRS 4530 with a grade of C or higher or instructor permission

DESCRIPTION
This course is an introduction to measurement theory in education, emphasizing the application of measurement theory to test development and to educational research. The course addresses principals that apply to basic measurement, Classical Test Theory (CCT), and an introduction to Item Response Theory (IRT). Students will learn how to construct well-designed tests that yield valid and reliable measures of how well students learn. Students will also learn to judge the advantages and limitations of tests and test scores, so that they will be able to use test results appropriately and effectively.
Critical Pedagogy

A form of critique and practical change, critical pedagogy is the application of critical theory in the realm of education. Education is considered in its broadest cultural perspective as the expression of world views, truth claims, value orientations, and systems of belief regarding humanity, society, and the individual. Critical and conceptual analysis will be used to raise questions regarding power, knowledge, society, and values which bear on educational ideas, problems, issues, and practices.

EXC 4190  Alternative Approaches to Literacy Instruction for Students with Disabilities

CREDIT HOURS 3.0

DESCRIPTION This course focuses on the design, implementation, and evaluation of reading and writing instruction for students with mild to moderate high-incidence disabilities, including individuals from diverse cultural, linguistic, and socioeconomic backgrounds. The teaching methodology emphasized in this course is explicit, systematic, and developmental. All strategies and approaches that are discussed in this course are supported by empirical research with students with reading and writing disabilities, as well as students at-risk for experiencing reading and writing difficulties in school. While there is empirical evidence that many of the approaches and strategies discussed in this course are successful with students with low incidence disabilities (e.g., autism, deaf and hard of hearing) and typically developing students without learning difficulties, students in this course will study methods for literacy instruction that are most appropriate for students with reading and writing disabilities. Specifically, students will study explicit instructional methods and strategies used to support the development of emergent literacy, phonological awareness, decoding, word reading, vocabulary, reading fluency, reading comprehension, written expression, and spelling skills. In addition, students will demonstrate their knowledge and usage of these methods and strategies by: (a) participating in class activities and assignments that support lectures and assigned readings, (b) evaluating the effectiveness of literacy curricula and technology tools for students with reading and writing disabilities, and (c) designing and implementing a sequence of lessons that target specific literacy skill areas while reflecting on one's delivery of instruction. EXC 4190 may be cross-listed with EXC 7190.
EXC 4280  Methods for Teaching Students with Intellectual Disability and Students with Autism Spectrum Disorders

PREREQUISITES
FI 4000

REQUIREMENTS
Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 4, 6

DESCRIPTION
This course uses a combination of lectures, case analyses, class discussion, and projects to develop the ability and skills necessary to devise and implement strategic financial decisions within the firm. Students will learn how to bridge the conceptual foundations and the practice of finance to create and execute value-enhancing strategies under realistic scenarios. Specific topics may include the estimation of divisional cost of capital, project analysis, and firm valuation. The course will also cover selected topics such as incentive alignment, corporate governance, and financial restructuring based on current relevance and innovation in the field.
FI 4389  Directed Readings in Finance
CREDIT HOURS  1.0 - 3.0
PREREQUISITES  FI 4000 and consent of instructor
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours

DESCRIPTION  Prerequisite; FI 4000 and consent of instructor. A course for which many students will enroll in the absence of well-developed reading materials or course materials. It is important that the instructor be aware of the material students are reading, and will provide guidance in this regard. The course will be offered on a reading program basis. This course may also be taken more than once for credit if the instructor gives explicit permission.

FI 4391  Field Studies in Finance
CREDIT HOURS  1.0 - 3.0
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours

DESCRIPTION  Prerequisite; FI 4000 and consent of instructor. The field study is a supervised, business-site learning experience that provides students the opportunity to learn and apply finance skills in a professional setting. Participating students are expected to perform business-related tasks for a designated number of hours each week, to attend educational lectures and seminars, and to submit assignments, projects and term papers. Participating students will be selected through a competitive review. May be taken more than once, but only three credits may be applied toward major requirements. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

FI 4400  Financial Institutions
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  FI 4000
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 6

DESCRIPTION  This course examines the major financial management issues confronting depository financial service firms (commercial banks and bank holding companies, savings organizations, credit unions). Specific topics include the economics of intermediation; forces affecting change; legal/regulatory influences; profitability analysis; and management of various risk areas such as interest rate risk, liquidity risk, and capital management. One area not covered is loan analysis since the topic is treated in great depth in FI 4020. Classroom instruction includes lecture, discussion, and cases.

FI 4420  The Financial System
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  FI 4000
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 6

DESCRIPTION  This is a macro-finance course, focusing on the broad issue of funds flows through the entire economy. The objective is to provide students with an understanding of the characteristics of the major financial markets and financial instruments, the identity and nature of the major players in those markets, the forces influencing how funds flow through the worldwide system, and the role of interest rates in the process. While the course does address the role of the Federal Reserve in the financial system, monetary theory and policy are not covered.

FORL 4021  Technology Integration for Foreign Language Teaching and Learning
CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
DESCRIPTION: Selection and use of technology resources in the Pre-K-12 classroom with an emphasis on foreign language instruction. Students learn how to select and integrate appropriate technologies that align with edTPA and principles of communicative language teaching in order to enhance student learning, language proficiency and interculturality. A special emphasis is placed on emerging technologies and video development.

FORL 4025  Approaches to Early Language Learning, Grades P-8
CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
DESCRIPTION: This course prepares individuals to work with second/foreign language learners in developmentally appropriate ways to maximize young learners’ second language proficiency. Topics addressed are: learner characteristics, child development theories, second language development and assessment, dual language immersion, approaches to effective Standards-based lesson planning in meaningful cultural contexts for grade levels P-8, and edTPA.

FORL 4026  Approaches to Language Teaching, Grades 9-12
CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
DESCRIPTION: Applicable knowledge of learner characteristics, foreign language curricula and standards, edTPA, unit/lesson planning, approaches to effective lesson implementation and assessment in meaningful cultural contexts for grade levels 9-12.

FORL 4027  Methods and Materials for Teaching Latin: P-12
CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
DESCRIPTION: Methodologies for teaching Latin in P-12; lesson planning, teaching culture, and classroom techniques; goals of a Latin curriculum year by year. Syntax and the natural method of reading Latin.

FORL 4030  Teaching Diverse World Language Learners – Field Experience
CREDIT HOURS: 3.0
PREREQUISITES: FORL 4025 or FORL 4026 with a grade of C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION: This field-based experience offers students an opportunity to observe and teach diverse world language students in local K-12 schools. In addition to learning about how to differentiate instruction to meet diverse learner needs, students will complete a mini edTPA in preparation for the culminating field experience class.

FORL 4060  Teaching Diverse World Language Learners – Internship
CREDIT HOURS: 12.0
DESCRIPTION: Internship in Foreign Language Education. This full-time field-based experience offers students an opportunity to hone their teaching skills in local K-12 World Language classrooms under the guidance of a university supervisor and an on-site mentor. Students will gain experience planning, instructing, and assessing for diverse learners. The course culminates with the official submission of edTPA (a national standardized teacher performance assessment), which is required for teacher certification.

GEOG 4515  Qualitative Methods in Geography

CREDIT HOURS  4.0

DESCRIPTION  This course provides the theoretical knowledge and practical skills required to carry out qualitative research in geography. It focuses on the need and merits of qualitative research, the "how to" of various qualitative research methods, and issues related to ethics, the research-researched relationship, and positionality.

GEOG 4518  Digital Cartography

CREDIT HOURS  4.0

DESCRIPTION  An introduction to the principles, methods, theory, and practices of contemporary digital cartography.

GEOG 4520  Quantitative Spatial Analysis

CREDIT HOURS  4.0

PREREQUISITES  MATH 1070 with grade of C or higher, or consent of instructor

DESCRIPTION  Techniques of spatial analysis of geographic data; emphasis on sampling, measurements, and pattern analysis of points, lines, and areas on maps.

GEOG 4521  Advanced Quantitative Analysis

CREDIT HOURS  4.0

PREREQUISITES  Grade of C or higher in a senior-level statistics or quantitative methods course (e.g., GEOG 4520)

DESCRIPTION  This course builds on prior statistics coursework to enhance students abilities to manipulate and analyze quantitative data. Methods for analysis of multivariate, time series, categorical, and spatial data are emphasized, with units applicable to all branches of Geosciences and related disciplines. Students will analyze datasets specific to their focus areas and present results the rest of the class.

GEOG 4530  Introduction to Remote Sensing

CREDIT HOURS  4.0

PREREQUISITES  six hours of natural science laboratory sequence or consent of instructor

DESCRIPTION  (Same as GEOL 4530.) Three lecture and two laboratory hours per week. A survey of remote sensing technology, aerial photographs and satellite image interpretation and digital processing, and applications in engineering and environmental sciences.

GEOG 4532  Geographic Information Systems

CREDIT HOURS  4.0

DESCRIPTION  Fundamental concepts and applications of raster and vector-based GIS emphasizing analysis of digital spatial data through applied methods.

GEOG 4533  Community Geographic Information

CREDIT HOURS  4.0

PREREQUISITES  GEOG 4532, or GEOG 4518 with grades of C or higher or permission of instructor. Assesses and applies Community Geographic Information Systems (CGIS) and related community-based applications of geospatial technologies, geographic analysis, map communication, and geographic inquiry in local settings with community partners.

GEOG 4534  Advanced Geographic Information Systems

CREDIT HOURS  4.0

PREREQUISITES  GEOG 4532 with grade of C or higher, or consent of instructor

DESCRIPTION  Advanced GIS concepts relating to spatial database creation and on-line distribution.

GEOG 4538
Urban Health Geographic Information Systems
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
DESCRIPTION The course is an upper-level undergraduate course to graduate level course developed to introduce students to measurement and analysis associated with spatial patterns of diseases. This course is proposed to address contemporary diseases of public health importance and present the quantitative skills that can be used in understanding how spatial patterns arise and what they imply for intervention. Objectives of the courses: (1) examine patterns of disease in place and time; (2) apply geospatial technologies and methods in public health; (3) examine diffusion of disease; and (4) conduct spatial epidemiological studies of selected infectious and noninfectious diseases. By the end of the course, students will gain hands-on experience with a variety of methods and GIS tools useful for the spatial analysis of medical data. Prerequisite: Getting Started with GIS a 9-hour free web course provided by ESRI (http://training.esri.com/gateway/index.cfm?fa=catalog.webCourseDetail&CourseID=1911) Cities Perspectives Course.

CREDIT HOURS 3.0
DESCRIPTION An examination of urban geographical theory as a framework for understanding contemporary cities in the United States. Cities Perspectives Course.

GEOG 4778 Political Geography
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
DESCRIPTION The impact of geographical factors such as nationalism, the state and territory, ideology, and colonialism/imperialism on global political geography. Followed by a brief introduction to the political geography of the United States. Global Perspectives Course.
GEOG 4784  Climatic Change CTW

CREDIT HOURS  4.0

PREREQUISITES  GEOG 1112 with grade of C or higher, or consent of instructor

DESCRIPTION  An assessment of the understanding of many aspects of recent climatic change. The focus is on how human activities can cause climatic change as well as how humans and ecosystems can be affected by those changes. Specific topics will include technical aspects of climatic observations and modeling, actual and potential impacts of climatic change on human and natural systems, and climatic-change influences on public policy. Serves as one of the two Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) courses required of all geography majors.

GEOG 4830  Senior Seminar CTW

CREDIT HOURS  4.0

PREREQUISITES  At least 17 hours of geography or geology at the 4000-level with grades of C or higher, and enrollment in a concentration in Geography, Urban Studies, or Environmental Geosciences, or consent of the instructor

DESCRIPTION  Philosophical foundations of geography, contemporary problems and issues, and traditional research skills. Data acquisition and processing, analysis, writing, and presentation of research findings. Intended to serve as a capstone to the undergraduate curriculum. Serves as the Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course required of all geosciences majors. This course is only offered during the fall semester and should be completed in the fall prior to graduation.

GEOG 4832  Geography Internship

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

PREREQUISITES  advanced standing, and approval of sponsoring faculty advisor and of department chair

DESCRIPTION  Academic training and professional experience through short-term internships at public or private agencies. Paper required. May be taken more than once, but only three credits may be applied toward major requirements. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

GEOG 4870  Honors Thesis: Research

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

PREREQUISITES  Good standing with the Honors College and consent of instructor

DESCRIPTION  Readings or research preparatory to honors thesis or project. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

GEOG 4880  Honors Thesis: Writing

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

PREREQUISITES  GEOG 4870 with grade of C or higher, good standing with the Honors College and consent of instructor

DESCRIPTION  Writing or production of honors thesis or project. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

GEOL 4016  Igneous and Metamorphic Petrology
CREDIT HOURS  4.0
PREREQUISITES  GEOL 4015 with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION  Three lecture and three laboratory hours a week. Nature, distribution, and origin of igneous and metamorphic rocks in relation to tectonic setting and experimental studies. Laboratory study of igneous and metamorphic rocks in hand specimen and thin section.

GEOL 4017  Environmental Geology
CREDIT HOURS  4.0
PREREQUISITES  GEOL 1121K and CHEM 1211K
DESCRIPTION  Four lecture hours per week. Application of geological and geochemical concepts to the study of Earth’s near surface environment. Topics may include water supply and pollution, global warming, ozone depletion, soil contamination, natural disasters, mineral resources, environmental management, and selected regulations. Quantitative treatment of population growth and water resources. Global Perspectives Course.

GEOL 4023  Terrestrial Sediments
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  GEOL 4006 with grade of C or higher or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  Three lecture hours a week. Weathering, transport, deposition, and diagenesis of continental sediments. Selected examples of fluvial, lacustrine, volcaniclastic, and/or eolian sedimentation and facies models. Stable and radiogenic isotopes and geochronology in continental sediment. Sedimentary, mineralogical, and geochemical records of tectonics and paleoclimate.

GEOL 4030  X-Ray Methods and Techniques
CREDIT HOURS  4.0
DESCRIPTION  Prerequisite GEOL 4015 or consent of instructor. This course describes the theory and use of x-ray diffraction and x-ray fluorescence methods for the Geosciences primarily although the theory is applicable to other natural sciences. Topics covered include: generation of x-rays, diffraction, identification of minerals and crystalline materials, theory and use of x-ray fluorescence in major and trace elemental measurements. Laboratory provides hands-on experience with sample preparation, data gathering and synthesis. By the end of this course, it is the instructor’s hope that all students will be able to conduct independent, unsupervised analytical research using GSU’s X-ray labs and equipment. The 6000 level course will feature term project and oral presentation.

GEOL 4042  Environmental Instrumentations
CREDIT HOURS  4.0
PREREQUISITES  CHEM 1212K or equivalent; MATH 2212 (calculus with one variable)
DESCRIPTION  Theoretical and practical aspects of analytical instrumentations and methodologies used for modern-day analysis of environmental samples (water, soils, sediments, biological tissues, etc.) including the basis for each analysis, limitations and potential sources of errors.

GERO GERONTOLOGY

GERO 2000
Introduction to Gerontology
CREDIT HOURS
3.0
DESCRIPTION
This course is an interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary introductory course for undergraduates interested in learning about human aging. Drawing on diverse perspectives including sociology, psychology, political science, biology and health professions, this class identifies basic components of human aging in the United States. 3 Credit Hours.

GERO 3124
Diversity and Aging
CREDIT HOURS
3.0
DESCRIPTION
This course examines aging as a social process and focuses on the influence of ethnicity and race, as well as other key social relations in shaping the life course. We will define and examine diversity and disparity and consider many of the sociocultural factors that give rise to differences across the life course and in later life. 3:00 Credit Hours, crosslisted with SOCI 3124; Target Group: All undergraduate students, Gerontology and Sociology undergraduate majors.

GERO 4110
Aging Policy and Services
CREDIT HOURS

DESCRIPTION
(Same as SOCI 4110.) Aging policy, services and programs emphasizing legislation, funding, planning, the aging network, and the long-term care system.

GERO 4116
Aging and Society
CREDIT HOURS
3.0
DESCRIPTION
(Same as SOCI 4116.) An introduction to processes and problems of aging for individuals and society with a focus on social relationships, aging in families, caregiving, retirement, and age politics.

GERO 4119
Global Aging and Families
CREDIT HOURS
3.0
DESCRIPTION
(Same as SOCI 4119.) This is an upper division undergraduate course designed to introduce population aging at a global level in a global perspective. The course utilizes macro-sociological approaches to explain how demographic changes, global economic transformations, and social policies influence aging experiences, processes, and families in different regions of the world. It also combines micro-sociological approaches to examine how families are changing in roles and responsibilities as well as in forms and structures because of population aging in a global context, informing students how aging is not just a personal issue but is affected by gender, race, ethnicity, class, as well as national boundaries. Global Perspectives Course.

GERO 4122
Death, Dying and Loss
CREDIT HOURS
3.0
DESCRIPTION
(Same as SOCI 4122.) The process of death and dying, including the social roles of the dying person, the family, and those of the hospital and institutional staff; the social factors influencing death; social functions of bereavement; and problems in coping created by medical technology and longevity.

GERO 4130
Ties that Bind: Family, Intimacy and Aging
CREDIT HOURS
3.0
DESCRIPTION
(Same as SOCI 4130.) This course examines older adults' family lives and intimate relationships in social, historical and demographic context. Emphasis is placed on understanding in the type, nature, content and meaning of relationships, and on identifying influential factors, including, for example, gender, race, ethnicity, class, sexual orientation, and health status.

HIST 3615  The Indian Ocean World  4.0
DESCRIPTION  The purpose of this course is to introduce undergraduate students to the Indian Ocean world, a geographical zone running from East Africa to China and consisting of regions bordering the ocean body of water. The Ocean has been a highway of commercial and cultural exchanges since the ancient times. This course introduces students to the history of maritime Asia (since the fifteenth century) and allows them to study empires, trade, and cultures in monsoons Asia and their role in the world economy from non-Western and non-Eurocentric perspectives.

HIST 3620  The Atlantic World: Encounters, Empires, Diasporas, Revolutions  4.0
DESCRIPTION  The Atlantic World as a space of cross-cultural contact, empire and nation-building, diasporas, and revolutions since the fifteenth century; transatlantic encounters in Africa, Europe, and the Americas; conquest, colonialism, and creolization; slavery, emancipation, and capitalism; indigenous survival, subaltern resistance, and popular religion; Atlantic world legacies in cultural and political identities.

HIST 3625  War in Europe and America Since 1500  4.0
DESCRIPTION  Warfare and military institutions as they relate to social, economic, political, and technological developments.

HIST 3635  Media, Technology, and Popular Culture  4.0
DESCRIPTION  Examines evolution of communication technologies from the rise of printing in early modern Europe through the foundation of American media, and the globalization of mass media in the twentieth century. Topics include nationalism and the public sphere; media constructions of race, gender, and sexuality; legal and regulatory issues; and the changing aesthetics of print, film, television, and new media.

HIST 3640  Piracy from Ancient to Modern Times  4.0
DESCRIPTION  This course examines the history of piracy from the ancient Egyptians to present-day piracy off Somalia and the Straits of Malacca. Particular attention to the Golden Age of Piracy in the West from 1640 to 1730 is complemented by the study of piracy in a range of times and places. This comparative approach presents piracy as a series of complex social, political, and economic interactions, asking how transformations in piracy reveal larger patterns of change and continuity in world history. The course also examines how the study of pirates and piracy as a contemporary cultural phenomenon in films and other media can help us to understand how modern and contemporary culture claims and re-presents history.

KH 2520  Principles of Physical Activity and Fitness
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
REQUIREMENTS  KH 2520 may only be attended once
DESCRIPTION  A minimum grade of "C" is required for this course. Students develop knowledge and skills in lifetime fitness activities such as aerobic, jogging, walking, weight training, skeletal muscle development, and general conditioning. Emphasis is placed on developing an understanding of the health and fitness benefits provided through participation in these activities.

KH 3010  Skill Themes and Movement Concepts
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
REQUIREMENTS  A minimum grade of "C" is required for this course
DESCRIPTION  Students will develop knowledge and skills to plan, implement, and assess health-related physical activities, skill themes, and fundamental movement skills in a P-5 physical activity settings. Emphasis will be placed on the ability to teach a progression of tasks within a single lesson as well as within a unit plan and to instruct, analyze, and assess movement skills.

KH 3020  Fitness and Physical Activity
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
REQUIREMENTS  A minimum grade of "C" is required for this course
DESCRIPTION  This course introduces the foundations and components of health-related fitness and physical activity, developmentally appropriate health-related fitness content, and the assessment of health-related fitness.

KH 3030  Invasion Games
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
REQUIREMENTS  A minimum grade of "C" is required for this course
DESCRIPTION  This course introduces the rules, playing concepts, and game strategies of invasion games (e.g. team handball, ultimate Frisbee, speedball, and lacrosse). An emphasis will be placed on teaching methodology, skill development, and learning sequences.

KH 3040  Net/Wall Games
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
REQUIREMENTS  A minimum grade of "C" is required for this course
DESCRIPTION  This course introduces the rules, playing concepts, and game strategies of net/wall games (e.g. tennis, badminton, volleyball, pickle-ball). An emphasis will be placed on teaching methodology, skill development, and learning sequences.

KH 3050  Urban Outdoor Physical Activities
CREDIT HOURS  2.0
REQUIREMENTS  A minimum grade of "C+" is required for this course
DESCRIPTION  This course introduces students to outdoor physical activities that can be pursued in urban environments. Students will become acquainted with the skills and knowledge to instruct physical activity in the Atlanta metro area, such as parks, hiking trails, bicycle trails, skateboarding/rollerblading facilities, and the Atlanta Beltline. Students will learn applicable municipal codes, applicable regulations, and safe participation regarding these physical activity settings.

PREREQUISITES  Restricted to students admitted to the B.S. Exercise Science program; KH 2230 with a grade of "C" or higher or consent of instructor
REQUIREMENTS  A minimum grade of "C" is required for this course
DESCRIPTION  Focuses on alterations in body systems and organs during physical activity with emphasis on metabolic, cardio respiratory, and body composition parameters. Laboratory experiences employing physiological principles during active participation in exercise are also included. This is a "Critical Thinking Through Writing" (CTW) course.

KH 3680  International Experience in Sport and Exercise Science
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  This course is designed for undergraduate students to gain an international perspective on sport and exercise science. Students will learn to apply knowledge in sport and exercise science and gain field experience through a study-abroad program. Topics will include principles in sports biomechanics, materials in sports equipment, and research methods in exercise science. Global Perspectives Course. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

KH 3700  (TE) Sexuality Education for P-12-CTW
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
REQUIREMENTS  A minimum grade of "C+" is required for this course
DESCRIPTION  With permission from the course instructor, students outside of the KH Department and outside of the College of Education can select this course as an elective. This course has been identified as a "Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW)" course by the Department of Kinesiology and Health (KH). CTW assignments compose 45% of course assignments and include a structured academic controversy and two reflections. Students participate in class discussion, skill training, and skill applications which incorporate current national and state standards for school-based sexuality education. Particular emphasis is given to reaching special needs students. Class discussions and skill training include interactions with practicing teachers, parents, adolescents, content experts, and representatives of related community organizations. Skill application includes target group surveys; an in-class structured academic controversy, personal reflections, and a cognitive exam.

KH 3710  Health Risk Behaviors-CTW
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
REQUIREMENTS  A grade of C+ or higher is required for this course
DESCRIPTION  This course will introduce students to the health content areas and health education teaching models relevant to understanding current health risk behaviors. Students will learn to develop and implement health related content in school, recreation, health and wellness settings and will gain experience with individual/small group instruction. - Prerequisites: MGS 3400
- Requirements: Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours
- Description: This course is centered upon the theory and application of Corporate Social Responsibility. The concept of the triple bottom line, i.e. planet, people and profits is examined for a variety of global corporations. These "three P's" re-enforce the notion of stakeholder issues taking precedence over shareholder concerns. We examine the interrelationships among business, government and society and develop a framework of corporate sustainability and opportunity balanced with corporate awareness and responsibility.
MGS 4730  Project Management
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MATH 1070, and MGS 3400
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1
DESCRIPTION  This course addresses the structured process for managing projects. The emphasis in the course is on defining, planning, and controlling projects to successfully complete them within quality specifications, on schedule, and within budget. Project management software is used in the course. Other topics include project organization, roles of the project manager and team members, and project leadership.

MGS 4740  Operation Strategy
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MGS 3100 and MGS 4700
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours
DESCRIPTION  This course addresses the development and implementation of production/operations strategy and the integration of this strategy with the corporate/business strategies and with those of other functional areas. Topics include planning and implementation of operations strategies, organizational design for operations, and productivity improvement.

MGS 4760  Total Quality Management
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MGS 3100
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 3, 6
DESCRIPTION  The course emphasizes the strategic importance of quality, the management of quality, problem-solving tools for quality assurance, and statistical process control methods. In addition, this course provides the business student with a set of skills for achieving and maintaining quality assurance and process or service control. Cases and problem solving exercises reinforce the basic concepts and principles of Quality Management.

MGS 4770  Service Operations Management
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MGS 4700
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 3, 7
DESCRIPTION  This course focuses on the analysis of service sector performance and methods designed to improve service operations from a competitiveness standpoint. The topics covered are cross-functional in nature including operations, marketing, human resource management, information technology and entrepreneurship and are presented as an integrated system approach to the service organization.
MGS 4860 Management Studies Abroad

CREDIT HOURS 3.0

PREREQUISITES MGS 3400, and consent of instructor

REQUIREMENTS Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours

DESCRIPTION Emphasizing a collaborative rather than competitive learning environment, this course examines the interrelatedness of economic, political, legal, social, and cultural factors on cross-cultural management issues. Concepts of human behavior, motivation, strategy, and labor/management relations are linked to practice in different national settings. An extensive international on-site program is an integral part of this program. Interviews are conducted at a broad range of organizations and industries. Objectives include cultivating a global mindset and developing a richer understanding of international business challenges relating to management. Company visits showcase evolving corporate profiles in the global marketplace. This course may include a Signature Experience component.
MK 3010 Marketing Management

Credit Hours: 3.0
Prerequisites: ACCT 2101, and ACCT 2102, and ECON 2105, and ECON 2106, and CIS 2010, and BUSA 2106
Requirements: Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours. B.B.A. students may not register for this course until ECON 2105, ECON 2106, and ACCT 2102 are passed with degree credit
Description: As the marketplace continues to adopt more electronic tools to facilitate business processes and expand to the international arena, the discipline of marketing is emerging as more important than ever in helping organizations better assure their on-going viability. This course provides an overview of marketing as a management process. Upon its successful completion, students will gain the ability to make better business decisions by understanding how to assess the marketing environment, design and conduct marketing research, and determine what elements are most important to customers as they make purchasing decisions. Topics covered include the use of marketing tools to develop and manage actual products and services, how to maximize prices on those products and services, how to distribute products and services, how to maximize prices on those products and services, and how to promote them. Finally, discussions will take place on how to compile the marketing information and decisions in a strategic plan that helps guide organizations’ offerings to commercial success.

MK 4010 Marketing Metrics, Analysis and Problem Solving

Credit Hours: 3.0
Prerequisites: MK 3010, and MGS 3100
Requirements: Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CPS None
Description: The course teaches a numbers-based approach to understanding, structuring and presenting solutions for marketing challenges. Students apply basic economic, financial and accounting principles and best-practice marketing metrics to marketing problems, and also learn to evaluate and analyze marketing problems presented in the form of case studies. This course also includes an introduction to Marketing careers and tools to aid students in preparing for a successful career in Marketing.

MK 4100 Buyer Behavior

Credit Hours: 3.0
Prerequisites: MK 3010
Requirements: Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours
Description: Basic concepts and research results from marketing and the social sciences are examined with the goal of enabling marketers to better understand customers and meet their needs. The decision process of buyers, factors affecting purchasing decisions, and customer satisfaction are major conceptual areas of the course. Implications for marketing strategies (e.g., market segmentation, product design, and promotion) are discussed.

<td>Prerequisite; MK 3010, and BCOM 3950. Social media marketing is changing the way companies of all sizes communicate with their customers. In the same way they use traditional media, marketers use social media to reach their customers efficiently and effectively. But they also use it to understand buyer behavior and gain insights into what customers are saying about brands. This course will cover social media applications such as blogging, online communities, social networking (e.g., Facebook and LinkedIn), WIKIs, rapid sharing systems (e.g., Twitter), podcasting (e.g., YouTube), and search engine marketing. Through experiential learning, the course will teach students how to apply the strategic planning process, return on investment criteria, and organizational governance issues to the broad spectrum of social media.</td>

MK 4391  Marketing Internship
CREDIT HOURS  1.0
PREREQUISITES  MK 3010, and BCOM 3950 and department approval
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, (May be repeated once)
DESCRIPTION  In this field study, students have the opportunity to apply their marketing skills, knowledge, and competencies in a professional setting. The course enables a student to participate in a marketing internship when the employer requires that credit be granted for the internship experience. Upon satisfying the prerequisites, students can apply to the department during the normal registration period for the upcoming semester, by providing a written description of the proposed internship. Grading is on a Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory basis. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

MK 4400  Distribution Management
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MK 3010 and BCOM 3950
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2
DESCRIPTION  Distribution management deals with the management of those activities involved in making goods and services available for businesses and consumers. In this course, students develop understanding of how various institutions in the marketing channel perform these functions cost effectively to meet changing customer expectations. Emphasis is placed on the functions associated with the flow of inventories and related information or logistics aspects of distribution including marketing channels, customer service, order management and information systems, transportation management, inventory management, and warehousing. Toward the end of the course, students learn how to integrate these functions into a total distribution/logistics system from a supply chain perspective.

MK 4420  Retail Management
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MK 3010 and BCOM 950
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours
DESCRIPTION  The retail environment serves as the touch-point between business and consumers. The retailing function adds value to the vast number of products and services that consumers buy, from food and apparel to leisure and entertainment. This course introduces students to the retail management process, the dynamism of the retail industry and tools for improving productivity. A diverse set of topics will be covered, including merchandise management, pricing and financial strategy, location analysis, store atmosphere and design, retail communications, and customer service and loyalty.

<td>This course examines sales promotion as a form of marketing communication. Marketers use sales promotion tools such as coupons, sweepstakes, rebates, premiums, samples, point-of-purchase displays, price deals, loyalty programs, event sponsorships, trade allowances, and other incentive programs to motivate profitable behavior throughout the channel as well as at the final point of sale. Since the 1990's sales promotion has come to account for the largest share of the marketers budget across many industries. In this course, students learn how to conceptualize, execute, and evaluate a firm's sales promotion activities so as to maximize their ROI. This course utilizes individual and group projects, as well as lecture and discussion, to help students develop sound sales promotion strategies.</td>

MK 4720  Direct and Interactive Marketing

CREDIT HOURS
3.0

REQUIREMENTS
BCOM 3950, and MK 3010

DESCRIPTION
Direct Marketing is one of the fastest growing areas of marketing practice today. Direct marketing uses multiple channels (such as Internet, the telephone, mail, and mass media) to reach specifically targeted customers to elicit a response and create an immediate or eventual sale. Direct marketing is distinguished by its focus on targeting and by its emphasis on accountability for performance and impact on ROI. This course teaches students how to plan and execute effective direct marketing strategies. Students examine the role of information in testing, refining and evaluating a direct marketing program. They will also explore the regulatory environment, the challenge of protecting customer privacy, and global variations in the use and effectiveness of direct marketing programs.

MK 4800  Services Marketing

CREDIT HOURS
3.0

REQUIREMENTS
Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 6, 7

DESCRIPTION
Prerequisites; MK 3010, and BCOM 3950. Given the dominance of the service sector in the global economy, this course focuses on the important challenges of marketing services and delivering quality service to customers. The primary theme of this course is that service organizations differ from goods organizations and require their own distinctive approach to the development and execution of marketing strategy. A second theme focuses on the role of service in manufacturing firms. This course will suggest ways that companies in the manufactured goods sector might use service as a source of competitive advantage. Through completion of a comprehensive firm audit, students will better understand the use of marketing tools by service organizations.
MK 4850  Marketing for Entrepreneurs
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MK 3010, and BCOM 3950
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 6, 7
DESCRIPTION  Marketing is of critical importance to the success of the entrepreneurial venture. This course gives students the chance to develop their knowledge and thinking about entrepreneurial opportunities by applying marketing concepts to the specific challenges of the small business or start-up. The course begins by examining how marketing can be used to find, evaluate, and exploit the right venture opportunity. Students then learn how to formulate product, price, promotion, and distribution strategies under conditions of severe resource limitations. Through the development of a marketing plan for an existing small business or a proposed start-up, students will learn how to position new products and services to increase the chance of venture success.

MK 4900  Marketing Strategy
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MK 3010, and MK 4010, and MK 4100, and MK 4200
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7
DESCRIPTION  This is the capstone course, synthesizing knowledge and skills acquired in previous marketing coursework. The course focuses on marketing's role in creating, capturing, and sustaining customer value for an organization or business unit. Using the case method, students apply quantitative analysis and critical thinking skills to develop and implement marketing strategies to solve problems in a dynamic global environment. Working in teams, students learn how to manage marketing organizations and integrate marketing functions as they design, execute, evaluate, and present a strategic marketing plan. Students are encouraged to enroll in this course their last semester. Prerequisites are strictly enforced.

MATH 1111  College Algebra
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  Appropriate score on the math placement test, or concurrent registration in MATH 0999
DESCRIPTION  This course provides an in-depth study of the properties of algebraic, exponential and logarithmic functions as needed for calculus. Emphasis is on using algebraic and graphical techniques for solving problems involving linear, quadratic, piece-wise defined, rational, polynomial, exponential, and logarithmic functions.

MATH 1112  College Trigonometry
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MATH 1111 with a grade of C or higher, or appropriate score on the math placement test
DESCRIPTION  This course is an in-depth study of the properties of trigonometric functions and their inverses. Topics include circular functions, special angles, solutions of triangles, trigonometric identities and equations, graphs of trigonometric functions, inverse trigonometric functions and their graphs, Law of Sines, Law of Cosines, and vectors.

MATH 1113  Precalculus
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MATH 1111 with a grade of C or higher, or appropriate score on the math placement test
DESCRIPTION  This course is an intensive study of the basic functions needed for the study of calculus. Topics include algebraic, functional, and graphical techniques for solving problems with algebraic, exponential, logarithmic, and trigonometric functions and their inverses.

MATH 1220  Survey of Calculus
CREDIT HOURS  3.0

MATH 4371  Modern Geometry
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES MATH 3000 with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION Euclidean and non-Euclidean geometry, including incidence, order, and the parallel postulate.

MATH 4381  General Topology
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES Grade of C or higher in MATH 3000
DESCRIPTION This course will provide an introduction to general topology, which is the study of spaces and how to classify spaces according to their characteristic properties. The class will begin with a brief review of basic set theory and metric spaces. Topics covered include topological spaces, continuous functions, topological properties (connectedness, compactness, countability, and separation axioms), the fundamental group, and covering spaces.

MATH 4382  Algebraic Topology
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES Grade of C or higher in General Topology (MATH 4381/6381) and Modern Algebra I (MATH 4441)
DESCRIPTION This course will provide an introduction to methods in algebraic topology. Topics covered include fundamental groups, covering space theory, simplicial complexes, simplicial homology, singular homology, singular cohomology, and higher homotopy groups.

MATH 4401  Modern Algebra I
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES MATH 2215, MATH 2641, and MATH 3000 with grades of C or higher
DESCRIPTION Axiomatic approach to algebraic structures, groups, permutations, homomorphisms, and factor groups.

MATH 4411  Modern Algebra II
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES MATH 4441 with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION Rings, integral domains, and fields; polynomials over a field, matrices over a field, algebraic numbers and ideals.
MATH 4444  Polynomials
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MATH 3000 with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION  Three lecture hours a week. The topic of polynomials is one of the oldest in mathematics and has applicability to almost every area of mathematics. The course will use algebra and analysis to study polynomials. Among topics to be covered: roots of polynomials (inequalities, relationship between the root of a polynomial and its derivative), resultants, discriminant, irreducible polynomials, special classes of polynomials (symmetric, cyclotomic, Chebysev).

MATH 4450  Theory of Numbers
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MATH 3000 with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION  Properties of integers, divisibility, congruence of problems.

MATH 4544  Biostatistics
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MATH 2211 and BIOL 1104K or BIOL 1108K or BIOL 2108K with grades of C or higher
DESCRIPTION  (Same as BIOL 4744.) Degree credit will not be given for both MATH 4544 and MATH 4547. Principles and methods of statistics as applied to biology and medicine.

MATH 4547  Introduction to Statistical Methods
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  grade of C or higher in a course in calculus
DESCRIPTION  Degree credit will not be given for both MATH 4544 and MATH 4547. Data analysis, sampling, and probability; standard methods of statistical inference, including t-tests, chi-square tests, and nonparametric methods. Applications include use of a statistical computer package.

MATH 4548  Methods of Regression and Analysis of Variance
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  grade of C or higher in a course in calculus, and a course covering methods of statistical inference DESCRIPTION  Simple and multiple regression, model selection procedures, analysis of variance, simultaneous inference, design and analysis of experiments. Applications include use of a statistical computer package.

MATH 4610  Numerical Analysis I
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MATH 2215 with grade of C or higher and the ability to program in a high-level language
DESCRIPTION  (Same as CSC 4610.) Nature of error; iteration; techniques for nonlinear systems; zeros of functions; interpolation; numerical differentiation; Newton-Cotes formulae for definite integrals; computer implementation of algorithms.

MATH 4620  Numerical Analysis II
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  Either MATH 3030 or both MATH 2641 and MATH 2215 with grades of C or higher, and the ability to program in a high level language
DESCRIPTION  (Same as CSC 4620.) Gaussian Elimination for linear systems; least squares; Taylor, predictor-corrector and Runge- Kutta methods for solving ordinary differential equations; boundary value problems; partial differential equations.

EDMT 3300  Puzzling Mathematics from an Educational Perspective

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

DESCRIPTION  This course will concentrate on solving, or attempting to solve mathematics problems and/or puzzles in secondary mathematics context. The emphasis will be on exploration of various mathematics contexts to learn mathematics, to pose problems and problem extensions, to solve problem and/or puzzles, and to communicate mathematical problems and/or puzzles and their solutions from an educational perspective. Curriculum implications of problem and/or puzzle solving will be explored through the course.

EDMT 3350  Topics in Middle Grades Mathematics

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

PREREQUISITES  MATH 2211 with a grade of "C" or higher

DESCRIPTION  Develops selected content topics in middle grades mathematics including number theory, algebra, geometry, probability, and statistics. The course emphasizes algebraic thinking and functions, problem solving, reasoning, connecting mathematical ideas, and using technology.

EDMT 3420  Special Topics in the Middle Level Mathematics Curriculum

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

DESCRIPTION  Students explore the content and pedagogy related to selected topics in the middle school mathematics curriculum. May be repeated for credit when topics change. (Repeatable).

EDMT 4460  Concepts and Methods in Middle Childhood Mathematics

CREDIT HOURS  3.0

PREREQUISITES  Students must complete all Area G.1 and Area G.2 courses

COREQUISITES  EDCI 4650, EDCI 4600, EDRD 4600, EDMT 4460, EDRD 4450, EDSC 4470, or EDSS 4480

REQUIREMENTS  A minimum grade of "B" is required for this course

DESCRIPTION  Provides the pedagogical content knowledge necessary for effective middle school mathematics instruction. Procedures for planning, implementing, and reflecting on mathematics instruction are learned in a school setting.

MSL 4030  National Advanced Leadership Camp
CREDIT HOURS  8.0
PREREQUISITES  consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  ROTC National Advanced Camp is the most important training event for an Army ROTC cadet. The 32-day camp incorporates a wide range of subjects designed to develop and evaluate leadership ability. The challenges are rigorous and demanding, both mentally and physically. Advanced Camp tests intelligence, common sense, ingenuity, and stamina. These challenges provide a new perspective on an individual's ability to perform exacting tasks and to make difficult decisions in demanding situations.

MSL 4400  Independent Study
CREDIT HOURS  4.0
DESCRIPTION  Develops proficiency in planning, executing, and assessing complex operations, functioning as a member of a staff, and providing leadership-performance feedback to subordinates. Cadets are given situational opportunities to assess risk, make sound ethical decisions, and provide coaching and mentoring to fellow ROTC Cadets. MSL IV Cadets are measured by their ability to give and receive systematic and specific feedback on leadership abilities using the Socratic model of reflective learning. Cadets at the MSL IV level analyze and evaluate the leadership values, attributes, skills, and actions of MSL III Cadets while simultaneously considering their own leadership skills. Attention is given to preparation for success at BOLC III and the development of leadership abilities. The MSL 4400 course is designed to include multiple opportunities for student centered learning, to include, but not limited to student reading assignments; homework assignments; participation in small group assignments, practical exercises and case studies.

NEUR 4250  Neuroscience of Motivation and Emotion
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES NEUR 3000 or BIOL 4102 with a C or higher
DESCRIPTION An examination of how the nervous system generates motivation and emotional states in diverse species, including humans. Topics include neural mechanisms of thirst and hunger, defense and fear, and social behavior, as well as disorders of emotion and motivation.

NEUR 4330  Functional Neuroimaging
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION Three lectures hours a week. Foundations of physics principles applied to brain processes, different imaging modalities, and neuroimaging data analysis methods. Topics include physiological basis of functional neuroimaging, physics of different imaging modalities (fMRI, PET, EEG, MEG, fNIR, TMS), experimental design, neuroimaging data analysis, and applications in cognitive neuroscience. This course is appropriate for graduate students in physics, chemistry, biology, neuroscience, psychology, mathematics, statistics, and computer science with an interest in the use of functional neuroimaging.

NEUR 4340  Neurophysics
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES NEUR 3000 or BIOL 4102, and PHYS 2212K with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION Course provides fundamental findings of physics of neuronal systems. The course covers such topics as introduction to biomechanics, membranes, transport, electroosmotic effects, ion pumping, cellular homeostasis, the Hodgkin-Huxley formalism, energetics of spiking, neural coding, and dynamics of neurons and neuronal networks. It also covers methods of recording of neuronal activity.

NEUR 4350  Numerical Methods for Neuroscience
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES NEUR 3000, MATH 2201, or MATH 2211 with a C or higher
DESCRIPTION This class develops hands-on practical skills in numerical problem solving for dynamical systems models applied to neuroscience. Students will design and test complex scientific calculations using various software tools, including the application of bifurcation analysis, phase plane analysis, and simulation tools.
NEUR 4360 Mathematical Biology

CREDIT HOURS 3.0

PREREQUISITES Grade of C or higher in MATH 2212 or MATH 2202

DESCRIPTION This course provides an introduction to the use of continuous and discrete differential equations in the biological sciences. Biological topics will include single species and interacting population dynamics, modeling infectious and dynamic diseases, regulation of cell function, molecular interactions and receptor-ligand binding, biological oscillators, and an introduction to biological pattern formation. There will also be discussions of current topics of interest such as Tumor Growth and Angiogenesis, HIV and AIDS, and Control of the Mitotic Clock. Mathematical tools such as phase portraits, bifurcation diagrams, perturbation theory, and parameter estimation techniques that are necessary to analyze and interpret biological models will also be covered. 3.000 Credit Hours.

NEUR 4370 Applied Dynamical Systems

CREDIT HOURS 3.0

PREREQUISITES NEUR 3000 or MATH 2201 or MATH 2211, with a grade of C or higher

DESCRIPTION Introduction to discrete and continuous dynamical systems. Topics include: phase space; linear and nonlinear systems; structural stability; classification of equilibrium states, invariant manifolds; Poincar maps, fixed points and period orbits; stability boundaries; local bifurcations; homoclinic orbits; routes to chaos in dissipative systems; applications from physics, biology, population dynamics, economics.

NEUR 4420 Hormones and Behavior

CREDIT HOURS 4.0

PREREQUISITES NEUR 3000 or BIOL 3840 with grades of C or higher

DESCRIPTION Interaction of nervous and endocrine systems in the control of animal behavior, including humans, with emphasis on the mechanisms that adapt behavior to the changing physical and social environments.

NEUR 4576 Neurovirology

CREDIT HOURS 4.0

PREREQUISITES NEUR 3000 or BIOL 3800 with grade of C or higher

DESCRIPTION Following an introduction to basic neuroanatomy and neuroimmunology, individual lectures will focus on the diagnosis, treatment, and pathogenesis of several neurologic diseases of virus origin. These include encephalitis, meningitis, chronic inflammatory and demyelinating diseases, HIV/AIDS-associated dementia, peripheral neuropathies, retinitis, and transmissible spongiform encephalopathies caused by prions. The concept of virus latency within the nervous system will be emphasized, as will the possible contributions of viruses or prions toward the onset of Alzheimer's disease.

NEUR 4610 Neurorobotics

CREDIT HOURS 4.0

PREREQUISITES NEUR 3000 or BIOL 4102 with grade of C or higher

DESCRIPTION This course will examine how the principles of neuroscience enable animals and humans to respond adaptively, and how the principles can be applied to create an autonomous, adaptively behaving robot. Students will apply these principles to create their own computational model of an animal or autonomous robot that can respond adaptively to challenges in its environment.

PERS PERSPECTIVES

PERS 2001  Perspectives on Comparative Culture

CREDIT HOURS  2.0

DESCRIPTION  A group of interdisciplinary courses that provide a better understanding of the contemporary world through the study of different cultures. One course from this category may be used to fulfill requirements in Area B, Institutional Options. Additional information is available on-line at http://www.gsu.edu/areab.

PERS 2002  Scientific Perspectives on Global Problems

CREDIT HOURS  2.0

DESCRIPTION  A group of interdisciplinary courses that deal with scientific approaches to important issues on the environment, public health, or technology. One course from this category may be used to fulfill requirements in Area B, Institutional Options.

PERS 2003  Perspectives on Human Expression

CREDIT HOURS  2.0

DESCRIPTION  A group of interdisciplinary courses that focus on the human condition, how people have expressed themselves through the arts and humanities, and how such representations have had broad historical and/or contemporary impact. Only one course in this group may be used to fulfill requirements in Area B. Additional information is available on-line at http://www.gsu.edu/areab.
PHIL PHILOSOPHY

PHIL 1010  Critical Thinking
CREDIT HOURS  2.0
DESCRIPTION  Development of practical and logical skills important to all disciplines, with emphasis on standardizing and evaluating arguments. Students are introduced to types of arguments used across the humanities, the social sciences, and the natural sciences.

PHIL 2010  Introduction to Philosophy
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  We will explore some fascinating questions about human existence and discuss various answers offered by philosophers, such as: Does God exist? How should I live my life? What is justice? What is human nature? Do we have free will? What is the meaning of life?

PHIL 2030  Introduction to Ethics
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  Are there universal moral truths or is morality relative? What makes actions right or wrong, people good or bad, societies just or unjust? Students will discuss ethical theories that address these questions and will debate moral issues, such as abortion, genetic engineering, animal rights, feminism, and social justice.

PHIL 2040  Philosophy Of Art
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  Exit or exemption from ENGL 0999 and all ESL requirements
DESCRIPTION  The course will examine what role art plays in our lives by asking questions concerning the value of art, beauty, and by inquiring into the nature or essence of the work of art. In addition, the course will interrogate and discuss the work of art itself as a product of creativity, imagination, and understanding.

PHIL 2500  Introduction to Symbolic Logic
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  Introduction to the study of how to reason correctly and evaluate the validity of arguments.

PHIL 3000  Introductory Seminar in Philosophy-CTW
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  PHIL 2010 with grade of C or higher
DESCRIPTION  This course offers an in-depth treatment of a philosophical issue (for example, free will, justice, Kantian ethics) in a seminar setting, where students have an opportunity to engage in systematic discussions of primary texts and the philosophical issues they raise. This investigation of a topic from a variety of vantage points allows students to develop an informed position and the argumentative skills necessary to defend it successfully, both orally and in writing. This course is designed to introduce students to the major in philosophy, there is no requirement that one be a philosophy major to take this course. Students considering a philosophy major or minor are encouraged to take this course. Serves as the Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) course required of all philosophy majors.

PHIL 3010  Origins of Western Philosophy

PHIL 4830  Topics in Philosophy of Art
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES One 2000 or 3000-level philosophy course, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION Historical and contemporary accounts of the nature of art, aesthetic experience, creative activity, imagination, expression, interpretation, and aesthetic evaluation.

PHIL 4855  Advanced Topics in Political Theory
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES One 2000 or 3000-level philosophy course, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION Advanced survey of the great writings in political thought. Examines the contributions these works made to Western conceptions such as democracy, equality, human nature, citizenship, and liberty, as well as their continuing relevance for understanding contemporary moral and political dilemmas. May be repeated but only if content varies. A maximum of six credit hours may be applied toward the major.

PHIL 4860  Feminist Philosophy
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES One 2000 or 3000-level philosophy course, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION Classical and contemporary issues concerning women, such as discrimination on the basis of gender, class, race, or sexuality, whether gender is natural or constructed, and historical roots of feminist and anti-feminist perspectives.

PHIL 4870  Honors Thesis: Research
CREDIT HOURS 1.0 - 6.0
PREREQUISITES Good standing with the Honors College and consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION Readings or research preparatory to honors thesis or project. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

PHIL 4880  Honors Thesis: Writing
CREDIT HOURS 1.0 - 6.0
PREREQUISITES PHIL 4870 with grade of C or higher, good standing with the Honors College and consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION Writing or production of honors thesis or project. This course may include a Signature Experience component.

PT 3000  Introduction to Physical and Occupational Therapy Practice
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  The purpose of this course is to provide current information on the roles and functions of physical and occupational therapists in the present healthcare system. Students will be exposed to the breadth of these fields of science, research, and practice questions being asked, and practice approaches currently used. The relationship to the practice of medicine and other allied health professions will also be explored. This course is open to all university students.

PT 3660  Complementary and Alternative Therapies
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  This course provides students with information about Complementary and Alternative Therapies (CAT) including the role and scope of CAT in health care systems, and applications of CAT in therapeutic situations. The curing medicine and therapeutic modalities addressed include Acupuncture and Acupressure, Traditional Chinese Medicine, Herbal Medicine, Energy Medicine, Ayurvedic Medicine, Body/Mind Therapy, Homeopathic Therapy, Massage and Touch Therapy, and Nutrition and Diet.

PT 4130  Tai Chi – A Therapeutic Exercise
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  This course introduces Tai Chi as a therapeutic exercise. The course addresses the benefits of Tai Chi exercise, Tai Chi’s origin, philosophy and development. Scientific evidence of Tai Chi’s benefits to health is discussed. The course introduces all the styles and forms of Tai Chi and the applications of Tai Chi to self-defense, exercise, rehabilitation and meditation. Application of the principles and practices of Tai Chi to various physical impairments and disabilities is discussed.

PSYC 4110  Physiological Psychology
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  PSYC 1101 with grade of C or higher and PSYC 3510 and PSYC 3530 with grades of C or higher, or equivalents
DESCRIPTION  (Same as NEUR 4110.) Explores the relations between biological and mental processes. Nervous system functions in the control of behavior are emphasized. The anatomy, physiology, and chemistry of the nervous system are reviewed, and the scientific analysis of the relations of these biological processes to psychological phenomena is presented. Evidence from research involving both the physiological manipulation of animal models and the accidental and pathological alterations of humans included.

PSYC 4116  Primate Behavior: Field and Laboratory
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  BIOL 3840 or PSYC 4110 with grade of C or higher, or equivalent, or consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION  Two lecture and two laboratory hours a week. Non-human and human primate origins of cognition, language, mythology, rituals, tool use, nonverbal expressions, symbolism, sexuality, and aggression.

PSYC 4120  Learning
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  PSYC 1101, PSYC 3510, and PSYC 3530 with grades of C or higher, or equivalents
DESCRIPTION  Describes learning phenomena, explains and utilizes research methods in learning, discusses theories of learning, and considers assumptions on which the theories and research are based.

PSYC 4125  Learning Lab
CREDIT HOURS  1.0
PREREQUISITES  PSYC 4120 with a grade of C or higher, or equivalent, or current enrollment in PSYC 4120
DESCRIPTION  Students will experience laboratory activities related to the psychological study of learning. Topics and activities will include classical conditioning, operant conditioning, habituation and dishabituation, sensitization, relational learning, memory, and brain-behavior relations. Psychology majors, particularly those who plan to attend graduate school, are encouraged to register.

PSYC 4130  Sensation and Perception
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  PSYC 1101, PSYC 3510, and PSYC 3530 with grades of C or higher, or equivalents
DESCRIPTION  (Same as BIOL 4130.) Experimental analysis of sensory and perceptual processes at both a physiological and a psychophysical level. The five primary sensory systems will be covered: vision, audition, touch, taste, and smell.
PSYC 4140  Introduction to Psychophysiology
CREDIT HOURS 4.0
PREREQUISITES Upper division standing; PSYC 3510 and PSYC 3530 with grades of C or higher, or equivalent; and consent of instructor
DESCRIPTION Three lecture and two laboratory hours a week. A laboratory course on the area of psychology known as psychophysiology. Covers the use of physiological techniques in understanding psychological phenomena (e.g., sensation and perception, memory, language, etc.), the rationale and application of various psychophysiological methodologies including heart rate monitoring, electrodermal activity, the electromyogram (EMG), electroencephalogram (EEG, "brain waves"), event-related brain potentials (ERPs), and other types of brain imaging techniques (functional MRI, PET, and MEG). Demonstrates how these various measures inform scientists about the workings of the brain and peripheral nervous system in producing thinking and behavior.

PSYC 4160  Theories of Personality
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES PSYC 1101 with grade of C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION Includes Freudian psychoanalysis, derivatives of classic psychoanalysis, humanism, existentialism, and behaviorism. Lectures cover contributions of major theorists from each school, key theoretical points from each perspective, critiques of the value of and the limitations of each theory, and comparisons between theoretical ideas.

PSYC 4170  Global Issues in Social Psychology
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
DESCRIPTION This survey course covers topics in social psychology from a global lens. Topics include cultural values, methodological equivalences, inter-cultural group conflict, self and identity, aggression and violence, attitudes about immigration and refugees, and altruism.

PSYC 4200  Introduction to Behavior Modification
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES PSYC 1101 and PSYC 3510 with grades of C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION Basic principles underlying behavior modification and behavior therapy. Emphasis is placed upon empirical findings.

PSYC 4300  Adolescent Psychology
CREDIT HOURS 3.0
PREREQUISITES PSYC 1101 with grade of C or higher, or equivalent
DESCRIPTION Characteristics and theories of adolescent development.

PSYC 4330  Philosophy of Mind
CREDIT HOURS 3.0

PH 2000  Introduction to Public Health
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  This course will introduce students to the history and philosophy of public health, as well as the core values, concepts and functions that guide public health work in the United States and globally. Examining health and health related needs from a population-based perspective, students will have the opportunity to identify the impact that social, behavioral, biological and environmental factors have on health and health disparities. Students will learn how public health affects them in their everyday lives. Using case studies, vignettes, and extensive examples, they will learn and apply frameworks for thinking about the issues of public health. They will gain a deeper understanding about the health news they hear, the web sites they visit, and the research they read.

PH 2010  Public Health Careers and Profession
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  PH 2000
DESCRIPTION  This course focuses on career planning and development issues for public health majors. Using a combination of lecture, readings, and exercises, students will be able to explain the history and philosophy of public health as well as the profession’s core values, concepts, and functions across the globe and in society today. Students will be exposed to information designed to assist in clarification, selection, and pursuit of a career in public health. Topics include an overview of the undergraduate major in public health, career options in public health and allied-public health fields, preparation for employment with a bachelor's degree, preparing for success in graduate school, and applying for a job or graduate school.

PH 3001  Introduction to Research Methods in Public Health
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  This course introduces learners to population based approach to health and describes the full range of options for intervention to promote health and prevent disease. The course will cover basic principles of epidemiology, including epidemiological measures, association and causality, descriptive and analytic epidemiology, and outbreak investigation. Students will gain a deeper understanding of the role of epidemiology in the policy arena.

PH 3004  Chronic Disease Epidemiology
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  PH 3001
DESCRIPTION  The course will reinforce epidemiologic principles and public health concepts in the context of chronic diseases and associated risk factors. Topics will include the application of epidemiologic methods in studies of chronic disease prevention and control and the importance of surveillance as a basis for public health interventions.

PH 4880  Public Health Study Abroad

CREDIT HOURS 1.0 OR 12.0

PREREQUISITES Instructor Approval

DESCRIPTION Through international travel, this course will provide an educational and cultural opportunity for students interested in global public health research and public health practice as conducted in other areas of the world. Students may study a variety of public health issues, engage in community-based research, and/or provide support to public health organizations in their host city and country. This course number serves as a generic number for study abroad programs sponsored by or done in partnership with the School of Public Health. An in-country experience is a required segment of the course. Specific region and/or discipline focus may vary by offering. Most public health study abroad opportunities are applicable to all degree levels. If an opportunity is only applicable to a certain degree level, the corresponding degree level restriction will appear on that specific study abroad course offering and in its course listing comments area. Also, this course is variable credit - the instructor will inform students on the appropriate amount of credit hours students should register for given their planned course workload. Students must adjust their own variable credits prior to the end of registration. (http://registrar.gsu.edu/registration-guide/how-to-change-credit-hours-for-variable-hours-courses/).

Contact the School of Public Health for the current list of study abroad options (http://publichealth.gsu.edu/academic/study-abroad). Finally, this course does NOT fulfill the Bachelor of Science in Public Health Signature Experience requirement. Students wanting to fulfill their Bachelor of Science in Public Health Signature Experience requirement with a study abroad experience should register for course: PH 4992 Public Health Signature Experience: Global.

DESCRIPTION
Public Health Signature Experiences gives public health majors the opportunity to integrate, synthesize and apply their public health knowledge through cumulative and experiential activities. This course integrates public health service into the learning process. Students apply their public health knowledge and skills to volunteer positions that address community needs related to public health. This is done through direct service with local community groups or Non-Governmental Organizations, or completion of a project with a public health community partner, such as a business plan, fundraising event or social media campaign. These service learning activities may be done individually, or in special cases, with a class group working toward a particular service learning opportunity. Service learning sites, supervisors or coordinators, and planned service activities must be approved in advance of the course start date. Pre-approval deadlines are set by the School each semester. The experience results in the production of a culminating product that is evaluated by a faculty member.

RELS 4225  Psychology and Religion
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  This course will survey the fields of psychology and religious studies. Addressing this tension, our course is designed to create a constructive, respectful dialogue between both perspectives. Can we conceive ways in which religious behavior and the study of religion may inform, or even construct, psychological theory? Conversely, how do psychological perspectives and cognitive science tell a richer, deeper story of what is happening in religious experiences? We will consider postmodern and qualitative critiques to such investigations, as well as the emerging field in "explaining" religion through cognitive science and evolutionary theory. This course will also consider Eastern forms of religious expression and spirituality.

RT 4082  Advanced Neonatal Respiratory Care
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  Advanced concepts in the evaluation, monitoring, and therapeutic modalities seen with common neonatal disorders, including respiratory distress syndrome, intracranial hemorrhage, pulmonary hypertension of the newborn, and others. A case study approach will be utilized.

RT 4085  Professional Practice: From Current Trends to Long-Term, Extended Care
CREDIT HOURS  3.0
DESCRIPTION  An analysis of the current professional environment and the role of the respiratory therapist in that atmosphere are discussed. An overview of concepts, procedures, and long-term care and how the respiratory therapist's role is impacted interacting between the acute care facility and self-administered care in the patient's home is emphasized. Topics and emphasis may vary. This is a writing intensive course. This is also RT 7085. Serves as one of the two Critical Thinking through Writing (CTW) courses required of all Respiratory Therapy majors.

RT 4096  End of Life Issues
CREDIT HOURS  1.0
PREREQUISITES  First year and 2nd year Respiratory Therapy courses
DESCRIPTION  This course is designed to provide a broad overview of death and dying in United States. The growing need for quality palliative care, current gaps in care, and the scope of palliative care will be discussed in an attempt to introduce the student to current end-of-life issues.

RT 4950  Directed Readings

CREDIT HOURS  1.0 - 3.0
DESCRIPTION  Designed to provide students with the opportunity for advanced work in a special area on an individual basis. A project will be completed.
RMI RISK MANAGEMENT AND INSURANCE

RMI 3500  Introduction to Risk Management and Insurance

CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  None
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 6, 7
DESCRIPTION  The primary focus of this introductory course is on evaluating life, health, retirement, property, and liability exposures to loss and analyzing the methods for managing these risks. Risk management and insurance techniques for dealing with potential losses to individuals and organizations are emphasized. This course is suggested as an elective for all majors.

RMI 3750  Risk Modeling

CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  MATH 1113
COREQUISITES  MGS 3100
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 6 and 7
DESCRIPTION  This course introduces students to the principles of probability theory and risk simulation analysis. Specific topics covered include probability theory; descriptive statistics and graphical representations of data; probability distribution functions including binomial, Poisson, Normal and other functions; sampling distributions and the Central Limit Theorem; estimation and goodness-of-fit tests; and static and dynamic Monte Carlo simulation models. Spreadsheet simulation exercises are used extensively to illustrate the concepts. The applications are drawn from a variety of areas where risk analysis has become important including finance, insurance, corporate risk management and personal financial planning.

RMI 4005  Introduction to Risk Analytics and Applications

CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  RMI 3750
COREQUISITES  ECON 4950
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 3, 6, 7
DESCRIPTION  This class will cover three main themes wrapped around various applications in risk analytics. These themes are programming in software used in risk analytics (such as R, SAS, MATLAB, Stata), transparency and replication using principles of literate statistical programming, and risk communication. Students will have access to the various programming languages available on GSU’s Virtual Computing Lab servers and will be able to create a portfolio of problem solutions to demonstrate programming ability in statistical modeling software. In addition, there will be presentations and reports demonstrating students’ ability to communicate to technical and non-technical audiences.

RMI 4010  Life Insurance

CREDIT HOURS  3.0
PREREQUISITES  RMI 3500
REQUIREMENTS  Must meet RCB upper division course requirements and 45 semester hours, CSP 1, 6, 7
DESCRIPTION  This course covers the nature and importance of life and health risks and the functions and uses of individual life and health insurance in treating these risks. From both the individual and the business viewpoints, techniques for evaluating life insurance, health insurance, and annuities are covered, including a review of the legal aspects of these contracts. This course is suggested as an elective for all majors.

<td>Business is largely about transactions to sell goods or services to customers (including the government), to obtain goods and service from vendors and suppliers, to merge or divest the company, to enter into joint ventures, to form international agreements, etc. Transactions generate revenue for the firm. Transactions that turn out differently than expected can cost income. This course examines many types of contracts and scenarios where contracts are essential to the business deal and explores how these contracts should be written to comply with legal requirements. Students will evaluate contracts for legal aspects, completeness as to business objective, contingencies and risk assessment, using law, enterprise risk management frameworks and quantitative methods and analysis.</td>

<td>This course focuses on why large portions of the American economy are subject to government regulation (rather than private regulation) in order to address risks posed to individuals, firms, and society and to achieve particular public policy goals. Private regulations rely on agreements or litigation among private parties to change the behavior of individuals and firms. Congress and state legislatures create government agencies to address issues that they have concluded cannot or should not be addressed through private, regulations. These government agencies create, implement, and enforce government regulations. The course focuses on the risk management process by requiring students to identify risks in the legal context and assess those risks using analytic tools of law and economics.</td>

SW 4100  Social Work Methods I  3.0
Description: Social Work Methods I introduces the basic knowledge, values, and skills that comprise generalist social work. Emphasis is placed upon practice with individuals, families, small groups, organizations, and communities.

SW 4200  Social Work Methods II  3.0
Description: Continuation of SW 4100. In Social Work Methods II, students will become proficient at identifying multiple levels of intervention and targets for change to address a wide variety of social problems. An overview of specific theories of change, along with evaluation approaches and implied styles of intervention, are covered.

SW 4310  Group Facilitation  3.0
Description: This course is an introduction to social work with groups. The course will focus on skills in social work practice, uses and types of groups, and group composition. Students will become familiar with the scope and limitations of group uses. The use of groups for direct service purpose--enhancement of social functioning, achievement of unreached levels of social functioning, or correction of dysfunctional interpersonal or social relationships- will be analyzed.

SW 4320  Social Work Administration  3.0
Description: An introduction to theory and practice in the administration of social services. Emphasis is on the social worker's role and function as an administrator and on the evaluation of the problems of operation and maintenance in a social service agency.

SW 4330  Contemporary Health Challenges  3.0
Description: This course is designed to introduce students to chronic short and long term health concerns in our society. The course will address such illnesses as AIDS, hepatitis, tuberculosis, Alzheimers, sexually transmitted diseases (STD), and other health issues. The focus of the course will be upon treatment, identification and transmittal, with an examination of the impact of governmental regulations on drugs, the perception of patients, family members, and health care professionals.

SW 4340  Social Work and the Law  3.0
Description: An introduction to the law as it applies to social services and social work practice. Using case studies, students will examine problems that the poor, the disadvantaged, and all clients face in confronting the justice system. Attention is given to worker liability and those skills essential for testifying in court and advocating for client's legal rights.

SW 4350  Economics of Poverty and Public Policy  3.0
Description: Application of economic concepts to the study of poverty in the U.S. Topics include poverty and inequality, economics of the family, racial/gender implications, neighborhood effects, history of welfare structure and programs, and current issues in public policy related to poverty.

Appendix II Administration and Faculty

This chapter contains information on administration for the University System of Georgia, Board of Regents and Georgia State University. A list of all Georgia State University faculty is provided.

The University System of Georgia

The University System of Georgia includes all state-operated institutions of higher education in Georgia: four research universities, four comprehensive universities, nine state universities, and 12 state colleges. These 29 public institutions are located throughout the state.

A 19-member constitutional Board of Regents governs the University System, which has been in operation since 1931. Appointments of board members, five from the state-at-large and one from each of the state’s fourteen congressional districts, are made by the governor and are subject to confirmation by the State Senate. Regular terms of board members are seven years.

The chairperson, vice chairperson, and other officers of the Board of Regents are elected by the members of the board. The chancellor, who is not a member of the board, is the chief executive officer of the board and the chief administrative officer of the University System.

The overall programs and services of the University System are offered through three major components: instruction, public service and continuing education, and research.

Instruction consists of programs of study leading toward degrees, ranging from the associate (two-year) level to the doctoral level, and certificates.

Standards for admission of students to instructional programs at each institution are determined by the institution pursuant to policies of the Board of Regents. The board establishes minimum standards and leaves to each institution the prerogative to establish higher standards. Applications for admission should be addressed to the institutions.

Public service and continuing education consist of non-degree activities, primarily, and special types of college degree credit courses. The non-degree activities include short courses, seminars, conferences, and consultative and advisory services in many areas of interest. Typical college degree credit courses are those offered through extension center programs and teacher education consortia.

Research encompasses scholarly investigations conducted for discovery and application of knowledge. Most of the research is conducted through the universities; however, some of it is conducted through several of the senior colleges. The research investigations cover matters related to the educational objectives of the institutions and to general social needs.

The policies of the Board of Regents provide a high degree of autonomy for each institution. The executive head of each institution is the president, whose election is recommended by the chancellor and approved by the board.
